Professor

As I congratulate the graduating batch, I cannot but help remember their first day on campus - the excitement of living on their own, the joy of making new friends and the anxiousness of starting a new phase of their life. Time passes so quickly, and it is already a time to bid farewell now. You may go out of IIIT, but you cannot take out IIIT from you. I hope you will remain connected.

I wish you the best in pursuing your dreams and leaving a mark in the real world.

First day on campus :
Locked down in the hostel, never liked mess food since then, the only glimpse of the campus made me kinda excited but the delulu was soon gone... †

Favourite campus memory :
I have as many horrible/dark memories as I have happy ones, but so far my favorite memory is my birthday celebration after our 1st time on campus (during the lockdown, after quarantine, in 2nd year), it was celebrated by all the girls present then in the hostel at midnight, sweetest

One thing you will miss the most :
being able to binge-watch anime for more than 3 days without any interference or judgment... late-night talks and walks with any of my friends... the list is, idk, how long... but the one thing I will not miss about campus is mess food

Best thing you learned from here :
I've improved my communication skills so much throughout this BTech journey and about the rest, idk... ,

Favourite place in campus :
the road along jc to t-hub (not the guest house one), but after the renovation started Infinity Road, but other than these places I liked my room the best on campus

Biggest Change since your first year :
tbh, there aren't any drastic changes that have occurred, it's just my personality being amplified all around, dunno if this is good or bad or greyish

Hey Roomieeee!! I love all the hours we spent talking about cuties(Tsuki is life) XD. You're the first person I've ever gotten this close to, and I'm so thankful for that. Seriously, you're the best roomie I could ever ask for! Remember those days spent watching YouTube videos together, especially the Korean people eating? That was my absolute favorite! Love you tons! - Garapati Sreya

"Deepsss you cutieeee. I love how competitive you get at board games. It's adorable how you get excited about the randomest things. Stop watching anime and come hang out with me more. PS you rock a saree babe ;) - Sankeerthana Venugopal

Meri first NESS doubt solver turned dost! Full on gossip plus rr friend. Can talk about any cutie on campus or maybe outside! Apni bhand campus rides forever <3 - Anjali Singh

Hi cutie, how's it going? Wanna drop skincare routine? Also in all seriousness, eat real food ;-; Take me around on your future vespa Ok ly <3 rip chipkalis - Sreenya Chitluri

Hi Deeps, although you never come out of your room unless you are dragged out, you were always there and supportive when I needed it. Love it when you're very much gone but pls let's both promise to stop with the dying. Very proud of your Telugu btw :) And nuvvu kuda ikkade untav, so we'll see each other very often. Miss you cutie <3 - Arshini Govindu

lmao yaad nhi hai kya woh magnet levitation wala project, and yes magnet levitate hua tha xd - Atharv Sujlegaonkar

hariharan.k@research.iiit.ac.in hari._.iiii

First day on campus :
I came to the campus with an Insta caption ready, something along the lines of "From Beaches to Biryani". Had my trekking shoes ready to get a full campus tour. Was fully excited to meet all the faces I've seen for more than a year online in real life, and they put me straight into quarantine :')

Favourite campus memory :
From walking around the campus, or sitting at a random bench or on top of a building, to watching the sunrise from the football ground and sunsets at FG, it's extremely hard to pinpoint to a favorite memory of mine. Daily wheelchair rides to JC with my boys does stand out though <3

One thing you will miss the most :
Never again am I going to have around 300 amazing souls right in my vicinity, who're just a knock or a phone call away. Bumping into so many familiar faces a day and exchanging smiles made this place a happy place for me and there is nothing more I'm going to miss.

Best thing you learned from here :
I learnt how it's perfectly reasonable to aim for whatever you want in life, try to become whoever you wish to be, but also to let go of things when they (sometimes) don't pan out your way :)

Favourite place in campus :
Parijat.

Biggest Change since your first year :
JC lejaane waale dost, najaane kab uncles lejaane lage :')

With both the saddest and happiest news, I run to you, and you do so much justice to both. One of the most wholesome and funny souls - the maturity you bring in with the goofiness is the perfect combo, it has helped me deal with a lot of shit in life, and there isn't a day I would not want to have it around me. I feel lucky to have you as a friend, and I would say your are a blessing for everyone who does. I have grown up so much in the past year, and I give one of the major parts of the credit to you for that. Thank you so much for everything. Stick around and keep collecting brownie points for being the godfather. To many more stand-ups on trauma, "working" together, and random ass outings! Can I please call you my best friend xD? Most eligible Bachelor fr istg, DM for rishtas. - Gokul Praneetha

You've become iconic in the batch for a plethora of reasons, being "old", breaking a leg (and no I don't mean your dance moves), or the infamous FHC debacle. However, no matter how many jokes were cracked on you, you'd never mind even if you've heard the same joke on you for the 325th time. You a very sweet guy who cares a lot for people but at the same time can make really dark jokes about the situation too (hope you can control this when you're working at a job :p). I'll miss bumping into you like 10 times a day somehow, hopefully we reach that frequency again sometime in the future. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

One who can talk nonstop, our social butterfly, and the best entertainer you can ask for! Love how you make everyone comfortable in a convo, and how humble and down-to-earth you are. I'm gonna miss our random gossip wali gedis around the campus, workspace mein timepass karna and ananathagiri mein randomly ped pe chadna & badminton khelna XD. Although we met very late into college life, every moment I spent with him was full of fun and laughter, hope we get more of those moments in the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

"hello bhai hari, you might not know how much fun I have whenever youre around. I love that artistic and innovative vibe that you carry with you, bohot accha lagta hai tere saath tere songs pe vibe karna. Itne acche acche conversations kiye hai humne, bohot maza aaya tha uss din jab hum wow momos gye the, you are truly an inspiration, kyuki I saw you coming back for the intern drive and woh bhi sabke saath poora vibe me cp karna, sabko motivate karna, and apne injury se comeback karna, I believe you can do anything in life. Kya din the bhai woh jab tu humare saath rehta tha E317 me, kab grow kar gye usse pata hi nahi chala, accha khasa saamne room me rehta tha. Love discussing everything with you, bohot heartfelt and authen-

Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Hiee Hari! You are such a sweet, warm and sunshine person <3. Our chd lab hangouts and conversations on the randomest topics while we met each other on the way are cherished memories. Your presence lights up the room. Keep smiling like you make others smile <3. Wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

From dealing with intolerable jokes to still dealing with the same intolerable jokes four years later, nothing has changed<3 Worst person to give dating advice to :p Thanks for always showing up no matter what time. Gonna miss the 3-hour-long walks around campus in which 3/4th of the time is spent socializing with everyone you bump into. Kam procrastinate karle ab, I won't be physically there to irritate you into getting work done hehe :3 - Srujana Vanka

Hello my dear Limerent😂. Alag hi item hai bhai tu, itne logo se mila hu mai but tujh jaisa bhagwaan ne ek hi piece banaya. Har cheez ko majaak me lena and jokes banana is your best and worst quality😂 Sudhar ja bsdk ab toh! But kaafi sahi maja ata hai tere sath(jab tere jokes land krjaye xD). Kaafi fun and outgoing banda hai tu, never had a problem with sharing anything with you or getting hot goss from you hehe. Had the best summers of my life with you! Either be CSO or Intern wala summer, you were a constant and surprising missing you a lottttt right now! Jaldi aja bhai next do teen summer bhi sath guzarenge and will have lots of sitcom, relationshit and randirone sessions with you💪 - Siddharth Jain

Hello posterboi, EOS for me had few of the best moments of my life, hottest bumble tips, and sabse comforting songs. Jab tera ACL tha, tab life ka best walk kar liya, jab nhi that, tab life ka best friend bana liya. Itna caring aur cute insaan he tu, sabke liye time he tere paas, bas khud ke liye nhi he. Tune jitna sab ke liye kara he uske baad to, life will pakka reward you with something very special, and pretty sure you deserve things even more special. Sabse jyada testimonial pakka tere hi honge, itna social and outgoing insaan. Was very lucky to have a roommate like you, mujhe itna samjhaya, itne jhagde roke, mera gussa bhi itne baar lite lita, owe you a lot, bad bhai ,not just by age :). Kafi fucked up scenarios me bhi survive kar liya tune, and still itna kuch achieve kara he, andha bet that you can achieve anything you want. Wapas see cap and glasses pehen ke mess jaenge, and hotties pataenge cutie. - Atharva Joshi

"Imagine a match made in literary heaven: a wise old owl and a witty parrot. Their offspring would surely be a prodigy of both knowledge and wit and the leader of wise extroverts, but if they ever decided to adopt, Hari would be the perfect choice! But in all seriousness, Hari is the dude you get comfortable with in O(1), you click like old friends, no need for the ""hellos"" and ""how are yous."" - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Sabse bada randi aadmi hai. Tere saath walk pe nikalna is like ki main 10 logo ke saath ja raha hu. Kabhi bhi kamre mein aake so jata hai aur apni saari cheeze chod jata hai. Cp aur valo to lite chess mein bhi haar gaya tch tch. But undoubtedly best Shawarma buddy for those 4 am cravings. - Kushagra Kharbanda

Funniest 24 year old campus in my honest opinion. Best fhc coord (end with a bang). One of the first people I ever met in college, and you very approachable and it was always very comfortable to talk to you. You were always there for me on my bad days and I'll remember that. I will always stay in touch because tumhare jaise dost hone chahiye. Money trees. - Prerak Srivastava

The best honorary Mallu (there, I said it). The first one to get my jokes. Learn sax fast we gotta do careless whisper in some cafe. FHC might have gotten cancelled but your joke of a life (and jokes, otherwise) will always have a place in my heart :) - Abhijith A

Where do I start? Self sabotage king, valorant addict (how are you so bad after playing that much???) and I don't know how he is going to survive a week in corporate without getting cancelled. Really bonded in UG4, going to miss hanging out with you in lab and everywhere else. Probably the primary reason I was forced to go and see some places in Hyderabad. Were definitely a part of some of my favorite memories, the rock hanging thing, karachi bakery trips, ISB road walk, Roast? blah blah. Very helpful and kind person. Also very delusional and thinks he's funny, white, north indian and has rizz but oh well, copium is a hard drug to beat :/ - A Kishore Kumar

Mr. Popular!!! Jab bhi tere saath campus pe walk kar rhe ho toh at least 10 baar toh rukna padhta hai kyuki yeh jo insaan guzarta hai uske saath ek dum deep conversation karne lag jaata hai. Mera tennis guru and role model jisko dekh ke mujhe pata hai kya nahi karna chahiye 🙏 - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Bhai, bohot memories hai tere saath. Tujhse humesha kuch bhi baat kar sakte. Khajagudha Hills ke din bohot maaze kiya the, probably pehle college adventure hoga. Tujhe jitna uncle bante dekha utna hi ulti karte dekha waha hai.....All hearts!! We miss you..... - Saurav Chhatani

Chad, sigma, Top G & Us 📢 📢 📢 📢 📢 📢 📢, hari and my interactions described in 4 words. - Devesh Marwah

One of the funniest dude i know, conversations with you never feel too awkward. Still remember the tournament in Valorant we played, you didnt get to play Reyna xd. We gotta get the team back. Good FHC is no more don't know what they would have done after you left. - Shavak Kansal

I really wanted to say this but never got a chance to.. I really adore your skills in music and it gives me a very good vibes, I enjoy listening to it.. Altough i have joked about it but yeah the republic day will always be memorable because of your music and our walk , our summer Vacations and just aise hi kuch bhi mazak karna.. I will always cherish those moments.. last but not least i really like teasing you a lot!! hehe .. Will text you immediately whenever i need a change of mood because of your sense of humour and you listen to all my nonsense. Lets make many good memories together in 5th year :) - Syed Imami

My fellow dark humour enthusiast !!! Had some real fun times with you and cracking some very unhinged jokes (P.S really hope no one sees those). Will always be our batches Komedi king and FHC leader <3 . Stay in touch oldie :P aur demantia aane p bhi bhulna mat - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Resisting the temptation to put in bad jokes about hair, homelessness and functional legs here - we both know you're better at them :P I'm sure everyone's already said this - but you've always made for amazing company, both in short flyaway convos while passing by and the longer ones. It's incredible how you can manage to laugh off nearly everything, not letting the stress of it show at all - that's one lesson I'm taking home (If I have one?) from you for sure. I also seriously admire your passion towards all the stuff you care about. Please don't leave this college too, it's so much better with you in it! xD - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Hari is the ideal South Indian -- who has managed to leave everything behind and move to Delhi. Much like himself, his humor is dark AF. I still remember how we became good friends by making jokes about dying people, women, and religion. Har baar jabh yeh stage pe hagta tha toh mereko crowd control karna padta tha. Hari, you were always a shitty FHC coord, tu club ban kara diya. You also don't know how to cycle, professional cyclists tereko gaali deke gaye thei flyover pe -- dhakka dena chahiye tha. But you've been a good friend, and apne rant sessions have always been nice. Hopfeully tu graduate hojaye toh we can chill in BLR and leave this shitty college behind. - Priyanshul Govil harii unclee, tere saath baat karne mein humesha maaza aata h. #US moment. Love it how you are so friendly with everyone and make sure everyone has fan. Forever #FHC.

Looking forwards for some crazy nights :heart: - Knv Karthikeya

You are genuinely one of the funniest, nicest and a comfort person I have met in the college. I still remember the first couple dance that I did with you and died -_- (one of the core memories of you XD). Thanks for being there when life was shit and making it better. You are strong bish and jaldi shadi karle pls naachna h. - Smruti Biswal

Hari Sir!!! you're one of the funniest and most wholesome people in our batch! We've had discussions ranging from the most random topics to extremely thoughtful ones, and I will always remember you as one of the few people from whom I've learnt so much. ALSOOO BRUH U LITERALLY(metaphorically ofc :P) GAVE ME A US VISA, THANKS for that. All the best!! - Gaurav Singh

Well well well, if it isn't the fake mallu :P. Amazing dude, so fortunate to have him as a neighbour during our e4 days (apart from that one day you burst into my room playing sax and woke me up. I'll never forgive yall for that one). Man isn't the face of FHC for nothing (apart from being cancelled💀), very charismatic and easy to talk to guy - you can literally talk to the guy about nothing for hours. The summer vacation was even more joblessness bhai, all those CF contests and nobody else in the corridor - but hey like you said it worked out well. But mf how have we been in blr for 2 weeks but not met, wtf are you doing there ?? This yearbook would be published but would we even have met by then ??? PS: the scissors were a method to keep you outside honorary malluhood :P - Amal Sunny

Hari is the guy you can be the most comfortable around. A small chat with him and you forget about all your troubles of the day. The very first day on campus and this guy asks me "Aur Khaalistaan ka kya scene chal Raha hai? ". Hari, you'll always be a part of my IIIT Journey. Stay in touch <3. - Anurag Gupta

When dinner bish? You're one of the only ppl who have been more broken than me🧑‍🎤 When are you enrolling in a new uni again uncle!? Jokes apart, you're stupid, funny, really dramatic and hanging out with you has been fun (atleast till before campus xD)! Wapis mat tutna!! - Shivangi Agarwal

Ist yr valo grinds🔥🔥🔥 - Anubhav Pal

Hariharan Kalimuthu [noun]: This homo sapien, born in 2000, is an excellent example of a species that is very energetic for his old age. He is a fun person to be around, and you'll often find him in the wild, making "jokes" and lightening people's moods. Though wild Hari may seem ridiculously simple by nature, close introspection reveals that they're much more. {Insert wheelchair joke} – Sudha Tanay Doddi helloo, time for us to find blr chicks and show up drunk to office yay <3 - Sreenya Chitluri

Thanks for making me viral on social media in the first week of college itself. And randomly discussing and dissing CHD stuff with you is something I'll cherish and I hope our chats never come out. Otherwise, we know what'll happen. - Aaryan Sharma loved being the old people of the batch with you. must scissor whenever and wherever we meet 👀 maybe I'll be better at AoE2 by then ¯_()_/¯ - George Paul

You have the power to make the conversation easier and effortless, no matter how little interaction. Never loose the crazy confidence that makes you say stupid things on stage. Also, congratulations, corporate waalo pe same jokes repeat kar sakta hein. - Eshika Khandelwal

FHC ka King!! .Cutie Patayega tu Ashirvaad Hai mera. - Dhruv Hirpara

First friend of IIIT, always been the most cheerful and fun guy to hang around with. Actually cracks funny jokes most of the time so deserved to be the fhc coord(although that went down)🧐. Keep going at it, making even the sad parts of life very fun for you and everyone else around you :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Hari tu 2 saal bada h by age but mentally tu 5 saal chota h compared to us....One of the funniest (offense mat lena xd) and energetic people I've met. - Jewel Benny

Funniest person of our batch and that was surprising because I thought CHD would be the real joke. Easy to vibe with, you're like the best senior I know 😌Stay the same cutie 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Abhi bhi time hai tere paas college change kar le. Tere se zyada excited banda nahi dekha hai meine. Sabse buddha hai batch mein mein but tera enthusiasm sabse jyada. Your push for kayaking lead to one of the peakest memories of my life. Sab ko har cheez mein include karne ka try to karta hi hai tu. But kuch bhi karo tere saath backchodi rukti nahi hai. Thoda ADHD hai tu but dosti se attention kabhi nahi hat ti. Itni baar apne chasme aur ids kho chuka hoga tu tujhe bhi yaad nahi hoga Racism to bhagwaan ne bhar bhar ke diya hai tujhe. Thoda bohot use bhi kho dega to sahi rahega. Pair ka thoda dhyaan rakh aur ek female hari bhi hogi hi tere liye to thoda chill. - Shreyas Revankar

My first true friend and my only uncle in college, you have been my go-to gaming buddy. I have looked forward to your stand-up sets (as problematic as they may be), and hope that you always stay the same. Also, dinner when? - Jatin Agarwala

"Fr first friends in campus. Good times we had in online sem, the random bitching sessions we had with seniors, us playing scribble and among us. Good times. Even on campus, I remember that one day we went to see the sunrise on KCIS roof. Shame you were soooo close to being honorary mallu ://, but you always somehow fucked that up. (I never proclaimed anything) ✂️✂️✂️✂️✂️ - Adith John Rajeev

Sab isko uncle bolte hai but dil se sabse baccha yahi hai. Choti choti baaton par bura maan jaata hai. From random hang out sessions to bitching about everyone on campus - you have never failed me. If there was a person for - "bad situations, worse actions" - it would be him. Also, logon ko tere racist jokes pasand nahi honge but mein toh hamesha hasta hun :P. Also research karle thodii plsss - Tanmay Goyal will miss listening to your perfect, steady-going love life and your terrible lame jokes :) keep taking free therapy sessions from me, you need it xDpppppppp Thank you for always being a friend I can depend on and making me laugh. You put a lot of efforts in keeping friendships going and that is the most exceptional quality of you. Stay the same, stay autistic <3 - Shreeya Singh

Bhai the greatest giga chad in the history of the chads. But honestly, one of the realest and sweetest guy in the college. FHC does not deserve u because you are way too funny for them. keep acing bro. - Pradhuman Tiwari yo hari (ek banda jo sabka dost hai) u r such a sweety or hamara toh bits bhi common hai and i will never forget anantgiri and goa trips with u bahut maza aaya milte hai jaldi #rk - Prasoon Garg

bohot hi real banda hai tu. tu kaafi worry karta hai kuch cheezo ke baare mei; karni bhi chahiye but dont overthink it. zindagi mast jeena. finally college se intended way mei nikal rha hai. yeh faltu joke toh iss occasion mei banta hai XD really felt safe talking about some stuff with you. it felt good to share my insecurites with ya. i appreciate you more than i am able to show from my day to day but voh toh mera skill issue hai thoda. anyway thanks bhai... – Mihir Rawat

Hii Harii Thanks for FHCing around all the time. Will always love to roast you bcz you give the same energy back. Amazing how you are always cheerful and keep spreading positivity (psstt.. if thats just your defence mechanism..here to listen and rant along anytime) Jo bhi me bol rhi hu sach sach bolungi, jaa rahe ho dur magar touch me rahungi 😂 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Dude do be kinda cool, can't sing, can't game, can't rizz up baddies BUT does make some laughable jokes ngl. Also allegedly plays the sax Stay safe and stay happy fam <3 - Aditya Nair

Your attempts at humours will always be hilarious. - Shashwat Singh

Man just knows everyone on campus. From Valo to RK, too many memories with you! What if you had a girlfriend in college, I guess we will never know. - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Hi Social Butterfly! Likhna zaruri hai kya tere liye bhi testimonial? tjhe to bhar bhar ke aaye honge pta nhi padhega ya nhi mera. Though we spent v lil time together, it was so much fun hanging out with you. Will miss all those times jab tu chapar chapar krta hai and koi nhi sunta and mjhe bolna padta hai koi nhi sun rha. Teri tarah social ban na seekhna hai. Gonna miss you. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

You have been the most important part of my college life, man. How we got by the online terms and your fun antics and jokes during the meets still feels surreal. I really enjoyed being your roommate and have learnt so much from you. It makes me really happy when you drop by my room occasionally, and we catch up on our lives and spicy college drama xD. I love you and wish you the very best ahead. - Harshit Gupta

My fellow ACL buddy. Helped me a lot with the whole recovery process. You gave me some insane core memories in college that I'll never forget (from overtake overtake at 5 am in the morning to the daily ocean drinking sessions). Also one of the funniest people on campus. Will miss you after graduating (assuming both of us actually do graduate). - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Congratsss on making past that 2 year mark in this college, thought you'll be long gone by then,but but abhi late nahi hua, abhi bhi mauka hai to switch colleges before you finally graduate. I remember, how we started talking even ... that random DLF visit 4am in the morning, would be one of the my favorite college memories. Han jokes thode lame hote the tere, but somehow we managed to remain friends, please please get some work done on your jokes to avoid getting beaten in public ... Research thodi kam kia kr (iykyk), stay the same :)) - Karmanjyot Singh

Almost like a twin, but the more popular one. Man copied me starting from CHD, Clubs Council, being Tamil, carnatic music, tennis... (except FHC) I've spent sooo much time with you in college, jamming and prepping for music events, CC work, and just loafing around together. Hari can lighten the mood literally anywhere he goes! The closeness with which he talks to me is very comforting and I will always cherish it. Randomly appearing at my room, banging the door open and walking in with chappal (which no one else is permitted), making impromptu plans, mulberry malai, CC treats, tennis and cycling, I'll cherish all of this. Love you! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

First day on campus :
I went on an unplanned 'adventure' €" quarantined in my room, due to COVID policies. But hey, I learned how to use Indian-style toilets at least :D

Favourite campus memory :
T-shirt signing day made me reflect on how much we've all grown over these college years.

One thing you will miss the most :
Waiting in long lines for biriyani with the bois.

Best thing you learned from here :
It is better to be a warrior in a garden than a gardener in a war.

Favourite place in campus :
The Gym.

Biggest Change since your first year :
My muscle mass has increased, but my brain power has decreased.

Broo! You are the most sorted person I've met; got huge 'fun uncle' energy. I'll cherish our random conversations, hoping for many more in the future. Lets have a few more leg days together :) - Amey Kunte

Hello Harshit, bhai you are the most responsible person that I know, I was always so confident whenever you were with me, knowing that harshit daddy sambhaal lenge agar kuch bhi hua. Bhai you are the genuinely the most honest, kind and loving person I know. Always looked up to you for anything. Miss those days when your room was just in front of mine, kabhi bhi chala aata tha mai, poochne ki DASS me kitna kaam hua. Bhai you are so empowering and make everyone around you so confident, Love u brdr. Milte rehna hamesha Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Pita ji!!!! My dear Harshit you've been the best most responsible and caring Dad of the group, and it really shows how much you love children (i.e. us, your children. Definitely no jokes to be made there.) and bhai, how do you always note the exact amount of food I eat T-T. We've also weathered some tough courses together to great success, so cheers to that! But most importantly, I will always remember the sweet ways, big and little, that you have always been ready to help. A yess we haven't gone out together enough (yet!!), so let's fix that soon! You're a source of inspiration in many ways, and a dear friend that I'll never forget the times shared with! - Pratyaksh Gautam The too old to play so I'm the motivating sideline coach guy in the team but still got those moves and can come in clutch in games :) Typing this with extremely long nails atm. Perhaps we'll go pokemon hunting at 3am and try not to get mugged in Bengaluru too :D - A Kishore Kumar

Will definitely miss having you around and best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

The wise old daddy Gupta!! One of the only guys I spoke to online and am really glad our friendship only grew in campus. You are the guy who everyone turns to whenever they advice or help in anything and there's a reason for that (not your age xD). One of the kindest and most caring people I have met in college, stay the same brother. Playing football with you was always fun and crazy how we won interbatch this last sem. Mainly because of both of us lol. I will not miss you because we're definitely gonna keep meeting and stay in touch. I love you brother. Thank you for everything and good luck!!! Do something about that hairline lmaoo. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

I felt veryy left out when I joined Apex. Then only communication even if I have no knowledge is from you and nikhil. I loved being an Apex member because you guys even supported me if I'm not making out. Some random talks on campus where ever we meet will be as large as that we cover all the campus issues lol. Gotta miss all those fun. Love you mowa❤️ - Vuddagiri Neeladri Murali Sumanth

We only started talking in 4th year but from what I could gather, you seem to be a very mature person not just because of age(sorry) but also maybe because of your experiences. I wish we could have met sooner since I feel like there is a lot I could have learnt from you. Lastly, south mess would not have been the same without your wise remarks. Wish you all the best for the future and hope you have a successful future. - Aakash Terala

Yes, I would really kill you if I didn't get CLD! It has been great knowing you, from CHD to CLD, from online to offline :) - Eshika Khandelwal

"We started talking in the first semester itself and from the beginning only I felt that you are little confused. So, it was very fun pranking you lol. When we started hanging out more often in college, I found a very caring and dependable person in you. You were always ready to help someone out and I really liked that of you. I really find it amusing how every semester you keep crying about your course load but then when choosing the next semester courses, you again choose the heaviest. You are one of the busiest people I know. Always doing some or the other work and project. I will keep fond memories of us playing football together and you running from one end of the ground to the other just because you came here to do cardio. It was fun having you in IRE project where I was amazed to see how you were taking initiative and doing the work way earlier than I was expecting. Hope, we'll be able to work or live close together so we can keep making more such memories. All the best for your future. - Shubh Agarwal

Literally the first familiar face I saw when I entered campus. Insanely motivated, caring and smiley, (and lil bald hehe) person I am glad to have had around in my IIIT days. Growing up a little and looking back at E324 days make me realize how much you always made sense man <3 - Hariharan Kalimuthu

One of the most mature people I have met in college. The daddy of the batch. One of the best people to approach for some advice be it for gym related stuff, assignments or life in general. You have taught me some stuff that I will remember throughout my life. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Extremely cute and sweet guy, got to know you properly when we became neighbours in 4th year, I always used to wonder why everyone calls you daddy but then I got it xD, Nice physique, inspires me to go to gym everyday (but i hardly go twice a week lmao), if there is an emergency situation then I will keep calm and inform you (coz they always say keep calm and inform someone older) and i think you are the oldest in our batch, feels like a fatherly presence when you are there, anyways jokes apart, cute, white, short & built (thats how I would describe you in 4 words pls dont take offence lmao) and wish you all the best in all your future endeavors. – Ayush Agrawal

Dearest DILF, U have been very helpful to me. Very reassuring presence in our batch. Whenever I want milk, my thoughts always turn towards you. Will miss your innocent and gullible energy. - Joel Thyparampil Alex"

:insert_highly_inappropriate_instagram_reel: iREL se shuru hua yeh brotherhood. (BHAI WOH iREL KE DINNERS). Inn se mitrata bahut dheere dheere badi, i guess hum dono ne hi ek dusre ko parkha aur jaana aur phir dosti badi aur kahin na kahin bhaichaare mein badli (maybe wo transition abhi poora hona baaki hai but no worries room tere side me hi le liya hein toh chill scene) He is probably the only person on campus, who can give me some competition at food eating competitions (but Id win always duh). kahin na kahin un biryani ke nivalon mein, baatein dhund li, aur unn baaton mein ek dost dhund liya. Level headed, calm, but aggresive and brave when he needs to be. a guy jiska rizz potential kaafi high hai (thoda kam zesty ho ghode) Apne aap par yakeen rakha kar. Mehnti hain, usse badi aur kya hi cheez chahiye iss capitalistic world mein. Baaki ameeri toh baaju mein hi hein. I have always wanted a big brother and then I found you <3 You abuse me a lot and annoy the hell out of me -_- But the way you have always been there for me whenever and help me pick up my shit is something I'll miss after I graduate. But dont u worry, I will still keep annoying you even after I graduate forever. I hope u get fit like me one day :thumbsup: Dont push yourself too hard dumbass <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

bhai mad respect for how much you've put up with in the last four years. i hope someday to have your level of patience and tolerance and I hope you get to have much much more fun and give yourself a break sometimes in the future. looking forward to many more great times before graduating in 2030 <3 - Abhinav S Menon

Between 'father' and 'daddy' the residents of OBH found Harshit. At the end of all tom-foolery there is always Harshit looking at you disappointed for you had the potential to be a better person. - Shashwat Singh

You may not be my older brother by blood, but you're probably the best older brother figure anybody can have in this batch. I enjoyed the company you gave to the boys and me during lunchtime, and you're a real one for using Medimix soap. You aren't afraid to voice your opinions, which is admirable. You're old enough that I can safely call your advice "wisdom". Best ex-manipal IIITH UG2020 student by a long shot. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Daddy! Your initiative to take up responsibility and care for you children is what makes us feel safe and loved! Thank you for the wonderful memories we made as E9ers. Be it organising DebSoc events or hanging out at dinners, I will chersih the conversations we had about cricket, life and campus. Love you - XOXO - Anirudh Govil

literally the older brother i never had. or group daddy also works. you are insane gym motivation and your work ethic is so tight. i still the ug3 summer vacation, burger wurger and sting and politics. if there was anyone on campus i would trust to take care of something or itd definitely be you. thank you for being a part of rationality in my college life, im not going to forget you brdr - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

Literally the first familiar face I saw when I entered campus. Insanely motivated, caring and smiley, (and lil bald hehe) person I am glad to have had around in my IIIT days. Growing up a little and looking back at E324 days make me realize how much you always made sense man <3 - Hariharan Kalimuthu

One of the most mature people I have met in college. The daddy of the batch. One of the best people to approach for some advice be it for gym related stuff, assignments or life in general. You have taught me some stuff that I will remember throughout my life. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Extremely cute and sweet guy, got to know you properly when we became neighbours in 4th year, I always used to wonder why everyone calls you daddy but then I got it xD, Nice physique, inspires me to go to gym everyday (but i hardly go twice a week lmao), if there is an emergency situation then I will keep calm and inform you (coz they always say keep calm and inform someone older) and i think you are the oldest in our batch, feels like a fatherly presence when you are there, anyways jokes apart, cute, white, short & built (thats how I would describe you in 4 words pls dont take offence lmao) and wish you all the best in all your future endeavors. - Ayush Agrawal

Dearest DILF, U have been very helpful to me. Very reassuring presence in our batch. Whenever I want milk, my thoughts always turn towards you. Will miss your innocent and gullible energy. - Joel Thyparampil Alex :insert_highly_inappropriate_instagram_reel: iREL se shuru hua yeh brotherhood. (BHAI WOH iREL KE DINNERS). Inn se mitrata bahut dheere dheere badi, i guess hum dono ne hi ek dusre ko parkha aur jaana aur phir dosti badi aur kahin na kahin bhaichaare mein badli (maybe wo transition abhi poora hona baaki hai but no worries room tere side me hi le liya hein toh chill scene) He is probably the only person on campus, who can give me some competition at food eating competitions (but Id win always duh). kahin na kahin un biryani ke nivalon mein, baatein dhund li, aur unn baaton mein ek dost dhund liya. Level headed, calm, but aggresive and brave when he needs to be. a guy jiska rizz potential kaafi high hai (thoda kam zesty ho ghode) Apne aap par yakeen rakha kar. Mehnti hain, usse badi aur kya hi cheez chahiye iss capitalistic world mein. Baaki ameeri toh baaju mein hi hein. (Meri ameer dost fasane ki tactic kaam kar rhi hai lmao: Bangalore mein dost ka flat == mera flat) call karliya kar jb mn kre :D - Manav Chaudhary

I have always wanted a big brother and then I found you <3 You abuse me a lot and annoy the hell out of me -_- But the way you have always been there for me whenever and help me pick up my shit is something I'll miss after I graduate. But dont u worry, I will still keep annoying you even after I graduate forever. I hope u get fit like me one day :thumbsup:

Dont push yourself too hard dumbass <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

bhai mad respect for how much you've put up with in the last four years. i hope someday to have your level of patience and tolerance and I hope you get to have much much more fun and give yourself a break sometimes in the future. looking forward to many more great times before graduating in 2030 <3 - Abhinav S Menon

Between 'father' and 'daddy' the residents *of OBH found Harshit. At the end of all tom-foolery there is always Harshit looking at you disappointed for you had the potential to be a better person. - Shashwat Singh

*You may not be my older brother by blood, but you're probably the best older brother figure anybody can have in this batch. I enjoyed the company you gave to the boys and me during lunchtime, and you're a real one for using Medimix soap. You aren't afraid to voice your opinions, which is admirable. You're old enough that I can safely call your advice "wisdom". Best ex-manipal IIITH UG2020 student by a long shot. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

*Daddy! Your initiative to take up responsibility and care for you children is what makes us feel safe and loved! Thank you for the wonderful memories we made as E9ers. Be it organising DebSoc events or hanging out at dinners, I will chersih the conversations we had about cricket, life and campus. Love you - XOXO - Anirudh Govil

First day on campus :
Excited, was locked in the room cuz of covid protocols but was eagerly and desperately waiting to get over with those days and finally and finally get to meet people!

Favourite campus memory :
My jc meetups with the group at S with Dammam bhaiya's coffee and chai!

One thing you will miss the most :
Dammam bhaiya ki coffee! But more importantly, my entire fucking group, including all the cvit people!!

Best thing you learned from here :
Maybe learnt some things from acads but college has made me culturally enriched and the best thing and learnings lied in the relationships I built with my people here, to take care of each other, to help out and take help when needed, and to give out immensely!

Favourite place in campus :
T-hub ki chhat, dsac balcony, yuktahar k upar ka chhat and every other terrace I've gotten a chance to go to!

Biggest Change since your first year :
I came here with absolutely nothing, maybe just a few basic college expectations but taking away the best memories with the best people who found me! And maybe, especially after this place, it feels like I can tackle with anything if I can survive this xD.

"your testimonial is gonna make me cry Anjali you were one of the first people I met on campus and instantly felt a connection to. We had our fair share of outings (who am I kidding I wanted to go out more :cry-emoji:). Probably the coolest female of our batch (trust me it is one genuine flex). I still remember jab hum log khajaguda hills gaye the, woh bhi paidal XD that nite was so much fun. did one of us have the banofee sundae? I had it recently and could feel a breeze of nostalgia :think: to all third person readers: Inki ek bohot hi underrated quality pata hai kya hai? inki smile. lights up the whole room. all i wanna say is, keep smiling, it makes a lot of people happy (including me). I have the highest level of admiration for this woman, and I am pretty certain we WILL hangout more. pata nhi inhone sayonara jaisa testimonial kyun likha hai :cry_emoji_once_again: YOU HAVE MY NUMBER. Call/text karlo, and Ill be there. kabhi ice cream khaane ka mann kare toh you know your partner in crime XD - Manav Chaudhary

Although we didn't interact as much as I would have liked during our college years, I really enjoyed the time spent with one of my favourite vloggers! I hope we can still keep in touch, and I wish you the best for your future. You have the talent to go very far, just remember to stay consistent with your art :) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Anjali, you are such a beautiful person! I absolutely love your energy. You have the cutest smile in the world, and you're genuinely the sweetest person I've ever met. - Sankeerthana Venugopal

Anjali is a kind person, a great photographer, and an artist. From our first meeting during the kite flying festival on Sankranthi, it was wonderful to get to know her. All the best for your future endeavors! - Lokesh V

hiii cutie, you're such a fun person who makes everything so lively. i had so much fun with you whenever we danced for diff occasions. keep smiling and have a lot of funnn <3 - Sreenya Chitluri

Thank you for being such a good friend and always being there. I wish nothing but the very best for your future! - Gogate Atharva Sunil

haye, will always be one of the closest friends to my heart, best thing is that you are coming back to hyd. time spent with you was always a fun time, offline, online, off campus, on campus. rr and gossip bahut kiya apan ne, some of the funniest times ever spent with you. cuties aur crushes ke baare mei keep me updated, full on support tujhe, pakka promise, lysm 🥰 - Deepthi Chandak

You r the best thing that happened to me in IIIT and yk it. You accepted me like my queerness was a non thing. I think im yet to meet a person whos as kind as u rto everyone. Shikhar said u r so strong when u gave everyl the cards and it couldnt be truer. Ur probably the strongest of us all and your ingenuity is something we can only aspire to emulate. u make me a better person all the time. U hv taught me both regulation n free spiritedness. Your bful energy is smth even people who you dont care abt/care abt you cant help but notice and be soothed by. With all my heart I wish you reach the heights higher than anyone n all yr dreams come true. N more than that i wish i can stand with you through thick n thin always, like you hv stood by me, without me ever asking these 3 years. Id think twice b4 undoing this clg if i could, only n only because of you. Now manifesting non-assholes, unlike me n every other useless mfr that caused u a heartbreak, in yr life. Reiki seekhke will send loads of sexiness yr way ;). - Pratham Gupta

Before coming to campus, I some how didn't know her, but now that I do, I can say that I've been missing out on the first two years of college. She's an extrovert, which is a perfect complement to my introvert mentality, and her enthusiasm and happiness about the most mundane things brings a smile to my face. She's always a positive person to be around, and I wish more people saw that. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

You're one of my oldest and best friends in my entire college life. I'm truly glad ki you're one of the few people I managed to make friends with in online because even one less sem without you as my friend would have been a waste. One of the absolute best and friendliest people I know for sure! Also Leon se literally hamesha milane ke liye main logon ko extremely excited hota. If you're ever in Rajasthan, let's fucking make it happen for real. And I'm glad ki we're both placed in Hyderabad. We haven't gotten drunk together yet so let's make that happen asap too. - Aryan Singhal

One of the sweetest persons I know. I don't think I've ever seen you without a smile on your face:) Stay the same <3 - Arshini Govindu

Hey Anjali! Hanging out with you is the best. All the moments with you have been an absolute blast. Your positive energy is seriously contagious. Can't wait for all the fun times ahead! PS: you are my first date as well and it was an absolutely perfect one at that lol. - Garapati Sreya

Ye humara doosri baar hai testimonial likhte huye, pehli baar aadhe likhe jo the, wo gayab ho gaya... Lekin itni tareef jar chuki ho, to fir humse expect nahi kar sakti ki hum chadhe na. Pehli baar humme jab tumne approach kiya tha, humne tumhe patta ya chipkali samajh ke ignore kar diya tha, kyunki uss time hum to kisi ko nahi jaante the, to humme laga koi insaan to bula nahi raha hoga. Par shayad mudd jana chahiye tha, thoda aur lambe samay ke liye hum ek youtuber ke saath reh lete, clout badh jata. Serious stuff aside , tum bahut shandaar mahila nikli. Tum unn kuch logon mein se ho jinhe hum apni saari baat bata dete the, issi liye wo prank sabse pehle tumhare saath hi kiye the. Tum na hoti to shayad humari aur kayi log se mulakaat bhi na hoti. Galat baat ko bhi defend jab karti thi to tumhe galat saabit karne mein maza aata tha kaafi, kher, aakhir mein ek do baar tum bhi sahi nikli. (Ispar adhik jaankari ke liye dm kar sakti). Tumhari hi badaulat nadhedizzz(kitne z hain) ek jut barkarar raha hai, thenksu - Pranav Manu

Literally the only person that partakes in my delusions 🤣. Thanks for being there at 3am to monitor my late-night dance choreos rofl. Also, your eagle eyes to spot people are INSANE. Anywho, we need more editor Anjali content. Rooting for you!!! - Shikhar Saxena

ANJALIIII JIIII, I will really miss you. I find myself very unlucky that I never got to spend more time with you, because all the times I was with you, I was myself! I had so much fun with you (tu bilkul mast hai <3), recording the sunrise, getting caught and being terrified about our degrees and what not XD. You have a great taste in music, and I haven't found anyone in the campus who I could randomly start singing with. Alsooooo, you were one of my favourite discord friends tooo. Remember those "Bytes" we madeee, they were so much funnn! Also, thanks to you, I visited my first ever standup comedy act! Stay in touch, and all the bestest of the bests to youuu <3 - Freyam Mehta

Hiee! It was always a delight talking to such a warm, talented and lovely person. Keep on smiling <3 and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

I don't even remember hum log pehli baar mile kaise the, it was like one day you were just there in mera chota sa world and not even an encyclopaedia worth of words would even come close to expressing how grateful I am for that. Mai kaise samjhau, you feel like home. Chahe kahi bahar ja ke masti karni ho, ya its just a plain old walk around campus, your presence makes it special. I feel you have a very wholesome and unreal charm to you, it makes it so easy to talk to you, makes you so approachable and shayad that's part of the reason what makes you such a "people" person. Comfort zone se bahar nikalne me bhi you have a big hand, baar baar kahi chalo kahi chalo karke you were the person who made trips like Khajaguda and Ananthagiri possible and those became memories to last a lifetime. Anjali to Nandini and Tanmay to Tanni Boi has been a journey which I'll cherish for years to come, let's not let that die out. Wish you all the luck and happiness in the world for the numerous adventures to follow. - Tanmay Bhatt

Anjaliiiiiiiiii words cannot describe how important you were in keeping me sane throughout the early college days. We were two lost kids facing all sorts of uncertainties and worries regarding our future. You have been such a supportive and caring friend, and I will really, really miss that motherly aura of yours in college xD. In a world where everyone around me was grinding hard to be the next techie and desk jockey, your creativity really stood out. I enjoy watching your YT vlogs and honestly wish my life were as exciting as yours as well. Thank you for existing and being my wonderful friend in college; I will dearly miss having you around here. Please keep in touch xD - Sudha Tanay Doddi

One of the sweetest people I know; you're always looking out for others and seeing the best in everyone. I loved hanging out with you and being around your soothing aura. Also, I love watching your vlogs—keep them coming! :) - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

"Anju maamm, looonnggg hugg inserted... well well, will miss you a lot, ab inlogo se muzhe kon bachayega uff, bhai one of the sweetest person i found, will miss all the hugs, kisses, our unplanned trips, lab sessions, your cute dimple :) ab campus walks bhi adhudri lagegi uff , koi nahi seggyy seggy muzhe log bole wala gana laga ke tuhe yaad karlenge, ya video call -utha lena humesha (command de rahi), Thanks for everything, idk who i would have been if i would have not found you that summer!! you changed me honestly maybe my coarse of life, it so fun hangging out with you! But our duo bhandi date is still pending lets plan some time! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin"

Heyy Anjali, We havent really talked a lot, but I always felt you are one gem person. Stay the same sweet person always <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Hello Anjali, I did not interact with you much until the last few semesters but am thankful that you have been my friend. The amount you support I got from you during the Ananthagiri trip was actually unexpected. Thanks a lot. For that matter, I don't know a lot about you other than the fact that you are tall (5'9 :P). You are a very friendly person who is actually supportive. I actually kind of like your nature of telling what good things some people think of you to maintain the bond between the people. I am sorry that I wasn't of much help during the particle physics course :/, but you can always message me if you need anybody to talk with. I cannot express how thankful for being a part of your group. I can seriously say that though I am going USA, one part of me stays here with you *guys and will always hope for the days we had together. I really wish I spent more time with you guys but I feel it is one of the heavy feelings that I would carry with me..... Yours Not So Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

*Yaar tere vlogs dil chhu jaate hai.. kya commentary karti hai tu... dil khush ho jaata hai dekh kar... Tu nahi rahegi toh nashedizzz ka 'z' nahi poora nashediz hi nikaalna padega.. aakhir tune hi ye group banaya thha... nahi banaati toh bhagwaan jaane kya hota hamaara... Apne dimple ka puurn upayog karna... koi sahi hoga toh pakka inme gir hi jaayega... Aur dhanyavaad dilaasa dene keliye.. grp me kisi aur se toh shayad hi mil paata :) Bahut achha laga tujhse milkar! Hamesha WA group pe active rehna! Aur jab bhi mumbai aana toh iss naacheez ko yaad rakhna! Bahari duniya keliye all the best! - Jain Chirag Shantilal *Dear Anjali, It has been an interesting journey with you, with us to know closer as friends due to a third person, then to having long walks and chit chat of you, me and Manu and interesting stories. First time you called me, I was like, why is she calling me...for no reason and then you were like ""Kya chal rha hai""...I was little surprised by this, and turns out, I wasn't surprised for nothing. Leaving that, whatever facilitated this friendship, I am glad that you found me varna kya hota tera...(IPA) ;) . Kaafi Dhang se handle kar liya tune mujhe. Baki i dont know, how much i helped you, kuch zyada hi likha rakha hai tune to.. I will cherish the time we have spent, and late night walk and conversations we have had, with other friends and two of us. Mil jaega koi na koi, thoda aur time, bar crorepati hona chahiye. P.S - Mujhe famous krde jldi se - ROHAN GUPTA

*How many times we stumble across each other on campus and the "Whats up? How's life" and the same "nothing much. just going on" 😂. Really a nice person to be around, always the pleasant, carefree and uplifting vibes. Stay cheerful as always! and keep making vlogs! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

First day on campus :
We have been waiting to come to college for more than a year even after joining it. Finally the call to the campus came in that quarantine time. So, we have been put in Parijat for seven days. Thats the only time I found mess food to be good. Campus was so free and felt good with beautiful nature.

Favourite campus memory :
My favorite thing is basically all people in the same room in OBH gossiping about a girl or talking about one's love affairs, roasting each other, watching movies, listening to music and vibing without any care. Those OBH rooms have heard thousand stories and we have passed over all of them

One thing you will miss the most :
One thing I will definitely miss is the friends I got(lived) with. I will miss those midnight random things we do. Even though we will have lots to do we will end up watching some random youtube channel and roasting each other till we can't because of the pain we get from so much laughing.

Best thing you learned from here :
Best thing I learned from here is time management is very important. If we are good at it, we can actually spend minimal time to our academics or job and spend the rest of the time enjoying the college life to the fullest. These are the days we will never forget.

Favourite place in campus :
Its got to be JC. Whatever happens we go there. If we are stressed, we go for a tea. After all the planning of ordering to end up in Tantra. 3am maggis from david. Daily mandatory visit to JC is common for all the IIIT people.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I didn't fully understand other aspects of life. IIIT made me feel that social aspects of life, importance of friends, made me have

My Tamil Pasangu, Rahul Ameen sir, it was great knowing a fellow holy warrior in college. Probably the only decent tamil person ik on campus, u carrying all tamilians rep on your back. I won't forget the stupid jokes that you used to make that made us facepalm or the fifa sessions and long backstories you told us that made us laugh like crazy. The banter we had was one of a kind since we were the only christian muslim duo on campus. A genuinely fun guy to hang out with, I still have to get revenge for all the violent attacks u did to me. We'll meet again on the day of the holy war so I can't wait to see you. Best wishes in all you do! - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Ruhul is the funniest guy in our gang, even though his jokes can sometimes be a bit irritating. Our shared interest in listening to Tamil songs and dissecting their lyrics made for some great times. Ruhul also gave me one of the best Tamil playlists. From the all-nighters in TDL to his sister's marriage in Madurai, I've had a lot of great times with him. I will miss his "kadi" jokes. All the best for your future endeavours, and hopefully, you can send some GPUs. - Lokesh V

There is not a day I met you and when I did not hear a mokka joke 😐😂. Literally contagious and influenced Gokul also to make mokka jokes and puns. You and Gokul are literally like a couple 😂 always together. Had a very good time in college because of you guys da! Will miss you. Have spent so much time together, sitting in Gokul's room and teasing him, Friend's parotta, Gokarna, Madurai and all. Also thanks for being the silent bond in oas. Stay in touch. Invite for (all) your Nikkas. ❤️ - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

First day on campus :
2Saside football match with the entirety of the batch

Favourite campus memory :
Securing runners-up in the intercollege football tourney as captain hosted by our college

One thing you will miss the most :
The ever vibrant wings of OBH

Best thing you learned from here :
Valuing friendships

Favourite place in campus :
Football ground

Biggest Change since your first year :
Football playstyle

The speed demon with hair to die for. You know, I feel a bit guilty that we didn't get to know each other that well off the pitch, but in any case, it's been great being your friend! Wishing you all the best! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Midgy boyyy. I dont think its even necessary for me to write anything for you. You know what you mean to me and i cant even put that in words. I dont even know how i would have survived these years in campus without you. My fav memory was when you almost got belted by that police guy. Or when i sent you rolling on the football pitch. Anyway, you were one guy who I could always turn to when I needed anything and I am genuinely grateful to you for everything you've done for me. I love you brother. Just try not to go broke always xD - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Amazing footballer. Is a fantastic player, just needs to work on communication, shot accuracy, field awareness, positioning, staying injury free, stamina, skills, footwork, timing, counterattacking, tracking back, being physical, heading, sprinting, and scoring goals. Jk, vv fun person, will miss the few times I got to play with you <3 - A Kishore Kumar

Captain! Loved every minute of college team football with you, absolute baller. Gonna come and cheer for the team next year. - Shreyash Jain

Its been great seeing you develop in so many ways since nps, including attendance % wise. A true all rounder, excelling in acads, sports, and github commits. Prodigy in chess and video direction. Seriously though, I'm truly glad that our association has continued from school to college, and hope it carries on. Always ready to help out in any situation, you're one of the best friends, teammates and quiz partners I've had. I admire how you stay so relaxed yet manage to stay winning. All the best in the future, I'm sure you'll ace it as always. - Nitin Rajasekar

Should've caught wayyy more movie nights with you, my brother. Unfailingly kind at every turn, the definition of a human glue, albeit with an unimpressive resolve against vices. Will look back fondly at the mutual assault sessions with someone who had their arms open wider than anyone else around. Oh captain, my captain ;) - Rajarshi Ray

Hiee! It was always a delight interacting with such a smart and warm personality. Keep on smiling <3 and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Hulllooo cutie! Discussing and playing football with you was always fun and kaafi memorable. Poora vibey presence on campus, stay the very same mate 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Anky wanky, my brother from another mother. Among my many roommates, u've been one for the longest amount of time. One of the first few people I became friends with on campus, our link up is one that will stay for life. One of the smartest people ik but too busy procrastinating to get around to working. One of the most self sacrificing friends I have, ur always willing to defend ur friends stupidest or worst behavior simply out of pure loyalty. Too many of our interests overlap for us to not have become best friends. I will always remember the insane memories we made in E-20 and M-60. Whenever I feel bored I can just walk out of my room and mess with you a room away. You were one of the main reasons I was able to enjoy football, gaming or chilling in general on campus so arigato for that. I was able to play and improve in football so much because of your active inclusion of me. One of the easiest guys to chill with no matter who you are or what you like. Here's to cooking juniors in interbatch next yr! - Joel Thyparampil Alex fellow football degenerate. prolly the only non-glory hunter city fan that i know (and will know as well :P). will still continue to call you one tho :). also, will never forget the fact that i literally owe my life to you lmao (and uski treat bhi pending hai, come and take it from me sometime soon in the future :)). stay in touch brother (in order to give me contacts to all of your blr dealers ;)). - Pranjal Thapliyal

Ankith sir, I met you through the other dasa football guys, and I am so glad that you were one of my constant good friends throughout college. I honestly don't know how you're still surviving after the countless injuries that you got, however much you might downplay them as "nothing". You are one of the most chill, down-to-earth people I have met even though you are smart af. I admire how once you put your mind to achieving something, you don't give up and continue hustling until you complete it. Apart from that, you are also a very compassionate and loving friend. You are the one person to who I know a lot of crazy stuff has happened lol. I hope you keep persevering in life towards your interests the same way you do now, and I am sure you will end up being very successful. Oh also, make sure to take care of your sensitive af stomach lmao. Special mention for our collective hate towards venu xD. Hope we meet frequently since you'll be here for another year. All the best! - Swetha Vipparla

One of the best footballers of our batch and a great friend. One of the true non-plastic Man City fans. I really like your passion for football and how even when you are injured you just come and play football. We capped our football journey by playing in the evenings every day, from Agni house matches to that BVRIT college tournament to finally winning the inter-batch college tournament. Your room used to be the hotspot for any major football match and those are some of my best memories, though may not be for you ;) lol. I like how you are very easy to talk to. It was fun solving those sudoku and chess puzzles in class lol. I used to increase my chess blitz rating by around 100 and then have the confidence to win/draw against you. You would bring me back down to reality quickly. You are an amazing person, always having some crazy experiences going on. We'll keep meeting in Bangalore all the best for your research and I hope you graduate soon. - Shubh Agarwal

I don't know how, but I always had great roommates. Thanks for being an amazing one (with the complementary +1: Joel)! Also still couldn't beat you in chess. I guess you are the best chess & football player from the 2020 batch. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

AnkiVJ... I got to know you for the first time only after coming to campus and although our friendship began with daily football sessions, I got to know you much better after we started interacting on a daily basis. One thing I really appreciate about you is how chill and laid back you are when it comes to anything. You always manage to get good quality work done without ever stressing about the task at hand too much. You are an amazing footballer (one of the best I've ever played with) and your skills and football IQ have helped me become a better player myself. You are also the most mathematically gifted person I've seen. Another thing I admire about you is the trait of not being affected when adversary hits. This is something to be very proud of. The only thing I despise about you is your unwavering plastic love for a certain football club. But other than that, you are a top guy and I'll forever remember the memories we made along the way. Wish you all the best with your future! We shall keep in touch. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

This curly haired dude is the greatest football player of our generation. He has more goals in real football than on FIFA(even though he has played 20x more matches on FIFA). He is a damn funny and chill guy I have never seen him being stressed about anything. He is also a very helpful person, he will be ready to help you at anytime. He can do anything for his bros and that is the one thing I really like about him. - Likhith Asapu

A great friend, one of the best striker (midfielder, defender, goalkeeper?) in the campus, and an admirer of football. It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together in your room (not like they went well for our team though :)). Always a pleasure hanging out with you. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

Hey Ankith It was always fun to watch you play football and do track events. Ohh also the video shoot in which you were supposed to fall and shout 😂 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

The first time I met you was on the football field (of course). I remember asking you what your favourite team was to which you replied "Manchester". Who refers to that plastic 115 FFP club as Manchester and not City xD? Jokes aside, we started spending more time while doing assignments and projects (Yogrut Rice) together. You are one of the smartest guys I've ever met in my life. Countless times you have helped me understand the craziest topics and the most twisted concepts. You also hard carry in projects by using your thinking while walking cheat code. It is crazy how much untapped potential you have. Another quality that I really admire about you is how you always put others before you. You do that to a point where I'm worried on your behalf at times. You are also extremely caring and considerate. There's never a dull moment with you. There is always some random funny shit going on with you and it never makes me not laugh. Will always cherish these memories. Best of of luck with everything, Curly Midgy ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Ankiji, thank you for being you! you have added a lot to my college life by being your adventure-loving self. Your ability to seamlessly blend fun with the demands of coursework and research is not just impressive but also incredibly inspiring. You've shown that it's possible to have a fulfilling college experience while also achieving academically. Your ever ready nature for escapades, has been great fun. You are able to make the right jokes at the right time, and add much laughter to our group. Managing warring sides in the group skillfully as a mediator, you have bought great peace to our kingdom. You have also been a person one can confide in and who is always ready to help.

Now, about that ""reduce the rizz"" part, maybe it's time to tone down the charm just a notch (or at least give the rest of us a chance to catch up!). Also bitches be crazy, take care! - Khush Devendra Patel

I dont remember how we first met (probably through patel), one of the smartest & most helpful guy I have ever met, just lil short tho (lmao jk pls dont kill me). I will remember the rocket league matches we used to play and I was as good as you. You were the finest football player in our campus. You almost became my gym bro but then you stopped going to the gym (useless) and then I also stopped going because of you. You are an amazing friend and its always a pleasure hanging out with you. Wish you a very successful future and would like to see you once with straight hair xD. - Ayush Agrawal

Kit, I never expected that I'd be blessed to find the most real and caring friend. I cant thank god enough for the way you have been there. Prolly would've gone insane n on a killing spree without you xD. I love how you are competitive about things and shoutout to your dedication towards football. And also I suggest you pursue being a doctor as your side hustle cuz u are so good at self a analysing your injuries. Also im lucky to have got coaching from our football captain :D. I like how you have handled things in your life and are getting stronger as you grow. You value relationships a lot and are forgiving in nature. Very kind, wholesome man <3 Going to miss u so so much after leaving campus. But don't worry, I am not gonna leave, I will always annoy with my my lame jokes and abuse you like hell. I wish you all the happiness in the world. And you will also be Dr. Ankith one day(omg its sounds weird giving you respect). Please learn to smile and pose for pictures and all the very best shawty! - Annam Venika Sruthi

One of the chillest dudes in IIITH. It's always nice to see such a friendly face interact with people well and form great bonds with the people around him. My man plays some great football and is a fun video game buddy to have as well. Under that cool-looking hair is a mind with a cool personality that anybody would have a great time being around. Man is a true bro fr and does give excellent hugs. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

I have a huge amount of respect and admiration for your hair (and you). You are an incredibly strong and accommodating person. It is always fun to catch up on things and play football with you and the others. Heres to enjoying our last year on campus together and finding happiness along with it :) - Harshit Gupta

First day on campus :
Our first day on campus was unique as we are quarantined due to covid. Although we were confined to our rooms, we all used to go to meals together, so that we get the chance to meet! It was a memorable experience, connecting faces to the names and voices we had been interacting with so long!

Favourite campus memory :
Everything from random gedis and hangouts around campus, eating Maggi at BBC with friends, watching sunsets at FG to running for early morning classes and doing assignments together just before deadlines€"it's hard to pick a favorite one!

One thing you will miss the most :
My friends <3

Best thing you learned from here :
Jugaad XD

Favourite place in campus :
From treats at jc & beautiful sunsets at fg to cracking jokes at bbc & roaming around the whole campus, its hard to pick fav. But if I had to pick one, it would be the workspace. Spent countless hours hanging out there eating, sleeping, gossiping, ranting, and attempting to work€"so many memories!

Biggest Change since your first year :
Since my first year, I've grown into a much more confident person, learning to value my own opinions and stay true to myself rather than molding into expectations of others.

Hi Anmol, You are the perfect mix of cute, kind, caring, and smart individual, I will miss all are deep talks, outings, night outs, tight hugs!, one of the best person i got to meet on campus, then formed such a great bond that i don't know how i will spend another year there without you! 102 was my daily stop before going anywhere! you have always been there for me whenever i need some help without any second thoughts!! Taught me how to deal with this world! Tolerating all my rants is not easy! You made my college life so lively and interesting! Gossiping, selecting the perfect outfit to wear to making serious decisions! Its been always very easy to share anything with you! and that's why i shared it with you first :) !! Also keep giving good netfix recommendations XD! I will always cherish our time together and hope that our paths continue to intertwine. here's to our future outings, trips, and many more adventures to come. Cheers! All the best for the journey ahead!! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Will miss being cringe and creepy together. Will miss you saying 'merko to ninni aa rhi', 'or kya interesting chl rha teri life me'. Will miss you teaching ten den. Really admire how you ace any course with minimum efforts. Stop getting any hotter, ab to garmi boht badd gyi. sb ne itne efforts daale hai, parents ko convince krne kliye(about the goa trip), I'm always grateful for that.I would've missed out on a lot, tum log nhi hote to. Had lots of fun together. Gonna miss you so much. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

Hey there, hamari Punjabi kudi. I love the fact that you live on your own terms and choices and not by the rules or expectations of society. I have so much to learn from you. You put yourself first before anyone else and yet still manage to be there for everyone when we need you. I adore your confidence, your belief in yourself, and your belief in all of us. You are that goofy little ball of happiness in our group who encourages us to take weird yet cute photos, at least something different from the usual pose lol. I'll miss constantly ranting with you, your flirtatious smiles, double-meaning jokes, sharing similar health problems and figuring out the cause XD. Stay the same. Love you, hottie. Stay in touch. <3 - Harshita Gupta

"Taking part in that debate competition was the best decision i ever took, i got introduced to one of the smartest, kindest and most beautiful person i know, and what followed was the best 4 years of my life. Online was fun, talking about anything and everything, literally forcing you lol to study and do assignments. From our sarath city visits, walks around campus, to trying out different restaurants, to shopping, our bombay/goa trip/wonderla,

i will never forget those memories. Having u as friend has made college best time of my life. I dont think anyone else would gave put with me with all the bt i gave u about icpc, etc, but u did, supporting me in everything. Thanks for being the amazing person you are and making me a better person, u are like a family to me. I wish u all the happiness in the world and hope our friendship would last till eternity. - Aryan Gupta

Our sole and most popular iKassi representative!! Time really flies by and there are way tooo many moments and memories for me to consolidate into one testimonial. Our group rant sessions, RR sessions, random gossips, random gedis for god knows how long (I remember we went on for over 9-10 hours too just roaming around our tiny campus). It was so fun to live these moments with you! All that punjabi knowledge that you have taught me will be etched into me forever XD. PS: Thanks for always being in for the auto rides back homee XD. - Srikar Bhavesh Desu

Even though I met this lady so late into college life, she was at the core of many of my best memories of college. Thank you for always looking out for me, being there for me, and filling me with so much confidence. You have done a lot to help me rewire myself in the right directions of life, and I have no clue how things would work out without you around. I know for a fact that we will be together for much longer in life, and as much as I am looking forward to that, even a little life without you around seems heavy :(. Here's to much more of everything that I had with you and more that I can have! Love you, cutie pie. Very kind, lovely, nice, and cutie woman this lady is <3. I am down to marry her. - Gokul Praneetha

One of the sweetest and cutest people I know. Loved all those times we hung out in the hostel talking about random things. I'll never forget the amazing memories from Vizag, the fun we had in the bus travelling there/back and the night spent looking for dinner in Araku xD. I still remember how excited you were about the Vizag beaches <3 I wish that we had more time together in college, but I'm sure we'll make up for that in Bangalore :) - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

"Hi roomiee, I really think we should make it official..sacchi itni chemistry toh kisi ke beech mai nhi hai..I will miss youu yrr...tere saath din bhar guilt free room mai pade pade sote rehnaa..tjhe dekh ke har baar ye sochna ki shitt ye toh kitna seriously focus ke saath padh rhi hai hme bhi padhna chahiye aur end mai discover krna ki are nhii Netflix dekha ja rha itne dhyan se..saath mai bday party dena..aur tera hmare clothe choices ko judge krnaa..online sem k time raat mai vc pe pade rehna..your homeless self to your heroine self I have seen it all (actually seen too much 😄)...I love how direct you are (that is sometimes hard to digest and yet admirable)..and I love how you know what you want and do not want in life and have got your priorities straight...had so much fun watching you in our room parties and goa (best entertainment sacchii)...love you <3 - Khushi Agarwal

"Fellow chocolate lover ^ ^, best didi ever. Oldest member of our grp but definitely the most fun to be around. Gonna miss all our ""gedis"" around campus, wher u spilt all the deets for us xd. Enjoyed all those lifings we had (especially our chocolate room couch lol) and accompanying me in chasing diabetes hehe. Had so much fun playing dumb charades everywhere in Goa (especially that scary night on the beach).Will rly miss learning Punjabi accent frm u (Dhaar card), and teaching you Telugu xd. - Sambasai Reddy Andem

She's the only person that could beat Kumbhkaran in a sleeping,no matter the time of the day,you'll find this girl sleeping.Anmol aur uske rants, ye 4 saal mei kbhi khtm hi nahi hue .. bro rants and rants n still ends up getting a 10 pointer. Jokes apart, jitni lazy dikhti hai, utni hi hardworking and end moment clutch krti hai, definitely would go a long way ! She's one of those people who won't be there necessarily in good times, but would definitely be there for you when you are in vain, standing by your side really grateful ki we became friends. One of the constants, college ke start se end tk. From listening to music in discord VC's to vibing to Sartaj's concert. Avval darje di bully, took that painting from me ;-; We didn't used to talk daily, but whenever we did, we just picked it up from the point we left, really loved the comfort and vo walks around the campus. With you gone, PVR mei movie dekhna wouldn't be the same.College would have been tough without Anmol Vachans, stay in touch, just a call away - Karmanjyot Singh

Anmol Anmol.. you're the jolliest, most approachable person I've ever met! It goes so much better and feels so beautiful around hanging out with you. You are one genuine person to talk to, chill, and have loads of fun with <3 All the very best for whatever comes next and cheers to many more night outs together :) - Anjali Singh

One of the most authentic people I met on campus. Jab bhi baat karta tha kaafi real baat hoti thi aur kuch bhi share karne mein dikkat nahi hui tere saath. Will never forget when you helped me sneak into Parijat lol. Tu to Blr mein hi hai to milte rahenge and punjabi concerts saare saath mein attend karenge! - Kushagra Kharbanda

We three (You, me and Aryan) have had very interesting dynamics and conversations that would leave so many people so confused. Thank you for motivating me whenever we randomly met at Yuktahar to power through academics in the last semester, even if it didn't work out perfectly in the end :p. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Very fun person. Hopefully WS Buddies stands the test of time :) Very smart and a party animal. Will miss boring you to death with Aryan, WS hangouts and Dhaba 1986 xD Your lively self definitely made all the hangouts memorable! - A Kishore Kumar cutest person who can unintentionally make anyone laugh. so proud of you for learning the dance for cult night itni jaldi, pro dancer hehe. sucks that we only started hanging out in 4th year :(- Srujana Vanka

I will never forget the 2-3 hour long conversation we had once in my room! Wish we had spent more time together, stay in touch :) All the best <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

One unique compliment that I can give you without repeating things which the whole college might have already said to you is, "JHOOTI KASSI". Majak kar raha hoon. But sach mein, "Yuktahaar food used to taste good while talking to you". I am still wondering how can someone have same score on both CG and hotness scale. All the best for your future endeavours. You deserve great things :) - Pradhuman Tiwari

You were one of my later friends in college, but I am glad I got to know you and spend time with you. You are a very sweet, cheerful, and gorgeous person inside and out with a smile always on your face. Our Numaish and saree tailor hangouts are some of the moments I cherish. Though the latter wasn't much of a success for you lmaoo, it was still nice being together and trying to figure out what we wanted. Hope to meet you again soon, and all the best for your future! - Swetha Vipparla

Hey there cutie, I have so much respect for you. You work so hard towards everything you aspire for, whether it's academics or research. You are an absolute all-rounder and are also so good at sports, whether it's basketball, athletics, or football xD. You always show up whenever we need or miss you. You are goofy, so loving, and so helpful. I have never seen you have a second thought when someone asks you for help. And the best part is, you let people know how much you love them. We grew closer over the past year, and it was the best thing ever. I only wish it had happened sooner. From tight hugs, quirky selfies, and gossip sessions to the polaroids you gave us on the last day, I'll miss it all. I know that all the love you give will find its way back to you—all the very best for next year, stress kam lena. Stay in touch. Planning outings is no fun without you ranting about a hundred deadlines and research meets ;). Love you so much <3 - Harshita Gupta

Gaddaaar humare liye abhi tak nahi likhi, namak haraaammm, asshooeeee. Chalo shuru se likhte hain... Ek saal pehle tak to humari bilkul bhi baat nahi hoti thi (exist bhi karti thi?) mallab pata tha ki cv(j)it mein ek hai mahila, par interaction nahi hua. Par fir tumhara stalk karna kaam aaya aur anjali ke through hum log jab mile, tabse to lagbhag roz hi milte rahe, JC ho ya lab, din bhar saath hi kaam bhi karte the. Lab mein kaam karne ko kaafi interesting bana diya tumne, uske chakkar mein humara bhi kaam hone laga, lab mein raat bitane ke liye ek aur mil gaya (sidechick). Dhanyawaad humari zindagi ko interesting banane ke liye. Baith ke gossip karna, ya Rohan ko gaali dena(wo padh raha hoga), ya tumhari daant sunte huye tumhare doubt solve karna, sabme mazza aata tha. Tumhare chakkar mein humne bhi kaafi kuch seekh liya, kyunki tum kuch poochti thi, aur humme pata nahi hota tha, to hum chupke mein side mein usse padh ke tumhe bata dete the, taaki hum smart dikhe. Sneh va prem, alvida, Tata, aur jald milna - Pranav Manu

Aparna, (or should I say Dora?), the latest addition to my closest friend circle. How do I say it, you're so full of energy and happiness and that is contagious, your excitement gets transferred to me as well whenever we're hanging out together and it always ends up being so much fun! You somehow end up being the natural target for jokes and taang-kheechna but the way you handle it with a hearty laugh is something which I admire so so much. Itna toh time hua bhi nahi hai hume mile hue lekin the friendship runs so deep ki lagta hai kai saalo se jaante hai. Let's keep having these adventures for another year, abhi toh bohot maje karne baaki hai. P.S girlfriend toh mil nahi rahi hai, lagta hai double date ke liye kaafi wait karna hoga :p - Tanmay Bhatt

Dear Aparna, also called “”Bullyparna”” within our friend group, it’s been a pleasure getting to know you. You are one of the most energetic and lively people I know, always raising the spirits of everyone around. It’s also fun seeing you get bullied by everyone. Also, your unfiltered and unhinged comments never fail to make us laugh. I will cherish all the memories we made - especially the wonderla and ananthagiri hills trips. Especially, we had so much fun in the wave pool in wonderla. Us battling the waves and then becoming one with the waves, you learning to swim more easily than Manu, staying in the pool till they almost had to kick us out, etc. You are always a fun person to be around and have a kind heart. Even though we met a bit late I am really to call you a close friend. We still have some time to go before graduation, so let’s make many more memories together. I would always love to get to know you more and will be there to lend an ear anytime. Have loads of fun on the journey ahead! #thiccthitohthi - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Remember the first day we met in college,I was participating in some random sports event and then I met this girl who looked so calm and sorted (needless to say I was wrong XD), and here we are with the most beautiful messy choatic and one of the few closest friends I have <3 and gonna miss sooo muchh!! Parnaaa, you are one of the kindest, sweetest and most beautiful souls I have known, always having purest intentions for everyone and caring so deeply about everyone! I really admire how serious, hardworking, and honest you are with your work. Gonna miss all our hangouts, tera hmaare liye ghar se khaana laana, all the goa trip memories, our ladies nights together, apni lambi lambi convos, borrowing each others' clothes and what not, tujhe bina baat ke chidhaana and tera chidh bhi jana XD. Also special thnkyou for the cutest parting gift!! Tera bina yaar college chodne ka mann hi nahi kar rha, itna miss krenge tujhe, bangalore aate rehna jab bhi mauka mile and famous researcher banke hume bhool mat jana! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

“Hey Aparna, you were one of the first people I got to know on campus, so I’ve had the front-row seat to watching you grow as a person. I hope you’ve noticed this growth too and are proud of it. Thank you for listening to my 3am rants, and being my late night therapist. I owe you big time for putting up with my nonsence. I truly admire your drive and enthusiasm for your work and hope you never lose your passion. I’m putting my bets on you becoming a big-shot researcher one day. And when that happens, I’ll be bragging about being your friend. No pressure tho 😅. No matter where we end up 10 years down the line, you’ll always have a friend in me. Anyway, this seems all too final, we still have one more year left in college 😅. P.S.: Sorry for the times I was a dick to you. - Shreya Jitendra Patil

I can confidently say that she is one of the most cheerful people I’ve met on campus. Despite often RR’ing through the day, she would as easily crack up within minutes. Her companionship has been invaluable throughout the tough experiences of being a lateral entry student and working in one of the most demanding labs on campus. I do regret not spending more time with friends like her and strengthening our bond. It’s rare to find someone with whom you can interact so easily and rely on for help with anything. While I’m uncertain about what the future holds for me, I have no doubt that she will excel, as she is one of the most driven and responsible individuals I know. Here’s to hoping we have a great time over the next 2 years on campus :P - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Hii Aparna Love your energy. You are one very kind-hearted person, dont let anything change you - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

It’s been amazing knowing you! Starting from that HCI project to the DFS project and research talks, every discussion with you has been intriguing, even if it was GPU resource rants xD. I’m sure you’re gonna be an amazing researcher!! Let’s stay in touch and see you around! - Gaurav Singh

Aparna ji, kya likhe bas, pta nhi kaise mere friend circle mai ghus gyi and mera hi friend(friend not friends) le gyi, kya dedication hai, baap re, sweet bol diya mujhe, ab I saal mehnga pdeha tujhe, bahut preshan kiya but kafi help krti hai, very eccentric person, but a special one. Kaafi interesting stories hai iske paas. baaki muje to pta hi tha ye hoyega, - ROHAN GUPTA

Hey Aparna, thanks for being there for me when I was alone on campus, it was a fun summer. You are so bubbly, and deserve everything great in life. All the best! :)) - Ameya Sharma you’re such a positive and cute person. very good neighbour. would definitely recommend :)) - Arshini Govindu

Aparnaaa.. Aparna! Thoda cringy hoga, but sehen kr lena! Yaar, you are the most caring one of all I’ve ever met in my entire life. Have no bounds to overthink onto everything, and makes everything right! Bas teri wajah se, I get the fresh breath in this group and Manu gets the content! lol Together we are the best combo who don’t remember kisi bhi gaane k lyrics.. chal tujhe ek aata hai par yaar thank you so much for taking care of me and being always there for me! Everything just feels better with you! - Anjali Singh

Heyloo aparna! You are easily the most hard working person I know on campus and I admire your work ethic alotttt. It’s really fun hanging out with you everytime and listening to stories about how you have more deadlines than the entire college combined😂. You are also a great athlete brother whether it be football, kho kho, basketball or races! Stay the same and let’s have a lot of fun in Sth year by kassing together💪 - Siddharth Jain

Hiee Aparna! It was always a delight talking to such a sweet and cute person <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Hiiii...I know you will miss us and we you in this last year of college...but I know tu ise bhot hi bakhoobi nibhayegi...I am proud of the person you have become...how much you have grown (age wise :p aur wisdom wise bhi)...this is the glow up that every person expects to get in college life...yr Aparna koi itna hardworking kaise ho skta haii yrr aur itna sweet bhi...I will miss your tight hugs and your rants and your laugh...dadi ko thankyou bolna sauf vale mouth freshner ke liye I still have it..aur bhakrwadi aur chiwde ke liye bhi...please know u r never alone we are one call away...u have done great so farr and aage aur bhi zada acha karegi (just hang in there).. and ek chhoti si request please don’t go too hard on yourself..and thankyouu for that penguin...it will always remain super close too my heart..Love youu cuttie <3 (baki aur jo bhi bolna tha hme I already told u that day :)) - Khushi Agarwal

Hello CVIT & workspace ki permanent resident. You are the person who will take up the most challenging courses in a sem and then still finish all of them properly. Salute Ma’am! - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Sportswoman of the group, stop getting any older. you’re already two years older than me. Will miss all those parties, gossip sessions and wardrobe exchanges. You’re one of the sweetest people I know. Thoda bt kam liya kr, and lab ke alawa kbi kbi room me bhi raha kr. Coffee ke bina mar jati hai. Thank you for always being there. Will miss you. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

Hello Aparna, I think I am one of the first people who met you on campus. So nervous you were, but I did not know you much then. All I knew then was an Aparna who was a DD existed in my batch. It was not until the last few days I got closer to you. Thanks a lot for staying as a friend of mine. I wish you were there for my birthday. I did not know you much other than some discussions we had about ethics 2. I wish I had spent more time with you. If you ever feel like texting I would be happy to talk. I think by the time I will be leaving, you will be in Banglore, so I won’t be able to say goodbye.... I am happy to be a part of the group. I cannot express how thankful for being a part of your *group. I can seriously say that though I am going USA, one part of me stays here with you guys and will always hope for the days we had together. I really wish I spent more time with you guys but I feel it is one of the heavy feelings that I would carry with me..... Yours Not So Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

You are one of the nicest guys I know. It's always been fun spending time with you. So many times you've come to my room just to talk and before I knew it it'd been an hour or more. I'll definitely miss our time together on campus. Good luck with everything! - Ben Paul Varghese

The only memory that I have of you back in the online days are of us chatting and dissing each other in the discord football group. You were the only person who supported the MIGHTY Arsenal . Obviously after we came to campus we got to know each other a lot more as we spent time watching and playing football together. I absolutely love how funny and chill you are. You always manage to uplift the mood and spirits of those around you,myself included so effortlessly. Your sense of humor is also extremely unique and likable. You are able to make the most difficult and awkward situations into something comfortable and more manageable with your well timed jokes. You are also unbelievably kind and caring. You have other people's thoughts and feelings in your mind before you say or do anything. You do not shy away from helping your friends out. You are also always ready to adjust and be flexible for other people's sake. Will miss watching football with you and taking a shower together. Best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani Aumie my homie, I remember the first time we met I confused you Dubai lads and saved ur contact as Khush xD. Took a while to correct that but football brought us closer and soon I was stuck with ur degenerate jokes and commentary during matches (expected from an Arsenal fan). You have always managed to lighten the mood with ur sarcasm and antics and believe me, it has helped me on countless occasions when I was struggling. That being said, you are smart and hardworking and I really admire your work ethic and how smoothly you handle situations. My favourite memory is when we discovered ur ever prestigious innate quality ;) and became firm worshippers of Aumism. I will always miss those group FIFA and RL sessions and how can I not talk about football. You were always with us either on the field or cheering on along the sidelines which was so morale-boostin. Please stay the same and stop watching stuff on 2x. Won't be missing you yet (You may still graduate before me) and thank you for always being there for me! - Ankithvarun J

I remember we first met for walks in the gardens. Since then it has been truly a pleasure to spend my college years with you. You have been a great roommate and a great friend. You are a very positive and strong-willed person. Despite having multiple ACL tears, you never gave in to it, and always pushed on with your work inspite of the pain. You never let problems define you. Instead, you used them to become stronger and tougher. this I have seen first hand even in your approach to academics, i have seen the dedication and hardwork with which you approach all courses. You are also very caring, and are able to quickly understand someone's viewpoint and needs. Your genuine concern for those around you and your willingness to lend a helping hand make you a true friend. I will always cherish our legendary matches in FIFA and then Rocket League:) - Khush Devendra Patel Yoo, you were one of the first people I met in person from campus, and I didn't imagine at the time that you would be one of my constant friends throughout college. Glad it turned out that way and I got to know you more. You are a constant source of entertainment for me and the group, with your realistic sarcasm and jokes. In the beginning, I honestly thought you were being serious all those times until I got to know that it wasn't the case and I later started to understand as well lol. You are a very smart, reliable, responsible, and driven person who is always there to help his friends, and this is something I admire in you. Please take care of your legs so that no more ACLs happen lol, though I got to meet your mom (who is super sweet) cause of that. Since you'll be in Hyderabad itself, hope we meet frequently and hang out! Best of luck for your internship and everything to come :) - Swetha Vipparla

Aumiyasu dearest, you are my sunshine, my only sunshine. You make me happy, when skies are gray. The best way to start the day is to have a morning dose of aum and the best way to end it is to have a night dose. Your childlike sense of humor is so dumb that it makes everyone laugh. I appreciate that you're very affectionate to your homies despite not liking much physical contact. You're always spreading very wholesome cheer wherever you go. In terms of good vibes, no one can rival the energy you bring (except me ofc, and that's the highest compliment I can bestow on you). I remember that you were the only one who used to regularly venture into the hood from the veggie wing just to hang out with us whenever we were jobless. My only regret was that link up happened only late in college life cuz you used to live in the 3rd floor but now its permanent. Always keep bringing your retarded panda energy wherever you go and I think you should be set, Paum. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Aumuluuuu. Shower partner 0. Where do i even start brother. I dont even remember the first time meeting you but am truly grateful it happened. This dude is one of the most autistic guys i met in my life but at the same time one of the sweetest also. How you managed to tear one ACL 2 times i will never understand. I will never forget those 2 mins where you were struggling to stand in the goa beach and how we all died laughing . All the banter sessions we had where we used to abuse each other so much especially in football terms lol. How you still support that team i will never understand but rn i cant even talk lol. Anyway, you are one of the nicest guys i know and I will always cherish these years we spent in campus. I know i can count on you whenever i need anything. Good luck for everything brother. I love you. Just stop pretending to be so autistic always lol. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

"Even though we got acquainted pretty early in the Discord times, I really got to know you pretty late. In 2-2, when you were on the 3rd floor, I think we didn't interact much sadly. But, in how much ever time we had together, I really met an amazing person. I love your taste in music and in all our trips, I knew if you had the control, the songs would always be bangers. I like your little quirks, humor, and aumistic responses. One of the best right backs of our college who had to call it quits to his career in his prime :(. We had some good connections on the right-hand side. I really hope you get back to the best and get a job in Bangalore so we can be together again. Hopefully, you won't forget to give me some tea as you always do :(All the best for your internship and future. - Shubh Agarwal

Heyy there shawtieee! You have such an amazing personality, such a cute and modest person you are. Aur toh kya maja aata hai teri taang kheechne me😂. I really adore your passion for football chahe kitne bhi ACL tear na hojaye, tu nahi rukta xD. You are a great defender and love playing along your side on turff! I remember the time when you treated us as your family in faculty quarters when you were injured❤️. You have really been a true friend to me and am grateful to god for it😁. It's really great having you around in outings and now you are on the same FLOORR lesgooo!! Mast cricket khelenge idhr and will never forget your silly titty twister which you called FLICK😂😂. Next weekend pe milte hai brdrrr - Siddharth Jain

Extremely cute and sweet guy, we first met in north mess and from then I got to know you much better when we started doing dass assignments together. I will always remember the pointless banters we used to have, the rocket league matches where you used to ask for free goals because you "weren't paying attention" (as if it would have mattered), you became my neighbor in 4th year and it was an absolute pleasure knowing you and having you as my friend. - Ayush Agrawal

"Aum brdr, you will always remain my 3rd floor buddy, life is way better with you around. Kitna maza aata tha hamesha tere saath saare football discussions me, this for me was far greater than any game. Kitna passionate, pyaara and enthusiastic banda hai. You are an inspiration brdr, itne injuries ke baad bhi kabhi tughe hamesha kaafi motivated hi dekha hai maine, Will always miss woh dubai ke sweets and gujrati snacks tere room pe aake khaana, 3rd floor Fifa sessions were the best brother. Love you brdr, keep smiling forever. Prayush - Prayush Rathore ommm you are one of my closest friends in college. Man gets stressed about small things but ends up doing very good cause he is very very smart. I enjoyed chilling and having those long conversations at nights with you. I enjoyed playing games on ps4 with you. It was fun seeing you troll at any game you play and also fun trolling you sometimes in these games. You are a really funny person and I love your humour. Please don't break any more bones even after you graduate and take care of yourself. Man has had more ACL tears than the number of trophies Arsenal won in the last 10 years. Don't forget me after graduation. - Likhith Asapu

Always the most cheerful guy in the room. The way you're always positive regardless of any setbacks is admirable. So is your determination to play football. The way you've persevered and pulled through, and still keep acing everything, inspirational stuff. Over the years, thanks for being so willing to help out in all kinds of things. Cog Sci bond with a goated goatee. I'm sure you'll keep doing great in anything you do in the future, all the best. - Nitin Rajasekar

One of the nicest guys in this college. Your personality is very warm and endearing, and it is only natural that you have such a caring and relaxing vibe. I make wheelchair jokes about you, but you have recovered pretty well. You always take jokes and banter in a lighthearted manner, which is something a lot of people should learn to do. Thanks for being a great friend :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

A great friend, one of the best CB (midfielder, defender, goalkeeper?) in the campus, and an admirer of football. It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together in Ankith's room (not like they went well for our team though :)). Always a pleasure hanging out with you. It was sad that you got your ACL, but unlike others, Aum goes and plays football regardless. Taught a life lesson to everyone :). Take it easy sometimes. Get running soon, will have a game? Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. – Sukhjinder Kumar

It has been pleasant knowing you. We have played football together and we have shared courses ,we have made memories throughout our college lives. You have always kept a fighter spirit through the time I have known you. By the way , I am grateful to you that you asked me that IPP question to me just before exam day :) Lets stay connected and best of luck mate. With best wishes - Adit - Aditya Kumar Somehow, during college, we always stayed in the same hostel wing. It has been an absolute pleasure getting to know you and hanging out with you. It is even more of a pleasure to be standing behind you xP. I hope your leg recovers well and we can play football again together sometime :) - Harshit Gupta Broo take care of your leg XD . Hope you don't damage it a third time :(Really loved working with you on many courses, and enjoyed a lot of the stuff we did together in general as well <3. Really level-headed and can make hard decisions like changing advisors bravely ! Let's keep in touch even after our graduation (if we do graduate on time lmao) - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

One of the most fun person I've come across. Cycling in the rain is the most peak memory I will have of college. I would have said break a leg for the next chapter of your life but I guess that would be too traumatic huh :) - Shreyas Revankar

Hey aum, It was fun meeting you and talking to you. Thank you for always being there and supporting me whenever i was in need, You are such a sweet human. You being there through my rough phase of study , It really means a lot to me. Looking forward to working together and many more memories and going on more and more CND dinners .. and graduating on time !! Wish you a very good luck. - Syed Imami insane respect to you to for still sticking with arsenal despite everything that has happened. shows how loyal you are, and that extends to friendships as well :) baaki take care of the acl brother, so we can start the bangalore iiith football chapter together tsk tsk :P - Pranjal Thapliyal

Fellow appahij/wheelchair buddy who is very fond of ocean. Has everything going for him except football (he is an arsenal fan smh). - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Bro, you are one hell of a guy, whenever I meet you I get a smile on my face. All the best bhai!! Always great talking to you. Text me in a few years. - Saurav Chhatani

Hulllooo cutie! Discussing and playing football with you was always fun and kaafi memorable. Poora vibey presence on campus, stay the very same mate 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

First day on campus :
Honestly, kind of terrible. It was lockdown. You couldn't leave your room, and there wasn't much to do.

Favourite campus memory :
Spending time at the library, and having Tres Leches by vc with my friends.

One thing you will miss the most :
Being able to get a snack easily even at 3am. Oh, and the vc coffee for sure. But most of all, my friends.

Best thing you learned from here :
Not letting others take advantage of you.

Favourite place in campus :
Easily the KCIS terrace. It was crazy to find a whole ass amphitheatre there. That was a pleasant surprise. Had a lot of good memories there. Too bad they locked the gates now though.

Biggest Change since your first year :
At the beginning, I was kind of a degenerate. Didn't do much of anything really. Was academically lost. Didn't have any purpose. Just spent all day gaming and browsing reddit. I picked up Calisthenics, and got failry decent at it. Still a long way to go though.

Bro I really admire you as a person. I have had some great convos with you. I admire that you put in genuine effort in the things that you believe in. Keep being u bro. All the best for the future. - Pradhuman Tiwari

We did the coolest DASS project ever xD. If only we got to go out and drink with srinath and dolton 😜 - Adith John Rajeev fellow degenerate. man of culture. i know you're secretly gay for me. do not forget the YT deal (in case you end up blowing up :)). stay in touch brother. ps: man "nailed" cogsci, in more ways than one just saying :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

Best omen player!!(In silver lobby)..😂 The guy who doesn't know Hindi.. idk how you survived through 4 years. You had to take me on conference so that I give directions to the delivery guy😂. Motivated me to go to the gym.. always comes for a coffee break in the evening and made me a coffee addict. We had a great time together man!!! Have a great career. Be in touch!!-Yug - Yug Dedhia

"junkie + gym addict. bros got 0 ball game on outside stuff. all the valo we played together and roomie time was nice + reason i started ordering rice bowls basically everyday from california burrito xd all the places we went together and memories made were great and hopefully we stay in touch for a long time + i wish we could meet frequently in bangalore but alas this fucker college swapped our places.. - Polakampalli Sai Namrath

Abhay: "Give me your vape dealer. I just want to try, I won't get addicted." - Priyanshul Govil

A close friend that I've come to know over the past few years. He's a happy, quirky guy who might be too much into gaming. I'm currently at gun point being forced to tell you to subscribe to his youtube channel: https://www.youtube.com/@abon2204. Otherwise, his chill demeanour is quite refreshing in this college of stressful deadlines. Though his competitiveness in gaming and even chess is contradictory towards this(You alright man, you sure you don't have multiple personality disorder?). Overall, my time with him has been quite fulfilling and fun, but I wish he would train those skinny legs of his - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Dear JoeBro, First time we met...football ground ofc and I instantly knew we'd be devoted to it till end of college. I take credit for transforming you into that feared beast of a player hehe. And as fellow retards, we've always stuck together be it assignments, meals, trips, etc (until you pulled that chocolate hiding gimmick :( ). From vibing to the peepeepoopoo check song during DASS to sitting shotgun on that horror of a car drive with you behind the wheel, we've made a ton of memories together. Those overnight gaming sessions, anime binging and E20 SCENES brother!! But along the way you have always managed to cheer me up and idk if you realize but have helped me immensely on so many occasions (obviously referring to PS4). You have given me some of the best advice I've ever gotten (A serious Joel really cooks) and I really admire your passion and work rate towards something you love like debating and philosophy (Extrapolate to NLP bruvv). Thank you! PS: I'm getting my skull insured next time I come home. - Ankithvarun J

Waddupp DAWGG ! Absolute beast of a man. First interacted with you in the online semester. Became good friends after we did the IoT project together. Once we came to campus, both of us were quarantined together in Parijat where we shared meals together and thats when we became solid bros. You are hands down the funniest guy I've ever met. Not only is your sense of humour unique but also surprisingly fitting even in the most serious of moments. An absolute beast of a goofball is how I would describe you xD. I haven't had a single conversation with you where I did not laugh, irrespective of the time of day and the situation. This is why I love hanging out with you and one of the things I will miss the most about college. I'm not gonna lie, my initial impression of you was this brainless guy who didnt know when to shut up. But I think that you are very mature, kind, caring and considerate as well. Mavropanos is the coolest nickname someones ever given to me. Thanks and Best of luck with everything ! PUTA BARCA ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Yoo Joelesh. I only knew you as the guy who was good at debating during the online times, but as I got to know you more after coming to campus through the football banter sessions, I understood the kind of person you were. I have never seen someone as joyous as you in my life. There's never a dull moment when you are around. You are also someone who can vibe with any random person for as long as possible. This is extremely unique, likeable and a skill that is quite rare. I'll never forget the countless memories that we made together as friends and brothers. You perfectly epitomise the ideal way a person should live. Without a care in the world about what other people might think of you. Your larger-than-life personality has given me some invaluable lessons about life and I'll forever be grateful to you for that. The link-up we had is something that I'll remember throughout my life and I'm super thankful for having a friend like you. I wish you all the best in life bro. The sky is the limit for you! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

My friend since before birth, hope you will continue being my ghost friend after death too lmaoo. Got to know you online, and I still remember how nice I used to be to you in the beginning. You were one of the close friends I made in the online times itself which continues to carry on. From being Parijat mates during quarantine time to sending you off, it has been an absolute pleasure interacting and hanging with you, be it during meal times or going out. You never run out of things to talk about, even if it's the most absurd topic to start a conversation with. Though you always put up a nonchalant attitude, you are a very caring and sweet person who I know will always be there for me. It's always entertaining to be in your presence and you never fail to make me laugh, which is something that I am grateful for. I am also very glad that you introduced me to honey cake, which is one of the best things I've ever eaten. Hope we get many more opportunities to do our special handshake :D. - Swetha Vipparla

My Mallu buddy. I remember the first time you slide tackled me during the futsal tournament leaving me with bruises. The late champions league nights in your's and ankith's room with full of banter and gossips filled my days at IIIT with joy. You're a person who just enjoys life so much yet so focused in the right areas and achieving things in life. I will miss those b grabs I got from you and how will I get those now. I will miss those racist, sexist, terrorist jokes we make. By the way, send me your new church address (Only asking for spiritual purposes). Thank you and stay in touch Mr. Janardan. - Ruhul Ameen S

"Well, our journey goes on! I met you so long ago and we have been good friends from the beginning. You became a football fanatic which I didn't expect at all. I really like the way you think and consume content. I like to hear your takes on books, movies, etc. It was good seeing someone interested in the same genres of books that I read and we have gone through a few series together. I like how much you have improved in football and your passion and dedication to continuously improving. I know who to talk to if I want to have some random half an hour conversation lol. Now that we will be in Bangalore in the near future, I hope we continue going to the turf and watching football matches together. And keep being un poco loco. All the best for your future! - Shubh Agarwal

What up dawggg!! Don't even know where to start. Unlike you i'm not able to generate random words rn lol. Anyway thanks ra for always being there for me whenever i needed you. I dont even remember how we became such close friends but am truly grateful we did. Maybe cause we got that link up. You might be one of the most retarded hyper people i know but also one of the most genuine. How u say some of the shit u do i will never understand. I dont think i will ever meet anyone like you ever. Thank god every football match we were on the same team. I'd probably not be alive otherwise. Anyway, i love you brother and good luck for everything. Never change. Ps: You are my sunshine xD - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle Will never forget that shambolic BVRIT performance XD. Jokes aside, you're an amazing person and I enjoyed every minute of football with you (Only when you're on my team, can't handle such crazy opposition lol). - Shreyash Jain

Joelose Escobar Alex, the finest by that name. Man is the best connected scamster, and second only to me when it comes to how late to start on a deadline - truly inspiring to see neither of us had started when asking each other about deadline XD. Man's a football god and sports the best mustache on campus (when he shaves his beard and embraces the inner escobar, shame that hasnt happened more 😔) Wish you all the best with your future endevours man, keep slaying (and we'll meet up in kochi someday again) - Amal Sunny

You are the most chaotic chill guy I've ever met. With you vibes have always been immaculate. You have no idea how many times you have made me feel better after randomly popping into my room (for throat cleansing or otherwise). For sure next time I come Kochi I'll be at your house. - Ben Paul Varghese Rizz lord and the greatest interviewee I've seen. Actual enjoyer of russian doomer philosophy and 200+iq books. Its great how you're so easy-going, yet still manage to ace everything from acads to sports. Always level-headed in every situation, I'll miss having you around for the advice and fun vibes. Hope your beard goals are achieved. As you embark on your next phase as a marquee signing, I'm sure you'll keep winning wherever you're located. - Nitin Rajasekar

The singular most unhinged, yet still, the funniest person I met on campus. You were the life of every room we shared and as oxymoronic as it may seem, my time here would've have been far darker without you around. Gonna miss the bear hugs, big guy. - Rajarshi Ray

EDA MONEEE!! I will like to start by saying you my brotha from another motha. But considering you and your passion for mom jokes, am not even gonna go down that lane. I should have had you arrested for identity theft long back. I still won't forgive you for stealing all my praise in the starting semester, you mf. You showed me the thin line between homo and homie sexuality and made me tread that line so very dangerously and I really don't know whether I should thank you or hate you for that. E-20 and Oreo days were easily the best days of college xD. I know writing cheesy sweet lines would have no effect on you, you badly trained LLM, so I will leave all the things unsaid. And I hope to god our insta chats don't get leaked even in the slightest, I might have to kill myself. All the best for your future and please try your best not to get cancelled or killed. You my bro, broski, brotien, brosicle, broseph, brotastic,Han Brolo and bromosexual, . Sorry to say but I am the better Janardan/ Joel anytime. - Janardan S

Best BTP mate I could've asked for (jk). He has that chill bitch nigga vibe around him. Acts gay tho, but hey if you can't act gay, you are gay. But jokes aside, we've spent good time together, like thru placements and all (if i can call it good time). Overall, cool guy with a good heart and a squeezable bo... . Will miss you. I'm coming to Kochi. - Gokulraj R

Hoe eL one of the most friendliest person on campus. He always greets and talks to everyone no matter how busy he is. He is a very chill person you can talk to him about anything and he will patiently listen but will also give witty replies. He always supports and helps his friends. I loved playing rocket league against him one of the very few people who actually knows to play the game well. I have never seen him being worried about anything and I really admire his personality. Keep being yourself and all the best with your future endeavours. - Likhith Asapu og roommate connection. will never get over the fact how i stumbled into rooming up, and then befriending one of the coolest people on campus. absolute degenerate, but also prolly the most cultured person i know. also, will forever be indebted to you for introducing me to kdot (which ultimately helped me to witness THE beef in real time). will miss being spanked/groped by you + spanking you in return. ask your team to open up in blr soon so the og roommates can reunite lmao, and stay in touch brother (both literally and figuratively :)) - Pranjal Thapliyal

I can write pages about your funny, eccentric and purely random actions and behavior. Aptly named badly trained LLM and random word generator. You are a kind of person that I will never meet in my life again, very cute, helpful and sweet, always provided entertainment to all of us during outings and trips (although sometimes u did say retarded things). I will always remember and cherish those late night rocket league games (thank you for introducing me to PS4), those pointless banters we used to have, those abusive and racist jokes lmao (though I was the one getting most abuse). Those times when we used to kassi together for endsems and projects (I have been in teams with you for more courses than you think but I still think Mavani did most of the work in DA). You are an amazing guy to be around with, a skilled football player and I love hanging out together. I will always remember that I had a friend named Joel in my college who made it so much more memorable, enjoyable and fulfilling. Wish you very best for - Ayush Agrawal

Jojo rabbit <3 I'll love ya loads always. I'm gonna miss you showing up to my room(you were the cutest in the wing). Don't forget to keep in touch. Ily again. - Adith John Rajeev

Joelybhai My junior in Rocket League, I will always fondly remember the lessons I taught you while going easy on you. To see you improve over the months is a pleasure only I cherish. As we look back, thank you for PS4! it has been an integral part of our group experience. Sitting together around the monitor discussing the day while someone is getting thrashed in RL, we have had the Your ability to find humor in any situation and keep everyone around you laughing is a rare and wonderful gift. You are the one of the most chill and laidback person i have met in college. When not playing survivor, your ability to lock in on your work is impressive. I have seen you handle stress without making others aware of it effortlessly. keep being and stay awesome, Joely bhai! - Khush Devendra Patel

One of the realest brothas I know. When the world's against you, this guy's got your back. One of the few guys who could truly match my power level. Severely autistic and has an excess of chromosomes, but still a true homie. Stay real g - Aayush Bhandari

JOEEEEELLLLLLL LA ECKS DA BEST MALLU FR FR If you aren't hugging him by your second or third time meeting him, something has gone wrong. This man is the nicest, warmest, and most fun human being you will ever meet. Period. He is a wonderful person to be around and can be as funny or as serious as you want him to be. Talking with him immediately uplifts anyone's mood, and he is an invaluable friend to have around. I will really really miss having you around the college buddy and your hugs are simply magic. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

"A great friend, one of the best defenders in the campus, and an admirer of football (though by the way which team do you support?). It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together in Ankith's room (not like they went well for our team though :)). I have been lucky to have avoided the Joel treatment on the pitch :). Always a pleasure hanging out with you. We lost on interbatch a year prior but won this year. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. PS: The most friendly (... sometimes too friendly :)) person on the campus. - Sukhjinder Kumar

Hiee! Us watching random sitcoms and shows on gmeets, studying and listening to music on discord are cherished memories <3. Spending time with such a cute and interesting person was a delight <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best. - Anusha Nath Roy

HOOOEEELLL!! My god, the football group's biggest memelord. You are one of the craziest people I know, in all of the best ways! I still remember the random chitchat and the sheer number of times you told me to read Berserk (I started a while back, you're right, it's amazing). It was an absolute treat sharing the football field with you, despite the rough play. I do wish I got to know you a little better though. Even so, I hope you keep the crazy, it's one of your best traits. All the best! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Hoel, I will never forget the fun retarded converstations we have had. I am lucky to have find a retarded person like you xD. It took me time to understand you but I know now that you are literally like a child. I like how you are straightforward, look at things in a straight manner. Shoutout to you for the dedication towards football. I wish you are always happy, healthy and succeed in life. All the best :) - Annam Venika Sruthi

It has been an absolute pleasure being a part of DEBSOC with you, playing football with you, and having fun and stupid interactions with you. I am really going to miss you loads after you graduate. Please take good care of yourself and keep your phone out of your pocket when it matters the most XD. - Harshit Gupta

The campus will feel slightly deader without your energy. *intense eye contact - Shashwat Singh

First day on campus :
Quarantined in Girls Hostel for 5 days !!

Favourite campus memory :
Going out in the city to different locations Playing in college team Stargazing at late night

One thing you will miss the most :
The Hostel life - late night studying, playing games with friends, roaming aimlessly in hostel

Best thing you learned from here :
Patience and maybe Computer Science

Favourite place in campus :
T-Hub (Himalaya D block) , Back road of faculty area (it's the most quiet place in campus), Hostel(OBH)

Biggest Change since your first year :
Became a lot more atma - nirbhar

You are one of the smartest people I've met on campus, and this is seen in everything you do. I got to know you through football and honestly, you remind me of Messi because of how left-footed you are and how tricky it is to face you as a defender. I'm glad to have shared lots of memories on the college football pitch with you. You are a very helpful person and this is evident in your demeanour. I was also pleasantly surprised at how crisp and clear your understanding of concepts was in IPP. You helped me gain a grasp of a few important concepts in it and I thank you for that. I wish you all the best for your future endeavours in life. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

IIITH's Messi. Best dribbler on campus "Period". A great pleasure to have known you from the start. We have played together, not just in inter-batch but also in futsal tournaments during Felicity. We finished runner-ups twice but did manage to win in the end! You have a very humble personality, always ready for football. Also whenever I meet you, always engraved in some academic problem like the one time you were talking to everyone in CSTAR for a solution to a graph problem (right?). I wish best of luck in your future endeavors. Cheers to the memories we made and to the many more to come. - Sukhjinder. – Sukhjinder Kumar

UNO bhi khila diya and Catan bhi, Sabse fun and interesting person, Tere wajah se hanuman chalisa bhi aa gayi. Itna caring and supporting kese he tu, and itna patience bhai, itni baar gussa kiya tujh pe still hamesha lite le liya. 212 me starting ke dance session, "taar bijli se patle", pehla sutta vayur ke sath , pehli baar college me nashe, felicity pe nachna, itne saare college ke best moments tere sath the and tere karan the. College easy ho gaya tha, cuz daily 212 me rr kar skta tha. Pehla goa trip me corona, second me prasoon ka driving, hamesha kuch crazy kar hi lete the. College aate se dodge baal and khoko, phir main block me cricket, itna hi sports khela he mene, wo bhi tune hi karaya. Me to bohot lucky rha, first day college ke itna accha insaan mil gaya, will always be grateful. Itna jyada dimmag he tujh me, and itna enjoy karta he tu kassi karna, aise hi rehna pls. warna aa jaunga CPR dene. - Atharva Joshi

"Hey there, cutu. I am so glad you took admission to this college (whether you graduate or not is a separate discussion) so that I could know you so closely. Nobody knows about the future, but I want to thank you for giving me the best memories of my college life. I'll miss ordering food (JDM ftw) and eating while watching The Office together, pulling all-nighters before exams, academic BT vlogs and seeing you waiting at the Parijat gate (both old and new). I adore your energy, optimism, goofiness and the light you bring into every room you enter. I am so grateful that we could be friends and a little more. ;) And if there is ever a tomorrow when we are not together, there is something you must remember: you are smarter, braver, and stronger than you believe, and most importantly, even if we are apart, I'll always be with you. Work hard next year, research khatam karo, stress kam lena and keep visiting, and I'll visit too. Hopefully, we'll get a chance to walk around the campus one more time. <3 - Harshita Gupta

College mai shayad aisa koi nahi jiske saath mere itne jagde hue jitne tere saath hue hai and yet there is probably no one jiske saath I enjoy spending time as much as you. You genuinely have an effortlessly cool persona and I'm very jealous of that. Tujhe pata hai, agar tu koi plan mai in hota hai toh instantly kaafi saare log in ho jaate hai. Apart from me, RK ka only still veg banda hai tu, toh jab tu dinner wagera pe nahi aata toh teri bohot yaad aati hai 😅. Only guy jo mere jitna lightweight hai, jisko sanitizer sungh ke bhi chad jaati hai. Bohot zyaada mazaa aata hai tere saath randomly ccnsb mai kassne mai, ensdem ke pehle ka tere room mai study sesh, random movie nights in your room and late night catan games. Kasol ka woh sutta toh life ka best sutta tha. Looking forward to one more year of crazy fun! - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

Hello RK head, thanks for accepting my application to join this cool guys club in March, 2022. Special thanks for maintaining the RK insta page. We go back to countless amazing memories - Goa (x2), Survivors (BKFC), watching the lowest rated IMDB movies, singing aalu ka paratha in North mess, I have third wheeled you and the first lady the most I guess (among the couples), our pair has so conquered science courses and ds 💪💪. We played in cricket teams with you the captain and opened together. One thing common in all of these is the amount of fun, if we are present in a room, we make sure its fun and that's coz you have the range to match everybody's vibe. I call you the Versatile Viber. – Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Aur bhai kidjain,Dekh aadmi kaisa bhi ho, dost toh tu best hai. Very fortunate to know you. Best Wingmate, tera room 212 me hi toh mai mila tha tum sabse. and udhar se first daaru session and uss room me session jisme guard aa gya tha woh toh mughe hamesha yaad rahega. Tere saath toh bohot parties kari hai, goa trip, saare treats and house party toh sab mere college ke best experiences the and tu hamesha tha saath me. Har room me vibe bana deta hai, itna personality wala banda hai tu, life of any and every party. Thanks you for creating the best spotify playlists, Love u brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

arey the roomie sid jain (color pencil) vese hardik ko bhi roomie likh deta hu 😂 but 212 toh kya best tha bhai, the og kotha for randis or itni saari memories bas sab log pade pade baate karte rehete the and thanks for listening to my all the girl problems 🤣, chahe vo smruti ho, tanisha (vo toh kya tha bhai, calls and all crazzyyy), mihika (jispe tu mujhe itna judge karta tha), sriya and himani or bhai trips and villa parties pe toh kya maza aaya tere sath, u have icing on the cake kind of personality #rk #prathi sala cup nimde - Prasoon Garg

Pata ni baar baar itni RR kaise jhel leta, but starting from room 212 to doing some random dumb shit every day during the summer vacations to laughing the shit out of jokes on extremely sensitive topics, kitna important insaan raha bc college mai tu. Every gossip to rant to straight up breakdowns have been memorable along with all the binging of relationshit advice and modern family. Abhi 2-4 saal college mai kaatne hee hein saathme so dunno why this testimonial makes sense, but thanks for being there cutie <3 P.S. GSSSssssSSssss - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Aur bhai Mr. 90 ml. Yaar itni memories. Ek ek likhne baithu to yearbook bas tere hi naam ka hoga. Bohot sahi banda hai tu. Easily parakh leta hai ki koi uncomfortable ya thoda down ho. Party ki jaan hai tu. Bakchodi rukne nahi deta aur stories to kya badhiya sunata hai. Cricket ka highest scorer saala out hi nahi hota. Thoda washroom ka sahi ho jaye to all-rounder kehla sakta hai. - Shreyas Revankar

Hey, have you met Sid :pI agree I should have been a better wingwoman but tujhe zarurat hi nhi xD Such a chill and fun person and kitna accha dost. Discord pr admin powers ko kya abuse Kiya humne and those 24-hr tests Jo sab vc pr pde reh kr dete the. The multiple hours on vc listening to songs on bots and the faltu ki gossip. Online codenames/skribbl khel khel kr boht acche dost ban gye yaar hum. Teri stupid, pointless baate and oof the taunts, such a dumbass. Also saanp tu hi hai aur rahega bhi bc 🐍 Abhi toh saath mein peena and naachna baaki h - Shivangi Agarwal

Hello yaar! Your the sweetest and kindest friend i have ! I cherish our bond together and really love hanging out with you . Must really say that you listen to my nonsense and try to make sense out of it.. It was wonderful being your friend and I really thank the summer CSO course for making me close to you guys even more.. you text me whenever I'm not in class next to you and ask me how i was doing or about my health .. i was so touched.! 🫶 And i enjoy your company very much and it is a reason i look forward to CND dinners all of us just randomly chilling.. Lets make many more memories and enjoy our 5th year and of course graduate on time !! 🥳🔥 - Syed Imami

I always thought of you as the kassi from CND, but I couldn't have been more wrong. You are not just that - you are also funny and interesting to talk to. Thank you for always helping with the "wake up Joshi please" texts lol. I had some great times with you - whether it was a movie double date or planning the (successful) heist. Can't wait for more fun times ahead :)) and Jethalal reels too hehe. - Ameya Sharma

We became friends pretty early on in college during the discord times but I got to know you better after coming to college. You are one of the most hard-working and sincere people (in terms of academics) I've come across in college and your work ethic is something I admire. It is also always fun speaking with you about any and everything. We have made some great memories along the way and we'll make some more in 5th year. Wish you all the best in life and all your future endeavours. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Duniya bhar ki faaltu baatein karalo isse. Tere bina RK kabhi establish nahi hota. Tere saath kam time spend karna toh roz regret karta tha college mein bhi. Hamesha gossip aur chutiya baatein karke haste hai. But meri bhi galti nahi hai...teri priorities toh set hi hoti hai 😞Bhul mat jaana...kabhi kabhi call kardena. 212 Always ❤️❤️❤️❤️ Will always remember you as hardik's roomie :insert_psyduck_sticker: - Tanmay Goyal

Partners in crime in every course. Jab bhi mei syllabus padhna chalu karta tha toh tu khatam karke sone jaata tha. Online days se lekar Kasol tak har cheez saath mein. Watching cricket, Mob Psycho, Family Guy and Rick and Morty is always a treat when its with you aur bas I hope tera unique fashion sense kabhi change na ho. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

oye sahi sid jain ko likh raha hoon na mai yeh testimonial. kaafi achha dost hai tu. as a person kaafi caring aur look out karta hai sabke liye. you prolly know sm shit about me to get me cancelled at any time lol. had some of the most fun moments with you (harr moment hi fun tha with the EXCEPTION of catan). koi show/ movie dekhne ke liye badiya banda hai tu bas pause karke family guy ki obscure references nikalne ki buri aadat hai teri lol. aur bohot chinta karta hai tu choti baato ke liye like academics. hai 8th sem mei aa gaya but abhi bhi terko darr sawar hai XD. it's good to be a lil in pressure but itna bhi na ho ki banda phatt hi jaye. mai bas isliye likh rha hoon yeh ki aage jaake job/ shob mei thoda chill pill lena. warna saari dawaiyo ka effect waste ho jayega tension se. GiggityGoo forever - Mihir Rawat

RK leader. Mahal me shaadi karna and zarur bulana. Thanks for carrying DS project, kese hota varna. Itne jokes maar leta hai kabhi stand up ka bhi sochle, kya rakha hai ye CND me 7 saal baad graduate hoga. Will miss you, your clumsy veg orders, cricket, football, songs, Rk and everything in between. - Soveet Kumar Nayak

"Hello andhe, you were one of the first few friends I made in college too xD We've had a lot of fun memories and talks together. Let's stay connected and keep meeting when you come blr after graduating (7-8 years minimum). Will never forget watching haseen dilruba hehe xDD - Shreeya Singh

Bhai, tu bohot sahi banda mil gaya, acha hua pehli flight mein pakkad liya tujhe. Bohot saare memories hai tere saath toh, RK ko sabse intact tune hi rakha hai. Sabse pehle birthday bhi tere saath banaya tha college mein....Also, sabahye somvaar, movie nights in RK room core memories rahengi..... Thanks for everything!! - Saurav Chhatani

No Insta but find me on Linkedin

First day on campus :
It comprised of me seeing a big campus, quarantine so had to live in old girls' hostel. Wasn't nervous as such but very much excited to meet the people. Little upset that CSE friends were not coming yet. Room and wall incident. Random checks by guards and health checkups. It was a lot of fun.

Favourite campus memory :
Many... ISB walks, Faculty Quarter walk after long, and talks beside T-Hub. My last birthday. Random walks at midnight. The times I got more marks. Ananthagiri trip, CVIT Icecream stories, Manu room stories, Staying till sunrise after a night full of talking. Staying up for projects and many more...

One thing you will miss the most :
Many... My 4th year roommate. My labmates and the work maybe. Also, I wish I could go back to my first year and relive my life again. I will miss all of my friends who supported me for sure and all the moments we spent and I wish I could have spent. Random nonsense discussion in Manu's room

Best thing you learned from here :
Not all people are worthy of sharing everything and only some people know the value of gratitude, so don't let people enter your personal space until the person is proven to handle that responsibility.

Favourite place in campus :
I love T-Hub steps a lot. I also love seeing sunsets from the felicity ground. I love SH2 also for all the room it amazes me and never stays the same every time I go.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I feel I have understood people more and learned to deal with people better rather than trusting all the people blindly. I have learned confidence and sportiveness.

Hi jaishnav, yes you were one of those people i met on campus in the starting days. You seemed a gentlemen, the way you were talking and helping me.I remember girija introduced me to you. she helped me a lot that time, introduced to some of her friends, very kind person she is and so are you. After those few meet ups I recently connected with you by common friends, always felt great talking to you, if asked anything you are always ready to help. I have admired your efforts to maintain friendships with people you love. wish if we had formed this bond earlier only. Also we didn't get time to say good bye properly, party pending ! All the best for you future, Don't forget us after going to USA. see ya - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Hi Jaishnav, I am familiar about you since my 9th class. The very first opinion on you was very sincere guy. This didnt change though but I came to know about you even more, after when we became good friends from 3rd year summer. I admire your hardworrking and never giving up nature a lot da. And one more thing that I like alot is your helping nature, especially to your ppl. You give your best in that. Thanks for that!! You helped me when I needed you the most! I will give my best to be grateful for this. I wish we had one more year at IIITH to have more memories. But that's fine we will be in touch to the best and create more memories. Dont forget to give a call or message me once in a while, I will always be there to catch up. All the very best for your future. Once again thank you so much for being their for me! You are irreplacable. - Venkannagari Shirisha Reddy

The kindest fr. Saved my cg multiple times throughout the first two years. We started talking a bit lesser as time went on but I'm glad to have known you. Hope we keep in touch and good luck for your big smart people things coming up ahead!! You should buy me a chocolate too :p - Tejah S S

Hello , u are one of the most helpful people I know. Asalu emi parichayam lenapudu kuda u very always there to help everyone around you. It always felt great talking to you. Congratulations and all the very best for ur future endeavours. - Evuri Indra Deepika

Will miss you a lot da! all the best for your future and I hope you become a very successful person in life and achieve all your dreams! - Shreeya Singh

Hello Jaishnav, it is understated how much I admire and respect you. Probably the most hardworking and disciplined person I have ever met in my life, I respect the dedication and effort you put into every endeavor you undertake. It's a shame how we only started talking more and getting closer in the 4th year, but just a few deep conversations with were enough to reveal that you are an absolute of a gem. Stay working and grinding hard homie, you deserve every achievement in your life. Keep that spark in your character and stay genuine, and wishing you all the very best in the States, you'll kill it. - Sankalp S Bhat probably the most dedicated man I have seen in this college !! I really feel motivated whenever I speak to u da, all the best for ms !! - Atharv Sujlegaonkar

The most hardworking guy I know, keep smiling and have a lot of fun in MS! - Ananya Sane

Jaishnav, you are the most dedicated, hardworking and ofc emotional person I have met in my life. You were one of my first friends I made in college. We may not have gotten a lot of chance to catch up offline but we have our fair share of memories together from dissing about love life to you being first person to call after google. Your friendship has and will always mean a lot to me. I sincerely hope you achieve everything you want in your life. All the Best. - Hardik Gupta

Hi raa, actually haa naaku nee gurinchi chaala recent ge telsindi. Feel happy to know you more. Enjoy your life, keep no regrets, remember the good things from your past, move on from bad things. hii jaishnav, you smarty. i admire your work ethic so much. thanks for all the ece help you've given me (and the rest of ece). i wish we hung out more in college. thanks for yummy Swissy(oops) chocolate hehe. have lot of fun in life and stay in touch <3 - Sreenya Chitluri

Ece god for sure, but even then one of the nicest guys out there...almost the entire ece batch survived 1st and 2nd year with your help.. - Jewel Benny

Dear Jaishnav, aka the official ""Kassi"" of the batch, it has been a pleasure to share this college journey with you. When I think about our first interactions, the first thing that comes to mind is playing football with you during our second year when we had to do sports credits. I hope you start playing football again someday because you do enjoy it. Another favourite memory with you is the Ananthagiri Hills trip. That was when I got to spend the most time with you and get to know you better. First of all, I have to say that you guys were pretty daring to hire an activa to travel the entire distance to the campsite and back. I fondly remember how fun it was playing chain tag, mafia, and even making and flying paper planes. Beyond the fun times, your ambition, hard work, dedication, and kindness towards others are awe-inspiring, and I hope you keep up the excellent work and have a fantastic life ahead. Let's stay in touch - there's so much more to discover about each other. Best of luck! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Thank you so much for being such a helpful batchmate, and genuinely one of the best teammates I've had across so many projects. And please do keep watching more anime :) Hope you'll reach everything you want to achieve, good luck! - L Lakshmanan

When we first met, I was surprised by how open and expressive you were, even with people you don't know that well. It's such a rare and amazing quality to be able to share your emotions so freely. You are so unrealistically disciplined and sincere. I always struggle with being consistent and disciplined (not easy!!!!!) but you greatly inspire me. I've had a lot of fun hanging out with you at parties, birthdays, and all those other events. ppl'll remember the funny outings. We've had some deep chats and shared insights that really gave me a new perspective on many things. You're smart, hardworking, and I have no doubt you'll be super successful. Wishing you all the best! And, don't forget to enjoy life and party! You've got a great balance going on, and it's inspiring. - Surabhi Jain

The Man, the Myth, the Legend. Dude can solve the paper before 10 minutes passes and just spends the rest of his time watching others struggle. But on the serious note, One of the most hardworking and dedicated people in college. It was a great time with you always man and hope you achieve your future goals. Keep in touch. - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

Jaishnav I don't even know where to begin with. From the very beginning you've helped me so much in my academics, and not just me, the entire batch, it was amazing. I remember how we managed to pull off the DSA project which was becoming a nightmare. It wouldn't be wrong to say that you carried the core EC courses for me at times. Thank you so much man. I remember my mom asking me in the first 2 months of offline college - "How's Jaishnav" and I think that just perfectly tells how important and valuable role you've played in my initial college years. Sad that we lost a bit of touch but let's talk more and let's bring it back. All the best for your future man, can't wait to see you do great things in life. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

Hi jaishu , I am thankful to have you as a friend. I enjoyed the time spent seeing horror movies and going to movies and all the discussions we had. You are one of the first friend I made coming to college, thank you for being there for me all the time. Even though we spoke little less to each other in last year, I felt you are still one of my closest friend and that speaks to our bond. wish you all the best for your future. Stay happy in your life. wish to have this friendship for the rest of the life. - Dereddy Anantha Shayana Reddy

Hello Jaishnav! Ever since we met after arriving on campus, you've always been a good friend to me. You were there for me whenever I needed you. I'm very grateful to you. I've seen you grow as a person through our time together. I'm proud of you. Keep growing, and I hope you achieve your dreams. I hope you know that you can call/text me anytime. All the best :) - Narra Srija

Finally I've started writing testimonials, and so that I don't miss yours due to lack of time, u are my first ;3 . In online mode I first noticed you, because you had a segsy voice, but we first talked offline, for CT Assignment only, IIRC, (you were kassi). But you turned out to not be the arrogant kind of kassi, your were the bond all along, helpful to everyone, empathetic, and always spoke out your mind, which I always liked. I felt like I could also open up to you, thanks for that, I'm not open to many people on campus... Always keep being you, a kind and sensitive person, nahi to pel denge. Your stories were always the most interesting, those nights when we used to discuss (in MY room) for hours, will miss that once you are gone T_T.

Ples stay in touch, usually I loose contact with people. Though you are in campus till July end, so you can still tell me more of your interesting stories. You were the best kassi/bond from our batch, certified by me, the best judge!! - Pranav Manu

Hi da, You are one of the most passionate, bondest and most hardworking people I have met in college. I'm glad I could make such a genuine friend in college, its true that we could not talk much during our 3rd and 4th years, but I still remember our first 2 years of college vividly. Lets keep in touch after college as well! :heart: - Srikar Bhavesh Desu

Hi da!! You were one of the first few people I met during the starting days of college. You are one of the most courageous people I have ever met. I really admire your ability to face situations head-on in life and career. Watching you walk on a path that I would never dare to always inspire me to push myself more. You are one of the few people with whom I could freely share my thoughts. Thank you for listening to my banter. Even though we are moving to different parts of the world, I will forever remember our time together, be it breaking a beaker in your room, jumping around the hostel after completing a project or discussing our lives during a walk. You will be forever a cherished friend of mine. I wish you all the best in your future endeavours. - Souvik Karfa

Jaishnav's awesome! Super friendly and always got that positive vibe going. Even though we didn't hang out much, he was always there to help out when needed. I hope we cross paths again in the future. - Harish Umasankar

Heyy Jaishnav. I feel I have known you forever. Since 1st year, when you established yourself as the ECE bond, till 4th year when we did that bio course together I have always admired your humility and intellect. Your attempts at learning Hindi and my attempts at learning Telugu still make me laugh. All the memories we made while you helped me study for tests and exams I will cherish for a very long time You have a very bright future ahead of you and I can't wait to see everything you go on to achieve. All the best! - Anish Mathur

"Hii (brother of Chintu?, James?! lol) Jaishnav, it's been amazing with you since the last two semesters. I agree we didn't get to interact that much over the years, but you are one of the genuine people we all found. Never imagined that someone like you would have stories like 'that' to tell. You for sure, have helped me immensely, from getting assignments done to giving advice ache se! Don't worry about Particle Physics lol, the prof was generous enough. But without you and Panda, our smol trip would have been incomplete (our much-needed break, ofc). However much I've known you, I could've never found a friend like you-from our scooty rides in the city together to some really interesting discussions. And ranting away about things would always go hand-in-hand :). All the very best for your future and living in a new country all together! Legit, whenever you need it, I'm just a call away!! - Anjali Singh

Hi ra, nijamga nee gurinchi entha cheppina takkuve.. ela ra antha foucused ga untav.. plus emina snake ahh ante adi kuda kaadu.. avarina doubt adigithe ventane explain chesthav.. thop ra.. anyways all the best ra..❤️ - Pulapa Prudhvi

Namasthe sir, manam chesina first 3 years has no importance, but the final year was very memorable. I loved to watch movies together. The total random and unlogical conversions are the best of our time together. You are the one who talk to me like a brother without hesitation. You deserve the good friends, but due to various reasons of miss understanding in persons perceptive it happened in that way. Whenever it happens, please approach without hesitation. Anyway, I am braver, cleverer than you and also I solved your academic questions :) All the best for your higher studies and good luck with relationships. - Challa Tharun Hello future Electronics giant! Your hardworking nature always inspired me to push myself, it really defines your character.. After all this you are so humble..p Hope all your dreams come true! Also don't forget to collaborate with me on brain computer interfaces ;) Keep in touch bro.. Hope we all go on a road trip again! - Jain Chirag Shantilal

When I first met you, I think it was in the online sem during one of the teams lectures, you, me and sreeharsha were the only ones talking. That time I had you pegged for a proper kassi guy who was going to do nothing but study all the time but BOY was I wrong! I had never thought that you'll become a part of a group as chaotic and random as nashediz but now I can't even think of it without you. Especially the latest Ananthagiri trip was such a blast! forever the analog role model of the batch, keep slaying king P.S I still love the misogynistic Jaishnav, that arc was awesome too - Tanmay Bhatt

Hello, "Kassi", My first impression of you during the online semester, after meeting you offline, it's been great getting to know you. We've had our fair share of tough moments together, but you have been very helpful, and your assignment was used to moving around across batch, from getting your assignment from others to now directly asking you shamelessly, You've always been welcoming and super helpful, and I won't forget that, I don't have much to say, except good luck for your future endeavours, May you reach for the stars and achieve the highest of skies! - ROHAN GUPTA

Hi Jaishnav,This guy here is really funny. Anyone who knows him knows that.(I hope you'll roar again when you see the lion xD). When I first met him, he had huge goals.I thought it was impossible to achieve it.But after these many years,I know nothing is impossible for this guy.The impossible is just another challenge for him.He was my first friend.A friend I could talk to,laugh and cry with.If something ever bothered me he took it as his pain.He helps a lot.Even when he is in a tough situation, he does anything for his friends.He loves dogs a lot.He meows exactly like a cat that once my mom asked if a cat was near me.He loves ice cream a lot.He randomly claims himself as a vegetarian,though he likes chicken a lot.He loves surprises and he keeps in mind every help any person did. He never forgets people.He plays badminton well easily overpowering noobs like me.I hope he achieves all he wants in life.ATB.I learnt a lot from you. You are a source of inspiration. Thanks for being there.Bye MiChIgAnLY.🧸. - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

My man!!!! Successfully managed to be unsuccessful in launching two startups with this guy. Funny and edgy memelord. Closed off to others and looks very tough but is actually an overthinker. My advice - just stop worrying, you got great things ahead of you... - Shubhankar Kamthankar

My brother! You are the first person I met in OBH after I moved there; thanks for helping out a lot during those days. It's really fun and means a lot to me when we catch up randomly late at night and discuss whatever we are up to. I hope you take good care of yourself and have amazing years ahead :) PS: Your energy can collection was really cool. - Harshit Gupta

First day on campus :
First day of campus was fun, got out of quarantine, saw people for the first time in person after interacting with them virtually for almost an year. When we got out, we used to hang around the campus in large groups, exploring the different areas around the campus, having all sorts of fun.

Favourite campus memory :
Painting the walls around campus during Felicity would always be of special value to me, alsoo watching sports together, be it cricket or football, it was fun to watch it in rooms and sometimes match screenings in the class rooms.

One thing you will miss the most :
Everything, but specifically the long walks around the campus, those post deadline JC visits, satisfying late night cravings at Davids Canteen. Random chilling sessions at BBC, and the people that made college life all the way more happening and special for me.

Best thing you learned from here :
Coordinating and managing events, through many clubs and college activities. Handling stress, by managing multiple rigorous deadlines, amidst many college events.

Favourite place in campus :
This one's gonna be Davids for me. Going there, post deadline, in between match breaks or even when we had nothing to do, it was a go-to place.

Biggest Change since your first year :
confidence, handling responsibilities through holding positions of responsibilities at various clubs, and college institutions.

Pretty sweet and nice soul. Amazing designer, lil delay he might do in giving the designs but for the designs he gives, its worth the wait. He has got an incredible talent when it comes to art, please keep it going and doing more and more. Keep smiling, Stay in touch! - Gokul Praneetha

I still remember one day when you came and totally saved me before my smai viva. You are nice, kind person. Wish we had more interactions. I wish you a great future ahead. All the best! Stay in touch :) - Annam Venika Sruthi

"Dunno how dude finds amazing places to go eat by scrolling instagram lmao. If you're a girl, you'd never have to worry about finding good cafes :p (tere)college ke aakri din kaatthae time realise hua kitna important aadmi hai tu, bas thoda raand hai. Tere hee flat mai pade rahunga agle saal se, deal with it :p P.S. Gradually throughout college, Rizzman became more and more punjabi and I couldn't be more glad to see that tranformation :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Bhai I have genuine respect for the work that you have put in and continue to put to realize your dreams. Keep getting better and keep inspiring. All the best. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Kadi hass vi liya kro...just kidding :p . Who takes their unwashed clothes home for laundry and be so excited about shoes to buy the same pair in two different colors (and then say, "mai ameer nhi hun") ? And why is your idea of fun always teasing me?? But since you let me use your iPad in POIS class to unleash my inner artist, I will forgive you (tu bhi kya yaad rkhega). Super talented and kassi at the same time, and a last-minute savior before assignment deadlines and POIS exams (tune hi pass karaya hai, sacchiii). I can never be grateful enough. I will miss our rant sessions, walks around the campus, and hearing about your cute little cousin. You always made special days more special with your amazing little artworks, and those will always remain close to my heart. All the best, and I hope to see you again! - Khushi Agarwal

GymBro,OSgod,Brocodeenthusiast,plasticfan. Honestly kabhi nahi socha tha ki you'll be one of my closest friends in college but last sem turned out to be really great with you. Major part of my core college memories. The Goa trip, 306S and two wheeler rides will be some things with you that I'll always remember. You're the perfect blend of bakchodi and sensibility, sharing things is so easy with you amidst all the other crazy things you did on a daily basis which made college extra fun and bearable. Hoping for more crazy memories whenever I come to Hyd, bas please khana order karna seekh le. Also factory me placement dilwa dena

thanks. - Shreyash Jain

The sweetest person, someone who is always there to listen to your rants and ready to help you in any way he can. Vese iski bholi shakal pe mat jana, ye bas dikhne mein shareef hai XD. Jokes aside, really gonna miss our campus gedis, vibing to Punjabi songs at Durgam Cheru, and our walks to Domino's, listening to each others life problems and giving each other TED talks. Also, apna inorbit mein movie dekhne jana, somehow we always managed to pick the most bakchod movies XD and get the coolest pics <3. Thank you for always listening to all my rants, putting up with me even when I'm annoying, and gifting the cutest polaroids and drawings. Also, apna art wala picnic kabhi plan hi nahi ho paya :(, gotta plan that soon. Also, I am just a call away <3. - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Accidental roommates lol but one of the best decisions of my college life. Uss din agar timing thodi off hoti aur apan roommate na bante toh poori college life hi badal jaati. Kitni bakchodi kari hai saath mein. Raat ko late night walks and phir bhook lagna and then order karke khaana was like daily thing. Tune jitni nayi nayi khane wali jagah se introduce karwaya hai, real cafe lover you are lol and udhar jaake khana are one of the best memories of my college life. Socha pehle Punjabi mein likhoon but wasn't sure Haryana walon ko samajh aayegi Punjabi lmao. Abhi toh saath hi rahenge same jagah hain. Looking forward to this new chapter of life with you. PS- Agar subah nhi uthna hota toh alarm mat lagaya kar plssssss. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

Har trip ke baad kuch acha gift leke aata hai. Keychains khud se khareedna padega ig. Khud itna bahr ka khake, doosro ko bhi vahi khilata hai. I think that was the plan to make me fatter, omg so manipulative bet jeetne kliye itta manipulation. Salesforce me kiska proxy lagwaega ab. Theek hai on the bright side, I love how you put efforts to make the people around you feel special. Will miss getting annoyed by you. Will miss you asking me to sing beedi jalaile. Will miss you asking 'Bahr kb ja rhe hum'. Will miss getting Punjabi gaane suggestions. 2-3 baar revise krta hai exam se pehle, thoda kassi karna kam kar office me ab, baakiyo ko bhi mauka de mngr ko impress krne kliye. Thank you for always being there. I'm very grateful for the things you've done for me. Driver to banega hi tu mera. More Microsoft meets in Salesforce incoming ig. Can't wait to cook together. Can't wait to get your poori salary bhool mt jana bet. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini W friend, hopefully you overcome your medical problems due to which u werent able to attend your classes. Insane art hopefully u continue improving it. - Shavak Kansal

"Hey bestie, saviour, fellow foodie, and artist, I sometimes wonder how I survived college, and then I look at you and I know that's how. Life is hard a lot of times, but I want one more bowl of pasta with you. I love how we started talking because of art, and we continued to talk about it and so many other things all through these years. I adore how you try your best to be there for everybody, to help everyone out, and put others' needs before your own. I'll miss our long philosophical walks around the campus, your food recommendations (JDM <3), completing the entire syllabus one night before the exam, our quick revisions just before the exam, rant and bitching sessions. You have been the constant and with you existing everything seemed easier and a little less lonelier. I remember times when I was in deep crisis mode and had very little hope left, and in just one conversation, you made me realize that it's not all that bad. Stay in touch, buddy. I am just one call away. - Harshita Gupta

Red Flag Forever! Finally bahar chale gaye, ab when next? Here's to conquering the world! Will miss you buddy. Keep in touch K-Man. - Soveet Kumar Nayak

VIBE MATCH. Stated talking from the very first year of college for LA "notes" and didn't stop till the very end. Loved having you as a friend mate and stay the same, you're an amazing person 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Karman pajji is a very silent sweet understanding friend/brother, which everyone must have in their life, i mean i am lucky to have him with me in college life. He is the type jo aapki kabhi ese frontline se help nhi krega maybe but will always have your back, definitely kassi to hai hi pr sath hi he is an amazing person, there are very few people jinke sath aap apni life ki bt share karte ho and jiske sath aap krte ho vo aapke close ho jate hai, you are that person to me, one of the best things artsoc has given me definitely, pro artist, multi talented, rich, aur bhi boht qualities hai pr me rishta nhi la rha tere liye XD, really glad to have you in my college life, thank you for being there, would love to paint with you again. - Nikhil Agrawal

Most caring person I have ever met. I still remember jab main ek baar bimaar tha to tu mere liye apno thermos mein ginger tea banwa ke laya tha. Teri drawing skills ki jitni tareef karu utni kam hai. Aur tu unhe use karke jo gifts deta hai vo to bahut hi pyaare hote hai. Banda to tu bahut changa hai bas chair na jalaya kar meri. Agli baar jab milenge to campus jake apne spot ko mark karke jayenge aur burger king bhi order karenge. - Kushagra Kharbanda

The person I had to carry so hard in Economics smh. Despite the stupid back and forth between us, you've been one of the sweetest guys I've known for a long time. I'll continue to send cricket memes and discuss whatever match is going on. And thank you for the picture, I'll keep it safe with me wherever I move to :) - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Talented artist, very kind and very balle balle fr - A Kishore Kumar

"Ye kuch gaane ki line hai jo tere pe bahut suite karti hai (and it is not paisa paisa) Mangan ton pehla marna hai manzoor Gaddiya da ki ae, gharey 10 khadiya 11 ne truck, atte 12 kothiyan Kalli kalli kothi aggey bus khadi aa. Waise tu delhi se hai bolna band karde haryana se hai tu aur Asli mard manual gadi chalate hai automatic nahi. I am happy tujhe google maps chalana aa gya nahi to charminar ki gaaliyan jo tumne ghumai thi wo acha hai ab dubara nahi hoga. Tera maqsad sare aesthetic cafe finish karne ka kesa chal rha hai? But honestly tu bahut passionate aur sincere aadmi hai abhi bhi 3 baar revision karta but acha hai tere karn hum bhi thoda padh lete the. Baki future mai tu pakka billionaire banega (abhi millionaire hoga) kyonki jo tera dimag hai wo bahut strong hai. Goa mai jo tera bhangra nikla tha ohhoye (chakki reels mat dekh) the only time you looked like a real punjabi). Tu Madrid supporter nahi glory hunter hai, UCL final haaroge. Probably you are the best artist in our batch. Also THUB na bhoolna - Aditya Malhotra

Bhai mujhe yaad hai first year me apan ki lavisha ke chakkar me utni baat nahi hopai thi and mene kaafi misunderstood kiya tha us waqt tujhe. Chahe tujhe koi kitna bhi simp ya kuch bhi kehde lol but dil ka saf hai tu kaafi like ye cheezen tabhi pata chal jati thi jab ek bar meri tabiyat kharab hui thi aur sabse pehle tune dolo lakar di thi, ab vo nashe ke liye thi vo alag baat hai. But kuch bhi kassi wagera kehde tujhe koi smart to tu hai you know ki kaam kese nikalwana hai aur badhiya baat ye hai ki har plan me mostly in hota hai tu aur random bakchodi ke liye bhi. Gym chalu karde ab aur han ek aur bar farm to karenge shreyash ko mini militia me jab milenge hum sab. Baaki investor to tu hi hai dekh humara job jaane par tujhe hi rozgar dena hai hum sabko to uska dhyan rakhiyo. Baki hyderabad aur bangalore itne bhi door nahi bhai ghar aega jab bhi tab to mil hi liya karenge baki jab bhi bangalore ana hoga pakka will meet everyone, baki kaafi masti ki apan ne goa me vo sari memories special hai mere liye. - Mayank Bhardwaj

The OG OS God, shuru mei to tu bahut kassi tha har course kassta tha, last mei aate aate to tune heavy scam karna aur sab lite lena shuru kardia lol. Tune kitni ids bana rakhi hain, cf, insta har jagah pe jo kisi ke samajh nhi aata tha. Best artist of the college + aesthetic photographer, thoda mujhe bhi sikha dio in case lay off hogaya to kaam shayad kaam aa jaye XD. Outing ke liye to tu goto person hai, saare cafes ghum rakhe hain tune, kuchh chhoda hai? Bas tu khana order mat kara kar cafe jaake XD. Naya naya football dekhna start kiya hai, aur usme thala ki team ko jitwaye ja rha hai lol. Mini militia lagta hai tune hi develop kari hai, saare hacks aur bugs tune hi design kiye hain. Hardcore Rohit fan, tu hi kuchh na kuchh karke WC jita sakta india ko. Jaldi milte hain! - Gautam Ghai

Very kind and caring. Gonna miss you brdr! Regret going out less with you :(- Tanmay Goyal

Bhai tu bohot kassi hai, ab band kar dena kasna aur hamare startup mai funding dena, craazy returns aayenge. Bro mini milita ke saare hacks tere se hi seekhe hai. Naye naye game physics exploit karta hai tu. Baithna, gol gol ghumke maarna aur apne teammates ko betray karna koi tujhse seekhe. Shake buddy, ab kisi pe dependent na rehke gym consistently jaana. Ultimate rohit fan, also new madrid supporter, wc aur ucl ye teri wajah se hi jeet jaayenge. - Siddh Jain

K for Karman, K for Kassi, K for Kalakaar, K for Koolest, K for Kab milre next? - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

One of the biggest kassis I've met lol. Jokes apart, though we started talking a little bit online, we got to interact more when we were DASS TAs together. You are a very helpful, kind, and smart person, and I am glad I got to know you. I am also glad you were my POIS TA xD. Thanks for being one of my constant friends throughout college, and I hope we meet again soon when you invite me to your office :) - Swetha Vipparla

When I read your name online in our batch group I knew I smelt something fishy. Someone from fiitjee followed me here! Im genuinely sorry for ratting you in FIITJEE that day. Truly one of the smartest people I know in our batch. Ace life as you have been doing man and I hope you achieve everything you hope for. - Rahul Garg

I'm sure everyone's already said this but I really admire how organized, hardworking and passionate you are. I'm sure nobody's already said this but I actually enjoy your very uncanny sense of humour XD Cheers to all the most random discussions with you at the water cooler at 3 am - and to all the rest to come :P - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

The bond amongst bonds. The most hardworking, studious, innocent guy of our batch. I really wish I had spent more time with you and picked your workaholic attitude. Bro had a microscope in his room! We didn't even have pens. Jokes aside, whenever I met you I felt motivated and felt the need to do better (cg!). Now one might think that all studies and no play make Kaushik a kassi. But Kaushik is a Chad, he cycles to class and goes to the gym daily. I had great fun hanging out with you. Wish you the best of luck in your future. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

One of my first friends in college, I cannot imagine going through the online sems without you. It's a pity that we weren't as close offline, but I have always seen you as a great friend, and hope we always keep in touch. - Jatin Agarwala

Hands down the most degenerate person I know. Kaushik and I managed to reach a common wavelength of dumb jokes and that is something I'll treasure. Anyway, we have one more year together for even dumber convos :) - Aditya Harikrish

Bhai asli bond hai tu pure college ka. Bhai your hard work and determination is inspiring. All the best bro, may all of your twisted wild fantasies come true. - Pradhuman Tiwari

We had our ups and downs, (the downs mostly being me (sorry)). you are a great friend. love being weird with you. looking forward to hanging out at sector 16b, noida. - Mihir Rawat

Dammit, if only I had a bit more time to know you better. All of a sudden, you're off for your masters. You do your name justice, since you're always in a wonderful mood. Stay awesome and keep in touch! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Khush bhai! Throughout our time on campus, you have been a big motivator for me and have pushed me to explore things I normally wouldn't have. I truly enjoyed working with you in so many projects and you always had some big (sometimes scam) ideas. I'll miss all the time we spent just talking in room. Best of luck with masters! I expect chaat treat when I come visit. - Ben Paul Varghese

I first started talking to you back in online sem. Back then we mostly just talked about academic related stuff and the occasional exchange of memes on the other discord servers and instagram. Then we came to campus and started talking to each other and hanging out more often. You are a very funny and humorous person. You know how to make people feel better with your quick and witty jokes. You know how to uplift the mood and spirits of those around you. You are also, magically, always in the right place at the time to overhear stuff about people and have a knack about getting to know about other people's drama xD. Another thing I really like about you is how incredibly thoughtful, kind and understanding you are. You never say things that upset other people and are always worried to not hurt other people's feelings. Even with my memory, I will never forget the JC light off incident xD. Thanks for always being such an amazing friend to me and Best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Patel Sirrrr. Where do I even start brother? I feel very lucky to have had you as my roommate in the 3rd year. When we first met, I instantly knew we would be bros for life. We connect on a level that is kind of telepathic at times. From the 20 facewash/washroom trips to the paapdi and dosa "daal" love, there are so many things about you that made the last few years so memorable. You gave me some core memories that I'll cherish for life. You are one person to whom I can speak about absolutely anything without the fear of being judged. It has been an absolute pleasure knowing you for the past 4 years and you have taught me many things that have helped me grow as a person. The thing I most admire about you is how you deal with situations under pressure. I have never seen you stressing about anything academics-related even once. Another thing I adore about you is you are never afraid to speak your heart out when it's required. I wish you all the best with everything in life. I know you'll succeed! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

I remember we first met during quarantine when we came to campus in 2-2, you used to hate the kadamb food which was served and just ate watermelons lmao, Then we started meeting more often in North Mess (I will never forgive you for spreading fake information that my homestate is Bihar instead of Odisha). Then in 3-1 we started to hang out more and I got to know you better. Very sweet & caring guy, very helpful, will definitely remember the rocket league games that we used to play, how I thrashed you in every game and then slowly you became better and reached my level, I also got to learn some new moves from you, It feels amazing to hang out with you, the inside jokes we used to make, you used to talk in broken hindi with me lmao, the outings we used to go were awesome. I will never forgive you for not coming to goa (jk dont take offense). You ordered the most in our group(4 times a week ig), those papdi chat cravings lmao. Wish you a successful future and pls bathe more often - Ayush Agrawal

Dear Patelji, The first time I met you I got so confused between you Dubai cuties that I swapped contacts initially (still nowhere close to how you mess up names xD). Then we grew closer in 2-2 and wow the number of memories made along the way. From coining of Tok to saving yourself from Vizag trip, thank you for brightening our college lives with your witty humour and cheerful self. You always had a smile and lightened up the mood which has cheered me up on so many occasions. Gotta dub you the jugaad master, always managed to find a way out of any adversary and saved our asses. I really admire your work ethic and passion. You are a very genuine person and pure at heart so stay the absolute same. Thank you for everything! I take full credit in getting you into playing football and rocket league :).You almost reached my level in RL which I am very proud of. I will always miss dominating you in RL and sharing those chaats. Not to mention the vicks supply and the annoying washroom trips. Take care and keep touch - Ankithvarun J

Patel ji sir. I will remember you as my pupil who's never beaten me in Rocket League in your life. A true eccentric, your addiction to chaat needs to be studied. Our times together in december during placements season forged a bond that will never be broken. If I was sick or had any throat problems, I always knew which room to stop by. You live the proper uncle lifestyle, chilling around, drinking tea and watching news all the time and this is the life I hope to emulate. I wish you best of luck for all your future studies and hope you don't forget your OG debsoc homie. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Papdi patel. The og snake. I have so many things to say about this dude. I remember i met this dude when we used to bunk martial arts before 2-2. I didnt know we would become so close after that. I will never forget the all nighters we used to pull doing dass. How this mf thinks he is actually faster than me i have no idea lol. This mf has more pictures of me in his phone than i do lmaooo. How he eats so much chaat i will never understand. But at the same time, one of the nicest and funniest guys i have met in my life, i will always cherish these years i spent in campus with you. I love you brother. Texas aint ready for this gujju beast. One thing is for sure. I will never forgive you for mechatronics and ditching the goa gang xD. And that jc incident few weeks ago lmaooo. I will make sure you dont forget that for the rest of your life. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Fellow gourmet south snacks enjoyer. Thanks for always being ready to help out with so many kinds of things over the years, and for introducing me to elite gujarati cuisine. Will miss your genuine advice and convos I've had with you over the years, some of the stuff you've said over tea will stay with me. All the best on your global journies. Whatever you choose to do and wherever you choose to do it, sure you'll do great as usual. - Nitin Rajasekar loved all the convos that we had during pois lol. shall forever miss the deadly khustiano partnership with you as well :). baaki i have no idea when we shall get to meet again, but i sincerely hope that we cross paths again brother. tab tak ke liye take care and stay in touch pls :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

Patel bhai, bohot accha tha bhai jab tu aur aum third floor pe rehte the, bhai bohot maza aata hai har baar tughse baat karke itna sab kuch pata hai bhai tughe, mai dekha hu tughe laptop pe baith ke twitter padhte hue itna passionately. Will miss seeing you on ground floor. You are the most cheerful and enthusiastic person in OBH. Love u loads, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Hiee Khushi! Like your name your presence keeps other people around you happy. It was always a delight talking to you. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Had fun working with you! All the best for MS! - Ananya Sane

Khush Sir, kaisa hai aap? One of the most all-round personalities. Didn't get the chance to say in person (did I?), congos for your master. Bro was cooking and no one had a clue. Though we could have worked in the same company if the wind flowed that way! Also one of the most humble, silent, and active individual in our football group. We had so many fun memories together. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Bro...mast guju aadmi. Always seen a smile on your face. And I can talk to you about anything. Please keep in touch. All the best for US. - Saurav Chhatani

Khush honestly your name perfectly sums up your personality you are smiling most of the times and you make us laugh a lot. I loved playing RL and badminton against you even though you were shit at them your humour made me wanna play more against you. I don't think I have ever gamed for so many hours in a row against anyone except you. I always felt relaxed whenever I spoke to you you never seemed to take any of my insults very seriously. One thing I wanted to do was go for go karting with you because I heard you drive like (Mick) Schumacher so whenever you wanna go I am ready. I feel you are a very ambitious person, so all the best for your future. May all your dreams come true. - Likhith Asapu

Your random comments and jokes on the WhatsApp Groups still get me all the time xD. From seeing you shrieking while removing a lizard in 2nd year, to staying in the same wing as you and trying to quiet down people around you, we have come a long way. I have learnt much from you about being tenacious and consistent. I wish you the very best for your abroad ventures, can't wait to hear your name make headlines :) - Harshit Gupta

You were one of the first people I met before coming to campus. Though at the time I didn't know we would end up being friends throughout college, I'm glad we ended up in the same group. You are one of the most hardworking and driven people I know, always looking for opportunities. It's very evident how you are a lively presence in our group, always entertaining us in the most innocent ways. Hope you get all the chaat you want wherever you end up. Looking forward to seeing you soon, all the best! :) - Swetha Vipparla

I remember our times from 'COVID' days and how we used to 'share resources'. Fortunate to become friends with you and I like how you have your priorities set. I remember how we started talking more in 2-2. Always ready with some sort of remedy for your throat issues lol. I couldn't believe my ears when randomly in an exam, I heard the familiar tear of the wrapper. The experiences with you as my neighbor for 2 years have been really memorable. You didn't take ice cream or anything cold because of your throat but you loved Belgian Waffle lmao. I feel you influenced Ayush to also stop eating anything cold. Always a little lazy when it came to doing the work but grabbed all opportunities in the projects. I still remember in our Independent Study, when your presentation was after mine, how you used to run all the way from OBH since you were doing the work in the last second. Now that you will mostly go the USA, I think the chances of us meeting in the future will be very low :(but I hope we keep in touch. - Shubh Agarwal

Khush is a very fun person to be around. He likes to crack jokes and have a good time. He is highly ambitious but appears nonchalant and very chill, which makes him a great friend to be around. Behind his quippy personality is a caring and warm figure who is liked by all. Thanks for making me laugh many times. Please stay away from Twitter if you value your life. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

First day on campus :
It was 8th December. Me and Vansh came together just to be put in quarantine. Once out, we shifted to OBH and me and Mihir moved in to E-III. I go to take a bath to come back with the room locked and nothing but a towel on me. I was supposed to room up with Pranjal but finally ended up with Vansh.

Favourite campus memory :
Soooo many movies in the workspace, many more at AMB. Intern treats, placement treats, GSOC treat (Ask Vansh if he remembers), Hyderabad exploration, purposeless gediyan.

One thing you will miss the most :
Raat ko Scooty pe hawa khaane jaana.

Best thing you learned from here :
How to get stuff done!!!! Maybe last moment, maybe not enough time, maybe other commitments, maybe a hundred other problems but still managing to get stuff done.

Favourite place in campus :
The OBH washroom

Biggest Change since your first year :
Friendships deepened, priorities changed, life happened. Happy go lucky does work I guess.

Ah, don't really know how to start writing this. My first impression of you back at tuition was ""holy shit who's this absolute nerd and how does he have the answer before I've understood the damn question?"". That bit of you has always stayed the same, and I've always admired your drive to stay smart, rational and informed. But somewhere between those ""oh my god I hate this guy"" and ""ooh how do I write about him"", I'm glad to have gotten to know you and hang out with you :) You're always one of the chillest people around, and you're probably the most dependable friend I've ever had - from driving me home (I don't keep the windows up for anyone else XD) at 1 am to listening to me rant about everything to saving my dumb asss from dumber decisions, I don't think I could've counted on anyone else. With how much time we've spent together at college and home and all the stuff in between, most of my core memories from college involve you, and I'm glad I got to live those <3 - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Hey Anurag, you were one of the best friend I had in my college. We still have so many raat di gedi left and trips to come out of our chats. But, the Hyderabad exploration with you late night on Maestro made college bearable. And thanks for letting me borrow your shirts at last minute 😂 - Aaryan Sharma

Its difficult to look back and think that there was a time as late as 3-2 when we hardly talked. Didn't know it was possible in 4th year to make such good friends. Goa really helped us strengthen the bond. Let's keep in touch. All the best. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

Hahahaha itna infamours ISS TA kyu tha tu. Legit the most frank and pampered amul baby out there in our batch. No barriers lagake har cheez ke baare mai baath karne mai hadh se zyaada maza aaya, literally starting from day one. Touch mai rehna Sir <3 - Hariharan Kalimuthu

You are the sweetest person I know. You always try to be there for everyone. You make 100% justice to your name, by spreading happiness all over. I'm sure tere to 0 haters honge. Will miss getting bored together. Will miss judging you and your outfits(you know what I mean) Will miss seeing you getting excited about the drama going on in my life. Will miss telling you about my day. Will miss saying 'kese nhi dekhi ye movie tu'. Will miss you saying 'besuri awaaz band kar'.sb ne itne efforts daale hai, parents ko convince krne kliye(about the goa trip), I'm always grateful for that.I would've missed out on a lot, tum log nhi hote to. Kbi to reel banaya kar mere sath. Date pe jane ka sapna bhi sapna hi reh gya. Bhool mt jana mjhe, can't take one more heartbreak. Love you so much cutie. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

The purest soul and the cutest insaan, thank you for everything, you bring so much joy to every person you meet, and your smile is also the best, and yes we will be the besties forever, you know I can never thank you enough, and you know how much you matter to me. Also abhi apni bucketlist mei kaafi kuch bcha hua hai, let's focus on that. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Hey there, cutie. 4th year was so much more bearable and fun with you living across the corridor. Seeing you pulling all-nighters before exams, painting, reading your novel, or watching reels with the door open helped me get through so many boring and lonely days. You are such a strong and caring presence in the lives of everyone around you. Like a mom, you would check up on each of us to see if we were doing fine, follow up on all the rants, pay the bills, and sometimes even spoil your fun to make sure no one was left out, and most importantly, being that person you could always count on. You are so good at all you do, and you do it with so much dedication, whether it's academics, the gym, art, or craft ;). You lighten up the mood with your constant chatter and laughter. I'll miss our sessions, planning trips together, the unending discussions on where to go, when to go, what to wear, and so much more that cannot be discussed here ;). Apan toh blr mai hi hai, milte rahenge. Love you so much <3. - Harshita Gupta

Hiee Khushi! Like your name you spread Khushi wherever you go. It was always a delight talking to such a cute, warm and lovely person <3. Our talks during the class and whenever we bumped into each other are cherished memories. Keep smiling and all the best ! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy ye likhne ja rha tha to kaafi baate yaad aa gayi, before even joining IIIT, we used to talk, usme if you remember ek shadi me tha me joota chhupai ki rasam me terse baat ho rahi thi call pr aur achanak se jooto ke liye bhagne lag gye the ham, kya hasi aa rahi thi me bhag rha tha logo ko bol rha tha idhar chhupa udhar chhupa aur tu call pr sab sun rahi thi, too funny, apni friendship iiit se pehle thi aur i hope iske kaai baad tak bhi rahegi, kaafi jagah help ki hai tune, delivery girl bhi bani hai kayi baar XD, thank you for all that, have been knowing you from start beech beech me baate kam zada bhi hui but teri chinese wali smile same rahi, raksha bandhan me rakhi bhi bandhi thi, uski chocolate order ki thi, pighal gayi thi dosto ne hi khali. I am there for you agar kabhi bhi terko kuch bhi chahiye, aur teri tang hilane ki adat chhod de bethe bethe, 5 saal ho gye dekhte dekhte. Milti rehna, baat karti rehna. Stay happy - Nikhil Agrawal

My college support system, thanks for always being there for me :) Tere bina 2-2 toh nahi survive kar pata me. Will miss roasting you a lot XD, I absolutely love annoying you hehe. Looking forward to more memories in blr! - Shreyash Jain

hiii cutie, excited to more gs with youuuu. also pls drop hair care routine<3 - Sreenya Chitluri

Mummy of our group, the most caring and always making sure koi bt mein na ho ! Love how you get happy and excited for the little things and how you have the most mature advices whenever we need one! Gonna miss you a lot, especially our roomie romance 👀, ab kahan milegi mereko esi hottie roomie :(. We had the best clubbing experiences all 5 of us together, and ek saath ready hona, borrowing each others' clothes. Yaar memories toh itni saari hain ki khaan se shuru karu, room mein ek saath pade rehna, me judging your atrangi clothes, tera gharse hmesha ghewar lekar aana, you fixing our dresses and making the perfect knots and bows, tere random bursts of energy ki aaj toh room clean karke hi chodenge. Gonna miss u so muchh. Kota mein ek doosre ke doubts solve karne se lekar college mein ek doosre ko dekhkar aur sote rehne takk, it feels good ki we were constants for each other. - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon senseless cheeze bolke sabko hamesha easily hasaati rehti hai hehe. gonna miss dance practices so much. thanks for always being so motivating with your sweet words, you're the cutest cheerleader<3 keep coming home for chaat - Srujana Vanka

To the cutest,dearest and sweetest girl that i met in my college. Paheli baar interaction covid ke time gate pr, fir dhere se leaker, paheli baar bench pr baithna se lekar saath ghoomna or bhi bhaut kuch. Saath mai wo trip , wo trek sb mai (sorry me being bad at motivating... chidd chid) making those moments one of the best of my college life. Han mera wo jo maine propose kia tha it was really bad one,pr my <3 for you is pure and also ""I wish is get to all those beautiful stars with you"" Sach mai meri dream college life bna ne ke lie thankyou yours Sumo - Samarth Pandey

Shakal se nepali, aur dimag se thodi kam hai, parr utni hi sensible, caring and good nature ki hai. Will miss vo gajar ki barfi, vo rant sessions, workspace mei bakchodi, vo cafe, places ke suggestions (bro has a list of visited cafes, with perf. reviews, food blogger bnja kaafi scope hai) and a lot more. I really, admire how much you care for people around you, mom of the group (102), stay the same buddy. Gym jaane ke naam pr, bas bahar ka khana khaya hai tune. One of the closest friend I had in college, one of those people you can be yourself, loved the fact how we could talk about anything and everything.Baki milte rhenge, stay in touch. All Best ! - Karmanjyot Singh

Or bhai khushi, college ka safar ISS m mere liye mail na likhne se leke Madhapur police station tak raha. Har bar m call par ro ni raha hota, meri awaz hi esi h. Pata ni kab itni achi dosti ho gyi. Bangalore se bhi sari gossip time to time milti rehni chahiye. Vapis trips krenge(gaadi toh fir bhi ni chalane dunga, itna feminism nahi aya h abhi mujme) and coorg ki tarah sab bhool mat jana. Best Wishes for the future. Thankyou for always giving the moral and emotional support <3. Next sesh, next gym(gymna) dinner when? - Vaibhav Agarwal

You rarely meet people who are so warm and care so much. Thank you for everything. <3 - Eshika Khandelwal

Hii khushi... Your a very sweet and kind person, always listening to my nonsense.. Enlightning me with knowledge. Stay the same.. Will miss you and wish we will spend more time later also.🫶 - Syed Imami

no. - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

yooo Khushi bean kaisi hai... I hope acchi hi hogi and gaadi bhi sahi salamat hogi 😂😂😂... terse baat toh sammi ki wajah se hi shuru hui thi waise toh but never have I thought that we will become such good friends.. so kudos to both of us for that 👋🏻 .. jb tu bhand hoti hai tb boht funny hojati hia and sometimes emotional too typical of a girl but in a good way... I never imagined ki tere saath sesh bhi honge since in the beginning you were against it pr mein bhi tha lol 😂 the best memory includes broadway trips as well as trip to coorg 😂 (jo terko toh yaad nhi hoga) pr was quite fun. ab tu blr mien hai and I know ki boht durr hai + blr traffic sucks... but still try krna milte rehna, i will also try, nhi toh sammi ke aane pr toh mil hi lenge 😌

ek gaana tereliye https://youtu.be/BTnTYs0eQcw?si=khIzvSlKkyKz9VTr all the best for future endeavours and new chapters in your life to the only girl i talk to on campus ❤️.., see you in blr.. take care... bye bye 👋 - Sarthak Aggarwal

Honestly speaking maine terese bda bakchod aur randi aadmi dusra nahi dekha, but in a good way. harr bakchodi ke liye in hota hai aur harr group outing ke liye bimar. Itni random cheezo mai ghanto gappe mare aur time waste kiya hai but mazza aata tha. Itni theories bna rakhi hai but wo saari galat hai. Kismat to achi hai bina kuch kiye intern lag gayi aur jo blr mai time nikla wo to best tha harr din kuch na kuch event ho hi rha hota tha. Abhi apan ZNMD ka gareeb version (Karnataka) mai road to pakka karenge bas tu manual gadi chalaya kar agar alsi mard hai to.kk bhai sachi bta harr samay mauj masti ki energy kese aati hai terepe. You are probably the craziest and smartest person i have ever met, like your spirit yaar hum teri itni lete hai but haste rehta hai thoda gussa kar liya kar, aur daaru peekar rona band karde. Iss baar serious wala gym karenge jisme leg day bhi hoga aur khana apan bnana seekh lenge. Butter chicken ke alwa bhi non veg hota hai. Delusional aadmi, You will always be my go-to person. - Aditya Malhotra

Brothers from different mothers. Tere baare mein kya hi likhoon, itna kuch hai bolne ko. Sab kuch toh jaante hain ek dusre ke baare mein. Just want to say there's always one person jiske upar you can rely on no matter where you are in life. For me that person is you. Because tere saath there's no formality like mahine mein ek baar call karna, regular text karna to maintain friendship. We can just pick it up years later from where we left off. It's that easy with you. Aur baaki toh abhi aur safar baaki hai. Bangalore aake tere kamre mein hi crash karunga. International trip bhi toh pending hai :((Addy ko mana le plsss lol. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

I think we became good friends because hamare interests kaafi similar the, badminton, rubiks cubes, videogames, gym ofcourse. Har din baat hoti thi, jab bhi baat hoti bahut achi baat hoti thi, pta hi nhi chalta tha ki subeh ke 6 baj jaate the. Worst sleep schedule of anyone's I've ever seen in college. I am quite aware ki mai bahut bolta tha and tu bahut sunta tha and that's because I got very comfortable very quickly and you were always a very good listener and I thank you for listening. A very good teammate whenever we've been in the same team. I always felt a great sense of stability kyuki ladai barely hoti thi, bahut jaldi resolve ho jaati thi cheeze, atleast from my frame of reference. Guitar seekhne ka jo plan banaya tha vo eventually complete karna hoga at some point. Thodi daaru zyada peena chalu kar. - Prerak Srivastava

"W roommate, one of the first people i could relate to honestly. Definitely one of the smartest people i know always was fun debating with you, still think oqs was more useful. Thanks for introducing me to Mistborn insane universe, hopefully the new book I got delivers the same, need to start reading it. Name of the wind was also crazy good don't think we are getting the third book anytime soon. Hopefully u keep on going on your walks. You also talk weird stuff in your sleep btw get it checked and you might be immuno compromised or sth, never knows a person who falls sick that much. Was always a pain whenever u used to get a fever every other week. - Shavak Kansal

Hey there kk, you are literally the smartest, most talented and the gayest person I know. But you are also lazy and mean :3. Anyways, item toh hai tu, tujhe dekh kar ya tera naam sun kar aisi funny se smile aa jati hai chere par. <3 I adore your social energy, you always come around for the people you care for. Will miss introducing you to new things and experiencing them together ;). Chal hum toh saath hi hai Blr mai, dinner ke liye Carina aa jana aur future plans/life goals discuss karte rahenge, chaye usme se kare kuch bhi nahi XD - Harshita Gupta sexy boiiiii!! bahot maza aaya deer tere saath, itna bahar gaye itna ghoome v v v v fun. Bakul mai aakr tere room mai crashing was always fun. raat ko randomly tujhe uthakr ghoomne nikalna was always fun. Haa ek baar kutta kaat liya lekin imo worth it lmao. aur Breezer mai dead hona band krde hehehe. - Nukit Tailor

Who knew randomly batch group me text karke and RA team banake things were going to turn out like this with you. The first person I became friends with in college and I'm glad 4 years have only brought us closer. My go-to guy for whenever I was bored or needed some help in the online sem, I have never called anyone as much I have called you during that time lol. It was very easy to talk and share stuff with you. Offline college me bhi day 1 se full bakchodi mode me hota tha (saw you first time riding that hala bike). Always found at the centre of all random shit that was happening around in college. 3-1 outings and group trips are some things I really enjoyed with you. Hopefully blr brings more amazing memories (Flatmate pls and bday pe bula lena bhai), script mat badalna XD. - Shreyash Jain

ngl, sbse bakchod person I ever met in college, koi bhi din ya situation ho, someway or other, tu bakchodi aur bakchodi teko dhund hi leti thi. Couldn't have asked for a more perfect neighbor/wing mate than you. Your room was justt the perfect place to crash, to cure boredom, and not to forget the cooler. You were quite a lucky guy, idk, kaise krta tha, bina effort hi sb kaam set baith jate the tere courses mei (thanks to galaxy smart watch). Last semester, 2 hi kaam krei hai tune ~ 1. Body mei hawa bhari aur 2. Guitar, ki strings todi hai ... please use summer vacations, properly guitar seekhne ke lie. College ke 4 saal, tera har week bimar hona aur Sigmas ke outings se out became a permanent thing lmaoo. You were one of the closest friend I came across in this college (bhai hai tu mera), Gaming krna chod de, nahi ho parha tere se ... I will always remember, you being there for me during my lows, and yes let's do that BK tradition and mark that place. Nepal aaunga kbhi, tan apan fir milenge - Karmanjyot Singh

KK tera poora naam to shayad hi kabhi liya jaega bhai zindagi bhar. But ek number ka R hai tu (i hope tu smjh gaya hoga lol ki what i mean) bhai first year se after adi sabse bada bakchod insan tu hi dikha mujhe matlab itne intro starting me hi dedena ped par chadhna aur yaad hai humara vo first felicity ke time sath me sankalp ki sona nahi hai bus and har ek event enjoy karna hai that is the best memory jo humari sath me hai bhai jab humne face painting se lekar arjun kanungo ke concert tak har ek cheez bhut ache se enjoy kari thi. Aur bhai sath me tere room me gana enjoy karna aur vo CG ke time dance karna sabka tere room me shayad tab sabse ache se hum bond kiye the us waqt sab hi and vo dance and baki saari hostel memories aur gym memories sath rahengi bhai. Mujhe pata hai google jakar tu aur harami hojaega aur vo kam nahi hona hai and i still remember teri greek god wali abs jo kuposhan wali lag rhi thi lol. But had fun bhai kaafi miltge rhenge ache se and will try to be in touch ab to forever. - Mayank Bhardwaj

I spent some of my happiest days of college with you. I felt carefree and light whenever we three would hangout. Thank you for making my college life happier <33 - Ameya Sharma

The person who always always have a smile on his face, and the slowest eater you'll ever meet. Doctor bhi khana 32 baar hi chew karne ko bolte hain, tu usse bhi zada baar chew karke pta nahi konse nutrients nikaal rha XD. But honestly, always had fun hanging out with you and talking to you, specially satinder sartaaj ke concert pe vibe karna was so fun! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

A genius at the Rubik's cube, and a genius at almost anything you want to put your mind to (except Quantum). It's rare to find someone who'd fall sick as often as me, glad I got some company there :p. Your dedication and discipline in fitness is a great motivation for me, and I'll continue to pester you for advice for the gym. If you ever argue with SK in Bangalore, please ask someone to take a video, I can't miss out on some of the best quality entertainment. And a gentle reminder, you might have to limit your "colorful" vocabulary when you start working full-time unfortunately, it could result in "a minor" issue. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Mastikhor of the batch, campus aate hi intro dene pahunch gaya tha sabko aur ped par bhi chad gaya, dikh gaya tha ki ye banda pop kid ban jaega. Har jagah, har course mein tujhe carry hote dekha hai, ye sab kaise kar leta hai tu? Aur RCB, South Africa jaisi choker teams ko support kaise karta hai tu? Krazy tt player, hafte mein ek bar gym karta hai par fir bhi tricep dikhte hain. Kabhi time se tayyar bhi ho jaya kar, last mein nahane chale jata hai XD. Humesha mini militia mein farm hota hai, fir bhi hasta rehta hai lol. Badminton > football bolta hai, par dono mein injured ho jata hai tu. Bade bhaiya ka sabse aagyakari shishya. BBC ki coffee ke nashe sabko karwa diye hain tune, kabhi hyd aaega to pehle college chalke coffee hi peeyenge. Touch mei rehio, milte rehenge. - Gautam Ghai

Average at studies, average at height, dogshit at rocket league, dogshit in fifa. - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Hey man, E-Cell Team Team really got us together. I still cannot imagine how you and Rahul handled the entire desk and Mega-thon'22. It was truly inspiring man. I still remember both of us editing the CSS of the Megathon website at some weird time. You were such a support throughout man. I wish we could have interacted more but really grateful to have gotten the opportunity to work with you. All the best man and let's stay in touch. - Akshit Gureja

Gonna miss our tree tree family :(Thanks for always helping all of us patiently with our assign-ments (esp. in CG, DASS, and all the HS courses), means a lot! I remember our BTP project was such an experience, but you were the best teammate I could've asked for :) Also, side note: you still haven't borrowed the iron from me XD. Stay in touch and all the best for the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

There are very few people jiske saath I enjoy hanging out as much as you. I can legit spend hours in your room doing absolutely nothing. Even though mera room (E123) saamne hi tha, class khatam hone ke baad tere hi room aa jaata tha. Mujhe bohot mazaa aata tha jab tu mere room aata tha, neeche chaddar bichha ke baith jaata tha aur ham saath mai kass dete the. I don't think you realize how much you have shaped RK ka entire vibe. Ek bohot fine line hota hai between cringe and cool and no one has mastered it like you. Tere faltu polls before the goa trip made me more excited for the trip than anything else. I think tu khud ko thoda underestimate karta hai. I'm 100% serious, you are way way smarter than you think and I genuinely believe ki agar tu 1 saal tak koi cheez ko kass de toh RK chhod, pure college mai no one will be able to master that thing as well as you. Agar mai kabhi startup kholunga toh tu easily mera first choice hoga as CEO. Milte rehna bro, I want to see what crazy things you do in life 💪!!! - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

Extensive period of isolation can induce symptoms of psychosis... hamesha padhai mein busy rehta hai lekin faltu bakwas karne ke liye ever ready. Itni saari pyaari yaadein hai saath mein aur tu hamesha meri koi bhi baat ache se sunne ko ready rehta hai <3. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Kaafi crazy evolution rahi hai hamari dosti ki. From sitting on the floor of E-123 to this. Maza aati hai yaar tere around rehne mein. Alag hi humour rehta hai apna. Kitni cringe chizien jheli hai teri meine!! kya batun ab. Par vibe hai tu. Never a dull moment with you around. Hope karta hoon ki apne weird self-punishments band kare. Aur haan teri capacity sabse jyada nahi hai to uchalna kam kar. - Shreyas Revankar

Thanks for your stupid jokes and dumb comments...never failed to make me laugh. Bahar jaate vakt sabse zyada nakhre tere hi hote hai. Courses saath mein lene se har bakchodi saath mein karne tak tera bohot haath rha hai. Bohot miss karunga tujhe toh. Manali jayenge apan pakka...Tujh jaisa chutiya har insaan ki life mein ho 🙏 Thoda kam bt liya kar...Walmart mast hai...ek saal mein change karlena warna tu...chinta mat kar tere bacchon ko government college nahi jaana padega. Darna band kar thoda aur khul ke jee. Apne bhai ko gussa mat kar itna please...speaking from younger brother perspective. Blessing for topping Advanced Algos :) - Tanmay Goyal

Mannnnish. Ab atleast mujhse koi hotspot toh nahi mangega 24/7. Can say seen you grow up. Pata nahi itne advice leke kara kya tune. Abhi bhi single hai. Day 1 at college se Day 290291 tak closest insaan. Cannot let go off 122 memories. Kuch bhi crazy shit hoti rehti thi life me both offline online. Dw pakka kuch fodega tu life me brdr. Time to release your spin off series, kuch controversial karde bangalore aake. #UdayPark - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Helloo bestutiee...bhaii u came like a saviour in my life..thankyou for being there for me when u didn't really need to..I will miss all the history and politics lessons..I swear politics was never this interesting to hear about..I have learnt so much from you discipline, dedication, resilience, perseverance and hardwork..people like you make the world a little better..thankyou for existing in general...hmari vali bench pe baithna, tera hme zabardasti walk karana, library se random book hmare naam pe issue karana aur tera use kbhi na pdhna...tera decide aur try krna to make my taste improve in movies..and hme itne mahaan and kathin name vale directors ke bare mai batana..u trying to speak in Al Pacino's voice...and explaining to me the beauty of screenplay and play/story writing...aur hmari cute litte outings(iske baare mai toh hme zada kch kehne ki need nhi..u know better ;p)..I will miss each and every thing..Thankyou again for being the luigi to my mario. - Khushi Agarwal

The funniest person in IIIT, hands down (after me ofc). If you're his friend, he will make sure to be the reason you'd have countless number of inside jokes, whatsapp stickers, and most importantly, sufficient attendance. For some reason, I will never know how Manish is as a teammate, but definitely a good fren. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Assalam Walekum RoroPax/MAN-ISH bhaijaan. When you are in a "sabse jyada bakwas kaun krega" competition and your opponent is manish😱😭 Bhai "top" rated movies dekhna, sath me cricket khelna, insta pe bkchod reels dekhna aur bhejna, sath me courses top krna, unke liye kasna baithkar aur obviously ghanto baithke "intellectual" baate krna jo keval apanko smjh aye had been my best times of college lives! I am grateful ki you a person jo Kabhi bhi kisipe gussa nhi hota and is the fun and the most bakchod character was in my life❤️. You have been the ultimate rizzler and party addict here! Stay the same and do not go back to being giant naimeesh again xD. Really appreciate all the hardwork you put in academics and in relationships! You are a great singer too, never stop singing randomly as you did all the time😂. I officially give you the award of Professional Yapper. Keep calling and visiting regularly. #RKForever - Siddharth Jain

Hello Naimeesh, kya cutie banda hai bhai tu toh. Sabse genuine, bas randi rona karta hai thoda. Tughe yaad hai apan dono sabse pehle kitna DSA baith ke karte the jiska viva mai hag diya tha. sabse zyada trustable banda lagta hai mughe. Love You Brdr,prayush - Prayush Rathore

Manish, sabse samjhdaar insaan RK ka, sabse responsible and mature, and still sabse youthful. LnM me uthane ke liye thanks - Atharva Joshi

Hey there, roropacks. I will miss spending days and nights brainstorming and completing projects together. We do make a great team. You know what you want, and I respect your focus and determination to work hard towards it, whether it's weight loss or job hunting. I will miss finding you in the workspace, fussing over your elaborate to-do lists and timetables, your stupid jokes, strange group names, polls and theories, drinking ABC together, ranting about courses, AA and RRL jaise courses mai saath kasna, and making the impossible (like getting an A in them) possible, and your updates about random world news. You are such a goofy, happy soul who brings fun to every room you enter. You give others a chance to be themselves, just as you are yourself. Stay the same. Apan toh blr mai hi hai toh milte rehna <3 - Harshita Gupta

arey mr. manish (good boys ka the ultimate bad boy) bhai naimeesh itni faltu baate kese kar leta hai bhai tu, iske liye toh alag level talented hona chahiye but kuch bhi kahi rk ki jaan toh tu hi and or tere polls and forms ufff muhje toh hamesha funny lagte hai and goa and villa parties me toh jo maza aaya tere sath crazzyyyy jaldi milte hai bnglr me or mast party vartikarte hai #rk - Prasoon Garg

Naimeesh, you're the sweetest and such a hardworking guy! It was always fun to have conversations with you; you always have such sorted and deep thoughts about everything! Had so much fun in goa, vibing together! (sorry tumhari machli chapaak karvaane ke liye 😅). Stay in touch, and all the best for the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

I'll always remember you as the most chill person, as the one who cracks lame jokes sometime, but dil ka kafi acha person hai... you're the one jo kbhi help ke lie mana nahi krta, v. v. ideal person to be with. Milte rhenge, SF hi join krlena hai tune within agle thode time mei .. All Best ! - Karmanjyot Singh

Manish bhai tere saath itna mast time spend kiya hai...fir chahe woh vayu skit krwana ho... lagatar 2 saal ekdum gaand faad skit krwayi hai apanne...uske baad fir bangalore me zolo me saath rahe...kitni baar toh apan baithe baithe deep discussions me chale jaate the jab soveet soda late aate the...bohot acche experiences the woh mere liye. Kaafi positive aura hai tera. Stay the same brother... milenge apan zarur aage bhi. - Laksh Balani ohho fellow 15th August independent. i think you are a very cool guy but tu confrontation se itna bhagta kyu hai :cry:. we have had so much disagreements cause you confront hi ni karta mujhe :(. kar liya kar bhai. sab kuch bottle up karte rahega toh sahi thodi hai. doston mei esp communication is the key. other than that, kaafi chill banda hai tu. chal apan milte rahenge - Mihir Rawat" Wingmate!!!. Tu manega nhi but bohot smart hai tu. One of the most knowledgable person I know. Love hearing and discussing your startup ideas. - Dhruv Hirpara

Yo maneesh, always padhne wala bond insaan, one of the few people jisko me discord times se janta hu, kind, humble, and sweet person who is always good to everyone. You deserve everything you desire yaar, and hope that you achieve it too, it was great knowing you all these years, a fun person to be with, hope meeting you aage bhi, stay in touch. - Nikhil Agrawal

Will miss dancing together and partying. I'm sure no one will match our energy. You definitely are a vibe. Kya gaata hai, will miss you singing too. Faaltu baatein krta rehta hai poora time. Kassi krna bhi thoda kam krna pls. The only person who agrees that I'm the 'best Divya' :(Stay in touch. Hyderabad aate rehna sbse milne. - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

Mr. Pandamaan Pandu Poy, hemlu!! We were introduced to each other on Busy Buddies but our friendship really kicked off after we met in quarantine for the first time. Since then there has been no turning back. We have been roommates. We have spent countless hours discussing geopolitics, relationships, ideas, and all to the depths unimaginable. We have shared our love of music and watched shows/movies together. You are a person who resembles me in the closest manner possible to date. You are like my reflection (more chubby ofc) which is why I have been the most comfortable with you. We have spent days and nights together in the lab and in our room. We have been through all kinds of emotions and there is absolutely no way any other person could reciprocate the times/memories I have made with you to the slightest extent. I could never forget how lovely you are as a person despite being pathetically selfish sometimes lol. Having said this, the best part about you is your tummy! Just remember that you are my panda! - Divyansh Tiwari

Hello mommy. Thanks a lot for taking care of us. Pure clg life mein ek baar bhi tujhe gussa hote hue nhi dekh paaya, naa hi mess mein khana khate hue. Tere singing ko toh mein kabhi directly appreciate nhi Kara but tu bhut accha gaa leta hai. Ofc mere se toh accha nhi lekin thikee 😂😂. 4th year me aake toh zyada kassi ban gya tu, jab dekho tab lab mein kasta rehta tha and we missed u a lot. And gussa toh bhut dilata tha. BC plan apne saath Karo aur execute kisi aur ke saath and jitne bhi gaali pade tujhe L fark nhi padta tha. Kaiseeeeeeee ???? Zindagi bhar panda banke hi rehna , aur kisi bhi tarah mein tujhe imagine nhi kar paa rha hu. - Akash C R

Mera chutuu saa pandaa 🐼 babuuuu, you are till date the most gentle and lazy person I have ever met in my life (I don't even know how this combo is possible 🙃). Tuzse Maine bohot kuch sikha hai usme se sabse important chiz hai ho to convince people by telling half truth, tu humesha pure group ko convince kr leta tha to go out to eat by telling everyone that others are ready, aur yeh mastermind motivation to convince people tuzme bas khana khane se hi aata tha 😆. I hope tu guitar 🎸 bhi utna aacha banana chalu kr dega jitna aacha tuu gata hai. Thanks for always being there whenever I needed cuddles you are the best ponda urff santoshhhhh. - Naval Surange

I will start by apologising for not showing up at BVRIT finals, I regret not coming to this day ;-; I still remember the first time we met, sorry I did not recognise you in the basketball court but I tracked you later that same day for some CCC group or something. You saved my contact as jordan and that's when I realised ohhhh same girl from basketball court xD. I honestly thought when you called me jordan, it was meant jokingly but for better or worse, the name stuck. I can't thank you enough for forming an identity for me in college lol. Without jaggu, Janardan would have never become Jordan

xD. Your sledges just keep making me stronger so no issues. I will keep my promise and win a championship soon for our college and for you too dw :) - Janardan S Bravest woman of our batch. Though we have crossed fewer paths in this college life, Harshit still made sure we remember each other's names (apparently) similar. It was fun working with you, and you will happen to be that popular girl from college that I will never forget; in fact, I think no one can, you have made an impact girl - its gonna last :). Sweet and Brave is a combo that you rarely find, this girl is rare. - Gokul Praneetha

Hiya Pranali, Backwater boys ftw indeed xD. Remember that one day we went club hopping with the seniors for the house party and made em get pizza for us. That was a fun evening lmao. Oh and also Disaster Management project(or assignment?), which you and/or that other girl carried. XD - Adith John Rajeev

Pranali!! I remember our DASS presentation, and how we matched dress code. It was very fun working with you. It's a pity we didn't talk that much in college, but you're an amazing photographer, and I wish you all the very best in life! - Jatin Agarwala

My neighbour and billu mom. I miss literally fighting over billu custody like a divorced couple XD. Chaitanya X Kota stories ftw. Aa jaungi jaha hogi tel lagane and teri dead body uthane on periods. LAKDI KI KAATHI - Smruti Biswal

Tu toh Mera Bhai hai. Tujhse I can talk freely jaise laundon se baar karta hoon. Ultra Max caring nature and life of every party. Abhi toh hyd aate rehna hai tujhe, itni jaldi chhutkara nhi milega mujhse. Tujhe treat bhi toh deni hai, hume interbatch bb champions banane ke liye XD. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

You're a force of nature dude! I'm still a little intimidated by you but in the best way possible. Being a TA alongside you was a blast - handling all those hilarious situations together made the experience unforgettable. You're an incredible sportswoman. All the best for your future and take care of yourself! - Harshit Gupta

Managing the sports council with you, pushing each other in events and being there even in the losses (although we mostly win :p) was something I will always cherish. Enjoyed each and every moment of it with you and hoping Blr brings more fun memories. - Shreyash Jain

Hello Pranalzzz...yrrr will miss coming to your room and watching two broke girls(I just hope that's not us in future :p) with you without any context, tere room pe pada tera food stock khatam krna..meetha kha kr poochna ki namkeen hai kya and vice versa.. billu se milwane ke liyee so thankfull..and thankyou for making me feel included. .baaki abhi toh we have many more memories to make hopefully future mai..fingers crossed... and yrr tb toh samosa khila hi dena ;p - Khushi Agarwal

Hey there, captain. Playing basketball with you and the guys, whether they were "noobs", college team, or batch team, is one of the things I'll miss the most about college. Sports mai toh apka koi competition nhi hai, chaye cricket ho ya basketball. You are the life of every party. I really respect your confidence, energy, and how much you care for all the people around you. Keep in touch. Apan toh blr mai hi hai, kahin toh court dundh lenge <3. - Harshita Gupta

Hiiiii PSJ :eyes: , a fellow walmart colleague and a 3-day roomie, the party is coming soooooon. Also, love your super chill nature and admire your supercool attitude! - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Hii Pranalii, I agree never got a lot of chances to talk to you but honestly you were one of the first few people because of whom I thought college can be fun too and iiit does have creative people! You are one cool, kind and sassy person I know <3 - Anjali Singh

bhargavi.kurukunda@students.iiit.ac.in k.bhargavi_09

First day on campus :
Haha. They put me in a van and dropped me in the hostel for covid quarantine. But after that I just went around the campus, met with friends and then made my room ig.

Favourite campus memory :
The ACM comped conference which happened last december 2023. I had a lot of fun volunteering there.

One thing you will miss the most :
The library which is usually very quite. I did get many good books from there and will definitely miss that me time among books and novels.

Best thing you learned from here :
Don't be competitive. Be explorative.

Favourite place in campus :
The JC garden which is now under construction. But yeah, it was the place I used to visit every morning. Sit for a while reading some book or drawing or writing my thoughts. It was just peaceful and my way of starting the day.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I guess I was a very opiniated person back then. Now though I have my opinions and beliefs about how things go on in my life, I have learnt to stop making opinions about others around me. There life their wish. But yeah, this kind of made me assertive and more "no nonsense" kind.

Hi Bhargs! My intermediate bestie <3. Nuv lekapoyunte naaku ee clg gurinchi telisedi kaadu, nee valla deadline ki few hrs mundu apply chesa luckily xD. Clg lo nee antha sincere student ni choodaled ra nenu. Entha organised, disciplined OMG!! I still remember, okaroju afternoon 12 ki lesa, naa table meeda oka box of fruits with a note on it saying 'breakfast kooda cheyaledu kada, fruits ayina tinu'. Thank you so much antha care teeskunnanduku. I'll miss you T_T. US ellaka marchipoku hehe. - Kokkalla Sai Pranathi Bhargavi❤️, Good person, lovly one !!! My ANLP and MMT teammate !!! You are so away from people but your are so close to the ones who talks with you ra. thanks from keeping me in ur comfort zone. I like your dedication so much ra, your are an inspiration to many. Your timings i like(eating on time, sleeping on time, cmng to meets at sharp timings you mention, etc etc). you have all the discipline and that will take you to great heights for sure ra. Nuvvu lekapote MMT course ela chesedanino anipistundi, thank god u took that course and we bacame teammates. You are my best exam partner ever ra #mmt. Nuv eppudu library and Lab lo untav mowa...nak library ante gurtuk vache frnd nuvve....okasari nuv DASS clash of clans assignment chestunnappudu, I came for help and you showed your whole code and what you are doing and how to start with the assignment. manam first year nunche nduk kalavaledu anipistundi, so many things match in us ra. I'll miss a dedicated person like u. All the best for your future ra :) - Yadavalli Anantha Lakshmi

pranjal.thapliyal@students.iiit.ac.in

pranjal._.thapliyal

First day on campus :
was online coughs covid coughs (pls don't quarantine me for this ;)), so i don't think that there's a lot to say about that. the first _offline_ day though, was absolutely amazing. to this day, i'm still amazed at just how welcoming everyone else was on campus. shall cherish that day forever <3

Favourite campus memory :
there are honestly so many, but considering how the answers might clash with the next question, id limit it to all the trips i had throughout my college life. from delhi to goa to bombay to pondi to blr, life has been absolutely amazing. here's to hoping that the travel bug that bit me,never fades;)

One thing you will miss the most :
without a shadow of a doubt, the hostel life + all the little moments associated with it. especially, stepping out of your room and randomly coming across friends and stopping for chit-chat is smth which i will never get over and always remember. late night room tea-sessions. oh & ofc, football :')

Best thing you learned from here :
the different viewpoints people may have towards life, & learning to see & appreciate the beauty in all of them. also, getting first-hand confirmation that it is possible to be a "bond", whilst still going out-,partying,gymming, being into fashion, being cool/"cultured" has been motivational asf :)

Favourite place in campus :
obh, hands down, and it's not even close. would've said the football ground considering all the memories associated with it, but it is objectively a horrible ground, soooooo-;-;

Biggest Change since your first year :
have learnt to grow so, SOOOOO much more confident in my own skin. college has given me the belief/faith to tackle absolutely anything and everything that life

All hail to the rizz god. I think we've only gotten close in these last 6-8 months and even though it was short it was a beautiful time. Man your smile and happy vibe is really infectious and is a wonderful energy lifter. Pondi was so much better and I won't forget the scooter ride to the beach during that trip. Grateful to have you as my friend. Let's stay in touch man and all the best. - Akshit Gureja

You are the person I hope to be someday. Everything about you is so amazing. Your infectious smile, heartwarming personality, chill attitude and friendly vibes are simply unmatchable. Your friendly face is enough to lighten any room you're in, and I enjoyed all the times we talked and conversed about things. Any person would be immensely lucky to have a friend like you and I will really miss your presence in the college. The craziest thing is that despite all the nice things about you, you still manage to be a very very cool and "hip" person. Your sense of fashion is hard for anybody to pull off, but you do it very well. I am so happy that I got to know such a wonderful person and I hope you don't lose any of your quirks as you become Samsung employee #49745. Lets keep in touch after college as well :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

We have known each other for so long. First met in Kota (TOPI batch -> TMAS), and then the same college. You were the first person I knew in our college during the pandemic days. We were roommates in 3rd year, project teammates (countless times), same course (countless^2 times), late time football matches (Barca 1-4, just making sure you remember) followed by going to JC during half time, and many outdoor trips. You are a great friend, a self-proclaimed expert on texting (dating apps), and also someone who never gives a party (:)). A good footballer (who can't take the penalty, and lost the quarters at NIFT), wanna be a good badminton player (:)), is very social, and always farming karma on Reddit. Someone who knows a lot about dating though never sticks around, but but a good friend, a reliable friend. Hope that we stay in touch. Cheers to the memories and to all those about to come. - Sukhi - Sukhjinder Kumar somehow I went on as many trips with you in one semester as I did in total in 2 years P.S.: after everything that happened in May I feel like ye kam pad gaya. bhai tere jaana mereko realize karvaya ki zindagi ab kaisi hone wali hai and I will never forget how that felt -- i'm going to miss our romcoms, nights out, and deep conversations so much I can't even tell you. never going to let you fall out of touch dw ❤️ - Abhinav S Menon

unironically taught me that you should chill out sometimes. i consider you one of my closest friends of all time. rizz god, fellow degenerate, delhi crew. youre gonna fucking kill it at samsung, or whatever you want to do later. dealt with my bullshit ,fashion taste insane, redditlord, cp legend (maybe not), ily brdr. thank you for being friends w/ me :) - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

"BHAI YEH YEARBOOK KI KYA LAT LAGA LI HAI TUNE! Pehle Bombay, Pondy, bangalore ki pics toh upload karde drive pe :cry_aarha_hai: agar ab bhi samajh nhi aaya, toh padle aage. Tere saath aadha desh dekh liya maine. Speed dial pe hai tu. (although darr lgta hai yeh phone uthaayega nahi) Kya bolun brother. MERA TESTIMONIAL KAHAN HAI huh. I dont need a yearbook testimonial to tell you how much I care about you. You were my roommate for the past year brother, by all means. Our connection goes beyond the immaculate fits, the exquisite music reccs, and the rizzology chronicles. BHAI SMUT KYA HOTA HAI (me at age 22) Bhai I still cant fathom you like a reader reader. most of the book readers i've met are pretentious douchebags. but you only a bag (bete gym chale jaa peak male physique mera pair :P) (actually book readers ive met in college are pretty cool, so lite on that prev statement) TQ for being in my life. kuch log jeevan sikha dete hein, par tune toh jeevan jeena sikha diya. shukran. Im only a call away :D - Manav Chaudhary

"He's got a smile that draws you in, hugs that warm you up, and dumb jokes that make you want to punch him. There's never a dull time spent with Pranjal, because he's got a lot of things to say about everything from perfumes to anime and everything in between. He's got a level head and a practical attitude towards fun, which along with his world-class dancing skills can save any outing and turn it into an epic night. He's fantastically cultured, in multiple ways. One of my closest friends on campus, he was who I went to to rant to as the canon event of our friend group, and I'm so glad I did :) - Pratyaksh Gautam

Pranjal: ""Bhai proxy lagadena"" --> Priyanshul: ""Ok"" Priyanshul: ""Bhai proxy lagadena"" --> Pranjal: ""Sorry mei toh class gaya hi nahi, dw dono ki absent lagi hai"" - Priyanshul Govil

Haver of rizz, listener of albums, enjoyer of night life, connoisseur of shoes, spreader of smiles, and knocker of dicks, Pranjal Ever-smile Thapliyal himself! I'll miss those late night convos, brother. Stay in touch, my friend :) - Aditya Harikrish

The first among my many roommates, it has been a pleasure to know you Prajnal. Your constant goofy ass smile instantly lifts the mood of everyone around you. You're always spouting some random data but that makes you able to strike up a conversation with anyone about anything. I remember stopping by ur room and even on like 1 hr of sleep, you spent like 3 hrs helping me pick out the most epic monitor. We have to go out for dinner atleast one of these days, both of us kept pushing it off for the longest time. I want to see what all the girls see in you. Then Maybe when we meet in bangalore, we can get rid of all the built up tension wink. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Incredibly genuine, perfectly authentic, the nutjob who taught me better than anyone the unwavering charm of simply being "you". Hard to believe someone who is as much of a human ramrod on the field could be far more of a human hearth off of it. Until I see you again, keep that thang thangin' ;) - Rajarshi Ray

To anyone reading this, I have been forced to write this. Please send help. Certainly, the biggest degenerate to ever grace IIIT. Throughout the heavens and the earth, he alone is the retarded one. Please seek professional help before we room together in Bangalore :) - Aaron Anthony Monis

Well well well, if it isn't Prangay. Teller of tales. A chicken connesieur. SIngle handedly carrying the lame mom joke community. We will stay in touch brother, but not in the gay ass way you want to 💀. ps - unfortunately you cannot claim the youtube benefits. I am yet to receive the 5 subscribers. Atleast you're one of them tho. I will surely give you some free merch if it ever blows up. Continue making your lame mom jokes though. After all, I have suffered, why shouldn't others? - Abhay A Patil

Its weird knowing you from Kota and seeing you grow so much and change at all walks of life. From a Kota nerd to batch ka rizzler. I learnt a lot about life, different perspectives and also about pop culture. Some of the most fun conversations I had in college for sure. It sure as fuck surprises me that we have stayed together for 6 years, (hoping for more in the future). Now that I have sat down to write this (albeit by being force) and I reflect on our time together, it just surprises me how far along we have both come from two nervous Kota students sweating for NTSE to stressing for JEE, then to shitting on COVID and talking about when college will open. I remember the long rants about internships during 2-2 and 3-1. And I sure as fuck will call you everytime when Barca loses. Wish we can meet frequently. Peace. - Shreyansh Agarwal

One of my first friends in campus, ever-smiling and cheerful. A man with a terrific personality and an absolute baller both on and off the pitch (plz stick to defending). The football ground will always hold a special place in my heart and I'm glad that you could be a part of it (prolly the only times I've seen you without a smile xD). I will cherish all those memories greatly from almost getting killed by you on a daily basis to listening to a deluded barca fan rant. Stay the same brother and now that you'll be in Bangalore, tune down the rizz a bit and leave some chics for us :) . All the best for everything! - Ankithvarun J Pranjal is undoubtedly one of the most uplifting people to talk to on campus. His constant, cheerful expression always helps me forget the daily stresses of being at IIIT. He's one of the few people here with whom I feel completely at ease, allowing me to share our many common interests freely. He's also a big reason I became interested in football and started enjoying playing it. One of my regrets while being on campus would be not spending more time with friends like Pranjal, who make every moment enjoyable. Hoping that I don't make the same mistake and lets keep in touch :) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh Bhai joker ke badd kissi ki smile yaad rahegi to wo teri hogi but bilkul different context mein. Bhai will miss those random convos in our lane jab tu sone jaa raha tha aur mein uth raha tha. Intro to Film course has become a core memory in my mind, will remember and cherish those moments for my entire life. Bhai itna effortlessly charming aur smart aadmi maine shayad hi koyi dheka hai. Keep being u coz I don' t believe it can get better than this. Also, I challenge u for a duel in BADMINTON :) - Pradhuman Tiwari

I look at this guy sometimes and it feels like I'm looking at a handsomer mirror. Pranjal's gotta be the guy that I can literally talk hours with about dumb shit. Please don't say: ""IF"" we'll cross paths, brother we definitely will otherwise Imma be real sad. And when we meet up, we're gonna conquer the world. The world ain't ready for the Pahadi combo X2, With your blessings, I shall give the states a taste of a fraction of it's power. - See you Space Cowboy. - Aayush Bhandari

Helloooo Pranjal... I decided you were prolly the only other person on campus with taste, when I found out you were a fellow Barry watcher, an absolute gem of a show. Had loads of fun talking about all kinds of shit with you, and lmao the D&D session we planned, I still remember having to beg the others to join. I have no idea why we didn't do another one, it was sooo good. Stay in the touch, won't be the same on campus without you blessing me with your boothiful face every time I see you. - Vinay S

"One of the sweetest guys I know. Also one of the chillest gaits I've ever known. ALSO hands-down the most cheerful smileyface I know. Have only seen you unsmiling once, and that was half a second of frowning as you focused on a shuttle while playing badminton. Naturally, you went back to smiling right after (missing) that shot :) Will miss your cheerfulness, your perennial smile, your dumb reddit jokes. Will miss both of us taking off our headphones to talk when we met impromptu at 3:30 am at David's. Stay in touch, and stay adorable :D - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

"My guy is by far the most chill and wholesome dude you can ever run into on campus. Heck, with that swagger walk and that smile you even immediately tell its him xD. Can't not mention the cultured aspect, my guy is very well versed in the right forms of culture - fellow lobotomy kaisen enjoyer afterall :D. He always shows up everywhere in immaculate drip (sacrilege when he's not wearing red tho) and fashionably late too :P Will miss the encounters and the talks we had but dw, those will continue in blr. Wishing you the best of luck (at ignoring all those dms :P) at life! - Amal Sunny

A guy who can't stop smiling is the shortest and most apt way to describe him. You'll automatically start having fun with him, no matter how depressing the situation is because of his smile. I feel like we've had several adventures together in the past few years, and I hope to have more with him in the coming future. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

I shall miss my million-dollar smiling boy. Getting to know you these past few years has been really fun, especially during the trip(even though you take hours to prepare). You are the sweetest and most entertaining person to be around. I will be missing you loads after graduation. I hope you take good care of yourself and keep solving the crazy math puzzles for shutting off the alarms; it makes you look smarter, XP. Despite you tackling me in football, even when I did not have the ball with me, it was really fun defending with you. - Harshit Gupta

Always smiling and always laughing. Our random marathon conversations in the middle of the passageway have always left me amused from where we start it off to where we end up. One of the slowest readers I know. It's a miracle you remember what happened at the beginning of the book by the time you finish it lol. A very good point is that you are a Barca fan, so I can keep having banter with you. Thankfully, these last few years have been kind to us. I hate the way you play football lol. I've to be extra careful to return back in one piece. I still remember the one time I wasn't careful :(Jokes aside, one of the few players to have the honor of getting a red card. A very jovial person and I hope we can continue making new memories in Bangalore. All the best for your future. - Shubh Agarwal

Pranjalbhai The always smiling and joy spreading person on campus, you are constant fun to be around. Being around your trail blazing fashion (red tshirt and red pant) shows us whats possible. You always have a positive outlook towards life and have never seen you worried. Your football skills are above par and it is a sight to behold to watch you destroy the other team's defence. I will always hold dear your perfume tips and many other reddit skills you have taught me. Hope to meet you soon. - Khush Devendra Patel

You are an extremely sweet, cute and helpful guy. I like the fact that you keep smiling even when you are angry xD. You have a kind heart and are always ready to help people. It was always very fun and enjoyable hanging out with you. I was absolutely amazed when I saw you had 1000 unread chats in WA (but it was expected considering the kind of player you are xD). I wish you a very successful future and hope that you achieve great heights in your career. Hope to see you soon again. - Ayush Agrawal

Yoo Pranjal... The rizzler of the batch. I'll forever remember your smiling face and everytime I meet you, my day instantly becomes better. We had a great defence partnership in football and will miss the football memories we made along the way. Good luck with your future broski! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

First friend I made in campus (well before campus technically cuz of a fated cluster 9). Has the most positive energy of anyone I've ever met. Anyone can just talk about the randomest shit and you listen with that killer smile of yours. I'd ask you to be my wingman in Blr but you'll just steal everyone. Save some ladies for the rest of us bro ;) Def be in touch - Abhijith A

I remember the day I first met you in second year, and we were geeking out about anime. Ever since then it's been wonderful being around you. There were (and are) a lot of things that I frankly wish I had a little more time to learn from you, from the almost effortless way you carry yourself, without a care in the world, to your impeccable fashion sense. Football with you was always crazy in the best of ways, and I really hope we continue to stay in touch. PS: Save some rizz for the rest of us! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

This dude by far one of the most unhygienic guys I've ever met in my life. But you are one of the sweetest and most fun guys around and your always smiling face is proof to this. Except in football where you are by far the dirtiest player xD. But this worked well for us cause we won interbatch. It was great fun hanging out with you brother and looking forward to more such moments. Good luck for everything. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed doing SE project with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

Pranjal has to be the most soft spoken person of 2k20. His smile is the brightest the cutest! Indeed you made the memorable :3 Teach me your ways, sensei! - Yash Mehan
If only life was as easy as pranjal makes it look - George Paul

Hiee! You are such a sweet and warm sunshine person. Your smile always lights up the room <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

You have the brightest smile in campus, and I love how fun how you are. We haven't been the closest, but I've always seen you as a wonderful person. Always stay the same! - Jatin Agarwala

Nicest guy ever to exist in whole of IIITH history. Ek dum jugaadu insaan, har cheez ka fix ya alternative hota hai iske paas. Tere food aur movie recommendations har baar ek dum spot on hote hai aur koi bhi conversation ko bohot zyaada interesting bana deta hai apne stories aur ideas se. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Hope to have you as my friend for the rest of my life yours truely, lallav - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Prayushh bhaii... I feel very lucky to have met someone like you very early on in college. You are one of the few people who is as passionate as me about football and this makes our conversations very interesting and fun. You have such an amazing personality and sense of humour. Every time I speak to you, my day instantly gets better. I'll miss the 3rd floor days when all our rooms always used to be open and we would randomly wander into other people's rooms and talk for hours. One thing I really admire about you is how well informed you are about a myriad of things. This makes it easy for anyone to have any type of conversation with you. Wish you all the best with your future plans! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Prayushji Some of the best times I have had on campus were in the sweltering Hyderabad heat on OBH 3rd floor with you. Spending my first semester on campus with you people was a great learning experience for me, and I will always cherish those memories. You are always smiling and ready with some banter. Chalo milte hai jald! - Khush Devendra Patel

Unique aadmi hai bc tu. Bhai kya crazy fun kiya apan ne Goa mei. Literally one of the best trips ever. Teri energy alag hi level hai bhai. Roz bhand miljaate the ek dusre ko bc apan😂. Saale bsdk...best roommate hai tu, har cheez mein supportive raha hai aur bohot adjust bhi kiya. Especially intern ke time mein tune bohot madat ki thi meri. Agar koi aur hota paaka saala depression mein chala jaata. Bohot maaze kiye tere saath FIFA se leke DLF jaane mein, kabhi koi cheez ke liye mana nahi Kiya. Bohot kuch seekha tere saath rehke. Apni kartute mat chodna. Aur best toh sessions, tere room mein yellow light mein saala poora college nikal Gaya pata hi nahi chala. Nallagiri karte raho hoon. Aur milte rehna. Stay a GOOD MAN... - Saurav Chhatani

Support de diya pura college what else can i ask for, College easy ho gaya that because i knew i have you as my friend, who would always stay by my side. You are one of the most motivated and cheerful people I have ever met, and I will always want you to remain the same, khajaguda, drivein cafe 2-2 hi itna acha tha, and then E317. Thanks for pehla felicity, theke pe jake old monk and magic moments and then kanungo. kushal ke room see vc take ka trip is still college ka best trip. Goa me no doubt I had the best back seat partner, FI bhi khel liya, chor police bhi.. DLF chalte he wapas, ek shawarma aur ek chai le lenge aur khan ka wait kar lenge, phir wapas aakar maarna bhi to he. 363 in itself is nothing but just 362 ka padosi. Mumbai me vibe match was real, I felt it. I have always believed in you, and mere pass kuch he nhi warna tujh me hi invest kar deta, i see huge potential, and I see a man much above others, prove me right. iss baar kapde nhi chote hue isliye pata hi nhi chala, kab college khtm ho gaya. - Atharva Joshi

Crazy anime nights bro. Loved watching City matches with you (thank you for getting me into watching it). Mavs Jeet rhi hai bhaiiiiii - Dhruv Hirpara

Haven't met a more interesting, knowledgeable, wise, kind and wholesome soul on campus. E-321 ke tere jaise dikhne waale water cooler ke neeche gaddha lagake crash karne se, subah subah driven cafe/khajaguda/ram ki bandhi se, E-05 mai joshi ke saath ke gossip sessions make me smile every time, reminding me of the times when things were soo comfortable, peaceful and good. Every conversation with you has been a reassurance of how cool things around are. No doubt everybody loved having this cutie around, who'd crack us up with insanely witty stuff(kabhi kabhi bahoot baj jaata hai though ngl). - Hariharan Kalimuthu

NCC ftw.💪 We were always the coolest in CLD. The CLD dinner was wild(how much I remember of it) - Adith John Rajeev

Jldi jldi ek puff or le leta hu saas waste na hoh ja....yo prayush saath mai jitni bhi memories hai apni thodi blur bhai rangeen hai or laal aakho bhari hai. 317 mai suru hua tha apna ye safar fir bed laga kr saath mai chutny ko bt dena or ungli krna ... random cheez ka gyaan or andhi info wala(reditt ka choda) , hr tome energetic rahena or hr plan mai in rahena or haan wo tere se idhar udhar ki info nikalwa na sb ye wo cheeze hain jo mai nahi bhool saktaz Saare daari session or tera ek shot extra ke baad wo ultiyan sb kaafi aachi or backchodi bhari memories. Tera ko kasol mai medical store bann kr ghooma..... pr gaur ki baat ye aakhe sb jagah dundhli thi 😂😂😂😂 Thanks , bhaut zad ahppening college bna ne ke lie or sbi servies ke lie khaas kr😂😂😂 Cheers brother🍻🍻 - Samarth Pandey yooo prayush thanks for always making the time for a conversation!! you're one of the few people who actually told me that my notes were making a difference and im so grateful to you for that -- keep spreading positivity always :)) - Abhinav S Menon

You have an impeccable taste in films. More importantly, your general enthusiasm and cheerfulness are heartwarming and inspirational. - Shashwat Singh

Jab aaya tha to itna sidha baccha lagta tha mujhe. Change ho gay do saal mein to pura hi tu. But teri energy same hai. Pixie aur teri vibe to same hai; cute si, hamesha entusiastic but baaton se saamne waalon ki maa chod dega. Tere comebacks to alag hi level pe rehte hai. "Tu agar shaant rahega to ye conversation better jayegi". Ye koi sochta bhi kaise hai. Party mein life laata hai tu. Kabhi kisi ko serious bt nahi deta aur sabko enjoy karwata hai. Need more people like you in life. - Shreyas Revankar

Every memory I have of you is of you smiling and full of energy. Even though we only had limited interactions, I never felt out of place with you. Thanks for always being so welcoming and making me feel included. It made all the difference to me :)) - Ameya Sharma

Being your CLD these few years was a real treat. I still remember how passionate you would be about Man City back on the hostel third floor during our 2nd and 3rd year days. You are really helpful and always being fun to hang around and relax with. - Harshit Gupta

Bhai kya bhola insaan hai...kaise bhai kaise... duniya isko toh deserve nahi karti...Kisi ki bhi baaton mein aajata hai...hamesha sabki help karne ko ready rehta hai...Gonna miss your crazy reactions when Man City is losing...Will miss tera har random cheez pe "nahi" bolna. Iske room mein kabhi bhi jaa sakte hai and you will never get bored...Best sessions ever ❤️ - Tanmay Goyal

Aur saale Pep aur Haaland ki joint randi.... bohot epic kiye tune ye 4 saal. Saare projects mei end mei clutch, exams mei poori raat jg ke padhna, energy drink stock krke rakhna, DLF mei sutta break, Siddique ke kababs etc etc. Tere room mei FIFA and JF sessions bohot yaad rahenge (especially Parth aur Sammi ke sade hue mom jokes😂) . Too much to write here but isse zayada likh diya aur kisi nei screenshot bhej diya to BT go jaigi. Phookte rehna, khaaste rehna aur health ka dhyan rakhna....love u brother❤️ - Yash Agrawal

First day on campus :
First day at college in a pink shirt and shorts with a sweatshirt, sweating a lot. Parents snapped photos at the main gate but irritated on them for this. Came to Parijat on an Omni van, the quarantine block. Settled into my hostel room and teared up, feeling homesick for the first time.

Favourite campus memory :
My favourite campus memory is last year's graduating senior's batch trip to Dream Valley Resort. I almost missed the bus, waking up just 10 minutes before departure. After a frantic dash, I made it and had an amazing time with my friends.

One thing you will miss the most :
I'll miss IIIT-H's Freshers' Night at Amphi-theatre, and JAL HOUSE the most. It's when all Telugu students come together. We were so chill as juniors, unlike the current batch. If there were a decibel meter at the party, "JIG JIG JAL" would top the charts!

Best thing you learned from here :
I learned to never give up at IIIT-H, embracing success and learning from numerous failures. I aimed to achieve goals like joining the student parliament and securing internships, succeeding in most. Now, only my MS and a placement remain, which I hope to complete by next year.

Favourite place in campus :
My favorite spot on campus is my room in OBH, as I've uniquely stayed single there since day one. Initially, I was alone in a double-sharing room, 121 E-block, from 2-1 to 3-2. From 4-1 onwards, I moved to a single room. I wont tell you guys the secret :))

Biggest Change since your first year :
Biggest change was my ability to take my decisions alone not seeking for help. I have found my new self when I am not dependent on anyone else. Now I think I am not afraid of being alone, and taking risk hii prudhvi.. late ga join ainav kani you had a good time with everyone and me.. u got nice hairstyle) inka one year untunnav kabatti enjoy the campus life and we will miss you. keep in touch ! - Vallamsetty Akash

Hello Rohan, aka "fufaji" or "facchi hunter", it's been a pleasure to have had you as a friend in my college journey. I remember we first met during a course project on a teams call during lockdown. From that, to staying together during our internship in Bangalore, I don't know how the time flew so fast. I still remember you giving us a campus tour when we left quarantine. There are so many memories- 'borrowing' matresses from storeroom, night walks around the campus, you coming to my room late night for snacks, random debates and discussions in your room, bowling at inorbit mall, the ISL match which ended 0-0, waking up early to go to Hussain Sagar lake to hear Jaltarang performance, the Ananthagiri hills trip, our exploits in Bangalore, and so many more that I will have missed. You are a very friendly and outgoing person, and your dedication and hardwork are especially commendable. You also have a great heart, always thinking about close ones. Best of luck for the future! Let's make more memories this year. - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Jupta, a very passionate person, not afraid to speak his mind. You can trust that he'll come through even if he as a lot of work to deal with. But, I am deeply disturbed by the several instances in which me changing my clothes in his vicinity has made me a target to his catcalls, despite him being in a loving relationship with Lokeshan - Vinay S

Rohan Gupta has been the most influential friend in my life. From late-night rants about our campus life to interning together, it has been a wonderful journey. Rohan is the planner of our group, organizing most of our outings and making extra efforts to ensure everyone turns up. He also put a lot of effort into planning the batch trip, which was unfairly cancelled. In the last two months of college, Rohan and I became MPs. Our first big challenge was handling the aftermath of the farewell events, and Rohan dedicated a lot of time and effort to get things sorted out. He has been a great friend, an excellent MP, and an even better human being. All the best for your future endeavours! - Lokesh V

Rohan Gu, one of the very few people I knew before coming to campus. He's carried me through and taught me a lot during my first few months on campus. Kind guy and was a close friend, until he got a girl and started talking less to me (jk 😂). I remember us talking about me visiting Delhi and him visiting Tamil Nadu. Both never happened. I know whom to call when I go to Delhi. Will meet again soon. - Gokulraj R

Hello Guptaji, ik hamare friend circles have been different this year but you've always been nice to me and I will always appreciate it. You never judged me and were with me during my best and worst times. I never voted in my life but for you, I came on the dot (twice lol). All the best and keep in touch!! :) - Tanniru Abhinav Siddharth

Iss bnde ka sirf ek he rona rha hai campus mei, vhh hai bndi he nai mil rhi koi. Sara time us mei kya dekh liya, us mie kya hai. Iss bnde ne intern ki party bhi nai di. Or jab bhi sone ki koshish kro room mei, saala utha dega. But, overall, a good person with bad heart😂. Jokes apart, a very nice person and birthday mei belt se marna isse koi seekhe. Or ab to students council ka chaska chod de. The best part about this guy is meri singing ki hmesha tareef krte rehna. Take care my friend. - Priyansh Khunger

MP banke poore batch ko carry karne ke liye dhanyawaad sir. Hero we didn't deserve but definitely needed. <3 - Hariharan Kalimuthu

"Bro was one of the first friends to come to campus during COVID time and almost spent 35+ days in Isolation. Being one of the few UG1 folk on the campus during the time, Vaibhav, Me and Rohan were mostly together and had a great time doing absolutely randomest shit in NBH. Testimonials ka extend karde bhai. But honestly one of the most hardworking folk in IIIT, carrying research, acads and relationships together. All the best for the future man and keep in touch!! - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

Bicch ass extend karwane mein maut aari, asshole, digslut, domestic violator, pee ke biwi bacche ko belt se maarne wale purush, baccha chorr!!! Itni sattta ki bhookh, tsch tsch tsch. Aur agar hum trip par jaate to tumhari lugaai na bandi. Itne acche wingman hain hum, aur humme gaali de rahe, cheee, tumhare bacchon ko batayenge ki parayi aurton ko ja ja ke bolta tha ki mujhe chiku bulao. Aur humse zyada busy to tum rehte, (Anjali ko sampark karein citation ke liye). Baaki hum jhoothi kahaniya nahi failate hain, hum lore establish karte hain, aise hi mouth to mouth epics failte, jaise Ramayan aur Mahabharat, ab tum valmiki se kaho ge ki bolna band kar do, chee. Aur jo tumhare do asli jaani dushman hain, (Aparna aur Shirly) unme to humara haath bhi nahi tha. Aur tumhare hisse ka cake hum tumhe bachane ke liye khaye the, kya pata usme zeher wagera hota. Idhar hum ek dost ke liye jaan dene ko tayiyaar the, aur udhar humare iraadon par shak kiya ja raha hai, smh. Sneh va prem, Uncle Aunty ko pranam, bhai ko pyaar. - Pranav Manu

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

Aur Gupta ji kya haal chal hai aapke. hamko toh bhul he bro aap, ase kaise chalega. Hum bhulne nahi dege, aur agar phir bhi bhul gaye toh ande mandi sandi !!! : Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar

what rey, why are you sending request to everyone if they want to, they will write. Anyway, my first north-side best friend who can help me in any situation and always make thinks him like my brother. I will be cherished with the memories of our second year. - Challa Tharun

My first interaction with Gupta was back during the NeSS course. It was online back then, so we talked through the chat. His first question was: how much did you get in the quiz? :D :P I later met Gupta in the offline mode. I had come late to campus and he was one of my first friends here. His uncanny knowledge of campus whereabouts and (frighteningly accurate) knowledge of the latest social gossip was ready entertainment for all of us. This is not to mention Gupta's own adventures. I suppose, among all of us, Gupta lived the college life the most - he experienced the most - may it be happiness (he finally became MP!) or suffering (we all know why ;) but, he was eventually successful there too!). I think that is one thing I learnt from Gupta - Leap, and don't bother to look! :) :D All the best, bro! Hope we keep contact! - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala Meet Jeethu Bhaiyas Doppleganger ---- the multi-talented Rohan Gupta! You are one of the most energetic and jolly person I have ever seen in my life. Initially i was intimated by you, later I understood your funny and warm nature. Hopefully we meet in Bangalore (2025) and make more memories Also need to Get Aur Back Aukath Back from Bikanervala :) - Harish Umasankar

Hello Guptaji, I can describe you as one person who comes to my mind if I think of an old-fashioned yet kind-hearted and funny person. Though you might be a little bit adamant in your opinions, one thing that I can be sure of is that you don't mean harm. You were that almost first guy I met offline whom I did not talk to online. I thought you were Telugu at first, judging by the amount of friendliness you showed towards me. I remember all your stories and all the talks we had when you were in E block. I kind of miss those conversations we had where we used to tease you a lot. Despite all that, I never once saw you get offended. One piece of advice that I can give you is to remain the same almost with somewhat less adamant pre-biases. This will make you a little more of this generation. Other than that I can say you are one of the best friends anyone will be willing to have(given you speak considering others opinion, else you will get beat again :p). - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

"Guptaji, ab kya hi kahe aapke baare me toh. Tareef se shuru kare ki gaaliyo se samajh nahi aa raha. Chalo tareef se hi kar dete hai, you're probably the one of the most responsible people i've met in college. Whenever we plan to go out, you somehow end up becoming the dad of the group worrying and managing the small and big things. I've always admired that about you. College ke core group ke baare me soche aur usme tu na ho yeh toh nahi ho sakta. We somehow met by chance due to having rooms opposite to each other lekin I wouldn't want to change a single thing about that. Hum toh waise bhi ek saal aur saath hai, gaaliya agle saal de dunga. P.S mere 600 rupay kab lauta raha hai? - Tanmay Bhatt

Hmm.. kya likha jaaye yahan! Let's see.. Humari start of so-called 'dosti' kaafi weirdly hui thi, with different things in our heads but I think I found a really caring, understanding friend in you! Thank you soo much for supporting and encouraging everything I do and in giving clear advice and helping me on my career-related decisions and everything yaar! Tum logo k bina college life adhura reh jaata! Thoda zyada hee emo ho rha hai I think! But yeah, apni motor-generated hasi thodi change krle lol Aur vo camera stand 'tripod' hota hai! - Anjali Singh

Damn, so much to cover, what an interesting person. Gupta has been a very memorable person of my time at this college for several reasons. He's a very unlucky person, but his continued persistence despite that is both comical and admirable. He's also a very fun person to be around for his personality and mannerisms. He takes up responsibilities like they're achievements, and fails at all of them, ask anyone who eats at north mess. He's also extremely unlucky with the ladies, but tries anyways. If there's anyone who could be called the happening person in IIIT, it would be Gupta - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Very enthusiastic person. You'll always see him taking part or organising something or the other on campus. Khajaguda and Khilghanpur treks, Charminar, music events, Megathon, etc, Gupta forced me into many of these things and they will forever be precious *college memories! He is always very lively and enthusiastic, likes to bring people together and be around with people. Of course, Khilghanpur trip ka reason kuch aur hi tha, but still 😂. Always stay energetic and enthusiastic like this! ❤️ - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Rohan is someone who keeps all his friends in his very close circle, shares all his secrets and feelings with his friends. A nice friend to have who cares for everyone. Second and third year were times we spent a lot of time together. I still remember most of the conversations I had with him. Thanks for being my friend bro. My best wishes for your life.

Bhai, I don't know if I have said this to you before, but I wouldn't have survived in this college without you. Extremely glad that you didn't choose Bits because it gave me a friend for life. Online/Offline, academics bakchodi sab saath mei ki hai and honestly had the best of times with you. Bade aadmi ban ke bhool mat jana :) - Hitesh Goel

First day on campus :
First day i was in quarantine, so not a very fond experience. First memory after quarantine, I remember there was an event in amphi which was quite fun and that is where I think I actually met my friends for the first time.

Favourite campus memory :
Winning interbatch football and the late night hangouts in OBH.

One thing you will miss the most :
Watching matches with the boys and all the late night banter and hangout sessions. Also, not being able to go to JC at random times.

Best thing you learned from here :
Can't put everything in words.

Favourite place in campus :
Football ground, JC, OBH(not in summer).

Biggest Change since your first year :
Was very shy and never used to talk to people especially online, but my friends helped me a lot and made me come out of my shell.

Dear RoCho, You were my first friend on campus and the moment I heard you were a United fan, I knew I was gonna be stuck with you for rest of my college life and beyond ofc (Who else am I gonna laugh at huh). I still remember the first time I saw you during quarantine, idk what shined brighter the plates they were giving us for non veg dinner or ur bald head staged on that tall figure. And yes fast forward and look where we are. I cannot begin to start counting the number of memories we've made along the way. 2-2 DASS grind, Vizag trip (oops you didnt come, good only), accident aftermath, E-20 scenes, winning FIFA bet matches, 10 SG sem, BITS winning assist, Goa trip (Learn how to swim and reverse car bro) and the entire time you've always been by my side. My favourite memory was that 30 minute long convo you had with Joel in Hindi. It still laugh thinking about it. You always put others before you no matter the situation, something I deeply admire. But ull never be alone coz we always got ur back. Thank you! - Ankithvarun J

Ahh my og PK buddy, it's amazing how we got so many people into Precog lol. You were one of the first friends I made after coming to campus, and even though we didn't talk much in the beginning, we did start talking a lot later, especially during our internship time. That was a good time I cherish, going to the gym and eating mangoes at night. It's always entertaining to prank you and get you all worked up over the smallest things. I appreciate the gossip girl you are (however much you deny being one) as I get most of the drama info from you and it's fun to also discuss the same with you xD. It's crazy how you follow so many sports and are very involved in the matches; I don't even know how you can remember all that information. I am glad I got to meet someone who knows lesser Telugu than me lmao. Jokes apart, you are a very sweet, helpful, and caring friend, and I hope we continue to be close for a long time ahead as well. Now that you will be in India, keep visiting Hyderabad frequently. All the best! :D - Swetha Vipparla

My bro Rochow, you are one of the most reliable friends that one can have. You are always willing to set aside all of your time to help others. You're always the first person to offer assistance, or to give company or willing to take up responsibility where most others wouldn't cuz it might be too tedious or annoying. You're always thinking with your heart and thats simultaneously your greatest quality as well as flaw. You got the most annoying, gruff, standoffish and offensive exterior but in reality you're very sweet inside (to your friends), just like a coconut, which i think is one of the top fruits. If I had to give you any advice, it'd be to value yourself more, value what you have and don't always look for what others might have or what others might think of you. Be less stressed in life over things you can't control and I'm telling you life will feel much better. Here's to JAMMING together again :). - Joel Thyparampil Alex

I have vague memories of us talking during covid sems, but it was always about academic related things. We got to know each other properly once we came to campus, in 2-2. Of course we immediately bonded since the both of us played football. We were teammates for all the inter-batch and inter-house football tourneys and ended up bottling every single one of them except for the one in which I had ACL xD. You are one of the most kind and loving people I've ever met in my life. Nobody even comes close to how much you do and are willing to do for the people you care about. You are always willing to go out of your way to help people out, without ever expecting anything in return. It's extremely rare to come across somebody like you. It's also amazing how thoughtful, considerate and caring you are. Anytime I'm sick or have some important work to do, I know I can count on you. Will always remember (yes, even with my memory) and cherish the times we spent together. Best of luck with everything ! Djokovic > Nadal btw - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Rochowski you are one of the most caring and loving people I have met in my life. The OG shower partner, jam boi and India's very own Damian Illad (neckless version though). Although you act dumb and autistic (unintentionally unlike me), you have the highest "potential" to be mature. All I'll say to you is you are a gem of a person because finding someone as selfless as you in the current world is very rare. Never let anyone else affect your happiness, ever. But other than that, it has been an absolute pleasure knowing you and hopefully we stay in touch after college (Ik we will). - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Extremely dumb yet helpful guy (jk), I didn't know you properly until 3-2, we have always had our moments of fight and abuse, but you were always there when I needed help. I will definitely remember how sad you were when Man Utd lost 7-nil (why tf do u still support that team), I will remember those rocket league matches where I used to beat you 13-0, those gym sessions (although you stopped coming as everyone else), those banters and hangout sessions where you said so many retarded things (how can i forget sarcas me xD) and used to get abuse from everyone lmao. I highly appreciate your management skills (DnA head TAs) and your quick math skills (thats all I can think of lmao, pardon me if i left something). But you are an amazing guy to hangout with and wish you all the very best for all your future endeavors. - Ayush Agrawal yo jam, thank you for being an invaluable part of my college experience. You have been the sweetest and most helping person I have come across. Your willingness to help anyone is admirable and remembered by everyone. Your first instinct to help will take you far in life. From your ever frequent bottlings to getting thrashed in all driving-related activities - virtual or real, has been a great source of amusement. Whether it's the virtual world or real roads, you've managed to entertain us with your unique driving skills(thank your stars Leonia was cancelled). You have been a good sport about all these, and have added much laughter to our lives with your antics. In America, have a lot of fun and bitches. Here's to hoping we can navigate our way to a meetup without you getting stuck in a non-veg pulao drive-thru. - Khush Devendra Patel

You know how much I love you <3 and what you mean to me. Person with the most rational and fun head between the shoulders (no neck xD). Seeing you grow up and spending more time with you over these years has been truly treasuring and means the world to me. Always fun handling situations with you, defending in football with you, talking about sports and how dumb people can be. The college was truly a better place with you around. Can't wait to meet you around often, take care :)) - Harshit Gupta

Biggest Man United Fan(I mean it literally by size). You are one of the funniest people I have meet on campus, you are one of the few people with whom I could share whatever I felt like sharing the only thing is I am not sure if it remained a secret with you. I loved playing FIFA against you, you were the only one whom I had to focus and try hard against while playing FIFA. I love that he is very kind and helpful to all his friends. He supported his friends through hard time even when he was not involved in that incident. He is very good at most sports like football, tennis and badminton. I enjoy having long conversations with you so hit me up whenever you want. - Likhith Asapu

This crackhead of a roommate has taught me so many things in life. Be it from having healthy habits such as sleeping by 9 pm, or handling immense grief and hardships as a ManUtd fan, there was always something nice to be taken from my interactions with you. Our meeting and becoming roommates was a total coincidence, and I am super glad things turned out that way, as you're the best roommate anybody can have. You also have a passion for sports, and those medals you bring back every few months are a testament to your competitive spirit. I do wish you would talk to me about tea and stuff though, and it's a shame you couldn't seem to trust me with such information XD - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Please grow out of the dumbness. I wish you are really happy wherever you go and handle all obstacles well, all the best to you! - Annam Venika Sruthi

A giraffe, without its most distinguishing feature, who wore their heart out on their sleeve and lived out loud; I'll miss my days competing with you to be the worst on the pitch every time. Princess carrying you around campus on the 13th, this July. - Rajarshi Ray

Always the tallest figure of the squad in many ways. One of the first guys I acquainted with on campus, during kadamb and e8 days. Always resourceful with some top-tier intel, thanks for helping out in many ways from the beginning to the end during bottles. Winning with every sport, course and prof. All the best as you go on your international adventures, just like your tennis ik you'll keep acing. - Nitin Rajasekar

A great friend, one of the best strikers (and defender of course) in the campus, and an admirer of football (though supports United :)). It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together in Ankith's room (not like they went well for our team though :)). Always a pleasure hanging out with you. We won the interbatch football tournament under your captaincy! Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

mr modepalle, i genuinely don't know what to write here lmao. we've had quite the topsy-turvy relationship, but at the end of the day, i'm glad that i came across you in my life, and will genuinely miss seeing your lanky ass around on a daily basis :). also, as a fellow fan of a "once great but now in a down-phase" club, you shall always have my respect and condolences xD. bestest cb pairing on campus btw (have the stats and the trophies to back that up as well :)). baaki the pairing shall continue in the blr iiith football chapter lmaooo, so stay in touch :P - Pranjal Thapliyal

Best guy to bitch to :) What treat ra? - Priyanshul Govil

I first met you in college and it was fun having banter with you be it about Man United or about Federer being the goat. I can remember the FIFA days when we used to play so many matches because I used to keep losing. Then I used to win the last match and annoy you about it for the rest of the day lol. It was fun seeing you play football like Darwin Nunez or Lakaka where you miss so many sitters but finally score some important goal. You're always the gossip merchant getting to know information first. Hope we stay in touch. All the best! - Shubh Agarwal

*Let's just start by saying, you're the most typical United fan. Discussing and playing football with you was always fun and kaafi intense. COYB 💙 - Srijan Chakraborty

"You take care of the our friend circle, actively participate and initiate plans/activities. You are very adventurous, climbing chembra peak (I was very scared at few places). When I met you and our friend group first time we played UNO that is one of my most memorable time in campus. During GOA ghat road trip you once told you were not afraid and trusted me and my driving, that meant a lot. Coming to think of it you are my closest/first female friend in campus. Thanks for reaching out your friendship to me, I might have been difficult being less communicative and all. All the best for all your future endeavors. - P Balaramakrishna Varma Hello Pranathi! When I first met you on campus, I felt that you were pretty unapproachable. Over the years though, I grew to like you, really. You are a very loyal friend and a fierce woman. I hope you know that. I wish we had more time to get closer and become good friends. Also, I like your smile :). Your smile and cheerfulness lits up the room. I wholeheartedly wish you the best in life. Stay in touch and keep smiling! :) - Narra Srija

Heyy Sankalp, Hello, da. I have known you since the first year but we haven't gotten close till the final year. I admire your patience and the way you respect people. I love speaking with you and all the stuff I learnt from you will be remembered for me for a lifetime. I really wish I was as close to you as I became in my 4th year. You are one of the few friends who seem genuinely nice towards others. I can say you are one of the sweetest people I have met so far. I am really happy that I have known you and wish I could have spent more time with you. There are only a few instances where I spoke with you and maybe only 2-3 deep conversations which impacted me a lot and I wish I had more. Though I might not be in India, don't lose touch. I would love to talk to you. I am very *happy for your presence in my college life and thanks for all the lovely conversations. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

First day on campus :
One fine day in second year we hit campus. December 21st I think. I reached, dad threw my suitcases across the gate and said bye. A car dropped us to quarantine hostels. Met a lot of people, a lot of friends.

Favourite campus memory :
Holi, 2023. Haven't had that much fun in awhile.

One thing you will miss the most :
Honestly, my roommate was the coolest person ever. Will miss hanging out with Siddik and friends in College.

Best thing you learned from here :
Self Sufficiency and Adaptability. Learned that while I am an introvert, I need to interact with people as well. Learned to talk to anyone when the need arises. Learned to do my best work no matter what happens where. Learned to Prioritise my time and focus on what matters.

Favourite place in campus :
OBH. Never stayed in Bakul ever. A close second is New Workspace. A third is CCNSB Labs.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I have stopped caring for a lot of things I used to. Kind of a good change. I have also become more social, and also I went from having 6 pack abs when I joined to being fat now. I went from disciplined to wild to disciplined again.

First day on campus :
Having interacted with my batchmates and college friends for more than a year it was a nervous and anxious feeling to be able actually to meet with them. Roaming around the campus, drinking Oreo shakes, and meeting new people was a very exciting and life-changing moment for me.

Favourite campus memory :
Winning the inter-batch football tournament in UG4 was a bittersweet moment as even though we won this, it would probably be the last time we all played together. After the previous two years when we just weren't good enough, this experience was memorable.

One thing you will miss the most :
Watching the biggest, best, and most hyped football matches together in one of my friends' rooms was something I didn't know I would love till I experienced it.

Best thing you learned from here :
Apart from academics, going through daily activities, managing my finances, laundry, etc. has improved me. Seeing and living with such a diverse group of people have helped me evolve as a person.

Favourite place in campus :
I'd say OBH. Even though of the whole water issues and electricity problems we get, it has still been a place where my core memories have been created. The table tennis room and the badminton court have been constant places I visited apart from the usual friends' rooms.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I would say my technical expertise is the main thing. IIIT has helped me broaden my field of knowledge and now I have a kind of basic knowledge in the various domains.

Shubhii! One of the most op Kabootars XD. I've known you for almost 3 years now and you're an amazing friend! Really enjoyed playing football with you (how many ever handful of times i came to play XD) and am really proud of how nicely we scammed completed that DFS project XDD. All the best for your future and keep in touch! - Gaurav Singh

Genuinely one of the most dedicated and hardest working people I've met. Had a really good time working with you during SE and IS and I'm pretty proud of whatever we did. Good luck with everything and hopefully we'll meet again soon! - Ben Paul Varghese Hiee! You are such a sweet, warm and smart person. Our discord hangouts, study sessions, watching movies on zoom are cherished memories <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

That one friend who I know cared deeply always. He might seem lil mean but he is very sweet inside. For the ones who he considers his people he will go beyond to care about them. Its a huge blessing to be friends with him <3, and I am grateful for being one. - Gokul Praneetha

Dear Shubstaa, I remember we first met in the football ground and we were the midfield duo in that 25v25 match. Back then only I knew our chemistry would be something else (to the many Agni and interbatch matches). Then you invited me to ur room and introduced me to rest of the gang which I'm extremely grateful for. E-127 scenes were crazy, DASS got us closer and soon we were all inseparable. We've had so many memories together and I have learnt a lot from you be it card games, TT, books or that even copilot existed xD. I will always cherish those football memories and match streamings (Puta Madrid) and not to forget the fifa matches I used to thrash you in xD. You are one of the most dedicated and hardworking people I've met. Anything you set ur mind to, you give it your all - a quality I really admire. Ur a crazy all rounder balancing academics, sports, language interests and whatnot (You could've been a starter for college team :/). You have always been considerate and caring. Gracias for everything! - Ankithvarun J

Hulllooo cutie! Discussing and playing football with you was always fun and kaafi memorable. Your book recommendations, albeit falling on deaf ears, we're amazing and I loved the conversations we had. I'm envious of your well rounded personality - you're interested in everything from sports to art and that's amazing 💖Stay the same mate - Srijan Chakraborty

We haven't been the closest of friends, but you've been a very fun person to be around. I still remember chatting with you on discord during online sem. I'll never forget how helpful you were during our time in Qatar, and don't know what we'd do without you. I wish you all the very best in life, always stay the same! - Jatin Agarwala

Fellow Madridista, I really admire your work ethic, you put maximum effort in everything you do. I enjoyed playing badminton and FIFA against you. I also enjoyed discussing about football with you. I don't understand how you are good at everything in almost every sports and in academics. I wish I had half the talent you had anyway I enjoyed doing NNLG project with you, I learnt a lot from you during that period. Best of luck for all your future endeavours. - Likhith Asapu

one of the few madrid supporters who i actually respect and can get along with lmao. loved all the convos that we had wrt books (hoping that they shall continue online as well :)), and ima practise badminton for the next time we meet :). have had a lot of great memories with you on the ground as well- will forever remember the inter-house and inter-batch matches. stay in touch brother, blr iiith football chapter would be booming now fr xD - Pranjal Thapliyal

My favourite FIFA partner. Not because I used to win most of the time lol. We had some great times together and I will never take those moments and memories for granted. Enjoyed playing football with you a lot whether it be on our shitty ground or on the beaches of Goa. Winning interbatch together was crazyy. All the best for everything!! Also, no matter what you say, Rafa is the GOAT - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Shubhy Dooby Doooo!!!! U've been my longest friend on campus. I'll be forever grateful to you since you're the one who introduced me to many ppl who I consider among my closest friends. A very underrated kind and compassionate guy and I hope that everyone else also realizes this. You carried my entire online sem by always being there to help me out, answer any doubts I had, and introduce me to many new people. I think your bold and outgoing personality is very commendable. You reintroduced me to reading and pushed me to be consistent. If you didn't put stuff so awkwardly, more people would appreciate the gem that you are. Here's to hoping that we continue to hangout in Bangalore. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

From spending fun moments with you online (even though I majorly got teased -.-) to extending them further when we all met on campus, I have enjoyed each and every moment spent with you as we got through college together. Having random life conversations and college lore with you in the mess, to playing football with you and spending more and more time together, it has been a truly enjoyable journey. We definitely shall keep in touch easily, cause seeing the future job and MBA plans, we both are going to be in either HYD or BLR for quite a few years :)) - Harshit Gupta Shubhji! It has been an honor to be your neighbour for a whole year along with the cleaner guy:) You have been a great company. You also have been always focused on your work and goals, and I admire how you always have a plan for everything. Your passion for football, although kept me awake some nights, is something I would like to emulate! Playing FIFA with you all guys were some of the best times in college, hope to do that again one day... Meet you soon! - Khush Devendra Patel

I just knew you as a Madrid fan during the online times but got to know you better once we came to campus. I'm very glad to have met someone like you in college. One thing I really admire about you is your work ethic and the fact that you know how to set your priorities straight and right. It is very rare to find someone as driven as you from both an academic and an extracurricular standpoint. The fact that you not only play cricket at such a high level, but also other sports such as football and badminton is a testament to your physical prowess. We made many amazing memories during the 2-2.5 years we knew each other properly and for that I'll be forever grateful. I hope to keep in touch with you for many years down the line. Wish you all the best with your new job at Adobe and with your MBA plans as well. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

We first met in 3-1 when we shifted to the same corridor by chance, it was an aboslute pleasure meeting and knowing you. I will always remember and cherish those game of thrones nights with full speaker and night light setup, those badminton sessions where you made me run like crazy lmao, that time when you made me watch The Wire forcefully (although the ending was worth it), and also the ANLP project in which you kassied so hard and carried our team xD. But when it comes to debating, you bring up the most absurd points and thats why we used to call you autistic agarwal lol. But jokes apart, very calm and helpful guy and wish you all the very best for your future. - Ayush Agrawal

I remember the first time I met you was wayy back in the school days. We played against each other in QCA and even met briefly during the Qatar Foundation tournament. I knew who you were then but I'm pretty sure you didn't know who I was. Anyways, we instantly hit it off in the online sem and became really good friends. We ended up being roomies as well. Getting through college would have been impossible without you. Since day one, you've been helping me out with everything. Be it sending me assignments or doing projects together you've always helped me out and I couldn't thank you enough for it. It is amazing how much you work hard for the targets and goals you set for yourself. You're the only person who picked difficult courses such as IRE and ANLP purely out of interest and the sake of learning. You are also extremely kind and caring. You always call me for lunch even though you know that there is a 99.99% chance that I will be skipping it. Thanks for always being such a great friend ! Best of Luck ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

We became friends through Kabootar, and you were one of my very first friends in college. I did not expect us to be close friends at all, but life took a different turn. You are one of the most unique people I have ever met, and I admire your way of thought and rationality (your sense of humour is still mid though). I like your habit of reading, and that has inspired me also to read more and have discussions regarding various books. You are a learning-oriented person who enjoys the journey to his goals, not just focusing on the results. Thanks for always encouraging me to go out of my comfort zone and try new things. I appreciate your constant support and calm presence throughout my college life. Looking forward to meeting you soon! - Swetha Vipparla

one of my first friends in IIIT. very cool guy. keeps to himself most of the time. off late, we have been sorta drifting apart due to not much stuff in common in college. i wish we had continued to stay in touch since kabootar. but kuch ni- never too late. loved catching up with ya before you left for home. we should do something like that regularly if youre up for it. - Mihir Rawat

Behind your chill personality is one of the most disciplined people I've come across in IIIT Hyderabad. You also have this magical ability to point out the obvious to my eternally confused brain, and I am really glad that I met you and got to know you. I really enjoyed our TT matches together, and I am still convinced I can beat you by a large margin someday. You've actually inspired me to pick up reading again and maintain good habits in general (I have never heard of Duolingo in my life). Stay sharp and keep reading :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

A great friend, one of the best right winger in the campus, and an admirer of football. It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together in Ankith's room (not like they went well for our team though :)). Always a pleasure hanging out with you. Apart from football, we have been together on a cricket pitch many times. Be it agni house or inter batch. Your spin always did the trick for our team (or against sometimes :)). Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come.

Hello Sir, You are one of the top few in my list of eccentric people. Nice guy despite being south indian. A lot of time is left to spend together.. but YOU ARE GREAT... - ROHAN GUPTA

Should have started a students union in IIIT man. its ok I more year to go. Practise badminton and come next time, don't get belted.😂 Pretty fun being with you, Binoy Babu. Unique sense of humour and very interesting ideas! Looking forward for another year... - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

the most ~degenerate~ cultured individual on campus. can't believe that i was able to meet a fellow barry enjoyer in real life lmaooo, top tier taste. hoping that we do a dnd session someday again in the future. take care brother, and stay in touch pls :) (ps: lemme know whenever you're in bangalore or ima kill you fr (^_^)) - Pranjal Thapliyal

Solra Vinay. I didn't fill out the DnA form so that I can get new friends. That's how I met Vinay, my roommate.🙃Being an introvert during the initial days, Vinay became one of the chillest person with huge vibes and with a lot of friends.🤑Vinay was always there for me each time I fell sick. Huge thanks❤️for all the help da. He was a great teammate who literally carried the economics team. He is a geek, gamer and a binge watcher. He is very clear on what he wants from his life and enjoys his life to the fullest.😉He is a very cool person to interact with. All the best for your life. - Karthik Prasanna N

Vinay is a unique personality, despite him being South Indian he is one of the most helpful and nicest guys on the campus. I've selfishly relied on him countless time throughout the years for many unreasonable requests, but he always eventually comes through to help out. I can definitely say that he has a significant impact on my personal growth over the years, as he has pushed me to constantly go to the gym and adopt a healthier lifestyle. He has also showed me how societal norms have influenced us to attach our self-worth to mindless productivity, and that doesn't necessarily have to be the case for a fulfilling life. I really appreciate the time we have spent together discussing politics, culture and the human condition, which has prompted me to always gain a deeper understanding. Looking forward to the next few years as DDs and hopefully not ending up homeless together :)) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Man can steer a conversation towards communism, and I've always loved how he did it. No minute around him is boring, and I'm glad to be close with him(cause his cooler is a save in the summer) - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Mavani. You gajini brother. I dont even remember how exactly we met but becoming such close friends with you is truly one of the best things that could have ever happened to me. One of the most honest and genuine people i know. Hands down the most mature guy in our friend group. I have no idea how this dude sleeps so much and manages to skip 2 meals a day and still be fine. My favourite cb partner. This guy truly is one of the nicest guys i know. Will always cherish the talks we had which truly helped me become a better person. I love you brother. Good luck. You're gonna be huge in life. PUTA BARCA - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Dear Mavadawg, We first met coz of football of course and I remember that walk back to OBH, we conversed in Hindi for a total of 30 seconds xD (crazy if that had continued) and then straight E-127 scenes. Coming right out of online sem, I found comfort in you guys and I am so glad that it happened. The DASS grind in 2-2 was something else and obviously credit to the MDL glory duo (one of my only two A's ever haha). I never really got to thank you for sleeping on that metal chair all night and taking care of me while I was seeing spirals xD. You're really caring and a man of great character who I respect and admire a lot. You've gone out of ur way and helped me on multiple occasions. Thank you for everything! I will always miss those forgetful moments you have and Table Mavani xD, the anime binge sessions and above all, FOOTBALL. BITS and our intercollege tourney were heavenly and would never be complete without you managing and cheering on for us. We HAVE to get back our chemistry on the field in Bangalore. - Ankithvarun J

Mavropanos my broooo. Top ten OG's on camous frfr. One of the first few people I met online and on campus and we instantly vibed. You are always there to lend a ear to everyone's troubles and hear them out on any issue. Everyone feels safe trusting you with their problems but thats prolly cuz they know you're gonna forget it in 5 mins anyway xD. Hella underrated project teammate to have as well (Up there with Bihar). Carried me in multiple courses and never once made anything of it. Broski has a great sense of responsibility and is always willing to help a homie out. Exceptionally good defender and insanely fun to play with but forced into early retirement because of ACL tear. Weakling. Only bro who I felt was the perfect CDM partner for me but the dream was never realised :(. Mavbro is so epic that God had to nerf you by allowing you to stay awake only 20% of the day. The world isn't ready for normal sleep schedule Mavani. Thanks for making college so much fun! PS. pls manage my finances. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Mavadawggg, the OG shower partner and fellow Gujju Gang member, the first time we met, I instantly fell in awe with the way you not only spoke but also the way you conducted yourself and your behaviour in general. It is not often that someone sets such a lasting first impression on me. Our friendship started with football banter and how Arsenal is the greatest club of all time, but it slowly changed into a more meaningful one. Looking back at the 2-3 years we were in college, the thing I most cherish about you is how much clarity you have in everything you do. This is pretty rare and honestly, something you should be super proud of. Another thing I like about you is how you deal with even the toughest situations (the biggest example being the return trip from Vizag). You are truly someone I wish I had met earlier in life because there are so many things that you've taught me. All I'll say is that make sure to maximise your immense potential and ensure you keep your feet planted on the ground as you progress. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

I got to know you online as one of the Qatar boys, and I knew at the time that we would get much closer. That turned out to be true when we came to campus and I got to spend much more time with you. Though initially, you were rarely present during our lunches due to your ASEC work, I am glad that got over and you started eating with us. But that was also short-lived since afterwards you started skipping meals smh. You are a very smart, kind, calm, and composed person (with short-term memory loss). I cherish our friendship and your constant presence throughout my college life. Thanks for taking care of me always as a brother. One thing though, I definitely sleep more than you — it's no competition. Keep travelling to Hyderabad often and I'll make you different chicken varieties every time. See you soon :D - Swetha Vipparla

I first remember meeting you online through 'Kabootars' and we instantly hit it off. We have a lot of things in common from playing cricket in Qatar to being Madridistas. The conversion to offline college was also really smooth with all your small help and all the stuff you brought from Qatar lol. I still remember watching Real Madrid matches in the room, talking about future life and goals, and buying a cooler because we were dying of heat which we never used again. You have been a constant friend during the whole journey and I can't imagine how it would have gone without your presence beside me. You are always ready with a helping hand and calming tense situations. Now that we are both going to Bangalore, I hope that we keep building upon this life-long friendship. - Shubh Agarwal Mavaniji! From the time I met you, you have been a real one. From your mature takes grounding the group to leading us in random JC rounds, you have been the glue that binds our crazy moments and meaningful conversations together. Beyond your fun-loving spirit, your insights are admirable. You always seem to have the right words when someone needs it most. Your empathetic nature and genuine interest in others make you a trusted friend. And also the fact you forget what was confided with you, makes you the best confidant :) Your hardwork and meticulous attitude towards life is inspiring to us all in the group. Whatever work it might be, you always give your best effort with full dedication. Also your ever-ready nature to try out new food joints, has been a great support! Thank you for being such an integral part of my college life and for making every moment memorable. - Khush Devendra Patel

Met you for the first time in 3-1 when we all shifted to the same corridor by chance, who would know that would be the begining of a great friendship, These incidents remind us of the beauty and unpredictability of life. Extremely sweet, calm (i would say cute also but that thick beard of yours wont allow me) & highly helpful guy, we had almost all our courses in common and in almost all of them we were teammates. I will always remember & cherish those moments in which we worked together, in which we abused each other, in which we kassied together for endsems and projects. Also that one day we went for breakfast to dlf in the morning (imagine waking up early in the morning for having breakfast, that would have been a first for you xD), Also you were the first one who inspired me to go to the gym although you yourself stopped going to gym lmao, I got to learn many things from you. Wish you very best for your future and pls have breakfast when u start working fulltime and I hope our paths cross again. - Ayush Agrawal

You are genuinely one of the most genuine, nicest, sweetest person I have ever met, you mf. First of all, apologies for not helping you with carrying luggage during quarantine xD. Maybe if I had, we would have been friends sooner. Idk whether to be sad or happy that I atleast escaped your madrid propoganda and barca hatred for that some time. You made playing football much more enjoyable for me. If I am Jordan from wish you are the gujju Ramos xD. But jokes apart, we were Ramos and Casillas, noone could pass us(atleast till like the last 10 mins, you last minute bottler lol). I pray that your ACL heals soon and you can play football again. Our friendship is something I will cherish forever and thank you for everything. All the best for your future and we will surely keep in touch (am blocking you whenever Madrid accomplishes something tho, can't take more of your torture). I will remember you every time I have cheesecake lol. And finally, most importantly PUTA MADRID!!! FORCA BARCA!!! - Janardan S

I will never forget the day when u offered to drop me back to my home because it was late. It showed me how good of a person you are. You are very moral, kind person. You say dumb things over table n even outside sometimes but you are actually very smart when it comes to handling things. I wish I could learn that from you on how to be like that. I can also never forget the scooty ride we all went. We had some fun moments together. I wish you a great future full of success, happiness, health and sleep xD and paisa also(your gujju blood will handle that anyway). All the best! - Annam Venika Sruthi

Fakeeeee DASA, proper gujju boi. What a great guy by heart, gem of a person. Always helpful. Bad luck last sem for not playing sports. Batch ka Bhuvneshwar kumar. Fellow ASEC coord, loved those times. Keeping smiling man and playing football (also cricket pls). Meet you soon mate, best luck for everything!! - Ayan Agrawal

According to me, the most well-groomed and handsome man of our batch. It has been an absolute pleasure getting to know you during our DASA project, football games and random fun talks and interactions. It always amazes me how you remain calm and still create the most fun around you. - Harshit Gupta

Mavani brother, thank you for being such a warm and mellow presence. Despite being a smart jock in all regards, you manage to be so calm and composed that it's unreal. You have always been a great help whenever I came to you asking about random stuff, and I enjoy vibing with you and your group, watching football matches and listening to futile football banter. We at college will definitely miss having you around, and I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavours. Pls hook me up with ISL tickets if you stumble by them in the future xD - Sudha Tanay Doddi

You're easily one of the most chill people I've met - always cheerful and ready to help whenever anything came up. I'll always cherish the time we've spent together and hopefully we'll get to meet again soon. Best of luck with everything! - Ben Paul Varghese

A great friend, one of the best CB in the campus, and an admirer of football. It's been great hanging out with you guys be it on the football pitch almost every day of the week or when we are hanging outside. Had fun watching football matches together (not like they went well for the team though :)). Apart from football, one of the most composed personalities on the campus. Calm and collected. Always a pleasure hanging out with you. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

Fellllooww Madrid Supporter. You are a very

One of my very first friends in IIIT. Will definitely never forget the twin jokes because I'm gonna get birthday wishes on your birthday from now ;-;. We've had long deep conversations about a lot of things, and fun hangout sessions. While the distance between us was on and off, I had a great time spent with you around. Heyy, You were one of the OG kassis of our CHD batch but after meeting you on campus I realised you were much more than that -- a really good friend and just a very person to be around and talk to. Keep shining brother and good luck with your future! - Hitesh Goel

One of my very good Discord friends. I remember chatting so much with you. We played chess too where I think you had made a claim that no one could beat you in antichess or something lol. We have had a lot of book discussions, even though idk why I kept recommending you books :(. Always the loudest in the room (you remember when the guard came to our room to remove 20-something people when we were partying). A very caring friend though. All the best to you and hope you start reading some of my suggestions. - Shubh Agarwal Hey Srijan I'll miss your funny, extroverted personality. Never felt awkward reaching out to you for anything and I'll always remember our discussions on the cricket group about well, cricket lmao. It was a blast doing GnD under you and finally TAing it with you. Taking away a lot of happy memorie s. Let's stay in touch :) - Anish Mathur

Wish I'd gotten around to knowing you sooner. Don't really know how to put the rest into words, so will put it into a hug next time we meet <3 - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Shreejon Shreejon, my panda buddy, I am not gonna miss you much because I am gonna be seeing you a lot in my life. Our chapter isn't over yet. I never thought I would find long-lasting dudes and dudettes in my college life, let alone share the stagre during the ramp walk (feli) with the hottest man to ever live on the planet after Chris Hems <3 Stay frosty stay delightful! Also, I uninstalled Splitwise, kya karlega :p - Freyam Mehta

Brother! uk how much we simp for each other :D It's always amazing to see your energy, and it also gets rubbed off on me. I like how you stand your ground and make people feel involved through your jovial behaviour. Take good care of yourself, and you run damn fast boi!! - Harshit Gupta

I still can't forget how back in November'21 we first met and talked face to face over a video call on someone else's phone. Trust me, I've developed a huge amount of self-confidence solely because of you. I honestly love how your energy is so infectious. And yes, Microsoft has also deepened our bond so much. To the many more memories together. - Akshit Gureja

"Aah, where to begin. One of the first people I interacted with, instantly clicked with, and formed one of the greatest bonds with. In the same team wherever possible (except in GD where I kinda had to leave the course itself XD). You know this is the kind of friendship you wish for whenever you enter a new era of your life. Listens to my rants, and knows more secrets about me than probably anyone on this planet. Oh yeah, dont debate with this guy, formal or informal. Haaroge jeetoge toh pata nhi, in the process you will start questioning your own life choices that led you to this moment.

Good luck in your life brother. Gonna bother you regularly about my life. - Rahul Garg"

I still don't get how we end up crossing you and Anusha EVERY single time I single time I walk around the campus, but stopping to exchange a few laughters has always been a vibe. Thanks for being the loudest laugh whenever I try to be funny man, such a cutiepatootie fr, and ofc all the CHD drama and bitching, always loved that xD - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Srijan sir, I first got to know through Ping! (lmao good times) and you seemed like a scary presence. So when I learned that you found me scary, that was funny lol. You are one of the loudest people I've met with a distinctive laugh I can recognise from anywhere. You are cheerful, kind, and smart, and it's been great knowing and interacting with you. Hope you remain the same always and keep your newfound passion for cycling xD. All the best for your future endeavours! - Swetha Vipparla

Is it possible to learn this power sir? I really wish I got to know you better, since you really are an awesome person, albeit a bit extra at times. But even then, I'm glad I met you when I did. Please remain your wonderful, extroverted self and keep in touch. Cheers! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Bro introduced me to anime and I introduced bro to valo, the rest is history :) From the spotify sessions during covid, to the anime binging sessions and discussions xd, to us tryharding cp together (and getting skill issued hehe), to the intense swiggy scrolling to order together :), to the endless gaming sessions in bakul/obh (need dat dub lol) you were always there <3 im gonna miss every single thing :(- Sambasai Reddy Andem

Hello da, I have known you since online and you are one of the few bonds I knew online. You were one person with whom I was not able to spend proper time in my 3rd and 4th years but I really enjoyed all the walks and discussions we had. I always wonder about your skills in coding. Thanks a lot for staying in my college life. I can say at least I had a bond friend from CSE in IIIT Hyderabad. Stay in touch ! Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

The bondest person and our group's bahubali. Gonna miss calling you Annaya, or learning Telugu words from you and Sambs,and how you could complete 5k runs without break but were always up for taking auto back from DLF XD. Had so much fun searching for ice cream shops for our late-night food cravings in Goa, and filling the whole table with food in Mangomist, and going for campus gedis in the beginning of college. Will miss our lifings and those "dhaar card" and "unno" moments so much :(- Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Best TT coach!! Thanks for all the time and effort!! I had a lot of fun playing. Rating: 5/5 <3 - Garapati Sreya

My humble king. God tier aimer that nerfs himself by playing only sage. Rants about random shit like he's getting fat (Bro is built like an athlete). Good at everything so god had to nerf him by giving adhd. Keep in contact my goat - Abhijith A

Most jobless guy ever, will always be in for anything (valo/tt/badminton), though it might take some effort to get him to move from his room. - Vegi Abhijnan

Mdyr how smart we are. Toods da you are, like full myadascience only Come TT fastly - Srijan Chakraborty

Sudha Tanay Doddi

sudha.tanay@research.iiit.ac.in Dont use instagram :)

First day on campus :
Walked around to enjoy the greenery and trees. Thought the mess food was decent (shoot me)

Favourite campus memory :
Any DJ night, its amazing to lose yourself and just dance while vibing with peers to amazing songs. Cricket streaming nights were a personal favourite too.

One thing you will miss the most :
The sheer freedom this place offers. VC cold coffee as well.

Best thing you learned from here :
Not everything is black and white. Make new friends and get to know people.

Favourite place in campus :

Learned to be a bit more lax and friendlier in general

There is no way I can describe how important this dude was to my college life. From maintaining a room that felt like home to listening to my rr throughout 4 (and definitely 5) years at hostel, the only disease spread by STD was that of laughter hehe. Also, man loves wordclouds, and can catch bitches as easily as he does pokemon fr. Bestest teddy bear out there to go to for a hug every now and then, literally a constant, reset point for me in college xD P.S. Dude saved the entire batch from an ICT assignment and is considered a legend for the same. P.S. Petition to bring back long haired Tanay. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Heyyy Tanayy.. you've no idea how much you've helped me over the first few years of college and made things insanely survivable for me! Your one 'blinking LED' story changed everything! I felt connected over a small study call with you and found one gem of a person and legit my first ever friend on campus. You remember the first time we sneaked out of college and in the name of beer, had orange juice instead? xD. And yes kiddo, will always switch on my motherly aura around you, because why not?! It's just so fun and happy being around you. You know how to appreciate art, make beautiful art yourself and I think learning about yourself in the best possible way! I've seen you grow immensely over the years and totally believe that there is absolutely nothing that is non-achievable for you. Afterall, all those rants got a rebellious response! Broo.. always the best wishes for you and tightest hugs for you <3 - Anjali Singh

Lord Sudha Tanay Doddi is one of the first people I met on campus. One guy that you can instantly vibe with in any circumstance. I am eternally grateful that he lent his room to me for more than a month in 2-2. Gives very calming teddy bear energy and is always a wholesome presence in life. Guaranteed to receive the best hugs on campus from this man. Always has the most vibey lofi music playing in his room and a great person to talk to about gaming. Saddest part of 4th year was that he left to 1st floor and then I barely got to see him the rest of the year. Will definitely miss his pookie bear energy. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

one of the most cultured people who i've ever had the pleasure of coming across. i shall dearly miss all the impromptu conversations that we've had over the years (all the way back from the online sems :')). you're one of the very few people in my life who i feel like i can genuinely relate to on a deeper level, and have a heart-to-heart with, without any qualms whatsoever (and i do not make that statement lightly btw :)). would very much love to welcome you as fellow samsung employee #49746 someday, and here's to hoping that we do, one day someday, get to be roommates together

:P. ps: we still need to hit up a comic con together btw, shall hold you to that :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

Among many things, a seasoned and resourceful individual – your ability and willingness to provide counsel and insider info on anything under the sun will be missed. Our inhouse hyderabad expert and negotiator knows the streets. An astro god, your expertise on stuff out of this world is out of this world. Will miss having you around for profound conversations about anything, and t-hub access. Always willing to do random stuff, thanks for downloading jackbox and bringing the squad together. Future goated motivational speaker, with pawan kalyan hair and charisma. I'm sure you will do great in the future, regardless of the domain or field, confident that you can adapt to anything that comes around. - Nitin Rajasekar

Tan the Man, you've been the wittiest person I've known on campus. Loitering the same wing as you made the isolation of single-rooms far warmer and sitting next to you made that course much more tolerable. Always held a genuine, fun energy to you and made me feel like I had a life-sized Oswald around, even if so, only in brief. - Rajarshi Ray

Sudha Bundaa is a very lively and energetic person. Honestly, it feels like something is missing when he is not with our group or when he is in a bad mood. He single-handedly makes our group lively with his witty talks. He is one of the first friends I made in college, and I don't know how I would have survived the first year without him. He helped me a lot in making friends. I really admire his general knowledge. I also love his confidence and the way he presents himself. He is an extremely good speaker, and his ability to make friends easily is something I wish I had. I enjoyed gaming with him, and loved playing RL and FIFA against him. Even when he loses, he continues to play, I love that never-give-up attitude. He is also extremely helpful he helps me even when I never asked him to. I know he is going to be a lifelong friend, and I am very happy to have met him on the first day of college. - Likhith Asapu

One of the most mature and outgoing people I have met in college. One thing I really appreciate about you is the clarity of thought you have on a variety of topics. This is very much noticeable in any conversation I have with you. You have taught me some stuff that I will remember throughout my life. Thanks for being a lovely, vibey guy to hang out with. I'll miss you after we graduate. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Dear Tanny, One of my first friends in campus, you were so easy to vibe with whether it was the lo-fi elevator music or the fun games we played in early 2-2. You are an incredibly nice person and ur hugs were always rejuvenating. My favorite memory of you is when I spotted you playing pokemon go near the main gate. Ur reaction was something to behold which I'll never forget xD. Here's to another year of chilling in campus. May you and ur bunda stay the same. Take care! - Ankithvarun J

"Bunda boyyy. My roommate. It was such a random event for us to become roommates but i am so grateful we did. I feel sorry you aint gonna graduate anytime soon xD. How much fun i used to make of you for being chd and you used to return the favour with ManUtd :(Thanks for everything ra. You the best roommate and one of the nicest dudes I have met in campus. Good luck for everything brother - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

"LMAO" those were the first words he spoke to me, man has been funny ever since. He's known for his timely and witty comebacks as he loves mothers in general. Starts early and finishes late (assignments) !!! He's a true CHD (even though he had a good rank to choose CLD), as he is a presentations merchant. A rizzler who goes by Sudha, "Fake it till you make it ftw". Man's very competitive in stuff. Not only does he try to up his game but other's as well. I cherished each and every brawl I had with him, I would say our bond only grew stronger and stronger to hold even healthier brawls in the future. He's a true Hyderabadi, even though blud was born in Pune and Bangalore is pretty much better in everything. Not only does he know that SRH is shit, but supports it as well. His planning skills are im-peccable !!! Our group can never be complete without this guy. Agla Sala CSK Ke Liye Hum Honge, Jo Bhi Ho ... - Rahothvarman P

Tanayji just being around you is a source of joy! your attitude and wit is a great source of banter! also playing badminton with you all in the last semester was great fun, also just wanted to let you know your badminton skills have terrified the best of players including me. Staying awake the whole night through the heavy rains slogging for our Intro to Film endsems with you is a core memory for me now. Thank you for everything - Khush Devendra Patel

An intelligent and outgoing person who not only takes part in clubs and events but also TAs courses. You are financially smart and good at networking - important skills that I find difficult to acquire. Thanks for being enterprising and practical regarding outings with our friends. I also found most of our conversations to be helpful and informative, so thank you for that. I'm sure that with your skills and willingness to try new things, you will able to excel at anything you put your mind to. Keep up the great work! - Vikram A Rao

A very close friend who had similar interests to mine so I really enjoyed talking to you about various things. You had a level of maturity that I was always envious of, but you were also sometimes equally immature which resulted in a very funny personality. All our discussions about games and anime was the only time I could truly be myself and I am really thankful for that. I feel you were very good at understanding people and their emotions, this was a very valuable trait for you and I think it shows by looking at how social you are. Also, humanity courses would not have been the same without you, you singlehandedly made me interested in topics I never thought I would be interested in. All in all I'm very thankful for all the time we spent together and I hope we can stay in touch. I wish you all the best for your future endeavors. - Aakash Terala

Tanay sirrr, first met you back when we were living in D block. I remember annoying by playing FIFA in your room late in the night while you were trying to sleep xD. You were patient enough to not tell me off, so thanks :). You're one of the most chill and sweet people on campus. Anytime I see you, you're always laughing and smiling and somehow always manage to do the same for me as well. You're the kind of friend who turns even the most mundane moments into something special. Thanks for being such an awesome part of my college journey and best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

I remember first talking to you during 2-2 when you were Rohan's roommate. Talking to you was always fun and we just talked about random stuff. I can't even count the number of times we went to play table tennis in the beginning and I remember how you were just 'warming up', 'not in the groove', 'playing after soo long'. Just kidding, I felt that our matches were always pretty close even when the scoreboard didn't suggest them lol. I was always afraid you would regain your groove and that would be the end of me. It was nice during the 'Duolingo resurgence' iirc was in 3-2 where you started speaking Korean was it? It was always nice talking to you and I wish we had more moments together to have fun and create memories. All the very best for your future and I hope we can meet again. - Shubh Agarwal

Really Cozy and comfortable to be with! Half my college life was listening to you rant 😂😂. But ig that made us very close. It is very easy and comforting talking to you, about anything, CHD, research, life or just random stuff. But you are fkn lazy, don't even step out of your room. Despite asking sooo many times you never came out anywhere or didn't even invite me home :/ We should sleep together more often. Bestiee ❤️❤️❤️ - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan than me xD, Will definitely remember the rocket league matches we played and the amount of fun we had !, Calling each other washed, those mom jokes (lmao), You are a guy who can speak on literally any topic for hours, would love to get even a tiny % of that skill, I always used to call your degree as arts :paintemoji: (coz isnt that true?) but yeah massive respect for CHD for going through all that humanities BS, wish you had TAed ethics-1 (whats the point of being your friend if you cant TA a course for me lmao useless), but jokes apart amazing guy to be around, great sense of humour. - Ayush Agrawal

Tanay, my dearest younger brother, these past few years have been a beautiful journey of getting to know you. From your spirited academic rants to seeing how committed you are towards being a dedicated TA, growing together and spending time with you has been a true joy. My most precious moments with you remind me of when we played Pokemon Go, and you gave me so much advice xD. Seeing you being so passionate about it made me truly happy. The warmth of your welcome in South Mess, always ready with a smile and a seat, truly brightens my day. the trolls, laughters and discussions is something I will truly remember for long. Thank you for being the fantastic brother you are! - Harshit Gupta

Hello Tanay. I had a lot of interactions with Tanay in the online mode. He was such a big bond. His accent is on the next level (he is an American just miss) lmao. He is very good at speaking and its his power imo. I had great conversations with him and Radhe. I remember spending nights on his room studying data analytics and science. Thanks for your help brother. You have a huge energy and don't waste them on complaining xD. Best wishes for your life. - Karthik Prasanna N

Sharing memes during COVID times and complaining about online college with you was a vibe lol. Realising there existed someone else in the batch with as broken a sense of humour as mine was such a relief lol :) - Gogate Atharva Sunil tanay i miss the eblock days so much T_T. i wish you were more confident so more people would see how fucking cool you are. goated music taste and most stupid ass funny meme taste. best bunda also ;). i am very glad to have met you :)) truly one of the mfs of all time. best mfs of all time* - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

You will forever be known as STD. But really, it's been wonderful ful getting to know you over the years. You're always genuine, and the memories have been amazing, from ranting about OSN to pestering Likhit. Stay awesome man, wish you all the best! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Yes Tanay, I saved the best for the last. It's been such a pleasure knowing you these past 4 years. You are a gem of a person who makes everyone feel at ease while talking to them. Right from first year, anytime I talked to you, I felt like I was not alone and someone out there was also on the same path as me, and not everyone was this genius coder who had their entire life figured out. I will always remember the impromptu conversations we had in the corridor which then led to me coming to your room or vice versa and before either of us knew, an hour had passed. I will always curse the one guy who made sure I wasn't in your group because I am leaving college with a 7.9 cg but eh, your company while bitching about the course was worth it :) I always thought you had a very diverse set of talents which will take you to great heights and I can't wait to see what all you go on to achieve. All the best! - Anish Mathur

Man is peak CHD and can give you an existential crisis while talking about Reddit degeneracy. You were always there and felt like We've talked for a loonnngg time both online before the campus life and more detailed during college life and was always a source of motivation. Still can't forget the first incident where you presented balls of steel by replying to PJN and Jayanthi in an All Caps email saying that their project to cure cancer is bullshit 😁. - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

I've only recently had the pleasure of getting to know him, and regret that immensely. He's a open and caring person, with a mother-like personality(yes, I won't let you live it down). On the inside, he's a person who wants to explore and experience new things but his often too restrictive mindset prevents him. But I am glad he has identified that and is making changes to it, and aims to live a fulfilling life as should we all. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

sukhjinder.kumar@students.iiit.ac.in _sukhu_123 (mail: sukhjinderkumar007101@gmail.

First day on campus :
Came during the pandemic. Very excited, first time traveling on my own. Reached the campus and given a 5-day lockup in Bakul :). On the way to Bakul the campus seemed so big and lush. I remember jumping up and down the corridor. Played chess, and uno (!) with others (all got a lecture from Kishore)

Favourite campus memory :
There are many. Farewell (you can't forget that), similarly the orientation day (Golconda and Hussain Sagar trip), countless cricket and football matches, the day I got internship, festival celebrations (Holi, Diwali, new year, etc), going out with friends, world-cup and IPL in OBH corridor, many!

One thing you will miss the most :
Friends, Cricket and football. Can't live without friends and sports :)

Best thing you learned from here :
Hmm ... want a free life lesson. Be respectful. There are always people like you, you just have to put in effort and keep an open mind.

Favourite place in campus :
My room? M-69. Though there are many good candidates obh balcony (on the 2nd floor E-block to the right facing away from the hostel), football ground, library.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Too many to count!

Sukhi sir! One of the best football and cricket players I've seen on campus. It was a pleasure working with you on the SE project. All the best for your future!!! - Gaurav Singh

Sukhii!! I remember we first met back when I used to play football. I was so glad we got to spend more time in the final sem (better late than never!) I will cherish the time we spent together, be it scamming SE or watching sports. I hope we can keep in touch ! Love - Ani - Anirudh Govil

the one who started it all :'))). keep mathing keep being amazing brother. youre gonna do great things i just know it >:) - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

Great and cheerful guy Sukhii, apna main all rounder team ka...Ug3 ka final khel leta football chhod ke 10 min ka toh shayad injured na hota aur jeet jaate lmao, anyways we were the best team with lovely people. Football grp pe roz shaam ka fix "aajao sara" likhna...looking forward to play more with you in Hyderabad. All the best! - Ayan Agrawal

One of the people jo meko sabse pehle campus par mile the. I don't know but I have always been jealous of this guy. Iss bnde ka life ko leke acceptance, confidence and kisi bhi cheez ka stress nah lena. Itna chill koi kaise ho skta hai. And no one knows but mujhe sari scam krne ki tips yahi banda deta hai jab ki khud aaram se baith ke ye kaam krta hai. Pdhai se leke sports har cheez mei acha hai ye bnda. Parshva sath iska alag he pyar tha exams ke time mei. Or uska bndi ka rona, ke bhai mujhe to milni he nai hai. Overall, a very nice person and will love to meet him again some day. All the best buddy. Or Oracle ka referral chahiye mujhe jaise he join krega. - Priyansh Khunger Sukhjinder aka sukkhu baby, ohh man, this guy tortured me to write a testimonial for me :'), so here it is.. the most curious and opinionated guy in the group. From the moment we met, he has been a source of endless lame jokes. He is the person with whom I could have the most serious conversations as well as make "that's what she said" jokes. I am grateful for having such a unique, childish friend. If I would have to describe him in one sentence: SUKHJINDER DOESN'T NEED BITCHES! - Parshva Bhikhalal Bhadra online se different h real me . baaki overall nice person. stay in touch. - Motka Tirth Pravinbhai

Dear Sukhi bhai, You are the most passionate football player in campus (after me of course xD). Ur aajao saara summoning call was something I would look forward to every evening. We have come a long way making memories both on and off the football pitch. You prolly have one of the best learning curves in football among everyone (I'll still enjoy nutmegging you every time haha). I really admire how much you've improved in so less time. You are a wonderful friend as well. Won't be missing the football banter yet coz I'm looking forward to playing with you here in campus for another year (you better come). Thank you brother and best of luck with everything! - Ankithvarun J

"A very joyful person and always fun to play with. Takes the challenge head on and always helps on and off the field (in academics as well). A great athlete who could have been part of the college cricket team, but he chose football over cricket, which he is equally good at. Fortunate for the opponents who didn't face you. I'm very glad we are able to be good friends and spent great time together. - Romaharshan - Pusapati Romaharshan

I met Sukhjinder on Whatsapp during 1st year. We had a great time sharing assignments and discussing solutions. After coming to campus we met a lot of times and had many short and sweet conversations each time we pass by. You are a great friend bhai. Best wishes for your life. - Karthik Prasanna N

One of the nicest people I had the pleasure of knowing. A hardworking and dedicated person and a tank on the football field, colliding into you was deadly XD. It was always fun and refreshing talking to you, whenever we met outside of JC. Wish you a super successfull life ahead!! - Anirudh Kaushik

One of the few people whom I've only seen smiling. I remember all the times we ran into each other on the road between OBH and JC, and I'm so glad you always stopped to chat and accompany. Some of the most fun conversations in my college life, I had with you. Thanks for a great time Sukhi! I'm sorry too we didn't spend more time together, but i'm sure aage jaake we'll stay in touch :) - Abhinav S Menon

Brooo you are the MVP of our UG2K20 cricket team. Fiery pace bowler and a good aggressive batsman ! Love your dedication and passion for the sport. A very lovely person in general too <3 Lots of great memories with you bro! Let's keep in touch even after graduation !! - Praneet - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

Sukhi paaji, whata guy, when we first met i found you very approachable and friendly. Having played football with you, i can say : What a phenomenal football talent! to see you develop from a newbie to a pro through sheer practice and simply showing up everyday, i have come to respect your work ethic! You are a lone wolf who doesnt need to fit into the crowd, and are set with your own thing. You are truly a beast on and off the pitch. I wish you the best for your career ahead! - Khush Devendra Patel

A phenomenal friend and an amazing football player, hamesha kush rahta hai and he never fails to lift the spirits of those around him. Even though he missed the Goa trip, we've shared countless wonderful moments, from thrilling badminton matches to fun hangouts. These are just a few of the many great memories we've made together. - [Abhinav Anand] - Abhinav Anand

Brother, from our minor altercations over rooms to resolving our differences and having fun together, we have come a long way. Thank you for the wonderful memories of Felicity Futsal and football. I treasure them among my most cherished moments, and I am glad you are a part of them. I wish you all the best for your future success and hope you take good care of yourself. Your improvement and dedication to football inspire me and deepen my admiration and respect for you. - Harshit Gupta

The guy that plays almost all the sports while still maintaining a stellar academic record. It was a pleasure to play alongside you. A great player and an even better sledger for the opposition team. Guy is a menace to the ears for the opposition. Thoda lazy hai but chalta hai. You deserve great things in life brother. - Shubham Priyadarshan

"Sukhjinder is one of the most interesting personalities on campus. Initially, my interactions with him left me envious of his confidence and ease in navigating college life. I mistakenly perceived him as cocky and self-centered, but I am grateful to say that I couldn't have been more wrong. Sukhjinder is the only person I've encountered here who genuinely lives by the principle of doing what you love. He has shown me the true meaning of having fun during college and the importance of cultivating diverse interests and friendships. Although I only began interacting with him regularly in my fourth year of B.Tech, I deeply appreciate having had someone to talk to about a wide range of interests. He helped me relieve stress during one of the toughest years on campus. I will always cherish our random late-night chats, even as we struggle to wake up for classes. I am confident that Sukhjinder is destined for great things, my only advice to him would be to keep an open mind towards the various opportunities life. - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

i don't even know where to begin brother. salon ka saath hai apna, quite literally. at this point of time in my life, your presence now feels like a constant comfort. no matter how life has been going, you have always been there for me. by far the best-est roommate i (and anyone for that matter) could've asked for. sabse chill-est guy on campus, and it's not even close. a part of me wanted v v badly for us to have ended up at the same company (or at the very least, at the same place), so that we could've roomed up one more time. but ig that would've been delaying the inevitable. still, not to get too emo, but tum saath hote ho toh zindagi aasaan lagti hai :'). from assignments to projects to football to just living in general, i shall never forget your influence and importance in my life. you are one of the biggest reasons why i can say that my college life was absolutely amazing, and i shall forever be grateful to you for that. baaki tum jahan bhi jao, my number/door/heart is always open for you. ly brother. - Pranjal Thapliyal

Words that describe you are - Sabse bada (both literally and figuratively) chutiya Maths ki randi Always up for debate (and always up for losing it as well) Glory Hunter It was nice meeting you man. Its been nice knowing you for four years. Looking forward to the future time we are gonna spend together - Shreyansh Agarwal

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed doing SE project with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

When I saw your hefty name and heftier messages in the WhatsApp group (remember those covid days? :P), I expected someone huge and intimidating. Well, you turned out one of the two XD I remember someone asking me once ""Which one is Sukhjinder?"" and my impromptu reply was ""that cute bouncer"". I've always loved your humility and sweetness, and it's been great bonding over all sorts of things from punjabi food to Kohli's cover drives. Stay in touch, and stay the same cute bouncer :) - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Hamare grp ka powerhouse. Bande ki energy mai bhi match nhi kr paaya. Din bhar bhagta rehta tha tb bhi na tond km hui, but bnde ne finally gold medal, jeet hi liya. You are my first friend I made after coming to college, and that too over cricket(at which he totally sucked). . Brother I really admire how u defends ur views and ideals (bhale hi kitne bhi chutiyaap kyun na ho).Teri wajah se hi sports khelne me maza aata tha, chahe same team me ho ya opponent. The most disciplined guy in our group, Love you brother have a great life ahead. - Rishabh Srivastava

Great friend and Origins member. Known you since DSA project and we made many awesome memories thereafter, from doing project together, playing cricket together to going to zoo, palace, restaurants and many other outings together. Still have memory of when we visit to watch cricket in stadium without having tickets and asking ticket in black, xD. Guy who is always in his sports attire. Always scared to play color in holi and similar things. Sukhjinder also known as "Gorilla of Origins" xD. Those were awesome 4 years (2.5 to be more precise) where we had loads of fun and banter together and many more years in future. - Mayank Shukla

A wonderful friend. We've been close since the very beginning, partners in the DASS project (which was quite an adventure :)). Always ready for any fun excursion. We've explored so many places together like Nehru Zoo, Chowmala Palace, Punjabi Affair, Trampoline Park, etc. Shared countless memories in our hostel. Here's to the memories we've made and the many more to come. - Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar Aur Sher, kya haal chaal? Thoda shy hai yeh waala, par kaafi zindadil. Every sunday you could find this guy playing cricket in the morning field. Manga bhi padta hai (BHAI MERE). Mathematics mein inn sir ka passion aur ruchi dekhkar accha laga, a kind of passion that ignites passion in others. Keep that up brother. Dil kaa nek aadmi hein. Daps theek thaak hi hote hain tho. I hope you only take the fun parts of college life with you, because in hindsight, sirf acche pal hi toh the :) Wishing you the best, my dude :insert_its_wednesday_my_dude_emoji: I'm not very good at this yearbook thingy, you have my number, jab man kare, call karlena :D Stay in touch! Take care. Maa baapu ka naam roshan karte rho. - Manav Chaudhary

"It has been a great and memorable journey together. I have always cherished playing with you (including those cringe moments !!), your motivation for the game has always been nostalgic. From those small talks , late night games till farewell and beyond we have had great bonding. One thing worth mentioning is your like for anime/manga, which managed to keep you awake in those early morning classes ;) I wish you to continue to excel in whatever endeavours you choose. Best of luck and many best wishes from my side. - Adit - Aditya Kumar

"Hello ji, you were one of my earliest friends. I met you during a random evening when seniors were playing cricket, and ever since you have always been a good friend to me! I am so proud to come up with your title - Sexjinder - after your allrounder performance came up clutch in our League matches (Jetha Ke Jabaaz) ke waqt. Overall, bada chill banda hai tu, it's always nice to see you in OBH 😂. Sadly, we didn't win much for Agni (kya lallu teams thi humari), tu humesha mera cricket partner raha hai 💛🤔 My last memories of you have been the UCL nights, when you used to scream (mera room pranjal ke kareeb hai). It used to wake me up, and I used to check the score to see kisne goal maara 😂 you were a notification to me 😂😂😂 - Freyam Mehta

Sukhu bhaiiii!! Imo u are one of the sweetest fellows on campus. Could've been one of the best defenders in our college if you didnt waste so much time missing shots as a striker. I have to appreciate the unparalleled dedication you have for football since you're always the first guy to come to the field and call everyone else. The absence of your aajao sara will leave a massive hole in the iiit football group. Next time we meet we have to play football again to prove who's the king of the beasts XD. Best wishes for ur future and ik you'll do well wherever you go. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

The kassi gorilla of FRIENDS Origins always up for going outside. We had fun doing the DASS assignments together in E4, and taking walk after every meal in 2nd year. Will always miss those peaceful and fun days when it was just the 3 of us. - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

I remember when you started playing football for the first time and I am amazed to see the amount you have improved! I really like your mentality and your determination to keep improving, coming early to the training and practicing on your own. What I don't like is when you don't pass me the ball and keep hogging it lol. Joking aside, we have had some good memories in cricket and football and more because we were in Agni. All the best for your future and I hope we can play football sometime. - Shubh Agarwal

Sukhiii bhaiiiii !!! One of the liveliest and most chill person on campus. Always a pleasure talking and hanging out with you <3. The most dedicated football player xD, always on time on the ground and not a day goes by without your "Ajao sara" in the football group. Love the fact the both of us work for the same company, hopefully we get to work with each other there as well. Good luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Always a comforting person to have around, Sukhi's insanely smart, and it was amazing to see and be part of his football journey. I'm grateful to have had so many fun matches with him, and for the fun times off the field as well. Cheers to managing more meetups in the future! - Pratyaksh Gautam

GOATjinder. I had known you for quite a while but only properly became good friends on the football ground. How you play everyday and still are so bad i will never understand. Just kidding lol. This dude's passion for football is unlike anyone else on campus and everyone waits for his message in the grp before going to the ground. One of the nicest guys I met on campus and always a pleasure to hang out with you. Best memory was winning interbatch football together and watching all those games in the room. I will see you soon brother. Take care and all the best!!! - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Sukhjinder Sirrr. You are someone I'll fondly remember even 10 years down the line. You have a very warm personality and I've never seen you being unhappy or crying about anything. This positivity of yours radiates to others whenever you meet anyone. Cheers to all the football memories we made, all the "Aajao Saara" and watching football matches together. It's been great having you as my defence partner multiple times and your passion for football is something that is genuinely amazing. Good luck with your future big man. I wish you all the best. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

The large lassi and kassi of our group. This guy can curl 20 kgs dumbells. Always eats in mess and never orders except when its someone's birthday. Had loads of fun together Felicity, trampoline park and what not. You missed Goa trip bhai!! The E4 room was the hangout spot. I still remember the DASS first assignment together all the 7 8 of us and you carrying all of us. Have a great career man!! -Yug - Yug Dedhia

First day on campus :
Coming out of quarantine, the black fat guy Tharun went away from me, thinking that I'm not sumanth because I am short. Urge to see badminton court. No homesickness at all may be because all the people I know from online are wayy good. All of us are just introducing our online faces was thrilling.

Favourite campus memory :
That night ride, the most adventurous ride till date. Searching for food on streets at 2am. Bike issue and Tharun's intellectual move to check petrol, Swaroop's driving, Nitin's photography, Sreeharsha's navigation, Rohan and Rohit's fun, Prudhvi's company. Seshu's hadavidi, deepak's last min entry.

One thing you will miss the most :
Late night walks and talks and also the dances we do for random songs.

Best thing you learned from here :
Enjoy all the days before the assignment dealdine also complete that just before the dealdine. Putting larger efforts in lesser time with perfection.

Favourite place in campus :
My room obviously lol

We first met in 3-1 when we both were DnA TAs (i think u were the first girl i talked to properly in college lol), very sweet and helpful girl, I will definitely remember all the women jokes that I used to make on you, the snake jokes(idk why did I get all the snake abuse), the cooking jokes (though you are an amazing chef), the driving jokes (how tf do you have a driving licence). Also, I will never forget the FIFA match that we played on PS4 and that you won in penalties which is basically luck. You are an amazing badminton player, a big kassi(and snake too), you also cared about your fitness (emphasis on past tense as you stopped coming to gym long back), an amazing person to hang out with. You are really hardworking and a prime example of a strong, independent woman. I wish you continue to excel in all spheres of your life. - Ayush Agrawal

Big Sister that I never knew I needed. I can't express how I feel around you in words, but I can say that you are one of the comfort bubbles I have got. I love gossiping with you endlessly; I'll miss that a lot. But nah, no college farewell can stop me from coming to you with drama and gossip xD. I will stay in touch endlessly with you. Made a lot of memories with you, especially the beautiful Goa trip, and would not miss a chance to make more. You are one of the kindest and warmest souls I have got in my life. I had my rough patches, and I did mess up a little bit and disappeared for some instances, and you still stuck around and helped me deal with it. Know that I always loved you and will always do. I am so grateful to have you in my life; thanks for looking out for me and sticking around my entire college life <3. Very true friend. Please stop sleeping too much though, get out of the room more smh. This woman will be going places in life; gotta learn a lot from this lady, I swear. - Gokul Praneetha

I remember how well we hit it off during the first semester itself and how easy it was to have conversations and joke about you lol. We soon became fast friends and it was really nice how the conversion to the offline college didn't hamper that at all. You have been a constant support throughout my college and it is really amazing how the time has flown by. I can't honestly imagine what college life would have been without constantly roasting you. Your guidance, advice, and support which you keep giving have been really helpful in how I have shaped my life. I have made a life-long friend in you and I hope that even though we will be separated by distance, we never lose touch. All the best for your future endeavors and hopefully we will be able to catch up frequently. - Shubh Agarwal

We first got to know each other and started talking in the online sem. Although we weren't very close back then, we became really good friends after we came to campus. The first time I met you in person, I was surprised at how short you were. Like I wrote on the back of your t-shirt, you're short even for a midget xD. Jokes aside, I am glad to have met you. I'm grateful to have a friend like you. You're extremely kind and patient, to a point where I feel bad about making fun of you so much. Not once have you done anything to genuinely annoy me or make me feel bad. You've always been very considerate about my thoughts, feelings and opinions. Might not look like a lot, but it does mean a lot to me. Really wish you could join us for all the trips that we went to, I would have loved to have someone to make fun of all the time. Anyways, Thanks for always being there for me and being such an amazing friend. Best of luck with everything! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Sweetest and cutest! Had lots of fun shopping at Numaish, getting ready for farewell together, and of course, how can I forget getting our blouses stitched together XD. All the best for whatever comes next! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Swetha ma'am... I didn't really know you before coming to campus (except for the one project that we had done during the online sems) but am glad to have met you and have been part of the same group after coming to college. You have many qualities that you should be super proud of. You are one of the most driven people I have ever met and you often remind me of my sister in terms of how academically brilliant and hard-working you are. The fact that you weren't completely satisfied with Atlassian and not only tried, but also bagged the Google offer off campus speaks volumes about your attitude of always trying your best to achieve the best possible things in life. We made some amazing memories as a group in the past 2-2.5 years and for that I'll forever be grateful to you and the others. I wish you all the best with your future endeavors and I hope to keep in touch with you for many years to come. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Swetha maam the definition of OG. Top20 Best friend for 22 years now and running. You were the 2nd homie I made after shubh (and thats cheating cuz ik him from school) and we still chillin 4 years later. Only person who says a grand total of 3 words every conversation and still manages to vibe w everyone. You're one of my greatest targets for unwarranted abuse and yet you always take it like a champ. I think you missed your true calling as an assassin, because ur so silent that you can go undetected anywhere. Very wholesome individual who always get offended on other people's behalf which shows that you're a very empathetic person. You may seem very scary and standoffish from the outside but anyone who knows you, knows that ur the sweetest person ever. First thing I'll do if I return to hyd will be to go straight to your house, so pls keep chocolates and desserts ready for my arrival. Get ultra rich by the time we meet next so you can make me CTO of your company. Stay safe and happy. Our soul bond'll live on! - Joel Thyparampil Alex

You stupid dumb little midget. Fellow JAM buddy. I dont exactly remember how we met or became such close friends but am very glad we did. No chance I wouldve survived precog and all those morning badminton sessions without you. Even last summer, if you weren't on campus idk what i would do. One of the nicest and most caring people I met but also one of the biggest kassis and snakes lol. Will never understand your random meal distribution and how u keep having those stupid headaches. I can never thank you enough for carrying me to the tennis gold xD. You are truly someone who I can turn to whenever I need anything and am genuinely grateful to you for helping me become a better person. Would have liked it if you spoke a little bit more lol. Will always cherish the crazy times we spent together and hopefully many more to come. Lets go to KFC again soon and make some nice desserts whenever I come. Good luck for everything!! PS: Not at all sorry for jinxing your 10sg :) - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Swetha, getting to know you and spending time with you in college has been very memorable, and I hold those moments dear to my heart. I generally take my time building true friendships, and I consider you one of my true friends. You are the epitome of ""silent but deadly."" I still have the trauma caused by how much you prank me ://..... I still don't know where you source from in the world. Is it Uganda? Kerala? Germany? It has been a pleasure discussing a wide range of topics with you. I feel extremely comfortable being open with you, as you are rational and understand the gravity of situations very well. We will definitely stay in touch and keep meeting whenever we are in the same area. - Harshit Gupta

A very sweet and patient person. Had a lot of fun in Goa. I'll always remember the evening we went to Anjuna - the lunch with the beautiful view and the amazing sunset! All the best for everything, and hope we get to meet again! - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Dear fellow midget, We first met in Kadamb for lunch through the lads and for the next 2 months you said a max of 5 words to me (can't blame you I'm an introvert too xD) but I'm glad we met making memories along the way. From being my wingwoman to DFS teammates (we gotta burn down Venu's office), you've always helped me which I'm really grateful for(apart from the fact that I couldn't hear you half the time :)). My favorite memory of you is playing beach football with us in Goa(you were easily better than Bihar) and discovering that absolute gold mine of a github repo with ur stuff(honorable mention:go karting). I still haven't seen you run till date(wanna see if I can beat you walking backwards) or even come close to how much I eat for any meal xD. You're a very responsible and caring person, I admire how motivated and meticulous you're in general. Thank you for looking out for us and being that motherly figure, tolerating our antics, cheering for us and above all being the chief planner for all our outings. - Ankithvarun J

The one and only Lil Sweater! You have been an amazing friend to me. Basically a homie. I don't think other mortal humans have the rizz required to fathom pickup lines that you do; I mean "are you swag?" is a hit :P. Thanks for listening to all my rants and believing in me even when I was at my lowest. You've had more confidence in me than myself lol. You're an incredible person and I really admire your take on life in general. Thanks for listening to all the unprepared song covers that I sent. Also congrats again for Google! Hope to see you soon again! - Gaurav Singh

Swetha madam, You speak very less, but when you do, your words carry weight. Your quiet demeanor masks a mind that is sharp, and incredibly witty. I have always seen you work quietly but with passion for your goals, and that is inspiring to all of us. You form the critical link between parijaat tea and the bois, and we are deeply grateful for that! Please continue sharing any tea in the future as well :pray: - Khush Devendra Patel

I always longed for a female bestie and I found you. You and me are quite different but we managed to get along. We definitely had ups and downs in our bond but this bond is something which I wouldn't want to lose. You are very caring and matured. I really hope that you come out and enjoy more, explore new stuff and be happy. I wish you conquer heights in your career and life which I know you will, and hopefully settle in Europe too so that I can come and stay at your place xD. Please visit every counrty in Europe. And never forget that you are a piglet :) - Annam Venika Sruthi Heyy, had a lot of fun playing badminton with you! All the best, I'll see you around :)) - Ananya Sane Family <3, Sweet, caring, mature, fun and kind :)) those 4 words you say in each conversation have the most impact. Proper elder sister :)) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Hie Swetha! Thank you for being an amazing person and role model. Our discord server hangouts doing the most random things, study session, watching movies and shows on zoom, all the help and advices, our random room hangouts are cherished memories. Keep

*smiling ❤️ - Anusha Nath Roy

*Hullooo I was scared of you in the beginning. I got to know you, realised you were amazing and like multi talented and smart, and now I'm even more scared of you 👍 Don't change lmao, I'm sure you'll scare the bejesus out of a lot more people from now - Srijan Chakraborty

*Came to know you through the 'HOLY' groups, we made online. Always a kassi, one of the sweetest person I came across on campus. We'll be in Hyderabad it seems, milte rhenge ... Google treat due - Karmanjyot Singh

*I remember the first time we met too and yeah I indeed thought it was creepy of you, but it's part of the lore. Last year, I thought and told other people too ig, that we were the weakest link in the friend group lmaoo, but honestly I think that changed and am so glad it did. I am indeed surprised that we got talking, but am glad that I can say that okay she was just not part of my friend group but also my friend. I kept my end of the promise too and saw you play badminton. But better than everything, the icing on the cake was I SAW YOU DAAANNNCCCCE!! I will never forget the happiness I saw from you dancing, it was a completely different you. If I can just say this one thing, try seeing life as not something to be tackled and progressed from one stage to other, but rather have fun enjoying it too. I know I take the fun part to one extreme, but I hope some of it rubbed on you too lol. Wish you all the best and all the happiness you can deserve. Sometimes breaking rules is where half the fun lies xD. - Janardan S

Stonis (the only buffed guy in international cricket ..) of our batch team, and amongst the leading run-scorers of the IIITH-IPL (and all the other too!) tournament. One of the best hitters (man just hits sixes) on the campus. True Bahubali, haven't seen a day when he doesn't go to the gym. It was great fun hanging out with you and the others. Made so many wonderful memories. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Never thought itna hass sakti hu me until I met you. Ist year me kyu nhi mila tu. Literally mera male version hai (okay you are definitely smarter and me zada good looking hu, kam rotdu bhi). The highlight of my college experience was finding a best friend like you. I still remember you disturbing my sleep, just so you get some good company outreach ke time. Will miss all those times jb maarta tha 'us moment' bolne pe. I cannot think of a moment when you weren't there for me when I needed you. You made me stronger. Thank you for always being there. Kitna kuch sath me manage krta hai. I was really amazed uss time pe jb midsem and paper deadline sath me the, and you managed to do both the things with perfection. Will miss tujhe gaali dena. Will miss laughing at the lamest things possible. Creepy selfies lena band kr yr. And get over illad girls smh. Rapchik me cheeze to khatm hi nhi kiya hmne.Kunwarein me songs add krna hai aur. Remember the (s)std pact. Will miss you the most! #crybaby - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

Aur bhai Tany! You always had the best candies with you, but for some strange reason I never seem to remember what happened after eating them🤔. But anyways loved having you one room away on the 2nd floor. Bhai ek baar kitna hase the apan jab tu bola "tu 123 me sora tha" mai bola "ha" and you know the rest😂🍆.

Nimmi ka choda bhenchod, khud toh paper chaap diya ab 5th year me pls obh rahe lena thode time😭. Will miss apna faltu baaton pe hasna so much. Aur bag de diya hai maine terko ek gift toh baaki life sorted hai teri, no lafde😂. Also I really admire your hardwork and work ethic in academics, kaafi underrated smart aadmi hai tu apne group pe coz dimaag toh khoob hai terme(chahe voh 18 ke upar ki counting na kr paye xD) I still remember tu mere breakup pe merse jyada dukhi tha😂😭❤️. Sorry for spending lesser time with you last semester, will set those priorities straight now💪 - Siddharth Jain

Afroz Khab. The one who introduced me to college xD. Tujhe toh adoloscence dekh liya thorughout. Kuch zyada hi cheeze saath me karliye hehe. Either tu bahut smart hai ya bahut jugaadu hai, cannot decide which. Itne course bhi nahi kare jitne tere crushes badle ho. Will miss your crying/ranting ass very much 🚶. Thanks for being there always and calling me 5 times when my phone is on silent. Ab tereko kon batayega tu acha dikh raha hai ya nahi. :) #UdayPark - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Bhai tanmay, tu mughe sabse fair banda lagta hai bhai. Gaand toh fat ti hai bhai tughse kabhi kabhi, daat deta hai bhai kabhi bhi. Yaad hai ek din CSS Project ke liye bulaya tha tune aur mai baahar chala gaya tha, meri gaand fat gyi ki aaj toh pel dega yeh, but itne acche se baat karta tha bhai tu mughse toh. Bohot maza aaya tere saath woh project karke sachme, firse karenge apan kabhi kuch. Bhai dono goa trips pe jitne maze kiye hai tere saath, and tughe BT dene me jitna maza aata tha bohot miss karunga bhai bina filter ke kitni advice deta hai bhai mughe toh tu, hamesha sunta hu mai acche se aur try bhi karta hoon kyuki you are a person I look up to and respect a lot. Bohot accha lagta hai jab bhi tu mere room aa jaata hai, and randomly kuch order karke show dekhte hai apan. Love u brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Mr. Afroz Khab you are a great person hands down. College aaya tha ekdum uncle bankar par kitna change ho gaya in 3 saalon mein. Very outgoing person aur ladkiyon pe crush to yun aa jata hai tujhe par alag hi requirements rehte hai tere fir unse. Kitni saari chizein ki hai saath mein, itni trips, itne events, itni parties. Bohot care karte hai apne doston ki aur dusron ki bohot bitching. Uber nahi mili to kya hua jab bhi cab chahiye h to call kar dena, mein book karwa dunga. Aur south mess wahi par hai, dhang se UGEE clear kiya tha meine. - Shreyas Revankar

Bhai tujhe dekhe jo dil khush hota hai saala, kisi ko dekhke nahi hota. Saala mood bhi kharab hoga, toh maaza atta hai terse baat karke. Bohot sahi aadmi hai tu, crushing machine. Saathme bohot mazze kiye hai, aise hi rehna. All hearts!! Fifa khelega? - Saurav Chhatani

A Brother of mine, I admire you for your discipline, self-control and motivated nature towards things that matter. He shows and doesn't tell. If Let Your Work Speak was a person, it would be Tanmay Goyal. Also, thanks for being the sober driver at all the parties. you are the best at taking jokes at yourself, never get offended, sorted rehna koi tujhse seekhe. chee chee itni serious cheeze is so not me , but tannie goyal is one of the most interesting characters, the smartest person to be around with and obviously my dear dear friend - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

"tanmay sir (randi rone ka brand ambassador) ek baat toh mai tere baare me bahut jaldi samjh gaya tha ki exam time pe tere aas paas nhi jana chahiye, irritated asf reheta hai or itna tension mat liya kar bhai cheezon ka. sabse zayada deeply mai tujhe hi jana hu, e block 2nd floor ki itni saari memories, room pe pade pade gossip karna, matches dekhna, sath me lunch jana, choti moti fights (obv sab teri galati), hci me mera chudwana (but A grade toh mere vajah se hi mila) itna quality time spend kiya hai humne chahe vo hyd me ho calls pe ho uncles pe bbc pe obh me ya mumbai me (thanks for ur wonderful hospitality or jaipur aa jaldi or mujhe bhi mauka de) in sab ke alawa bhi goa me villa party me, jitni bhi meri college memories hai un sab me tu toh pakka hi hai or haan mai toh bhul hi gaya ki mera college ka personal sabse bada achievement i.e. sports council me bhi tu sath tha. bahut kuch bolna hai tere baare me but characters kam hai. abhi ke liye itna hi ki u will always be my dearest friend love u brdr #rk - Prasoon Garg

Kya badiya roomie hai tu, jab dekho padhai karta tha aur jaldi sojata tha. Itna hard working insaan, always on top of things. Kitna responsible bhi hai tu, agar outing ke wakt tabiyat kharaab thi toh akele waapis chale bhi jaata hai without giving anyone bt. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Man you were one of the few people I interacted with in the online mode and it has been truly great all these years. I still remember everyone coming to my room and asking for advice late night on how to make a girlfriend and it was so amazing.Ofc E-Cell got us to closer but I wish I could have gotten more opportunities to interact with you. Let's stay in touch man and all the best for the future. - Akshit Gureja

Chad jaata hai pair pe hamesha ye banda smh. Somewhere between crying to each other about everything and laughing at everything, our friendship happened :D - Srujana Vanka Incredibly fun and sensible person to hang around! I still remember how we handled and got by the ISB Internship together. Being in APEX and handling issues was much easier thanks to your presence and sensible reasoning. Just saying that, we did APEX, ISB Intern and even MSFT Intern together .... probably is an indication about something ;) - Harshit Gupta

Pehle wholesome waala testimonial galati se Tanmay Bhatt ko chala gaya, but then he does deserve it more. Tu toh bas 4 saal gaali khaane waale kaam kiya hai bc, but then those things made up half the college life <3. Can never get enough of the stupid jokes and witty bitching sessions about literally anyone, and everyone. Dunno how you would be as a teammate for some reason, but like you were atleat a 5.5/10 of a fren who tries to improve sometimes. P.s. RR karna kam karde thoda pls. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Hii wonderful human, It was great meeting you. DASS course has bought us close, it was fun hanging out with you. sharing all the stuff happening in life and making memories with you was great, looking out for each other and just randomly ranting of us was really helpful...hehe.. looking forward to more memories and happiness ahead in our 5th year. <3 - Syed Imami

You know whom to contact, if you get banned again. Such a cutie person, one of the first friends, temporary roomie. Throught college ye hmesha rota rhta, aur rants sunata rhta tha. Will miss you crying, we'll be in hyd it seems, chlte bahar sometime. Stay in touch, just a call away. - Karmanjyot Singh

no kidding when i say achha aadmi fr🧐🧐 tujhe bt dene ka maza hi kuch aur hai 😈😈 - Agrim Rawat

Drama Queen kahiki..... kya maze kiye hai bhai yaar.. From organizing events to bitching yaar, ye sab chize yaad aaengi bahut sahime...Fellow FOMO partner...Shaanti se flat aajaya karna tereko colab ke liye accounts me dedunga😂 - Ishanya Sethi

Tanmay, online sem me mera random DSA teammate, bohot fun tha tere saath vayu skit manage krna, usi time acche se mulakaat hui thi terese, vayu ki bakchodiyo me toh bohot maza aata tha, itni saari gossip bc script likhte time. Fir toh aage bohot mauke mile jab saath coordinate krke chizein manage kri...loved all this. - Laksh Balani

Bhale hi tu randi rona karle, but literally the easiest person to get comfortable and vibe with. So glad you are dual degree XD. Jinda hu till you give me permission lol. Don't do exercise and die pls. PS: All you eat is Paneer Dosa at VC. THAT IS ALL YOU EAT. - Smruti Biswal

Biggest Change since your first year :
Extrovertedness is overrated and not really worth it... You really need to take your time knowing people because they can surprise you.

Get me tix when you become a successful DJ, liked making beats with you - Amey Kunte

One of the best friends I've made in campus, albeit a little late. Tere saath miles morales khelna aur terko sikhaana dono mei bahut maza aaya(#getgood). Milte rhenge har weekend bakchodi ke liye indefinitely. - Aryan Singhal

OG roomie. Someone who has always been a helping hand and made me see how cathartic it is to scream profanities at 14 year olds at 3 in the middle of night. - Rajarshi Ray My captain :salute:, was crazy fun organizing events with you. Winning cult night was the best way to sign off. Thanks for the crazy times. - Knv Karthikeya

Hey brother! Thank you for being an amazing, supportive and rational CLD batchmate and friend. It has been a pleasure talking to you and catching up with you randomly. I remember how in CLD we used to do presentations and such during the online semester and have a great time at it. Take good care of yourself! :) - Harshit Gupta Hey fellow Agni captain, thanks for being a partner in the craziness that is house competitions :) - Ameya Sharma

I won't forget to knock for room number 40 whenever there's an issue... I know you will go on to do fantastic things in the future. Thanks for being such an awesome friend. - Guneesh Vats

I still remember the rap song you produced in the college induction and the words you used. Made so many memories throughout 4 years with you, music, mafia and mutual hate for many. Jokes aside, you were always a great friend to me and were there whenever one needed you. I would've said stay the same, but you need some inches of height. - Aaryan Sharma

First day on campus :
Most embarassing day(s), I was the only guy who stayed 1 day extra in quarantine because I didn€™t hear the knock for vaccine drive as I was in washroom -_-. One of my friend in 3rd year starting with €ek banda toh itna chua tha€ and told me my story .

Favourite campus memory :
All the all nighters, be it literature, poker night, fifa night, or heavy crazy nights. All the trips in my last semester will always be in my heart. That one zoo trip, coming out of comfort zone for the first time for making new friends was life changing for me. So many memories, so little space.

One thing you will miss the most :
The guys, the JF, the gym, the Sem 4-2 and 4-20

Best thing you learned from here :
Life's big secret? It's all about the friend game.

hi vaibhav, it was great to know you, mere rants without judgement sunne ke liye dhayawad! Yuktahar dinner convos and after walks were fun! stay in touch! All the best for your future! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Aur bhai vaibhav, OBH feels very lonely without you around. Ab mai niche utarte time second floor pe bhi nahi rukta pehle toh randomly bhatakta hua utar jaata fir ek do ghante bakchodi karte the. Tere se FIFA me haarna was better than Chatni se jeetna, bohot passion se khelta hai bhai tu. Kabhi bhi kisi plan me BT nahi deta, kabhi score se out nahi hota, har dinner ko shaandaar bol deta, itna accha bhi koi hota hai kya. Will always remember woh kasol ke trek me sabse piche chalna, and mumbai me bathroom wale session. Saala daily uthke bolega ""aaj heavy karte hai"", but firbhi sab kaam karleta hai, will always be an inspiration. Love you brother, Prayush Rathore - Prayush Rathore

Vaibhav, tu one of the strongest banda hai, kitne bhi downfalls jhelkr bounce back kr jayega, with even more power. Puri college life mai dekha hu tjhe iss chiz ke liye effort daalte hue. Thank you so much mjhe woh mahaul dene ke liye, bohot jyada khush tha mai jabse tere saath pure time laga rehta tha, intern ho ya placements, oncampus offcampus sab, jitni energy uss mahaul ne mjhe di hai, bohot accha aur confident feel hota hai. Iske alawa apan aur bhi jitni panchayat krte the bohot saari yaadein judi hai usme. Take care brother, jab jaha possible ho paaya milne aaunga hamesha...mast beer piyenge bc - Laksh Balani

Uss last raat ke baad sahi mei zyada bacha toh nhi kehne ko😂. Bc har cheez toh tujhe hi batayi hai pichle inn saalon mei. Woh aadmi jo foonkta bhi nahi tha but fir bhi main isko itni baar uncle's trip pr le kr gya hoon, and baad mei toh fir....My absolute best friend in campus and someone who's always called me out on my shit and tried to help me be better. Aur haan jldi se jldi Jaipur mei mil kr daaru peete bc. - Aryan Singhal

Bhai iss aadmi jitna phodne ke baad unfortunate cheezen hote hue nhi dekha maine, but remember brotherr ye isliye hai kyuki you always deserve the best of the best bhai, "bhai Pandey form bhar de company ka aur crush krte hai", itna easily koi bhi imp cheez/advice poore flow ke saath koi nhi smjhata tha, always knew can count on you kisi bhi cheez ke liye aankh band krke bhai, saale terko to Gurgaon mein crazy crazy trips kraunga for sure bas ek baar network faila lene de bc 😂, random swiggy one order krne ke liye ghnto tk phone rkh leta tha tera kbhi kuch nhi bolta tha, aur vo quarantine ki bakchodiyan, 4th year sessions, football dekhna, aur mere coding round mein tera zyada alert hona will never

"Meri sabse paheli memory wo hamari TA wali chat fir uske baad bhaijaan naam re-name pr block 😂or fir tera kaam ke lie mera zabardasti unblock kra na, fir uske baad 328 mai poker se le kr , gurad ko distract krna , coller ko adjust kr kr ke laga na fir 301 mai mera or Pallav ka fookna chup kr tere mna kre hone pr or fir na dikkat hone pr pallav or mera visibility km krna room ki , mishra or baki sb logon ko tackle krna. Or haan wo intern period bhi khaas kr or wo mere chutiyapo pr galia na beech interview mai sb yaad rahena and thanks for that. Fir single room mai shift or hone 💨 active hone ke baad ka time toh sach mai dundula yaad hai, uth te hih I sentense S mai. Mai krte hain bs ka safar sach mai sb dundla hoh gaya I will mis wo him teen ka idhar udhar bhaan-ga fookne ke lie or door knocks or cooler sahi krna or idhar udhar ki panchiyati krna. Hamari wo reckless gym outings or sare cafe cover krna, will miss each of them. Iss sb mai meri bhi college life sum up hoh gai, Cheers🍻🍻🍻sammi - Samarth Pandey

The kindest, sweetest and the most cheerful person in this universe. I don't know kitne logon ke saath I will be able to keep in touch with, but I know you will 1000% be one of them. You are the one person who has always been there for me. Whenever I wasn't fine, you were worse. Whenever I was happy, you were happier. I will probably never be able to reciprocate the efforts you have put. We have spent hours and hours together and not even once have I got bored of you. Tera grammar correct karna, nakhre karna, saath mein gaana, chiddana, chutiya harkatein karna...sab yaad aayega. Time has just flown away...can't belive I year se zyada hogaya. It just feels like yesterday jab tu felicity ke liye kaam maangti thi. All these memories but none as cute as you :) Bas ab uddna mat tu. Itna innocent bhagwaan kisiko na banaye. Har cheez mein achhayi dikh jaati hai isse. Hampi jayenge kabhi toh pakka and car hi rent karenge. Also, we are in the same league 😡. Anddd tu zyada red flag hai mere comparison mein 😤. - Tanmay Goyal

Divvssss...what should I write abt you and what nottt...I will miss you soo muchhh...my next door neighbor cum bestie felt more like a roomie cum sis..vo friendship hi kya jisme lesbian hone ka tag na mile ryt, so congratulationsss we made ittt <3...I will miss seeing your cute baby face daily and listening to your rants and watching you with admiration, shock and jealousy while you sang all the bollywood songs with correct lyrics.. likee whattt (u know I could never)..I will miss your 'beedi ja lai le' and 'chaiya chaiya' dance moves so very muchh...I could never understand how could someone maintain so many friendships so effortlessly making every person around them feel special and valued, thankyouu for never being judgemental and hme aur hmare mood swings jhelne ke liye, for being there for me at the good and most importantly the bad times..and telugu words sikhna, yes I remember ikada, ekada, ukada hass mt hme pta hai its 'akada' or is it? :p treasure hai yrr tu and hm bhot lucky to have found you. - Khushi Agarwal

Oi cutie, Jitna bhi likhu is very less to express what you mean to me in my life, i have not always been the expressive one, but you hold a place in my heart and life that cannot be re occupied no matter how far you are, from my highs and lows, sorrows and pain, happiness and BT you have been a constant support who i could rely on even if everyone else was against me. I still remember every small details about us, the day you got your internship, how your PPO result came, amazing everything was. Agar tum mujhe Paris mein nahin milti, Amsterdam mein milti, wahan bhi nhi to Hyderabad me milti, IIITH bhi nhi to Dilsukhnagar me to milti hi. Duniya ke kissi bhi gali, kuche, gaon, ucchake se tumhein mein dhund nikalta kyunki tum meri kismat me ho. I am very grateful for every moment that i spent with you, every letter you wrote for me, every walk i had with you. Really glad to have spent this time with you. Thank you for being there and making my college life special. - Nikhil Agrawal

Aur bhai bidi jaliye le jigar se piya. You are the life of every party. Teri energy and vibe are unmatched, tere pass hamesha aisa interesting, quirky ice breakers hote hai, har mood ke hisab se perfect playlist hai, you basically lighten up every room you enter. I have so much to learn from you, especially, tera resilience and adaptability. You don't let your problems or minor or major inconveniences take over you. Tu kitni strong hai yaar andar se aur bahar se bhi, tujhe dhoop mai chlne se bt nhi hai, tu apne doston ke saath spend karne ke liye aur trip ka har moment enjoy karne ke liye raaton ko jaag skti hai. Thodi hot-headed but I can relate, you speak your mind and you are truthful to yourself and your friends. I absolutely adore your social energy and how you try your best to be there for everyone all the time. Love you brother. Stay the way you are and milte rahenge, ladies nights are no fun without you knowing and teaching us all the hook steps. <3 - Harshita Gupta

I still remember the first time we met on an online meet of ""IIIT Frndz"" group. You were so quiet, just observing everyone with such a serious expression and I thought ""kitni serious ladki hai yeh"", but boy was I wrong! Fast forward 2 years, and you became of the few closest friends, I had in college. I loved randomly coming to your room to rant about everything, or enjoy the tasty home made food you got for us every time you went home, or borrow your clothes because I used to get too bored wearing mine. Your are the jaan of our ladies night and I know I'll miss you a little extra whenever I hear ""Chaiyya Chaiyya"" or ""Beedi Jalaile."" Gonna miss our flirting and ek doosre pe line maarna and the similar taste we got in so many things ;-). Cutie, I love your kind and caring nature, and upfront nature in telling me whenever I pissed you off (really made our friendship so strong) and your cute smile that can melt away anyone's worries. Really gonna miss you so so much!! Bangalore aate rehna pls pls. - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Well, god made you a bit less on the brain side, but balanced it with equally with a big heart, and caring nature <3. At first she may not seem nice xD, but once you get to know her, she really is gem of a person, one of those people you would want by your side. I really admire how much you care for the people around you and the safe space you provide. If you're around her, you could expect to experience a spectrum of emotions from full-on-dramebaazi (tolerating her, is indeed a big challenge, kaafi bt deti hai), your local DJ (sings really well, perfect for house parties) to deep conversations (your personal therapist), there was never a dull moment with you around, one of the best things that happened to me. PS: agar beetroot juice peene se log gore hote, toh abhi tk sb gore hojate, kuch better try kr. Would miss, those daily convos, ghr ka khana, and esp vo chocolates. Nevertheless you'll always be my fav illad. We'll be in Hyderabad it seems (if you don't end up in Noida), milte rheng, stay in touch. - Karmanjyot Singh

"Never have I met a sweeter person in life, glad I got to know you even if it were towards the end of college. I reaaallyy didn't know someone could be liked by sooo many people across regional and cultural diversities before I bumped into this lady fr. Will always remember the amazing conversations we've had while walking around the campus or resting on a random bench. (And ofc the og road trip would've been sooo incomplete without you). Have seen you grow and come a looong way since the start of college, all the best out there! P.S. Aurat kaafi haddh thak perfect hai, bas chashme ka choice thoda L hai :p - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Hello Shirisha, I have known you since the 10th class but don't know why I never felt like talking with you initially. It was unintentional, but though you were my IC teammate, all I ever did was assign work to you and the discussion never crossed that boundary. It was not until AIC when because of Deeksha I got closer to you. Even then I did not know you much. It was last summer in Swiss I feel when I was able to talk to you properly. Thanks a lot for listening to me and trying to change my perspective on whatever I perceive things as. For the first time, I was able to see how it feels to be when seen from the other side. I can say you and another friend of mine from Madras played an important role in this part of my life. Even today I am grateful to have a friend like you. I wish I could have spent more time with you guys and gotten closer with all of you people but I cannot do anything about it now other than just be happy that you were a part of my IIIT journey. Thanks a lot !!! - Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

First day on campus :
How can I forget? Meeting all the faces I've seen on discord for a year before and having to sleep without enough mattresses. What do you get when you pack 20 guys who had spent a year in isolation due to covid into a single college dorm with kettles and maggi / nor packets? Hell yeah!

Favourite campus memory :
Too many to single one out. First day on campus. Vidit's first birthday on campus. Deadpool. Every CSGO session. Every late night ISB road walk. Every trip to DLF. Farewell. Every batch dance. Every clubbing night. Every team contest. Goa, Skyzone, Wonderla, every single moment spent with these ppl

One thing you will miss the most :
The people. IIIT is nothing without the people. sapnu puas <3 Friends who turned into family. Lab peeps, football peeps, and of course, the dogs. Especially Tofu, Lilly, Muscle, Greyhound & Alex :(

Best thing you learned from here :
I was a serial procrastinator before joining college. Was always worried I would never be able to get started chasing my dreams. 4 years later, I'm still a serial procrastinator, but when it comes to things I love, I know I won't let it happen. Also, your friend group is everything <3

Favourite place in campus :
A5-308. The coziest place on campus. Memories made there <3 Honorable mentions: OBH wing, Bakul 114 + wing, VC, JC, H-105 :))), A3-313B, KCIS Terrace, SH-1, Workspace

Biggest Change since your first year :
Learnt just how high the ceiling for growth is, the exposure you have here is insane. I know now that if I want something, I'll do everything in my power to get it. Matured as a person (this is probably a lie...).

Somewhere between Go-karting Margarita, Varlakshmi's Tiffins, WS Pizzahut's margarita, Davidoff Coffee and Tandoori Tea in rain, 10 Downing's pasta, Casa D Rasa's Pastas, Creamstone's ice creams, Tossin's pastas, NaanSense Naans, and countless other pastas & pizzas, we have made a bunch of amazing memories and they will be some core of my college ones. Pretty helpful, a bit dumb and stupid about the world, dances decently (ghosted for one with me, it eventually happened tho), god at CP, meh at football, looks and sounds mean but is very sweet, cranky af when sleepy smh. I've never seen someone as dedicated, hardworking, and equally lazy and last-minute clutching, but you always manage to get it done somehow. I'll miss waking you up for classes and your few panic calls for mine. Jokes aside, you've helped me grow a lot, pushed me out of my comfort zone while keeping me comfortable. I can't thank you enough for everything you've taught me and for looking out for me. :us: – Gokul Praneetha

One benefit of graduating college is that I won't have to team up with you and be forced to start projects only at the last moment, even if they turned out quite well. Another is not having to try to wake you up like 10 times only to get responses in Tamil :p. Thanks for having my back throughout college, and for pushing me whenever I was lazy and didn't feel like doing anything. fightFight lives on, regardless of the results. And thanks for basically forcing me to watch Haikyu, one of the best recommendations anyone has given to me till date. – Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Maan, I'm always gonna remember the life changing ISB road walk at peak afternoon heat(which actually affected one of our skin tones definitely). Thanks for all the shelter and refuge starting from the workspace to the labs, made up an insanely huge and wholesome part of my college life. P.s. imma third wheel forever hopefully :p – Hariharan Kalimuthu

Wouldn't have made any regionals in ICPC without you and Vidit carrying. Probably one of the hardest workers I know (need to work more on AWPing imo). Will miss the team contests. - Pramod Rao Budramane

Heavy awp player🗣️🗣️. If it weren't for you people would've stopped playing cs a long time ago, you kept the culture going. Heavy cf doer, don't think I've ever seen not have a cf tab open. Heavy pasta lover. It was a great time when u came over to blr and met tandoori chicken. You can do that often now. Stay in touch bbg - Prerak Srivastava

I think u r like one of the smartest people ik. Hopefully u start using that brain while playing cs also. Pretty sure the only reason

I have like 1500 hrs in cs is because of you calling for games at midnight, will surely miss them, hopefully we can continue them. – Shavak Kansal

Most inconsistent glass cannon user (best awper to most shittiest player to ever touch the game from game to game XD)…. really happy to be friends with you , and hoping to remain good friends :) and thank you for all the help from coding to teaching me OS before endsemester . Will miss you and really wish to have a full sapnu trip with the bois. Stay in touch and take care brother<3 – Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Always sleep deprived nigga. Idk how you manage to sleep in a lab bro. Nigga is built different. But had some fun time grinding RL with you and doing weird stuff in hostel(whenever you were there lmao) - Kushagra Kharbanda stupid ass fella, cant believe how much u infuriate me lmao. one of the smartest (and dumbest), hard working and disciplined people ive had the displeasure of knowing, it's been a fun 4 years with u. day one sem one, loved every retarded convo we've had or gossip we've had. cant go without mentioning cs, however much i troll you it's been so much fkn fun playing wit u man, have a great life and career ahead, and teach me when you learn how to invest xD - Sankalp S Bhat

Easily among the interesting people in our batch who likes to gather and share info. Also one the goofiest guy in the batch, setting up random races and other autistic shit was pretty fun. For a guy with 1000+ hrs in cs you should get better at the game and stop asking me to drop an awp every round. – Vegi Abhijnan

My very beautiful chocolate baby. Very good at cp. Dogshit at maths should not do quant I think. – Rudransh Pratap Singh

Heavy coder, insane awper. Will miss the easiest ones but will hit the nastiest flicks. Has the most autistic sleep cycle 100%. - Nukit Tailor become millionaire soon bro, and pls don't sleep in the office. Thanks a lot for all the help :kissy: - Knv Karthikeya smartest black man i know fr 🗣️🗣️🗣️ – Agrim Rawat

Habibiii!!. Love you brdr always helping and teaching everyone. Sabke coding round diye hai tune bhaii. Always into new and intresting stuff. Always got motivated by you!!. – Dhruv Hirpara

Beautiful guy, works too much but eh, honest at the heart. Stay healthy fam <3 – Aditya Nair

Probably the man I talked to the most in online sem cuz we both were always online. Sigma grinder 💪, keep going at it, can't wait to see those millions coming in. Was fun times online and whenever we met :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

"have known this dude only briefly, but glad to have had the chance to call him a friend. Best game dev I know on campus. One of the sweetest & most helpful people you'll ever meet, will never forget that GDE clutch or your cat shitting in your room xD Hope I get to play some of your triple A stuff in the future :) - A Kishore Kumar

Pussy haver - Chandan Shrivastava

Someone who is more of a tryhard gamer than me and appreciates single player games, almost to the level of masochism tbh. Greatly appreciated because college mei aur log chahiye Jo bss 2 hi games naa khelte ho bc. Much love and best of luck in your life. Unfortunate ki apan flatmates nhi bn paaye but milte toh rhenge bc. - Aryan Singhal

One of the humblest and the nicest person you could meet. He never says no to helping you out and would even give you his kidney if you asked him nicely. I loved being around this guy, although his DASA accent was sometimes difficult to pick up. It was always a joy to talk to him about stuff like anime, souls games and, of course, Pokemon. Who else would one expect to score at Comic-Con other than Issei himself? Still waiting for that one last breakup party... - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Heyy fellow billu parent Thanks for taking care of him. You are a great person, love how you take care of everyone around you. And ye sorry for making you repeat everything twice xD lil L english I got heheh - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

WIll miss all the un and banter with this wingmate. - Nikhil Agrawal

First day on campus :
The COVID batch all mostly would have had the same first day, being stuck in the hostel for a week for isolation. The only solace was the small interactions we got to have within the hostel for introductions.

Favourite campus memory :
The farewell was by far my favourite campus memory. Getting to see all my friends dressed up formally, similar to what we would see once we become corporate slaves, was definitely a very good experience.

One thing you will miss the most :
The weekly game nights and food ordering with my friends will easily be the thing I miss the most.

Best thing you learned from here :
Extremely good direction sense by navigating Vindhya over and over. But to be serious, my communication skills were always lacking before I joined college, after interacting with so many people, I feel like I have gotten better at communicating with others.

Favourite place in campus :
The hostels felt just like home with everyone there. Always felt like I could relax once I was back in the hostel.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Being completely disconnected from everyone in my first year to talking and acquainting a lot of people across the years. Finally having a very close group of 5 other friends and being acquainted with so many other people.

A very close friend of mine. If anyone needs any help in splitting a bill then this is the guy they should contact. Anyways, you are the reason our group has gone on those outings. None of those outings would be possible without your big brain planning. I enjoyed the times we played games on ps4 like COD, and also those jackbox games. You were one of the few people I could talk openly to. I loved discussing about different strategies with you be it while playing video games or while playing sports it was a good learning experience. I think you were my favourite teammate to have while doing projects because I enjoyed vibing and suffering with you while doing projects. You lighten the mood(by making weird sounds) when things didn't go according to plan while doing projects, which was honestly very funny. Hopefully, we remain good friends even after college. - Likhith Asapu

Goes by Terala, man literally has a non-existent first name. I still remember those Bakul days, where I had come late to the campus and had to choose some already occupied double sharing room. I had chosen him (from among a bunch) as my roommate randomly. Blud never even gave me a chance to regret my choice. Well I think I would have given him plenty since he was pretty much stuck with me lol. Nevertheless, our thoughts and skills aligned in almost everything except in my fps and discord skills (I'm trash). Partner in crime for those daily orders in Swiggy and EatSure. Being the vibe merchant of our group, man carries us in almost everything (excepts assignments coz man's so charismatic that he can convince others to start late as well !!!). I still miss those days in Bakul and sincerely wish that we would be in touch eons later too ... May success follow you in every step of your way. - Rahothvarman P

Your quiet exterior quickly goes away to reveal the goofy ahh personality once someone gets to know you. Best (and only) accountant Madurai Super Giants has ever had. Thanks for all the company you gave me whenever I crashed in your room; your kettle was the sole thing keeping me alive during late nights. I may not be the most outdoors person, but I definitely need to learn the skill of surviving indoors for extended periods of time from you. Cheers to you for being such a great friend :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

"Actual performer of cutting edge research. Man is smooth like eatsure lasagna, pro gamer and gangster at the same time. Always calm, pragmatic and level-headed, can be approached for wise advice or help on anything. Possesses commendable room shifting skills, and splits bills at 100GFlops/s, with unreal accuracy and precision. Thanks for being ready to assist in so many situations over the years..Wishing you all the best for the future, go get that nobel prize. Hoping our association is never joever, like that between you and Djungelskog. - Nitin Rajasekar"

*I remember the initial days when we used to play pool - I miss those times man. From the time I met you I have known you to be outspoken and slightly extroverted by nature - the opposite of my personality. Hanging out with you and our friends was how I learnt to speak up more and express myself, and I'm grateful for that. I admire your philosophy of working smart as well as your leadership skills, at times (whenever we went to restaurants, movies or bowling with our friends, I always remember how you took charge of something or had an opinion to share at some point). Best of all, I kinda got the feeling that you have always had an end goal in mind - for your academics as well as your future. It's nice to see someone confident enough to know what they want and work towards it - an essential life skill that will always be useful. Good luck and keep striving for your goals man! - Vikram A Rao

*Getting to know you and having fun lunch conversations with you has been a real pleasure! I wish you the very best for your future plans :) - Harshit Gupta

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was close to the end of 2-1, when most people came to campus after COVID-19€"having known most of the people through their discord profiles or from video calls we held during the lockdown. I almost didn't recognize a few people or mistook them entirely xD.

Favourite campus memory :
My favourite campus memory is going down the stretch from Research Street to the main gate with friends, occasionally to DLF, Creamstone or Karachi Bakery. While this did not happen too often it's a fond memory.

One thing you will miss the most :
I'll surely miss the late-night hangouts at OBH. While quite a few were for project or assignment deadlines, spending time with friends and then heading out with them for a late-night snack or even dinner at JC was always very fun.

Best thing you learned from here :
The most important thing I've picked up as a person is talking to other people. While I'm still not very good at it, I've certainly gotten better, made a few friends and used those skills well. The most important thing academically is Machine Learning - the real stuff, not the Coursera courses xD.

Favourite place in campus :
My favourite place on campus is JC. Could spend hours talking to people there. It's always a place of celebration for birthdays, achievements, and meeting friends you haven't met in a while. Most crucially for me - it's the source of late-night dinners as opposed to mess food.

Biggest Change since your first year :
The biggest change since my first year is how much I've changed as a person. First-year me was very reserved and not too receptive either. While I can't say I've shed it

"Hibrother, You are definitely one of the smartest and politest people I know. Too bad we started interacting late into our college days but it was still fun to be around you. Keep killing it like you always do and good luck with your future! - Hitesh Goel"

I'm sure enough people have said this already but you're an absolute teddy bear and a gem of a person. Your very canny sense of humour, your sincerity and hard work, your sheer candour, all make you great company (in, uh, quiet environments :P). Conversations with you have always been such a great vibe - from food to politics to rants about lab XD. Honestly could not have chosen a better partner to start a doomed research project with; it didn't work but at least I had fun working with you :P - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

I'm would love to summarize his character as the classic kassi of the campus, doing way too much work often more than what's needed and always focusing on research while around me, but he's so much more. He's a lovable person who pushes people away(believe me, I've tried). While I haven't had the chance to play with him in FIFA, I will declare myself a winner because of how he hasn't accepted my challenge. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Hiii see you in CMU next year :) - Ananya Sane

A A Ron, I will miss you buddy. I will miss randomly shouting ARUNNNN when seeing you in OBH or in the campus somewhere. You were that "actually" smart guy I knew. I knew I couldn't bullshit my way through you, as you would always catch me XD. I also had a lot of fun working on projects with you, and we got to bond a lot during the last 1.5 years of the college. Stay in touch, you are a bigass cutie. Thanks for carrying my assignments! and all the bestest best to you. Whenever you become a billionaire, don't forget who absolutely dominated you in POIS ;) - Freyam Mehta

bro doesn't know how funny he is. take that big brain of yours and go forth into the world, friend - George Paul

Hello! Thank you for carrying out all our group projects xD. It was always a delight talking with such a sweet, cute, calm and smart person. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

He's coming back in chapter 265 I'm telling you, trust me - L Lakshmanan

A. A. RON. How many people have started off with this joke? Anyways, I'll always love listening to you ranting about Bangalore, like I've said, it's my main source of entertainment 🤣Fellow football crazy fan, stay the same you cute panda 💛 - Srijan Chakraborty

First day on campus :
It was all locked up, it was the COVID time. It was the best of the times, it was the worst of the times.

Favourite campus memory :
Going on night walks around the campus with Anurag, Akshit, and Manav for daily rants, and forgetting everything after Oreo Shake at JC.

One thing you will miss the most :
Not the things, but the people and the time spent.

Best thing you learned from here :
You don€™t need 20 friends, you only need 3 mfs to TAKE OVER a country.

Favourite place in campus :
THub 6th floor corner with the view of Hyd skyline.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Focus on what matters.

Don't know how to start this - have always admired your candor, your talents with words (still love that rap you wrote!) and your solid, dependable friendship. I still remember and cherish how our first real interaction (during the online era) was you pouring your heart out about so many things over a two-hour-long call. I still admire the fact that you were so open, easy and frank with me back when I was a relative stranger, and love that you've always been the same. - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

TBH I never imagined being friends with this guy, let alone having him as one of the closest friends I have in Hyderabad. I even tried to start something like a WHAC (We hate Aaryan Club) on campus for no apparent reason. But due to whatever stupid things happened throughout these years, maybe our shared racism, sexism or misogyny, our relationship is what it is today. Though mind-numbingly dumb at times, he's the sweetest person I know and trust me when I say this and I've had to say this a lot more than I'd like to confess , "Jaisa bhi hai, dil ka accha hai and mere se bohot pyaar karta hai", - Anurag Gupta aur bhai haryana ke sher, had some really fun days talking about random shit and being absolutely cancel worthy. Jugaad chalaate raho and aage badhte raho sirr 😊

- Hariharan Kalimuthu

"I don't even know where to start off with. If there's someone from whom I learnt to let myself loose it's you. Sab theek ho jaayega is something which I learnt from you. From the random Charminar trip which took a U-turn, to Goa, to DLF visit where I actually heard the first rap, to countless trips on the scooty. Mujhe nahi pata aaj bhi ki tujhe raste yaad kaise hote hain :). This spontaneity and living in the moment is how I'll remember you. Thank you for being with me in all the tough times. Delighted to have a friend like you in my life, keep in touch. -Akshit

PS: bahut sahi likhta hai yaar, aur likha kar.

I'm sure Mr. Worldwide needs no introduction (I might be buried somewhere on the page), but to me he's public Haram-e #1 (Man's too loaded with the intern money for me to stop his harams). A truly cultured individual (will miss all the watch parties we had) and my god this man's references are forever on point. Yoooooo, fellow diabetic. get that blood test done xd :om: - Sambasai Reddy Andem Begi boii!! my brain dead gamer. We were supposed to be roommate but no worries always had fun playing valo with you. Thanks for carrying all of us! - Dhruv Hirpara

Garuda Linux. Most lazy, kassi and helpful person on campus somehow. Will miss speed walking with you and grabbing your bed to sleep in whenever I got a chance to :p Also please stop playing cs, you're amazing in valo but holy shit playing cs with you is almost worse than playing with cs with sk. Still not convinced you're not a chatbot. Also will never be as cool as Vegi sr. - A Kishore Kumar

vegi u fkn retard, cant believe how much fun ive had these years with u. be it me laughing at the dumb shit you do on any game weve played together, or saying the stupidest shit imaginable, keep those bananas stocked in ur room cuz ill be visiting. one of the smartest fellas ive known (like legit ur raw brainpower is crazy lmao), u more than make it up with ur autism xD, no wonder i vibe so well wit u. take care bossman, and wishing you the best, fluffy basketball head. will always contact you for any tech support i need - Sankalp S Bhat

Enigga bro. Cracked gamer and a human display of all the documentation available, All the best brdr - Knv Karthikeya

Very few people I have found that are similar to me and I can relate to that much. Games with you are maddening but still pretty fun, maybe you should increase the voice chat volume or start listening to people and stop baiting me and start working on your working on your game sense, aim, crosshair placement and comms,, maybe then you will improve from your bot level. Also i think rp's gonna have a heart attack playing with you so maybe stop playing with him. Looking forward to having more fun in blr. Don't know how you are good at everything expect humanities. – Shavak Kansal

Don't think half the batch would have gotten through half the dev courses without you. Won't forget your response to any issue - "That's lite bro" followed by the solution. Needs some improving in CS I must say. - Pramod Rao Budramane

nimga valo player goated gawd💛 - Anubhav Pal

Linux man for me. Don't know how many OSes I made him install for me. Full time gamer and silent coder 🙏 - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Need more Abhijabhij moments in the future. Will most prolly end up marrying a computer, but call for it nonetheless - Abhijith A

Going to DLF on Tuesday night, and then combating our laziness to do a nominal amount of research before we sleep was basically a ritual at one point :). Hopefully you change your legal name to "beger balls" one day. Also a tip, doing "the streeetch" won't fly outside of college. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

God at gaming. You could never keep him away from a good campaign game. His presence really heightened my initial gaming days in college, with chill late-night Valheim gameplay. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal very ass at every game I have ever seen him play. Also very unethical hence dogshit at every ethics course. Should stick to doing Linux. Also very gay person I must say - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Ultimate Tech god and a very quiet guy. Very bad at video games though. Best game theory teacher. You were the go-to guy for any random tech advice. You were literally my personal stack overflow. I will miss randomly barging into your room only to find you playing some random game or anime and listening to you talking about something with a big ass smile on your face. I shall miss calling you niggeee. - Kushagra Kharbanda

BBNBHD Stay safe and stay happy fam <3
- Aditya Nair

"Heyy Vegiv Thanks for fixing all Ubuntu issues in like 10 mins that I couldnt have in 10years xD. - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale"

Gonna miss all the hangouts we had together and looking forward to many more in future. - Mayank Shukla

Bhai itni tension mat lia kar, tu kar lega. Apni aadate thodi theek karle bas (Mein yahan tere k-drama dhekne ki aadat ki baat kar raha hoon). Some of my best memories of college are with you. Bhai tu bohot kam logon mein se he jinhe me dil se bhai samajta hoon. Tu bohot hardworking hai, jo ki mere hisab se tere genitics ka kamaal hai.

*A great friend, a pool player, never up for any event (except the one I was not part of, Goa!). A free-spirited individual who has moves (good dancer). Great fun hanging out. Our group did so many activities together from trampoline (x2), movies, Punjabi affairs, etc. Cheers to the memories we made and to the many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Bhai, you have been an amazing friend of mine. One of the only regrets in my college life was to not resolve our fight. Last m balehi jyada baat nhi hui ho, but you are the guy I can still count on. Thoda jyada hi kassi h, but it pays off. Thanks for the great memories and support and some of our gym sessions. - Vaibhav Agarwal

Captain Kassi 🙏 - Aarush Jain

Tere bina morning gym session toh impossible sa hi tha,jis din bhi tune nhi uthaya us din gym nhi gya. Without your push i dont think so meri transformation possible thi. Really inspired by your hard work and dedication. Everyone called you kassi/sanp but the amount of help u did for others I don't think anyone else did. Hopefully aage bhi sath gym jate rhege - Tarun aur kassi gymboi, tere jesa insaan life me aaj tak nahi dekha, matlab has been same from the day i have known you, only became more kassier. Matlab terko dekh kar lagta tha bhai kaash me bhi iski tarah sober rehta aur padhta aur gym jata. good path you chose, thoda zada muhfat hai bs baaki to niyat achi hai XD. First day on campus :

My first day on campus was spent in Quarantine, that's about it.

Favourite campus memory :
I'm not sure if I can pinpoint a single favourite memory, but the one that stands out the most is the Farewell event, primarily because of the unexpected consequences we faced.

One thing you will miss the most :
I will miss being in a place so intellectually diverse, where every encounter offers a new perspective and endless opportunities for learning.

Best thing you learned from here :
One of the most important revelations I've had since arriving here is that life is brimming with opportunities, you simply need to be open to seeing them

Favourite place in campus :
My favorite place has to be my lab, as it's where I've had the most important and interesting discussions

Biggest Change since your first year :
The biggest change since my first year of college has to be my weight. I'm grateful to my batch mates and lab members who have always encouraged me to keep going when things got tough

Another eccentric person in my friend group. And Farewell brought new colors of him, that he had been hiding very well. A lot of time is left to spend together. All the best.
– ROHAN GUPTA

"Hello Adhiraj. One of the first people I met in IIIT, both online and offline. Anime and Manga conversations absolutely lit XD DUDE THOUGHT I WAS A SENIOR (:cry: itna buda bhi nhi lagta yaar mein) Kaafi hardworking individual, who has continued to amaze me every passing semester. Extremely helpful and kind, dude doesn't know how to handle all the praise coming his way! Bande ki research mast, and dude, what did you eat?!? ACTUAL TRANSFORMATION. I remember us having conversations about how you used to play TOM-HANKS-FROM-FORREST-GUMP-LEVEL TT, if you havent already, pick the sport up again (and teach me some moves :P) Keep moving forward brother, you have my number, just text or call whenever you feel like. Let's hangout whenever a very pretentious anime movie comes to theatres :hug_emoji: - Manav Chaudhary"

"You are one of my earliest college friends. You are one of the few people on campus with whom I share common interests. I have a lot of fun talking to you and chatting about my favorite movies, shows, and books. You always seem very calm and relaxed, and I love hanging out with you. We were so busy with all the coursework and lab work and I really wish we had hung out more. Let's do that and continue the interesting conversations we always have. You are also very disciplined and hardworking. I hope we both finish our master's soon. I wish you all the best for the future and hope you are very happy and successful.
– Surabhi Jain"

Yoo... you know what you're that one person I know who doesn't bs around, has encouraged me with utter seriousness and are sincere about your priorities. There's so much to learn from you! You've changed since the first time I met you, in the best possible way, appreciate different art forms. Adhiraj, don't ever underestimate or undermine yourself in any situation, okay?! You've been a great supporter and, much more, an awesome friend to me. Only the best wishes for you and please keep in touch <3 - Anjali Singh

Adhiraj is one of the wittiest and most insightful people I've met at IIIT. Though you might not realize this until you've had a conversation with him about anime 😹. I never thought I'd enjoy having a roommate until I lived with Adhiraj. Our discussions about politics, anime, and other random topics are some of my most cherished memories from IIIT. I'll never forget the rat incident or the HGB Twitter account. I hope *you find everything you're looking for in life, Adhiraj. - Shreya Jitendra Patil

*Truly cultured dude, has some goated recommendations and a stellar guy (even when drunk, immaculate party vibes this man has - if you remember the tie on the head, golden). Really enjoyed our random corridor meet talks, esp when we deep dived into something we've read/watched - Here's to many more such talks dude! - Amal Sunny

*I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed playing TT with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

*brutally honest and thus brutally funny - love having corridor conversations with you. Never change! - George Paul

*one of the most cultured (read: degenerate :)) people i know (not just on campus but in general). prolly my fav person on campus to have long/deep dive conversations with. from hating on jjk together to discussing bunny girl senpai (like true men of culture), i shall really miss our conversations together (especially the ones which happened impromptu after randomly running into each other). loved to see your foray into the football culture (another person successfully corrupted :)), and hopefully, the next time we meet, you'd know that hating psg//man city is not just a moral obligation but a moral duty :). take care brother, and even though i have no idea what the future holds for us, i sincerely hope that we cross paths again. stay in touch pls (especially during the fifth year :)). - Pranjal Thapliyal

*Bhai proud of you for your transformation. Inspirational shit. Keep going bro. All the best. - Pradhuman Tiwari

*"Hi, great to have you as a friend, genuinely kind and helpful person, RR ko exaggerate karke bolna band karo XD good humour though thodi aur mehenat lagegi XD, see you on campus bty for next XYYZZZ yearss! – Agrawal Aparna Nitin

*An admirable friend, great in Computer vision, manga, and anime god, up for any event (though cancel out at the last moment, Demon slayer :cough Zoo trip :cough Go carting :cough). A free-spirited individual who has moves (good dance at after party in farewell). Great fun hanging out. Had so many late-night conversations in my room about anime, manga, and ... well that was kinda our domain, sometimes on the philosophy of AI, why IIIT research and academics were bad. We discussed so many times what the future will entail. Well now is the future, for we shall it. Toast to the memories we made and to the many more to come. - Sukhjinder – Sukhjinder Kumar

*Brathiraj, despite often making the target of his racisms, he always makes sure he looks out for me, in a very brotherly way. He often encourages me to step out of my comfort zone, although most times I stubbornly refuse. Has given me some great music recommendations, and does recommend me several cartoons, but I haven't gotten around to watching most of them. Please check out the twitter handle @horny_gujju_boi for evidence of his war crimes. – Vinay S

My research partner in crime. An intelligent, funny and helpful guy. All the best for your future endeavours. - Lokesh V

I will always be grateful to Nadeem for allotting me a room close to yours in my second year. That completely changed my life, as I found not only the best padosi, but also a really good friend. Your room was always my second home, mai kabhi bhi aa jata tha, and we used to talk about the most unhinged cancellable things ever. And noooo, I don't support child slavery, I only support Bootcamps for underprivileged. It's a noble cause yaar. Anyways, back to you, one of the noblest humans I have met. You are sincere and straightforward -- something I really admire about you, and try to incorporate in my life. Also, you are extremely well read - who the fuck reads web novels in their 20s like cmon 💛. But, that also means that you are really quick on your feet when it comes to talking about the most random factoids or trivia ever. Pura din bak bak karta rehta tha. Woh toh thank god, I am a good listerner, warna tera kya hota <3. Lastly, all the best for your future plans anddd don't ever stop being crude honest! - Freyam Mehta

"Hey mate! You have been a great friend throughout my college life. Our random late night discussions spanning various hours truly were fun man. The things you say sometimes, I do sometimes envy that confidence, not gonna lie. Stay as you are, and please don't get punched in the face by someone for the things you say sometimes XD. - Rahul Garg"

Hiee! It was a delight talking to you. The memories of playing those 20 question games xD and our manali trip are my most cherished ones. Keep on smiling and wishing you all the best! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

"Kya likhu idhar pata nahi chal raha. Love your energy, you cutie and you're easily the best read person I've met. You're smart. You're SoBo. You're a good friend mate Stay the same. Or don't. I'll be excited to see you nonetheless 💛 - Srijan Chakraborty"

Bhai u are one of the weirdest but at the same time fun guy I know in the college. I admire that you are so humble, kind and helpful despite having soo much to boast about. I enjoy being your neighbour and having random questions prompted at me by you. Keep slaying and all the very best for your future endeavours. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Harikrish, it's been wonderful getting to know you over the years. I'll never forget the first day we met, where me and a few others tried to convince you that we were seniors, but you recognized me almost instantly. Then there was the late night conversations, singing in your room with Vansh, Hardik and Shreyansh with the speaker at full blast, to browsing the corners of reddit until 4 in the morning. You've always been very honest, while you overdid it a little at times, it still remains one of your best qualities (that and your narrator's voice). Stay in touch man, and I hope we see each other again really soon. Cheers! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Voilà! In view, a humble vaudevillian veteran, cast vicariously as both victim and villain by the vicissitudes of Fate. This visage, no mere veneer of vanity, is a vestige of the vox populi, now vacant, vanished. However, this valorous visitation of a by-gone vexation, stands vivified and has vowed to vanquish these venal and virulent vermin vanguarding vice and vouchsafing the violently vicious and voracious violation of volition. The only verdict is vengeance; a vendetta, held as a votive, not in vain, for the value and veracity of such shall one day vindicate the vigilant and the virtuous. Verily, this vichyssoise of verbiage veers most verbose, so let me simply add that it's my very good honor to meet you and you may call me V. - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

prolly the only webnovel reader i know irl (read: biggest degenerate conceivable). shall miss living on the same wing as you, and all those late night (or rather, early morning :)) convos that we used to have. get a ppo in blr only pls, so that the late night talks can continue (and even get an upgrade to someplace better instead of friggin obh lmaooo). also, teach me investing pls :orz:, and stay in touch brother. - Pranjal Thapliyal

WORST TEAMMATE TO HAVE DURING TT!!! But still, our 3-hour long midnight TT sessions would not be complete without him and him missing the easiest of smashes over the net because "humidity zyaada hai room mein". - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

First day on campus :
It was in the middle of covid and as soon as we arrived, they kidnapped us in vans and threw me into quarantine in the girls hostel and confined me to a room for 5 days.

Favourite campus memory :
Delaying Assignments and walking around campus. Having fun in hostels and sleeping in classes. Planning a quick snack trip to JC but ending up spending all night out in DLF. Watching movies together in workspace till late night and spying on couples in the couples spots around campus.

One thing you will miss the most :
Pulling all-nighters in friends' room just because we were not in the mood to sleep. A sense of community and assurance that we are all working towards some goal and the diverse range of students with different opinions from me. The scams we pull for projects and waiting for the final grades.

Best thing you learned from here :
Nothing, but good try IIIT :)

Favourite place in campus :
3rd floor stairwell in Himalaya

Biggest Change since your first year :
Became more confident, and realised that instead of studying, copying in the exams is the best option!!

"In quiet moments and laughter shared,
In whispered secrets and hearts laid bare,
We find a bond that time can't sever,
A cherished friendship, now and forever.
— — — — — — -
Through stormy days and skies of blue,
With every step, we'll see it through,
For in our hearts, this truth does sing,
Friendship is a precious, eternal thing.
WithloveKeerthi - Keerthi Pothalaraju"

"Adityaaaaaaaa, all these days we did so many crazy things 🎉. I still remember the day we ate panipuri at five different places just to make it memorable, and our stomachs were so fullllll 🎉. And the game we always play together, where I always lose 🎉. The funny hand games we play while eating in the mess, those long bike drives where I drove bike at 80 speed with you those were some of the most memorable days. I really like how you just be yourself and always want to do something different that no one else likes. 🎉 And then there's the best experience: the day we met with an accident. I can't forget how we laughed at that moment, looking at our wounds. What a nice experience, ra! 🎉 And you treated me so well since that day. I know you did that because it happened because of you, but I never experienced that side of you—the emotional side, because you're usually emotionlessssssss 🎉.

I want our friendship to be as good as it is now, and no matter where we are in the future, let's make sure to stay in touch. - Hema Leela Durga Koppisetti

"You are my oldest friend xD, 16 years of friendship hahahah. I was literally awe-struck when I found out we went to the same school and kgs and our moms were friends before. I would say destiny got us to be friends xD And since destiny got us together, I would totally hate it you forget me in the future. You are fun-loving and really ethusiatic to do anything and crazy too xd. But be like that and always be happy. I hope we complete a full marathon together one day :) - Annam Venika Sruthi

Hey Aditya ! I still can't get over the fact, that we completed a course project in a day, with minimal effort. Conversely, we also got badly screwed in another course project, in which we put a greater effort. As they say, life is full of surprises and miracles, which we have experienced first hand in a single semester. Somehow we passed the courses with decent grades. We spent a day in Bengaluru, which I will always remember. Thank you for all the memories. All the best for your future endeavors. Until we meet again. - Nagireddy Dhanush Reddy

*touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

*Hello Kondai,You are the jolly person in our gang. You always make everyone involved in every activity. I like that you always say what you think. Always stay happy, and all the best! - Merugu Nanditha

*Aditya, you are the most knowledgeful, handsome person in the room. Your reasoning skills amaze me many times. You stay so simple. I like the times we spent together. I also like the times we argued about some petty things 🥳. You always tell me that I don't listen completely but yes, I get distracted sometimes. You always try to include me wherever it's possible. You try to convince me. Thanks for that. Your logic supersedes your emotion which is what I like many times and don't like sometimes. But you always give 10 marks answer where a single word is expected. The way you took care of us at your house is simply great. You are a great friend and looking forward to many more meetings in Hyderabad (if I get posted there). You vibe with us for Telugu movies and songs, though you don't enjoy them personally. That shows, how much you like to spend time with your friends. You have helped me selflessly whenever possible. I hope you climb the highest peak in every continent and achieve all your goals. All the best. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

*Aditya, The book worm !!! Em books chaduvtav ra nuvvu...ooo munigipoyi mari chaduvtav :). We first met while going to DLF. From the very first day to till now, I feel the same vibe, which no one will have. You are a different animal on the earth :D. U r awesome ra🥳. Stay in touch, good luck for what lies ahead! - Yadavalli Anantha Lakshmi

First day on campus :
Campus for our batch started with masks and quarantine, those 5 days were so pure everyone was cheering as they were finally able to see the campus after 1.5 years. It was the beginning of stories of bade bhaiya, meeting at water coolers and finally getting to know each other.

Favourite campus memory :
Wednesday ko biryani without custard and sunday with custard aur uske baad bbc pe coffee ka schedule was awesome. Jab juniors the to intro se bachte the aur uske baad jab senior hue to intros lena plus randomly plan ban jate the kuch sochna nahi kabhi raat mai walks kabhi terrace pe jane

One thing you will miss the most :
Being in campus it was very easy to make plans with the friend group. Randomly koi ek Banda creamstone bolta tha sab chale jate the kisi ke bhi room mai chale jao easily plan bnalo kisi ki availablity ka issue nahi sab velle hi hote the

Best thing you learned from here :
There is no point in starting early and wait for deadline extension kyonki wo to harr baar mil hi jata hai and do the work in the end. Last mai kaam karne ka thrill hi alag hai

Favourite place in campus :
Easily OBH Best baat yehi hai kabhi bakul mai rehna hi nahi pda OBH ka alag hi swag hai idhar sabse zyada time spent kiya hoga Poker uno cabo patte idhar hi shuru hoye, upar se mattress bicha kar ritual khelna itna farm hua but phir Roz sath Beth jate the

Biggest Change since your first year :
I have becomes more confident in life that means less introvert now and less scared of things. Plus ab Darr nahi lagta itna stressful environment bna hua ho tabhi bhi mauj masti chalti rehti hai rukti nahi, time management aur engineer life to seekh hi li hai

From one go-to person to another. The most genuine and straightforward person I have ever met. Ek number ka jugadu aadmi hai tu. Har jagah jugaad chala leta tha bhale hi vo cp ho, ya courses, ya life mein kuch bhi choti moti cheez. Tere saath to hamesha se hi vibe match kari hai meri. Tere pehle message se hi samajh aa gaya tha ki ye aadmi to itna bakchod hai ki strangers ke saamne bhi bakchodi nahi rok sakta apni. Tere saath jo Google interview ki prep ki thi 2 din baith ke vo to legendary hai hi. Mujhe abhi tak vishwas nahi hota ki itne bakchod logo ka kaise ho gya. But accha hi hua coz fir hum Blr mein kaafi close ho gaye. Bhale hi subah office jane ke liye late ho jaye par raat ko baate nahi khatam hoti thi hamari. Tere jaisa disciplined aur organised aadmi bhi kahi aur nahi dekha maine bhai. Main tere discipline pe dependent hoke itna chill ho ke jeeta hu ki main kabhi kabhi maan hi leta hu un paternalism vali theories ko lol. Blr jake to hume bahut ghoomna hai abhi to but Lakshwadeep ka plan mat bhoolna - Kushagra Kharbanda

Universal carrier hai bhai tu to har course aur project tune heavy carry kiya hai sabko, mujhe yaad hai 2-2 mei tu assignment shuru karta tha aur tujhe dekhkar mai karta tha lol. Har cheez mein jugad laga deta tha, most jugadu person of the batch ka award hota to tujhe hi milta, ESW mein to jo ghumaya tha tune. Roommate bhi kafi disciplined tha tu, tere uthne se mai bhi uth jata tha aur breakfast kar leta tha single room ke bad se lite ho gaya. Baki bhai paisa bachana to koi tujhse hi seekhe, optimize karke sari planning karta hai tu chahe outing ki ho chahe trip ki. Gokarna to tune mostly puri trip khud se hi banadi jo overall kafi badiya experience tha(esp dogs wala). True and most consistent gym boi support ke liye hamesha mil jata tha. Most importantly safest scootie mate, no heavy driving. Dedicated Chelsea fan hai tu, kuchh bhi karke apne totke laga taki saari blue teams jeet sake. Apan milte rehnge hyd/bglr aur har saal ek trip to karni hai! - Gautam Ghai

Bohot jyada backchod banda hai tu, par fir bhi kitna kassi hai. Gym buddy, tu sabse consistent hai kisi bhi cheez mai. Banglore mai full gains karenge (arm emojis), par creamstone wale protien se better karna hoga. Aur english bhi sudharni hai dono ko, kab tak saath mai wordle karenge. Ritual me mere baad tu hi sabse jyada inconsistent player hai. Blr mai bike bhi seekh lena tere pe bharosa hai tu sambhal ke chalaega, ek near death experience saath mai dekha hai! Apne startup mai head chef toh tu hai hi, toh side income ki chinta nahi rahegi- zudio se upgarde kar sakte hai. – Siddh Jain

Hey there, fellow OSN survivor (special mention to OS God 🙏), it has always been so easy with you. Shayad hum dono similar background se hai, ya fir tu itna simple aur straightforward banda hai isliye. Tere priorities set hai. You are one of the funniest people I know—hamara sense of humour hamesha itna resonate kiya hai. Tere saath bitching karne mai, KK ki lene mai, life ki absurdities discuss karne mai bada maza aata hai. I am so glad ki BLR mai mere saath koi mera Delhi street food ka ambition share karne wala hai ;). Weekend par chole bhature toh tu calender mai daal lena, bas kahin ache momos bhi mil jaye ;). You have been one of the closest friends I had in college. You always checked up on me, showed up whenever I needed you, and always understood my perspective. Kabhi effort hi nahi laga tere saath conversation karne mai. Hopefully apan same office mai hi ho, aur mujhe thoda patience rakh kar TT sikha dena. I'll be a good student, I promise. - Harshita Gupta

One of the best people I met in clg and Bakchod no 1. Jab tu pehli baar mere kamre aaya tha gusse mein lol, tujhe dekh ke laga tha yeh kya padhaku aadmi hoga ek dum doctor wali vibes but tu toh alag hi aadmi nikla. Always in for bakchodi and bahut mazza aata bhai tere saath chill karne mein. Apan donon ko milke betting shuru kardeni chahiye, humse badi panauti nhi hai koi hehe and KK ko non veg khana sikhadiyo bhai plss. Blr aaunga brdr milne and iss baar dhaabe mat leke jayioooo. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

"Day 1 se he samajh aa gaya tha tujhse bada bakchod aadmi nahi hoga. Apne quarantine wing ke security guard memories, 3-1 me randomly without reason aise he walks pe nikal jaana, Cpro TAship and you carrying in every assignment and quiz. I know whenever I look back into college days, I will always be thinking of these memories. I know this is just the beginning and blr me toh aur bakchodi karenge (pls roommate bana lena :') From a self-acclaimed football analyst to a self-acclaimed cricket analyst, I'm glad to have a friend like you. - Shreyash Jain

Bhai sabse pehle tere bare me hi likh rha hu kyunki sabse pehle apne group me tujhse hi dosti hui thi . I still remember jab mall me first time hum mile the aur tune vo pukam wali baat boli thi tabse hi mujhe lag gya tha ki dosti to hogi apni. Uske alawa starting me to tu bhut kassi lagta tha mujhe but with time jese hum logo ne ghoomna chalu kiya to pata chala ki kanjoos bhi bhut hai. Par bhai starting se hi ab tak chahe vo apni mysore wali trip me shreyash ke sath planning ho ya fir baki trips me tera involvment raha ho to pata laga ye kanjoosi kam ki bhi hai. Par bhut maza aya bhai college me chahe kahaniya banani ho ya fir normally tera aur mera mostly sigmas ke plan me in hona ho. Bus milte rhenge bhai regularly me to chahe gurgaon me hu but tab bhi koshish karunga jitna ho ske frequently milte rahe calls karte rahe aur updated rahe ek dusre ke baare me. Baki mini militia bhi chalta rehna chahiye humara online. Chal Bye Bhai ache se enjoy kar bangalore me aur kk ko bhi kanjoos bana. Mayank - Mayank Bhardwaj

One of the nicest people ik, always ready to help everybody. Sad we didn't interact much during school time, hopefully we have some fun in blr. Finish steins gate. - Shavak Kansal

Fellow Biryani eater, and on time (unlike certain other two fellows). May you succeed and prosper in Mini Militia and FIFA (and google, if possible take me under your team, kk ke team nhi jaana zindagi barbaad ho jayega mera) - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Bhai, true sense of the word mein bond hai tu, phir bhi itta humble. Thank you for carrying me in DASS. Gym jaate rahiyo. ALL the best. Macha dio. - Pradhuman Tiwari ngl, have never seen a more jugaadi and patient person than you, kuch toh baat thi tere mei .... jb sb give up krdete the .... tu kahi na kahi se jugaad kr kaam pura kr hi leta tha, college life was much easier and fun with you around :)). Selfies lena toh koi tere se seekhe 👍 .. watching football (UCL nights ;)) and kbhi kbhi cricket sath mei ;) was v.v. fun, there was never a dull moment with you around, mast random bakchodi ho hi jaati thi and and roommates toh nahi banpaye, but birthday buddies us. Years gonna change, not the hommies :) - Karmanjyot Singh

Going for that India vs Australia World Cup match (not the finals!) was probably one of the best decisions we've made. Plans for India vs Australia Test Match in Australia soon! Hopefully one day being an RCB fan won't be considered as a curse. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Bhai addy, tughe har baar kassi bolne me toh mughe bohot maza aata tha will miss that Prayush - Prayush Rathore

"Hiya bb gurl. Jeevitham thanne yearbook alle. I'm gonna miss Santa Claus Nair coming into my room with treats. Or how u give me tons and tons of sauce packets. And how you randomly come and install games in my pc and then stop playing those games, how you randomly come and fall asleep in my room, us randomly breaking into song, us going for jogs the last one month. I'll say it again, and I'll say it proudly, Love ya loads. <3 I almost forgot 👈👉 Coxmeet - Adith John Rajeev"

One of the most interesting Instagram feeds, and I'd be blessed with a bit of it whenever I opened a reel you sent. Every song recommendation of yours has also been a banger, and it's reminded me to not always just listen to what's popular right now. I remember coming to Music Club Events solely to hear you perform and I'd love the performances, so I hope you continue to sing :) - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Dude do be kinda cool. Plays the guitar(bass though L), Rizzes up college baddies, even sings. Can't game for shit though. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

ADIIIIII. Literally my first friend in college and I got one of the best ones. CPWP was one of the best things that have happened to me in college and you are the reason for it. "Honestly one of the first and few people I talked to in online mode. We started talking through photography and immediately we were sharing pictures. Then IC project - I still remember how it was a pain but we handled it gracefully. I still remember I was at OBH circle and I get a call from you when you sensed something was wrong. It's rare to find gems like you who just understood without even talking to me. It was amazing to know you man, all the best for you future. Let's keep in touch. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

Nair bro, it's been real good having you as a friend. I remember the first time we spoke back during online days, where we would take turns cracking jokes at each other, then we met on campus and I remember roaming the campus for the first time with, you, Gogate and Aakash, and then binge-watching squid games the next day. I'm gonna miss the the loud ranting which I could hear from my room all throughout fourth year. I do wish I had go t to know you better and we had played Uno one more time. But all things considered, I'm glad I met you. Stay awesome and stay in touch! Cheers! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Dear Sehgal, aka Seggs, Seagull, iPhone guy, photographer, Baba Sehgal, or Aditya on rare occasions, it's been an absolute pleasure having you as a friend. Between the mountain load of memories we have made in the last years, you have become one of my closest friends, a twin brother in so many ways - the Surati factor, the love for Gujarati farsan, thin as a stick, awkward at dancing, and last but not the least - pancreatitis (titties). We have shared so many memorable moments that it would be impossible to list them all. Campus walks, go karting, Goa, wonderla, and ananthagiri hills trips, Kondamma seasons, discussing everything from philosophy to music to film to porn, therapy sessions in my room, Pictionary, etc. I have found you to be a wonderful person to talk with, always open, honest, funny, knowledgeable and receptive. Let's make many more memories this year. Best of luck for the future. Have fun and keep in touch. Feel free to reach out anytime. Will miss having you around. #titties-brothers4life - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

"I honestly don't know where to start with. Our friendship has seen some serious rough times but some incredibly sweet memories as well. I think we instantly bonded but had some trouble adapting. But now everything's back to normal and it feels amazing. You continue to be one of my best friends on campus and let's get philosophy on infinity road and seasons and autumn and spring back again. Time to reconnect brother.I genuinely believe that you're the most tech updated person I've met and your insights are truly great. I honestly can't wait to see you do great things in life brother. Let's stay in touch and all the best. -Akshit – Akshit Gureja

Hey Aditya!! I think the time has finally come to address you by your first name 😂😂. What a journey it has been. Your creativity and steadfast nature have always been jaw-dropping and inspirational to me. Thank you for being a fantastic friend to me. I will forever cherish our time together of arguing on different random topics, working together during the EST project, making you the primary cameraman on every occasion and teasing your pancrea-tities. I am excited to see your future achievements. As we move in our separate ways, remember you can always come to me to make someone's voodoo doll 🔮🔮. – Souvik Karfa

Dadi wala Seghal, Namasthe Ji. Kaise ho aap. I don't think it will be a good testimonial if I write more in Hindi. You are one of the most straightforward and nerd people I met in my college life. Thanks for considering me your friend and also bearing with my irritating doubts during the time of RDC. I am really happy for the time I spent with you though it was not a lot of time, I am happy that you existed in my college life. I remember teasing you for your pancreatitis and your eating habits of yuktahaar. I am sorry if I hurt you. Those were unintentional. I cannot express how thankful I am for being a part of your group. I can seriously say that though I am going USA, one part of me stays here with you guys and will always hope for the days we had together. I really wish I spent more time with you guys but I feel it is one of the heavy feelings that I would carry with me..... Yours Not So Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Dekh abb kuch kr toh nhi sakte agar tu misogynist hai ya nhi.. abb tu mera dost hai toh hai.. no judgements! But silent creator hai re tu! Thoda public kar cheeze, viral ho jaayega. Hmm.. also.. weird sense of humor.. I must say! Vaise bas nerdy hai and what else :"") - Anjali Singh

Seggs, kya hi batay ab tere baare me, itna content hai ki ab toh kitaab likh sakte hai. Har baar bichara behla phusla kar saare adventures pe aane ke liye mana liya jaata hai and tu chup chap chal ke enjoy karke wapis bhi aa jata hai bina khitpit. I've always admired that about you. Mere aaspaas ke saare venn diagram ke intersection me ek jan ka hona toh pre-decided hai. The one and only baba sehgal. Pata nahi tujhe mai tere naam se kabhi bulaunga, shayad kabhi nahi lekin yahi badhiya hai. Befaltu ki bakchodi ho, ya real talk tuesdays, COD khelna ho ki projects pe professors ko wet karna, late night (ya mid morning) sexting ho ya mujhe mere circumstances pe chidhana, tere bina ab yeh sab toh unthinkable ho gaya hai. I'm glad we still have one more year together, dono mil ke beach bod banaenge - Tanmay Bhatt

"akaaassssssss melaaa chota sa bachaa. you are the most bubbly and lively creature i have ever met. Always the most enthusiastic. Hotspot bas bahana tha saale, tere ganje sar pe haath rakhe bina din pura nahi hota tha mera. You live life to the fullest, and never seem to take any stress. kabhi dukhi dekha nahi hai tujhe itna. Aise hi rehena, bas thoda gussa kam karde. ladai kam kiya kar. Jab tu mere se gussa ya irritate hua karta tha, toh meine kabhi react nahi kiya kyunki u were literally like my child, and I knew u would be happy in like 2 minutes haha:) lekin mujhe pata hai tere low times hote hai, lekin tu andar se bohot strong hai. The best thing I love about you is how much you do and care for your family. tere andar wo responsibility dekh ke i get so proud of you. aise hi rehna bhai and keep chasing excellence. hamesha se blunt hu isiliye boldeta hu bhai bas thode toxic relationships se bahar aja, ajeeb harkate aur meaningless ladai mein fas jata hai tu. baaki bohot yaad already aa rahi hai teri :) - Aryamaan Basu Roy

Apne group me sabse mast aadmi tu tha.. saale hawasi aadmi college ki jitni bhi hawas vali chize hai sab tujhse hi discuss kri hai😂😂... Itna bakchod aadmi hai saale bore hota hai to ladai kr leta hai.. accha chalta rehta hai to bhi ladai kr leta hai😂😂.. meri college life agar khana hai to uski spices uska svaad tu hai🔥🔥... Bhale hi toxic hai tu mc par dil ka bada saaf hai tu.. isiliye tere saath har ek pal mazedaar lagta hai🔥🔥🔥.. bas aisehi maze krna aur krvate rehna🤷.. Itne saare presentations fake kre hai.. research bhi endure kr lenge saath me bakchod insaan!! Mere bhai jaisa hai tu.. PS yaad rakhna kisi ko maarna ho to bula lena (jaise MSIT vala koi) 😂😂 - Divyansh Tiwari

Aur bhai akassss, ladkiyo ke bare mai you were my only motivation (bhai finally raaz bata de pls 🙏), mere hisab se tere paas koi superpower hai, tu jaha jata hai waha se ladkiya pata ke le ata hai, kuch toh baat hai tuzme. Bhale hi apni ladiya bohot hui ho pr roo roo kr dosti bhi utne hi jaldi se ho jati thii 😭... bhale hi clg mai har baar tuzse panje mai harta thaa but aaj se 10 saal baad jb milenge tb toh tuze mai panje mai hara kr hi manunga 💪.... agar tu nhi hota toh kabhi cp chalu hi nhi krta mai, i remember apan mess mai khana kha kr bhagte thee ki 8 bje ki contest na miss ho jaye 😂.... Thanks for always being my motivation - Naval Surange

First day on campus :
I still remember coming for the 2 week quarantine on the night of 2nd October and meeting a few people in masks at dinner. The lines to get an temperature check and O2 levels twice a day and thats the only time when one would see the whole batch. It was indeed crazy times.

Favourite campus memory :
The clubs and organizations, everything I did being a part of those communities was so amazing.

One thing you will miss the most :
The people ofc all with whom I laughed, cried and created a million memories together.

Best thing you learned from here :
Never Give Up - Life would throw a ton of problems, you're strong enough to move ahead always.

Favourite place in campus :
Undoubtedly JC and VC. The amount of stories heard, shared, told is crazy. The canteens have seen the nervous people going to exams, the sad students after a bad performance, people giving treats. Literally the places which have seen every individual live college life.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I lost 25kgs in the 2 offline years, that's undoubtedly the biggest change and plus I saw a full introvert to extrovert conversion. I'm a better decision maker and my social communication skills have also improved a lot.

School ek saath, and fortunately college bhi ek saath. Honestly I am so happy both of us decided to go for this college together. Knowing that I will have you to help me out in case anything untoward ever happens in college meant that I never had to worry about anything. Also seeing your transformation over the years has been nothing but a pleasure. You have been my oldest confidante and friend and I hope we continue that for many more years to come :) - Hitesh Goel

Gureja sirrrr! We didn't really interact much apart from POIS or the Pondi trip but I have to say what an amazing trip it was!! You're an amazing person to talk to and a great friend! Let's stay in touch and all the best for your future!! - Gaurav Singh

One of the nicest, coolest (and hottest :P) people to hang around with. It's been awesome knowing you, from ECell work to hourlong 3am conversations about all sorts of random things. Cheers to all the rest to come :D - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Dear Gureja Ji, or should I say the "Facchi hunter" of the batch, it has been a pleasure sharing this college journey with you. You are probably one of the most outgoing people I know, always putting yourself out there to help and guide other people, be it as a member of the Apex committee, as a club head, or even just as a friend. Through the countless dinners, the shenanigans in our rooms in E-block, lab bowling events, and so many more such moments, I have gotten to know you a lot better. You have always been a great person to talk to, and now I also know that you have a great heart, are a fantastic storyteller, are terrific at designing stuff (how you never got your diagrams rejected by Sachin sir amazes me), and also have the ability to cheer up any room. Since we are here for one more year, I would love to spend even more time with you. My room will always be open for you, come anytime (preferrably not when I am sleeping 😉). Cheers, and have a great journey ahead! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

One of the most charming people on campus or should I just say The most charming person on campus. I'll always cherish the conversations and the fun we had in Goa. Stay in touch cutie :) - Anurag Gupta

Time to learn more Marathi, bhet kadhitari :) - Ananya Sane

I have never met someone as hardworking and dedicated as you. I love how you balance everything in your life. It was really fun working with you in E-cell. All the best and I wish you all the happiness and success in future <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

Ecell man :) It was fun catching up with you and talking about random stuff at random times. I think you're very smart and ambitious, and I would love to see what you'll be doing next in your life, will be cheering you on! - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Pata nhi kab mille, kahan mille, kaise mille, but somehow that doesnt matter now, now does it? Instagram pe reels toh dekhi thi, ""Bros dont know when or how they met"" but Akshit sir ne real life practical de diya. Bada accha aadmi hai yeh Gureja, log Facchi Hunter bulaate honge, but inse zyada respected or dependable aadmi batch me toh kya, pure college me naa mile. Inki dosti badi pyaari hai humko, cherish bohot karte hain. (Mostly because inke saath ""hugs"" waali videos bohot acchi aati hein XD) Inki shaadi me aaun ya naa aaun, inka well wisher hi rahunga, inse kaafi kuch seekha hai, grateful for his friendship through and through. GOA KI TRIP SHALL REMAIN A TEMPLATE FR FR. Thank you for being a part of my life brother, aapke antics/habits thode bohot chura raha hun, apni life me implement ho gye hai, almost subconsciously. Just know this, we are broskiis forever. Main kahin nhi jaa rha :D Call karliya kar jab mann kre, testimonials toh aayenge jaayenge, ant mein bas apni dosti reh jaayegi. - Manav Chaudhary

Hiee! We didn't get the opportunity to talk a lot but every interaction with you was sweet and warm <3. Keep on smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

I have gotten unlimited support from you throughout my ECell coord term, that one person in the team that I trusted as much as I trusted myself was you. Leaving my coord position wasn't much of a pain because I had to pass it down to a person I trusted the most. Your creativity and dedication to bring those ideas to life are beyond amazing, trust me these are going to take you places in life! I am so glad I got to witness all of this and work with you. - Gokul Praneetha

CLICK CLICK beautiful smile beautiful eyes, lovely conversations with you. Lovely knowing you, take care fam <3 - Aditya Nair

Microsoft mein bond deepen hona shuru hua and now I literally can't imagine my life without you. Stay the same cutie and thanks for being my best friend in Microsoft - Srijan Chakraborty

Hey Akshit!! Our journey in college is finally coming to an end, but I hope our friendship stays forever. You are a great person and, most importantly, an amazing friend. It was always fun to tease you for random topics, come to your room randomly, catch up about our daily routines, and discuss the fresh gossip you used to bring. All the best for your future. As you later read this, remember this line I came up with for your name: Gureja reja reja, workspace me samaja ♫♫.

- Souvik Karfa

My lifeline on campus. It makes me proud to call you my friend. It seems like it was destiny that made us acquainted with each other, and the friendship that followed later is one I hope I never lose. Since there are too many things to write about, I'll keep this one short and say that without you, I don't know how I would have got through college. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

You were probably my first friend in college. Its been such a pleasure the past 4 years. From staying up all night to complete projects in 1st year, to then becoming wingies in 2nd year and all our memories from spending countless number of nights in your room, just laughing about everything, I will miss them and you a lot. My favourite memory of ours was sitting on the stairs at 5 in the night after our sensor had blew up and thinking about what to do next. And ab toh same company and same city mein bhi hai (hopefully) so hope this journey only goes upwards. Can't wait for us to make countless more memories in office (hopefully less traumatic) :) - Anish Mathur

Love your energy and humbleness! Really fun to be around and I have made so many interesting interaction-based memories with you. - Harshit Gupta

Hello Akshit,I have known you since online. I remember the time we spent doing the DSA project together. You were one of the most efficient members of the team. Also, I remember your innocence of during the initial days of offline college, getting scared of little things and about that discussion on roommates. You were one of the initial offline friends I made whom I later lost touch with. I still kind of remember it and feel funny for the person you are today. I was kind of not much amazed to know that you were the model of some advertisement. I wish I had spent more time with you. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT life. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

You were always that low-maintenance friend with whom I didn't need to hang out daily, but whenever we talked, it felt like we had met yesterday. One of the most sorted people and diplomatic E-cell coordinator too. - Aaryan Sharma

Bondsaale...Akshit mere bhai you helped me through so much coursework. But that aside, you've also been a REALLY good friend. All the stupid stuff and conversation back in E block was great. I still remember everyone asking to borrow your hotspot to play CSGO lmao. And amidst all the work you still manage to make time for EVERYTHING. I'm so happy I met you and stay in touch. PS: baraat me bula Dena :P - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Hey there ameyaa! You are one of the silliest, laziest and bhandiest person I know😂. Spent little less time with you in college but we will definitely make it up now as you are in Hyderabaddd now🥳. Joshi ke alawa humare liye bhi time nikal liya kar bhadvi😤. Baaki toh always had a great time with you jab bhi apan bahar gye ho🍻. You owe me a Kaju fini too! Itna mast heist plan kra tha apan ne😂. Looking forward to many more outings, sessions, sending each other tmkoc reels and double dates✌️ - Siddharth Jain

Hi. You were one of my closest friends in college. Talking to you was always very comfortable and fun. Bowl company Tuesday lunch was always madness. Your gut feeling always somehow knew exactly what you wanted to eat, very impressive skill. You were always there for me when I was at my lowest and I will always remember that. It's "one of the funniest people" btw not person :3 - Prerak Srivastava

Someone who's constantly always there to hype you up, no matter the situation<3 Always ready to try out something new (as long as it doesn't involve physically moving, of course xD). Hello ameya, Tu toh mughe sabse selfless and caring lagti hai campus me, at the same time holding your own ground with the same strength. House party pe sambhaalne ke liye, uska liye Thank you. Stay cheeky and keep smiling, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

"Hey there, roomie,You've been a constant presence throughout my college life, from that first ""hi, where are you from"" to moving in together on the first day after quarantine and saying goodbye through the car windows on the last day. You've been the person I could always count on, whether it was for fashion or relationship advice, going to the salon, or shopping together. You've been there for so many of my firsts - lending me my first crop top, buying me my first lipstick, and teaching me how to use it XD. Friends and boyfriends may come and go, but roomies are for life. Remembering all those times when I cried alone in the room, and you came and sat by my side, hugging me. I missed your lively presence in the room, seeing you napping on your desk or watching a sitcom in a half-awake, half-asleep state so much in the last year. How foolish of me to forget how rare all of that was.

*Love you, cutie<3. Stay in touch, regular gossip sessions karte rahenge. P.S.: I do think I have a thing for pretty roommates - Harshita Gupta Existing with you was one of the best parts of my college life and I miss it already. Agle sesh mein dekhenge is no more:"(- Eshika Khandelwal

Permanent felicity dance partner, "dekh ke bhi nhiiiii". Bowling champion of college, splitwise pe split bhi daal diya kar kabhi kabhi. Explored not just college but pura Hyderabad with you. Better friend than Jetha, mera sunday biryani registration, taught me so many things. Funniest person, tere jokes use karke, dusre groups me funny banta tha. Wordle, emojis, bridge, Cumulative score to pata nhi, but I still won 1-0. Parijat se Bakul wala race, to we both lost. Wheelchair pe hari se jyada to tujhe ghumaya he. Hey Ananth ! We can endlessly talk about any topic. We surprisingly are on the same page on most of them. You are very curious to know about others perspective. A great companion. Swimming session was amazing. Hope you will get out of your room more frequently. Thank you for all the countless memories. All the best for your future endeavors. Until we meet again. - Nagireddy Dhanush Reddy

Hello Annie,Thanks a lot for staying in my college life. You are one of the cutest and most innocent people I have met. You are so pure and I really admire that. I loved the times we spoke about your childhood stories and I love making fun of them. This space is too small to fit all the memories we had together. You are one of the reasons I believe that goodness still exists in people. Thanks for being with me and I wish I had spent more time with you in my 3rd and 4th years. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Anantha, I think only I keep calling you that though you insist on calling Ananth. I know you from IPL A section. You are so talented especially in maths. TA for Linear Algebra 3 times in a row is not ordinary. We have done some activities together like movies and courses. Do you remember how we studied together for Cognitive Science. I really liked that. We have also gone to swimming together. Thanks for remembering me and asking for swimming again. We travelled together in Golconda Fort for the batch trip. Again, during POIS, I told your marks because you said so and did not make up something on my own 😅. You are a good friend Anantha. I wish you all the best for your future. Stay happy in your life. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Hi Ananth.I cant thank you enough for being my friend when no one was around. We were teammates, and I can't forget the time we did an all nighter together during the deep learning course or the back bench cheshtalu during all the other courses we were together.Back bench=reading manga. So many we used to read.One piece, man.It takes some serious dedication to read it.We went on so many walks.We shopped together.You gifting me cake,chocolates,tantra and JC treats.By the way,the jar in which you gifted me the cake,I still have it till now.I dont know why, but whenever I was moneyless, you were there.I love you a lot.My college life would be incomplete without you.I heard back benchers do great things.I hope you do some great things too.You sent me a photo during kalakshetra, do you remember *of you making I dont know-a swan or a duck but that picture will stay with me forever.I need a party okay before we graduate.I forgot to mention hes a gym guy.I hope youll call me sometimes when you remember me. Bye Ananth 🦩 - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

*I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed playing table tennis with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

MY NEIGHBOURRRRRR!!! From the last year, our friendship grew so much. I used your room more than you did. On the last day of college, I couldn't see your room empty without you. I'll definitely miss scaring you and playing pranks on you. I've gotten so used to you. As soon as I come to our floor, I always come to your room first and tell you everything that happened. I'll miss all of that now. Thanks a ton for bearing with me all these days and staying by my side and capturing all our memories, even though you weren't in them, am so lucky to have a pure hearted girl like you. I think you are one of those who saw me closely and know me completely. Others only saw the happy me with everything sorted out, but only you know what I went through in my 7th semester. Cutest white boy you'll ever meet. You are unironically the quirkiest guy I have ever met in this batch, and everything about you makes you a great friend to have. E13 with the boys was a true vibe. Hmu when you manage to fully conquer Mumbai ;) - Sudha Tanay Doddi the og college friend. still remember that walk that we went on in our first few days on campus, feels like it was only yesterday when it happened. unbelievable that we've come so far now lmao, hawaii/bosch to samsung. i have no idea where fate is going to lead us next brother, but one thing is for sure, i am glad that we crossed paths. you are literally not just one of my closest friends ever (not just limited to college btw), but also a part of most of my core memories (and i do not make that statement lightly). looking forward to creating many more core memories in the future as well, delhi darshan shall live on (we better make it an annual thing). also, i can't help but mention that i've seen your growth in front of my very own eyes, and i feel so so proud of you fr. your work ethic is something which shall always inspire me and i aspire to be able to work even half as hard as you someday, and rest assured, we shall stay in touch for sure. ly brother, always and forever <3 (ps: vox machina binge when ;)) - Pranjal Thapliyal

One of the most hard-working people I know, and also one of the most cultured (the unfiltered internet access from a young age really shows). A close friend with whom some of my fondest memories are shared, and hopefully we'll share many more. DD gang-gang FDB album when - Pratyaksh Gautam

"You have been my closest friend since we returned to campus when the semesters became offline. I love and remember how we used to get Sting after every biriyani meal we had together. It's incredible how we can debate till late at night about random topics we disagree on and progressively get dumber and dumber. The bond we have built dealing with each other's issues and concerns is something special. I have loved every moment I have spent with you, Aneesh :) Thanks for entrusting me with your plant; if you had given it to me for longer, it would still be flourishing :/ - Harshit Gupta

Not a guy to argue with --- not because you won't win but because he won't accept defeat 😳😳 - Priyanshul Govil

You are genuinely one of the smartest person I know from college. I still remember the first day I met you I was shocked by how much confidence and energy you had. I really enjoyed our time together as roommates I wished we could have been roommates for longer but covid :(. You showed me some really good songs which i still listen to especially those league of legends songs. It was funny to see you rage at games especially when you lose at rocket league(against me) and league. Hopefully we stay in touch even after college. - Likhith Asapu obviously you play LoLdle. superlative taste in youtube content. stay degenerate stay amazing - George Paul

A great friend, actually one of the first people I knew after joining campus (physically). Had a great time hanging out with you, be it 2-3 years ago in E223 in E block or the very last time we hung out together moments before you left (PS: for home ...). It's always fun with you. Always buried in one or the other research work, advice to take it easy (you work hard) and let people like me get through once in a while :laugh. It's a sad thing we never went out together. Maybe someday? Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

Hey Anish, you were one of the closest friends I had in college. We made a lot of memories together which I will always cherish whenever I think about my college days whether it is the way you ride the scooter or make fun of your frisbee. Stop worrying about your luck, incidents like RC should not affect that (I had to mention this 😂). I hope to see you as a BJP party member one day🚩🚩. Good luck with all the things and let's hope we keep in touch and hang out again soon! - Rishabh Agrawal

Tere sath baat karte hue lagta tha ki bhai ke sath baat kar raha hu bina kuch soche hue ki tu judge karega ya nhi mai bol pata tha . Thanks for being a good listner. Also really enjoyed the early online semester. Remember the Ness endsem quiz lol. - Tarun

Dear Oneeesh, sharing so many fun memories with you these past few years has been an absolute honour. From playing table tennis and chess to Ivling in poker at the end, seeing so many alliances, revenge, and betrayals in phase 10, and even singing dhinchak pooja songs at birthday dinners, there are just too many great moments. I will also never forget the night you taught me dance steps for our dance course, and we both danced to "In da ghetto". That video should never see the day of light. The Goa trip is another thing I will never forget. We all just had so much fun! You have always been a great person to be around, lightening up the atmosphere with your jokes and roasts. Above all, you have a great caring heart and are always ready to do your best for your friends. Wish you the best of luck for the future and hope that you keep visiting us while you are still in Hyderabad. Stay safe from sharks 😇 - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Even though I met Anish very late in our college life, we had a lot of fun during the pressure-filled placement and internship period along with Souvik, Rishab, Mugu, and others. He was one of the main reasons why the DSA course ran smoothly despite TAs being understaffed. His dedication to turning up for every lab to teach shows his great work ethic and ability to step up when needed. All the best for your future endeavors; I hope our paths cross again. - Lokesh V

One of the few friends who I interacted with in online college. I still remember how we handled the SP and IC projects on the same day - 7 Aug was the deadline I still remember. EW1 and EW2 were so much more easier because of you. E-Block was so awesome - Talking about anything and everything without a filter, completely raw and laughing our guts out. It was indeed amazing. I remember how I even recognized ki you're on the door just from the knock back then. It's sad that we lost touch a bit in between but glad that we're getting it back. Microsoft awaits for you man. All the best. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

Anish Mathur. How does one describe this enigma? (Spoiler: you don't.) You were one of the few people I could just start talking to and then keep talking. We wouldn't even require a topic, we could just keep yapping and that felt very refreshing. It's very easy to talk to you and that's a huge ability on your side that you shouldn't take for granted. Let's not forget that your antics (basketball, gym, placements, that one course where nothing bad happened, BURGERS, your political insight) were honestly one of the funnest things to have in a group. I'll eagerly await the next time we play Phase 10. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

I'm glad that you were one of the first people I got to know after joining IIIT Hyderabad. You have a very passionate personality which doesn't refrain from voicing your thoughts and opinions regarding anything. Jokes and cringe aside, "that" photo of ours together will always be special, and it reminds me of all the fun college life was supposed to entail. You are a great person to have conversations with, and it's always fun hanging with you and talking about random stuff in general. Being your TA was a fun side quest that I never expected to happen but you do make a pretty fun student. Will miss you, buddy, let us keep in touch :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Hey Anish!! What a journey it was. I am really grateful for having you as my friend. You were nothing less than a pillar of support during my time at IIIT. You have played a big part in what I am today as a person. I really admire your ability to face situations head-on and find solutions even in the most direst of situations. Thank you for being there for me when I was at my lowest. I will forever remember our talks on random topics, going around the college to look for a non-empty BBinstant, us trying to fix our cooler and roaming on the roads looking for ice-cream, with no destination in mind. I am excited for your future endeavours. As you read this later in life, remember you will be forever be my one and only accidental roommate. - Souvik Karfa

Hello Onish, I had known you but did not know you at the same time. It was as if I had known you for long but I don't remember the exact moment I spoke with you as such. But one thing I admire about you is the way you are straightforward about everything you feel. I wish I had a little more of you. I am sorry for the times I got irritated with you. From what I have seen and heard of is that you are one of a kind heart. Keep remaining the same and all the best for whatever you will take up in the future. PS: I love the name Onish more than Anish and I remember you by your MacBook :P Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav genuinely one of the most wholesome people on campus! wish you all the very best for the future, and do keep in touch ma'am <3 - Pranjal Thapliyal

Hello! You were always the person I could relate to when it came to academic stress as you too took the stress around the same amount as me XD. Our random BBC discussions were often fun if not scary. Enjoyed every trip every outing too. And seeing you getting angry at Freyam was one of the most frightening things I have ever witnessed in this college. Honestly one of the best teammates to have since she too will stress about the project ensuring its completion. Khichdi will stay in touch obviously! - Rahul Garg

First roommate and an absolute cutie! I'll always remember the RA study sessions, our discord conversations, decorating our room together and those late nights vibing about random stuff xD Its been great having you as a friend and a roommate, and all the best for everything! - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Anusha, you're the nicest person of the batch. The sweetest and the most caring person in any group you're in. Our "train" in Solang valley, the trek in Tosh and the insane rafting experience are some of my most cherished memories. - Aditya Harikrish

I have bumped into you so many times it's not even funny how does that keep happening. And it always helps seeing someone so cheerful :) - L Lakshmanan Always glad running into you on campus. Please stay your usual cheery self always :) - Shashwat Singh OG Kabootar gang buddy. Sweetest person I met. What amazing memories we made online, playing chess, scribble, scamming or just chatting and meming. I was so glad we got to meet and work together in person. Keep in touch :) - Anirudh Govil

Hii cutieee, Tere saath I've done so much bkchodi, randomly room mein ghus kr vented, cried, yelled and what not. The cute outfits we've decided on, getting ready for dates and the kacchon mein ghumna. All I can say is I already miss you so much and that wapis aa jaa. - Shivangi Agarwal

She's a needlessly nice person, and though we've become disconnected after transferring to the offline semester, I've always admired her endless optimism. I'm glad to have gotten to know her when first joining the college, and wish her well in future endeavours(damn that's cringe). - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Hey! You underestimated much of the carrying you did for the group projects :). Talking to someone so sweet and calm was a delight for me too. Thanks a lot for teaching me POIS and being a great friend xD. - Aaron Anthony Monis

Keep smiling Anusha :)) - Ananya Sane

Hey cutie, you are the cutest and most wholesome person I have ever met. I'll miss meeting you during breakfast or randomly on the Parijat stairs and having some of the funniest conversations of the day. I wish we could have hung out more. Stay in touch! <3 - Harshita Gupta

Hii Anusha, you give me the warmest vibes ever whenever you are there. You are that one really cute friend with a very cute smile that one could ever ask for! All the very best and hope we stumble across sometime and get to spend more time together <3 - Anjali Singh

Such a sweet person, loved all our random catch ups :) Wishing you all the best for everything ahead! - Sneha Raghava Raju

"Hallooo! You're one of the nicest, sweetest, most likeable people I've ever come across. Add to that, you're also one of the smartest, hard-working people I know, and you've always managed to carry those qualities with so much grace and humility. It's been fun chatting about (aka - probably boring you to death with my monologues xD) all sorts of random topics, and it's so nice to know someone else who loves Awari :D Stay innocently cute, stay smiling, and stay happy! Good luck with everything to come! (including another trip hopefully :P) - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

KURKUREEEE, my one and only partner through the last 4 years of IIIT, ANUSHA <3. What started with "Where is a certain person" texts blossomed into a lifetime friend that I can't imagine living without <3 I am not really that good maintaining relationships with humans, but it always felt very natural to me to be with you. This was simply because you were kind. you were pure. There was no one more innocent than you, and I really adored that. I took it as my personal mission to make sure no one harms my little anusha! There aren't enough words that I can convey my love for you, but here's a flower emoji for my best friend🌻 - Freyam Mehta

I've never even been comically annoyed by you :p. You're nuclear-grade joy, never lose that part of you ok. Hope the universe gives you as much happiness as you give others! - George Paul

You were such a delight to bump into while walking around the campus or in the hs lab towards the end of college, and those board games were sooo much fun. Stay the sweet little person you are and keep smiling ^_^ - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Even though I knew you for a very short time, I felt you have impacted my life a lot. I have never, and I actually mean it, met anyone who's so hardworking and such a genuinely nice person. Such a cutie, always ready to help others and always has her sweet smile on :) - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Biggest Change since your first year :
Since my first year of college, the biggest change in me has been becoming more independent. I used to have no clue how to order food or book a cab. And half of the college is under construction now sadly.

Here is where I'd make the obligatory poor drunk, lightweight joke but given you've quit I'm suddenly out of material smh. Less drama then perhaps ? :P Stay sassy as you've been arshini and for the love of god stop watching that snap pls - Amal Sunny

You are one kind, beautiful soul with the most beautiful laugh I know! I've had my first drinks with you all and have had the most memorable times during fests. Please take care and stay in touch <3 - Anjali Singh hii Arsh!! wanna go Onesta?? Ordering food with you has always been a fun and exciting thing to do. All the late night hangouts we had in your room, full of gossip and fun things were the best part of my college life. Absolutely love your wardrobe but wish they were just a size bigger lol. Love you tons, just like a cheesy pizza! PS: I can adopt your Ipad anytime ;P. - Garapati Sreya

Hi Arsh, help my Telugu please :), then come hang out with me asap, then lets have a sleep over. could rely on you to talk sensibly when frustrations are at peak. had so much fun throughout my BTech with you and the group, some of the best times of my life, and lets please go goa again? 😂 P.S.please make me understand how to do reel-making - Deepthi Chandak

Thanks for welcoming me into your gang as well (SASS gang ftw). Love the spontaneity and love the vibes. Gonna miss ya <3. Meetup whenever we're in hyd. - Adith John Rajeev

Don't look forward to sharing tea with many people but you're one of them. Stay safe and stay excellent! - George Paul

Arsh you cutieeeee. I loved being your roommate. You have beautiful clothes, lemme keep them. Plus bro you dance so well. Not with me tho. We fuck up whenever we dance together. But I love dancing with you. I love playing cards with you. Super fun when you are hydrated.

Great human to talk to always. Somehow has the habit of asking the most difficult to ask questions nonchalantly. Always fun talking to you. Conversations somehow end up going to the deep end within the first 5 minutes and we're just there pondering midlife crisies. Good at CP. Always does a lot of randirona but is absolutely clutch in everything. Hopefully we'll go out a bunch in Bangalore :) - A Kishore Kumar

Did u install gta finally ? - Shavak Kansal

Aryan bhai, fellow MP mate. Online mai shayad sabse pehle interaction mai mila tha, that night we talked for an hour or so. Always helpful, bas bohot kam bolta hai... Enjoy more bhai, meet you soon before you fly to US. OG CP ghissu, raat raat bhar coding kara banda, well deserved man. Stay connected boi! Best luck - Ayan Agrawal

One of the most dedicated guys to competitive programming that I know. You've always been the guy to beat in DP for me and motivated me to get better and better at it. I'm sure that you can do great in almost anything you dedicate yourself to, you just need that initial push towards it. I hope I continue to get texts out of the blue asking some very specific questions about myself, even though I'd always be confused as to what made you even think about it. Random talks about cp, life or anything were very fun, and hope we can at least continue to have them from time to time over voice. Hope to see you in USA soon :) - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

thoda icpc ki tayyari kar leta toh aaj WF hote 😔. but ab kya, ab toh US me paisa hi paisa. - Aarush Jain

WS life was so content with you around xD. I miss everything about it. You have given me a lot of confidence in life, and everything helped. Where I am today wouldn't have happened without that. You are going to go places in life, and you better know that you are worth all of that. True friend, supportive brother <3. Don't you dare lose touch smh. Beware this man is playing Subway Surfers in the bg always fr. - Gokul Praneetha

Hamre embezzling Jett main. Need to finish our Iskcon Temple visit before you go SF xD - Abhijith A

I still remember our initial days in college, when we talked for the first time on wa group. You're one of the most hardworking, yet simple guys I encountered in this college, one of the people you could ask for help anytime. Stay in touch, stay the same. All Best buddy ! - Karmanjyot Singh

From sitting at the last benches in Vibrant to mastermind in quizzes and cp, tu bond

Best coder hai bhai tu apne college ka, Enjoy America. - Siddh Jain

I agree brother. Dont worry next time we go on a beach vacation we end all suffering :) - Sambasai Reddy Andem

I admire you bro, the smartest guy in the batch + nicest too, all the best mate! - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

The bestest friend I got in college. I remember the first time we talked on December 10, 2020, when we were randomly paired for the debate team. That was the luckiest coincidence of my college life. From our hours-long discussions about politics, history, and religion to helping each other with assignments and pulling all-nighters before exams (which were filled with everything but studying), I am blessed for every moment, we spent together. Our spontaneous visits to Sarath City Mall, sharing every detail about our days, DLF walks for momos, jogging on ISB road—there are too many memories to summarise here, so I 'll skip ahead and just tell you that you are an amazing friend with all the amazing qualities, always helping others, even putting their needs before your own, and definitely one of the smartest people I know. Thank you for always pushing me to be a better version of myself, always caring for me, and just being the incredible person you are! Looking forward to making many more memories in the future. - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

First day on campus :
Parents dropped me off at the gate, took one last selfie. Then, with my 7 or 8 pieces of handheld luggage, I was taken to the quarantine area. Not exactly the start one hopes for, but ultimately one that left me nervously excited for my time at IIITH.

Favourite campus memory :
Meltdown 2023. As new Music Club co-ordinators for that year, we decided to do something huge. So we made the event two days long; and the planning involved, practising and just everything in general was a treat to experience. Tiring as hell but would do it all over again.

One thing you will miss the most :
The people. Enough said.

Best thing you learned from here :
Perspective

Favourite place in campus :
Vindhya Canteen. Alternatively, E209, which was my room until the end of third year. Why VC? For the good vibes and people. Why E209? For the good vibes and people.

Biggest Change since your first year :
My sense of fashion was atrocious. Now it is decidedly not. There is one singular person to thank. You know who you are.

HELLO SIR I like remembering people based on their music taste, banda introduced me to many classical musicians, and of course, taught me how to pronounce ""CHOPIN"" (pretty sure i still called him choppin in my head XD) Dude is cool as heck, multi-instrumentalist, the only dude i know who can pull off a goatee with such coolness. I need to know this guy's backstory, I am telling you dude, more singapore stories I NEED>>> pondi mein kya masti kari humnein, also myboli outing, bww, gosh iss semester toh kaafi hangout kia. very cool. Would love to perform with you ek baar, have an idea ready as well. You have my number. jab mann kare call/text. you have a friend rite here :D - Manav Chaudhary

Dear (Atharva) Gogate, aka the "Musician" of our group, it's been a pleasure having you along on this ride. We have made so many memories together - the late-night poker and phase 10 games, the dinner parties, the mystery room and laser tag sessions, even going to the NIFT fest (and it becoming a IIIT-H meetup), and so many more. I also remember us vibing to classical music pieces during an auto ride, trying so hard to ignore the loud traffic and listen to the soft music. You are so passionate about music that I always feel really happy and proud seeing you perform at so many events and keep that passion alive. You are always up for anything fun and make things even more enjoyable. You are also very genuine and caring, and always do what you feel is the right thing to do, which is something very precious and I hope you hold on to it. We will still be here for one more year, so I hope we make many more memories together. May your journey ahead be like a crescendo, building up to something extraordinary! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

You're literally the best friend I've had in college, the reason why my college life has been so amazing. It's weird honestly to just think how one mail on moodle could lead to such an amazing friendship. It was nothing but destiny for us to meet. Yes, the memories are countless, a 1000 characters is nothing to express it properly. E-209 would be remembered not as a room but as an emotion honestly. It's hard to stop my tears roll down as I even briefly skim through the memories in my head, but its the one friendship I cherish the most. We've fought, we've cried, we've been angry on each other while making those countless memories. Let's please have more of the late night talks like we had initially - it's honestly mental peace to talk to you. Thank you for handling me, accepting the way I am and also never leaving my side. I'm blessed to have you in my life brother. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

itive effect on me I cant tell you enough. I have always admired your passion for things that excite you (that's what she said) and how you are fearless in treading the less travelled path. You are genuinely the nicest and most helpful person I met in college and I am lucky to have a friend like you. I am taking away so many memories from our discussions in your room, and yes I know many of my opinions used to trigger you and it was fun watching you get animated, the rare occasion we went to play badminton and how fast you used to walk when you were going to JC lol. No matter where life takes us, you are one of the people I would love to stay in touch with. Can't wait to see all the big things you achieve in life! - Anish Mathur

"GOGATEEEE!I remember the first time we spoke after an online class of all things. Then the online year passed like a blur, and before I knew it I saw you in person. All those days just sitting and talking about random shit with you and Akshit back in E block was was awesome, from sleep-deprived BS to discussing and panicking over assignments and everything in between. I am beyond glad that I met you and wish you nothing but the best. - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Hey Atharva!! What a fantastic time it was. You are among the most amazing and talented people I have ever met. Thank you for always being an amazing friend to me. Even though we are going our separate ways, I will forever remember our time together, be it teasing your Hindi, meeting you at VC where you would have your first meal of the day, or cheering you during your music performances. All the best for your future. As you read this in future, remember that to me you will always be the one and only Pseudo-DASA 🎷🎷. - Souvik Karfa Rachmaninoff enjoyer, Keys bond, Bass Player and such a nice person overall. Bring the pieces back together, rediscover communication :) - Yash Mehan

The Beethoven of our batch! I loved all our jamming sessions and countless performances in meltdown! We shall perform 46 & 2 one day! - Gaurav Singh cue Piano Sonata No. 2 in B-Flat Minor, Op. 35: III. Marche funebre.* you were always a delight to talk to and listen to, take care fam, and one day we duet once again <3 - Aditya Nair

One of the coolest music dudes on campus and is a beast with his instruments. Thanks for being a great companion and support during covid times when things weren't so upbeat all the time. You inspired me to start listening to classical music for fun and I sincerely hope we keep in touch in the future :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi You're one of the jolliest sweetest person on campus and the best keys player of all! Keep that infectious smile of yours always and all the very best. <3 Please stay in touch :) - Anjali Singh

he is the man on the keys (and the tape) - Amal Sunny

Thanks for the bakarwadi :)) I'll let you know when I play the violin again lol - Ananya Sane

From playing the same instrument to doing research on the same project, you've been a wonderful friend that I hope I had met sooner. Always stay the same! - Jatin Agarwala

#1 pianist so cool (I know nothing about music but this is fax). Ps- tell who you want me to set you up withhhh ;-; - Sreenya Chitluri

Sing us a song, you're the piano man <3 Need to make more covers like golden hour so get placed in Bangalore :thumbs: - Abhijith A

Absolute banger of a human being fr. Bahut maza aata tha tere saath hamesha Bhai. I hope you have a great journey ahead brother ❤️ - Aryan Singhal

Hii bro!! cabo when?? XD - Garapati Sreya

Hey Marathi You are such an amazing Keyboard player, damn fun to listen to you play. - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

You are the kind of guy jo apne logo ke liye pure duniya se lad lega. You speak your mind, you know when you're right and you stand your ground and I admire that about you. Tu kaafi smart hai and I think you know it. Tu life mai jo bhi karega, google mai job ya truck ka business 🚚, kuch bohot crazy bada hi karega. Agle 5 saal tak options and trading full kass dena, fir ham apna quant khol denge 💪. Bohot zyaada fun kiya hai maine tere saath. First day of offline college mai mila tha tujhe jab tune chutiya bana ke hanuman chalisa bulwa diya tha 😂 aur thoda thoda bol ke daaru bhi tune hi sabse pehle pilaya tha. Kaafi miss karunga tujhe. 5th year mai bohot crazy mazze karte hai! - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

Fellow hospitality team mate brdr. Had crazy fun during felicity. Wishing you all the best man - Knv Karthikeya

Genuinely care karta hai apne doston ki. Hamesha chahta hai unka accha ho. Ye chizein tujhme hamesha se dikhti thi. Party ki responsibility tujhe de di fir koi tension lene ki jaroorat hi nahi padi hai mujhe. Sabse smart to hai hi tu bas gussa thoda kam kiya kar 🙃. - Shreyas Revankar

Behoshi bkl bhai, kbhi kbhi Maa chudaya but crazy trips to khan bhaiya and sessions bc, "bandi pata pandey" ek dinn pkka hoga sabse pehle terko hi bataunga aur haan Chandrayan ek dinn zarur udega.. - Arnav Pandey

Bhai bohot maaze kiye hai, sabse zada maaza aya hai mujhe tere aur prayush ke saath hi (Yellow light mein ande sessions). Sindhi mein hoon, par tujh mein zada traits hai, business bho karna ab. Waise bhi bohot dimag chalta hai Tera ye sab mein. Aur jab next time aao, toh infinite guwahati ready rakhna. Apne nakre mat chodna. - Saurav Chhatani

Heyy there bestiee! Bhai kise pata tha humari peeler gang start to end of college life tak itni majboot rahegi💪. We grew closer each semester and I had the best times of my campus life with you, whether it be nashe sessions, campus pe awara jaise ghumne, ladkiyo ki baate krna ya kone me rukke chai peena. All my trips have been amazing with you, you care about the people you love and always be there for them when needed especially me. Humesha sessions me only you would realise agar koi bt hori hai mujhe and made sure I wasn't alone at that time😊, we always had the most fun conversation about life and random shit and I loved that time. Patang jaise uda diya tha bhai tune mujhe😂, will never forget that hawai yatra. Baaki toh pro coder, rizzler aur jugadu toh hai hi tu, so no need for any luck from my side coz you gonna be the champion anywhere you land up👑. Toh bas bkchodi krte rahe aur apan transport/ doge ball ka startup pe kaam krna chalu krte jdl hi🚚 - Siddharth Jain

Words are not enough to express the joy you brought in my life. I truly believe that my college life changed for the better when I went bowling that night. You are so caring and think of other people's emotions in a way I never have, and I truly appreciated those insights. Anything that we did together - whether it was getting chai, going shopping, studying in workspace, going on trips, hanging out at FG and BBC - would just be ten folds more fun just because it was you as my partner. You have always been there for me, in ways I could never thank you enough for. You made dance practices fun, laughing with you about choroes (and the people doing them wink) turned it into a memory I would always cherish. I feel so so grateful that I got to see your guards down side, the side that says childish things and makes lame jokes and laughs freely and is vulnerable. Thank you for introducing me to my favourite song <33 You are an unforgettable part of my life, and I am so thankful for it :))) - Ameya Sharma

jossiiiii (iiit ka kabir singh) bhai we started off on a bad note but tu mera kafi acha dost hai or tu dil ka bahut acha insan hai. or obv sabse zayada chudwata hai 🤭 goa me toh kya maza aaya is baar (#shenanop) and i m better than u in fifa 😤 aa raha hu mai bnglr jaldi mast party karte hai #rk - Prasoon Garg

Long walks, Evening Tea, Morning classes, Bro wali conversations! Thanks for being a great friend! Obviously tujhe end mei aana Banglore hi hai, so never gonna lose the connect. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

"Aur bhai Joshi, kya aadmi hai bhai tu, itna character, personality, disruptiveness, caring, adventurous, Every moment with you is an adventure in some sense. Itna zyada energy hai tere paas, hamesha kuch na kuch exciting karna hai, yeh OBH wale sesh toh mera peak life experience hai. Saare trips me itna life daal diya tune. Jitna bhi gussa kar, tere jitna trustable aadmi nahi dekha maine. Tere saath woh indore trip hold a very special place in my life. 3rd year me chai ke liye daily JC jaana, Feli pe woh daaru lene jana, OBH me pehli baar daaru peke main gate tak jana, peke chatni ko BT dena, FIFA me pelna, 4th year me scooty rides, woh qualcomm office ke piche chutiya discussions karna, E-05 me raat bhar hari aur tere saath gossip karna, yehi sab toh hai meri college memories and hamesha tu saath tha, love you for everything. Also mere college ke best songs sab tune hi bataye hai (Best - Chidya). Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Insanely lucky to have found literally a gigachad of a roommate. Staying in ES was legendary, thanks to this fella, who's an actual posterboi of Indore. From roaming around shirtless as cavemen when the lights went out, to fangirling over Jay in the In Betweeners, everything was an insane, surreal and unmatched roommate experience. Could not have made it through the wheelchair days if not for you. Glad I never bought a mosquito net hehe <3 - Hariharan Kalimuthu

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was rather overwhelming. I had never stayed in a hostel on my own before. On top of that, there was the quarantine. So, it was pretty gloomy. :/ I had fun after I came out of quarantine though. :)

Favourite campus memory :
Taking long walks with friends and discussing esoteric philosophy with them. :)

One thing you will miss the most :
I will miss my friends and the fun company they provide.

Best thing you learned from here :
The world is a strange place. Somethings make work for others but may not work for you and vice-versa. So, be careful, think before making a decision, don't be rash and don't be cowardly. Fortune prefers the brave.

Favourite place in campus :
My room.

Biggest Change since your first year :
More awareness regarding a lot of things like friends and other social stuff. (My first year was online. :D)

When I first joined college(during the online semester), I had grown to know about Avyukta through the Theory Club, where he was well versed in several interesting topics. I had imagined him to be a serious and organised man who would identify himself to be above us mere mortals. But I had the pleasure of living next doors to the man on coming to campus, and I could not believe how vastly different the man was from my expectations. He's open to several interesting ideas, and often engaged with me in topics I would dare not discuss with others. Despite his candour personality on the outside, he is still a man that is very serious and hardworking. Several of my happiest moments on campus have been with this man(I hope I'm not misgendering you or future you) and I only wish I could've come to campus earlier to spend more time with him. My favourite moment with him will forever be laughing at a horror film because of how we tried to logically make sense of the movie. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Avyukta has a deep love for theory, math, politics, and engaging in debates, especially playing the devil's advocate. Our late-night discussions, ranging from campus gossip to communism and current political events, were always fun, entertaining, and intellectually stimulating. As the leader of the DSA TAship team, he guided us with distinction. A mess buddy who loves ice cream and a reliable 2AM friend for advice on anything from academics to life issues. All the best for your future endeavours and, hopefully, Dr Avyukta one day. - Lokesh V

Brother, I am so inspired by your approach towards science. Really liked working with you in the Mecha and EW2 project.. You definitely carried me there... The N-Z- jokes you make is your trademark.. never going to forget those for life One disappointment I have is that you never tried running, even when Sujit sir is your advisor!. Bruh please try running.. once you get used to it you will really enjoy.. It was nice to have a friend such as you. Keep in touch - Jain Chirag Shantilal

Man is epitome of math wiz, and can mathematically prove if someone is stupid. We used to go looonnnggg back trying to solve TRG POTD, and dude almost convinced me to do Theory CS before I started doing applied shit. Avyukta was a regular member of the knights of the round retard table (With Lokesh and Mugundan) and us four in the room can drop the total IQ of the room by 500 points by the sheer retardedness of the conversations. Was great in exploring some of my personal interests in Math and always there for midnight discussions with tubs of Ice cream. P.S. We'll find American "friends" in a year, DW. - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

Always the calm and collected one. You're probably the most fun person to have a controversial discussion with (especially on the lines of communism and HItler). Although you're a man of few words, I enjoyed all those times we used to assemble in E-block and used to have such long discussions. We've sort of lost touch after moving to single rooms but hey, we're here for one more year. Let's rekindle the fire again! - Tanmay Bhatt

Hello Sir, You were my first interaction in IIIT... well from ther to our last day of yearbook deadline..i have had very crazy and interesting discussions with you guys, (you, lokesh and few others) Somehow or the other you have been part of mine and lokesh conversations. Well at least you like my stories...will keep bringing it for you. - ROHAN GUPTA

The first time i met you virtually on Teams, I thought u were some PhD student because you were soo damn good at math. Turns out, this boy is not only good at math but also a great friend ! To my math-savvy amigo: All the best in your pursuit in theory !! - Harish Umasankar

Tbh you are the first person I have talked in person in IIIT. I used to dread everytime I talk something with you in the mix because you always had some kind of counter against it. It used to annoy me a lot but hey that's your character. Keep doing that forever as it defines who you are. - Bodgam Rohan Reddy

Hey Avyukta, you're so interesting to talk with, I can pick out any random topic out of the air and you'll still be able to carry that conversation hard. Loved having those chats over lunch, and I'm sure we'll have a few more the next year. It's very fun hanging out with you and discussing about my non-existent research and listening to your breakthroughs in ML. All the Best for all your future endeavours!! - Tanniru Abhinav Siddharth

Avyukta is very clear and confident about what he wants in his life and his goals. He has a great sense of humor. There has been a lot of conversations with him in Lokesh's public room. I had huge fun and entertainment in those sleepless nights chatting with him and Lokesh. Got big brains in maths. Being in CHD I can say he has 10 times more sociology knowledge than any CHD student. Nice person to be a friend with and spend time with. Hope your dreams come true. Good Bye. - Karthik Prasanna N

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

I still cherish the bond we developed sharing cute animal pictures and discussing life back in the Discord era, and wish we'd gotten a little more time together in the offline one. Regardless, I know you for the sweet, humble, fun friend (and fellow Kaviya Maran admirer :P) that you've been, and I hope nothing changes that. Good luck with the next chapters of your life - stay happy, and stay in touch! - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

A good friend, a fellow cricket player, and an admirer of the sport. Mahi of our batch team, and amongst the leading run-scorers of the inter-batch (and all the other too!) tournament. One of the best hitters (man just hits sixes, doesn't believe in singles. doubles to bhai shayad kabhi liya hi Nahi) on the campus. Always standing in slips shouting at us bowlers, bhai thoda dekh kai, balling aasan thodi hai :laugh. It was great fun hanging out with you and the others. Made so many wonderful memories. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

First day on campus :
Quarantined as soon as we came to campus in 2-2, had to stay for 2 weeks or so, OBH roommate situation was poorly handled. I walked around 20k steps on that day (to shift luggage, to buy stuff like mattress, dustbin etc., to roam around the campus and so on), the most I have in a single day.

Favourite campus memory :
Not really a party guy, not been to many events. I would say the T-shirt signing event was memorable. We signed and drew and wrote the most cute as well as most abusive things (xD) on our friends' shirts.

One thing you will miss the most :
Hanging out with friends in OBH rooms

Best thing you learned from here :
Be nice to other people and they will reciprocate.

Favourite place in campus :
JC/Tantra

Biggest Change since your first year :
I have started focusing more on my fitness, lost significant weight since the day I came to campus, have started going to the gym but need to be more regular.

Ayush Sirrrr ! We first met in 3-1 and I'm really really glad we did ! At that time, I didn't realize how much of an impact you'd have on me and my life. We've had almost all of our courses in common and have also been project partners in most of them as well. It would be an understatement to say that you've literally hard carried me in every single one of them. You patiently explained all the concepts and topics to me and even helped me clear stupid as doubts such as the imaginary numbers equation and matrix multiplication. You're easily the most hard-working person I've ever met in my life. When I heard about your life story and how you went to Kota for a year, I was in awe. I've only read about such stories in the news and social media, but to actually see someone in person do that is genuinely genuinely impressive. You're also the most retarded guy outside of academics. Its paradoxical how smart and dumb you are at the same time. Either ways, I will cherish the time we spent together. Best of luck ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

B Dawggg. Naagampam. Partner. I have so many names for you lol. When we first met you were just a quiet guy who didnt talk to anyone. I really had no idea you would turn out the way you did lol. Now you're a loose cannon. We really created a beast lol. I never thought one guy could be so retarded and smart at the same time. How you sleep at like 11 and wake up at 7 everyday i have no idea. You are the true example of dedication and hard work and I know you will do great things in life. You are one of the nicest people I know. Just stop arguing so much with people and snaking around so much lmaooo. I love you brother. Good luck. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Dear GymBro, It's crazy how we met and only conversed in Hindi initially (मेरी हिंदी बहुत शुद्ध और अद्भुत है) and fast forward we're already going on a road trip together (We all know how that ended xD). But along the way we made a ton of memories that I cherish greatly. So many of them come from OBH and the veggie rooms. Now that you are in Noida, I will miss your peak retardedness and especially thrashing you in Rocket League. That being said, you are easily one of the smartest people I've ever met and admire your dedication and hard working nature towards anything you set your mind to. One of my favorite memories with you (among many others) is when you played football with the rest of us. I have never seen you run after that. Also I still haven't been going to the gym which shows my unwavering love towards you (I can't wake up only). How can I ditch a homie like that (not that you can relate haha). But jokes aside, not sure when we will get to meet again so take care and keep in touch (DO NOT BLOCK ME!!). - Ankithvarun J

We met before being DnA TAs, a detail you got wrong xD. I first interacted with you a little during our Ananthagiri trip, and I remember how completely silent you were throughout the entire trip and only talked when you were talked to. I thought I found someone who talked less than me, but little did I know I was very wrong. You are a very entertaining person, though I don't think you intend to be, lol. Just being around you and listening to the stuff you say is a comic relief. You are a veryyy smart person, one of the smartest people I know. I would just advise you to also develop street smarts please; you need that to survive in Bihar. Also, watch Better Call Saul instead of watching your random shows like Prison Break or something. We still haven't had our badminton match yet, but honestly, I am impressed by how much your skill has improved from when we first played. That is some good dedication. I also cherish our gym times, at least in 4-1 when I actually came lol. Waiting to see you soon :) - Swetha Vipparla

You have been a constant since I reached on campus. I have not only learned about academics from you but also life in general. You selflessly help people around you and are calm under pressure. Working with you, from SE project to the best Mechatronics team, I have learnt and made great memories. You are extemely hard working and focused on your goals. It is great fun for everyone to be around you and listen to your 'stfu bitch'. Your joyous personality being deflated everytime I defeated you in rocket league was a pleasure that I continue to enjoy. I only pray that you improve in the spare time you will have. Your attitude towards life and work will take you very far in life. Hope to meet you soon! - Khush Devendra Patel

I got to know you through Khush during DASS. Back then, we used to only meet in the North mess during some dinners and to be very honest, I thought you were one of the smartest people I had met but didn't feel you would open up to me as a friend. Fortunately, we shifted to the same wing in the sem after that and we started interacting daily. I will forever be grateful that we became friends. You have taught me various things that might seem trivial to you but have had a huge impact on me. From your work ethic to your calm and collected nature, I can only say that the sky is the limit for you. I wish you all the best for the future and cheers to all the memories we made! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

"We first met in 2-2 during SPP. Finally, in 3-3, we were in the same corridor where we started talking mainly about academics. I still remember our Ananthagiri trip where you didn't speak a word. Then when we were going to Vizag, in the bus, I kept asking you questions and you finally started talking back. Still, the whole trip you were very quiet. After that, it was more fun when you started expressing your off-the-handle comments. Finally this semester, we did lots of activities together like badminton and watching TV shows. You never believe whatever I ask you to watch but slowly you watched and loved most of them. I will always remember your reluctance to do anything outside OBH and never wanting to go outside. Finally, you have helped me a lot on countless occasions, whether by letting me stay at your PG or helping me with assignments. All the best for the future and I hope that we'll remain in touch. - Shubh Agarwal

Hands down one of the biggest kassis I've seen and definitely my favourite one. Whenever I needed anything you were always ready to help me (thank u for all the carries sir). Spending time with u has always been fun and hopefully we'll meet again soon. Stay in touch and good luck with everything! - Ben Paul Varghese

Hi dumbass, you are a really nice and kind person. I really find it wholesome about you have changed so much ever since the first time we have met. Kudos to your dedication! I really wish that you explore the world, learn new things, make more friends and not get mugged xD. All the best, may success, health, happiness follow you <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

One of the smartest and most hard working guys in the college but is lazy as hell when it comes to playing sports. He plays badminton very good though. I really enjoyed playing badminton against you and also enjoyed playing RL against you. He is a very helpful and kind person you could approach him with any doubt and he would still help you. One of the best TA's I have seen gives everyone full marks no matter what. Don't spend too much time kassiing and hopefully we remain in contact even after college. - Likhith Asapu

The model student room should have been yours. Can't get more "model student" than Ayush Agrawal. I enjoy the pointless banter we do, and beating you in Rocket League matches was very fun. I also like the fact that you're very committed to your career and academic performance while not being a true Kassi. You're a very nice person to be around, and I am glad I got to know you. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

I first hung out with you when we went to a temple, and since then, you have been an amazing person to be around. I want to mention that you, in real life, do not even resemble the personality your Insta DP speaks of. xD. Thank you for all the help during my intern interviews. Wishing you all the very best for the upcoming years. - Harshit Gupta

most helpful SE TA ever :) (don't tell ankith and mavani that i said that xD). all the very best for your future brother, and take care. baaki whenever i'm coming to roorkee and land in delhi for it, shall let you know for sure :). tum bhi kabhi bangalore aao toh zarur batana, and stay in touch brother :P - Pranjal Thapliyal

You are my favorite Bihar. I will always remember your clutch assistance in exam prep and assignment submissions. Very reliable course mate you are, although it would've been better if you didn't try your best to avoid taking any courses in common with me. I'll always remember how u came to my room to play RL and nothing else. Reminder that in our 2 years of friendship, you've only beaten me in RL once, and I've thrashed you every other time we've played. Will always remember my ultra strong, ultra slithery gym bro, B-Dawg. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Benji, Whata guy! Despite your despicable taste in food, movies, games and almost everything, you are a pretty good guy. Having worked with you, I can vouch for your hard work and passion for detail. You are always ready for any challenge and keep the spirits high when others are low. You have a calming presence that makes everyone feel comfortable around you. You have been an integral part of my college experience, and have truly made it more fun. I know you will do great things in your masters! Hope to meet you there soon. - Khush Devendra Patel

You're definitely the sweetest and kindest guy I've ever met. I don't think I've ever seen you without a smile on your face. You always greet me with such a warm welcome every time I come to your room to hang out with you. And you're always down to help me whenever I need it. Will miss having you around. Thanks for making my college life better by simple being you and thanks for being an amazing friend as well. Best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Ye old reliable, Benjamin Paulose Varghese. I can always count on you to have snacks and to provide chilling atmosphere in your room. Most calming presence on campus for me with some ultra low key chill vibes. If I am unsure about whether I should order something, all I have to do is stop by your room. Whenever I didn't know what to do, all I had to do was walk to your room and next thing ik, 2 hours have passed. Yours is the only room where I've randomly fallen asleep multiple times cuz it do be that chill. I will make sure to swiggy atleast one order every week in your memory. Next time you come to Kochi, you are legally obligated to come by my house. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Very sweet and calm guy, got to know you first in 3rd year (ig) through patel and aum, never says no when someone asks for help, never cuts his hair too lmao, I dont know why paulose became more popular than ben 10 as your nickname lol, will definitely remember those days when we used to study together for Russian, Migrants (why do we only have HS courses in common lmao), always felt great hanging out with you, wish you all the very best for your future and pls get haircut at regular intervals - Ayush Agrawal

Has to be the most loud introvert I've ever met, but genuinely the nicest guy I know. Let's see how much you change next time we meet XD Stay safe and stay happy fam <3 Also, no mine, even if you say no mine - Aditya Nair

First day on campus :
During the quarantine period ,, I arrived on campus earlier than the rest of my batch group. At that time, I only knew one person, who eventually became my first best friend. He is very friendly and has formed a strong attachment to me.

Favourite campus memory :
One of the favorite memories on campus is Sankranti, where we all wear 'Pancha' and shirts in a traditional manner. We took lots of photos with every friend.

One thing you will miss the most :

Biggest Change since your first year :
I've experienced many changes, but most can happen anywhere. I loved our chats about the latest tech releases whether it was iPhones, Androids, PCs, or criticising OnePlus. Yet, at the end of the day, we both remain loyal Android fanboys. Thanks for all the wonderful memories, from being signal processing teammates to our last rain dance❤️. Let's stay in touch, and don't forget to call me for your wedding(s) 😂. Dear Tharun, I didn't know you thought we were from the same school. I didn't think I'd meet a person from Chari sir's campus. I remember the first conversation with you in Discord where I was surprised that one person I know from MDP COS-I would be a part of my B.Tech life. That was the only conversation I had with you online if I remember correctly. Then came offline where I was a total introvert, though you knew me I didn't bother asking you and Harish your name though we had a conversation in South mess. During all of my 2nd and 3rd years, I just knew you existed and was close with you but never knew you much. We were talking and all but I got closer to you I feel in my 4th year. One of the persons, I feel explicitly deserved the ti job. I loved to see your hard work and absolute determination. I really loved to see you speak English then. I feel you have been one of the people I always had good and open-to-heart conversations. I, Jaishnav, declare you a person loved by all !!! wANTtOwRITEmOREbUTnOsPACE.. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

I don't even know where to start. Compressing a 2.5 year relationship into 1024 chars is hard. But I will try. You're a good friend of mine. You inspired me at times.I feel that I must have spent more time with you. I had great memories with you, especially on the trip. I wish we had stayed a few more days in Varkala. I wish we stayed back at the beach for the night. (List of things I regret, Item #69). Here's something important. I've always wanted to be on the top. Always. I must have behaved in ways that are not so friendly at times because of that. I am sorry about that. That's the things I wanted to say. Keep in touch, or I'll start to touch you myself (threat). Luv u ra mowa. <3 - Naraharisetti Siddik Ayyappa

Charan, you are a great friend. Especially, during covid, we used to talk for hours on call every day. I still remember DASS, where we did the project together. You are multi-talented Charan - singer, writer, photographer. Do you remember, you are the one who gave me my first campus tour after getting out from quarantine. I get amazed by your ideas sometimes and how you manage time is still a mystery. I admire your conceptual clarity. You have so many values, I truly admire. You have also invited me to watch few movies together. I like our little talks about interesting things. I hope you climb great heights in your career. You aspire so many things, but I think only few of them are possible. Choose wisely. All the best for your future. I hope we get to talk and meet more in the future. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

First day on campus :
I remember arriving on campus with all the other ECE students, and we were taken to quarantine. I remember meeting everyone in the corridors and running back to our rooms when the security heard everyone yelling. Good times.

Favourite campus memory :
Singing with everyone in my friend's room with the speaker on blast, playing football in an overcrowded field, and the random late night conversations

One thing you will miss the most :
The people, the proximity to your friends

Best thing you learned from here :
How to solve problems under high pressure and how to enjoy life as it comes.

Favourite place in campus :
KCIS, football field, OBH

Biggest Change since your first year :
I can hold a conversation much better, and a lot less inhibitions

Chinmay, without any doubt you are the best roommate I could have ask for. I am surprised how you were able to tolerate me all these times. All those morning dance routine and late night music is something I will cherish forever. I don't know how but whatever the situation was, whatever the time was, you always had a smile on your face. No wonder, I wanted to be your friend from day1. I learnt a lot from you, how to be chill no matter what is happening, that there is a life outside studies and that you can sleep with lights on too. While most of the friendship in college had a selfish side of it, I feel what we had was something too pure. Will miss you men. And also, For record, bhai tera keyboard loud tha. - Hardik Gupta chinmay ma boi, u hit any room with the most infectious energy and smile. its been fun times wit u xD, be it doing rr about research stuff or cracking jokes or just discussing random shit, love the way u smile and light up any room. wishing you the best ahead homie, and keep ballin out, i shall keep visiting for the snacks and witty wisecracks - Sankalp S Bhat

"Oh bhai, kya banda hai yaar tu. The calmest fkin human to ever exist. Like baat karke, khudh ka stress bhi bhool jaate ho. Knowing you has been a blast. Random outings to DLF and our random worldly discussions along them were extremely fun. I hope you achieve everything you want in your life man. Obviously, we are gonna stay connected forever. - Rahul Garg

I think it's safe to say you're the heart and soul of our batch. Every time I talk to you the day just becomes that much brighter. Nobody can forget E209 late-night talks and the in-between snacks (I can confidently say you devoured 80% of them). From stressing about DVD, then DIP, to you landing your job on the day you left, it's been a wild ride. All the best for the future! - Gogate Atharva Sunil

Chinmay, your ever cheerful nature and your ability to take a joke has brought smiles to the faces around you. The memories of our conversations late at night about everything under the Sun will stay with me forever. You're poetic. You're rotund. You're funny, nice and kind. Don't change, buddy. Except maybe for the rotund part. - Aditya Harikrish

I still remember you were the first person I met on campus, it was dinner time at quarantine and I had just reached campus after the online period. I absolutely love the energy that you have within, the late night convos at E-block and ofc that late night munching at 4AM in the night and the sleepless nights doing assignments. Thank you for being such an amazing friend. Tu bhi baaraat mein bula liyo :) -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

one of the sweetest people i know on campus. still remember the day you did the lore drop and i came to know about just how amazing of a poet/writer you are; hoping that you start showcasing those talents to the world at large as well :) really enjoyed playing football alongside you, and i hope that we get to share the same field someday one day again :"). take care brother, and stay in touch pls :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

My brother! These college years have been so much brighter thanks to you. From our random chats in the mess to our football games, it's been an absolute pleasure making these memories together. Your smile always brings a sense of calm and joy. Congratulations on your placement – I have no doubt you'll achieve amazing things! Keep reaching for the stars! - Harshit Gupta

Chinmay brother. We mainly met on the football field and we couldv played together wayyy more often if you weren't always so busy. You're one of the brothers that I made during the long war known as Placements 2024. You're a very cheerful and friendly person to talk to so all i can say is Best of luck in everything that you plan on doing! - Joel Thyparampil Alex

My first impression of you was this cute babyface guy who was always spoke sweetly (almost too sweetly!), and that still holds. I'll miss your candid and almost formal way of talking about everything, and will miss ranting with you about food, grades and everything in between. The very best of luck with your work! Stay cute, and stay in touch! – Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

They should call you dairy milk bubbly since you're very white and have a very bubbly personality. Your presence in a room immediately lights it up, and you are enthusiastic about general conversations. I haven't made many friends from the ECE/D branch, but I am very glad you are one of them. Talking with you always feels comforting and natural, and regardless of how many shitty CHD jokes you make about me, I will definitely miss having you around in college. Please do keep in touch and never let go of that wonderful personality that you have :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

I know we aren't that close, but I've always cherished conversations with you. You're a lovely person. I still remember how you stepped out of your comfort zone and spoke during the fhc event. I wish you all the success in life! - Jatin Agarwala

Ayyyy, always good company, loved the time we played Uno together, honestly very fun times. Sorry for being obnoxiously loud while gaming XD Take care and cheers fam <3 - Aditya Nair

Warm greetings from 'cham cham' were always a joy, as were the days spent playing football together. - Pratyaksh Gautam

Yooo Chinmay. I wish we talked to each other more throughout college but you're easily one of the most interesting people here. Stay the same, ever curious and ever enthusiastic about things and let's meet up whenever we can! - Srijan Chakraborty

Hey Chinmay, loved being your wingmate. I wish I had gotten to know you a little better. You have a wonderful personality with an infectious smile and I hope you always stay that way. Will always remember your unique consistent wave as we walked past each other in the corridor. Hopefully our paths cross again, lets stay in touch! - Anish Mathur

Hii Marathi You give meri ACP pradyuman vibes xD. Its been fun knowing you, especially as a fellow marathi. - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Actually one of the friendliest person jiske saath honestly bordering on bullying behave Kiya hoon main but you always knew I meant it as a joke which is the best because main jokes mei thoda limit cross kr deta lol. Dasa by entrance but desi by heart. You know I mean it as a compliment ❤️ - Aryan Singhal

Hiya Chinmay, We've have some good times in campus. I recall the one night we played Uno and gossiped until late. Pity that did not happen again ://. Dont forget to keep in touch, meetup whenever we both are in blr - Adith John Rajeev

Pados ki auntie.... ab to kettle waapas dede. Jokes aside, a very fun and overtly expressive guy, sometimes comically so. Keep up, man! – Shubhankar Kamthankar

First day on campus :
I reached the campus at the same time as Tanmay and Snehit. It was covid and we were supposed to be quarantined. As far as I remember, it was 2nd of october and the room was old parijat 113 and I ate the Kadamba food. It was lonely and my lan2type-c converter did not work. Asked Keshav for hotspot.

Favourite campus memory :
The banter in Gupta x Manu room (E117). That room was life- the dead poet's society if you may.

One thing you will miss the most :
Evening JCCCCcccc....

Best thing you learned from here :
Those 3 words: kassi, saanp, bond.

Favourite place in campus :
The currently closed tHUB road. I, along with Rahul, saw a peacock with its open feather fly to a great heights. An owl dwelling on a tree besides the road early in the morning while returning from solo walk to Botanical garden and I won the race by sprinting out THE Nikhil Lamba on that very road.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Hairstyle. Partition shifted by nearly a centimeter towards the center.

Dear Jain, hey bhagwan, AEC ke team mate se lekr ab tak, kafi acha vakt beeta hai aapke sath, Dhanyawad aapka AEC mai sambhalne ke liye, kaafi nek intentions hai, but ek ladki ne barbaad kar diya mere dost ko(jk). Yukhtahar mai khane ka discipline and baaki chizo mai bhi kaafi disciplined hai..thoda hma bhi seekh lenge baaki ek saal mai. kaafi ache vakt beeta appke sath, hope this continues - ROHAN GUPTA

Hello to the one and only Mumbai cha asli Don, Chirag Jain. You are the "Forrest Gump" of our friend group - always running, either in a marathon, behind research, or behind your advisors 😂. Whether we are debating something about veganism or Jainism for the umpteenth time or passing out random comments while walking around the campus, you are always unfiltered (unlike your black coffee) and cheer up the atmosphere. You have a golden heart and are always ready to help out your friends. I remember when I got sick you were always there to help. You are someone people can always count on, and I am really glad to have you as a friend. If someone can beat me in a competition of having messed up sleep cycles, it is only you, so I want you to take better care of yourself. I can't even go into how impressive you are for how strictly you follow veganism. Eating daily in yuktahaar is no mean feat, you should get an award. Best of luck for the future and let's make many more amazing memories this year! Jai Maharashtra! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

You have always been there for me, never hesitating to help. From the start, you have introduced me to amazing people here in college. You are a very thoughtful person, and you are one of the few people I feel most comfortable around and can genuinely be myself with. Being with you, I feel I have become a more positive person overall. Your discipline and motivation inspire me. You are incredibly hardworking and smart, and I have no doubt you will be successful. I wish you happiness and I wish you achieve all the success you deserve. All the best! - Surabhi Jain

"By far my favorite vegan (+ jain) on campus. I don't know how you pull it off, you have some next level will power! I still remember that we shared a cab from main gate to the quarantine block when we first came to campus. Who would've thought that the same person will become such a close friend with whom I confide so deeply. Walking with you on campus feels like kisi local celebrity ke saath chal rahe hai, just how many people do you know! Again, I've always admired that about you, you make it look so easy to connect with people. Of course needless to say along with all this padhai me toh phodta hi hai, with an uncanny aptitude for science courses some-

how. Kabhi bhi kuch athletic karne ki iccha ho toh I know whom to contact first, chahe kabaddi khelna ho ki skateboarding seekhna ho, the first person in my mind is you. Khair running out of the word limit here, itna hi kahunga ki its been an absolute pleasure sharing this time in college with you, let's make the next year even more fun. P.S Thane != Mumbai - Tanmay Bhatt

This fake Marathi manus is one of the nicest person on the campus. His hard-working nature and unwavering dedication to veganism are truly admirable. He was the main inspiration that initially sparked my interest in running and has continuously encouraged me to maintain a healthy lifestyle. I am confident that with his strong drive and mental resilience, he will be able to achieve whatever he sets his mind to. - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Youre such a genuine and compassionate person. From conversations in yuktahaar to random late night singing sessions youre such a down to earth guy except jab kisi ka birthday ho, tu apni wale pe aa jata hai. It was fun knowing you man! keep in touch. - Siddh Jain

I first met Chirag when I came to campus, and I'll never forget that semester we worked together on the Mechatronics project and the EW-2 project. It was hectic, but it was also the most fun I've had in college. During that time, I had countless deep conversations with Chirag. He's like an encyclopedia of fascinating opinions on everything from social ethics to college life. And of course, I have to mention Chirag's policy of non-violence—except when it comes to Rohan Gupta, who seems to be the exception to that rule. 😅 Chirag's passion for neuroscience research is truly inspiring. He's incredibly sincere and has a knack for explaining complex concepts—his RnD showcase poster was a standout. Beyond academics, Chirag is a genuinely helpful and kind person. He even tried to get me to ditch my laziness and pick up a sport or start exercising. I guess I'll get around to that one of these days! I had a lot of fun with you, Chirag, and I learned a lot from you. Stay in touch (hopefully we'll meet at PhD.)! :) - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

Aur Amitabh Bachhan, kaisa hai? Apne group ka sabse kalaakar insaan toh aakhir tu hee hai! Aur fass gaye yaar hum dono hee apne-apne ajeeb complicated love stories mei (yh toh abhi hua bhi nhi hai, uske pehele hee dono ka kat jaata hai lol)! But you know what, hota hai, kya hee kr sakte hai! Baaki breathless gaakr toh tu kisi ko bhi impress kr lega aur fir tere poems aakhir kab kaam aayenge?! Huh! - Anjali Singh

HelloChirag, I got to know you as a daily visitor to Yukthahaar. Later I got closer to you while spending time with you in Manu's room. All the weird nonsense we used to speak and all. My story, Yours, Gupta's (This I consider the best) and Manu's. When I look back from the future, I know for sure that these are some of the things that I will remember for sure. More than that one thing is that I was never left out as not a member of a group despite me spending less time with you people. I really hope we meet again. Though I might go to the USA, one part of me is still with you guys always and will always be hoping for the days we were together. Thanks for all the support you have given me during the last few days. It means a lot to me. This is the support that I never received from people I thought were my friends, now I feel sad that I could have made my college life a lot better spent with you people. I will miss you guys a lot. Yours Not so Kassi friend. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Bhai you are one of the most genuine guy in the college. I enjoyed our Yukthaahar convos. All the best bhai. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Chirag is very good singer and talented sprinter. He also has an amazing taste in bollywood music. U made EW-2 bearable for me ! Theres not a single moment ull feel bored when u work with Chirag. Thanks for keeping me entertained throughout the EW-2 project ! Hope we cross paths again in the future! - Harish Umasankar

First day on campus :
So many feelings, from being nervous, to being excited. Took time to find the way around, but meeting new people and collectively figuring things out was fun. With COVID around, it was special, maintaining distance and keeping masks on and a different way to start the college journey.

Favourite campus memory :
Playing various sports, trying to win every single match and forming new friendships along the road.

One thing you will miss the most :
Late-night study sessions during examinations, with collective stress, hoping to understand the subject one day before.

Best thing you learned from here :
Apart from coursework and lectures - Value of resilience. Obstacles are opportunities for growth. Ability to adapt, persevere and emerge stronger than ever.

Favourite place in campus :
Library - Very peaceful and quiet place. Best place to be when you have nothing to do. Pass time by reading newspapers and take a nap occasionally due to the air conditioning.

Biggest Change since your first year :
More practical, mature, independent. Evolution of my perspective on life and personal growth from experience.

Dhanush, you are the one I can always count on, when no one is there in doing a thing - be it a movie, a course or anything. I like the times we watched movies together in workspace. We missed watching poor things. You are so great and multi-talented - swimming, tennis, TT, badminton, chess, Current affairs, English, GATE, ... Yet you stay simple without any arrogance. I don't know why you lift call with such irritating tone. Normally, you would talk well. You know a lot of things and I like to discuss about them, but you tell me to watch for yourself. We have gone to many movies together. Like I said, many times only our interests match like in case of those movies. Thanks for supporting me in many courses and being my teammate. I genuinely like your work, but you just delay it.Sometimes, I value it more than mine. Again, you know a lot more people than me. You have so many values. You have a lot of control, and no one can lure to something. You are a great friend.All the best for your career and stay happy. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Hey Roomie! Hoping to play tennis with you again, hoping to go on a few more trips and hikes with you again. Will miss having someone to default to to spend time with on campus. I'll always remember the late-night walks from the workspace/lab, sharing countless meals, and the DS project crunch. Thanks for being there throughout the entirety of college life (and further :D). - Pramod Rao Budramane

You are one of the most intelligent and capable souls I have met, Keep rocking! From the first year to the fourth year, we've shared so many conversations, memories, so much care, and a lot and a lot of love—you've given me so much. I can't imagine college without you, and I'm so grateful for everything you've done for me. I just wish I had more of everything with you, and especially the rooming up stuff - I hope life gives us back the years of rooming up that we missed with extra more. Thanks for everything, you mean a lot to me <3. - Gokul Praneetha

Wish we met before in college, but I am happy that we did atleast, and yes, we can always make up for all the lost in bangalore! You're one of the kindest, very rational, and most humble people I have met! You were always giving the most logical advice and always there to help whenever I needed. I cherish the moments we spent together from our random hostel discussions and the amazing Vizag trip to our blouse stitching & farewell saree experience! Also, a special thanks for helping at the farewell and being there to check in on me <3. Looking forward to many more awesome memories in bangalore :) - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Having the most incoherent, nonsensical conversations and seeing who breaks first was always a lot of fun :) - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

You are one of the first people I got to know from IIIT! A sweet, smart person with a smile to greet always. I cherish all the moments we hung out, especially our Goa trip. It was absolutely fun roaming around in the heat with you guys, and they are definitely some of the best memories of my college life. Hope we get to meet again soon, and all the best for everything ahead! - Swetha Vipparla

Whenever we talked, we had some really nice talks. I always wished we could talk more but it didnt happen much :(I wish we can cover the lost time in bangalore :) All the best and wish u all the success and happiness. - Annam Venika Sruthi

Hiee! You are such a sweet and smart person. Our interactions on discord and random group cp rounds when we were online, our late night talking in room vibing about random things are cherished memories <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best

*<3! - Anusha Nath Roy

*Dheeraja and I were ICPC teammates for all four years. It was great fun doing ICPC together, and I will never forget the online round in our second year and the Pune regionals that same year. Dheeraja is also one of the best programmers I have seen on campus. All the best for your future endeavours! - Lokesh V

Hi Soda, had lot of fun hanging out with you, basketball me iss noob ko ball dene dhanyewad, aur in general bhi kaphi help ki hai, though dikhate nahi ho! All the best aage ke liye! see ya! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

What a transformation you went through from 10 SG in UG1 to farewell shenanigans in UG4 xD Still one of the most hardworking & helpful people on campus. Cracked dancer, will miss club / batch dances with you a lot. Will not forget that "speech" you gave in Renao for quite some time. Need to go turf more with you fr. Certified baller - A Kishore Kumar

Baller Sodaa, gpt wagera sab lite, tu best copilot hai. Kaafi zyaada fun tha tere saath baith ke random coding projects karna. I don't think OBH mai koi bhi tere jitna helpful hai. Jab dekho tab random logo ko help karte rehta hai. I remember mere POIS project ke deadline ke din tu ekdam hi dead tha, fir bhi jaise taise karke aa gaya mere room aur copilot ban ke emotional support de diya jab tak jaag saka. Kaafi wierd lag raha hai knowing ki tu ab nahi hoga OBH mai. Beech beech mai campus aate rehna aur milte rehna 💪🏻 - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

Sir, sir...kya mast aadmi hai tu. Bilkul seedha seedha baat karta hai. Aur saala jab bhi kuch nahi padho, end mein padha leta tah tha. Double room ke time pe kitna nalagiri kaari hai saathme. Will miss us bhai..... - Saurav Chhatani

Hii dhruv.. I really feels weird calling you dhruv now . you are soo cool and its really nice talking to you and hanging out with you. I am fan of your dance sir, although i have said it to you , really wish to stay in touch with you. hoping success for your future , more power to you . 🔥 - Syed Imami

sod ma boi, og since day one before u were even soda (rip deathdose). will never forget our scamming days, and thanks for everything in 1st year xD, tu hamesha gawd rahega. will always respect your grind, intelligence and work ethic, and a smile that's wider than the moon. bahut maze aaye tere saath, and stay genuine and happy like u always are bhai- love, from sand - Sankalp S Bhat

Soduu darling❤️. Maza aaya bhai tere saath bahut. Literally sabse pyara banda bhai, itni saari chize ki hai apan ne. True basketball player bhai tu to.OG. Roz shaam ko bss yahi wait hota tha tu kab bulane aaega but then me to already pahuch gya 😂 Itni gossips ki hai apanlogo ne ki kya batau. Bahut mem-

Bhai, you are one of the only people who is liked by everyone I was not sus about. Became a comfort person so fast XD. I like how you have started using men unironically cause of my rants.Thanks listening to my BS. And you getting old not older. Also smol advise don't say carry. Missing icecream bhai. - Smruti Biswal

One of the nicest people I've known, miss the fun times we had while playing Valo. Still remember the loss streak we had in summers. Hopefully we still continue it. - Shavak Kansal

Absolute hottie. 'Nuff said - Aryan Singhal

Moshi moshi soda-kun! You are easily the most fun person in college and I love your partyy vibe so much. I remember starting me tu bina bhand hue bhi toh sbse bhand rehta tha, sbse pehle shirt utarke naachta tha😂. Love discussing one piece plots with you and thanks for helping me so much in courses like cso, osn and ds ofc😉😉. The wildest and happiest person I know! The ballerrr!! Itne raand reels bhejna band mat krna mujhe kbhi bhi😂 Video call krte rehene har hafte varna gaand mardunga, blr ata rahunga mai tujhse milne 5th year have a gadda ready for me😉 - Siddharth Jain

Bhai soda, tu poore college me sabse honest banda hai, hamesha sabko support karta rehta hai and utna hi vibe bhi hai. Kya maza aata tha raat me noodle bar jaane me aur anime dekhne me toh. Also tu one of the only logo me se hai jisko mai kabhi bhi kuch recommend kiya ho, kitni bhi slow aur boring movies ho, hamesa try karta tha, woh toh bohot accha lagta tha mughe. Also almost hamesha honest review bhi deta hai. Also soda itna time nikaal ke sabki help karta tha hamesha uske liye bhi thank you. Itna guide kiya hai tu mughe sab intern ke time pe, maine toh 2nd year me hi decide kar liya tha ki jo soda ne kiya tha wohi karunga, you are the bond that I look up to. :heart:, BC MAVS Finals ek game saath me vc pe dekhte hai. Love you brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

sodeeee, one of the most chill and mast banda I've ever met. should have done more dances together in college :p - Srujana Vanka

First year mai poore batch ko carry karne se lekar, exam ke khuch ghante pehele poora subject speedrun karke pass karwaane se, kya badiiya insaan raha re tu. From starting out as a seedha saadha vegetarian to transitioning towards a party animal, college happened :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Ece lost one Kassi, cse got one kassi god soda...Jpmc mai bhi keep carrying everyone 💪 - Jewel Benny

Sodaaa. You just got it brother. Your vibe was insane and I LOVED your energy. It was amazing to meet you and slightly regret not getting to know you more - Srijan Chakraborty

Cutie bhai soda. Hamesha hasta rehta hai. One of the smartest people I know ❤️. Tujhe dekh kar toh bohot motivate hua hun hamesha. Going to miss annoying you for everything. Going to miss laughing with you at the dumbest things possible. Pact banate hai yaar haar saal birthday par milne ka...saath mein celebrate karenge. - Tanmay Goyal handsome boi soda. Selfie lover - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Sutteri. Kisine socha tha wo sidha saadha soda aise ban jaayega. Bhopa sa naadan sa aaya tha abhi graduate na hote hote reh gaya. I think tere saath padne mein kaafi easy hota tha cause match kar paate the ek dusre ko apan. Aur humour to dono ka hi ganda hai (maybe tera thoda jyada) to apne jokes pe sirf khud hi haste the. 5 saal baad jab milega tab tak Deepti ko pata lena. - Shreyas Revankar

Soda bc, mavs Jeet rhi bc iss Saal bc luka has arrived, crazy helpful throughout college bhai, milte rhenge bc - Arnav Pandey

Sabse OP character in IIIT-H, at one point was a part of every major group, Soda is the GigaChad. Wednesday & Sat he is busy for some official purposes, other than that, you could any time hop into his room anytime. Carried the whole batch in many courses, only guy to be able to convert from EC to CS, chillest-chaddest-most-gangsta dude. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Lord Soddduuuu Tere liye kya hi likhu 😭😭😭 Thanks for getting me through courses and college. Tu jaanta nhi hoga but tu bohot mast banda he bhai. Convocation pe milio... need to give you something hehehhe. Aur paseena hoga toh dur hi rehna :joy: bc - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Aisa dusri maale pr rehta h tu but srsly I've had so much fun with you! Online mein chilling on discord, scamming on discord and the drama surrounding any and every submission/exam have been ✨✨. One of the first things I've known about you is tu Vicky Kaushal ke Ghar mein rehta h. Between the stupid jokes and Tera har course phodna, you've been a good friend <3 - Shivangi Agarwal

You have improved significantly from the RL fledgling you were in UG2 fr, maybe even become better than me :/ unless I start grinding again :) Tall, rich, pretty boy fr. Based human, but pls stop playing RL dead game - A Kishore Kumar

Aur mittal.....bohot saari great memories together. Woh speedrun wala game khelna se leke IPL dekhne mein bohot time nikal gaya. Bohot caring aur sweet banda hai tu.....mere jaise nalle ki har science course mein madat karta tha. Thanks for always being there.....All hearts!! - Saurav Chhatani

Best gaming buddy especially if you want to play outer wilds. Also brings amazing vada pav. - Kushagra Kharbanda

mittal ma boi, can't believe itna similar aadmi h tu i am surprised sometimes (except the height xD). be it discussing pokemon, or craving about food and new cusines, or enjoying cricket together or playing word games, these years have been a blast with u bhai. one of the nicest, sweetest and genuine guys ive had the pleasure of knowing, stay happy and take care boss. cnd h to tere saath aur saal to bitayenge hi xD, looking forward to research rr and more years of fun wit u (outer wilds khelenge pakka) - Sankalp S Bhat

Mittal rich mumbai man. Goated gamer and fellow rkpl member. Makau and late night cricket sessions were the best bhai. Also vo vadapav laate rehna bhai :heart: All the best man - Knv Karthikeya

You're honestly one of the coolest people I know - always great company, always great to talk to about any random thing, and you always bring a certain level of brightness and energy to whatever group or conversation you're in that I think nobody does better. I'm so happy to have gotten to spend time with you, from watching and discussing cricket to playing TT (I swear one day I'll beat you 😭) to flexing about Worlde/Squares (okay I don't think I'll ever actually beat you 😂). Just wish I'd known you sooner. Stay this cool (and, well, this hot), and stay in touch 🔪 - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli Prolly the richest guy of the batch. Lived with Kat and Vicky, one of the few in the batch who is taller than me. Fellow MI fan.

A great soul, best luck bro! Miss those online discord nights. - Ayan Agrawal

Chadly guy with chadly tastes. Kiryu and Nishiki ain't gonna work dawg. I think Kiryu and Haruka would match us better. - Aayush Bhandari

Hey there, Sabu. The Oxford Dictionary defines 'connoisseur' as 'an expert judge in matters of taste.' I would define it as you—be it food, songs, shows, places, or friends. ;) I admire how you stay so calm and wise in the face of every emotion, while I am the complete opposite. I have so many great memories of college with you—tujhe aur Siddharth ko cricket conversations mai third wheel karna, ek dusre ke pov se duniya dekhne ki koshish karna, Kasol trip, standups dekhna, har baar soupy noodles se disappoint hona, and many more. Stay in touch, buddy! Going to Pan-Asian restaurants is no fun without you guiding us on what to order, and somehow it always turns out amazing. Apne chacha chaudhary ko bhul mat jana <3 - Harshita Gupta

Mittal Boii. One of the most laid-back and chill people I've met on campus. I've never seen you stressing about anything and you always manage to deliver the best quality of work. There's never a dull moment when you are around and it's always fun hanging out with you. I'll remember the memories we made along the way and I wish you all the best with your future endeavours! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Italian and Asian lover 👀. The ameer dost of the group. Kabhi bhi cricket se related kuch bhi ho to tujhe pata hota hai. Best gamer. Teri, vedant aur mihir ki animer sessions ne kaafi disturb kiya hai mujhe but tumne mujhe almost AOT pe hook kar diya tha. - Shreyas Revankar

Thank you for being the one dude who prefers exactly the same anime and games as I do 😭 Keep grinding and here's to more playthroughs :) Shoooooooogunnnnnn ka yo? - L Lakshmanan

You're the one person I can vibe with kaise bhi. How do you manage it? Love your energy, love your vibe and honestly, one of the most interesting people on campus. Still not saying sorry for not watching 'Attack on Titan' though 😘 - Srijan Chakraborty

Kaise ho chote bhaiyaa! Aapke itne hot, smart aur stress-free rehena ka raaz toh batayiye?? Absolutely love your cricket addiction and hope to see every match of India and RR together with you, whether in person or online xD. Bada maja ata hai tere sath bkchod discussions krne me whether it be team projects, assignments, cricket or nyt puzzles xD. Stay the same buddy and come to the wing fast! Too sad to go to washroom everyday bina teri khidki me jhake ki tu kya krra😂❤️ - Siddharth Jain

Mittal boiiiiiii. I know we don't talk a whole lot, but I thought you should know that you're a lovely, kind person that I have always looked up to (and that's not just because you're one of the few people taller than me smh). I still remember how you carried me after the scorpion bite, and wonder what I would have done had you not been there. Hoping for more fun times ahead, it's not like we're graduating anytime soon - Jatin Agarwala

Bhai we are the OG anime enjoyers of CND. Enjoyed watching many anime with you and the others like Steins Gate, Terror in Resonance, Sakurada Reset (:( ), etc. Those are one of my favourite memories, being able to watch something I enjoy with friends. Also loved going to multiple IPL and India matches with you :) . Also forgib me, I will complete Outer Wilds asap :(. Let's continue to keep in touch (obv I mean after 5th year, ie given we both graduate on time XD) Lub <3 - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

"Best roomie ever...Jitna ye roast karta hai usse zyada khayal bhi rakhta hai. Faaltu hai bhai single rooms toh :(AOT se lekar RL tak...har cheez ke best recommendations de sakta hai banda...Man is living life at its peak without taking any bt. Bande ka Google kaise laga ye toh bhagwaan hi jaanta hai...but future mein Google ka CEO bhi ban sakta hai. Also, agle saal RR pakka jeetegi chinta mat kar tu. Worst case IPL hi khareed lena. - Tanmay Goyal

If Mittal was there in NYC on 9/11, we would have still had one of the two towers standing now. Most based and wholesome guy, can even give hugs from a floor below. Certified pokemon enthusiast (not as good as me tho). Too chill to be in CND that shouldve been some clerical error. You will be missed bruh - Abhijith A

Almost as good as me at table tennis. Had loads of fun playing TT for hours on end in at 4 AM! Ever cheerful, the memories of laughing our heads off together will stay with me forever ❤️ - Aditya Harikrish

mittal boii (the anime guy) bhai asian khana khana sikha diya tune sabko mast, kabhi proper northeast chalke khate hai bhai or tu mujhe bike kab khareed ke de raha hai mai kabse wait kar raha hu and mai bnglr aata hu jaldi, milke mast party varti karte hai #rk - Prasoon Garg

The best RK member evaa! Thanks for carrying me up the stairs :* Batate rehna upar weather kesa hai. See you in office xD. - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Chahe jitne RK ke logon ke influence mai aajaye, hamesha hamara chotu sa mittal boi innocent sa pokemon, anime aur cricket ke duniya mai mast rehta xD Hopefully you never change from the wholesome lot you are and keep getting us vada pav everytime you come back from Mumbai hehe. P.S. I write down all your witty jokes and make a set out of them. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Hii Mittal Heavy anime kassi...been fun knowing you and say hi to katrina bhabhi xD - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Please invite me to your wedding. Please keep it in some Jaipur Udaipur Fort. Also Mittal is the man with no haters. The best 6 feet 3 inch guy to ever exist. Also, you are the go-to guy if we want to order anything good, so the guy with the best choices - Italian, Asian, Mexican, Indian, you name it - Mittal knows the taste, recipe and ingredients 😂😂. Also I have always wondered how you keep yourself calm even after knowing that 80% your syllabus is left and the exam is in the morning and still get the best scores. I call you - the Gentleman with the best Choices - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Mittal What a guy, ekdam vibey. Watching steins gate, and seeing you defend steins gate against vedant's infinite questions will always be peak college memory especially jab shreyas ko room se nikaal dete the steins gate dekhne ke liye. Watching cricket without you is so boring, har ball pe kuch na kuch opinion and har player ke liye kuch words, you add so much vibe and character to everything you do. Tere food reccomedations are top top tier 🙌 hamesha reccomend karte rehna. love you brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore really cool headed guy with a lot of passions. it was really fun doing niche stuff with you. GiggityGoo forever. HMU every time you read this and we will play a game jisme kisi ki haar nahi hoti. - Mihir Rawat

Would ask how's the weather up there, but the weather is always good with you around. Would say that the campus will suck without you but you're CND. - Shashwat Singh

First day on campus :
I was very nervous, had left home for the first time. Straight into quarantine in the most secluded room ever. I was scared but then despite of the quarantine we sneaked into each other' rooms, played badminton, cricket, and cards in the common area with the fear that guard might show up anytime.

Favourite campus memory :
All the times IBB sat in the same room. Times we played songs on JBL while walking. KCIS ki chat pe ghanto baithe rehna. Walk krte hue ultra random bakchodiya. Quarantine me dusro ke room me ghusna, corridor me badminton, cards khelna..

One thing you will miss the most :
I will miss my friends a lot because in all the times, be it good or bad, irrespective of the place, they were there with me. It is not the college that matters, it is the friendships that will bring tears to my eyes every time.

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I learned from here was to handle all kinds of emotions and feelings healthily. We were bombarded with all kinds of mixed feelings and dealing with them properly is the best thing I have learned. This journey has brought me maturity which I am grateful for.

Favourite place in campus :
KCIS ki chat. Dosto ke room. Faculty quarters ki shanti.. DSAC ki balcony.. H30S.. Long roads with lush green trees.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I was much more susceptible to drowning in emotions in the first year. Throughout the course, the biggest change in me has been the ability to cater to my emotions healthily. I used to get nervous very easily, and now I am like nipat lenge yrr..

bhaat to do gifat ready rakha tha tere liye socha tha uske saath kahunga lekin societal pressure ke kaaran testemonial likhna pad raha hai. Let this serve as the most authentic description of what you seemed like to me. You must know that there are 2 sides to you. One is the exterior side that talks normally, behaves in an appropriate manner, and calculates every step, (maybe a bit manipulative too :)) . I like this part of you too. But you went further ahead with me. With me, you showed me a side that's thoughtful, straightforward, and capable of having the most articulate and deep thoughts. You trusted me when you were vulnerable, and shared all your troubles and insecurities. It is this side of yours that I will always cherish. You have been selfless, helping me whenever I needed it with all those assignments and projects. People weave a garland of promises, but you actually fulfill them with your actions. You have been a brother in need, and the only one for whom I have reached the word limit :) hehe boi - Aryamaan Basu Roy

Aur bhai tiwari !! Kya haal hain ?? Kassi saale. Ye 3 cheez sunte se hi tujhe Mera yaad aajana chahiye. Apna group ka glue tha tu. Sab ka secret jaanta tha saala aur khud ka kisi ko nhi bataya 😏😏. Apna bakchodi kabhi khatm hi nhi hoti. Tere se bakchodi karte karte toh, clg mein 5 saal aur reh sakta hu 😂. Hamesha help karne ke liye taiyar rehta tha. Aise hi rho and mera degree nikaalne mein bhi help karde 😢. Chal thike byee .... - Akash C R

Hi Diviiii ! I still remember the time jab we connected on insta ki ""bhaisahab, tu bhi indori, mein bhi indori""... and that's how we got connected, I'll miss teri voh late night philosophy aur angrezii gyaan :D but voh late night walks, har topic par discussion, voh farewell, voh felicity... voh jc par baithna. Bss khush rahe and just go with the flow and jaldi se bangalore aa milne... aur jo mene bola hai, voh krde (iykyk) 😂 also, mittal ji still misses you😬 - Tisha Dubey

Aur mere lambe sandh, I hope baad mai kabhi time mile toh you will read all this,I remember jab bhi koi bt hoti thii sath mai ibb ki rajya sabha bithaiyi jati thii aur fir dher sara discussion hone ke baad mai ending conclusion sirf gane sunna nikalta thaa 😂 .... tailor swift ke gane sun sun kr deemag zarur kharab hota tha but I hope you will find your tailor swift 💒 one day. Sirf ek baat ka dukh hai muze tuzese, tune mitanshi ko patane ke liye muze gay bana diya bc (aisa wing man bhagwan kisi ko na de 🙏), tho I will always remember our midnight walks and runs to the David at 2am, there are just sooo many memories that words can't represent. - Naval Surange

*Will always remember how you made me feel good on my first day on campus. Was just entering OBH after quarantine with all my luggage to check in to my hostel room, when you came over and welcomed me as if we were close friends and helped me settle into my room. I had barely spoken to many people online, and this gesture made me feel very welcomed that day, and I'll always remember! My first performance on campus, was also with you, ""Tu Jane Na"" and ""Tera Hone Laga Hoon"" in the amphi! with Hari, Aryamaan, Abhijith, and Gogate.. Again a performance and practice session which is very close to me! Didn't get to spend much time with you for the rest of my time on campus, but will always remember these! Thanks! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Hello, Anvith, sir. A very interesting personality carried me in the DIP project; I have always frustrated this guy, but don't worry, it's not going to end. All the best for the future, man, and keep in touch!! - ROHAN GUPTA

I have never expected that someone with similar interests as me would be my roommate. My first time sharing a room with someone else and having you as my roommate was like a gift to me. Ngl I missed talking to you a lot in the final year. I had a blast talking about different games, movies and other stuff and thanks for introducing me to a lot of franchises I never really thought of. Keep on the grind and have fun in your way. - Bodgam Rohan Reddy

Certified weebda. Decent at cp. Will miss talking to you about the randomest shit possible - A Kishore Kumar

Absolutely based selection of t-shirts (and the individual too). We will watch your career with great interest. - Amal Sunny

Was fun doing ICPC together :) All the best for everything, and hope we get to meet again! - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Have fun at Google bro :) See you around! - Ananya Sane want to be as consistent with anything as you are with breakfast :p stay degenerate stay excellent - George Paul

Anvith is one of my closest friends on campus. We initially joined forces for the ICPC along with Dheeraja. Our team had highs and lows, with qualifying for the regionals in the second year being the highlight. Anvith is exceptional at not taking any stress and pressure. Whether it's academics, internships, or other commitments, he handles everything with a cool and carefree attitude. From the early days of ICPC to discussions in the mess about gaming, nationalism, Andhra politics, chess, and perspective drawing, to laughing over memes from Reddit and 4chan, and navigating internship and placement seasons, Anvith has been a truly fun and knowledgeable person to hang out with. I also wish he becomes little more social. I'll never forget his iconic line, "Just get lucky." All the best for your future endeavors. - Lokesh V

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

"There's only one word I can use to describe to use this guy, and introvert. While he's very reserved on several things, he has an unbridled motivation towards Final Fantasy and a few anime. While I can say I was able to share a few interests with him, I wish I could've known him better, though I know that's not happening with how introverted he is. Probably the only guy introverted enough to pass on a free trip, and avoid ICPC training

You are by far the most welcoming and warm person I have ever met. Thank you for bringing me into your little circle. I genuinely believe it changed the course of my college life for the better. I don't know how I would have survived college without you as my (slightly less) socially awkward partner. 425 forever <333 - Ameya Sharma

I (don't) love you the least xD You're a ball of energy and happiness in my life. Some days even just talking to you for a lil bit makes my day. I wish you all the success and happiness in the world, you deserve it all. I'm so grateful to have you as my friend in life. Core memory has to be your first bday celebration on campus. Drinking is ALWAYS more fun with you. will miss you pardesi - Shreeya Singh

Hello Bochan :33 One of the smartest people I've met. Always got stuff when needed. I could always rely on you and I'm grateful for that. Sorry for the 96% moss :3. Stay in touch. Plan will happen i believe💪 - Prerak Srivastava

Hiya Bob. Again, thanks for texting me the day before college started, else I would've been in those cringe groups we used to bitch about xD. Also, who'd I sync all my courses with, and who'd be my teammate in all those projects, jeez. Fr, u think we've scammed more projects than we've actually done properly? We are Groot🤜 Oh right, and I still hate u for making me watch the babysitter and the package. - Adith John Rajeev

One of the best people I met in college. Comfortable kar deti hai tu saamne waale ko. I'll always cherish the tantra pe tere bt talks aur Saturday ke morning walks. I still remember jab first time mile the there kofte wale comparisons. Confidence to alag hi hai tere paas and it's completely deserved.Aise hi phodte reh, jo bhi karegi life mein top hi karegi kuch doubt hi nahi hai. Touch mein rehne ka try karna bas. - Shreyas Revankar

one hell of a chaotic person who needs 20+ alarms to wake up and ends up waking everyone else instead but makes up for it by always knowing when to give a hug. "sruj hotspot de na" xD miss the times we'd run back to each other after being hurt by men, and i DON'T miss the faltu potty wale updates. itna ulti mat kar, ab kaun dekhega tujhe :p - Srujana Vanka

Hello gurl, Accha hua CLD me ek toh cutie thi, love that you have so much personality and itne interest se hamesha kuch na kuch kahani sunate rehti hai. Itna energy and enthusiasm, hamesha kisi na kisi ko daat te rehti hai. CLD dinner pe toh bohot maza aaya,

First day on campus :
QUARANTINE LOL. Came to the campus after being one year at home. Spent around a week in quarantine, It was a nice experience meeting online friends (illegally :p) and listening to their stories. Even apex meets were engaging. Met new peeps and toured the campus after we got released from the prison.

Favourite campus memory :
Can't point out a single one. Midnight walks, DLF food sessions, Impromptu late night rides, Goa trip, Healthy interactions with juniors :) and a random friendship from there all stand out.

One thing you will miss the most :
[Definitely not this F college] Gonna miss the fun I had with my friends and late night convos with my dearest buddies <3 .

Best thing you learned from here :
Don't dwell on the past; learn to let go. Stars can't shine without darkness. Expect more from yourself than from others. Be optimistic and keep smiling :)

Favourite place in campus :
Definitely OBH. From gossiping, watching cricket matches, enjoying with friends to taking interactions, bathing together and burning the doors. It's the care of address for our shitty activities.

Biggest Change since your first year :
A lot has changed! The experiences here have made me grow into a more mature person and become less introverted.

You were the wholesome person I'd met during the Discord era, always spamming adorable cats and dogs and bunnies and what not. Fast forward to campus life, turns out you're cuter than all of those :) It's been such a delight knowing you - you've been my go-to person for beating TT teams two levels above us, sharing random internet factoids and reels, all sorts of cute animals, nerding over fonts and colours and designs and wallpapers and what not, and yes - simping over Emma Watson et al. :P It always made my day to hear you knock just to show me a random meme or homescreen setup or font, and it still does to see your pings with this content every day <3 Conversations and exchanges with you are always a stress buster and a mood lifter, so keep them coming :D PS - what is vision, but a means for man to appreciate: 1, #8080f8 and 2, Emma Watson at the Noah premiere PPS - my crayon, pastel homescreen setups are amazing stfu 😭 PPPS - I still don't believe you were a bully at school. Nope, not falling for that. - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli You're really easy to see even with my eyesight xD. It's been a lot of fun with you over the past 1.5 years. We've bonded and worked on (a lot of) group assignments and I've learnt a lot from you, honestly. Your presentation and people skills are unmatched, and even though some (being polite here) of them are clearly BS, I hope to use some in the future ;). I will miss the outings with the gang and working with you and Anusha, both of you are the biggest cuties I know. Let's stay in touch and meet when you're in Bangalore or anywhere near me. All the best for the future and please give me a job when you become a billionaire. - Aaron Anthony Monis

Hello sir! So happy for all your success! Thora paisa idhar bhi dedijie please. Thank you, bye. - Rahul Garg

The biggest animal lover I know. The dog, cat and panda pics you share are the loveliest messages I receive. You're the nicest and kindest supporter of child labour I know ❤️. While you weren't any good at it, our TT sessions wouldn't be complete without your antics in the court, from breaking Vansh's racket to missing 20 smashes in a row and blaming your teammate for losing. You're genial, funny and meticulous. Love you! - Aditya Harikrish

hi freyyyyyyyyy :D you are genuinely an inspiration for me! was super fun working with you as a teammate on SO many thingsss. continue being your hustling sigma grindset goofy self! - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

You're one of the most motivated and calm people I've seen on campus. Whatever the situation, you seem to find a way out! I have really learnt a lot from you, thanks for that :)) It was always amazing to talk to you and I love your enthusiasm! Keep sending doggo pics please :)) and the doggo GIF chrome extension is the most amazing chrome extension ever! All the best for your future! Let's keep in touch! - Gaurav Singh

Hiee! You have been such an amazing brother there to support and guide me even when it was hard <3. Keep smiling like you made me smile <3. - Your little sister <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

Don't delete me from your life like Splitwise please. One of the most street smart people I've met. Mad respect for you for everything - starting from your internships to projects to how you handle things. Thanks for being there throughout my campus life 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Freyyy, you are a really nice, kind, helping person. I like how you are so focussed and irrespective of your emotions never stop your work. I really wish I could learn that from you. And I loved the time we spent together. You have always been there for me. I wish that we are always like this and hopefully go on a trip one day ;-; I will miss you and I wish that you are happy in your life. Like really happy, I want to see you smile and laugh always. - Annam Venika Sruthi

Hii Freyy.. that one wholesome friend one could ever ask for! Would really miss our laid back Kishore Kumar's and Lata Mangeshkar's singing session with our worst possible voices and getting sunrise timelapses! Doing the campus photo walk still pending. Thank you for existing and making my day by sending cute doggo reels! Inserting loads of ""yellow hearts"" <3. - Anjali Singh

Hii Frey You.are.such a sweet person. I have always noticed how helpful you are and please never change. Your love for animals is adorableee. Let me tell you that you are one of the nicest dudes I have met <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

A good friend, a fellow cricket player, and an admirer of the sport. Had known you from the very beginning, since you picked me in the IIITH-IPL auction for Jetha kai jabaz (right?). Since then we have to together in almost every cricket match. Had a great run in course teams as well (SMAI music generation). You are, I think, by far the best presentation guy, somebody who knows how to sell. Also the most active person in startups from our batch. It was great fun hanging out with you. Made so many wonderful memories. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was very different that what one would expect, since I was part of the covid batch. But I went straight from main gate to quarantine lol. However, ended up meeting a lot of people with whom I had only talked on discord or on video calls.

Favourite campus memory :
Playing Marz at Felicity 2022 with the best group of musicians :)

One thing you will miss the most :
Enjoying long walks with close friends and having amazing discussions over meals.

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I learned from here was the value of genuine friendships. Whether it was late-night study sessions, spontaneous adventures, or simply hanging out between classes, the bonds I formed here have made my college experience unforgettable.

Favourite place in campus :
E9 ofc :))

Biggest Change since your first year :
My overall take on life has improved considerably from the first year, including my goals in life, all because of the people here at IIIT :)

GOTTA TALK ABOUT THE HIDDEN GEM OF IIIT bhai yeh banda: pehle toh possibly the best guitarist i have seen play live, upar se delhi ka launda but has lived in bombay?!? what cultural maxing is this. THEN ISS BANDE KI RESEARCH :bruh: dude pushing papers out like he some professor. you inspire me dude. Pondi trip was an absolute highlight, but in hindsight, its also your work ethic that amazes me man. And our music conversations :cry: you have no idea how hard it is to find cool people who will listen. G strings mein induct hona mere liye hall of fame mein induct hone jaisa moment tha fr fr. We need to do more trips, I am telling you. S-2 khaali rakhio (atleast thoda sa, pata hai teri overachieving waali aadat mite not allow you to be free but haan, also tab tak dusra SysAd dhundle mere sher) You have my number. jab mann kare text/call. PS: We need to perform together on stage. I have a few ideas, karte hain discuss. - Manav Chaudhary

Some crazy obsessions you have with things like Star Wars and RRC. A very very caring dude and you always love to keep your things neat and tidy like your laptop lol. I really like your dedication to your career and motivation to keep churning out papers and hogging the servers lol. Sad that you stopped playing football as you were really good at it. Hopefully, we'll meet in the future too. All the best for your aspirations to get a PhD. I don't doubt that you'll achieve all that you have wished for. - Shubh Agarwal Will always remember you as one of my first friends on campus. The number of conversations we've had with no mentions of drones is still at zero, always keep up with that:) - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

Man it has been an honor to know you on campus. Right from POIS to Pondi trip, every memory is truly incredible. I honestly can't wait to see what awesome stuff you do in life man. Grateful to have you as a friend. Let's stay in touch and all the best. - Akshit Gureja

Heyyy Ubuntu and Musk geek or shall I say geek in general(in my defense 3rd yr mai paper kaun nikalta hai), jokes apart so proud of youu..had fun talking to you on discord and watching you guys stream some car game (while I struggled to even understand the controls). Thankyou for being so persistent on helping me customize my ubuntu setup and not so thankyou for judging me for not being an Ubuntu fan in the earlier days :p. I think I still have some guitar covers you sent me (literally heaven for the ears), will try to keep them as safe as possible..All the best for future (tho u don't need it, I know you can ace anything effortlessly) - Khushi Agarwal

Keep doing robot robot and some dayy you'll reach Elon. Literally don't know how you did as much research here as you did, and that's so cool! Hoping you achieve everything you want, and Cars 1 is objectively the best out of the three :) - L Lakshmanan someone who talks NON-STOP about the things he likes but makes up for it by being an even better listener. thanks for being a decent-ish company for the movie watch parties :p jkjk hehe. keep playing the guitar so amazingly, as you always do <3 - Srujana Vanka

gorovvvvvv! thanks for being my roomieee i still remember the first day when we transported your guitar and the MULTIPLE room shifting shenanigans we had to go through. continue doing chad robotrobot helikopter-helikopter stuffff! - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

First person I talked to in IIIT, instantly vibed. He's been my inspiration. Always encouraged me to push and grind. A lot of what I am today, I owe to him. - Yash Mehan still remember telling you that I'm a drummer and you FREAKING OUT. stay metal \„/ - George Paul

Dude, jamming for Meltdown/Felicity easily ranks among the best memories I have on campus. PLAY THE GUITAR MORE you fool. It'll take you places. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

I have never seen someone be this excited, motivated and obsessed about working towards something cool. I am sure you're gonna make all of us proud, being one of the best IIIT produce from our batch. All the best and hope you reach where you want to, and get what you want, every sacrifice you'd made along the way is going to be worth it! - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Mr. Op Guitarist! I met you during the online semester and you continued being my online friend even after we came to campus lol. You are one of the most driven people I know, with your head constantly in research and always striving to get better. I am sure you will end up being very successful in life with your commitment and zeal. I just hope you remember me when you're famous :). Oh also, who can forget your amazing guitar skills! I hugely admire the way you play, and I did come to many of your shows okay, even though you say I didn't smh. Thanks for sending me an abundance of reels daily and keeping me entertained with your star wars talk and complaints about life. Looking forward to meeting you again soon. All the best! - Swetha Vipparla

"I really love your craze and dedication towards research. Even if you are annoying when ranting and complaining despite achieving so much, you are an absolute treasure of a friend. I still remember our crazy scooter adventures during the trip, and I hope you ride behind me someday again xP. I wish you the best in your future path, and I know it will all fall into place well. Maybe if you pick up jogging seriously, someday we run a marathon together :) - Harshit Gupta

Hiii Gauriii smh cant attach a fan picture here. I think that should work xD. Well also would have liked to listen to more of your guitarrr - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale hi Gaurav, its always fun talking to you, Ranting about not getting enough GPU resources and you flexing yours! Congratulations on your accepted papers! All the best for your future endeavors, see you around on campus! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin Research God. Very cool days when we used to vibe on Elon Musk and drones and stuff xD and talk about research. Thanks for always helping me out :)) Keep researching hard future scientist - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

I'll quit smoking if he stops working. - Priyanshul Govil

GAURIII, I will miss you <3 TYYY for making my college life very interesting. Overthinking ki dukaan hai tu bhai, but you are an equally smart and calculated man. I really respect that about you. right from the discord days, I always loved talking with you and MORE THAN ANYTHING --- YOUR GUITAR SOLOS. Leave the girls, I was fangirling over themmm! I am still waiting for the John Mayer Death of a Hero guitar solo from you :angry_face:. All the best buddy for all your future plans! Young Freyam hates the idea of research, but seeing you excel in it really inspired me to also try it out and I have a published workshop paperrrr yayyy thank youuu! Love you <3 - Freyam Mehta

One day I'll read about the scientist who uploaded a human brain onto a computer, and I'll tell everyone that he's my friend from college. An absolute chad who is as smart as he is talented. I know life has thrown a lot at you, but I also know that you can surpass every challenge. Know that I'll always be there for you, and wish you all the best in life - Jatin Agarwala

Doing all those projects with you really made them a lot more fun :)) I'll always remember your love for drones - Ananya Sane

Hullooo, ""Can I borrow your guitar sometime? Thanks brooo"" One of the most intelligent people I've met on campus, I believe you're the best researcher on campus. I wish all the most amazing things for you and hope all of them come true 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Hello sir. One of the pillars of our SE team. And one of the few people on campus who genuinely do good research. Always drowning in work, his lite day is not even my most non-lite day (but then again, I am very lazy). I hope you get into a good university for your master's. I deserve it. I wish you a very best of luck in your future. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

I still remember the time you sent me a paper on neurons and told me that you want to be able to construct the brain itself one day. I hope you get there with the hardwork and dedication that you have. I will cherish the time we had. All the best for your future! Stay in touch! - Annam Venika Sruthi

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed doing SE projects with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

The best roommate I could have ever asked for. Tu jab paida hua hoga tab doctor ne kha hoga aapke ghar me 30 saal ka mature man paida hua hai. Itna serious aur poker face kese hai tera kabhi kabhi bakchodi bhi kar liya kar. But tere sath jo sports ki discussion karne mai mazza aata tha wo best tha, best part yehi hai hum different teams ko support karte but thoughts align karte hai. Ye bta IAS ka exam kab de rha hai knowledge to itni hai tere pass ki bas tu paper de aa padhne ki zaroort nahi.Street smart player hai tu College mai harr cheez mai apan ne scam kiya hai chahe wo IS ho ya phir virtual labs. Hyderabad mai bhagwa rang phenkar rakh tujhe darrne ki zaroort nahi tera phone smbhal lega. Tera khauf to hamesha rahega tujhe bade bhaiya ke wing mai nhane ki zaroot nahi thi usne panga nahi lena chahiye tha. Tune ek to duniya ki sari jagah ghum rakhi hai trip plan karne jao to koi jagah hi nahi hai jahan tu na gya ho. Mujhe TT ki back spin sikha de aur siddh ko farm karna band harr game mai usko pel deta hai. - Aditya Malhotra

Aur bhai gg poora name to shayad mene college aane ke bad shayad hi liya ho tera . Bhai tu bhut kassi tha shuruat me but agar sab logo me se dekha jae to ig sabse zyada tune maze karne chalu kiye end me chahe shuruat me tu out ho bhi jata tha plans se but end me tujhme kaafi change aya bhai that too for good. Mujhe yaad hai jab starting me kahaniya banate the me aur adi aur tu chid jaya karta tha lol, but bhai end me bada maza ata tha jab sab log sportingly ek dusre ka mazak banate the. Apan to vese ek saal se poora same hi courses me same hi team me kaam kar rhe hai coz hume kaafi late pata laga ki baki saare apan se kuch zyada aalsi hai ya bhut hi zyada fast hai. Bhai touch me rahiyo apna group alive rehna chahiye aese hi aur koi aur banae na banae apan apni trips zaroor banaenge future me. mujhe yaad hai college me bakchodi bhi kitni ki hai bhai humne sath me aur that is something jo mai to bhut miss karunga fir chahe tera grenade fekna ho mini militia me ya us din shreyash par phone fekna. Bye Bye Mayank - Mayank Bhardwaj

Kehte hai IAS officer ke saath dosti achi rhti hai, GRE vgera mei kya rkha hai, IAS bno, thoda dosto ki madad kro. College ke 4 saal, tu aur tere totke, reverse jinxing skills kbhi khtm hi nahi hue, winning team ko harvana mjhe lgta hai 23 wc, ke time theek se kaam nahi kie. Phone bhi change krle, bro keeps a live grenade with himself, and randomly throws on people whenever somebody pisses him off, not to forget his aiming skills, bnde darte the iske aspas ghumne se. Zindagi se khauf khtm ho chuka tha, scooty se girne ke baad se. On positive side, very diligent and consistent bnda, doesn't leave anything undone, heavy worker .... kasne mei toh no competition, still remember tere 10-10 hr ke sittings, aur debugging skills ka toh kya hi kehna lmao. Kuch logo ke MDL aur Science-2, nahi niklte, if it were not for your assignments. All Best ! - Karmanjyot Singh

HS bond, master of grenades and reverse jinx. Tu seriously kisi bhi team pe reverse jinx laga ke jeeta deta hai (not cwc 2023 tho :'). Unmatched skill of throwing grenades and your phone lol. You have that poker face and aura which can intimidate and scare anyone and kisi ko "Bhanak" bhi nahi lagegi lol. Genuinely though, you are a really nice person and have always been supportive towards any random plan I have come up with. I know if you put your amazing HS skills to good use, IAS officer toh set hai XD. GreedyDaddyMamba.x will always be core memory. - Shreyash Jain

The person with the best poker face I know. Par fir bhi ritual ke time pe nahi maintain kar pata use, tab saare emotions bahar aa jate hai. Mini militia mein tere grenades kha kha ke tang aa gaya hu bro. But ek cheez teri best hai ki tu chup chaap rehta hai but bakchodi se peeche nahi hata kabhi. Jitna consistently HS mein number lata hai utna hi consistently TT mein backspin bhi karta hai. Hyd mein hi hai tu to bro, to jab bhi aaunga to milna hota rahega apna. Best of luck for the future! - Kushagra Kharbanda

Bhai tu bohot pro insaan hai. Teri saari chiize on target hoti hai. Jaise GRE mai bohot acha score laaya hai, aur on target bombs mini militia mai. Kitni baar tera grenade hawe mai strike kar jaata hai. Microsoft mai itne bombs mat use karna, nahi toh apne start-up mai bouncer banna padega! Gym partner keep the good work up, gains badhte hi rehne chahiye. Teri TT mai bhi accuracy bohot jyada hai, kahi se bhi ball utha deta hai. Insane time tha bhai tere saath! - Siddh Jain long friendship brother! together since 2012 and counting! touch me rahenge sir :) - Yash Mehan Hey Gautam, I wanted to thank you for being my POIS project partner. I wouldn't have survived it if it weren't for you. Seeing you calm helped me calm down as well. How do you remain calm and not lose your temper in such situations? It's really admirable. You are a true embodiment of 'bolo kam and karo zada'—truly diligent and hardworking. All the best for the future :) - Khushi Agarwal

First day on campus :
Technically, quarantine but like on the one that counts, couple of CND folks happened to use Google maps for Vindhya Canteen, worked out for us.

Favourite campus memory :
DJing and dancing near VC randomly one night

One thing you will miss the most :
Unlimited access to my people ;-;

Best thing you learned from here :
Nothing is not doable, shit is scary but like its doable for sure.

Favourite place in campus :
Thub stairs for the times I needed music, space and peace, Workspace Ist floor which gave me bestest friends, My girls' rooms for late night sessions.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I have grown alot, but to pick a particular thing I would say the confidence I have gained stands out the most to me.

Going to miss you so much, from all the lab hangouts to all the places we went to. Wouldn't have explored even 10% of what I got to explore Hyderabad if not for you xD One of the kindest and most helpful people you'll ever meet, has probably exchanged quarter campus life doing voluntary work for the campus. I'm glad I met you, as should anyone else. A ray of happiness and innocence that's often difficult to find in people these days. Thank you for having my back and being that extra push I needed to help me get stuff done. ("Is Kishore Up"? cc: @ Vidit). College wouldn't be the same without you. Possesses a wisdom and depth of insight despite her carefree outward nature :) You played a key role in helping me become who I am today, and I'm thankful for it. You have a way of brightening everyone's life you touch, keep being you and I'll see you soon! - A Kishore Kumar

One of my closest friends and one of the first people I really connected with in college. I still remember our first call and our whatsapp conversations when stuff was online :) I'll always remember all those memories we shared, late nights hanging out and all those plans that never did happen xD You've always been there to make sure I'm okay and supported me whenever I needed it. You are genuinely one of the most amazing people I've met and I wish you the best always. In the last four years I've seen a lot of what you went through and a lot of what you've accomplished, and am proud of you for the way you handled all of it. Its been great having you as a friend and a roommate. Wish we had more time as roommates but hopefully we can make that happen when I finally convince you to move to Bangalore :) - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Well this lady is a gem of a person, the one who has been a little too kind and patient with me! Really wish that we met earlier, but I guess we made up for the time we lost by creating so many beautiful memories and such a beautiful bond! From you remembering all the little things I casually mention and making them happen, teaching me to dance with such patience, getting me a saree for diwali, carrying my farewell saree shopping & everything, to always offering the best advice and being there to support and love me through everything—I am just so grateful to you. I am just gonna miss you so muchh, but hopefully we'll do life together again very soon <3. Love you soo muchh!! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

I have no idea how I would've made it through college without this lady. Thanks for the insane memories working together in labs and the workspace along with all the third wheeling hehe, and tolerating all the breakdowns xD. This one's a peak entertainment in every sense, ranging from drama to attempts at making jokes.

Prani, my fav girl! Honestly, I never thought we would end up being close, but I am so glad that we did. I don't know how I would've got through college without your energetic and lively presence. You are a resilient, strong, and smart person, and I greatly admire you for that. No matter how much life decides to throw at you, you never fail to see the positive in it and come through the ordeal stronger. You lighten up any room instantly and are always ready to talk to someone new. You're also one of the people I get a lot of my tea from lol xD. I cherish all the times we hung out together, and I will miss just chilling with you in room and talking about life. Our Goa trip is something I'll always remember, especially since it couldn't have happened for me without you, so thank you for that. Oh also, you are one hell of a driver and the person I trust most to drive me anywhere lol. Never stop smiling, and always keep being the kind, beautiful person that you are. Hope to see you soon! – Swetha Vipparla

"Together, we weathered storms and scaled mountains, hand in hand, heart to heart. Every hurdle seemed surmountable with her by my side, every victory sweeter when shared with her. In her, I found not just a friend, but a soulmate, bound to me by an unbreakable bond of love and understanding. As we tread the final steps of our college journey, I find myself hoping against hope that our bond remains unscathed by time and distance. For in Praneetha, I have found not just a friend, but a home for my heart to reside in forever. To my beloved sister Faneetha <3, by Vishwa - Banala Vishwatejareddy

An incredibly sweet friend, who was incredibly generous for one of the stingiest people you could ever find xd. Will miss the random cheesecakes you'd buy, coming to lab for "just a few minutes" but end up spending hours and hours just talking to Kishore, Hari, you and whoever else is there that day. I'll miss the "Is Kishore up" texts, but hopefully you can start updating the website so that I know when he is up now. We've had a bunch of great deep talks about so many things. You're incredibly tough, and despite all the stuff you've had to deal with in and out of college, you've still remained strong and handled everything with a smile. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

The most energetic person I have seen. Always doing random stuff and taking on more responsibilities. Extremely busy, but I still keep seeing you around with your hundreds of friends. Special mention to the multitude of pics you take whenever we go out xD. A very sweet and caring person. All the best in graduating from CND on time! - Shubh Agarwal

Closest friend/sister for 6 years and many more to come. We don't talk everyday but we make sure to keep the same bond everytime we meet, and nothing's gonna change. Damn stupid, goofiest, and the most entertaining idiot I know. Keep doing stupid shit and telling me about them :)) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Very patient listener. Used to put 20 instagram stories at a time (we don't talk about that phase anymore), knows almost everyone and is very good at catan. Stop taking boomers from me and start buying them on your own. I can say that you get full credit for making me listen to Taylor Swift :3 - Prerak Srivastava

Hi lady, we have been together in TPE, TPE TAship, Ecell Coords. I'd say we made a pretty good team :) I am going to miss that a lot. You are a bubbling person who doesnt shy away from anything and is ready to conquer anything. Never lose that fire in you. I wish you all the best for your future and wish you are happy and healthy. Love you <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

The strongest woman in our batch I'll say. The way you've handled E-Cell and the multiple other organizations is so graceful and honestly inspiring. Couldn't have done it without you and as I said it on the last day of Megathon'22 as well, took a 100 calls each day and willing to do that all over again just for you. What an incredibly spirited woman you are, learnt a lot from you. All the best and let's continue to be in touch. – Akshit Gureja

Fav partner to listen to you-know-who's endless rants with :p mean girls for the win hehe - Srujana Vanka

Hii cutiee, Ig we've seen it all together. Ek dusre ka mental breakdowns, ranting, pointless jhagade coughs, course bt and all the drama. We did lose touch but it's been so good re-connecting with you. Stay this confident, cute, pretty and dessert-loving person always 🍩🧁🍰 - Shivangi Agarwal

Pranati. Been an absolute pleasure knowing you and speaking to you. Let's hope someday you get the pending 100+ treats. - Harshit Gupta

Hii Praneetha Demnn girl the way you handled your acads and club activities, damn proud. Always thought of learning time managing from you but mehh ended up sleeping all the while. Was fun working with you. Stay in touch and keep growing - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale such a cute, sweet, caring person, love how much you care for people around you. Got to know you through E-Cell, Decore and what not. Bro was literally the entire E-Cell. Gonna miss teasing you with E-Cell, stay the same. Stay in touch, All Best ! - Karmanjyot Singh

I think most of your memories of me will be while I was uh inebriated xD but my memories of you will be sooo cheerful, not caring about what anyone else thinks and being yourself. Stay the same! - George Paul

We honestly had fun during our first year on campus and I'm glad you were there when I was going through some difficult phases. You're a pretty good friend and I respect you - Srijan Chakraborty

Ahh first thing i get is CND group study nights !!! definition of an extrovert!! Busy bee...Lets graduate on time !!! 😅😆 Beautiful and kind person i know 🫶 - Syed Imami

First day on campus :
Coming out of quarantine and checking out the campus for the first time. Still remember like it was yesterday.

Favourite campus memory :
Too many to list and the best ones are confidential.

One thing you will miss the most :
The people

Best thing you learned from here :
You have ultimate control over who you become.

Favourite place in campus :
Gym. A place where I can forget everything else and relax. The motivation of the people who show up there almost everyday to become better than what they are is unmatched.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Same stupid guy, just a bit bigger and stronger.

Hello Sir, It has been a pleasure to spend the college life with you. I plan on coming to Tamil Nadu, Will come this year to Tamil Nadu. Let's See when you come to Delhi. Baki, from cciot to today....i will remember everything for life... I still have you drunk video of say sorry to someone. - ROHAN GUPTA

Gokul has been one of my close friends on campus. He is a great fitness enthusiast who also motivated and helped me with my fitness goals. Our shared interest in listening to Tamil songs and dissecting their lyrics made for some great times. From the days in E-210 to the placement season, I had a lot of fun with him. All the best for your future endeavours, da. - Lokesh V

Gokulraj my tamil pasangu! We met online as DSA project teammates. I remembered you as a capable teammate who carried his weight in his projects which is why I believed u would be a great teammate for BTP. Unfortunately while going to the gym turned you into a muscleman, it also took away ur ability to think clearly. While my BTP was an unforgettable experience, getting to know you was a definite plus point. The best source of circumstantial humor, your college backstory was among the funniest things I heard on campus. If I'm in hyderabad and need a bro to lift some heavy stuff, ik who to call. Stay safe and don't lose any more braincells at gym else idk if you'll be able to move XD. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

The chillest person I know. Wants to flex his body to everyone, but at the same time is super shy. The last one year I was in obh, anytime I felt bored or wanted to meet someone, I would just go to Gokul's room, just chill and talk about something. Somehow he has this stressfree nature around him. Half the times in his room he would be watching some body builder flexing muscles 😂. We grew close in a very short time, and we have spent so much time together, dinners and birthdays, Gokarna, Madurai, Treks, veshti days, etc, and talking about ❤️ life. Can confidently say that you were one of my closest friends in college. We'll stay in touch. Always stay care free and make people around you smile! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Bro your commitment towards gym is awe-inspiring. you motivate me to be better. Apart from the gym, you are one of the nicest and chill guy I met in the college. I hope u keep breaking PRs in gym and real life. - Pradhuman Tiwari

An overall great guy whom I've had the pleasure of spending most of college time with. I can't remember exactly when I first met him on campus, I recall sharing a love for food. I can still remember your descriptions of how you cook every single part of the goat where you're from. But what's most note-worthy about this man is his dedication. I have not met another person who went to the gym with the dedication and motivation he did. And those characteristics of his did not betray him at all (Though he does take it a bit too far) - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

First day on campus :

Favourite campus memory :
Late-night games and chit-chat with friends in Parijaat rooms

One thing you will miss the most :

Best thing you learned from here :
Smartwork >> Hardwork

Favourite place in campus :
Thub spot, Jc garden bench

Biggest Change since your first year :
Procrastination and Laziness

Greesh..I've never seen anyone as bold, as courageous, as energetic as you. I used to believe that success was tied to specific habits (like getting up early etc) but I realized these beliefs aren't necessarily true. Your approach has shown me that success can come from a different set of principles. You helped me realize all these things and at the same time, you gave me tons of happiness. I can never forget those campus walks, dances, ABs party, the day you took us to Google Office, your support during placements, the charcoal face pack..There are many situations where you were the reason for my happiness. You also helped me realize that parents are the most important ones in our lives. I hadn't realized how badly I would miss you when I was leaving college. But the moment my PG hostel was decided, it started hitting me. I wondered who would inspire me to dream big, inspire me to eat more, come to me to share all the things..Thank you for all the memories and all the best for your future endeavors!! - Sudi Ananya

The first thing I remember whenever I see you is that you are a chhota baccha. I wouldn't have survived online semesters if not for you. We had really nice time back then. You are very kind and nice from your heart. I hope you achieve great things in life and are really happy. Keep in touch :) - Annam Venika Sruthi

Thanks for all the help you ever did to me interview and otherwise. It was great getting to know you. Hoping we can keep in touch. P.S - I still remember 25th anniversary ko "" Mujhe problem nhi hai agar mere bache daru peeye to"" - hardik 2024 - Shreyansh Agarwal

Hardik mere bhai, what would I do without you? Tu hamesha itne acche mood me kaise rehta hai bro? You can do pretty much everything lmao. You've been a wonderful friend, an exceptional coder and you somehow seemed to nail every single course you took. It was amazing being your roommate in E-202, even with the issues you had with my typing at night (For the record, I wasn't that loud!). But beyond that, it was always nice to have somebody to talk to, laugh with make fun of. That and the days we were in Harikrish's room singing our lungs out! It's been a real treat getting to know you, and even though we only lived together for a year, you were the best roommate a guy could ask for. Stay wonderful, stay in touch and all the very best! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Hello Hardik, You were one of the very first friends I had after I came to campus. I never thought that a person from a completely different background could become so close to me. I wish that we got along offline also. But yeah, I can say for sure that you are one of the purest people I met. And maybe you forgot but I still regret taking that code from you and becoming one of the reasons for you to get MOSS in the DSA assignment. And I mean I cannot hope for a better friend da, you did not blame me nor did you even question me for my mistake. I am really thankful that all my online semester I had a friend like you to keep me motivated and also I got to learn a lot from you. I used to feel funny the way you used to get scared of wires saying ""ye tare jodne kaa kaam mujse nahi hoga"" and also the excitement you used to get to make me speak in Hindi. So I can just end my testimonial by saying this "" Btech life aap ke jaisa ek dost ke bina complete nahi ho saktha""(Little hindi I learnt). Be in touch.

Possibly the best roomie I could've asked for. Being the legendary pokemon you are, always giving me FOMO about frolicking around while you were kassing hard in room. Especially I'm never forgetting exam times when you used to stay up late and wake up early while I used to lie and bed and binge youtube. Dual rooms were so damn fun man, maybe because you made it fun for me. All those moments, those late night gossiping sessions, those "We'll never be able to become the pop kid types", the NSFW mermaid poses, have become core memories for me. Keep rocking my Abu Dhabi ke Sheikh! - Tanmay Bhatt

Dear Harish, I would like to put forward a proposal that I paint a painting of you in your mermaid like sleeping position. It will definitely be called the Mona Lisa of our generation. I have enjoyed spending time with you throughout these years (despite getting to see you only once a month when you come out of hibernation,) and gotten to know what an amazing person you are. First and foremost, you are definitely a kassi (an impressive hard worker), always putting all your dedication and efforts into achieving your targets. After that in your free time, you become a great friend to hang out with. I know you have a great heart, and you also have a very mischievous, fun-loving personality that comes out on special occasions. I will never forget the Wonderla trip - we had so much fun together, especially in the water. It was also great talking about chess, Samay Raina, and life in general, with you. Will miss having you around. Keep in touch and don't hesitate to reach out anytime. Best of luck for the future! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Hello mermaid.. Will always yearn for that mermaid view that only Tanmay could look underneath.. Learned a lot from you in the EW2 project.. Your work has charisma brother... I respect you a lot since you are one of the few who didn't cheat.. Your knowledge of cinema and its music is awesome.. after all the kasiiness who probably watched more movies than me.. Also one of the few people who joined me for running... And sense of humour is just (˘ ³˘) Hope we meet again - Jain Chirag Shantilal

Harish has been one of the humblest people I've met at IIIT-H. We initially bonded over Tamil movies and our shared Vijay fandom. We spent time in the mess discussing the latest cricket matches, movies, and laughing at memes related to them. Harish has always been an honest and a very hardworking person with a great work ethic, always striving to give his best in everything he does. I greatly admire him for this quality. His friendship has been a valuable addition to my campus life. All the best for your future endeavors. - Lokesh V

Hello Friend!!! We have had very nice moments together. Thanks for always being such a patient and curious listener—I probably irritated you sometimes!. Don't forget us, especially me, while you are achieving your dreams, those things you can keep chasing endlessly, but we will always stay who you can sometimes come back to(if time permits). Wishing you all the success and happiness in the world. Farewell, my friend, and may our paths cross again someday. - ROHAN GUPTA

I am baffled by your ability to easily identify my feelings by just talking to me. I am glad to have you as a friend who understands me very easily. Had lots of fun with you starting from the day I joined the hostel and hope we relish this forever. - Bodgam Rohan Reddy

First met Harish online during discord days and we bonded over Vijay Sethupathi, Kamal Hassan and Fahad Faasil 😂. I thought we would go out for movies together, but man was busy being a Bond 😂. Really a soft spoken and nice guy, and an epitome of sincerity. Hopefully you might be my senior at work, we can go out to movies together! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

I first met Harish during Lohri at FC. He is a Kassi⚡and a hardworker. He is a good person with high moral standards. I still remember the late night talks in the E block room. And those conversations in the mess. Those times were fun and interesting. Oh yeah, have to mention, he is an Anil.😆I hope we will meet and chat again someday. See you soon da. - Karthik Prasanna N

"I first met Harish when I joined campus in the second year. We and our group of friends would head to the mess together, sparking lively discussions over meals. Whether it was infamous tales of owning oil wells and the Burj Khalifa or just everyday college banter, Harish always had something interesting to say. Harish is disciplined and kind, with a fantastic sense of humor that always lightened the mood. We've shared countless memories at college events, where his company was always a highlight. Some of my favorite times were our deep and hilarious conversations in Harish and Tanmay's room, covering everything from college gossip to politics. Harish, let's stay in touch! I've had a blast and will always cherish these moments. - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

One of a few friends I made on first coming to campus. A very smart, capable, nice person, but unfortunately very isolated from the world. I've enjoyed spending time with you, but damn do you take the word introvert to another level. While it was disappointing that most interactions had to be initiated from my side, he is still a great guy to be around with a great sense of humour. He's a very adaptable person, but I hope he'll one day be able to connect with others of his own volition. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Hello Harish, I did not speak with you much. I got introduced to you as Tanmay's roommate. I wish I had spent more time with you. I kind of like your sincerity and I love the time we spent together in Ethics class. Though we ended up spending the time thinking of trivial things, I enjoyed it. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT life.Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

You were the perfect roommate and the cutest too. I cannot remember how many times you have seen me cry lol. But I never felt judged. You were there when I needed you, but you also understood when I needed space. You are perfect. I don't know if you noticed or not, but if you have changed so much over the last 4 years that I have known you, and in the best way possible. You genuinely make me laugh and I have the best time with you, whether it's shopping, gossiping, chasing lizards out of the room(unsuccessful smh) or sitting outside our room when it is getting cleaned. We got so much closer in the last year, and it was the best thing ever. I only wish it had happened sooner. We still have a pending double date, don't forget XD. This will happen, however long it takes. I love our routine gossip sessions, and yes we should continue doing it even after college. I am so so thankful that I chose you to be my roommate. Easily the best decision I made. Love you pretty roomie, take care and don't you dare forget me<3 - Ameya Sharma

To the artist of our group, the one with the best fashion sense and impeccable aesthetics, and the very best photographer. You make our group more organized with your planning skills—lmao, way too many qualities in one person! I truly admire how you always give 100% to everything you commit to, whether it's academics or friendships. Gonna miss your "story times", you knowing all the hook steps to every song and doing them so effortlessly, and your love for katan XD. And of course, the fun we had in your room during our masti sessions ;-). Yaar apan paancho ka eksaath ready hoke, ek doosre ke kapde pehen ke clubbing jana is like the core memory of college! Hope we continue the same in Bangalore or wherever we have the chance to be together! Gonna miss you and your vibrant energy so much cutiee !! lysm <3 - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Hi Tingu! Pehle kyu nhi mili tu, kaha chup gyi. Thode aur aesthetics badh jate group ke. Aur well mannered and planned hote hum. Tere bina to pta nhi hmari trip bhi hoti ya nhi. sb ne itne efforts daale hai, parents ko convince krne kliye, I'm always grateful for that.I would've missed out on a lot, tum log nhi hote to. Akele sab kuch dekhti thi. Pta nhi itni patience milti kaha se, choti si hi to hai. Physically bhi kitti strong hai. I love how tu 2 - 4 sting peeke do teen raat bina soye exam deti hai, kaash itni dedication mere me bhi hoti. You were always there for me. Kya naachti hai parties me, mera to dil aa jata hai tujhpe. Will miss all those sessions, monopoly times, parties, dumbcharades me sath me jeetna. Will miss you saying 'Story time guys'. Cuteness overloaded hai tu. Kbi tjhe knowingly ya unknowingly hurt kiya ho to sorry. Had so much fun with you. Will miss you a lot. Hy-

Heyy there hottie! You are literally the sweetest, cutest and the most caring person I have ever known in my life. You have always been there for me and I am so grateful for that one message that changed our lives! "Aur bhai google intern" I can't believe I have wasted more than a semester at this college without you😂 I can never forget the time when we couldn't stop laughing at a certain breakfast buffet😂❤️. I have laughed the hardest with you, shared countless unforgettable moments and found a true friend in you. You are so smart, hardworking, athletic, kind and have the purest soul there can be! You happen to have that energy which just lights up everyone's face cutuuu Physics ki ek entrainment theory hai, jiske mutabik kuch khaas awazo se dil ki dhadkane tez hojati hai. Mere liye toh harshu voh awaaz humesha tumhari hasi ki hai❤️ You have a great future ahead of you harshu and will achieve remarkable success! Whatever this future holds though, I will do my fucking best to be a part of it yaara <3. - Siddharth Jain

Hello cuttiee, When you joined the group, we all were as happy as you were. You brought with yourself a burst of fun, colors, loads of interesting stories and perspectives into my life..I have always admired your dedication and hardwork..you have earned each and everything you have in life and that is just wowww...you are much more than you see yourself to be..please start giving yourself more credits...tera sb ko saath mai le kr chalna...sare sb kuch plan krna ..sb kch itna organised rkhna aur apne cute se 'story time guys' aur 'no paps' se hmare faces pr smile lana..sbki itni care krna and always being there my dear doctor..will miss sharing wardrobe with you (p.s you have an amazing wardrobe and hair and you look good in light colors as well please accept it)..I will always remember and cherish our incomplete painting sesh and other seshs,the trips,the outings and the room parties..u made all of them more lively..in case u ever want to rant again,I am just a call or a few kms away.. Love ya smarty pants. - Khushi Agarwal

I really love the comfort between us, the fact that we can talk about anything, from silly random stuff to much more, sharing our highs and lows. There are quite a few people, you don't need social battery for, you were one of those for me. One of those people who made my life better by simply existing. Those late night walks around the campus, those post-outing talks became a constant. That perfectionist nature is really v inspiring, that inner kassi, giving her 100% effort at finishing things nicely, and not to forget those 100s of to-do lists, planners and whatnot. Pretty sure, you'll go a long way in life, full bhrosa. Well, with you not in Hyderabad, hanging out at IKEA, Gandipet Park, PS, Kapoor's wouldn't be the same anymore, and ofc, will miss 2 bndo ke outing mei 4 bndo ka khana order krna, buying stationary together, exchanging paintings, that constant nudge we provide for each other, to get through life and everything. All the best buddy !! - Karmanjyot Singh

Hi harshitaa!, dude you have it all, from academics to arts to basketball to knowing every dance hook steps and always having the most interesting stories and gossips to share, you are the life of the group. you made our lazyy asses to finally land in goa, had so much Funnn there! I will miss all those gossips, Story time sessions, deep talks that we had, your non-lazy attitude is something I've always admired, whether it's about academics, planning outings/trips, organizing birthdays, or picking out the perfect gifts. Your dedication really makes a difference, it shows how much you care. You're always there whenever any of us need help. You have such a great personality, had a great time hanging out with you. Hope we will keep meeting! and yes, we should definitely do that monthly update presentation thing! Also, Let's plan some art session soon, and here's to our future outings, trips, and many more adventures to come. Cheers! All the best for the journey ahead!! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Phele to yaar sorry for roasting you so many times, yaar tu thoda easy target thi reply back nahi karti thi to zyada roast ho jata tha. Mujhe lagta hai apan dono bas north delhi mai rehte hai lifestyle aur khana itna common hai ki sahi bonding ho gayi. Most likely humara same hi office hoga hum log breakfast kafi baar sath hi kar rahe honge so be ready to get trolled again :). Yaar blr mai jakar hum every sunday chole bhature khane wale hai na? Ab tu weekend mai kaam bhi nahi hoga to heavy sleepy meal kar hi sakte. Weekends ka plan iss baar tum bnana but order mai karunga tum log to emotional hokar over order kar dete ho, waise agar galti se kisi se zyada order ho jaye usko to tu dant deti hai ki "apni veggies finish karo". Apna TT ka game improve karlo iss baar nahi haarna apne ko (atleast sarvagya ko to hraye). Please iss baar 2 ladki roommates dhundiyo :wink: - Aditya Malhotra

aur bhai pahad. kaafi respect i have for you. you have a this ability to apologise when you think you messed up and i really have a lot of stuff like that to learn from you. thodi hot headed ho jaati hai tu kabhi kabhi but off late i realised ki that might be a good thing. gussa hona implies ki you cared ab something. aisa kuch. cause mere liye, communication is the key. aur thoda bohot jhagda ho bhi gaya toh kuch ni- as long as you resolve it. toh yeh achhi baat hi hai ki you speak you mind when you must. chal milte hai apan kabhi toh delhi mei - Mihir Rawat

The best project partner, we conquered so many courses together. However, She is a little too inclined towards Chole Kulche. Also, never let her order at restaurants coz she orders 1.Sx what she can eat and 2.Sx what you can afford. But she is super smart 😎😎 - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

You are the silliest, cutest and most considerate person I know. Aur tujhe dekh kar tere saath bakchodi karne ka bhi bada man karta hai. Kabhi kabhi bakchodi jyada ho jati hai (guess when) par tab bhi maza aata hai :). Gde ke bahane milke humne jitni bakchodi peli hai hamesha yaad rahegi mujhe. But tbh I have learnt a lot from you and will miss some great conversations that we have had. Baaki to har weekend NCB ya udupi ka chakkar lagta rahega hamara aur hopefully tere flat pe house parties bhi hongi ;) (Is bahane tere roommates se bhi milta rahunga hehe) - Kushagra Kharbanda

Vibe hai tu. Tere saath kahin bhi jaana alag hi experience hota hai. Sabko easily lead kar leti hai. Manager wagera to easy ban jayegi. Pehli pehli baar catan ka experience to peak tha. Fir wo T-Hub ki chatt pe sab ke saath spend ki hui night. Itni bakchodi maza aa jaati hai bas yaad karke. Khaana thoda soch ke order kiya karo. - Shreyas Revankar

Hii HArshita Bangalore me toh milenge hi mostly, but anyway tu toh mast chill bandi he... zaza sessions, giving coding rounds, random gossiping sessions with you have been greatt <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

"Harshitaa, yaar tu toh bohot enthusiastic ladki hai, itne interest se sab kahaani sunate rehti hai, and hamesha kuch na kuch toh rehta hai tere paas batane ko. And daat ti bhi rehti hai kabhi kabhi apne opinion pe strongly stand karke. Tere saath to sabse zyada maza aaya mughe catan khelne me itna indulge hoke khelti hai poora game mazedaar kar deti hai. Milte rehna and always keep smiling cutie. Prayush - Prayush Rathore

"wassup harshita (chota packet bada dhamaka) u r very cute and cutest couple award toh mil hi gaya and i was wondering hume sath kabhi double date pe jana chahiye, ooty trip bhi miss hogaya but koi na mai sid se baat karke jaldi plan karta hu see u soon in google - Prasoon Garg

Hiee! It was always a delight interacting with you randomly in the morning or bumping into you on the road. You such a cute, bubbly, talented and warm person <3. Keep smiling <3 and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Poora vibe. Loved your energy and getting to know you. Lil regret for not hanging out with you more but I really liked talking to you. Stay the same! - Srijan Chakraborty

Durgaaaa!!! From first meeting you in 2-2, to becoming friends in 3-1, to forming a close group, to going on trips to vizag and araku,to dancing in the rain, to going for lunch on sundays and wednesdays, to wanting to go to dlf but not being able to decide a restaurant, to having a bike accident, to you being the only thing preventing me from crying that day, there are sooooo many memories I have with you that I cannot even write them onto the paper. You are one of the bravest people i know and I know that regardless of what you want to do in the future you will do spectacularly at it. I believe there is nothing you cannot do if you set your mind to it and sometimes i am astonished at your resourcefulness and being able to maintain contact with people over the course of many years. Hope we'll always remain in touch, but regardless you will never fade from my memory and whenever we meet in the future, irrespective of what we are doing or how long it has been that we talked, we'll always be friends. - Aditya Kondai

Hi Durgs! Firstly want you to know that I am very very proud of you. You are very very strong and I admire you so much for that. You always see the best in people and you care about everyone's feelings inspite of how much ever you are going through. All the very best for your future. Flipkart is all y urs to rule. Love you - Keerthi Pothalaraju

Hii Durga Thanks for always putting oil to me and carrying through ESW <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

You are strong Durga. I still remember the time when we spoke continuously for more than 3 hours. That was one of the best times I spent with you. Both of us had a heartful conversation. You and I care for every single thing and have many similarities that I figured out. You are such a kind person. I don't think you can hide anything; you say everything to the face. I am amazed by your art. I saw your painting on top of your drawing kit and one at the paper showing. You are so talented. You also like studies a lot like you told. But I can't imagine being in your situation. Also, you always laugh not like Hasini but like Chandramukhi 🤣. You beat, pinch, hit others. Luckily, I didn't have to bear those 😅. OP Gamer Durga. Embodiment of women empowerment. I pray good health for you and your family. I hope you achieve everything you wish. Live your life according to your will and stay happy forever. Keep laughing. You are a great friend. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay my closest friend in college, Thank you for always helping me when I needed and for bearing with me all these days, will miss all the good time we spent talking about every random thing , feeding those dogs, finishing projects before day,... still have so many parties left .. All the best for ur future !! keep in touch.. - Vallamsetty Akash

I don't know how we became best friends or even when we first spoke or what we talked about. But becoming your friend is the best thing I ever did. Since you came into my life, everything has been better and easier.Just having you by my side makes everything seem right.Whenever I'm sad, you would come and sit with me, bringing my favorite food. When I felt lost, your letters and long messages would remind me that you were there for me. You are my best friend, and I want to keep you happy. You are my support system, and I'll be yours. If my exam goes wrong or if something goes wrong in my life, you are there for me. When I text at 2 am and you're awake, you understand that something's not right, and somehow, you know just what to do to make me smile. Even when I'm not okay at all, life will go on. But the moments when we laugh and cry together in our room, or make Maggi at 3 am, they will stay. - Hema Leela Durga Koppisetti

Hey Jaanu!! I love all the time we spent together. I do not express enough how much of a friend you are to me. I am bad at speaking emotional stuff and shut them down, but that does not mean I do not value you as a friend. From dancing in the rain to shouting at random stranges in the dark to going on trips to watching movies in workspace to you nearly causing an accident while riding the scooty. Soo many memories and soo few words to express them. you are one of the most determined people, and I admire the trait in you. you accomplish anything you set your mind to. I know sometimes I say stuff without thinking, but thats ony because I consider you one of my best friends who i do not need to censor myself with. Hope we'll always stay in touch, but even if we do not, i know that we'll always be friends and you will always be remembered. thank you for all the time we spent together. - Aditya Kondai

Jahnavi, you would have made a great spy if you hadn't chosen your current path. You possess all the qualities that a spy needs. Initially, when we barely knew each other, I used to feel uncomfortable in our batch meetings. However, the way you welcomed me and helped me integrate with the batch was great. I appreciate the way you greet us and take good care of others, ensuring that no one feels bad. That's why I call you Mother Teresa. I still remember the day when you tried to convince me for more than an hour, yet I didn't come. I feel sorry for that. I hope you remember us after going to America. Maybe send me an iPhone once you're there. You're a great friend. I wish you all the best for your future. May you stay happy forever. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Hie Janu mowa....Firstly i need to start with a SORRY for misunderstanding you...it was the time when i needed good company in my room i wanted you to be with me... and you used to go to home and need to maintain some individuality kada ra so may be dani valla we had some disturbances in our bond anthe ra....tarvatha i realised its my mistake ra..I remember the days when we used to cherish every moment especially as roommates....The way i used to sleep in your closed gestures hayiga safe ga anipinchedi ra....""teliyakunda parichayam ayyavu ra...teliyakunda godavalu ayyai....alage teliyakundane mana hearts needed that bond to stand forever kabatti we came to same point again....i want that to be forever ra :)"". Did you remember during covid time, when i had severe headache..nuvvu and kittu dongallaga na room ki night came and nenu padukune varaku naathone undi vellaru ra.... ela thanks cheppali ra nuvvu naaku support chesina way....naatho unna way ki....I always owe you a big big THANK YOU ra...MISS YOU mowa... - Merugu Nanditha

First day on campus :
On our first day on a free campus, we got to see our college after 1.5 years of studying there, and we made sure we saw all of it in one day. I'd sleep early after a such a tiring day, but we instead decided to stay up till 6am and make maggi, visit everyone's rooms and do a bunch of more dumb shit.

Favourite campus memory :
The joy of seeing my friends getting amazing internships, placed in great companies, and getting to celebrate with them.

One thing you will miss the most :
Those random late night talks we'd have in a friend's room, going on for hours and hours without a care in the world. Some of them might be productive, while some might involve the stupidest debates that somehow last an entire night.

Best thing you learned from here :
A good friend circle can go a long way :)

Favourite place in campus :
When I stayed in Bakul, I would have to just walk 30s with my friends to BBC any time I missed breakfast (very often) or didn't like the lunch. I was even more lazy in OBH, always staying in my wing, but I had all my friends there and always had some source of entertainment any time of the day.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I wasn't very sure of my skills and knowledge in my first year and didn't know what could be achieved, and if I could achieve it. College has taught me a great lesson of the things that I can aim for, work towards, and that anything is possible if you put your mind to it.

One of the most intelligent people I know. I loved coming to your room and just talking about stuff, whether it was music (great taste btw), girls or if I just had a bad day. Not a single day that you weren't ready to help me out with anything that I was dealing with or going through and I love you for that. The Las Vegas bachelor party needs to happen. If anything, don't be too hard on yourself. You're someone who aspires to be the best at what you do, but sometimes you take bt for not being able to reach the bar you've set for yourself and you tend to forget all the crazy things you've achieved along the way. You started college thinking that since you're dasa you have to prove to people that you're not like everyone else, and fuck yeah you did. - Prerak Srivastava

Vidit 21 "pussy" fangaballs Jain. I wouldn't nearly have liked hip-hop as much if not for your recommendations. Thanks for being kassi as well, which sometimes lead me to care about courses I wouldn't have otherwise. Will miss just vibing to music for hours. - Pramod Rao Budramane will never forget our unnamed game of me opening the door and you staring at me. you introduced me to more than half of the raps I listen to made me a kanye, Kendrick fan brother. 10/10 music taste. bahot cool obh days and bahot cool sapnu dinners. Will miss you a lot deer! see you in LA for the bachelor party!!!!!! - Nukit Tailor

Easily my closest friend on campus. I'm going to miss you so damn much. Everything from disturbing you at 3am in the night to making you enjoy the thrill of procrastination to our team contests. VNR might have been our only win, but I'll never exchange anything for the experience of just going through all the other contests and projects with you. Pretty similar pasts, clicked almost instantly and haven't looked back since. Always had my back and were always a source of inspiration for me to get stuff done. College wouldn't be the same without you. We may not physically meet each other for quite some time, but I'll definitely keep in touch, and keep trying to get you to join more crazy adventures post college :) fightFight <3 Also... I... might install Dota... - A Kishore Kumar

Best person I met in this college. Really could talk anything with you and always ready to help others. Jab pata chala you are dasa I thought tujhse toh baat nhi hogi, but I was so wrong. Always there for friends and ur crazyy dance moves ufff. We are definitely doing your bachelorette party in vegas lol. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

"Close friends from the very first to the very end :) I'm gonna miss the times I just randomly walk into your room and start talking about random shit, or the random stuff we just do in general, but I know for sure we're gonna be the same, buddies who are always there for each other for life. Keep kassing and climbing, you're freakin amazing - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Crossed the boundaries as to what a dedicated, serious and disciplined fella looks like, you will always be one of the most inspiring, brilliant and smart people I shall know in my life. Owe a lot to you, cheers to all the wack conversations I've had with you about every topic ranging under the sun, keep in touch my american boy (mandatory kanye reference). Cheers (xD) to a wonderful time at IIIT ma boi, and shall never forget sleeping alongside you in Bakul - Sankalp S Bhat

Most kassi person but a very very fun person to be with and talk to . Looking forward to meeting you here and spending some time ..... We definitely attending some crazy concerts together :) - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Fellow lazy researcher who could not search for "re" until Tuesday after we get our dinner from DLF. Lazyballs - Vegi Abhijnan

One of the purest souls I've met. Please tell me how someone can be so Marwari and yet so non-Marwari at the same time? This dude is the perfect mix of DASA and Marwari - he's got the best of both worlds, I swear. I'll miss texting 'Is Kishore up?' and 'Come to the Lab, got you a cheesecake' out of nowhere. I'll never forget the 'Collaged' football stadium; I wish I had a picture of that. I bet she would be questioning her eyesight if she compares it with what you submitted :). You were always there when I needed you, and not to forget the times to write stuff in perfect tones in L situations :3. You might be a little farther in distance than a lot of others, but you will remain one of the closest friends to me. Such an empathetic, tough, and mature person, it's something I really respect you for, and that's how I know you will figure shit out. There won't be a time when cheesecake won't remind me of you, but with every single one I see, I'll be wishing I could share one with you as soon as we meet up again. - Gokul Praneetha

Cp Doer Candidate Master Kinda Fake Dasa Bhidit Jain. No one can match the authenticity of your moans. Your moaning and dancing skills are unparalleled. You are going very far from all of us, but you were an integral part of the group. Always keep in touch aur India aate rehna. - Kushagra Kharbanda

Gonna miss our mess runs, think i would have gone to way less lunches otherwise. We need to play some Fall Guys again. Also what are your thoughts on RCB ? - Shavak Kansal very good Independent study we have done, proud of you for all the hard work we have accomplished over the course of the semester. Master both on and off the sheets. - Rudransh Pratap Singh will always remember getting hard carried in economics, by you. Room 79, was my favorite place to crash during the IPL n ICC tournament times, loved all the time we spent discussing cricket stats, making predictions. Glad ki we had a common wing, so that we could get to know each other and gradually become a family. You definitely gonna be a billionaire, ik whom to contact for smuggling apple goodies to India :). Well, country gonna change, not us dw, we'll keep in touch, meet sometimes, and I promise to make your bachelor's in Las Vegas memorable with some Hangover level shit lmao. - Karmanjyot Singh nice pyjamas my g, it always was super easy to talk to you no matter the time or place, and i loved that about you (apart from the nerdge part ofc) stay safe and stay healthy, and let's meet again soon <3 - Aditya Nair

Will miss the random, nonsense conversations we used to have :) All the best for everything, and hope we get to meet again! - Dheeraja Rajreddygari Laughing so hard at the dumbest shit in KK's room along with you all made travelling all the way from obh/workspace to bakul worth it. Added to everything, with so many things happening, the last few months on campus had been so freaking amazing, kudos to you being a part of it. Hoping to get an invite soon to see all the saved up marwadi harkat waali monis in a huge weeding in Vegas or something :p I know I'd have the best place to crash whenever I visit the NYC :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Probably the best mix of smart and kassi (which is a compliment :p), a very humble overachiever, and someone whose notes always saved the day! Thanks for teaching us before game theory exam, listening to our rr, and, tbh, always being there to help in whatever way you could! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon heard they give good beer in the east coast, will miss you a lot brdr. And yes next year for sure rcb winning pakka - Knv Karthikeya Man, you have 100 cricket knowledge, but I think you (we) have made certain decisions about following and supporting teams that we shouldn't and we are still suffering because of their choking abilities. That match in Chepauk was crazy and probably one of the best decisions we have taken. I hope we continue to rant, talk, and analyze cricket and celebrate some wins together, there is still a treble we can win :) - Aditya Malhotra

One of the best Barca fans I know. Now that I'm thinking of it, not a very good compliment xD. You have pretty sane football takes and I like debating with you about it. One of the best dancers in the college and whenever we have danced in a group, I always try to emulate your confidence and actions while dancing. I like that you read a lot of different books and I hope you start reading some of my recommendations while you're in college. All the best for your future! - Shubh Agarwal

Jungle Bunny. Act like a cultured bunny sometimes pls. We made some crazy memories on campus, not all were good ofc, but nevertheless you were a very important part of my college life and I will be forever grateful to you for it. We had some crazy talks about lot of things, football, basketball, people and lot more, and I really learnt a lot from you through those talks. Please try to be a little more neat lmaoo. You are one of the dirtiest guys I have ever met in life lol. It was great fun to hangout with you and hopefully we can have many more such moments in the future. PS: United >> Varca - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

I first met you while we were leaving the quarantine period from parijat. Later that week I heard everyone coming from the Basketball court saying something about Jordan playing amazing. I initially thought it was THE Jordan but only later did I realize that they were talking about Jordan from Wish (Erode). Jokes apart, you're the face of basketball in college and I definitely believe that you've rightfully earned it. We became close friends over the duration of 2-2 and by the next sem, we were all part of the group. We ended up doing a lot of things together and also went to a lot of different places together (ik saying "a lot" is heavily exaggerated but still xD). I particularly remember the trip to Ananthagiri and of course the infamous Vizag trip lmao. You were the heart and soul of these trips making them all the more fun and worthwhile. Anyways, thanks for always being such an amazing friend to me and Best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

"You are the one person I can recognise from like a mile away just by your voice and laughter xD. I still remember the first time I met you, I asked you and Joel to stand together to take a pic of you guys. I don't know what you might've thought at that time like who is this creepy girl lmaoo. But yes, didn't expect that we would start talking, but I am happy that we did. You are one of the liveliest, most fun people I have ever met. Glad to have finally seen you play basketball lol. Hope you continue being the

*Janigga manigga, my doppelganger brother!! Thank you for increasing my street cred when I first joined campus. It was hard work taking credit for the intense dance session. Among all the relations I've seen/had on campus, ours was the most openly intense. There are many things I can say about you but I'll limit myself to the good things. You're pretty good at basketball (apparently; whenever I see you, you're ass). You're very good at taking abuse; One of the great pleasures of my college life was torturing you, and you took it like a champ. A very empathetic person, you're able to pick up exactly how someone is feeling (Although inserting yourself isn't always the solution). All round good vibes spreader you are, altho with me me u be spreading other things as well wink. Fix your eating, sleeping and work habits and I think you'd be UNSTOPPABLE. Don't be an idiot, be more compromising and maybe I won't call you a sanctimonious prick next time we meet. My brother, I pray for your success in all that u do! - Joel Thyparampil Alex

*Heyy Jordann I am always amazed how you are so smily smily all the timee (touch wood xD). Loved seeing your games and getting coached by you. Still pissed tho that you hadnt come to our finals in BVRIT. Will always keep sledging you hehehee. Alsooo will always want to take front seat to watch your dance, the energy and cheerfulness while you dance is amazinggg - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

*An amazing basketball player, super fit & active (I cant write healthy because ur sleep schedule is always fucked lmao), aptly named jungle bunny for your ability to climb and jump between trees, very amiable, not a good driver (accept the truth okay), and also GOT > BB, wish u very best for your future and pls dont die early - Ayush Agrawal

First day on campus :
It pretty much sucked because of being quarantined.

Favourite campus memory :
I can't pinpoint any one thing. Felicity, obh parties, sessions, goa pondi trips, late night scooty rides etc. I even remember back in 2-2 when all of us used to sit in ws 24/7 for endsem preps but turned to gossip and time pass sessions.

One thing you will miss the most :
Definitely going to miss dlf and uncles trips xd.

Best thing you learned from here :
There's more to life than just getting good grades and getting a good job. Unless you enjoy it, all the money in the world doesn't matter.

Favourite place in campus :
Middle step at the middle of fg. Used to go there at 3 4am whenever I felt like I needed a break from everything.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Definitely changed how I look at life rn

Now that farewell's done, college is over, kuch toh bol le bc. Jokes apart, you're such an amazing person and so dependable and I've had the best times drinking with you. Be like this humesha (though choose better cough ppl cough to spend your time and energy on) - Shivangi Agarwal

Probably named Jewel cause you were a gem of a person in college. Itna phonde ke baadh bhi humle kaise rehta ye aadmi, aaj thak ni samajh aaya. Glad we got to connect because we've had similar liking to certain coloured flags (red) lmao. - Harihara Kalimuthu

Hello Akka, Ela unnaru. I did not spend time with you much but I still remember the first time I spoke with you on Instagram asking how you knew Poojith. Then I got to know that you were my Narayana senior. I started calling you Akka from then on. I did not know you much since the beginning, you were as mysterious to me as you look. But always friendly and smiling face is what I saw from you. I met you offline and you were one caring one, I feel you were one of the initial people who understood my feelings and cared about me. We have come quite far from that stage, but I wish I had spent more time with you guys. I felt excluded don't know why but maybe it was my nature as such. But thanks a lot raa for listening to my problems whenever I shared them with you. I am really happy about your existence in my college life. - Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

First day on campus :
2nd October 2021, a day I will always remember. As a COVID batch we had to undergo screening and were quarantined in the old parijat. 4 times a day I came out of the room to finally see human souls who seemed excited, scared, happy and some finally free from home.

Favourite campus memory :
Felicity of 2023. Disappointed by how rain had ruined our hours of practice, though I didn€™t get to perform but the time I spent with all of my friends under one roof in Himalaya in the rainy chill night is a memory I never want to forget.

One thing you will miss the most :

Ela start cheyalo telidhu :(but i don't know why i like motivating you cause you keep worrying for everything like a small kid...sare le nenu kuda anthe anuko but still i like supporting you in the things that you worried about especially during placements...Literally we both helped eachother during preparation time and we finished up everything and motivated ourselves and finally PLACED.....super happy keerthi....I always see you as a responsible person in every bond like as a friend... (....you know LOL)...daughter etc... Proud of you da....Wish you ALL THE BEST ra... TAKE CARE....and MISS YOU - Merugu Nanditha

Dear Keerthi, you've got this incredible blend of tradition and western values that's really inspiring. Remember that time before placements when you were studying non-stop outside RC Prasad's office at T-Hub? Your dedication blew me away! But what I like most about you is how much you care about others. Your sense of humor is always a surprise and makes me think if it's really you. And you're so open about sharing your goals and feelings, it's refreshing. Your singing voice – it's seriously good! You have proved your conviction and determination to achieve something in multiple cases. The latest one was with Muruku. I don't need to mention about placements separately. You take stand for yourself, and you are independent which I truly admire. But I was really shocked that you also do "magic" in projects. I have got to know this side of yours only recently. I wish you all the best for the future. You're a true gem, Keerthi, and I'm grateful to have you as a friend. I wish we'd met sooner. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Thank you for being a very cool and responsible APEX colleague of mine. I still remember how, in the batch trip, you liked using wet wipes to cool down in the summer heat. Wishing you all the very best ahead! - Harshit Gupta

Keerthi, stylish queen, my heart!!!! i like the way u dress up and mostly i like your name the most. Congratulations #apple!!!! and all the best ra - Yadavalli Anantha Lakshmi

Hello Keshav Sir, Party de dena placement ki, keep in touch - ROHAN GUPTA

Hello Keshav, aka the anime guy, I am really glad to have had you as a friend and roommate through this college journey. My dear Surati buddy, I still remember us getting to know that we literally live in the same neighbourhood while on a Teams call for a project. From that time to today, we have created so many memories together- roaming around in Surat visiting temples, parks, and having AI cold coco 😍, then coming to campus and becoming roommates, the house dance, having so many discussions on such a wide range of topics, and so many more that it is impossible to list them all. You have a very tender, caring and soft heart, and are always thoughtful about ones you hold dear. You are also a very genuine and honest person, never afraid to speak your mind and I appreciate you for it. Stay in touch. I am really glad to call you a close friend and will be there for you anytime, so never hesitate to reach out. I already know you will do great, just socialise a little more and have fun. Enjoy the journey ahead! - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

I first met Keshav during the quarantine, and he quickly became one of my first friends on campus. I'll never forget the time I told him the story of Dracula during one of our campus walks. He's such a fun person to be around, always positive (not COVID positive 😅) and lifting everyone's spirits. Keshav was one of the early members of our legendary mess group. We spent countless hours in the mess, diving into conversations that spanned from general ethics to the intricacies of college life. Working with him on our mechatronics project was a blast—he was a great teammate. Keshav is incredibly sincere, helpful, and hardworking. He's also, without a doubt, the most social person I've ever met. This guy can make friends with absolutely anyone! Had a lot of fun with you, man! Stay in touch! - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala"

Hello Keshav I still remember our first interaction with a discussion about AEC when waiting for our daily checkup in quarantine. I haven't spoken with you much but I wish I have spoken with you more. I recognize you as a determined, motivated, and kind person whom I could have spent more time with. Thanks a lot for being a part of my college life.

Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Keshav is an extrovert, but he doesn't agree. He is a nice guy with a pure heart. One can just go and speak with him to spend time when bored. I still remember the days when I went to his room and we had a great chat till late night. Keshav is a hardworker and does things what he likes instead of going with the herd. Thanks for being my friend and have a great life ahead bro. - Karthik Prasanna N

Hello Kibhu,I have known you since my 2nd year. You were that guy with high values and one of the most brilliant minds I know. One thing with you is that you get too sensitive sometimes but you are one of the people seriously good by heart. People like you are needed in civils but make sure to think of the validity of the person before trusting him as you are the most supportive person I saw when it comes to defending the people you love. Though you are the silent guy, you have a lot of potential, and don't be weakened by whatever you feel otherwise. I was grateful for all the moments we had together. Thanks! and all the best for whatever you will be achieving in the future. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav best Bangalore supporter (although you don't really live in it) - Abhinav S Menon

Good morning 🌞🌻 May your day be as bright and lovely as you are ✨ - Me. Well you've subscribed to me for life. All the endless laughter, night walks, pop culture discussions (trying to not say only TS), eye rolling and me keeping up with your dumbness cause, I'm nice like that. Thanks for caring so much, being such a pillar, just know that whatever happens, I'm always one call away. And if I was to think about something about you that I'll miss the most, well that has to be your bottle. - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

You've always been someone I can depend on to be there for me. Thanks for understanding what I'm saying even when I don't understand it myself xD You're a literal pop-culture encyclopedia; music, movies, all of it, loved all those convos :) Gonna miss rolling our eyes when those guys launch into their Marathi talks (next Ssos concert we're going) - Sneha Raghava Raju

Lakshmanan is one of the hardest-working people this planet has seen. I've known him to juggle an impossible amount of tasks, and still make time for JC runs to burst out laughing about the most random sequence of words concocted by one of us. I'm glad the fates had it in them to give us more moments to bond and deepen our friendship than there otherwise would've been, because it's a privilege to be his friend. - Pratyaksh Gautam

What da. You're funny sometimes. My first friend in college and it has been quite a ride. So many memories! Have a great last year, don't stress and have a ton of funn :) - Ananya Sane

hi daaaaaaaaaaaa thanks for being there for me throughout college life. thank god we were in the same dsm lab lmao. thanks for laafing at my memes, at least the funny ones. gonna miss ur goofy laugh and goofy face. now go do cool shit in the real world (tm) ooj 89m ok - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

Second person I met on campus and how that changed the flow of my college life. A blind Gojo devotee, refuses to elaborate. Mid pokemoner, but Jesus hard carrying rn. Need to do more soul links after finishing this :) - Abhijith A

There are few people in the world who are as caring as you are. I appreciate you very much, even though I may not say that at all. I love how passionate you are about things, and know that you'll be very successful in whatever you do - Jatin Agarwala
One of the very first friends I made in IIIT, and its insane how the connect has remained. It's always fun discussing stuff with you, from anime to random things. Keep going with the stupid jokes. You say stupid things most of the times, but you're also incredibly smart, and the amount of effort you put into things always inspires me. All the best for what is to come! and do stay in touch :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

It's been go/jover for months but this man's "shut up, strong delusion" will never die. 99% cope, 1% chance - this man frfr - Amal Sunny

Lunccc! You're one of the smartest and most humble people I've ever met. orz sir! Also, cars 2 was really good no matter what you say :P - Gaurav Singh sometimes I wonder whether you do anything but read manga/watch anime but then I remember that you're a multi-faceted genius also. I guess that's just how it is huh, this bainjod. - George Paul

Mans clinically delusional but somehow one of the smartest people I know. Spoiling and discussing the newest JJK chapter with him is one of my best sources of entertainment. Keep going my dude, all the best. PS: Its gojover - Aaron Anthony Monis

You really remind me of my pet. Hello da, You were one of the people I got to know online that you were from Bangalore, you and Sane were friends and you liked anime. I was one of the weeb which was one of the main reasons we got closer. I still remember discussing topics of Signal Processing in Discord. The experience I had when I first came to quarantine, I don't think I can ever forget it. I was eager to meet you and then message you and you turn out to be beside my room. So I bang the wall to say Hi :P(a little stupid I was but a lot excited). I loved spending time with you guys in my 2nd year. I am lot happy that a friend so genius exists in my life. I always like the way you take things seriously. I really loved working with you in Flexible Electronics, EW2 and also DVD for that matter. I almost always wonder how can a person be so good at the work they do. One of the regrets I have is that I did not spend great amount of time with you guys and I wish I had spent some more time. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT life.- Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Hiee! It was always nice talking to you when we randomly bumped into each other on the way to thub. You are such a sweet and smart person <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Wrong question. Its for people who have it

First day on campus :
Omg my memory is so fuzzy now but I was so excited. I was talking with friends all night. I was very nervous too. But the adventure seemed so cool everything disappeared in that moment. I'm sure I would have seen the campus twice. I thought about how I would get lost in such a big place xD small one

Favourite campus memory :
Faculty Quarters. ISB. Singing. Window Shopping. Adventures. Nothing else needs(left) to be said.

One thing you will miss the most :
My friends. My mom chimed in saying deadlines at 12. Guess that's also true.

Best thing you learned from here :
How to be chill when everything is burning How to make friends for a lifetime My potential Best way to destroy one's health

Favourite place in campus :
Sathvika's room. Literally any bench under a tree. Library

Biggest Change since your first year :
Me, can't believe how much I changed.

Hello my dear walking partner!!!!!!!!!!. she is the main reason why i addicted to roam around the college for walking.Last days of my college were mostly with this girl ,singing loudly by keeping songs in spotify beside T-Hub.we used to watch movies,study just day before the exam,roam around the college,do chitchat in my room and this goes on.....She explores more ,but the thing is she tries to put all other people like me in the center,arey entra nuvvu andarni lagutavuuuu!!! . I learned how to enjoy even small things in our life from her.She is very genius and spontaneous,but sometimes she act like soooo stupid. I think she is the very strong personality in my friends circle. I would say don't change your mindset or attitude for anyone in your life . Your are already best raaa ,do even more bessssttttttt. - Mahesh Sathvika

Hi Girija, I like you very much. You are one of my very few best friends. You care and support your loved ones a lot. The thing i like the most about you is you do what you love. I could not have done many crazy things in college without you. You have a unique personality that I admire.Though you are different from the kind of people I generally like, you somehow became very dear to me. I really like spending time with you. We had many good memories singing , telling each other different stories ,speaking heart out ,sharing many secrets and gossiping. You have a lot of courage and I admire the way you stand for others.I am very grateful to you.Thank you for being my friend and supporting me.I hope you achieve what ever you wish for. - Yeduru Rupasree

Girija, my cutee and lovely friend I have ever met in my lifee... we have enjoyed a lot being roomates. I still remember we drawing on walls of our room, walking together, debating about society and things, and I have always admired you for your cleanliness xDD.. You are UNIQUE. You are the naughtiest girl in our group, always cherishing every moment, a manga freak (remember, I am the victim of your loud laughter while reading manga), vegetarian, #feminist, fast learner, stylist, and so on.. I have whole list to write on. I love roasting you a lott and I will not stop that. Not only as roommates, I remember the sleepless nights we spent working on deadlines, learning a lot from you, and not giving up until the very last second. You have been there as a supporter during my tough times. You used to take care of me when I fell sick in the first place. Always be who you are (but please don't be a OCD freak). I am very grateful to have a friend like you. Don't forget to smile. Take care. - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

You are a genuinely sincere friend, you supported me a lot throughout the years here and I can't thank you enough. You have such a positive vibe and it made my time in college much better, I can never forget how you tried to uplift me and made me feel better whenever I felt low and I will always be grateful for a friend like you. You are smart, cute etc etc but most importantly you are a very kind and considerate person which will always make you stand out anywhere you go. Love you:) - Surabhi Jain

She is the craziest person I have ever met. She is the most mature yet childish person. If she wants to do it, she will do it. I think she is the first person who clicked a selfie with me.We had spent a lot of time discussing about complex bengali movies she used to narrate . We were opposite poles as persons, and that's why may be I connected with her. When we went to a trip and did trekking , honestly I wouldn't be able to complete the trek without the support of her and we were the only persons who went into waterfall despite not knowing swimmimg. She reads a lot of books and and narrate stories to me and if any body sees the books in English Literature section in our Library , almost every book card has her roll number on it. And I seriously think she should do fashion designing, because she wears same clothes in different ways and in the starting I felt everyday she was wearing new clothes. She is going to pursue her higher education abroad. I will miss her so much and I wish all the best for her future. - Mandyam Brunda

"Hi Girija, I am very grateful to have you as a friend and well wisher in my life. We made a lot of memories from late night walks in 2nd year, to passing time in back bench. Thankyou for making timetable for me even though i never followed it(sorry) and buying me snacks in VC when I don't have money. wish you all the best for your future. Grow some trees and stay happy in your life. lets make sure to be in touch in this adventurous life. - Dereddy Anantha Shayana Reddy

Hello, had a lot of fun in the trip and in SE as well. Was very good to have u in GS as well (much needed company) . A very unique soul and a very caring person anipinchavu . I wish you all the best for all ur future endeavors. - Evuri Indra Deepika

Girija, you have a unique personality! I admire the way you care about friends, the way you dream big, your fearless attitude toward obstacles, your physical and mental strength..I can never forget the way you helped me during our initial college days. I was struggling with adjusting to a new set of people and you helped me in passing that phase. Thank you for helping me in crucial moments and I'm sure you will excel in every task you take up. All the very best for your future endeavors - Sudi Ananya

"Hi giri bro!! Anime, Manga, ... Prnd. 10 mins ante just 1 hr teesukune frnd 😆😆. US ki vellaka kuda gurthupettuko. And whenever u come to India meet us. All the best bro. - Tharigopula Manaswini"
You are one of my close friends. I can share anything that comes to my mind with you without any hesitation. All the best for your future endeavours Akka ❤️ - Bhumireddy Kiran Reddy

Hey Girija! Thank you for being there for me too. I wish I had got to know you at the beginning of our college, we could've spent more time together and learned more about each other. You're a good friend of mine. I hope everything goes well for you. Best of luck! - Narra Srija

Hello Girija, I think I have known you longer than any other person on campus. Sometimes close sometimes far away, but one thing about you never changed. Your stupidity. (was just kidding, it's your nature to be kind). I don't know how a person can be such brave and kind at the same time. I heard many stories about you and the way you dealt with something bad happening with a woman and I wonder how is such an attitude even possible. I have been your teammate also and though I act all strict and all, I can say for sure that you are one of those people who take work as an opportunity to learn and not something to get over with. I adore this quality of yours a lot. You are soo pure-hearted, which makes you one of the best persons I ever met. Sometimes I just think if only you were more focused on grades and were filled with a bit of aim toward a specific field, I bet no known force in this world would be able to stop you from in whatever you wish to become. That is the determination you hold within yourself🌟. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Hi Girija, you have been a very good friend to me throughout my IIITH life .Very thanks for being there for me whenever I need you. You are a very energetic and confident person that I always get inspired from. I wish the best things happen to you throughout your life. I will miss our days together in IIITH. Keep in touch! - Jujjuru Ruchitha Girija..such a unique personality, chala daring and dashing.Chala sarlu kotta things cheyadaniki I take you as an inspiration. All the best for your future and love you :) - Pappula Sri Loukya

"I really admire your bravery and exploring nature. You take great care of the people close to you. New Year and Holi were more fun with you. Thanks for your hoodie in Ooty :) "Samudraala kanna sogesantha loothe..." — this song is an emotion for us. US lo job ochaka party ivvu ra! - Amaraneni Greeshma

Hello twin sista, very happy finding one that can share a bday with me.Hehe. You give the aura of a strong independent woman.stay same, stay happy. And ofcourse all the best for your future. 🫶 - Syed Imami

First day on campus :
The first day I came to campus I remember seeing OBH and thinking why does this look like a prison. It literally has the same color scheme as a what you would imagine a prison to have. I saw a lot of people from our batch and tried to see if I could match the person with their teams profile pic.

Favourite campus memory :
My favourite campus memory is having those late night walks at like 2am with my friends. We would go to JC have coffee or soda and then from there go for a walk around the campus. We discussed about all sorts of things. I also loved having game nights in my room.

One thing you will miss the most :
Miss chilling in my friends room late at night. Will miss the late night talks and will also miss gaming with a lot of people in a single room.

Best thing you learned from here :
I learnt how to deal with people from different backgrounds. I was never exposed to speaking with so many people from so many different locations.

Favourite place in campus :
My favourite place in campus has to be JC nothing better than chilling with friends and grabbing some drink.

Biggest Change since your first year :
One biggest change is now I stopped paying attention to very small problems. I used to get stressed about small problems but these days I take them as challenges and try to solve them.

A CLD Bond, gamer and fast-food eater. You have a unique personality, combining levelheadedness and tolerance with smartness. Thank you for hosting our friends during IPL nights or when we ordered dinner. If not for you, I doubt I would have gamed or ordered food as much as I did, especially during the last 2 semesters. I probably wouldn't have played cricket or badminton as many times either, so thanks for that. Above all, thanks for being a great friend who was always open-minded and stayed positive whenever random stuff happened in our college that all of us needed to adjust to. How you also managed to do so consistently well at academics, I have no idea - but great stuff man! I know you will do well in life and I wish you all the best for the future. - Vikram A Rao

I often think you would be the perfect friend I could have had in my childhood. You magically bring out the immature side of me, the whiny, the bitchy and moody side of me as well, and that's fitting for one of the first friends I made when I joined IIITH. You're the little brother I've never had, and that's saying something. Thanks for being the best gaming buddy, and I will look fondly back at the times we spent together with the guys back in E13 or M4. You are a good listener and have a golden heart to put up with guys like us. Madurai Super Giants would not exist without you, as you are literally and figuratively the centre of the group and its antics. I hope we will still be in touch after college. Thanks for coming into my college life. Hmu, if you ever wanna get crushed in RL. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

I'm sure some people would disagree, but at least with me, you seemed to be a very chill person who was also genuine most of the time. These qualities of yours really helped me get close to you quickly. I always felt like I could be more open with you than others since I felt a level of maturity that others seemed to be missing. Also, thank you for sacrificing your room every week for game nights, and also sorry for absolutely trashing it. While I did not really enjoy playing FIFA and F1, I am happy that I could watch you guys play while I interrupt with my unnecessary commentary. All in all I couldn't ask for a better friend, I really hope we can keep in touch even after we escape this hell. Wish you the very best for all your future endeavors. - Aakash Terala

"Possessor of an astute mind, leetcode connoisseur. One of the most exciting up and coming AI engineers in the subcontinent. Goated in every domain and all sports (except tt) you are a genuine all rounder, like your idol hardik pandya. Possesses great taste in U (3+) rated movies and mid taste in sports teams.

Over the years, I've grown used to being able to rely on your room for advice or assistance on anything, at any time. Always enthusiastic and down to do stuff, and willing to patiently help out with good vibes and positivity. Keeps cool in every situation, clutch man. Pretty much best neighbour and friend I could've hoped for. Thanks for making college life a lot better, and for helping reduce the nation's unemployment rate. All the best for the future - I think you're a great fit for the path you're on, and will be for any path you choose. - Nitin Rajasekar

Mini viniii, Minicius Junior!! I am really sad that you stopped playing football with us. You were really good at playing football and your center of gravity helped you a lot. It was tough to tackle you. It was good being in your NNLG project team and seeing CLD people tackle the project. You have been a good friend and I really like how you are good at many things. It was fun playing badminton with you and wished we could play more. All the best to your research and career! - Shubh Agarwal

Dear Vini Jr junior, Could've gone with minicius or minivini, but gonna stick with my original coinage which I take complete credit for xD (Others just copied me). I think I first met you through Aneesh and since then we've had a lot of memories. Football with you was crazy fun (tho you were always on 1 bar of stamina) and the RL and fifa sessions where you always got thrashed. You are an amazing and cheerful person with always a smile on ur face. Stay the absolute same. Thank you for always lending the 3rd controller, sonyliv for football matches (Congrats on yet another scam UCL title) and above all RDR 2!!...wouldn't have experienced that beauty if not for you (it's still with me btw xD). Here's to another year of chilling scenes! - Ankithvarun J

Asapu, Playing with you across all games and sports has been some of the best and most frustrating(winning so much becomes pointless) times in my college life. Your instant wit and barbs are the source of much joy! You being my first international friend in IIITH, I have had the pleasure of seeing you improve yourself with my assistance in games like FIFA and RL.

You are also very focused and hardworking for your goals! you have your priorities right and are always looking for ways to grow. You are a great fun to be around and have the right things to say always. Keep being you, Likith. never change! - Khush Devendra Patel

Likhith Sirrrr ! I know you are goated cuz you support madrid, the greatest club of all time, just like me. Talking and interacting with you is always fun and comforting. You always manage to cheer people up around you and I believe thats an amazing quality to have. Best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

You are a very sweet and witty guy. The biggest kassi in college and an even bigger snake (Everytime you used to tell you didn't start reading when infact you had finished preparing). I loved playing RL matches with you and reached your level almost. You have a sharp mind (which is evident from your kassi behavior) and a sense of sincerity is present in you when it comes to work/acads. I definitely had a lot of fun and enjoyment playing badminton with you. The funniest moment would be to see you miss your smash straight some 20 times in a row xD. I would always treasure the moments when we used to hangout together, the banters we used to have and the complete nonsense that you used to blabber sometimes lmao. You are really helpful and it's been an absolute delight in your company. I wish you achieve great heights in your career and life. Hoping to see you again soon. - Ayush Agrawal

"Mini Vini. Minicius Jr. Vini Jr. Jr. The names will never end lol. I first met you in quarantine and then we were neighbors in OBH. Will always cherish the crazy fun moments we had together especially playing FIFA where I used to win most of the time (when you didnt take Madrid xD). You are also the biggest prankster I met in campus and we had some crazy fun together. But you're also one of the biggest snakes lol. Looking forward to catching up with you more in the future and good luck for everything brother!! PS: You cant beat me in both arm wrestling and FIFA - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Lil man Minicius jr. jr. !!!! Hella Fun guy to hang out with. One of the first few guys I gelled with on campus. Also most unreliable dude ever, it's impossible to know whether ur trolling us or being fr. Playing fifa/rl with you guys was one of the elite memories on campus. If you had more than 5 mins of stamina you'd be national level football player. Best of luck for all your future endeavors and hope we meet in bangalore. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Bangladeshi Immigrant !!! Has only met his advisor a handful of times in 2 years (Not his fault tho). An unreal CR7 supporter. VCARB for life (has to support as he interns at VISA). Famous quotes include "Korbo, Lorbo, Jeetbo" and "Sui". Partner in crime for skipping CLD dinners. Button mashing merchant, that's why he's too good in lame games like COD, FIFA and Rocket League. This person is like Michael Jordan (Blud's actual height is 4'2) - raises the bar so high. College just wouldn't be the same shenanigan-fest without you !!! - Rahothvarman P

Vini Junior Juniorrrrr. You are someone I'm very grateful to have met in college. You have a very uplifting vibe to you and I've never seen you get too worried about anything (or at least you don't ever show it). One thing I really like about you is how dedicated you are to your work. I'll miss the days when we used to have late night conversations about random things and I hope we can keep in touch after we graduate. You have amazing work ethic and are one of the few people I know who can out troll me. We have insane link up on many different things ranging from games to academics. I'll miss thrashing you in FIFA and RL. All said and done, I wish you all the best with your future endeavours in life. - Aum Alok Khatlawala literally the best roommate. i miss staying up till 4am just vibing T_T bangalore's best representative - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

Hello CRF! I had a really, really fun time being your branch mate and lunch mate. It always entertained me when I would create discord, and you would all have a go at each other during lunch. Playing the football tournament with you during our third year was really special, and I am glad we came 2nd. - Harshit Gupta

lokesh.v@research.iiit.ac.in lokeshvenkatachalam

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was spent in Bakul quarantine. Outside of quarantine, my first memory is lobbying the security guard to allocate me a separate room without a roommate so Mugu could join me.

Favourite campus memory :
Tamil New Year celebrations 2022 where we cooked food, Felicity in 2nd year, wall painting, ICPC 2021-22

One thing you will miss the most :
I guess the late night discussion in my room with my friends.

Best thing you learned from here :
Hard work makes Anything potential, and good friends improve life by 100% other than the Computer science.

Favourite place in campus :
E320, M106, where all buddies assemble at night and rant over. CSTAR 108 will miss all the fun times I had with my research mates.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I got my motivation back in life and academics back when the offline college started in 2-2, a big change in my life.

BOND. Loki is a very amazing and nice person. One of those rare people being with whom you don't realise time passing. My favourite part is to sit with Lokesh and bring up the topic of politics. The passion with which he talks about the subject is amazing!! His favourite adjective for anyone is ""yov Paithyakara"" 😂. Not to mention, how many people are employed because of him 😂😂. He has many hidden talents, like art, but unfortunately he just hides it. Hopefully you will give more time to such things later on in life. The enthusiasm with which he carried us in the Felicity Wall painting... We'll stay in touch ❤️ - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Ah, yes, my politically-savvy friend! Lokesh is one of my closest buddies (both figuratively and literally - his room was right next to mine!) in college. We first crossed paths in the OBH E block 3rd floor corridor, and of course, our initial conversation was about Indian and international politics (no surprises there!). I soon discovered that Lokesh is a fellow math enthusiast, and our shared interests in politics and math made us fast friends. When double occupancy was a thing, I probably spent more time in Lokesh and Mugundan's room than my own! We had countless fun and interesting moments, like Lokesh carrying the DSA team and showing a particular interest in some interesting (cough, cough...) Game of Thrones scenes. Lokesh is incredibly hardworking and kind, always there to help me navigate college life. I genuinely hope all your dreams, both professional and political, come true (and I still hold out hope that you'll someday give up web development and Gupta). Stay in touch, man! We had a blast! - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

Lokesh, the ICPC bond, politics scholar, math bond, everything (except English) bond, the titles goes on.😇 Lokesh is such an intellect with a kind heart❤️ to help everyone at the expense of his time and jobs. He keeps every conversation interesting and fun that I will just slide in to his 'public room' whenever I felt bored. Huge thanks for all the help that you have done throughout my college life.☺️ The helps were so huge that I can never pay you back. Hope you will find your love soon.😉 And I hope you will become a big politician someday. All the best for your life macha. சற்றே நிமிர்ந்தனே் தலை சுற்றிப் போனனே் ஆஹா அவனே வள்ளலடி. - Karthik Prasanna N

I don't know where to begin to describe our relationship(though I can start by saying not gay). We were a pair of Tamil guys stuck in a Hindi world, and we got along in our introverted-ness. Somehow, we attracted other introverts, like Nemani and Avyukta, and came to discuss a great many number of topics over which we bonded and gelled over. He's helped me overcome a great number of situations and I couldn't have asked for a better friend to start college with. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Lokesh is the kindest person I know on campus. You can name people in the batch, and he would've helped them in some way. I hope he cherishes his kindness in this mad world. He's also one of the smartest people I know on campus and I've learnt a lot from him at IIIT. From the abandoned discord server we had to the multiple whatsapp and signal groups now, I hope we always stay connected. - Shikhar Saxena

I've always admired Lokesh's dezire to helping those around him, whether through his role as MP, TA, or his involvement in politics. His room has always been a hub for the most engaging and thought-provoking discussions. My only regret is not getting to know him sooner. Lokesh, I hope you never lose your passion for making a difference. And by the way, let's publish SLRNet one day! 😆 - Shreya Jitendra Patil

Was fun doing ICPC together. I'll never forget our Pune regional experience xD All the best for everything, and hope we get to meet again! - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Friendly, dependable, funny, helpful and smart! You're the whole package! Cheers, mate! - Aditya Harikrish

Man's a CP god (both CP and CP). Infact Lokesh is soo good that g++ -O4 sends your code to Lokesh to rewrite it. A regular member of the Knights of the retarded round table, We spent more time from discussing absolutely smack and useless shit to the welfare of the nation in your room and always was a great company. Bro singlehandedly carried projects as well and can spot bugs with an eye closed. It was a great time with Lokesh and friends. Stay in touch man!! - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

Hey Loki, We have had an interesting meeting, hope you will remember. I found you very heartful, very loving, and intelligent, obviously. You have been instrumental in these 3-4 years, whether it is scolding my advisor or ranting about life (you know which one), but it has been amazing to share and have our heartfelt moments together. You have helped everyone a lot, and i helped you get TI although the purpose was to get me ;). There is a lot to write, but I don't want to put you on a pedestal. You will always be my go-to, man; I hope our loving relationship remains like that forever. You Friend, Rohan Gupta - ROHAN GUPTA

A day is incomplete without roasting you for various reasons. Sometimes my jokes get so far but you have taken those very sportively (got some punches because of it). Jokes apart, the most selfless guy ever. He cares about us more than ourselves. Will never forget your help through those tough internship and placement seasons, not only for me but for so many people in the campus. I loved talking about political stuff and sensitive matters, the only person who is so knowledgeable in all the topics. Your O F will forever be my favorite. Thank you for everything and I will miss you Vaira Muthu. – Ruhul Ameen S

Good guy. One of my best friends. Most selfless person I've met on campus. Helped a lot during placements. He was more that the people sitting for placements. Apart from that, all the fun discussions we've had about politics, cricket (and about how his brother beats him 😂). The memories will last forever. - Gokulraj R

Hii Lokesh.. never ever have seen that dint of tenseness on your face, but have seen you taking the utmost care of the people around you! You have always had that positive, happy aura around you that I really admire. Stay the same <3 Thank you so much for encouraging me and giving that helping hand. Would really miss you and making fun of Gupta together (would always be by your side xD) All the very best and please be in touch :) – Anjali Singh

The first time i met lokesh was after a CP Team Contest(in the first week of joining), when he was explaining a cp problem. Being a introvert, instead of talking to him, i decided to stalk him on facebook, where i saw young lokesh bullying other teams in Codechef competitions. Initially I wasnt sure if we would click, but upon meeting him in person, I discovered that he is a delightful blend of humor and intellect. Loved our conversations spanned topics from cricket to Tamil cinema, revealing shared interests in Novak Djokovic and Virat Kohli. Hope we cross paths again in the future! - Harish Umasankar

Best MP daaaa, got elected and the end and handled so many things so well. Salute to the saviour of the batch :salute: - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Forever the warm, inviting friend. Whether it's late night discussions on communism and politics are random chats in the mess, being the TA for our CS related courses or helping out with CP, lokesh is our agony aunt for all algorithms related shit. Keep being the same affable, sweet guy man. - Tanmay Bhatt

Hello Lokesh, Our interaction was more during the ending. From the recent conversations, I felt you're one of the genuine, intelligent, and understanding people. You are funny and the conversation over politics, though we had differences of opinions was something I loved. I also loved the discussion we had regarding the advancements and the campus politics. I wish I really had spent more time with you. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT Life. You are one of the best coders I have met and hope you are enjoying your time at TI. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Hey Lokesh Can never forget all of the memories we made during your intern and my placement season. From paper checking of DSA students to running between TLs for their lab exam, it was very fun to have you around. You are a very sensible guy with a welcoming personality. I hope you stay that way. I will miss my political discussions with you (you were probably the only one who had that much of an interest as me). Can't wait to see all the big things you achieve in life and our paths to cross again! Cheers - Anish Mathur

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

First day on campus :
I was reading Murakami's Norwegian Wood, stretching my legs in the balcony, winter sun, PhD quarters, 2022 December. Quarantined. AHH LITTLE DID I KNOW

Favourite campus memory :

One thing you will miss the most :

I have always admired Manav, especially during our time together on campus as part of the same LE batch, as he demonstrated his ability to adapt to new surroundings, embracing the culture as it was and quickly finding the things and people that pushed and motivated him, much faster than most of us. His constant curiosity and eagerness to learn have always been an inspiration to me. Manav's ability to articulate thoughts clearly, his engagement in deep discussions, his diverse interests in life, art, and media, and his commitment to maintaining fitness while managing a heavy workload are qualities I strive to emulate. Though I haven't often expressed it directly, I am truly grateful for his constant support and encouragement, particularly regarding my fitness progress. I hope Manav finds something that fulfills him, as I believe he certainly has the skills and drive to achieve whatever he wants in life. - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Amazing dancer. Will never forget pitching the dance idea to you and how rushed everything was, but that night was worth all the effort <3 Insanely good at both teaching, coming up with cool moves and a very passionate dancer. Keep pursuing it, you've got some mad moves! - A Kishore Kumar

Every time I talk to you, I learn something new. How is that even possible? Your introspective and passionate discussions are always a treat to be part of, and I am proud to call you a friend. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

My brother has infinite charisma. Cheerful, funny, passionate, talented. My gymbro, but with an insane personality, which has a lot to offer compared to anyone else I've seen. Thanks for teaching me some dance moves ;), I'm gonna need them, keep rocking. - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Manav sir!!! The man with the best music taste in THE ENTIRE COLLEGE! Thanks for introducing me to Santana, the Parcels and so many more artists. I would love to talk to you for hours about music trivia and I know you would too. You're an amazing dancer and a rad drummer. How so talented!! Our Pondi trip was one of the best memories of college and I hope we do that again! - Gaurav Singh

"Hii Manav Sir.. will really miss you and miss those early days on campus which because of you were much more fun and funkier. You completed our trio (if it weren't for that ""I"" movie character), especially with all those ""life-changing"" so-called deep discussions. Man(av).. never found a fashion geek like you and I think never will. I wish we could've hung out more often but hope we stumble across each other and have all those pending conversations! All the very best for whatever lies ahead. <3

And don't ever slip away a chance to flex your biceps and.. and never let go of that blazing charisma of yours :) - Anjali Singh

Manav ko kisi baat ka darr nahi hai, jab Ganesh ji usskey best friend hai. Aur mujhe kisi baat ka darr nahi hai kyonki Manav mera best friend hai. One of the most hard-working, dilligent, and dedicated people when it comes to work, and one of the most amazing dancers, partiers, and vibe-matchers of all time when it comes to fun. When Manav takes something seriously, you're going to want to watch what happens. He's a friend I just couldn't gatekeep from everyone else I hung out with, and I'm so glad for that. We're the most different people who could love all the same things, and that's what lets us show each other such beautiful new sides to things. I'm glad our fates intertwined, and I'm grateful that I can rely on you, and know you'll rely on me too. - Pratyaksh Gautam

peerless chad behavior. you'll always be my human. - George Paul

It's a shame that I only got to share the same city as you for seven and a half years, but be it fitness, fashion, film, or flavours of life - every conversation with you, better than the one before. Drinks on me the next time we meet. - Rajarshi Ray

Rizzz. Bowl me over each time with your style and presentation. Your self-confidence and composure is definitely something I look up to! Keep stealing hearts! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Man is the incarnation of Live Life Kingsize. You made the pondi trip memorable :) - Yash Mehan

Microgenres will come, and microgenres will go, but a friend like you is hard to come by, and even harder to let go off. It's weird how we never got to know each other until this sem, but I hope we can make up for it in the I extra year that this college has forced upon us - Jatin Agarwala

"The true backbone when nothing seemed right in life. I don't even remember how I started talking to you, what I know is we went to Onesta together, talked, it felt nice and then a truly unbreakable friendship followed. Thank you for always standing beside me, helping me, listening to my rants and honestly helping me grow. I really cherish the friendship we have. Thank you for being a part of my life and pls continue to do so. All the best man. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

you said it yourself brother, one yearbook testimonial isn't enough to convey how i feel about you. literally the coolest and most cultured individual i know on the entire goddamn planet- you have no idea how much you've influenced my life brother. from changing my entire trajectory in life by exposing me to some actually good music, to teaching me that thoda man-ly hona is also very integral and important (transformation/training era full chalu ho rakhi hai brother dw ;)), you have unironically broadened my worldview in ways i could've never imagined before joining college. to sum up everything, the best and highest compliment that i can bestow upon you, is that YOU are the type of person who i wished and always dreamed about meeting in college- someone who i can resonate to on a personal level, yet show me ways to deal with life with such a different and amazing mindset. a true brother from another mother. to all the memories we've created so far, and towards creating so many more, ily brother :') - Pranjal Thapliyal

A great friend, a good dancer, and a free-spirited individual. Always humble and to the ground. Good in academics, great in humanities. Been a great pleasure knowing you. It is sad that I never went out with our group. All the thought-provoking discussions that we did, be it in the mess or in the rooms just before the exam. Be it any occasion it always was great hanging out with you. Cheers to the memories we made and to many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

My gym, research and actual brother! I have enjoyed every moment spent with you, whether during our trip, lab dinners, or even when we sit in a mess and discuss research. You are the most fun and, at the same time, reasonable person with an impulsive energy to be around. Waiting for the day, we oil up together, XP. Brunda, you've always inspired me to do better in academics. The way you decode complex problems is amazing! And I can never forget your cute face, sweet smile and silky hair. I'm sure you'll excel in your profession but take care of these too! I always wanted to tell you that you're way more stronger and smarter than you think. I strongly believe that you can achieve anything in your life. All the best for your future endeavors. - Sudi Ananya

Hi brunda, My unofficial roommate ,one of my close friends and also coke lover!!(loves to drink it when it rains). We used to spent a lot of time discussing different movies, shows, assignments and it was very much fun, particularly watching June with you was one of my most favourite.I will always remember them. You are very much talented. You give your best in almost every project and try to achieve the best. Thank you for being my friend.I hope your dreams become true and stay happy. - Yeduru Rupasree

Brunda, in one word, is a study freak, she always cares about doing her best in studying. The discussion that happens between brunda and rupa during course selection is a very complex thing. I enjoyed chilling with you. When it comes to the jokes I make, I know they are a little stupid but I always enjoy sharing and laughing at the jokes and comedy with you. We had a lot of overnight discussions on the 3rd floor of New Parijat along with dlg sitting on the sofa and chilling. I felt like home being with you. You, me and sathvika are my non-veg partners, with whom I not only talk about non-veg but also enjoy the company eating non-veg. Always stay happy. I am grateful to have a friend like you. I hope you will receive best things in your life. :)) - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy Hiii bond brundha! It was nice working with you in CV and I&D projects. You are a really hardworking and sincere girl and am glad to have you as my friend. All the best for your future :) - Amaraneni Greeshma

Lovely cute Brunda.Brunda is brunda.You won't find another like her.She is the most nerdest,most sincere,most sleep lagged,most kdrama fan I ever met.She missed most of the events because she slept.We were her third floormates.Man such a solidarity.We were always in the same boat never belonged down stairs and never quite could mix with those upstairs.We used to have hour long walks in the corridor discussing stuff I don't remember now.But even then if there was something difficult I ever dealt with she always supported me.Not to mention that she took up honors because I influenced her.But that actually got the good out of her.Though she was a lot occupied sometimes.She was the most fearless of us.She is the smallest of us all too and the cutest.She watches movies,dramas,series a lot.She told me the stories of so many serials I didn't watch.We critically analysed all of them too,xDD.But we had a really good time.I hope she gets everything she dreamed of-so many things she deserves all of it.Never give up!! 🐬 - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

First day on campus :
That first real day on campus after quarantine was epic. I was in awe of all the greenery (RIP trees), drank the iconic Oreo shake at JC, and definitely 'borrowed' those extra mattresses from the storeroom. Little did I know it'd kick off some of the craziest years with friends who became family.

Favourite campus memory :
Some of my favourite times from campus are: 1) Playing football daily with the ECX batch when we were the only ones on campus 2) Roaming around with my SPCRC gang. There was a full summer vacation when we kept making impromptu plans daily 3) Taking care of Kanchan Sharma (a baby kitten) for a week

One thing you will miss the most :
The connections I've formed are for sure what I'll miss most. So many amazing friends have become like family, people I trust implicitly. Though our paths may diverge, the bonds we've built on the way will forever shape who I am. Parting is bittersweet, but I'm grateful for the journey we've shared.

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I learned was to unapologetically be my authentic self. If I'm more of the chill, quiet type who'd rather vibe with good people than be the life of the party, that's me. In the end, the special ones embrace every part - the quirks, quietness, the real you - no mask or front required.

Favourite place in campus :
The SPCRC lab room (and David's cabin) was my favourite place on campus. It has hosted our wildest antics and warmest moments - countless nights hosting intense pictionary battles, aantakshari sessions, private DJ and movie nights, card games, late-night paper writing sessions, and so much more.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Biggest change? I now know that I can

One of the most (if not the most) favorite gujjus on campus. Maulesh feels like home. Also one of the closest friends I have who also belongs to all the friend groups i'm part of. Needless to say, being a man of few words, he is possibly the greatest listener i've come across. Accompanying on each and every random trip to dealing with gujju stereotypes together, we've done it all together. P.S if Batman exists, Maulesh is the most likely to be him. He already has the sleep schedule and stealth skill needed for it Aavoj rehje maulesh, best che! - Tanmay Bhatt

Hey Maulesh!! What an amazing ride these 3 years were. I don't know when and how we got together, but you were forever there from the start of college. Even though we are moving in separate ways, I will forever cherish our memories together, be it cursing you for winning the card games, randomly waking you up from your deep sleep (what a pro sleeper you are 😂) or the random talks we had in our room while having the khakras from your home. Thank you for being an amazing friend. All the best for your future endeavours. As you read this, remember that you will always be my favourite Gujju - your Bengali friend. - Souvik Karfa

Yo Maules! Bhai tera room hamesha yaad rahega! Kya style thha tera sone ka <3.. Not kidding terese inspire hoke mai bhi Laptop ke saath sone laga thha... Bahut pyaari aur nyaari cheeje khilayi tune Surat ki.. Wo jo Aam kaat ke khaate thhe mil baat ke.. kya din thhe.. Aur tere football skill ke kya kehene.. please khelte rehna jivan bhar... aise dribbling skills kam hi log ke paas hote hai... Batch ka high-value player thha ek time pe.. when comeback? Aur kya mast stories hai bhai terepaas.. Srilankan roots ki kahaani, German bande ka exchange program, hamesha yaad rahega.. Rizzloard-trendsetter hai tu.. group ka sabse pehela banda jisko Bumble pe like mila.. Aasha hai aage bhi aise jalwe dikhte rahe.. Surat<<Mumbai - Jain Chirag Shantilal

Yo Mauless You are one of the kindest and funniest people I know. I am taking away so many memories of you and phase 10, poker and even that weird game you taught us. I have always admired your ability to not take pressure and remain calm and enjoy the lighter moments of life. Every project with you has felt achievable, not matter how daunting. It's not goodbye though as I am still in this city only (wow) and I'll keep coming and bothering you all the time. - Anish Mathur

Hi Maulesh!!, Its always fun hanging out with you guys!, you are like a batman of the group!! whenever we need you or want to talk to you, you will appear from nowhere.. banglore mall me bhi apna jadu dikha diye xD !. I know you talk less, but you are also a good listener and also good secret keeper xD.JC sessions, Campus walks are no fun whitout you, see you on campus!, here is to one more year of all the fun hangouts and adventures!! - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Hello ! Maulesh is very smart and sensitive. Loved our conversations about Chess and samay raina videos. Theres never a dull moment when you are with Maulesh. Loved our trips to wonderla and gokarting! Hope we cross paths again in the future. - Harish Umasankar

Dear Maulesh, The silent guy, Start se hi kaafi peaceful rhe ho; whenever I am hungry at night, I know I spot where I can get food and some chit chat, your place, especially during third wave, kafi support tha aapke kamre ka. And your snacks....ho ske to agle saal ke baad ek package bhejte rehna. Baaki memories,,,to abhi kafi bachi hai banani. and yes time flew kinda fast.. - ROHAN GUPTA

Hello Maulesh, I haven't spoken much with you since the start. I knew you via Manu and all. I know you as the silent guy. I wish I knew you better. But I really loved the Ananthagiri hills trip with you people. One of the regrets I would be carrying with me is that I was unable to spend much time with you. hope we get along in the future. Don't hesitate to message me if you want to talk to. All the best for whatever you want to achieve in your future. Yours Not So Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Return to this testimonial in 10 years later when you're a millionaire because of all the money you made winning at poker. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

The most refreshing person in the group man and the most non-controversial also :) All the way back to E-Block I remember eating Gujarati snacks in your room, waking up for EW2 was fun, just dragging to Nilgiri in the morning. I'm grateful for meeting such a good friend in my college. Stay in touch man, all the best. - Akshit Gureja

First day on campus :
Since i was from the covid batch so unofficial first day on campus was when i just entered the campus hoping to see some familiar faces from the online sem. And i first entered parijat old block for my quarantine and then i met some of my friends and the whole day was a combination of eat and sleep.

Favourite campus memory :
Favourite campus memory is my farewell the amount of mixed emotions that i had that day starting getting ready to clicking pictures with all of my friends to dancing it out in the after party. The first felicity was also something which i will always remember , the face painting and the dj nights.

One thing you will miss the most :
I had this ritual of playing mini militia daily with my friends and that used to be the only constant thing where we all used to meet. Apart from this all our trips together and the late night walks and the late night talks will also be missed a lot and holds a special place in my memory.

Best thing you learned from here :
Honestly the work life balance. No matter how much busy we used to be , still we used to take out time for clubbing or random plans. Be it going to creamstone or playing pool in the first year and then waking up til breakfast and then completing the work. Somehow we used to take out time for chillin

Favourite place in campus :
The juice cateen for sure. First it's the closest and it actually is a place where i remember we celebrated the first birthday of Karman,Aditya together and then had their GPL. And after all the parties it used to be a place for lemon soda .The hostel was also somethin fav cause it has good memories

Biggest Change since your first year :
I think i've become more mature and not at all afraid of challenges anymore. That attitude that i can do anything and enjoying

I think a testimonial isn't enough to express what you mean to me. Mujhe toh expected bhi nahi tha ki jisse randomly ek course ke group chat pe baat shuru hui thi wo roomie banega and itnaa harami niklega. I never knew koi aadmi itnaa bakchod ho sakta hai until I met you. Always in for any plan whatsoever no questions asked. I knew har moment me sabse ulti-seedhi cheez tu he sochta and plan karta hai and I think that is what made it so fun to be your roommate. Having those late night convos, from full random bakwas and making those stories (Novel likhde ab toh) to actual serious convos. I knew you were the person I could always turn to for anything in life, shayad umar ke saath experience hai ye tera xD. I know I am missing out on a lot of memories while writing this message but I think you already know those very well. Hope to meet you again soon brother. You made college life special. - Shreyash Jain

Bhaii tu, campus pr aane se jaane Tak Mera dance partner rha <3 Shuru krne se pehle gaali de deti taaki bc tashan side krde xD Apne dono kitne acche convos kre Hain yaar and you've been a friend Jo whenever I needed bas humesha hota tha. Also our shauk for clubbing Jo bc last last mein gye apan and had so so so much fun✨ Also thanks for taking care of my drunk ass xD Chutiye bhool mat jaana vrna gurgaon aake pitungi - Shivangi Agarwal

The quintessential gymbro of IIIT. Aadhe batch ko gym shuru karvadiya (including me) aur ab mujhe bhi gym ki addiction ho gayi hai. Hamesha hi calorie surplus mein rehta hai aur bulk karta rehta hai. Tere saath ekdum unfiltered convo karna bahut easy hai and isliye bahut maza bhi aata hai baat karne mein. Aur upar se teri kahaniya bhi nahi khatam hoti, ig boodhe hone ki wajah se itni kahaniya collect kar chuka hai. Bas tu bahut door chala gaya hai bro, jaldi se company change karke blr aaja. Vaise bhi apne trips to hote hi rahenge to milte rahenge always. - Kushagra Kharbanda

You were the first person I ever interacted with, and believe me, I was so happy that there was at least one other person in our cluster who was as excited and chatty as me. I have never seen you upset or sad, no matter the situation or workload. No one else can pull off partying without being drunk like you do. Where do you get all that energy from, yaar? I can never forget the phone-breaking incident—one of the funniest stories for me to tell.And how can I forget those tight fitting tsirts :p I will always remember you as my first college friend and dance partner (I couldn't have pulled off that dance without you). All the best for the future, and I hope we meet again someday. - Khushi Agarwal

bade bhaiya pe aur wo bhi sab sach sabit ho gayi, job lite le aur book chhaapna shuru kar, bestseller ban jaegi. Varna DJ ki job ke liye bhi tu best hai, room mei pc se hi vibe bana deta hai tu, bas syshtum hona chahiye aur kuchh nhi. Varna gym trainer option to tere pas hamesha hi hai, tu hamare grp mein sabka trainer reh chuka hai at some point lol, itne options hain tujhe kabhi lay off ki chinta hi nhi hogi. Apni team badiya rehti thi chahe course projects ho chahe mini militia, tu akele hi kai bar carry kardeta tha. Ab tak tere se zyada hardcore psg fan nhi dekha maine bcoz of mbappe, ab to shayad Real support karega tu XD. Teri old age, exam lite leke so jana aur tere room mein ek bar jo cheez mili thi, ye teen cheeze mai kabhi nhi bhul paunga lol. Tu sabse dur ja rha Gurgaon mei agar hyd hota to badiya rehta but koi na milte rehenge aur trip pe to tu chalega hi coz gaadi bhi to chalani hai kisiko. - pai

I remember jab hum delhi meet mai mile the, itna faltu aur desi joke tha mera aur ek tu hi hassa tha uspe to wo instant connection aa gya tha. Itni kahaniya bnai hai hostel mai ki publish kar diya to billionaire to ban jayenge but koi maarega bahut hamari (darr mat alias use karke publish to zaroor karenge), aur baki jo tu kahaniya sunata hai wo kha se sochi tune itni confidently bol deta hai ki sach lagne lagti hai. Mereko ek cheez aur bta tera college mai prime itni late kese aaya, man just became a different gravy after 3-2. Mai tereko bas btana chahta hoon jise tu flirting smajhta hai wo harassment hai kisi din jail jayega bach kar rahe. I can predict tu roz gurgaon mai kisi club mai nachta hoon mil jayega. Pink tshirt and red pajama is the ultimate combination. I think you have the best body in out and thanks for all the gym sessions. Best thing between us is hum dono ko itni jaldi smajh aa jata hai ki hum bolne wale hai. Always remember this one line "Unko khane de kulfi hum to rabdi khayenge". - Aditya Malhotra

Online se offline milne tak poora perception hi badal gaya mera tere baare me, pehle meet ek do baar jab baat hui tab bhi tu kaafi open tha sabse baat karta tha par tab dilli wali vibe aati thi, ki lo ek aur aa gaya dilli ka typical launda, wahi gym wala, par ek baar milakr laga ki yaar esa dost to zaruri hai, hamesha ache se baat hui apni bakchodi bhi hui, it was nice knowing you, gurgaon-blr-hyd jo bhi ho i hope milte rahe apan. All the best for future, aur jaldi try kar switch karne ka badi BT company hai - Nikhil Agrawal

Gonna miss your stories, we need more trips and more of the stories. One of the most genuine people ik, gonna miss u in blr hopefully we keep in touch. - Shavak Kansal

average north delhi ka launda, 2 hi chizo se mtlb rkhta hai ~ no: 1 - body mei hava bhrna, gym jana aur no:2 - classroom mei bande kootna. Tere ek ke krkr kitne hi log gym jana start krdie, sprinklr se joining delay bhi hoti hai toh tere pas toh acha fallback option hai, gym trainer bnne ka :). jb bhi kbhi, shake ya systum ki baat ayegi aage life mei, teri hi yaad ayegi bhaii. Clubbing ke time, toh sare steps kya mast energy se niklte hai tere, I still remember vo Navrang ke time, kitni mehnat krkr hm sbko participate krvaya tha tune, thanks for all those memories. Room 13, hmesha hi arena ke naam se jana jayega, will miss ritual, and ofc tere phone ka charger :) . Please summer mei pose krna seekhlena, candid photos mei bhi gym poses ajate hai tere lmaoo, Baki yes apan toh milte rhenge gurgaon dur nahi hai, aise hi rhna, and apna gym kholne vala plan abhi bhi on hai na ? - Karmanjyot Singh Apne batch ka BAHUBALI!! Tu sabka gym trainer hai, maine toh gym sirf teri wajah se hi start kiya hai. Sahi mai par tu bohot genuine banada hai. Kahaniya banane mai sabse aage. Ritual tere bina possible hi nahi hota tha, arena toh yaad rahega. Bas ek baar bazooka mil gyi toh full carry kar leta hai. Tere se better catacombs player aur bomber hai hi nahi. Apan dono ko driving lessons lene ki jarurat hai :) Haa aur insta pe jise irl jaanta ho usi ki request accept kiya kar, sehat ke liye accha hota hai. Apane startup mai Gym trainer ka role tujhe hi puura karna hai. - Siddh Jain

YAAD RAKHIYO, Naukri sirf 30 tak. Uske baad apan donon kissi club ke bouncer ban rhe hain, din raat party karenge bc. Uske baad retirement plan: Calangute beach. Udhar shack khol lenge mast and enjoyyy. Milta rahiyo and bhool mat jayio, theek hai brdr. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar someone who can be shit scary but also the most chill person at the same time xD gonna miss dancing together and vayu practices wali bakchodi :(prooo dancer fr. - Srujana Vanka

Bhai I have real respect for your grind. "Sarvgoon Sampan" hone ke bavjud itna humble hone ke liye thank you. U motivate me to be better. All the best bhai. Kill kariyo. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Aye my first prom date, it was a fun prom. I still remember how you got competitive in the prom xD Shoutout to your focus on fitness, really crazy. All the best for your future! - Annam Venika Sruthi aur dsdk...I thought you were the most decent guy in our group, but these days I have heard that you too are getting into a bad state(Matlab- laundiyabazi). But whatever I say, I had a lot of fun with you (ya Goa trip ho ya fir badminton match) kabhi toh jeet liya kar mere se 😂😂. ye sare din hmesha yaad rahenge bro kaise mai tumse paise udhar leta tha or khabhi time par lautaya hi nahi. Thank you for always being there for me, for understanding and supporting me through every high and low. I look forward to seeing what the future holds for each of us and am excited to continue our journey together beyond college.❤️ - Abhinav Anand

Sbse serious, shaant aur gambheer banda of the group, chup reh reh kr sbse bada player nikala. Bhai tere saath sbse jyada time bitaya hai maine, bhai jaisa ho gya hai tu ab to. Mera personal bank tha (0% interest). Saala hr cheez apun ne saath me kia aur sbme saath me excel kia. Apun ke saath me roommate hone se leke apun ke captain room chodne tk, saare pal nhi bhoolenge chahe wo fan choona ho, ya apna gaane aur dance ka rne ka competition, ya tera gangi chudail banna aur tomar ko sootna sb abhi bhi soch kr hasi aa jati hai. Pehla lagta tha ki apun ka jhagda kabhi bhi ho skta hai pr u were the most understanding person ever. Most dependable person, Bhai, you are the one jispe mai aankh band kr bharosa kr skta tha. Tere liye hamesha mai rahoonga abhi aish kr. No matter what FRIENDS always remains. Love you bhai, have a great future ahead. - Rishabh Srivastava

Bhai tu one of the realest aadmi hai jo mujhe college mila. Bhai thanks dil ka itna ache hone ke liye aur meri itni help karne ke liye. Tera sports mein involvment kaafi inspiring hai. Dono wonderla trips pe kaafi maza aaya tha and u are one of the major reason. All the best bhai life mein macha dio aur gym regular jaaiyo. - Pradhuman Tiwari judhwa hai bhai mera, woh toh abhi log differentiate kar le rahe hai warna apna toh apna ek he se kaam chala lete, Moink bhai ka Gussa aur Pyaar he bas witness nahi kiya hai baaki toh long sexy legs se leke stock portfolio sab dekh liya hai. Aakhir me bro hamesha yaad rakhna, “”Mayank no Yaiba”” :Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar

Moink, group photos ka atankwaadi(na nana na na). My gym patner for the whole transformation we wanted before Goa(though we never achieved it). Still have your photos of your epic wonderla looks (sone waali bhi), end me bandi mil gayi to full time phone pe baat karta rehta tha. Tata communications me jaane ke baad humse communication mat band kar dena. Will me you, best gym bro. Also better then you at dream11 - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

Moink the Boinkkk!! The guy who never smiles in the photo. Can always ask him for a loan ;) Good sportsman and a sport captain. Always pays everywhere first and ends up doing vasooli from everyone. Only plays spin in tt... Always hanging out in each other's room. Somehow manages to keep the tidiest room seen. His name is not Mayank.... its Shivam and he is hiding under the identity of a Mayank Shukla 😂. Have a great career man!! That photo of you will forever make us laugh(nanananananananana)- Yug - Yug Dedhia

A great friend, a fellow cricket player, and Enthusiast. Always up for any fun outing. Been to so many places together like Nehru Zoo, Chowmala Palace, Punjabi affair, Trampoline park, etc. Had a great many memories in our hostel from E203 (is it right?) to the Main block. Cheers to the memories we made and the memories to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

First day on campus :
Its nervous but excited. Met my friends to whom i spent talking in online. But luckily we are at least called to campus as we are from SPEC batch. Lots of mixed feeling cause i was left alone in a room with no one and asked me to stay for 14 days for secure purposes due to wide spread of COVID.

Favourite campus memory :
There are lots of memories which i can't be forgotten. Acted as i am lazy in-front of my friends so that they spoon feed me in everything. And senior-junior interaction is the craziest i say. Lots of memories tied up with that. Whenever we feel bored, we just go out just like that.

One thing you will miss the most :
I miss the walks that i used to go alone round the campus. Even if its late night, i prefer to go out and have a peaceful chat with nature and air. And i also miss my friends and mine talks. It never ends i know especially between me and anan. I miss my fights with Harsha sir.

Best thing you learned from here :
I would never used to be independent. Some or the other way i used to be dependent on someone. But now i feel so better to myself. Lots of change in the way i think and in the way i am being.

Favourite place in campus :
Undoubtedly its rainbow chair. I would prefer to go on walks and i end sitting on this chair thinking about what to do and what not to do LOL.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Change isn't one but there are many.Every year taught me something. Especially my last year damn it got screwed. It taught me not to overthink, focus on myself, have a thought on how to get myself better rather than thinking all about my friends only. But definitely,final is the worst year of mine.

Nandu💗!!! My singing partner, reels partner, study partner, Caring one. I forever remember the tension you feel before deadline and your commitment towards assignmensts and courses :). i 'll cherish our memories forever ra....those 3rd year and 4th year moments. Hope we will continue our friendship till our hair turns white 🐻❄️. Enneno trips plan chesam, but chinni chinni trips and places ki velli kuda chala happy ga spend chesam. Aapna time aayega annar peddalu😂.....shorts ready chesuko, inka country trip veddam🥳. I'll forever remember ur lap I used to sleep and ur hands which feed me food. You r a little cute caring girl mowa. Njoy every moment, this time shall pass. eyuuu mowa, all the best!! I won't Miss you coz u r always there for me and I know we will meet regularly 😊. You are so strong woman mowa, I'll always there to make you more stronger. Free time undi kada ani oo badhapadaku, happy memories tho happy ga undu 🥰 - Yadavalli Anantha Lakshmi

Hello Nandu, Wishing you all the best for the future. I always hope you reach greater heights. I'll support you whenever you need me. - Thatipamula Harshavardhan

"Babe, how can you always be so childish and cute? Even when I'm so angry at you, I can't even shout at you because of your stupid face. Thank you for those days before exams when you explained things to me. I can't forget how I used to scold you for the silly things you do... you know what they are. 🤣 You are a never-ending chatterbox—how do you always have something to say? You're an amazing dancer and dance teacher; because of you, we even danced a few times on stage. And please, stop crying 🤣 because I really want you to be happy. - Hema Leela Durga Koppisetti

Nandu....I love you so much and thank you for everything. You are an amazing dancer and huge Inspiration to me. I will never forget our CCIoT team and our struggles. What started as a project, you became my literal lifeline last summer during placement prep. I could have never gone through the summer without you. You were such a motivation and such a good companion. Thank you so much. I hope we can always maintain the same bond. Love you - Keerthi Pothalaraju

Nanditha, you dance so well. I recall a cute kitten whenever you talk. You talk that sweet. Initially, though we had very few interactions, you used to talk well. You care well for your friends. We missed Leonia where I thought I could hear some interesting things from you. We also missed Palle Vindu. May be, let's go one day. All the best for your future Nanditha. Stay happy and enjoy life. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay Yooooooo Nanduuuuuu!!! You are the princess in our gang. You always manage to bring a smile onto the faces of everyone around you. Thank you for all the memories. Let us always keep in touch!! - Aditya Kondai Nandu""itha"":):) You are the cute, little-princess friend but I also think you are a strong lady inside. Iddaram chala takkuva time spend chesina, kalisinappudu bhaa matladutavu ... and one of our fond memories is birthdays appudu, bhale dance chesedanivi ... ave steps nenu atu itu ga copy kottevadni ... Holding onto the same sweetness, keeping the right people beside ... eppudu ala cute cute ga matldutu, navvutu undu .... nee dance ki nijanga pedha fan nenu - Yashwanth Kottu

I am nandu and you are also nandu, see we share our nick names. Having same names is very hard, it is confusing to find whether they are calling you or me, but I enjoyed being with you. You are one of the people with whom I travelled closely during our placements, I enjoyed challenging problems with you. You always say to me, "Eat ra nandu." the care that I received from you makes me feel nice. Have a great future. Take care. - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

Hi, honors mate! Our journey of meeting the professor and catching up with each other has finally come to an end. I really admire your dance and expressions. Wishing you all the best for your future endeavors! - Amaraneni Greeshma

"Hello hello Mr Genius Betu Good Boy. Tere jaise dost bhagwaan sabko de bhai. You have been such a good friend to me all those year. I could never imagine ki ek minecraft ka server will result into such a strong bond between us :) Loved it when you come to my room for doing nothing together coexisting together xD. Absolutely loved our gossip sessions when you told me all the stories that would get you canceled 😂. Aur bhai sath me courses lena kya fun hota hai, AA ke liye raat raat padhna, MMB ke assignment chaapna, OSN CSO me tu code chalana sikhata good times brdr. Movies aur series dekhke unhe in depth faltu me discuss bhi cool tha Abhi toh 5th year bhi bacha hai mast dono bhai Badiya research paper chaapenge aur khoob bkchodi krenge Cheers to many more years of adventures ✌️ - Siddharth Jain

Bohot rarely can I admit ki koi mujhse zyaada smart hai, even for small things, but tu itni saari cheezo mai itna bond hai, you are in a different league. Your energy and passion is infectious. It's extremely rare to find someone who has as much in common as we do. Bohot zyaada relate karta hu mai tujhse kabhi kabhi. Sometimes our brains are on the exact same wavelength. I have met very few people jhiske saath I can have extremely intellectual discussions on absolutely garbage topics (cycle mai gear, etc) and I cherish those conversations. I think kabhi kabhi mai teri energy utna match nahi kar paata but I'll work on it. The shows, movies, animes I watch with you always end up becoming my favourite. I absolutely enjoy pausing and theorising on random shit even though you always end up predicting the twist. Use your energy and passion to do great things in life. You are the kind of guy jo life mai kuch bada phod sakta hai and when that happens I'll be there cheering. Contact mai rehna aur roz gym jaate rehna - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

I, Anirudh Kaushik, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this document to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all prior wills and codicils. Distribution of Assets: I hereby bequeath the following asset: One Cherry tree, located at [-1800, 67, -1600], Minecraft Bedrock edition, to my dear friend, Mihir Rawat. Witnesses: Bing Bong Chinga Po - Anirudh Kaushik

You were always up for any plan you were invited to and then made it ten times as exciting. Always seeking to make things interesting by doing the randomest of things like climbing up walls and trees XD. Coordinating The Hacking Club alongside you was one of the most unique experiences and I am so glad you convinced me to take part. No event felt complete without your bursts of energy and I am sure I will miss it. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

when it comes to your taste in anime .... well, I just hope you see the charm of some of the more serious anime out there someday :) I also loved the deep convos we had a lot! Hope we can continue doing that :) Come talk to your fellow existential crisis 'feeler' and enjoyer whenever you feel that way. Also, trust me, I'll complete Outer Wilds, no spoilers pls :(Lub you bro <3 - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

You're such an awesome friend, always so full of energy and ready to party! I'm gonna miss our campus walks full of "kuch interesting si story suna", going out for 11 PM horror movie shows (being scared throughout the movie and then saying "itni bhi darawani nahi thi movie"), and how our outfits always vibed. Remember that time we went clubbing in garba outfits and couldn't get into any clubs XD, had so much fun! I am so grateful for all the time we spent and all the times you were there to check in on me and making sure I was okay. Thanks for always being such a kind and caring friend. All the best and stay in touch, qt! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

The original physics advisor getters. Tere saath restaurant jaana matlab khaane ke baad thoda wait to given hai. CND sessions to yaad rahenge hamesha aur catan mein faltu ki bakchodi. Hacker to tu hai, life ko hack bhi kar hi lega. Aur chinta mat kar tujhe bhul to nahi raha mein kabhi. - Shreyas Revankar

Aur bhai chalal, genius hai tu, bhaut aage jana hai tujhe, bus yehi ruk jana will not do justice to your endless potential. You have been one of my closest friends in college. Aur apan lad bhi liye ab, toh there is no backing out on being besties. Will miss having you as a constant third wheel ;), you making the most unexpected moves in catan and giving you random fashion advice. Ab toh bumble ke liye enough photos hogaye honge. I know that when you feel a lot, sometimes you're going to hurt a lot, but it also means that you're gonna live a life that is emotionally rich and really beautiful. Stay in touch buddy. Apan ka clubbing jana pending hai abhi. Love ya <3 - Harshita Gupta

One of Smartest Person I know. AI generated hotties banate rehenge. Full crazzy ideas you have brother always. Movies Predict krna bandh krde(too accurate). We vibe brooo!!. - Dhruv Hirpara

Gym buddy who does all kinds of weird splits. Weight to kaafi kam kar liya tune ab muscle bhi put on karle thodi. Gym mein to bahut bakchodi kari hai hum dono ne but uske alawa bhi kam nahi ki. Had some pretty good conversatoins with you bhai. Baaki to hum 29th feb ko milte hi rahenge. - Kushagra Kharbanda

One of the most intelligent people I've come across on campus. You are one of the few people on campus who has a very similar music taste to me and 90% of the time you share some new song with me, it ends up going into my liked songs playlist. You are also a very athletic person and whenever I go out with you, I end up having a good time due to your vibey presence. We are gonna be on campus for another year so hopefully we'll make more memories. All the best with your future plans. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

We met during the first semester of college online and we hit it off pretty soon and talked a lot in group and individual calls. I remember how you had to sleep early at that time. You were the first one I met who was so interested in Linux and using FOSS softwares. I remember how we used to sit and talk about the Vim extensions and stuff and what were the new features in those lol. I still remember you telling me when you had changed your keyboard layout and you were memorizing where all your new keys were located. I thought that we would have a very good friendship throughout our time at College but I guess it wasn't meant to be as we were rarely in the same courses and activities together. I hope we will be again working together in the same location so we will be able to rekindle our friendship. We still have to reconfigure our VIM which we have constantly postponed for more than a semester now. I wish you all the very best in your journey and hope that our paths cross again! - Shubh Agarwal hairstyle looked familiar to me lil bro, maybe imitation do be the best form of flattery - Sankalp S Bhat

Mihir boi, probably the one person more obsessed with Wattpad than me. Thank you for all the reels on it ;) Best fun and memories going out with you and we should always do that when we meet. Meet soon and stay in touch :)) - Arshini Govindu

VA >>>> Radhika Apte Even when I had no phone to go to the airport, I had you <3 Shake to reveal the rest - Adith John Rajeev

Yoo mihir.. You are such a chill person. you working always on terminal really amazes me. Just you being in lab makes me feel motivated to study donno why maybe your vibe (not seriously - jkjk 🤣) .. those bhool bhulayya memories and us dancing will always be my fav. looking forward to make many such memories with you yaar. - Syed Imami

First time i met you, you were climbing a tree or sumn. Someday, you will climb the stars 😊 - Aayush Bhandari

keep drinking daily daily <3 - Sreenya Chitluri

One of the most energetic people in the room. I love how he never says no to anything. I know how much you enjoy listening to mixed language songs, you can't pretend. From initiating plans to making them fun, you have always nailed it! Noida se Bangalore location change karwale bhai please😢 - Tanmay Goyal

ROOMIEEEEEEEEEE.....saale bohot kasta hai bei tu. Honestly I am grateful for that "random coincidence" ki hum roommates bane the...it just made this messy college life much easier. Love u brother❤️. - Yash Agrawal

Mihir daddy, akele noida mein bore hogya h kya. Next yr only party in hyd bro hehe. Love your enthu and bitch you smart hehe. Bas jaldi graduate ho jana. - Knv Karthikeya
Fr one of the most fun loving person to hangout with. Chalte chalte koi ped dikh jaaye toh chad leta hai, bandar ki tarah idhr udhr uchalte rehta lmao. Might forget to take you along once in a while to keep up the inside jokes, but never the memories we made and the fun we had in college <3 (and yashaswi ofc) - Hariharan Kalimuthu yo miheyr betu (good boy) bhai m hir u r ultra smart guy and super energe ic all the time, hamara omani shekh or tu bura mat mana kar bhai kisi ki baato ko, sab ese hi mazak karte rehete hai tere sath milke party karte hai jaldi #rk - Pr soon Garg

If someday humans evolved into monkeys, then Mihir would be the guy they would consider to be their Adam. This dude can climb trees like no one else; at the same time, he is a pro at so many other things, too - nerdy stuff aside. Also, He is a guy with a good heart (idk health-wise, I meant nature-wise). But oye if you want me to confront you for something, then stop calling dibs on everything man (laugh emoji-laugh emoji). Also, haha I was able to escape your jump kicks. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

"Aur pseudo roomie, (micro+soft). Tere jitna explorative and energetic banda nahi dekha maina. I have always looked up to your characteristic of being fearless and always speaking your mind. No matter kitna awkward ho jaaye you will say saomething if it is bugging you. Also bhai itna inquisitive kaise hai tu, what an incredible and pure characteristic it is to always want to know why, how and more and more and more about everything and anything and that too all the time. I really think that's what stands out in you. You are a truly pure soul. I understand that I am not the perfect friend at all times. But I want you to know you are one of the people I admire in college. I hope we keep meeting, if I am in hyderabad. Ciao. – Naraharisetti Siddik Ayyappa

Hello Guru ji, how are you? You literally carried our SE team. Me and Pranjal used to fight whenever a project or assignment was released. The question was who gets to be Narayana's partner. Apart from academics, you are one of the most hardworking, sincere, and punctual (bro slept at 11 pm doesn't matter if the deadline is in 1 hour). Your trust in us meant a lot :laugh. I had a great time, the final scam in the SE project (:chef's kiss), and all the random crying in somebody's room over the project deadline, great memories. Wish you the best of luck in your future. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

"I got to know you before coming to college online, decided you were the best person to share room with. You have been a very good roommate very helpful and cooperative. You are the most sincere, punctual in our batch (all the people I know). You are quick to learn to learn Chess and TT. I still remember the matches we played in our room sitting on the floor I could not believe how good you become at it within just few matches. All the best for all your future endeavors. - P Balaramakrishna Varma

So many memories with you ra! Intha sincere fellow ni nenu eppudu chudaledu. Keep this sincerety with you always, but also learn some practical stuff. Wishing you the very best going forward ! - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

Hey Narayana ! I believe you are one of the most truthful persons in our batch. Fortunate to meet people like you who are very honest. I believe you are grossly underestimating your capabilities. Your Table Tennis capabilities are extraordinary. It is commendable that you have learned it so good on your own. Hope we play many more matches. Thank you for all the memories. All the best for your future endeavors. Until we meet again. - Nagireddy Dhanush Reddy

First day on campus :
In my chamber, bound by COVID quarantine, fate's cruel decree unfolded. Despite my vigil, the pestilence seized me a month hence, thwarting my noble resolve. TLDR:I was locked in my room for COVID quarantine and ended up getting covid either way a month later BTW, I survived

Favourite campus memory :
In Electronics Workshop 2, I witnessed my peers' earnest efforts on projects, only to witness their despair when failures ensued. Despite relentless striving, their spirits plummeted into the abyss of desolation. Thou despair be melodies to thy ears

One thing you will miss the most :
Raiding Lokesh's Room and sending messages to his Advisor K*I and his crush RN GA

Best thing you learned from here :
My learned acquaintance, herein I gleaned the art of discerning the fine line betwixt cunning and candor, where shadows of opportunity dance with the flickering flame of deception.

Favourite place in campus :
Ah, amidst the hallowed halls of academia, my fondest retreat resides within the sanctum of mine own chamber, where solitude befits the soul and quiet reflection reigns supreme.

Biggest Change since your first year :

Dear Indian Foreign Friend, The best continental flavor i could get in my friends group, Well his kitchen doesn't need any introductions. Well, i guess you should not speak about anyone else's luck, because recent incidents have been unfavorable for you. Well, I hope you recover from this soon. Apart from that he has been a good going friend, and the fun he brings also .....(fill yourself). Too outspoken, doesn't care..well that i like about this guy. All the best for future endeavours. - ROHAN GUPTA

Mugundan's the only contender for the best chef of IIIT award. Dude can make perfect chicken and cheesecake in the same pan at the same time. Was a perfect neighbour and always up for retarded discussions with Lokesh and Avyukta. I probably spent more time in mugundan's room than mine. The movie nights were some of the best and funniest nights of college life, watching shit movies with fresh baked popcorn..Damn I still miss it. Dunno how bro still manages to kassi and get 10 SG each sem even after drinking mead each night before exams. Good luck with your future goals man and Stay in touch! - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

"Ah yes! Finally, we get to the DASA kid. I met Mugundan when the CS folks finally came to college at the end of 2-1. He seemed to be quiet and reserved at first - made several references to anime and other cultural artifacts, but I didn't know any of them. (But, I am catching up now!) But, we did have several common interests - communism (I can hear the FBI perk up...), favorite shows and movies, a general dislike of certain social customs, and a lot of other stuff. Needless to say, we've (along with Lokesh and Nemani) have had a lot of illuminating discussions in Lokesh's room. These discussions were so enlightening that if they were exposed to the world, they would render it blind. ;p One of my favorite activities to do is to raid Lokesh's (poorly locked) room along with Mugundan and type rather 'interesting' (.... ahem...really interesting.....) messages to folks. Yeah, I guess that's all you can compress into 500 characters. Had lots of fun with you! Hope we work together again (hint: PhD. 👍)! :D - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

Mugu, you are truly a multi-talented individual, excelling in everything from academics to cooking. From the time we met in Chennai through our college years, you have always been my go-to friend. Our days as roommates in E320 were unforgettable, filled with watching Tamil movies, marathons of The Big Bang Theory, and intense late-night discussions with Avyukta and Nemani. Later on, you added a new dimension, becoming a chef and brewer, making our popcorn nights even more delightful. Time has flown by, but the memories we've created will always be cherished. Your perseverance over the years has been truly inspiring. Wishing you all the best in your future endeavours, macha. - Lokesh V

DASA boy in constant denial of being DASA. You never know when he'll pop up behind you, and crack your bones or knuckles or just lift you up😂. Mugu is really fun to be with, and thinking about it, I can remember him being part of most of my fun times in college, from dinner outings, events and celebrations. Mugu's room is the ultimate highlight tho 😂. Making Chakkarai Pongal in your room for Pongal 2024!! Only good vibes. Belting you in Asphalt, making dosa, watching movies!❤️ Will miss you Mugu. - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Mujjinderr aka our beloved Muggu.. mann.. you are that one crazy insanely beautiful person who can make the whole room laugh with a straight face on! I've had one of my best times whenever you're there in the crew! Never would have known that such an amazing chef lives amongst us all if that weren't for the existence of OBH canteen, even though I never got a chance to get to taste your dishes (would love that sometime <3.. awaiting for it) and what an amazing glass of mead that was! I'm glad that I could make it for our sort of farewell dinner together. Forever grateful for that night! Man.. you're such a wonderful person and will always miss you and your delightful presence <3 Also, can't wait to dance our hearts out together with that amazingly energetic Thallaivan moves of yours :) Please take care and keep in touch <3 - Anjali Singh

Mugu's a guy who is confident, sharp and fun to interact with. He also plays Nintendo games, so that automatically makes him a person with fine tastes and preferences. This man can be an introvert or an extrovert at will. He is one of the few bright students in the college and isn't afraid to let himself be heard by all. He likes being quippy and carefree, which I admire a lot. I am sure people meeting him in the future will have a good time around him. Let him cook, and he won't disappoint you. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

The Gordon Ramsay of iiit! Muggu's kitchen is the only place you can find edible food in the college. The only thing that can rival his cooking skills is his ability to merge git branches (trust me, we had SE, I know this all too well). His presence in class is impossible to miss. Everyone would be chilling until suddenly you hear Muggu's semi American accent echoing through HIOS, and I would have to stop my chess game and pretend I was paying attention. Bro works well in a crowd, and carries presentations easily. A close friend I could always rely on (thanks for the youtube channel shoutout xd). Let's keep in touch bro, hopefully I get to try your food again. - Abhay A Patil

Muju, one of my best buddies on campus. We've done a lot together. He's my gym bro (part time 😂) and a foodie like me. Whenever you're bored, go to his room, he's got something for you. You can cook, you can snack, you can play video games, and list goes on. One of my most extroverted friend who claims he sucks at talking to people. Oh and how can I forget, the best naps I've had were on his bed. Will definitely miss this guy a lot. Hope we'll get a chance to paint together. - Gokulraj R

The sweetest person on campus. I distinctly remember how we randomly played a scribble game together and that was one of the first moments where I felt less lonely in my college life. I will cherish everything we did together in your room or in Vinay's room or elsewhere lol. Also, I take credit for your improvement in Hindi. And thanks for being available till 6am and helping me manage my 3am anxiety 💀💀💀. Anywho, take care and I hope we stay connected as long as possible (do you remember LMRS group rofl?). - Shikhar Saxena

Mugu stands out as one of the most laid-back genius ppl ive met in my life. He has the amazing ability to be introverted and yet so popular among people. Loved spending time with this guy. Hopefully, we'll have the chance to meet again in the future and indulge in more FIFA matches and Tamil movies ! Keep shining bright! - Harish Umasankar

Thanks to this goofball, I'm whipping up dishes like a pro! Despite his anime obsession and tendency to rain on his own parade, hanging out with him was always a riot. Sure, I wanted to shake some sense into him whenever he got down on himself, but hey, nobody's perfect! I'd even ditch gluten for a week just to share some laughs with this guy again. Here's to more "MUGUUUUUUUUUU" adventures. - Freyam Mehta

"Our very own friendly neighbourhood DASA mugu. From the time when you used to get randomly muted in online classes to your claim to fame from OBH kitchen diaries, you've always been in the news one way or another. You're one of the most helpful and selfless guys i've met in campus man. Always stay awesome man, and yeah (Hail Hitler!!!) P.S your fights with pranav are legendary! (and super fun to watch) - Tanmay Bhatt Professional mead maker and chef. If I ever drink in the future, it shall be Mugu's mead :). Stay safe, stay happy. - Aaron Anthony Monis

resident obh chef and fellow degenerate :) our post-endsem drinking plan still needs to happen ok. will forever remember and miss the meal + darts/switch hangout sessions in your room. hopefully, we will now graduate to doing the same in our own flats now :) will also learn cooking to help you out as well btw :P. and stay in touch brother <3 - Pranjal Thapliyal

imagine being that unhinged but still so likeable. should get a drink sometime (anything but feni, though :p) - George Paul

Being the best chef comes later, but before that, he is such a gentle and helpful personality. Wishing Mugu the best! - Yash Mehan

"I, Anirudh Kaushik, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this document to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all prior wills and codicils. Distribution of Assets: I hereby bequeath the following asset: One Orange tree, located at [-700, 67, -4000], Minecraft Bedrock edition, to my dear friend, Mugundan. Witnesses: Bing Bong Chinga Po - Anirudh Kaushik

Only spent some brief amount of time with you in 4th year but I was so inspired by your outward positivity! You are a very confident and positive person and I hope you remain like that. I feel sometimes you underestimate yourself. You are very smart. All the best for your future! I wish you happiness and success. - Surabhi Jain

Hiee Mugu! You were one of the earliest people I had the honor talking with. Our random discord interactions and bumping into you while walking and having a chat was a delight. You are such a warm, kind and caring person. Keep smiling and all the best! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

"I'll definitely miss the OBH mess, my favorite spot on campus for eating, hanging out, and painting. You've always been a great person to chat with as we share so many interests like anime, movies, games, and the only person I know who has fallen to similar degenerate levels of reading light/visual novels. And I regret that we didn't spend more time together as I would have liked to in campus. I really hope you achieve everything you want in the future. Don't let any short-term setbacks discourage you, as you truly have the potential to do great things. Also hope that we can stay in touch in the future :) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Hii Mugundan We never really talked (indirectly maybe on discord we have), but lemme tell you, the food you cook does look very tasty. - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Gonna miss hanging out in OBH canteen, had lots of fun and painted several masterpieces in there together. Oh and also, nice ass - Vinay S

You are one of those friends, to whom I can, not talk to for years, decades and still lift off at the same moment we last left at (quoted from ""The unbearable weight of Massive Talent""). (Not quoted from anything here on) That is a very special bond. Oh and the japanese? Well. All the things I wanted to say to you, I wrote it in a sentence (The size of the sentence was not enough to fit the words (Pun intended)). You are also one of the few people I like to laugh with, and that is also special. I am very blessed to have gone to a trip with you, and to share all the memories I have shared with you. Keep in touch. Or I am going to touch you myself. (Joke... is it tho?) Take care bro. I will remember our talks about life for the rest of my life. <3 (That's a heart, not a ballsack, can't unsee and can't stop the jokes either). - Naraharisetti Siddik Ayyappa

You are one of the most driven people I have met in college. I've had the chance to work with you on various projects and those projects were the ones I enjoyed the most due to how amazing a teammate you are. We've made some great memories during our college time and I'll forever cherish them. Your dedication and passion towards cricket is amazing. I admire your laid-back personality and work ethic. I wish you all the best in your future endeavours. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Heyy Praneeth, ahh as always i spell ur name wrong donno why!! I will always remember how we realised that we are CND at the end of the semester after doing a course together.. lol. and it will never be not funny how we used to chat in final doc of Real analysis Project. I really enjoy conversation with you (more enjoy those silly arguments we have)... Yeah lets graduate on time !! 🤩 - Syed Imami

A good friend, a fellow cricket player, and an admirer of the sport. Opening bowler of our batch team, and amongst the leading wicket-takers of the inter batch (and all the other too!) tournament. It was great fun hanging out with you and the others. Made so many wonderful memories. Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Hi nandini, you have been my only close friend throughout my IIITH journey. I could share my sorrows and happiness with you without fear of being judged. You live with a great positive attitude that I always inspire from your thoughts.You never gave up throughout your internship and placement journey that I really got inspired from it. Very thanks for bearing with me during team projects that i was not interested in.I wish the best things happen to you in all your struggles for success. I will miss our days together in the college. You are very much talented. You make us happy, entertaining with your acting and jokes.Thank you for being my friend and always supporting me. I wish you achieve your dreams and stay happy. - Yeduru Rupasree

The first thing that will always come to my mind, when I remember her is chicken. She is a huge meat lover and more than half of the casual conversation with her will be about chicken. I get a huge smile on my face whenever I remember her conversations. To describe her in my point of view, in one line, is "seems to be introvert but a extrovert". She is very good at motivational speaking and whenever I feel low , she boosted my confidence up. She is very strong mentally. She is my third floormate in parijat where the rest of the telugu people were in first floor. Me, her, girija used to have late night converstions about random things on the sofa outside. One of the last converstaions we had in college was, she asked me a question about what do you do if a tiger comes in front of you and according to her you beat it with chappal..one of the funniest persons I met. All the best for your future googler! - Mandyam Brunda

The sweet girl Nandhini!!! Thank you so much for taking me to Pkl! Finally, after so much discussion, we took a photo with those two celebrities that day. I am glad that you invited me for your shopping and we went to inorbit mall. That was when I really got to know you, and starting with truth or dare we had some random discussions in the restaurant. I enjoyed your company during Navrang, Holi and especially during DJs. I will miss your gossips :P - Amaraneni Greeshma

Hie ra nandu... I have known you for few days but still we got to know each other more. You are one of the friends of mine who helped me get through my depressed phase of placements. You literally helped me figure out what to study and how to manage things up. Thank you so much for helping me ra. And i keep telling you to EAT WELL on time and TAKE CARE ra nandu.....We literally had chill time together.....I really MISS YOU ra... - Merugu Nanditha

Nanss is synonymous with KGF,peaceful music,and a calm demeanor.She was the one who calmed me down so many times.Nans enjoys listening to music.She was my teammate turned friend,not to mention my one and only roommate who experienced my OCD habits :DDWe shared jokes, laughs, and hatred for people too.She considers what others would think a lot.We shared covid,lice and pain too.She loves her parents a lot and she spends lot of her time home.One should also remember that she was the last to arrive in college.I was like eagerly waiting for her on her first day.She used to be so shy back then.She did change a lot now.Yeah I forgot to mention Bhallelakka,her favorite song. We always walked shoulder to shoulder.She always encouraged me to let go and be free, be myself.I love her presence.She never gives up and fights her way through everything.She actually can eat so much chicken that you wouldn't expect it from her.My lovely nans is going to Googleee Bangalore. Enjoy deyy life is yours😸Ill be there for you alwayss - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

First day on campus :
We were the COVID batch, and we had to be quarantined, coincidently all of the Indore gang was given rooms on thesame floor, the fun we had even during COVID was too much, we used to play badminton and cricket in the lobby and ran when we heard the slightest footsteps (kyu kyu mention is a must ,).

Favourite campus memory :
It has to be the late night song listening sessions on the KCIS rooftop, I remember we used to walk through the whole campus in the middle of the night with our speakers while blasting "galat femhi" on full volume and then finally going to the KCIS rooftop to just listen to the old Bollywood songs..

One thing you will miss the most :
Probably the late-night discussion with my the IBB, all the jams we had, all the intellectual conversations in which I contributed non intellectually, The random bhangra on tunak tunak, playing TT with the guys for hours after lunch, the impromptu travel plans onn bikes that we made...

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I learned from here is that no one really cares, you can't be afraid of the outcome, and sometimes you just gotta do what your heart tells you to without being scared of thinking what will others say... at the end this is my life and I have to decide to live it while having fun.

Favourite place in campus :
Definitely the rooftops of all the buildings, be it KCIS, Kadamb mess, OBH, Faculty quarters, or Nilgiri... out of them for me the best has to be the KCIS rooftop because of the memories we made there together... (ps: go over the water tank on KCIS rooftop at the sunset for an amazing view ...)

Biggest Change since your first year :
Probably my personality, I feel I have significantly grown since then in understanding that life is not just constant hard work it's more about the fun you have through-

Helloo Nevla SuranGE, apna chota group ka bada bond insaan. BC kuch bhi puchu sab ka answer kaha se laata tha ?? Dimaag kuch zyada hi hain lekin patience nhi. Chote se chote baat pe bhi jaldi gussa ho jata tha bacche jaise. Lekin ham jitne baar bhi lade I am just happy that we all are still together. Ab toh gym Jaa jaake body bhi bana liya, ab mein nhi aa rha ladne. Jab pehli baar Mila tha, socha tha kya GAY insaan hain and ab lagta hain tu GAY insaan hi hain 😂. Baaki toh I wish u stay childish like this forever and jaldi rich hoke hame khub party Dena. - Akash C R

Nigger..Gay..Nevla..yaad rakhna hamari ultra random pro max bakchodiya jo ham kabhi bhi kisi bhi topic pe krte the chalte hue..aise hypothetical scenarios pe gyan charcha..har vo dance jo hamne randomly kra hai, kabhi train me, hazaro baar apne room pe, tunak tunak tun pe..saale yaad rakhna jab tune ishita ke saath mil ke merepe prank kra tha aur maine peeth piche bhi teri taarif kri thi.. maana jabran ke logic fekta hai..par aadmi badhiya hai tu..hamesha mere saath gedi maarne ko tayyar..chaat khane ko tayaar... tere saath jitni bakchodi kri hai maine utni kisi ke saath bhi nhi kri..kitni baar same bakchodi soch kr hase hai ham quoting it as great minds think alike moment..Bas yahi bakchodi krte rehna mere saath.. bhale hi fir ISB road, KCIS ki chat, chaat khana, room pe aake pade rehna, ya david jaana pade and what not..Ab sab memories to likh nhi sakte to ye jab jab padhe ek call kr lena.. Although feelings can't be put into words yet I can still say.. Niggaaaa Gayyyyyyyyy!!!! Just like every fuckin day hehe - Divyansh Tiwari mauuu apke jitna acha nahi likh paunga, lekin aapki tarah dil se likhunga. I might seem inexpressive at times, but today I will share my 2 cents. You are the most sensible person that I have ever met on campus. You always have a calm and warm energy around you, which I cherish because its so peaceful being around you. A lot of people can talk endlessly, but there are very few people who can share silence with me. I have always felt calm safe and at peace with you. You are like that, genuine brother that I wish I had had from childhood. These adjectives that I have used for you are so rare these days and that is why i always felt something was incomplete without saying mauuu to you before calling it a day :) I will always be only a call away from you, and it has been a privilege to have met you accidentally on December of 2021. agle janam mein asli wala bhai ban jana please. - Aryamaan Basu Roy

Lovely you are. There is no better roommate than you deer, vo late night guitar sessions, deep convos, random bakchodi will never forget bhai. Apna king size bed>>>>> too good. You were always in for my plans and I'm thankful, kabhi akela feel hone nahi diya tune! Baarish mai I still remember chair lagakr wing end hawa lena, boat chalana kya sahi time nikala apan ne bhai. Saath mai shopping kari kitni, mai humesha baccho jaise random stuff khareedwata tha tujhse. Apna room sabse best tha bro itna sahi rhte the apan!!!! - Nukit Tailor

Nice cock mere academic bt Carrier💪. You are such an all rounder brother! Sab kaise aata hai terko bhai chahe padhai ho, bandi patana, faltu ke jokes maarna ya guitar bajana😍. Mere aadhe se jyada courses carry krne ke shukriya miya. MIns smai gde aur dher saare science courses me bada maja aya tere sath! Absolutely love your positive attitude towards life. You are one of my closest friends in college and I wish to spend much more time with you and your amazing personality in the next yearss! Maauuuu❤️❤️ - Siddharth Jain

One of the smartest people I've met on campus. Your childlike sense of humour is something I really like and I'll forever cherish the day we went cycling till 5 am in the rain. You have a very calming presence and this shows how mature you are. It's been really fun knowing you for the past few years and we made some amazing memories along the way. I wish you all the best with your future plans! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Ab tujhse toh kya hi bolu, likhte likhte pages hi kam pd jaayenge... itne kisse jo hai tumhare(burai k) 😂 I still remember when you asked me itte aache se ki rakhi baandh degi 🥺 Voh new year ka celebration, lohri, voh tera farewell ka naagin dance, bahut yaad aayegaa... You were there for me everytime firr chahe voh cheating mein hi kyu na pakda jauu 😂 bss tu party deta rehna, company mein dega tujheee.... 😂 CnD hai tu, but graduate ho jaldi se😬 - Tisha Dubey hii, The research partner one ever wants.., thank you for always being there, helping me and sharing all the workload.... such a kind and sweet person. Bhai itna laid back person ko kabhi nahi dekha ! Laid back yet bond lmaoo. Proper chad. But really loved all our random convos and discussions, sometimes in the lab also. Graduation ke baad bhi let's stay in touch. Lub <3 - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

Dear Nemani, Last day fo submitting likh rha hun tere liye. Jo bhi isse padha hai, just know ki chutiya hai ye...biryani, biryani bolke bulaya and sab kha gye, Red sting se bhara pda kamra, or khi ghumne nhi gya sath mai. aise hi nikal diye isne college life. But acha aadmi hai, bas hilata bahut hai. - ROHAN GUPTA

Nemani is one of the snakiest individuals on campus. He often plays it coy, pretending to know less than he does, which can be both amusing and misleading. However, once you talk with him, it becomes clear that he deeply cares about the quality of his work and is very articulate with his thoughts. He often brings up insightful points that many overlook. From the limited time I've spent with him, it's evident that Nemani tends to underestimate his capabilities and achievements. He would benefit greatly from believing in himself more, as he definitely possesses all the qualities needed to achieve great things. I'm looking forward to spending the next year(s) as DDs, working together on our limitations. :) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Nemani has been one of the most hardworking people I've met on campus, dedicating a significant amount of time to research. He is also a funny guy. Our movie nights with Mugu and Avyukta were some of the best times on campus. Additionally, he is a great teammate to work with. Hopefully someday we visit Russia together. All the best for your future endeavours! - Lokesh V

man could be the brand ambassador of energy drinks😂. The amount of effort you put into your work and research makes me feel like an underperformer bro ngl 😂 amazing dedication. can't handle your dark comedy man😂. Good luck bro. stay in touch! - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

First Guy I've found in my entire life who literally lives in the darkness, like literally bro disappears in the day. Chal bhai milte hai phir kabhi, First ever friend I've made in college, Bro is a complete techie who doesn't leaves his room. Aur red bull ka pata he nahi bhai ko kya nasha hai. Chal Bro all the best for your future. Aur milte rehege. : Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar

Somehow it feels like you were there since my FIITJEE days. There's something about you that I can't quite fully put into words, but I am so glad to have met you and become a friend. Seeing you makes me friendlier, and I always enjoy our conversations about all sorts of things. You've taught me to be more aware of the world around me with your vast eagerness to talk about many topics, and I hope to keep in touch with you even after college. We will miss you and your sting can collection :') - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Ah yes, my financially savvy friend! I first met Nemani online in the theory group, where we both tackled the problem-of-the-day. As fellow math enthusiasts with many shared interests, we quickly became fast friends. Meeting Nemani in person when I came to college was a highlight. He was one of the founding members of our legendary mess group. I'll never forget the lively discussions we had in Lokesh's and Mugundan's room, especially since my birthday GPL happened right there! Nemani is incredibly hardworking and sincere (with a knack for using NSFW charged adjectives 😉). He was a huge help to me throughout college life, and his insights into the world of EECS and finance shaped many of my own beliefs. I hope all your dreams, both personal and professional, come true. I had a blast with you, mate! Stay in touch! P.S. Where's the Russian ""friends"" you promised? - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

Hello Nemani, Thanks a lot for treating me as your friend always. I am not sure how you have so much respect for me always and I love spending time with you. I kind of feel bad that I was not able to spend a lot of time with you. You are one of the nicest people I have met. I wish I could have helped you more in Particle Physics. Sorry for that. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT life. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Best Kalakar person I have known personally on this campus, one of those people who inspire me to constantly improve, as well as continue artwork while managing stuff around. One of my favorite memories, from Artsoc (other than those painting sesh, many many treats) was to become friends with you. Thoda sa teda hai but kaafi kaafi caring person .., I still remember, within group bhi you would make sure sab included feel krei, and ofc campus par koi kaand ho, pretty sure Nikhil sir ke bina possible nahi... jk. I will always remember, you being there for me, when no one else was, that walk on ISB road :), baki haan, online ya offline art jamming sesh mei milte rhenge. - Karmanjyot Singh

Bhai I got to know you through Samarth and Khushi and I still remember humari online meet jab we first interacted and shayad hi aesa mene banda dekha hai tere alawa jiski gusse wali shakal hi yaad nahi aati mujhe lol.... and bhai best part about you was ki kaafi sachme samne wale ko comfortable karwadeta hai tu and definitely I count you in one of my closed ones. Abhi to Gurgaon

Easily one of the most fun people on campus. Will miss dancing with you in clubs / batch dances and jamming to based Bollywood songs. Has very good taste in music <3 Half the cultural events on campus wouldn't have been possible without you. Will miss meeting you randomly all over campus :/ - A Kishore Kumar

I respect that you make me feel involved in discussions and have taken good care of me during my outbursts regarding some career important things. I hope you take good care of yourself in the coming years :) - Harshit Gupta

Bhai, DSA m mere 50 or tere 75 par nhi same grade the, ye baat toh hmesha yaad dilaunga. It all started with random 1-1 ghnte ke calls and groups m cheating krna, ended up with the sad SPC meetups. Itna sehna ke baad bhi logo ki help karna ka tere junun bohut hi pasand h muje. Hats off to you for that. Ese hi haste muskurate rehna. Bohut rangbaaziya bhi karli clg m, or ab akal bhi aa gayi. Baki nazro ka toh kya h, idhr udhr bhatakni hi chahiye. Thankyou for everything bhai, all the best. - Vaibhav Agarwal

Mowaaaa ewwww....best vibe guy I've seen in this college. You've really made me confident working in Apex. Whatever happened in Apex, I really wanted to share or ask you. Quiz lord and meme lord. I haven't seen anyone in my life be as good as you in quizzes. Honestly you are very talented you do very good in academics even with very low effort. You are the closest thing I have had to a best friend in college. I love your sense of humour. I strongly believe that you are the glue to our group. I still don't know how you can give quick roasts and they always end up being funny. I like how you don't back out of any plan and are always ready to do anything. I didn't expect you to be that good at cricket I have to admit you genuinely surprised me. Your room being next door in the last year was the best thing that happened. I could always visit your room whenever I was stressed and I would end up having a good mood. You are the only person in the college to whom I could share anything thing I wanted at any time and I love how you would patiently listen to whatever bullshit I say. Thanks for being such a good friend and all the best for your future I know you will do good. - Likhith Asapu

You are singlehandedly one of the funniest people I've ever met. Your snarky one-liners with that mellow personality of yours get me every time. You are the best quiz partner I've ever had, and your GK skills are crazy good, so don't ever let go of that. Your nonchalant vibes are out of this world, and you are an invaluable presence in the group. I will really, really miss having you around, and things will be a bit duller without you here. I would give you a massive hug, but you are very skittish for some reason lmao. Thank you so so much for making my days better in college. I can't say more without getting overly sentimental, but just know that you and your vibes mean a lot to me, haha. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

10th time is the charm !!! A Tamil guy but never admits it. A true DASA tho, man keeps US hours while living in India. An unreal die-hard RCB fan even though blud hates Virat. His famous last words being "Hum Honge, Jo Bhi Ho". Still waiting for that badminton match where you said you'll thrash me. Nevertheless, the best friend I got but didn't deserve. Wishing you, all the very best for your future. Alright it's time for you to leave the snails alone and come out of the bushes !!! Lite, we will be there for thala next sala ... - Rahothvarman P

Only person who physically lived in India but mentally lived in the US. Best BTP student of all time, singlehandedly impressed one of the toughest profs to impress. You were a huge help and still helping with my research significantly, I appreciate it a lot. You are the ChatGPT god, managed to do everything and anything through ChatGPT. You had very unfortunate luck with placements but in the end you did it, took lot of effort but at least you got genuinely placed, well deserved. Hopefully you won't forget me once you become a corporate slave and we can stay in touch. Wish you all the best for your future, next Google CEO incoming. - Aakash Terala

A humanities Bond and a master of trivia, you tend to possess a good work ethic when you want to, especially when it comes to things like interview prep or CP practice. You have a remarkable ability to be easygoing as well as focused. You also don't mind trying new things and have a great memory - both very useful skills that will always come in handy. Thanks for being approachable and helpful particularly when we first arrived on campus. Congrats on the new job and best of luck for your future! - Vikram A Rao

Dear Nits, I'm so glad that both of us ended up in the same college and continued being good friends. It's crazy how tall you've grown since nps. An absolute quiz prodigy, thank you for hard-carrying me in all those quiz events. DNA project was a treat (at least I figured out how to backdate commit xD). A very reliable friend with a kind heart, I will miss hanging out and the random moments of wisdom and banter you always share. I admire how you support a washed team like Chelsea, that takes some passion. Stay the same and good luck with everything! - Ankithvarun J

Nitinji, Fellow tea lover! Your quiet one-liners which would crack up everyone around you will always stay with me. You are a very tenacious and hardworking person, which I have seen firsthand. Your badminton skills although unusual strike fear into the heart of the opponent. Your always-open ear to listen to my ramblings is much appreciated. Your calm and witty demeanour is pure fun to be around. I hope to meet you chai pe charcha soon! - Khush Devendra Patel

Never have I ever met anyone to whom hilarity came as casually as it did to you. An unfeigned positive attitude at all times, regardless of what we had at hand, and the one to induct me as a KnitBro. Every moment around you, from Stick Cricket Live to reading down the books banned in Lebanon, is plastered in my mind. Knock life out of the park, brother. - Rajarshi Ray

Mr. Rajaaa... You are one of the most unique people I've met on campus. It's always fun hanging out with you no matter what the occasion is. You have an amazing sense of humour which is something I vibe with a lot. I'm lucky to have met someone as chill and laid back as you in the past 2 years. The kind of general knowledge you have on such a myriad of things is honestly commendable. I'll miss randomly coming to your room and having random conversations with you. Another thing I admire about you is your persistence and never give up attitude. I wish you all the best in your future endeavours. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Nits my man. You were one of the first guys I met on campus and someone who I instantly hit it off with. You always manage to bring a laugh out of everyone in the room, mostly unintentionally xD. Good luck for everything brother and see you soon. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Niths my broski. I think you're the closest anyone can come to being a pothead without ever smoking up. You got the craziest sense of humor, with absolute perfect timing for saying the most unexpected and funniest stuff. We became proper brothers during the fight for our lives in the December placement season. I'm happy that both of us came out of it employed. I hope that you enjoy success wherever you go since you deserve it. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Hello Chess, You were the bond I knew before entering college. I was pretty amazed by the doubts you had in 9th. I always thought of you the same. We were teammates for the startup aid, though you never showed up for the meets. I never actually got to speak with you more until things went offline. You were always a sweet person playing with dogs and cats. All that I can say for you is that you deserved better people during the initial days of college. I kind of get how difficult things might have been for you, but I can find you happy nowadays. A person with this level of intelligence should be in a better position I feel. You are one of the sweetest people I met in my college life who loves hanging out with dogs more than humans :P. I love and will surely miss the abstract discussions that we used to have for one thing that not many people understand. All the best for your future goals and be in touch. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

You are entertaining to be around, and the fact that you take a couple of things lightly really helps me calm down(just until one day before the deadline). CLD has been a fun batch with you, and you always have very interesting recounts/stories to tell, which always makes it a pleasure to hear you. - Harshit Gupta

First day on campus :
my first day was in quarantine but I am very grateful to already know people before coming to campus during the online semester. I consider myself lucky to find an amazing group of friends in the online semester (Love all my bois of sapnu puas) and have continued to remain close over the years.

Favourite campus memory :
Being able to organize Felicity 2023 for my batch.

One thing you will miss the most :

Best thing you learned from here :

Favourite place in campus :

Biggest Change since your first year :
Lack of interest in club activities from the incoming batches. This fear mongering of college admin that seniors being evil and wanting to hurt them. Lack of proper interactions of junior batches with their seniors lullav ma boi, certified og real ass fella since day one sem one, still remember rr'ing over ness like it was yesterday. my brother from another mother fr, loved the 4 years we had doing so much shit together, be it malding on cs, discussing random shit, watching the boondocks or going on scooty rides, uve been a real one. a very sweet, genuine and caring guy, and a killer sweet smile. stay in touch my american bro, and fix dat goddamn pc/internet/steam account lmao - Sankalp S Bhat

An absolute gem of a person. Bahut unexpected meet up tha apna but i am so glad it happened. Love hanging out with you brdr. Bahut maaza aata tere saath plans banake. US jaake bhool mat jayio bc and jab bhi wapis aaye always remember you have a brother here. Love you darling. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

Aur bhai Copesetti, bhai tere jitna adventurous banda nahi dekha maine, hamesha nayi nayi chize try karta rehta hai. Humare saath reh reh kar thoda north india ban gaya hai tu, aur mai thoda illad. Tere ghar ki chicken biryani is by far the best thing I have eaten in my college life. Also you need to work on you Mummy wale jokes thoda repetitive ho rhe hai ab. Tughse milne toh pakka US aa rha hu mai, Whenever you're in the room poora vibe ban jata hai coz of you energy and interaction. Also bhen ke lode fifa me toh jab tu goal maarta tha, meri aisi gaand jalti thi woh celebrations dekh ke but isiliye tere saath khelne me maza bhi sabse zyada aata tha. Tere saath woh UCL night bhi mughe hamesha yaad rahega probably one of my best football memories (jis match me hum better the but tum pens pe jeet gye). US se aate rehne, bohot yaad aayegi teri, Prayush Rathore - Prayush Rathore

Nigguu Nigguu !!! Ab ""Aur Maralia"" bolega tu 😂 Bro I'll cherish the memories of all the places we explored in Hyderabad, every cat we pet on the streets of Mumbai, Joint Family sessions mein tere copes and all the Trips we had together. Abse racist jokes kispe marunga? Tujhe jab bhi down lage ya gaali khaane ki iccha ho, ya bas chudvaani ho.... I'm one call awayy 😌
A song for you to remember me: Wonderwall :)

Very kind and sweet soul. We have just gotten a better chance to bond, and its been so nice hanging out with you <3. I am looking forward to cheese fondue, laser tag outing, and picnic with Uber snacks (especially something with butter popcorn) and many more fun random things we can come up with. Keep smiling and stay in touch! - Gokul Praneetha

Would not have made it through college without you. Can't wait for a lifetime of more memories :) HAGS :)) – Sneha Raghava Raju

Good morning 🌞🌻 May your day be as bright and lovely as you are ✨ And it really does hit when the day is as bright and lovely as I am you know? Crazy dumb cat lady is probably one of the most accurate descriptions of you (I added the dumb to make it complete), and I am so glad I met you here. I mean ofc earlier wouldn't have hurt but still. Will never forget the number of long walks we've had and all the nonsense we've spouted, and ofc watching the sunrise and realising we can't actually see the sun. Most importantly, thank for being the reason I met pixie :) - L Lakshmanan

You're a wonderful, caring person and have been one of my closest friends in college that I wish I'm close to for life. We've been through so much together, and I have cherished every moment spent with you. I'd wish you all the success in the world, but I know you'll get it. I look forward to a lot more fun making the most of the one year that's left, and no, this won't end with a CND joke. - Jatin Agarwala Coolest person with the most intense case of starting trouble I've ever seen. 90% sure you have a secret double life. Never be a stranger :) - Abhijith A

I've only known you for like 2 years, but we clicked, and you were easily one of my closest friends ever. I will never forget the memories we've built together, and how comfortable it all felt. You were important enough that it taught me how to care. Thank you:) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

hi poaaaaaaaaaa gonna miss walking around with you during the summers on campus. thanks for putting up with my shenanigans and laughing at my jokes :D ur afce - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

Hii dude there are so many things to write, I don't know where to start. College would've never meant as much as it does if not for my roommate :)) I'm so excited to see where our lives take us, to see all the things we've talked about come true <3 - Ananya Sane

Once I learn how to cook, I'm gonna get you to judge it with your refined palate. trying to cheer you out of your occasional grumpiness are treasured memories of mine :p - George Paul

Fooorvaa! The most wholesome and genuine person I've ever met. I've learnt a lot from you really. Thanks for all that! Thanks for listening to all my rants and robotics facts xD. Hope to see you soon! Also, I'm gonna always tell people my version of the boar road story XD - Gaurav Singh

I'll die with this take, but Pigeons >>> Mosquitoes Loved all those south mess dinners and late night walks and VC visits with your gang xD. – Adith John Rajeev

My actual uber⭐ partner-in-crime! Knowing you has been amazing especially judging office ppl and other interns. Best times we've had in shared cabs/autos! - Shivangi Agarwal

Too tall and scary. Thanks for tolerating my nonsense and being patient with the family xD Still have to see those 2 cattos someday. - Harshit Gupta

Bhai, You have been one of my best friends through college and I just want to thank you for making my years on campus so memorable. You are an amazing person, and honestly an inspiration the way you manage your academics and workout at once (and also the way you handle Nazia lol). Ans obviously how can we ever forget our Goa trip, nothing can ever top that. Hope you achieve all you want to in life :) - Hitesh Goel

I am incredibly thankful for the wonderful time we have spent together during our college years (don't worry we will spend one more year in college😂😂). Tumne mere bhut saath diya hai, and whenever I face any problem, I always come to your room for support. Thank you for being such a great friend and standing by me through thick and thin. I know I haven't done as much for you, but your friendship means the world to me, and I am grateful for every moment we've shared.I look forward to seeing what the future holds for each of us and am excited to continue our journey together beyond college -[abhinav] - Abhinav Anand

most cultured movie "buff" (literally and figuratively :)) on campus. taking intro to film with you is literally my best "academic" memory from campus which i shall forever cherish. baaki seeing you fix your sleep schedule and becoming a regular gymbro in front of my eyes is going to be my number one source of motivation once my corpo slave life starts lmaooo xD. and stay in touch brother :') - Pranjal Thapliyal

Ponderrr!!! Good friend of mine and a genuine guy... Saw your transformation and made me believe in Gym!! Kitna soyabean khayega. You were basically invisible in the online semester and suddenly appeared in the offline sem. Got the best advisor!!😂 Those days were fun when we watched movies together, trampoline park, movies... etc. Apna toh kya hai milte rahenge kyunki degree toh khatam hone wali nhi apni😂. A true CHD student..-Yug - Yug Dedhia

Sher. Closet se bahar haan. Khulke bola kar tujhe country music pasand hai (sirf main judge karunga) One of the first people i met in college. Very cool as a person, even cooler as a friend. Daps bhi acche kar lete hain hum log XD. Finds my references cool and funny, aur phir mere jaise selfish self-absorbed aadmi ko chahiye hi kya. Mehnti bhi hain, aur bhai GYM CO SISTENCY AYE HAYE (I am jealous bhai :cry:). Body badiya ban rhi hai, lage rho. KIND HEARTED AADMI BHI HAI YAAR. Naek dil. Aur jokes IQ also bery nice. Khush rhe mere sher. Call karliya kar jab mann kre. :D (aaj kal rockstar ki album sunn rha hun, with an entirely new perspective, KYA GHAATAK ALBUM HAI BHAI) - Manav Chaudhary

Our gym boi and yuktahaar partner! We all know how you manage those honors grades, haha XD. But jokes aside, I really admire your consistency, discipline and all the hard work you put in at the gym, and your positive and jolly attitude towards everything. Gonna miss our Yuktahaar convos, used to be so fun laughing and teasing each other! All the best for whatever comes next :) - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

I think the best thing that happened due to DASS was probably getting to know more about you, man I like the hardworking spirit you have you were always ready to work anytime I used to message. Probably the only time random team was actually good lol. Baki mai kafi baar tereko dekh dekh ke apni exercise ki forms improve kiya hounga, for me you and mayank are the bahubali of our batch and marine to teri transformation dekhi which is a source of motivation for me. I genuinely hope hum kuch time mai same city mai ho taki milte rahe. Baki good luck for your research (mujhe pura bharosa hai Nazia ko tu aaram se smbhal le), also thank you ethics TA - Aditya Malhotra

"Ponderr" the gym freak. Sath me wonderla ki trips kiye aur waha wave pools me ek dusre ko girane se lekr sath me paaglo ki tarah rain dance krne me alag hi maza aaya. Bhai tera gym ka motivation and teri transformation is quite inspiring and keep on doing this. Very interesting guy and a very awesome friend. Gonna miss those hangouts, playing badminton and doing gym together. Lets have many more such memories in future. - Mayank Shukla

Bhaiiii topG aur chad bolte bolte pata ni chaar saal kaise nikal liye. Acchi baat hai online sem mai exist bhi ni kara warna saari bandiya le jaata. Advisor aur fellow chd waalo ki bitching mai tere saath karne se better koi ni rha ab thak xD Keep gymming and rizzing peeps my man 🤷‍♂️ - Hariharan Kalimuthu man's dedication to the gym🔥the fact that you eat only soya chunks, daily for lunch😭Naz is mine. Can't get over that she formally made you a part of her family officially🥹. All the best man!! We'll stay in touch ❤️ - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Tiwari ji, you're such a sweet person, itna motivating person I've never seen. Har cheez mein you've motivated mein, ki tu toh ye kar hi legi 🤩 I wish you the best in life - Tisha Dubey

Bhai I still remember our badminton match and how you killed it bhai . Also badhiya body hai bhai Teri and mehnat karta reh bhai bus na and aese hi aur acha kar bhai touch me rehne ka koshish karenge bhai and haan milta rhiyo brother kabhi beech me bhi idhar ho Ana to. Baki gym wala bond to hai hi bhai apna . - Mayank Bhardwaj

I've always found you to be witty, cool and great company. Also a huge admirer of how well you take care of your body, coz I could never eat that healthy or have muscles that big :P. Been great bonding over rants and discussions about courses, gym, college and cricket. Stay happy, and stay in touch <3 - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Hamara gym jaane waala punctual dost. Really genuine friend and saathi marwadi in our group. Sorry for the incident on Mayank's birthday. Will miss your jokes, one of the most witty people I have met in college, real talent for writing. Mere se pehle graduate mat hona, aur Teri intern ki party abhi bhi bachi hai. - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

Thank you for being one of the inspirations I looked up to during my weight loss journey and for your constant encouragement throughout it. I also want to commend you for writing one of the funniest skits I've seen during college. And I look forward to spending next year together on campus :) - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Bhot baar subeh Gym jaane ka man nhi karta tha but fir sochta tha pradhuman toh hoga hi. Really inspired by your daily gym motivation. Hope you achieve your dream physique. - Tarun

First day on campus :
First day was on campus was in quarantine so not very eventful. However, the first day out of quarantine was wild. Broke 18 years of good sleep schedule to stay up all night, make Maggi, take campus tours and some general tomfoolery.

Favourite campus memory :
Favourite campus memories would have to be all the times we were playing around in the hostel. From playing CS, Dark Pictures Anthology to drowning the room in water and almost setting fire to the wing's fuse box everything was very memorable in the hostel.

One thing you will miss the most :
The freedom of going out at any time, unrestricted sleep schedules and the gift of walking over to the next room to find friends who can be woken up at any time

Best thing you learned from here :
Nothing beats a loyal, smart friend group

Favourite place in campus :
Has to be either FG or a particular bench opposite to VC

Biggest Change since your first year :
Have grown to care less about minute details and enjoy more

Chota packet bada dhamaka. Small package big blast. Late night CS will remain memorable and was always fun when with you insane aim hacker. Heavy gossips enjoyer and always has fresh ones to deliver. Also certified cat lover boy because of you I also got some pussy thanks deer. - Nukit Tailor

Budrumane my brother Top of the mornin', top of the mornin', top of the mornin' Top of the mornin', top of the mornin', top of the mornin' Top of the mornin' Hold on, let's get this shit, let's get this shit had an amazing time with you , those late night cs , goofy ass vcs in da sapnu server , late night shenanigans in da OBH in 4th year... will definitely miss those. kinda regret not able to spend a lot of time with you guys in bakul :(but had some real fond memories <3 .... thnx for all the coding round help , couldnt have done it without you guys. Stay in touch and dont forget this ""small man"" . Im definitely trying this Pabbas place that you and sand keep talkin abt - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Not having you around will probably be what I miss the most about leaving college. You've been there for me all through college and in everything that we did together, inspired me to be my best. The endless random nicknames, late night walks, our discord conversations and waiting by as you pet every dog we run into will be memories I will cherish forever :) - Dheeraja Rajreddygari

Very good at cp, especially good at dp. Very beautiful mangalorian boy, so hot. May he keep getting women forever and ever. Even if college gives no dues, you still have dues (adidas sandals + jacket + other stuff please return thanks). Congratulations on getting selected to rubiks cube - Rudransh Pratap Singh

The partner in crime for doing any problem that Kishore sucked at. Going through the most brainrot reels at night, discussing the latest hip hop album drops, and getting hyped up for every disstrack dropped in the Kendrick vs Drake beef (we all know who won). I remember always coming to your room whenever I was bored, and suddenly end up spending hours doing a bunch of bullshit, will miss those days a lot. P.S give me a referral :) - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Ayo big man, heavy c++ lover, heavy party lover, heavy car lover 😹, heavy Kendrick lover, heavy moist critikal lover, heavy witcher lover, heavy deagle lover, heavy reels lover, heavy DJ Khaled lover, heavy swiggy one lover. You were always there to help me out with any issue I had. Crazy work ethic. Very good music taste. Crazy how you're used to sleeping with the lights on idk how you do it. But yes crazy how we started talking because of csgo and it grew into something so much more than that. - Prerak Srivastava

Will never forget how you were there for me in my good and bad times <3 I miss those walks with you. You are a very nice, kind, caring and dedicated person. Keep conquering heights and never forget to be smile. I wish you happiness and success. All the best! - Annam Venika Sruthi smart fella and god at programming, but i knew that since 8th grade. certified real fella, og since before day one xD, will love the dumb shit we've laughed at the past 6 years and more. namma kudla forever, and stay deaging small man - Sankalp S Bhat

Crisp, clean lock bois" - horny for deagles, good at CS and CP, will forever continue getting deranked by Vegi. Will miss giving team contests and late night mald sessions, and especially OSN morning CS <3 fightFight - A Kishore Kumar

Budrapati do be the animal whisperer somehow no ideal how that happens but yee Lemme know if you still need buttermilk lmao Stay safe and stay happy fam <3 - Aditya Nair

Sad we didn't get to interact much earlier, really glad i got the room 81. One of the 3 reasons we ever won our S stack games. Looking forward to more fun times in blr with the shortest man ik. Pictures with you make me look tall thanks for that. - Shavak Kansal

Fellow Ice burster, i think next icpc you should smoke up and give. E2 world finalists - Knv Karthikeya

Niggamane, the stealer of hearts and everything else(coz black guy you know). But good guy, I approve :thumbs: - Kushagra Kharbanda

Cutest gangsta and chick magnet from mangalore. Thoda thoda hinthi aata saar. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

Bondest person ever, someone who kassis everything but also knows how to have fun! From carrying us in DASS by giving us small small accomplishable tasks (we didnt even need to worry at all about the project completion since you were our leader lmao) to having so much fun in the Vizag trip, kassing (& sometimes cheating :P) in all the games and saving all of us from drowning at the beaches, you are a pro at everything! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Hello Manu, aka “”Kassi no 1””, also the best dancer in our group, and also the most unhinged person ever (only competition could be Aparna). You are an amazing friend to have, and I am glad that we have made so many unforgettable memories together in our college life. I still remember hanging out at your room in E-block, having debates that could get us cancelled, singing songs, and discussing everything from dating to our life goals. I will also remember the Pictionary and antakshari nights in SPCRC, the Ananthagiri and wonderla trips, and especially your dancing. Your dancing skills are unparalleled, always energising everyone around with your carefreeness, and inspiring awkward dancers like me to also join in. Besides being amazing at studies and research, you are also a very funny person, always making everyone laugh. You have a soft, kind heart and care deeply for your close ones. Wish you best of luck for the future. Let’s make more memories this year and hope we always stay in touch. #DilipNumberOneFan - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi pranav manu , i didn’t know you till last year, exist bhi karte the? Meri line hai ye :| , Anjali introduced us, phir skip to 2-3 days jc trips, campus walks sab sath hone lagi , me cvjit me kam cvit me rehene lagi. I got two families nashedizz and the real cvit (chalo accept kiya) . So many amazing people! But you were shinning differently. i keep noticeing your goffiness, caring nature, always keeping high morals and sticking to it is what i have always admired in you!, you always find a way to do everything! You show up to every meets, you know every gossips, you exaggerate so many gossips xD.But you still mange to do your research which is so close to your heart, your and astiva sir’s debate ,goffiness ufff!! You have helped me so much, you have inspired me, because of you I have been spending more time in lab, I like to sit besid you and work, see your work, hear all the dark jokes, fight with you over nothing, play, jc trips, everything is interesting! Next year will be lot of fun with you :) see ya - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Han to ji, Kya dikkat hai aapki. kab likhoge testimonials, Kamina, besharam, Heartless bitch(1 exception).Kya likhu, kya hi kiya hai tune mere liye, tere vjh se mai pehle MP nhi ban paaya, hopefully gensec bhi ban jata uss time. Trek par aaya nhi. Tere vjh se matka merko jhelna pda. Assignment mai kuch to madad kr di thi, but bdi mehnat lagi, Khud ache lab mai chla gya, mujhe fasake, mail bhi nhi kiya, abhi bhi draft mai hoga tere. Sabko meri jhuti

*kahaniya btata rha, vo bhi hazaro baar. Har baar ek level zyada. exam mai khud cheating karke tanmay se mujhe nhi dikhaya, or ab to itna busy baap re baap. Mai nhi hota to tera kya hota, kya nhi kiya maine tere liye. Tu to mere hisse ka cake bhi kha gya. 15 min deke tere buraiya sochi hai, kuch acha likhna mere liye.(min 1024 char), no ai usage allowed - ROHAN GUPTA

*Hello Manu, There are not enough words for all the things that I learned from you. You have been my constant motivator regarding the things that I am supposed to take seriously. I can clearly classify you with some of the people who understood me. I really loved the conversations we had in your room teasing Gupta and all. I can clearly say you are one of the very few who were able to help me with my assignments during 2nd year.(CT Assignment 3 ig). Thanks a lot for all the support you have given me all the time. Also, these last few days have meant a lot to me. I really hope we meet again. Though I might go to the USA, one part of me is still with you guys always and will always be hoping for the days we were together. Thanks for all the support you have given me during the last few days. It means a lot to me. Now I feel sad that I could have made my college life a lot better spent with you people. I will miss you guys a lot. Yours Not so Kassi friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

*Biiiittttcchhhhh!!!! Tu ek hai jisko bejhijhak gaali de sakta hu, probably cause you're the closest person to me on campus. Starting me jab mile tab se kabhi dur hi nahi hue, phaltu naachna ho, ki sabse deep gossip share karni ho aur kisi se bhi pehle, apni tuning kuch alag hi hai. Although bakchodi thodi zyada karta hai lekin you are one of the prime reasons ki college life itni mazedaar rahi hai, I'm glad hum ek aur saal saath hai, abhi toh party shuru hui hai!!! - Tanmay Bhatt

*Chal sacch toh bol hee deti hu! I know tu padhega toh sabse pehle screenshot lega but who cares now?! College ka "life" part has always been the most important for me. For the first two years of it, I actually was sad to not have a group of any sort. But bhaai, meeting you all and especially you of all people, I still think and do believe tu nahi rahege naa, toh the group will lose the charm out of it! You are the one who bring in and can make the most absurd joke at all times per say and make it all light! I think you are one of the reasons, college became a lil' bit survivable for me in the last two years. - Anjali Singh

Dear Prassana, what should i write about you, You were involved in my personal affairs,(although doesn't matter now). Never came ,whenever we were planning something, always busy... Lets see, if this changes as 1 more year left in campus. Looks innocent, but is not. But a good guy, (if any girl is reading this). Thanks a lot to you also for having me. May you graduate in 5 year. - ROHAN GUPTA

Fun Panlama?" Karthik is always trying to have some fun in life. Secretly he is a bond, but acads lite. Also screw research, he hates that word😂. Most of the fun I have had in college is with Karthik, because he pulled me to take part in some event or the other. Also, the first person from IIIT I met in person😂. Very chill person and fun to be around with. My constant companion in college ❤️. Seekrama nee paakara mari ponnu kadaippa 😉😂. - Radheshyam Thiyagarajan

Dear Karthik, Celebrity of our batch. Everybody knows you; you know everyone. You are a good friend and helps a lot. You always start everything just a day before the deadline and yet manage to complete everything on time. You somehow manage everything like a charm. But sometimes I feel you takes things very lite. We have gone multiple times on a walk on Infosys Road. You mingle easily with others. Even I like your jokes and the way you laugh. I hope that you enjoy your life to the fullest while climbing up the ladder of your career. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

I first met Karthik during the epoch of online classes. He seemed to be a really proactive person who wished to experience everything college life has to offer - be it ICPC or cultural activities or just chatting with friends! When I met him in campus, this opinion was reinforced. Karthik was prolific in many activities. He was also the source of ready entertainment as he knew many of the latest stories on campus! I remember having lot of fun with him when we were in a team for the blockchain course. Finally, I would like to say that Karthik is a very fun and altruistic person. Hope to keep in contact with you, bro! - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala Karthik, the supportive person !!! I first met u in kadamb mess second floor while going to last class of DASS. You are a good supporter. I still remember our ANLP assigment helping. thanks for all the help and making my 3 I easier. I remember CIM helping days, you are such a great friend ra. nuvvu topper mowa.....thanks for being my frnd and make my college courses a bit easier. Koncham Telugu nerchukora pls, lol. All the best for your future raa:) - Yadavalli Anantha Lakshmi

Karthik Prasanna, a warm friend with whom I've spent a lot of time roaming the campus and having fun, has been a delightful companion. Our discussions ranged from campus gossip to academics and many other topics. Karthik represented our batch as an MP with distinction, helping solve issues like water and washing machine problems in the hostels. In the earlier days, he also helped us explore new friendships, making our social circle wider. His life philosophy of not taking anything too seriously and avoiding overworking was refreshing amidst the campus rat race. Karthik loves exploring new things, from singing to wall painting and more. He has become quite decent at singing, and with a bit more effort, he could become really good. Karthik also loves pranks (or sambhavams).'m looking forward to more sambhavams in the future. I loved your enthusiasm for becoming an entrepreneur. All the best in your future endeavors, Karthik! - Lokesh V

Very friendly guy, takes all hard courses and somehow aces them, A very energetic personality to hang out with and a funny guy. Great friend of mine and thankful that i got to meet him - Katha Rohan Reddy

Karthik is just a great guy. He supported me tremendously during some tough situations, making them much easier to handle. We've shared our fair share of hostel room conversations, whether it was random afternoon discussions or deep late-night talks. Thanks for being a part of my college life. Have a great life ahead, and let's keep in touch, bro. - Keshav Agarwal

Hello ji, how are you? I have you for so long. Literally every time I went for a walk, or came from somewhere, filling water, I would meet you on the way. Not sure if I am the to-do-nothing guy or you? Just kidding, though not really ... Always happy, and smiling. Best of your for your future pursuits. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

Bhai I really admire that you are not afraid of going after the things that you like and really want in life, even if they require some tough decisions. I really enjoyed our conversations around our shared(not so much) experience in CHD. I really wish all the best to you for the future. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Great friend. I still can't forget the jugaad we did in NLP😂. It was really fun hanging with you. Thanks alot for helping me out when I needed you. Take care of your family ❤️. - Tallapragada Sai Venu Gopal

A cool Tamil guy. Still teaches me how happy and chill, life is and supposed to be. When I would struggle to do something in life, blud would have finished it so easily. Still a lot to learn from his philosophies tho. Wish I could've spent more time with him as our times together were limited. I'm so happy for you and wish u great things in life da. Keep going strong !!! - Rahothvarman P

Karthik, I don't know from where to start. You were one of my the best people in CHD who was always there to help anyone in need. You're the good soul we should save. Stay the same forever. - Aaryan Sharma

He is one of the sweetest people I've ever met. He's extremely humble and manages to make everyone around him welcome. You never feel left out when you're around him. Such a cutie :) - Anurag Gupta

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed playing table tennis with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

It's hilarious how we didn't start talking from the first year itself. You are a fantastic friend and batchmate to have. I'm really glad you gave me good company on the Gokarna trip, though you should know better than to strand yourself on a hill with no petrol in the scooter. There's something very organic and original about you, and I like the fact that you don't allow yourself to be pressured into things you don't want to do (Research). Pls give me a tour of Tamil Nadu someday. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Karthik is very helpful and super fun to be with. Will always remember our conversations in South mess. Also hopefully we get to direct our own tamil film someday :) Hope we cross paths again in the future! - Harish Umasankar

Solra Katrick, the first friend I made in college, when we teamed up for a course project, a project where we sadly had to sacrifice the other teammate to the dogs. A very reliable guy, has helped me a lot with assignments and other stuff. Has a big reputation for being a scammer... Do let me know if you have any huge scams planned for the future, I'd want to reserve the movie rights for them - Vinay S

A simple friend who's personality can be summarized as the naughty child. I remember when he was still a shy person, minimizing his interactions with others. Over time, he became more outgoing and revealed his true personality. He liked to stir up shit and see the consequences like a child would. Though some may find this endearing, I think I speak for everyone when I say that part of him is a pain in the ass. Still, he's has been a close friend during my time here at IIIT. If only he could fix his Hyena like luagh -HEEHEEHEE - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

RIP to all those courses we had XP - Garapati Sreya

Hi there. Hope you are doing well. It's been long since we connected right. But there was once we were regular play buddies. I really miss those times. I was able to point out my mistakes with the help of you and correct them. Play table tennis well and when you do remember me too. All the best da. I hope you achieve your dreams. - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

Helloo pinkyyy! Kya badiya football cricket TT volleyball basketball khelta hai tu xD. Admire your dedication to play sports daily and not give a fuck about academics anyday anytime😂. Itni badiya kismat haina teri har jagah, patani kaise pass hojata hai bina attendance ke har course me😂. Gaadi dheere chalaya kar bsdk, heart attack dediya goa me but utna hi maja aya tere sath in trips pe. You have a very warm personality, not taking any bt and always a happy to go nashedi person xD. You have been my second best roommate (after hardik ofc)😆 and had the best time in 212 with you. Absolutely loved having you as roommate, late night women talks, watching matches with you and listening to your haram RR🤣, I saw you grow from the start of college and will miss you a lot in the last year . Very heavy driver. Heavy drinker. Heavy smoker. Itni crazy capacity kaise hai teri. Aur jugaad karne mein to tera koi competition hi nahi hai. Har problem ka kuch na kuch solution rehta hi hai tere paas. Bohot caring hai tu bas bitching galat time pe karta hai kabhi kabhi. Goa ka villa party will be one of my fondest memories of you. Khud ke birthday ke din kya carry kiya hai tune. Sabko enjoy karwa raha tha, sabse participate karwa raha the bina koi bt kisi ko diye. Sports aur dance mein to best hai hi tu bas gifts ki choice thodi sudhar le :) - Shreyas Revankar Chahye Goa trip ho ya Ananthgiri thak road trip, kaafi maza aaya yaar tere saath. Itna carefree aur chill kisi ko ni dekha, but at the end of the day har jagah phod deta hai. Chahe admission kisi bhi college mai le liye ho, alumni toh IIIT ke hee hein saath mei :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Pinky Prasoonn 💘 Miss karunga tere saath random times pe random jagah jaana. One person who has the power to convince me for anything. Going to miss daily trips to BBC and Uncles. Time dena toh band kardiya tune after she came 😔. Abhi college ke baad milte rehna. Slow drive karna seekhle bhai thoda please...News aayegi varna ki Google employee died in car crash. Aur, next time closed space mein bitching mat karna :/ (Open space mein bhi idhar udhar dekh lena chahiye). - Tanmay Goyal

Khasooon, ek somwar to me pakka pel rha hu tujhe. Campus pe aate hi, bike pe ghumaya tha tune, uske baad to lite hi ho gaya, but kafi regret karta hu, kafi chudwa lete I extra saal , lite, waise bhi dono sabse jyada late karte hi he. Itna jyada dimaag chalata he, aur itna jugaadu aadmi he tu, pakka kahi bhi jaega, apna kaam nikal ke hamesha top pe hi rhega. Very happy, we sorted things out, cuz tu to same side pe chahiye hamesha. Itna bitching, aakho n aakhon me baat, kafi jyada similar he apan. Baniya aadmi he, I expect huge things from you. Bas Gaadi dheere chalaya kar hero. - Atharva Joshi

Khasoooon, mere sports secc. Apna udaipur trip toh pending h :sadge:. Need to shift gossip sessions to blr now ig, sab udhar h. But #srhVsrcb toh agle saal streaming mein dekhenge and decide karenge panaut kon h hehehe. - Knv Karthikeya

It was always so fun hanging out with you. I admire how you have such a calm and positive attitude towards everything and how you always have a smile on your face. I'm gonna miss our random chats, playing tennis at Ananthagiri, and climbing trees. Also, a big thanks for saving our lives at Ananthagiri, XD. Stay in touch—it'd be really fun to hang out more! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Your social energy is crazy man. That positive and happy energy that you get with you can just make anyone feel incredibly comfortable in seconds of conversation. I honestly can't believe how I always knew you in college but we met and interacted for the first time in 3-2 at JC late night and post that it has been a lovely friendship. And I seriously love that you keep experimenting with your style and looks, and inspires me as well. Stay in touch man and all the best for the future. - Akshit Gureja

Prat(t?)y sir!! I've rarely met a person so much into music! I will always remember all our jamming sessions, all the good and bad performances on stage XD My favourite is obviously Marz, more because we just improvised it so well on the spot when the power got cut and everything was so perfect!! I love your passion for research and your dedication to always keep improving yourself! Hopefully we jam more and do many gigs in the future!! - Gaurav Singh

An extreme hardworker who also knows how to have a lot of fun. Also haver of fashion sense that I do not understand (my skill issue) but definitely do dig. Excellent taste in manga and music, and I do not know how he finds time to do everything he has done. Am very glad to have met him, and to have experienced some his most brain-dead and hilarious moments as a close friend. Thank you for everything brother :) P. S.: Very ishqy smile that was - L Lakshmanan

You have an inspiring sense of wonder and awe for the world, for music, and the arts. To the collective pursuit of knowledge and aesthetics! :) - Shashwat Singh

"SHER, Kaafi Gora Sher, Mike Jack could only dream (rest his soul greatest of all time) bhai humara connection apram paar. You were the first jiske saath jo connection banaa, toh pata nhi kin kin logon se bann gya. To know I have found a friend jo mere peeth piche sirf taarif hi karta hai, amazing. Humari Depot 48 ki raat yo, yaa phir jab humne kapde kaatkar nift waalon ko bhi takkar dedi, we are brothers in fashion and music, two amazing sources of inspiration and expression which you have had a huge part in shaping, matlab himmat jo milti hai wo alag lmao. THODA ZYADA HI MATURE HAI YEH WAALA, cool headed but teri practicality aur mera andha-vishwas mentality, kaise gel ho gyi broski? Yeh banda samajhta hai. not kidding. Poori school life nikal gyi, ek banda nhi mila (bandi toh waise hi nhi milli) joh almost har joke, har reference, har wo HOLY_MOTHER_OF_GOD moment samajh jaayein. Yakeen kara kar thoda zyada, manav ka mitr hai tu. TQ broski, you inspire me to work hard, party harder. speedial, godspeed :D - Manav Chaudhary

i still remember THAT day when you banged (:flushed:) on my door, and did THAT rant brother. it was that day, and now here we are today. to quote a pop singer (like the erstwhile basic bitch that i was (and tbh, still am to some extent xD))- we've come so far my dear, look how much we've grown :'). literally the coolest guy i know, period. no if's and but's (:flushed:) involved. the greatest thing that i can say to you, which also perfectly underscores your importance in my life, is that out of all the core memories that i have in my life rn, you are part of the majority of them lmao. thank you for changing my college life for the better brother. id like to believe that it was because of that rant only, all those years ago, that our fates collectively changed for the better and became intertwined with each other (not the only things of ours that have been intertwined together btw flushed :)). my college life was absolutely incredible, and i shall forever be grateful to you for that. ly brother. - Pranjal Thapliyal

Music god sky/lantern aspected maybe thoda moth aspect also. But seriously, you're part of my /inner circle and one of the closest friends ive ever had. I think youre insanely smart and have mad fashion taste. Talented as fuck, (music taste could use a lil less john mayer). Meeting you was life changing. ty brdr :sob:, DD gang - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

Bandmate, labmate, but unfortunately not roommate. I'm glad I sent that text to you, and we started talking. You're one of my first friends in college, and my constant rock. I cannot imagine my college life without you. Have cherished every single moment spent with you, and look forward to a lifetime more. - Jatin Agarwala how do you know so many things, good lord. Lovee conversing and jamming with you. Gotta take a delhi tour with you some time! - George Paul

My dear brother! Growing up with you in college has been incredibly special to me. You have been an absolute pleasure, from surviving extreme courses and situations together to standing in line for Kadamb biryani to being wingmates and goofing around. I love the reels we exchange—some fruity and some adorable—and I hope we keep it up despite how we continue to grow and rise. You are genuinely a comical and fun person to hang around with in college, and by the way, you smell nice and soft when I hug you. I hope you become more aware of your belongings when walking on busy roads. Thanks for all the fun times, comedy haircuts, and hair colours. Love you <3 (aur koi shayad bole nahi toh mein hi boldeta hoon) - Harshit Gupta

You helped me take the plunge into the world of Vim very early, and I can't thank you enough for that :p. Loved geeking over ricing, Vim and just random Linux stuff that you'd find and show me. Always thought of you as the person who had very well thought out and level-headed opinions. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

From your musical insights to your dedication to research, there is much to admire, and I have more respect for you than you might realise. Plus you taught me the bass, and that opened up an entire new hobby and musical world for me to explore, which I am truly thankful for. Going on a slightly bittersweet note, but the very last time we perform together on a stage, whether it's just us two or in a band, will be truly epic. We are also not leaving this college without performing Fireflies. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

Cheerful, wholesome, talented, smart, always fun to be around. Has been a very fun cld journey with you brdr. From teaching me Linux to discussing research, we've come a long way, a long way left to go :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

A great friend, one of the best dancers on the campus (I never knew you danced so well! First saw of it at the after-party of our farewell). Hard-working, very social, and easy to talk to. Always ready to help out, though very hard to convince to come for an outing! (:cough Go Carting). A good football player, a good singer and the most (at least for me) active member of the Music club. Questionable fashion choices (hair color :)), but makes it work. A part of me is sad that we never went on any trip together. Maybe someday? Cheers to the memories we made and many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

It takes a real man to be best girl, and you are the bestest. But really, I'm gonna miss you. The cheerfulness, epic hair colour, playing football, all of it. It was a real treat to see you play the bass on stage as well. I'm just salty that I didn't cosplay with you at comic con in the last sem. All the very best for the future, although I'm fairly certain you got that under control. Cheers! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Hey Pratyaksh Thanks for getting me through DASS. Love your stage presence during all music events <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

The first time we talked was when I asked to be his roommate. Struck such a gem of a person by pure luck. This man has taught me so much, not only linux, but also the ways of life. Will always cherish the deep convos of E12. Math and systems aside, I am still amazed at buggy's versatility, does so much, and is really good at all of it. - Yash Mehan best fashion consultant <3 - Abhinav S Menon

First day on campus :
COVID! Was rushed into parijaat as soon as i arrived, managed to say hi to luncc and sane just before entering the quarantine block :O met bani at the food counter :D

Favourite campus memory :
In 3-2 I had an SWE project and a CV assignment due at the same time. My SWE team was fortunately all my friends. Bonding over shared misfortune >>> Spending days grinding at the workspace, with my friends who didn't even have the course joining in too, was fun! got some quality memes out of it too$

One thing you will miss the most :
late night walks around campus. spontaneous dlf / cream stone trips. weekend getaways. going to jc and standing around for no reason. sunset at fg. all of it

Best thing you learned from here :
to tinker around and try new things. oh and i learned how to make friends

Favourite place in campus :
that set of benches on the right hand side when you start walking towards bakul from the gate. lots of memories there :)

Biggest Change since your first year :
didnt know it was possible but im even more of a foodie now o_O

Thank you for opening my eyes to the beauty of Arch, and NO thank you for the memes (this is a joke please don't stop). You've been there for me literally through my entire life at college, and I hope you continue to be the goofy dude you are :) AAklso pleasw don't subject anyone to tom bruise this is important really don't ooo-j36m - L Lakshmanan

I'm glad I got to be one of the people who knows your true goofy, sweet and absolutely genuine self. Never stop with your "pratyay" jokes and I'll continue pretending to laugh at them, cause I'm nice like that. When FSM next? - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

Goofy ahh, clumsy but the sweetest guy ever. Thanks for always being there (for me to poke). Aaaahh there's so much to write. I've had the best time in college with you. Always my partner in doing the randomest things, I'll miss you :) See you soon, forever my food recommendation system - Ananya Sane

Going to miss being mean to you, and humbling you when you say your ""jokes"" All the DLF trips and restaurants you dragged us to, all those random obscure Youtuber references that for some reason only the both of us know xD - Sneha Raghava Raju

If a golden retriever had the brains of a scientist, the combined humour of all the dads in the world, and the creativity of Steven Spielberg, he'd still not be as amazing a person as you are (because he's a golden retriever. Geddit?). I absolutely love you for who you are, and cherish all your yapping. And for the record, I'm certain you would have come up with a better logo for citi bank if you had been in that room that day – Jatin Agarwala

Guaranteed nift lady who got sent to iiit on some database error. Won't let you eat squat you order before taking an aesthetic picture of it. Adored by mothers all across India. Good food recommendations tho, so def recommend befriending him :) - Abhijith A the first time i talked to you splatyboi was when you finished the cpro lab programming midsem exam in the first hour. You got me into designDesign for once. I can't be more grateful to have such a smart, kassi, and a wholesome friend. You basically hard carried everytime. I can never forget the Geoguessr rounds and impromptu dlf trips. A lot of my college life has been shaped by you :) – Yash Mehan

The best roommate ever! and an even better friend. The most amazing and motivated design design doer. I am sure you will animate a Pixar movie one day!! Thanks for listening to all of my "who is my advisor?" rants xD. We went through so much together! Thanks for always helping whenever I needed it. Couldn't have asked for a better roommate :))))) - Gaurav Singh

One of the most talented artists out there, my personal favourite. I am going to be pinging you for color palettes or design languages out there. The design nerd in me loves you the most <3 Also, BHAGWAAN KE LIYE, never stop making puns. I live to see those!!! All the best for your future buddy, and thank you for the camo tshirt way back in the second year XD - Freyam Mehta

Sweetest guy ever. Keep sending those food pics and daily stories, and keep trying to crack jokes and be painfully bad at them. Always fun to have you around :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri irreplaceable sense of humor you have, so don't go changing ya hear. - George Paul

Hiee! You are such a talented and sweet person <3. It was always a delight talking to you <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Chatterbox if you are ready to listen - to shut him up you just gotta start talking, works pretty well. Need to mention that he is a certified Swiftie (Definitely not the guy who would sit on his seat while everyone is screaming out of their lungs). He is more sweet than what his face says. Need more of those boomers, please keep giving thanks. To many more gossips, Catans, boomers! - Gokul Praneetha

Unintentionally (or maybe not :p) funny guy who's always ready to try out new things. Somehow, all this adds up to his stand-up forté xD. I'm going to keep calling you to my dance programs, you can't get rid of me that easily hehe. Gonna miss the 'budding artists' face painting sesh :(- Srujana Vanka

This student is absolutely fantastic. Just needs to focus on studies, sports, rizz, skin tone, mental capacity, physical capacity, social capacity, romantic capacity, sexual capacity. Very good fellow researcher, neither of us are graduating in 5 years. - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Pulling those all nighters for GDE and Computer Graphics were a pain, but we'd always find a way to get that shit done. Loved the random late night talks we'd have in any of our rooms, just talking about stuff for almost hours at a stretch. One of the best drivers no matter what the conditions were ;). Loved playing Cabo for hours and hours, hopefully we can make that online version work as well :). - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain Forever gossip partner <33 Thank you for being there for so many of my ups and downs. I would feel carefree and light whenever us three would hangout, and I am so grateful for it. You always know what to say to make things better, and are easily one of the funniest person I know :))) - Ameya Sharma

Gem of a person. Really glad that I met you. Gussa kam kara bc, divorce ho jayega 2-3 saal mein jitna gussa tu karta. Always stay in touch, brother. I m pretty sure kissi din randomly apan subway pe milenge. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

Baaki sab bhale hi tujhe gyaan babu bole(which is very true), mere liye to tu instagrammer of the batch hi rahega. Tere private account mein itni photos hai meri ki mere khud ke phone mein itni nahi hongi. We started talking to each other a bit late but I am glad we did. Teri itni advice le chuka hu ki ab tere jaisa sochne bhi lag gaya hu lmao. But I have had some of the best conversations with you on every possible topic on the face of this planet. Jitna bhi gyaan baanta hai tune kuch to sahi baate keh hi deta hai. Mere liye to bangalore mein second home hoga tera ghar hamesha (agar tu canada na chala jaye to :( ) - Kushagra Kharbanda

Angry young man with a lot of wisdom to share. Mildly entertaining, extremely salty (5.5/10 as a person). Has the best room to do bakchodi as all the other good for nothing folks end up there. (Don't break his stuff though, gets pissed after the 5th item). frfr college bestie though. All the best and let's stay in touch. - Akshit Gureja im guessing the chhota packet bada dhamaka joke has probably been overused, so I'll go ahead and make the same joke: bhai you are the definition of chhota packet bada dhamaka. Pondi was hella fun, so was looking for suits (istg if we hadn't found that McD you'd have been beaten up). Looking forward to more such excursions! - Gogate Atharva Sunil

bro has zero filter - it is endearing and amazing. stay freaky - George Paul

You taught a lot of people how to live life "relatively well". There is an existing theory there does not exist a 3-gram that you haven't uttered. - Shashwat Singh

The (bad) influencer in life, you'd better have around if you don't want to miss out on life. Chai peene bulao toh chaar minar le jaata hai, club chalane mai help maango toh vaid ko mic pakda deta hai, room mai chill karne jao toh water cooler mai paani bharwaata hai bkl. Being the second(not really) funniest person in FHC and the extension chord of FHC, he's been absolutely useless, but has always been a delight to have around. Cycling ke chakkar mai poora Hyd ghuma diya subah subah bc, but integral part of college memories bhi saath mai bana hee diye xD P.S. Priya meri jaan! Thank you for being such a unique and different person in college; you indeed are a breath of fresh air. I love and respect your adventurous spirit and your zest for life. Spending time with you, travelling with you, and hugging you have been some of my best moments. Thank you for being so patient with me when I get ticked off. I hope you someday make some time to study elementary physics and mathematics again, nahi toh tere bacche change tere par XD. Thanks for being accomodative and rational when it matters, lets make more moments together! <3 - Harshit Gupta

Despite whatever I may say, I'll admit that you're a wonderful, candid person, with a great sense of humour. I love your antiques, and how fun you are to be around. Always stay the same! - Jatin Agarwala

Our Pondi trip is one of my most cherished memories of college. Thanks for making it happen!! - Gaurav Singh

Unofficial roommate to official roommate, and Vella enough to be beside me all the time. Also the dumbest guy I've ever seen. Always fun listening to the shit you say. keep trying to be funny, it's funny. - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Campus life carry kari hai tune :) The friend which every friend circle needs and deserves fr. The one with the wildest ideas. The one who makes sure that not only does the trip make it out of the group chat, but is also the one who makes plans for the trip himself :P Really hoping ki I come across someone even half as extroverted as you in Bangalore, because I know fir toh after-work life set ho jayegi lmao. Stay in touch brother (especially 5th year main (this is not a request but a threat btw)) :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

I remember the last few days of college when we used to study together. Bro would sleep 90% of the time, study for like half an hour, and somehow get more marks than me. At the end of the day though, what matters is I played the Bongcloud against you and won. Not letting you forget that hehe. - Abhay A Patil

Heyy Priyanshul Good FHC you used to do. Keep putting entertaining stories xD - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

i wish i had your impulsivity T_T. most adventurous lil fucker i know, funny as all hell also - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

I am yet to figure out how he scored less marks in every test that I copied from him. Will never forget the few rant sessions we had lol. When treat ra??? - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Social anxiety fears Priyanshul. He's not afraid to be sound dumb, and that's why he'll sometime have the best ideas. He's the man who will keep you up all night, and make you walk to sunrise points where you won't even get to see the sunrise. But all that doesn't even matter because he'll really make you realize the value of the journey rather the destination. The most spontaneous man I know, he really knows how to live life. - Pratyaksh Gautam

The best emotional support a person could have. Thanks for listening to me rant a million times a day. You actively make me a better person, and I am super glad (freaking grateful lmao) to have met you. I'll try to be more active in UGS so that you stop complaining about me being lazy. It's a shame you're from Bangalore; otherwise, you'd be THE perfect best friend. Please, keep the "beard" if you don't want to get bullied. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Hi Radhe! I first met him at a temple.😂 Our friendship started from there and lasted with the countless nights having fun, the outings we went, and the exams we studied together. I will just sneak into his room whenever I feel bored. I hope we will do more of them again. Radhe is a hardworker, motivator, loves doing research, and doing non-acads activities is his passion.😇He is an avid listener and loves listening stories. Learn to spin stories da, its even more fun. 😉He has a caring heart and high ethical standards. Thanks for all the help that you did to me da.❤️My best wishes for your life. I hope you will be my friend till our 90's.😂 - Karthik Prasanna N

The Arjit Singh of the gang. Even I would fall for you voice and I am sure girls are going to be behind you like fanny magnet. I loved irritating you with all my jokes and now you are free from all of it. You are the most disciplined guy in the gang and achieving in both academics and extra curriculars being a role model for junior students. Borrowing your cycle has become a habit whenever I went for a haircut. You've made the college life more joyous with all your involvement in the trips, college fests, random hangouts and the banter in gokul's room. All these will stay with me as memories and I wish it's not the end of it. Stay in touch and all the best in all you do. I will miss you and thank you for the wonderful moments Radhe. - Ruhul Ameen S

Radhe! It has always been fun hanging out with you, jamming out together at Srujana (with you only singing lol), and going on long treks together. I think you are the jolliest, most humble person I have ever met, talked to, and joked around with. Bring back your curly hair. Absolutely love them <3 - Anjali Singh

Radhe Radhe sirjee TAed a complete course with him, always knew that he was humble, down-to-earth, but HOLY MOTHER OF JESUS is dude cool, level-headed and service-oriented, inspiring, funny and just a great bowl of company. dude has done so much for the college, and has contributed so much to IIIT's culture, it would be an understatement to say that he has shaped just about everyone's college life in these past 4 years. Would love to have music-oriented conversations with him, feel like his perspective on those would be eye-opening, carnatically fun and frolic xD you have my number buddy, just give me a call whenever you'd like. Know that you've got a friend in me :D ALSO BEST BEARD ON CAMPUS FR FR ON GOD GENETICS really did something - Manav Chaudhary

Bhai it was my honor competing against u for u know what. I concede to u. It is impossible to keep up with your sweetness and wide range of skill sets that u possess, (a fan of ur singing). But honestly u are one of the kindest and honest human being I know. Thank u for all the help and I hope u achieve great things in life. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Most skilled singer in the batch. Can steal your girl with those looks and vocals, but is too nice to do so (count your blessings) Had a lotta good times with you, first feli performance and all:) Keep in touch! - Abhijith A I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

Radhe, a dear friend with a big heart, is someone with whom I've spent countless hours discussing everything from humanities to movies. Our interactions have been both fun and thought-provoking. Radhe is a talented singer and the main reason Tamil songs featured in our cultural events. He excels at organizing events, from Tamil New Year celebrations to wall painting, and has always been my go-to person for any occasion on campus. Additionally, Radhe is a skilled table tennis and tennis player; I will cherish all the duels we had in TT. He led the clubs council with distinction, making it more professional and club-friendly. All the best for your future endeavors, da. - Lokesh V

The first time I met Radhesyam was during the online semester, when we bonded over Tamil Cinema and our love for Kamal Hassan. After coming to campus, I realized he's not just a movie buff, but an incredible singer and all-around talent. Whether it was performing on stage or stepping up as a leader, Radhesyam's always got it! Hope we cross paths again in the future! - Harish Umasankar

My fav lil Tamizh boi from banglore who literally made everything I did in college much better and definitely more fun :D Purest soul I've met on campus and the best person to rant to about literally everything. Right from picking CHD, music, tennis, CC, cycling, to even Tanay's room to chill, there's practically very less things I have done without this ąt. P.S.I am glad I have this fellow for (atleast) a year more in college hehe. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Bro get the pump my cycle is dying - Priyanshul Govil

Radhe radhe radhe... One of the nicest people I know in college, has a very strong Responsible Daddy energy. I've been coaching him in badminton for over a year now, sadly he hasn't learnt anything, through no fault of my own. He has a strong drive for taking initiative, looking forward to see what becomes of your rap career - Vinay S

You are the most soft-spoken and kind person I've met in college! I wish I'd participated in more performances with you!! Cheers! – Divyansh Tiwari

An excellent singer and an even better person. Kind, caring, always there to help, sweet to the point of justifying any cavities that come along. Will always miss having you and our twig of a mutual friend 3 yard away. - Rajarshi Ray

Will always cherish our jamming sessions, we'll definitely do more. We'll collaborate and try doing some fun stuff :) Whole campus is behind you, give me appointment after I graduate saar please. - Lenka Charan Sahit

Don'tHaveOne_TeamsFTW, filling this coz I have to

First day on campus :
I remember arriving at the college days late with a boot full of bags and missed making friends at first. However, the friends I eventually made made me feel ever lighter.

Favourite campus memory :
All of our group outings were my favorites. Although we weren't exactly a bunch that snapped pictures to remember the special occasions, the candid shots nonetheless have a lasting impact.

One thing you will miss the most :
Rajasekar with his quotes and randomness, Asapu hitting the table when he loses, Sudha Bunda 's comebacks, the impacts Genshin impact had on me due to Terala and the bondness of Vikram are few of the things I'll definitely miss. PK Reddy is my favorite professor.

Best thing you learned from here :
Never be an introvert, I still am tho. Grabbing the opportunity and utilizing it would be one of the main things. And it's a fact that Bengaluru is way better than Hyderabad lol.

Favourite place in campus :
JC no doubts. And my room too.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I'm still the same guy, a bit more matured maybe?

Scion of Madurai. A sharp and clear minded individual, he wakes up and smells the coffee every day and every night. Over the course of our fabled sporting encounters, several careers have been ended (included thala's). The bakul streets and snails won't forget lengthy caffeine driven conversations about all kinds of stuff. You possess a great work ethic and grind hard when you set your mind to something, and will still find time to loaf. Always ready to discuss things in jc anytime, anywhere. Thanks for always being there and willing to help out in everything over the years. With astute AI merchants like rahothvarman leading our generation, I'm confident that our nation will be led into hundredth generation computing. All the best in your journey ahead, we will be there. - Nitin Rajasekar

The best roommate I could ask for. The bakul days will always be something I remember, and I would not have survived that without your company. Our mindsets about a lot of things were pretty similar which I think helped us understand each other very well. Something I am very thankful for is that you introduced me to our group which in hindsight changed my entire college life (for the better obviously). Your seriousness towards academics was something I was very envious of and tried to learn but never did. While your snake behaviour was very clear with others, I feel like you were somewhat genuine with me, and I really appreciate that. All in all you were the ideal roommate and an even better friend, I really hope we can stay in touch even after college. Wishing you all the best in your future endeavors. - Aakash Terala

A true CLD Bond who excels at nearly everything he tries. A great friend, always ready to play different sports for fun. Loves coffee, fast food and going to JC. A multi-talented guy with varied interests, who is smart as well as approachable. Anyone who knows him will tell you that he will succeed at anything he does. Keep up the good work man!! Can't wait to see you achieve great things in life! - Vikram A Rao

Every guy in college needs a rival to compete with (or look up to). Unfortunately, you had the misfortune of being in my sights. From the beginning of our friendship, I sought to be more disciplined like you, as hardworking as you, as talented as you (mf at least knows the mridangam and knows how to study, I don't know shit) and as calculated as you. I failed in every regard, and I look like a proper slacker when I put myself next to you. But I believe that is a good thing, as it has taught me that I can still become a better person. Our banter has not always been the most lighthearted, but friendship isn't always sunshine and flowers. Thank you for being such a passionate soul and teaching me many lessons. You may or *may not hold me in such high regard, but I'll always respect the person you are and what you stand for. I hope CSK never wins the IPL again. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

*Rathovarma is one of the first friends I made in college. He is a very very very big coffee addict. You have more chance of finding him in JC drinking coffee than his room. He is shit at almost every game he plays but gives great entertainment to other who watch him play. Honestly those gaming session wouldn't have been so fun with you. He is interested in most of the subjects taught in college, he is also interested in women twice his age so beware. He is a huge tryhard when it comes to doing assignments he always does more than what is asked in the assignment or project. He however lacks this dedication towards physical activities which was evident when he got tired after walking one round of the football ground. He suffers from a sickness called home sickness he goes home every week to only wash his clothes. He however is a very funny and kind person. You are the only person I received gifts from in college so thanks for being a very good friend. - Likhith Asapu

*Rahoth, you're a true gem! Your intelligence, good looks, and charming personality make you a joy to be around. Thank you for being such an amazing CLD batchmate, and more importantly, a friend and brother. I'll never forget our silly moments, the deep academic and placement discussions, the endless laughter, and the hilarious trolls we pulled in South Mess and on our walks between classes. It's been a privilege to share so many courses with you and survive them together. Here's to us! - Harshit Gupta

*Hi Rahot. I first met him at VC, shocked to know he was Tamil😂. Rahot is a big bond and AI/ML are the chips he eats with food everyday. He has high moral standards and does what he thinks is right. Though I interacted comparatively less with him, those conversations were fun and interesting. I still remember that one whole bench we occupied in the science I class.❤️I wish those times lasted longer. All the best for your life da. Good Bye. - Karthik Prasanna N

OVERTHINKING KI AULAAD, TY for being my diversity friend from the land of Haryana. - Freyam Mehta

Hiee! Our random online conversations, trips and hangouts, our playlist vibing over gmeets are cherished memories <3. Keep on smiling and wishing you all the best! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

How do I start? Still do not know how we became friends but you are the best thing that has happened to me that has and that could have happened in the college. Stay the same? I have no idea tu kya karne wala hai but I can't wait to see it 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Saale kassi, kitna padhega tu? But jokes aside, I'm beyond glad I met you. You always were very easy to open up to, and always gave very good advice. Moreover, you had that insane energy that nobody can really replace. And you always had your priorities set, I really could stand to learn that from you. I remember singing in your room, the gaming, ranting about OSN and DIP, and even the more serious conversations. It was all very fulfilling around you. I really hope you get the college of your dreams for masters, you more than deserve it. Cheers! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

The kassi bro of CHD... I don't know how do you manage to get so many good grades and have the largest steam account, playing new games... I remember when we were learning about hedonism and that moment Rahul declared himself as hedonist😂. Abhi tak teri saari parties bachi hai pata nhi kab dega!! Tu itna acha kaam karta ki kitni bhi mehnat karo humesha Honors mein mujhe A minus aur tujhe A deti thi ma'am. Had lots of fun together.. CHD dinner etc. Have a great career ahead mann!! -Yug - Yug Dedhia

upon a lifetime touching grass brother. It has been special knowing you and spending time with you despite the vast difference in our interests. No but actually the most common interest we truly have is for each other and for aesthetics xD It has been amazing doing courses with you, calculating the amount you have spent on video games over the last few years and having random talks at night. Especially me trying to creep you out xD. Can't wait to see how you rise, and I hope you are active enough to make time for me even after you become a big man <3 - Harshit Gupta

Hey Roommate ! Took us 4 years to realize, night out before the examination is not helpful. Wasted many sleepless nights, just to set right the sleep schedule, unsuccessfully. Had unfruitful discussions on how frustrating it is to eat mess food daily, but had no other option. Goa trip was amazing. Hope we will travel more together in the future. Apologies for waking you up early. Hope you will get go of your laziness. Thank you for all the countless memories. All the best for your future endeavors. Until we meet again. - Nagireddy Dhanush Reddy Rahul, you are a great friend. I call you so many times and talk for so much time. I think I make you uncomfortable sometimes.

But still, you don't say anything. Thanks for bearing with me. I like your dedication if you want something. If you focus on something, you always get it. I still remember our 20 km long walk. We have gone out many times. We talk about so many random things besides academics. Yet, you only see that side of me. I sometimes feel you are innocent and in the very next moment so clever. You can make friends very quickly. That is a good skill. Yes, you do have control on your desires. You are the only one I used to talk to during online semesters. You have helped a lot and supported me when I worried about something. I can't imagine online semester without you. Thanks for that. We have worked together in many projects. I know you from Inter. I still get shocked by your performance in current electricity. Enjoy your life. Live according to your will. All the best for your future. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

First day on campus :
Quarantine in Paarijat with an attached washroom in a traumatizing state. Post-that, going to OBH, playing football at 6, moving to dinner immediately. Acads aside, the day set the flavour for the rest of college life.

Favourite campus memory :
Nothing exact, but the culmination of the time spent in different rooms with different people, talking and doing, occasionally under inebriation.

One thing you will miss the most :
The ease, the security of life in college. The freedom of adulthood without the responsibilities.

Best thing you learned from here :
Taken up 40 or so courses, spoken to so many different people, have had variety of different experience, only to learn most about myself.

Favourite place in campus :
The walkway to Anand Nivas. Football Ground.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Perception of myself, people around me, and life, in general.

Dear Raju, First met you in the football ground, you got an incredible left foot and agility for a man of ur (4"" 11') stature. Always enjoyed playing with you in the wings (those cutbacks were slick) and one of my favorite memories was that header you scored, literally kid's version of juve Ronaldo xD. Singlehandedly representing the Yellow Wall here, match streamings were crazy fun (hard luck on the finals). Movie nights were eye opening although it always came with a 5 hr delay. Will always remember that princess carry (not recreating it ever again) and looking forward to seeing the Rajarishi tat, solid idea. You're an absolute gem of a person, stay the same short king and good luck with everything! - Ankithvarun J

My dearest Lil Dawg, you are truly a great source of joy and happiness for all those around you. Despite all the stress that you no doubt have to deal with, you're always down to help and hang out with your friends. One of the great romantics of our college, I don't see how its possible for anyone to resist your charms. One of the most perky, hyper dwarfs I know, you are a great friend to have. I hope that one day you can give up your bad habits and become a true lover of life. Next time we meet, Imma stuff you into a suitcase and take you back home. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

Lil dawggg. My 4 foot 9 buddy. One of the worst ballers in campus. You one of the funniest dudes ever. Will never understand how you actually think you can beat me up if you want to after I laid ur ass flat on the ground by just standing. You can try again July 13th. Ur always cheerful and positive face even during the toughest of times is something I admire and that cheerfulness is contagious. Thank you for that brother and everything else. Good luck. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

Always relaxed, level headed and good vibes - any place, any deadline. Thanks for somehow always being around in the darkest electives I have taken in my iiit career. Founder, president and sole member of our college's Dortmund fan association - tough luck about yesterday's final, but theyll be acing the future and so will you. Will miss having you around for your cheerfulness and practicality..All the best with whatever you choose to do hereon, I'm sure everything'll turn out great, as always. - Nitin Rajasekar

We may not have talked in length at the beginning of college, but that's irrelevant compared to the time that we spent being wingmates. Dude, you're such a comforting and friendly presence to be around, and I am super happy I got to know you. You are one of the rare few who appreciates fine arts, and that's a really cool quirk to have. Things always felt better knowing you and your room were just around the corner, and

I am super happy we vibed along as great friends. Your dedication to fitness has inspired me to take up such a journey of my own, and I am proud to have you as my inspiration regarding health in general. Gonna miss you a lot, buddy, don't forget to keep in touch :) - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Hello Rishabh, aka “”the biggest fan of Haryanvi songs””, and my “”pani puri buddy””. You are an amazing friend to have - open hearted, funny, always ready for impromptu trips, and most of all, extremely kind and caring. You are always considerate and make sure everyone has a good time. You are also owed a huge thanks for being the driver of the group. I give you a 5 star rating (4.9 stars if “”system pe system”” is playing). I don’t even know when we became such close friends - the batch trip, the birthday parties, you recruiting me into ERC at mess 😂, doing random bakchodi in your room and in SPCRC, the Kondamma seasons, late night poker games, the Goa and wonderla trips, going out on random trips late night, exchanging cat reels, go karting, and so many more memories... In the midst of all this, you have become family, someone I trust completely and can always rely on. Adios brother, keep in touch, will miss having you around. Have fun on the journey ahead and never hesitate to reach out. #KanchanSharmaAmarRahe - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Brother who was going to tell me you’re single degree?? Mans did more research as a btech than I have. Finding random bullshit answers or experiments these IoT kids did was probably the best times we’ve had lmao.Take care and good luck ahead :) - Tejah S S

Arguably the face of Bhosdiwale? Resourceful, funny, planning expert; you’re bound to be successful wherever you go. While you’re no more in this college, I am only happy about the fact that we met and were friends. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

“Couldn’t have asked for a better lab mate honestly. Thanks for being that constant support and always helping me out. E-Block was indeed more lively because of you. All the best with your future man. -Akshit - Akshit Gureja

Hey Rishabh!! You were one of the most amazing people I met in my life. I really like your work-ethic, perseverance and the uncanny ability to pull-off last minute miracles. You always inspire me to do unconventional things that I would have never done before. I will forever cherish our memories of setting up lights during Diwali and Felicity, you fixing the hardware with me morally supporting you 😅 and playing late-night card games with me eventually playing for you. I am exited to see your future achievements. As you are reading this, remember you only need one machchi 🐟 to reach me. - Souvik Karfa

Hey Rishabh You and Souvik are probably my closest friends in college. Playing cards in your room is one college ritual I will never forget. All the hours spent talking about politics, placements and cards and eating your snacks are something I will not forget soon and cherish for a long time. From first thinking you were just another nerdy kid who only studied, to seeing you get a tattoo made from a toothpick on a beach in Goa I have seen another side to you in the past 2 years. I can't wait for our paths to cross again. And anyways I think I will be in Hyderabad only if you ever visit lol. All the best! - Anish Mathur

Hello Rishabh, I first met you in quarantine when we were having the daily checkup. Late I got to know you through the CCIoT project. I wish I had known you better, but thanks for being a friend of mine always. I am kind of happy that you were there and sad that I did not get much time to spend with you. I hope I was closer to you guys. At this point all I can say is all the best. For me, you will always remain as the guy who is very qualified for the IoT guy of the batch. The true person who belongs in ERC and the worthy person of the title of Jugaadu Genius(I mean the Unconventional Genius, little bad Hindi forgive pls). Your Not so Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Bhai tere baare me toh kya hi likhu, ekdum core group ka hissa hai tu toh. The OG kondamma gang. Now that I think about it, shayad hum log 2nd year me itna kuch interact nahi karte the lekin all that changed completely in the past year. Ab toh halat aisi ho gayi hai ki I can't think of even a single adventure which doesn't include you. Raat ko randomly ghumne nikal padne se, itna planned goa trip tak. Tere se zyada organized or practical banda shayad hi maine college me dekha hai, woh toh trips pe evident ho jata hai. I've always admired that about you. Abhi toh bas college khatam ho raha hai, maje thodi. Cheers to many more such adventures to come saath me! - Tanmay Bhatt

Bhai one of the cutest and most genuine friend of mine, not to mention richest. Had great fun with you at wonderla. Bhagwan kare tu bhot kamaye stocks mein aur gaming mein ace kare. Gym thoda regular ja bas. All the best beti. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Hmare grp ka jetha lal, manna padega banda mess me kadam bhi nhi rakha. Matlab raheesi ho to aise bande ko bachpan me paani nhi mila, ab banda sb khareed leta hai. Hmare group ka most sensible banda, bhale kaafi baar priyansh aur tomar ne extreme levels pe leke gaye the tughe but tb bhi bande me kaafi calm tha. Banda jo krta sbme acha rehta but saala ek number ka aalsi gaand tha. Iski wajah se hmne kitna kuch nhi kiya bs order kia, sanam nhi bhooloonga mai. Sbse jyada party dene wala, waise bhi paise chati pe thodi leke jaana hai... Hmare grp ka trader, Love you brother have a great future ahead. - Rishabh Srivastava

Suneo hai app" Suneo hai bhai hamere group, bro never hesistates for comfort, jo chahiye aaj he khareed lege, andha paise bruh, aur accent toh bhai ne jo diya diya hai, aaj bhi dimaag se nahi utar raha hai. Aur phir "meh meh" ka toh kya he kehna. Bhai lucky man ka chota version tha, itna profitable to toh log training karne ke baad nahi hote, jitne yeah randomly trade leke sone ke baad bana leta hai. My Gym bro, who used to go gym with me before Goa Trip. Now, he is so optimistic that he can build body in 1 months before family function (Jo ki bilkul bhi nhi hoga usse, chala ja bro wrna fatt jayega ek din) that he stopped going gym with me later. Guy who go to mess for lunch and dinner ocassionally (atmost once in a week). Ab toh intern bhi lg gyi, paise bhi aa rhe toh only zomato, swiggy now. Trader of our group jo ki generally profit krta hai agar khud se kre toh. Gamer of our group but bro Diamond lobby kab cross krega tu. Chal, jaldi se business khol so that we can also join u and fir phod dete hai. Mujhe hamesha swimming sikhane ka try kiya but kabhi successful nhi hua tu. Going to miss that jo hamesha ek dusre kr room me jaakr bakchodiya krte the, aur hamesha ladai xD. - Mayank Shukla

The best Valorant duo!! I still remember him skipping endsem just because he had to play valorant with the squad. Got his priorities straight XD. The stoplosses we hit on March 1st will never be forgotten. The richest guy in the group. Lots of memories together Goa, all the dinners basically everything. Now that I remember, if I wasn't

Had fun playing chess in E4 in 2nd year, and some late-night pre-exam study sessions. Great fun hanging out. Our group did many activities together from trampoline (x2), Nehru zoo (what was that palace?), Punjabi affair, etc. Cheers to the memories we made and to the many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Oof this guy and his obsession with his hair. Har party ya photograph ke liye ye banda pehle haricut karvane jaata hai. Though, I am jealous of your hair. Isko life mei 2 he cheezo se darr lgta hai, ek apne kharab grades se or dusra apne papa se. But the most admirable fact about this guy is he is always calm, koi bhi situation kyu nah ho ye bnda hmesha calmly nikal leta hai. Gussa zara sa bhi nai krta bss hass ke nikal deta hai. And kisi ko let down bhi nai krta jab ki isko khud ko boht aata hota hai. Will miss you buddy, meri activa dhyan se chlaya kro. Milte hai Banglore mei fir se. Take care. - Priyansh Khunger

Room me jab sath me rhte the toh aisa lgta tha ki room mai bhi ganda krta hu then I realized in final year that this is his personal talent (dirtiest room ever saw), koi bhi saaman nhi milta iske paas time pe. We went to wonderla, trampoline park, Goa etc together and those memories will always stay. We tried to learn swimming together and failed together xD. Fellow teammate for

Volleyball, cricket, TT and other sports. We captained our respective house together. Met with our first accident together (improved from rash driver to careful one). Gonna miss all those hangouts together from watching horror movie, early morning Dosa to trips. - Mayank Shukla

Bandi boy of our group, Bond of our group, pro gamer, aur toh kya he kehna. bande ne maze maze me GATE top karliya, Banda CVIT me baithta hai. bas bro bas, kitne he tareef kardu teri. Great time together, Mujhe aaj bhi yaad hai first time jab tune mujhe room se bulaya tha during covid isolation, aur phir toh memories he bante gayi hai, Aur gaming ke experiences ka toh kya kehna. chal bro all the best for future, Appa Fer milage. : Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar

Our own bandi boi, pata nhi har baar last moment pe assignment khatam kar leta tha. Salman Khan ka first copy, always wanted to go to gym but never woke up (kal se pakka chaluga). We enjoyed in Goa especially the adventure sports(iykyk), aaj ke baad never going in cheap places. Will miss gaming together and just sitting for hours in each other's rooms, watching horror movies too. We truly had the days of our lives. - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

Vastaweak- The Bandi Boi😂 Bro got so much fixated on Rocket League that even though we stopped playing RL he kept playing (still sucks at it). We had so much fun together.. from Goa to Trampoline park and what not... Worst bike driver.. never sit behind him (can confirm this with Mayank Shukla). Always wears S size T-shirt so that he could flex his small muscles. The one who always says " Kal se Gym pakka😂". When I first saw him in the OBH corridor... he was constantly trying to put his hair on the right side and hence made a chappri first impression. Always does assignments in the last 6 hours and manages to get A in everything. Fun guy tbh... Tu hi tha jo mere saath Felicity dance mein participate karta tha... Always ready to participate in everything.. Yaadein toh rahengi!! Have a great life man!! -Yug - Yug Dedhia

A good friend, a cricketer (not better than me), and a volleyball player. Good at studies, works hard for research. Also, man is never up for anything! Have to convince like a thousand times. It had been a good past 2 or so years. Our hostel time on the 3rd floor during 2nd year was fun. Also keeps the cleanest room by far :). - Sukhjinder

PS: First to land a girlfriend in our group :clap. - Sukhjinder Kumar

One of the smartest people I've met. Your love for math was only matched by your love for teaching it to people. Will remember the amount of hard work we had to put in our Independent Study for a long time. Yaar kya crazy aadmi hai tu, harr bakchodi mai dikh jata hai aur no need to thank me for carrying you in mini militia and sometimes FIFA as well. You have 100 ball knowledge phir bhi essi team ko kyo support karta jisse tera mental breakdown hota hai. I will remember you as one of the best non veg jo hamesha 9 baje ready hota kabhi nhane nahi jata, i think mujhe chance nahi mila terese padhne ka but i have heard ki tu bahut acha explain karta hai even jo stories bhi tu bataa itni detailed hoti hai mano 10 mark ka question hai uska answer bta rha ho. Hope you don't any further injuries (follow kk's capacity). Baki research jaldi khatam karle - Aditya Malhotra

Mere liye to tu batch ka behra hi rahega hamesha. Jitna bhi hearing mein loss hai tune dimaag mein cover up kar liya jor se. Itne courses mein itne logo ko carry kiya but mujhe oqs mein nahi kar paya. Pata nahi itne crazy incidents ke baad bhi tujhe apni capacity kyu nahi pata lagi ab tak. Aur og shake buddy to tu hai hi mera. Saath mein daily shake peena aur wordle karna to ritual ban gaya tha hamara. Aur randomly ek doosre ko subah 6 baje dekh ke hasne wala kaun milega ab. - Kushagra Kharbanda

Hello Akashhhh, You are the Nandyal rowdy. You always try to do funny things and make everyone laugh. I still remember the train scene on our trip, where you continuously made jokes. We laughed a lot because of you. Irritating and annoying you is my favorite thing—no matter how much you get angry, I will always beat you and annoy you. You are an amazing dancer 🕺, a pro Free Fire player, and a great badminton player. During SE, you really helped me a lot. I can't forget how you saved me. Thank you so much. I wish you all the success you want and always be happy. - Hema Leela Durga Koppisetti

Bobbbyyyyyyy!!! You are my third roommate man.. I'll never forget that semester that i spent in your room or that entire placement month that I spoent in your room or those nights when we came up to your room to complete our projects but then got slowly cooked due to the summer air. I love how you have the same tendencies of a cat, from being lazy to do something, to always doing something to entertain yourself to being self-sufficient to always being ready for an adventure to the constant never-ending stream of jokes that drop from your mouth. I'll never forget you coming to call me from my room from the window or us just waking the streets talking about random topics. Let us never lose touch. I know you'll do spectacularly in everything you set your mind to. Thank you for all the unforgettable memories. I will never forget you. I only wish I became friends with you sooner man.. Thank you for everything!!! - Aditya Kondai

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed playing table tennis with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

Hello Akash...Nee kullu jokes vesi nuv navvukodam tappa mammalni navvinchadam undadu...Try ur best next time....JK (just kidding) vattigane anna kani, you are the joker of our gang ra...ALL THE BEST for future akash..TAKE CARE da - Merugu Nanditha

You have a lot of patience Akash. You have listened to my nonsense talk for all this time. Thank you for that. I have never seen you get irritated or angry with work like I do. You are always my first choice for project or anything non-academic activities. That's how much I believe in you. I can't even count how many times I have gone out with you, played with you etc. I think I have spent the highest amount of time on this campus with you. You were always there by my side whenever I felt worried about some project. You are the reason I started playing. We played TT, Badminton, Tennis. You become expert in each and every game so quickly. You are multi-talented academics, sports, twitter, instagram. I missed your dance. But remember Vijayawada >>> Nandyal. I got to see so many different shades of yours in the last two weeks which shocked me. I don't want to see your Basha past. Do care for others. You are a great friend. I wish you all the best for your future. May your random sufferings vanish and stay happy. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Akash, The Comedian, outspoken !!! IoT and DNA Teammate!! May your jokes won't make us laugh but your expressions did. Always wants to dance but never for events smh. Best kind of crazy I've had the pleasure to meet - leads to some of most fun adventures. Stay close! - George Paul

Hiya SANKEERTHANA(always gonna use your whole name, as you also should), Thanks for all the memories, the best ones usually come up from your spontaneous and poorly planned(xD) events. Amazing time we've spent together, from all the late night felicity dance practices, to the gossip sessions(and for confiding in me),the vibe shop visits, the bday celebrations at absurd locations, the visits to uncle's(passive smoking at its best) and DLF and HCC, and the best drunk memories; not even kidding, the drunk memories are the best ones looking back, and I only pleasantly recall the pukey scenes cuz they usually led to more amazing stuff. Stay the annoying dumdum that you are, keep texting me when ur bored and (especially when ur) drunk; drunk Sankeerthana is such a vibe (I still havent seen a Sankeerthana who's 10 on the drunk scale). SASS gang ftw(I've said this to all 4 of yall xD). PS Dont you dare ghost me again, keep in touch always bestie. Lemme know when u do finally shift to Kochi also xD. - Adith John Rajeev

Hii Sank!! love your dance a lot. That skooty ride with you is one for the books(especially that one time with the Gmaps mishap lol). College was a blast with you! Tons of fun memories that I'll cherish forever. Thanks for not living in Hyderabad (XD) and for always being available whenever i needed a shoulder. love you a lots. can't wait for all the memories that we will make ahead <3 - Garapati Sreya

Not the batchmate from SAPS I expected to have here, but sometimes life throws pleasant curveballs :) The party initiator but I don't think she survives long into one :P Will (secretly) miss the ""ECE moment""s, where will we get our weekly tea now 😔 - Amal Sunny

Sankkk.. legit the love of my life! What a gorgeous and contagious smile you've got! Completely changes the vibe and brings in the positive aura around. Stay the same always, all the very best for whatever comes ahead and stay in touch <3 - Anjali Singh

I liked to call u sankee initially, but u turned to sank soon😁love how you would always try to relate to the person speaking to you, would always comfort and make us see things clearly for what they were, love your smartass replies too! please don't leave hyd🥺 u were always the responsible one of the group, had so much fun seeing you dance and dancing along. u look beautiful in everything, especially green 😍 - Deepthi Chandak

Hi sank, you're welcome for the nickname btw :)) so glad we decided to be roommates. idk why you think you don't dance well. you're the best dancer I've ever met or danced with. so sad we never got redemption for the Khwab Dekhe dance but that just means we make another one. thank you for always letting me have the bigger share of food just cause yk I liked it, sweet person. I hope we meet often as you'll come back to Hyderabad too. I'll miss you roomie <3 - Arshini Govindu Best taste in movie, and highest energy among the mallus (the boiling Kannur blood might be why). Gotta go more Amal Neerad movies together so stay in touch :) - Abhijith A

Hi cutie, I write this as I wait for Malabar biryani hoping it will taste as good as you said it would. Take me out to eat more biryani. I hope one day you'll find the frothiest coffee and drink it everyday. I will miss mid cie coffee dates with you. Lysm <3 - Sreenya Chitluri

Hii Sankeerthana Love yourr dancee, please make more dance videos. Also you are a very sweet person, stay the same <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Also kasol trip ka one of the main highlights tha tere ghar ka trip, kya top tier jagah hai karnal. Nee heart chala pure ra, heart lo em unte ade matladatav..That's a good quality. You have great energy. Keep up that energy. Hi sathvika, My roommate and second friend in this college! One of the very few friends before coming to the campus. May be the only person with whom I quarrelled in this college. But those fights are funny to remember. We had many good memories too. I remember our esw project and the fun we had in our room in 2-2 the most. You are multitalented. You are unpredictable sometimes. Thank you for being my friend and all the best. - Yeduru Rupasree

Sathvika!!, The vibe you carry is always seems like that of a kid. You made me addicted to drinking lemon soda, cool drinks, etc after eating chicken biryani. I know we are tom and jerry, we usually roast on each other for different things. I enjoyed a lot being with you, gossiping, etc. Last 6M, we thought lot to enjoy but some of our plans flopped. The trip we went to is the most memorable experience with you. I am grateful to have a friend like you. I hope you will achieve the best in your life. Take care ###TOUFIK - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

She is my clone when it comes to cravings. She and me have almost the same cravings at the same time. We are the only persons, at least among the ones I know, who don't eat maggie. She is a straight forward girl and she don't keep one thing at heart and speak something else. She does assignments or projects with a passion if she likes the subject. If she do it, she do it perfectly or she will leave it completely. One thing I learnt from her is , its not about the amount of time you spend in learning the topic, but about how much smart work, you do by connecting the dots, makes you progress much faster. She loves her hair so much and one more thing we have in common is that we watch a lot of movies. The conversation will always have , what are the recent movies and which are good to watch. She is a bindass if I have to describe her in one word. All the best for your future friend!! - Mandyam Brunda

The chill girl! Nuv chala straight forward ga untavu, adhi nak istaam nilo. I will definitely miss our first new year moments together with DJ, lights, celebration and all. Nen nitho chala wibe avuthaanu songs play chesinappudu, especially trip appudu tempo lo, camp fire dhaggara. Na Songskuni partner nuvvu, mana idhari voices chaalu, original lyrics and tune tho paade migatha vallani dominate cheyydaniki. My dear Sathvika🦋 I hope you will not forget me while chilling, working, or eating biryani.There were so many things we shared. Your room is my solace-always.You sing the most confidently and have the most fun.You are my partner in F2-fun and frustration. How many days did we not spend frustrated by the work and how many days did we not spend braiding,talking, and laughing.She is very health-conscious;don't let biryani say otherwise. She exercises regularly.She laughs a lottt.I hope time won't change that part of you.You are a very straightforward person. You stand up for your people.I think you'll be a great leader with your personality.And,-most importantly,she doesn't judge anyone. She recently started reading manga too.She talks with a lot less people though she is still confident enough to speak with outsiders.When she thinks something is hers,she will go to any lengths to achieve it.She is going to Bangalore this summer.I will miss her a lot.BTW I love Chikky-the sweet.All the best da.Dont forget to call me - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

@sauravchhatani

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was pretty chill. We got there around lunchtime and had veg biryani at Kadamb mess since it was a Sunday. Then we just roamed around, met some people, and checked out the place. By the end of the day, I was so tired that I passed out in my friend's room without even realizing

Favourite campus memory :
My favorite campus memory has to be chilling in the with my friends. We€™d spend hours just talking, watching movies, and playing cards. Those nights were filled with so much laughter and fun€"definitely some of the best times I had in college!!

One thing you will miss the most :
I'll really miss just sitting with friends, forgetting all our worries, and talking about absolutely anything and everything. Those chill hangouts where we laughed about the dumbest stuff and had the best conversations are what I'll miss the most.

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I learned here is to make friends and memories€"it's really the most important thing. Classes are great, but it's the late-night hangouts, random adventures, and awesome people that I'll remember forever. Those moments made my college experience unforgettable!!

Favourite place in campus :
Old Boys Hostel, countless memories with all the people I know. One could never get bored in OBH. There was something or the other happening always. Times were the best when there were double rooms, everyone's doors were always used to open, and there constant banter which I will always miss.....

Biggest Change since your first year :
I've grown a ton since my first year. I've learned how to handle tough situations,

Chatni mote .... omani seth ... chindhi sindhi banna band karde XD jk ... tu merko kabhi bhi bohot genuine aur pyaara banda laga pure group m .... will always miss the amazing times we had in your room . Thoda kam soya kar bkl ek dum ded hojata h har baar. I really wished we could have taken my DSLR for some amazing photoshoots. Hope we can pull something off the next time we meet. Love you brother and pls stay in touch . Will miss you a lot and hope to meet you soon <3 - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Softest man in the OBH!!. Sabse chill banda hai tu. the straight face jokes too funny bosss. 3 rd floor mai kaafi maze kiya apan ne itne bakch kaise kar lete the apan. Loved playing valorant with you tips dete rehna aise hi. Blr mai bhi krte rahenge - Dhruv Hirpara

Hello there Mr. Chutney, I find you as one of the most sorted kinda person, you never take too much bt - always keep your calm. Asli cutie tu to hai + ur got those damm witty replies bro, best NRI in IIIT, Baaki apan to banglore wale hai, let's always stay connected 💪. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

"Bhai chatni, bohot miss karunga mai daily tughe slowly wing me aate hue dekhna. Kuch bhi ho hamesha aa jaata hu tere paas hi, kitna responsible banda hai bhai, bohot safe feel karta hoon tere around. Kitni baar dekha hu sachme baap ban jata hai, mughe toh hamesha sambhaal leta hai. Kuch bhi baat kar sakta tha kabhi bhi tughse, and kitni baar hum dono ghanto tak random chizo ke baare baat karte rehte the ghanto tak. Bhai tu jo bhi bolta hai bohot maanta hoon mai, sab intern ki advice, in general life advice, itna zyaada bharosa hai tughpe. Tu toh itna zyaada care karta hai ik, but kaafi baap bhi banta hai. Best sessions kiya hu mai sab apni life ke tere saath. Last sem hamesha yeh hit karta tha ki next sem se nahi rahega tu same floor pe. Bohot maza aata tha mughe toh tughe BT dene me faaltu ka, yeh bhi bohot miss karunga. Bohot aaunga mai milne bangalore next sem toh. Bhai thank you for taking stand on my behalf and defending me, meant more than everything to me. Love u infinite brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

Sindhis are already special, and tu to favourite sindhi he. Bakul quarantine se hi pata tha ki tu to main block tak sath rhega, covid test nhi karata to thoda aur time mil jata. Itna sa he phir bhi itna mature aur responsible banta he, bas isliye itna bt he tujhe. sabse helpful and selfless person, nift fest ja pau, iss liye mera assignment kar diya. Jan '22 se workout to nhi chalu hua but pregab ke baad bohot bhaag to liya. Prasoon ko mattress kab dila rha he, first time ke baad dono ne milkar saara washroom block kar diya tha. Tere intern struggle dekh kar, humne jldi padh liya tha, still mangoDB ke baad bhi best intern nikala, very motivating, will always be proud. OBH ka crushing machine he tu, roll to khud ke jaise hi mote chote karta he. DLF shawarma, Davids fried maggi aur infinte Guwahti sab tujhe hi sponsor karna he ab. True pentaprism, kabootar ja ka BTS hero, Bade papa for real. Thoda aur time to chahiye tha. - Atharva Joshi

Aur Chatneyyyy!! Jaldi Jaldi nashe karte rehna bhai😂😂 Motu thank you for being there for me in my tough times, I've never met a man as determined to Maksad as you, bas remember to Never Settle aur phodte rehna life mein :) I'm gonna miss all the time I spent in your and Prayush's room, Good Man sessions and endless gossips and fights!! ""Pehle bhi chutiya tha abhi bhi hu"" - BigC (source Informative_Faaltu_Opinions) (Hamesha Chutiya rahega tu 😌) Song to remember me: A Lot (21 Savage) (Thank you for introducing me to Hip-Hop and Rap) All the Best for the new Chapter in your Life Brother❤️ - Parth Maradia

Or bhai Omani Sher, phli bar baat hone se lekar december m bus pure din bhand pade rehna, sab kuch yaad rhega. December ka time ka best tha. Tere sath FIFA khelne m alag hi maza ata h, or jeetne m toh kya hi btau. Bangalore m hath laal pad jana, gelle ho jana ya pasina aajana, aalas kabhi ni choda tune. Idk why exactly but every time I talk to you, my mood becomes better if I'm having a bad day. I'll miss the rap songs link-up we had in 2nd year and I wish you all the best for the future. Good luck brother! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

We have elite 3rd floor memories. Always ready to CRUSH abd MIX things up. Bring back long hair Chutney. Tere haath abhi bhi mujhe sabse softest lagte hai😂. See you soon in Blr brdr! <3 - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Kya transformation dekha, from getting roasted when I entered RK to literally woh insaan jo sabse zyada taang kheenchta hai logon ki(i.e. hadh se zyaada bajne waala aadmi). Kahien par bhi jao toh tere se better photo literally koi ni kheencha ab thak xD. A brilliant man who will go the ends of the earth for his people. He's got a single-minded focus on what really matters to him which will take us all down with him, and we're so in for it. He'll tell it to you straight, leave the sugar coating for someone else. But you'd better know he's saying it because he cares about you, and wants nothing but the best for you. He's got a fascinating brain, and I'm always excited for what Shashwat will show us next :) Thank you for being there in the memories of me shining my brightest, and flickering at my dimmest. - Pratyaksh Gautam

So opinionated but somehow always right??? how do you do it? will think of you every time I pronounce most words, schwa :p - George Paul

Hiee! It was always a delight bumping into you while going to Thub and discussing about the most random topics <3. You are such a sweet, warm, and interesting person to talk with <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Most intellectual but cute person on campus. Don't think I have done enough justice to acknowledging your hotness/smartness. Knew it right from when I entered college and saw your debating prowess, it was amazing to hang out with you. Stay the same you cutie 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

One of the few good things in Kolkata that didn't stay there for long, as expected. Sharing a singular neuron with you has been as fun as maintaining a social construct jar. You're a lovely listener, and a great friend, that I know I will cherish for life - Jatin Agarwala

"Shashwat, my coffee-addicted, slowly fading away brother, I will miss squeezing whatever life is left in you whenever I hug you tight. Getting to know you and witnessing the evolution of your ""your mom"" jokes has been a delight. Your consistency and hard work are truly motivating, though your living habits are not. I hope that years down the line when you read this (though knowing you, you probably won't), you are staying healthy. I have the video of you missing the basketball rim completely, and I shall save it until I can deploy it at a very favorable moment in the future when you become rich and a big man.. But do keep in connect and wishing you all the very best! :3 - Harshit Gupta

First person I met in college and i am so glad it happened. It was an absolute banger knowing you brdr. Tere saath jaan bujh kar ladaayi karna just to hear your comebacks. First sem in college and main besharamon ki tarah tere room mein pada rehta tha. Thanks for giving me some of the best memories of my college life. Love you darling. I still remember that night in Gokarna when i saw death with you. PS: Not every dog is a cutie. - Shubh Karman Singh Bhullar

One of the most home-attached people I've seen. Will pay DASA fees flying back to Delhi every other week. But fair enough, has an amazing dog and loves his family a lot, not something you'll see very often. Malds 24x7 in CS and supports choke 2 :vomit:. Will miss playing CS and hearing you say 1990 era shit ig - A Kishore Kumar

chhota packet bada dhamaka very valid, remember kids, always remember to change your gun once the clip runs out in valo, stay healthy fam and hope to see you soon <3 - Aditya Nair

Gamer boiii!! . Loved Playing with you broo we keep playing tho. Itne saari cool cheeze kaise hai tere pass?? Saari pc equipments recommendation terese hi le rha. Blr mai milte haii!! - Dhruv Hirpara crazy gamer and cope g2 fan ... will really miss those gaming nights and malding on kishore, cracking stupid jokes, watching cs matches together ...those googy nights in the sapnu server :3 . Stay in touch and dont forget this high ping cs gamer whenever you play <3 - Pallav Subrahmanyam Koppisetti

Unironically very good cs player. Exit frags sometimes (slightly). Sorry for annoying you and shouting sometimes, but i always had fun playing. Pls buy kit. - Prerak Srivastava

Commend Is Friendly Is a Good Teacher Is a Good Leader Report ADHD - Agrim Rawat

Couldn't have asked for a better roommate. Itna alone time diya hai tune mujhe ghar ja ja kar ki tere se jyada baaki log mere roommate reh chuke hai. Bas thoda gaming mein skills improve karne ki zarurat hai baaki to sahi banda hai. Tere saath argue karne ka to alag hi maza hai bhai. But you are also one of the smartest and most autistic person at the same time. Itna ADHD maine kisi aadmi ka nahi dekha. Teri twitch stream ke saath to sone ki aadat ho gayi thi mujhe. Thodi panner ki bahar ki bhi duniya explore kar bro kab tak paneer parantha khata rahega. Bhale hi hum Blr mein hi honge par main Delhi aake tere ghar aata rahunga tasty khana khane. - Kushagra Kharbanda

A lazy guy, geek and a gamer. Had lots of fun hanging out with you, especially doing some dumb shit that makes you mald. Looking forward to more of those mald sessions together in the future. - Vegi Abhijnan

Top 10 small man. Thanks for the wifi. Thanks for making some S queues bearable by being decent at cs. Glad I got the room next to you :) - Pramod Rao Budramane

Crazy genius, god of multitasking but bad at FIFA. Still can't understand itna zyaada ghar jaake bhi how you managed college so well. Always up for any plans as long as it involves paneer. GS roomie toh hamesha yaad rahega, watching those weird horror movies, playing wizard of legend, and you always sleeping with twitch stream on lol. Netflix movies normal speed me bina skip kare dekh liya kar bhai, college lectures nahi hai wo. Kaafi mast time tha wo toh, even the trekking trip and cycling pe jaana. Already looking forward to blr with you bro. Will still destroy you in fifa tho. - Shreyash Jain

Very bad at video games, also bad at studying. Should have spent money on getting us treats instead of going to Delhi every other week. - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Yaar mai tereko school se janta aur mera opinion kafi change hue hai. Let us switch to English the same way you switched it in front of Hindi teachers :). In school I thought you were the most kassiest student possible who doesn't like to play at all because he is suffering from sun allergy. I am happy i got to know the scam you pulled in school and i am happy that i was wrong tu kassi to hai but kassiest nahi. Humara jo thalassa tha wo to mai kabhi nahi bhulne wala jo Maine tera crazy version dekha Maine kabhi expect nahi kiya tha. Waise tuhi ek banda hai jo mujhe kanjoosi mai hrata hai wohi bade margin se, thoda sa seekha yaar. Thanks for suggesting anime ab mai bhi weebda bante ja rha hoon, baki ye wifi lag ko blame karna band karde aur apna game improve kar. Abhi to hum blr mai sath honge bumble chalenge kyonki mujhe pta hai tujhme rizz hai to but tujhe teri type ki ladki abhi take mili(you are delusional teri type ki ladki exist nahi karti), aur trips to hoti rahengi - Aditya Malhotra

You somehow manage to balance your splurging on flight tickets to Delhi every other week by being stingy at other times. You've been a great teammate and you'd always make sure you did your part well, so teaming up with you would always be a no-brainer. We had a daily routine of walking to Yuktahar in the Hyderabad heat, and VC right after it for some drink or ice cream. Make sure you learn cooking so you can make paneer every day for yourself. Will miss the brownies you'd get from Delhi every time. Hope I can meet the great Dusky too one day ig. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Hello brdr sk, Tere aur soda ke saath raat me baith ke Literature padhne me toh mughe bohot zyada maza aaya tha. Tere saath woh sab headphones aur tech ki conversations toh hamesha itne acche lagte the mughe, tu in sab chizo ke baare me itna passionately batata tha ki mai hamesha sikhne ke hi aata tha tere paas humbly, wanted to know more about everything you like itna cutely aur passionately tu sab stories batata tha. I love ki tu kaise hamesha time nikaal ke ghar chala jata tha, it is gift to be your friend and also kitna passionately apne dog ke baare me batata tha. Love you brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

SK tera ab poora name kabhi nahi le skta bhai me. Apne group me sabse so called silent but tab bhi koi trips miss nahi ki hongi tune . Teri photos me haste hue shakal dikhna to bhut mushkil hai brother but gaming karte karte bhool mat jayiyo aur aese hi milte rhenge bhai. Trips par humesha in hi hona chahiye tu. - Mayank Bhardwaj

sgay ma boi, itna tilt nahi karta rehta cs ya valo m to baal bache rehte abhi xD. meet you soon on the server dear, and gift me skin with GS paisa thanks - Sankalp S Bhat

Ig bro, need your ipad for subway surfers hehe. Ig - Knv Karthikeya

GS blr jaakr hi mila pehli baar tjhse, roz subah 11:30 saathme office jaana aur jaate hi parathe pelna, menu check krna kab paneer paratha hoga aur jaldi 11 baje pohoch jaana. Kaafi maze aaye tere saath intern time me. Full time me manager ko "ig" kam bolna lmao. All the best bhai...dekhte aage kabhi same office ya sheher me hue toh milte rahenge mast. - Laksh Balani nice rages brdr... games khelte rehna hamesha mere sath... welcome for the carry that i do 😂 - Anubhav Pal

Bhai mujhe pehli baar tu dasa laga tha teri english sunke. Tu bohot pro gamer hai par still noob in mini militia, bohot farm hota tha yaar. You're such a well minded person, had some great conversations with you. - Siddh Jain well, I think of the 2.5 years offline college we had, could spend nearly 1ish year with you, cause baki time toh tu Delhi nikal jata tha. idk pura din kya gaming krta rhta tha tu, hoti toh thi nahi tere se, nobad ekdum, kuch skill develop krle kb tk network lag ko blame krta rhega. I remember, swiggy orders pr 5-5 rupees bcha kr Indigo ki flight book krta tha tu :rofl:, the most non-baniya, baniya I ever met. Well, kbhi dobara proxy lgani ho toh you know whom to contact ~ Shavak Kansal Singh. Will always remember the brownies <3, keep them coming lmao. Baki yes, milte rhenge, ik tu aadhe time toh Delhi hi rhega lmao. - Karmanjyot Singh

It has always been a delight joining Steiner's party, and listening to that unique accent on VC which you somehow managed to pick up from watching TV series lmao. Workplace mai milte ab seedha xD - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Shikhar is the snakiest and cutest (no homo) Korean guy that I know on campus. Despite his tendency to view things negatively and lack of self-confidence, I admire him over his journey towards self-acceptance and how he presents himself unaffected by others opinions. His another admirable trait is his work ethic and the ability to get things done while maintaining quality of work, regardless of the personal toll it may take on him. His drive and determination make me confident that he will achieve anything he sets his mind to. However, I want him to prioritize his health and mental well-being, as I believe these are essential for a happy life and not just a successful one. Looking ahead over the upcoming year(s lol) as DDs, I hope we both can improve our social skills and prioritize spending time with friends, building deeper connection, and not lose ourselves in a solely productivity-driven mindset. - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

When I got to know him over the online semester, I really vibed with him, with both of us being chronically online. Getting to know him offline was a crazy series of events, but it's been fun. I've had plenty of fun with him through the several events we've gone through because of how chronically online(After I realised he's worse than, by a billion times). He's a close friend though, and as fellow late night occupants of OBH, I can't begin to count how many times I've relied on him. I hope he can start placing some hope in himself and the fact he can change to be better, because he is a truly nice person on the inside, no matter how his twitter profile and Kpop following makes him seem. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Shikhar is one of the most intelligent and hardworking people I have met. We met randomly when Shikhar accidentally entered our room in OBH, and from the first day, we hit it off on a great note. He has helped me through the years in academics and more. Discussions with him have been eye-opening for me, challenging my views and opinions. Even though we often didn't agree, it was always intellectually engaging. Shikhar is also a great dancer who loves K-pop. From speed-running CV assignments to discussing politics, I enjoyed every moment I spent with him. I value his friendship a lot. I think with a little more self-belief and self-confidence, Shikhar can achieve anything in life. All the best for your future endeavors. - Lokesh V

My S am talker, now the best K-pop dancer I know, can rant about anything and everything, my rr buddy, of course! With discussing about the most random things ever from twitter to politics to everything! Kab shuru hoga humara dating life.. aahh :") - Anjali Singh peak saanp but I forgive you because you're an amazingg person. thanks for helping me get through stoch processes :p - George Paul

*One of the most hardworking people on the campus. I have known you for quite a while now. We have taken many similar courses and been TAs for the same course (Topics in RL). Still, I was the last person on the campus to know that you can dance! And a good one at that. Keep dancing, and occasionally work on your research too. Best luck for your future. - Sukhjinder - S*ukhjinder Kumar

Heyy there shivnaginn🐍! You probably don't know, but you were the first friend I had in this college! Real analysis se we started talking and it's been so fun since then. Dinbhar discord pe pade rehene, tere bematlb ke randirone sunna, tera hume wingwomen krne ka sapna rkhna😂, movies/ganne sunna together aur LitClub me hono(mera toh naam ka hi sahi) were really good times. You make my online life easier and so much more fun. #EstafaForLife😂💪 - Siddharth Jain

Hiee! Your love, cute smile, and hugs are so warm and cuddly <3. Our discord hangouts in those early days, random room/corridor hangouts and the trip are cherished memories. Keep on smiling <3 and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy Yeh bandi ka haath pair kuch na kuch hmesha toota hi hota hai, yet she's always ready for sports, dance, clubbing everything! Will miss our hostel memories, ranting about college, u checking on me ki mai zinda hu and waking everyone up for classes and exams. Stay in touch and keep those reels and weird songs (with double meaning & inap-

*Very energetic soul this woman is, first year in campus was heavy and still we pulled through. I still remember the endless convos about guys, and figuring out what outfit you want to wear for xyz occasions, pulling out suitcases of dresses to pick from that was one era of hostel times. That energy of yours, those smiles, the gossip <3 and the confidence, she is a total dhamaka package I swear, keep them going woman! - Gokul Praneetha

*I would have had a lot more to write if we ever went out for dinner and talked. But jokes apart, you're a very fun, candid person, and one of my first friends in college. I want to make a Kolkata joke, but that's your area of expertise. Also, dinner when? - Jatin Agarwala

*One of the closest friends i had right after coming to campus..best person trulyyy..your energy is hard to match xd, never ever lose it 💯 - Jewel Benny

If there's one thing I know for certain, it's that you are easily one of the most interesting people I have ever met. You make me laugh so much. I could listen to your thoughts and opinions on anything and everything, and it would be an ideal day for me. Shreya is a humble person and one of my closest friends on campus. From TDL days to him TAing CV for us, he has been a wonderful teammate and a helpful TA. The time I spent with Shreya has been very intellectually engaging and fun. Shreya is also a lover of painting (both wall and other types). All the best for your future endeavours - Lokesh V

A very cool guy that I've gotten to know over the semesters. I wish it started the same both ways, but it seems I left a bad taste in his mouth when we first met. But, after getting to know each other, we've had plenty of hobbies that we share, and ideals we aim for. I've had a hell of time with him, and its only grown now that he's stuck with me in Chennai for his internship. He used to be a very organised person, waking early to go to gym, but in the days I've gotten to know, he's mellowed down and become a lazy down to earth person(maybe too lazy). I've had several fun adventure with him, and only regret that I've graduated too early to spend the last year with him, especially knowing that his graduation is RNG given his advisor is Anoop. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed playing TT with you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

You're one of the people on campus that I draw inspiration from. Engaging with you on topics has always been insightful. And your perspective has really changed and shaped how I think and express myself. And I really hope you can hold onto this and not lose this part of you after college. Anywho, stop being so particular about how people say things tho (in any language; kinda annoying). Take care 💖💖💖 - Shikhar Saxena shreyaaaaa, really good friend you are, I like our deep convos, sometimes becomes really serious though hehe!, but its good to have someone who you can share anything without judgement! Thanks for being there for me ! I am here if you want to talk anytime ! see you on campus XD - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Shreya was the first friend I made here and initially took him as a quiet, socially awkward kassi. Its true but, I was surprised after living as roommates as we had deep and insightful conversations every night. He's one of the few people I can be completely myself with, and share many common interests. Being roommates and interacting daily pushed me to be a better version of myself, exposed me to new ideas, and adopt a healthier lifestyle. I am grateful for his presence during a time when I was struggling to adapt to campus life after Covid and spent most of my time alone as an LE student, as it helped me recover and be hopeful again. Something we both could improve is in developing better social skills and forming deeper/meaningful connections. And I regret not doing so on campus, as opportunities to make lifelong friends are limited. Though the future is uncertain for most of us, I am confident that Shreya will find a place where he is happy and fulfilled, due to his drive to achieve things he wants. - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

I know we became friends very late into our college journeys, but our times together were some of the most memorable. I'll dearly miss our sports banter, political discussions and your socialism monologues. Wish we had met much sooner. Bhool mat jana hume and do keep visiting us on campus. Hoping you get the love of your life (de shaw) one day. PS: please rent an apartment and not a PG so that I can visit you in peace. - Hitesh Goel

You're one of the people I wish I'd known sooner. You've always been great company to have (your ""sixth sense"" at Manali notwithstanding XD), from rewatching old movies to playing TT to shopping to discussing literally everything - tech, politics, cricket, society, crushes, movies, stand-ups, even things like shoes and NBA - I'm glad to have had you to talk to. I've always admired your drive to constantly strive to better yourself, and I secretly adore you for being such a great sport to my very low-effort jokes. Stay this nerdy, stay cool, stay happy - and stay in touch 🔪 PS - am prepared to endure (sigh) the Star Wars trilogy whenever you wanna watch them, do hit me up :P - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

Hiee! You are such a sweet and warm person <3. You are always there to lend a helping hand <3. Our trip, history conversations, and random hangouts are cherished memories. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Tu kaafi deceptively interesting hai. Vibing with you in this last year was very very fun. Stay the same cutie, you might annoy some people but you'll impress many more 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

Bhai I really admire how smart, quick on your feet and hard working u are. Bhai I know very few people in real life who are as kind, conscious and empathatic as you are. Had great time sharing stage with u in the felicity skit. Really admire your spirit and all the best for all the good things that you are going to do in the future. - Pradhuman Tiwari

apna local political activist :) have literally known you for years now. had no idea when we met, all those years ago during ntse prep in kota, ki apna aisa itna lamba saath hoga. but look where we are now. 6 years. a part of me wished ki ham logon ki same jagah hi placement hoti, but ig it would've been delaying the inevitable. i thoroughly enjoyed all the moments we spent together, roomed together. a huge part of me will miss the snack-time conversations, the exchange of football-basketball information, the exchanging of gossip. i have no idea what fate has in store for us, but i sincerely hope that we cross our paths again someday. tab tak ke liye stay in touch pls, and baaki election ke time tumhe call karke advice le hi lunga ;) - Pranjal Thapliyal

bro you are a talented guy, a good human and a chill person, let's stay connected brother! Jab bhi milte hai kuch interesting discussion kr hi lete hai apan - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

A good friend, future flatmate, and fellow Allenite. It had been great fun hanging out with you. We went on some memorable trips like the one to Nehru Zoo followed by Birla mandir and a fake planetarium (:)). A strong critique of any team (:shreyansh :cough capitalist) that I support whether in IPL, or EPL. Always up for any fun outing. Worked together both in academics, in companies (ISB), and finally at Oracle too. When will you leave me man? Get a life :laugh. Cheers to the memories we made and to many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar

First day on campus :
The actual first day when I got to explore the campus I had made some friends during the quarantine. The campus felt so huge and every building felt like a maze. I was so excited to be among such bright people. I remember getting the tour with Prasoon and other CND peeps who later became RK.

Favourite campus memory :
It is so difficult to choose one, but going cycling on that rainy night is a permanent memory.

One thing you will miss the most :
The safety net that a college provides when you do mistakes.

Best thing you learned from here :
To let go.

Favourite place in campus :
My room.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I don't regret my mistakes anymore.

Aur bhai rizzWANKERR!😂 Next time be aware of the window situation brother xD. You are like the smartest and most down to earth I knoww. Har problem ka solution yu jhat se nikalna aur itne patience se sbko padhana and help krna, hats off! But that's not even your best quality, it is your being there for your friends ability. You have been such a good friend to me aur kya pyaar aur sweet aadmi hai tu. Sabse akalmand banda hai tu RK me but fir bhi kya party karta hai bhai tu😂 Wild scenes! Bhand hoke you are the best person to be with, jaha koi judgement nhi koi efforts nhi bas good times and too much fun This campus doesn't feel the same without you yaar. Fatafat naukri khtm krke wps aaja, roj meri khidki se awaaz dunga tujhe aur perfect match dekhenge fir😂. - Siddharth Jain

The best vibe hands down. Always (sometimes not (rarely)), down for Vella panti, some of the best moments of my college life was us watching Horror movies and other cringiest movies together. A poem for you: C pacity Zero, but Revankar bhai Hero; Bac always straight, train pakde sabse late; ye galat ho ya sahi, bhau ka confidence ghate nahi; but I swear nhi kr rha hype, Revankar bhai ki sbse best vibe; - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari

Aur bhai Machli, you are easily one of the smartest people I know. You are always ready to help others, khud jaldi syllabus khatam karke, dusron ko padhane mai hi teri 3 baar revision ho jati hai. I have never seen you say no to helping anyone. Mujhe yaad hai maine bus aisa indirectly bola ki yaar CV assignment nahi ho raha aur tune bola chal bata kahan problem aa rahi hai, and the ease at which you are there for your people is the sweetest thing ever. Playing Catan with you guys is one of my core memories from college (you are the least toxic one). I absolutely adore your confidence, whether it's about getting full marks in an exam or not caring about any ban anyone may impose. ;) You are so strong and sweet at heart and such a good friend to everybody. I think it's about time we realize that both Delhi and Mumbai are shitholes, but wahan rehne wale log cuties hai. Jaldi se research khatam karke, blr aajao. Stay in touch. <3
- Harshita Gupta

Best thing about you is ki tere saath it has always been so simple...kabhi bt nahi hui. Intellectual talks se lekar duniya bhar ki faaltu baatein miss karunga. Bohot saath diya hai tune...har jagah. Abhi tak mujhe believe nahi hota ki koi galat bolte vakt itna confident kaise ho sakta hai😭😭. #UberChor #bestFC #RizzWanker #uskaGhaata #SheetalHawa #rumCakeOwner #Nashedi #ManWhoNeverSawH105 #UdayPark #...Unlimited hai bhai aise toh mere paas 😶🌫️ - Tanmay Goyal

"This guy's the proof to the fact that looks are deceptive. Chahe bahar se jitna innocent aur bhola bhala chehra lekar ghoomein, apna Shreyas toh har sense mai chupa rustom hai. (No wonder he's a very high functioning RK member). Through these four years, iss introverted se bacche ko Felicity coord bante dekha aur literally uske saath saath har cheez ko balance karte dekha, all while being absolutely spontaneous and up for any random shit we plan last minute. Literally Sharmaji ka beta hai, except bhandi aadmi bhi hai xD P.S. I think baarish mai all nighter cycling waali raath ko koi bhi cheez ni beat kar sakti college mai, and uska bhi peak auto waala instance is a thing only we both got to experience hehe. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Bhai, there is no one who has had a greater impact on my college life than you. Har assignment deadline ke pehle pata hota tha ki tune assignment kar diya hai and I have a safety net to rely on. You won't realize ki tune kitna zyaada load kam kar diya tha mujhpe and how much more fun you made college. Agar mai tujhse koi skill le pata toh it would be hardwork.I couldn't have asked for a better roommate (I would like to apologize on behalf of the anime club). I'll cherish E123 memories forever. You were probably the first college friend I had and I'll never forget our online sem, 1+6=7, tera discord server pe spam karna, tere ghatiya dad jokes, saath mai hashcode aur icpc dena and so many more. Har exam ke 10 min pehle tu jo padhata hai usse meri cg atleast 1 point se badhi hai. Coding rounds mai saath mai brainstorm karna was one of the most fun I have had coding. Ek game atomic chess fir khelenge. Bas ab hamar paper publish ho jaye 💪. Keep doing great things in life, I'm rooting for you ❤️ Keep in touch!! - Vedant Bhavesh Parekh

Despooo the FC. Still holds true. Spent crazy nights with you at places no one will ever know. Itni jaldi dead mat ho jaya kar. Can't wait to see you out do everything you hoped for in life. Abhi tak RK ko unite karke rakha hai, very proud. Can never forget your basketball form 😭. Love you brother, thanks for all the Goan food. Made college life so interesting and bearable. Forever Biryani partners. #UdayPark - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Thank you for the constant positivity. You are one of the most kind-hearted and genuine people I have met in college and I am sure you will do so well in life. Bas kam BT liya kar - Eshika Khandelwal

Hello rizz-wanker, You are the most genuine, kind, and caring person I know. Hamesha sabki help karta rehta hai, itna zyada responsible hai. Sabse purest banda hai bhai college ka. Bhand hoke jo harkate pelta hai. Tere saath hi pehli baar bhi daaru pee thi, woh toh mughe hamesha yaad rahega. Tere saath dono goa trips to mera peak college memory hai, itna passioantely sab project wagera bhi karta hai and har party ka poora vibe hai bhai tu. Love you brdr, keep shining, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

arey revenkar (the rizzvankar) bhai saare trips ke kya mast planning kare tune maza aagaya or haar baar kese blackout hojata hai bsdk tu, goa me villa party me or farewell me or itni baar toh maine chaton ka badla bhi le liya or bhai kitni haar sem teri cg badhti hi kese ja rahi hai, bhai u r ultra smart malai pe bhi apna jaadu chala de milte hai bnglr me #rk forever - Prasoon Garg

Bhai terse baat karke humesha mood sahi ho jata. Bas hasste rehta hai poora time especially jab bhand hoon. Aur one of the most helping banda hai tu college mein. Jab bhi poocho saala madat kar leta hai. Mene ek baar mana nahi karte hua sona hai tujhe, not just in my case but for everyone. Aur jabhi hum bahar jaate hai saala non veg order decide karta rehta hai, but mast order karta hai jo bhi bolo. Aur jaise tu kisse sunata hai waise koi nahi, I will always hear your version of the story over any others. Bas aise hi rehna. Aur milte rehenge. All hearts!! - Saurav Chhatani

Mere FC, was crazy fun working with you brother, bohot smart h tu kassna band karde ab.Late felicity nights and this year winning the cult night was the best way to sign off :heart: . I think tereko blr mein bandi pata leni chahiye bro iykwim hehe. All the best, next year heavy party scenes in hyd. - Knv Karthikeya

You are one of the most intelligent and chill people I've come across in college. We have made some great memories, especially during the CSO times (overtake overtake being one of the picks of the bunch). I look forward to having more fun times with you in 5th year (now that we're neighbours) and I wish you all the best in life! - Aum Alok Khatlawala

CND ka topper. Love grinding with u brother we match speeds (CSO, OSN and CV) maza aa gya. I hope you increase apna capacity . Marna kam krde. Most Responsible member of rk! - Dhruv Hirpara

Fellow food orderer during dinners. Responsible, Level Headed, kassi. Jab dekho room par beith kar koi na koi show binge karte rehta tha hamesha. Kasol mein bohot miss kiya tujhe. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal best ally ever. very caring person. we dont have a lot in common but we still vibe. ek din FI dekhne jayenge hum if we're still in touch. uske siva, very hardworking banda hai tu - Mihir Rawat

Humesha helpful aur kind bhai, lekin bc peene ke baad chate maarta rehta Hai saale, Mai to sober hi rehta 😒, lekin jab bhi baatein hui humesha positive, harami randis to milte hi rhenge no doubt.... - Arnav Pandey

True FC...bhai maza aaya bahut saathmei kaam karke and itni bakchodiya bhi karke... daaru ke baad to jo next level crazy hai tu bro.... Milte rahenge - Ishanya Sethi

Bhai you are the perfect all rounder in my opinion. Great academically, good at sports, and participation in cultural stuff and lots of other things. Lots of memories with you and the other Nalle Log. Mere pe hamesha jokes marta hai par tu :(. Had lots of fun hanging out with you and the others. My most vivid memory is one-sided tho (farewell night XD). Great guy, lots of lub <3 - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

Two hours to get ready? still not enough time for him :p Thanks for dealing with thappads oops. Ek baar at least vertical plate me khane ke liye bula le hehe - Srujana Vanka

Yo responsible man 😂 One real person you are, no fakeness. Thoda peene ke baad baakio ki sun liya kar bas xD Jo bhi me bol rhi hu sach sach bolungi, jaa rahe ho dur magar touch me rahungi 😂 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

Looking forward to eating on a vertical plate. Faaltu baatein krta rehta Hain. Agli baar bina gire reel banate h. Stay in touch<3 - Yakkanti Divya Varshini

I know we've barely talked, but I'm glad you're on my floor in obh. You're a wonderful, kind person, and it's unfortunate that I didn't meet you sooner. I look forward to more conversations in the future, and wish you all the very best in life - Jatin Agarwala

Aur bhai ek roomie, mujhe online sem me lagta tha ki tu to bada seedha hai but jab tune kahaniyo me mere aur adi ke sath input dalna chalu kiya tab i realised ki ye to humare jesa hi hai lol. Par kuch bhi keh bhai in mastiyon ke beech har ek sem ka utna pata hi nahi chala ki kab nikal gaya tu to abhi bhi college me hai hostel me ghoom rha hoga ya bahar bhi hoga kahi bhi to har ek jagah se koi na koi memory associated to hoti hi hai udhar. Par main baat ye hai ki OBH ko chahe kitna kosa ho humne par yad to aega bhai. Vo maksad kabhi mat bhuliyo apna abdul walal lol. Aur han server tujhe hi set up karna hai future ke liye. Bhai chahe E-22 me din bhar sona ho ya fir chahe jitne bhi all nighter marne ho DASS me sab cheezon ne ye to sikhadiya ki kaam chahe kitna bhi ho masti nahi rukni chahiye. I've seen you grow brother and i always admire ki tu kitne efforts dalta hai relationships me. Taking this thing definitely from you baki job me to tu phod hi dega. Chal milte rahenge bhai regularly. Bbyeee Mayank. - Mayank Bhardwaj

Honestly speaking terese bda bond koi dusra nahi hai bhai jo 3-1 wala period tha wo best tha. Jo hum roz raat ko random bakchodi dhunde nikalte the wo dubara karenge blr mai. Tu hi humare group ka trip planner hai aage bhi tereko hi ye kaam karna hai, usually koi aur banda restaurant suggest karta hai to mujhe darr lagta hai bekar na ho but jab bhi tu koi jagah suggest karta hai to sureity hoti hai ki ye jagah to bdiya hogi. Dusre log chahe kuch bhi kafe sabse smart tu hi tha saala subah syllabus shuru karta tha aur paper aane tak aaram se khatam kar leta tha (though tera scheduled sabse zyada fucked up hai) Baki cooking karna seekhle blr mai kaam aaega aur jo tu ladkiyo se baat karne ki tips deta hai wo kaam ki to hai but mere liye tu thodi mehnat karna. agle fpl season ke liye ready rahiyo ab dubara nahi haarunga - Aditya Malhotra mjhe lga tha south delhi ke laundo mei attitude bhrkr hota hai, but tu bilkul bhi aisa nahi hai, quite the opposite kaafi kaafi sensible, hardworking launda, jb kasne pr ata hai toh sbko fail krdeta hai. I think last semester went pretty smooth with you (3084) around, you can thank me for carrying your lazy ass to gym every week. Perfect gym bro, tho cafe lejata tha after gym.. but dw, I'll handle ordering next outing se.You were one of the few people, I came really close with in college, there was always an apt mixture of comfort, bakchodi and kassi-pana with you around, ik tu most group outings se bahar hojata tha, but dw kaafi integral part hai tu group ka. Next time, se trip pr keep an extra pair of slippers xD. Hyderabad mei flat saath mei lerhe na ? utilise this summer, to learn 2-wheeler driving, tere 2-wheeler ke driving speed se toh tez mai bhag skta hu lmao.I hope bhagwan tere saare MAQSAD pure kre, jokes aside ye

*In my opinion, tu sahi mein batch ka all-rounder hai bhai, from football, to planning trips, to carrying in projects sab kuchh kar leta hai tu, kuchh chhoda hai tune? Iske alawa chahe gaming ho chahe bandi banana, you are always on top of your game, thode skills mujhe bhi sikha dio XD. Tera sleep schedule to kisiko kabhi samajh nhi aaya lol but you are the most reliable person to make any plans in the group, multiple cheezo mein involved rehne ke bad bhi time nikal hi leta hai which is great. Talking about trips, teri photography skills ka to kya hi kehna. Teri mini militia ki ranting miss karunga mai, touch mein rehiyo aur milte rehenge! - Gautam Ghai

*Sabse phodu aadmi hai tu. Dass head TA se CV TA, bohot bond hai bhai tu. aur kaafi carry kiya hai. Football aur mini milita mai bhi best player by a margin. Koi bhi tere team mai aakar level up ho jaata hai, chahe vo ritual ho ya turf. Bass naam ka "Jain" hai tu, kuch toh follow kiya kar. Waise pta nahi tu banglore mai rehne waala hai bhi ya nahi :p Apne startup ka dev work tujhe hi sambhalna hai, aur advertisement mai tera hi poster lagaenge. - Siddh Jain

*My on ground support system, Thanks for always being there and motivating me through all events. Too much fun organizing and working on events with you. Celebration parties and badam badam pe dance toh masttt. Will prolly party a lot more in Blr <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

*Never expected ki randomly bani RA team ki dosti itni lambi chalegi. Tere se baat karne se pehle laga tha ki tu bahut chapri aadmi hoga lmao but fir dheere dheere realise hua ki tu badhiya banda hai aur hamari vibe bhi sahi hoti hai. And the rest is history. Randomly obh mein tere kamre mein aake raat ko bakchodi karna will always be a memory that I cherish. Your room was like my second room in OBH. Tu to vaise bhi Blr mein hi hai, flatmates na bhi bane tab bhi milte rahenge (hehehe). - Kushagra Kharbanda

*Glad i got to know u better in blr, first time i met somebody who leaves their keys in the locks like me xd. Gotta introduce you to some pc gaming. Stop malding in FIFA, it's okay to be bad. Insanely talented and dedicated person, don't know how you are good at so many things, it's actually infuriating. - Shavak Kansal

*Best striker on campus, I got to know you mainly through football. A genuinely fun guy to hang out with. You're constantly getting injured on the field, but you'd be back the next match, which showed your passion for the game. Thank you for carrying me in CV, couldn't have done it without you. Next time we meet we all have to play a 11-a-side again, although I'm not sure any of us will be in shape for that. - Joel Thyparampil Alex

*I still remember how we used to randomly scroll insta on screen sharing xD. We had some nice fun times. I wish you a future full of happiness, health and sucess. All the best to you! - Annam Venika Sruthi

Party Animal!! I think tu jab group plans me hota hai everything becomes 10x more crazy and fun. Tere saath trips and outings ki saari memories kaafi miss karunga. Always gonna come for watching derby in bdubs together. - Shreyash Jain

Bhullllss my brdr, thanks for letting me hog up assists hehe. Best person to party with (thodi zyaada hi kar liya :hehe:) Ab bs hardrock mein jaake offers utha te hai. Tere flat mein dibs on couch :kissy: - Knv Karthikeya

Bhullz, bc energy ho kisi mein to tere jitni h10S can confirm, bc terse to daaru peene ke baad milne ka alag hi maza rehta tha, finally bohot humble, stay the same bhai.... - Arnav Pandey

Hello bhai bhullar, bhai tere se toh baat karne ka mauka dhoondhta tha mai hamesha, itna pyaara banda hai bhai, tughe BT dene me toh itna maza aata tha mughe, cute cute se comeback maarta hai and woh gaaliyaan :lma0:. Ek chiz toh miss ho gyi meri college me, tere saath ek baar toh patiala peg maarna tha. Bohot accha banda lagta hai tu mughe, milte rehna. Love u brdr, keep smiling, Prayush - Prayush Rathore need long hair bhullar back for jatt da muqabla time. will miss bkchodi balling with you. hyd mein heavy beer hunting krte hai firse 😈 - Agrim Rawat

An absolute party animal who always knew how to have a good time. Will forever miss the day we were on The Southern Deck, dancing and singing like there's no tomorrow. Please grow your hair back to how it was in UG2, don't care what corporate will think. Will also miss having chai in south mess almost every other day, where we could talk about the most bullshit things or actual serious introspective things too.

Hope you "raise the roof" everywhere you go! - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

Cheers 🍻 Ab dikhega future😂😂 Roz milte the bc aur ab to aur milte rahenge hi. kitna basketball khela bhai last sem to aur ab to ginti nhi rhi mereko blocks ki 😂. Crazy aadmi h bhai tu.... perfect vibe match bc... humesha in.... Saari rahi sahi kasar nikaldenge bc abto pkka se.. - Ishanya Sethi

bhullar u fkn cutie, it was the best decision to add you. tere saath party karne m jitna maza aaya usko m kabhi shayad waapis reach na karu, har chutiya baat aur reel pe has kar bahut maza aaya tere saath. maze kariyo bc zindagi m, aur flat m extra bed rakhna, pakka aaunga aur sounga. time mile to daadi ugaana bhi sikha dena xD - tera bhai, sand - Sankalp S Bhat

Bhullar, saale kya mast aur cheerful banda hai tu. Mai pehli baar mila tha terese zoma pe tab toh bc bas kisi aur ke ek chutiyape ke chakkar me vibe kr liye apan, jaanta tak nhi tha tjhe. Uske baad fir baat nhi hui kabhi, sidha bc trip pe nikal gye...blr ka woh 1 din kya maut tha bc aur fir agle 4 din pondi, bhai feel hi nhi hua kabhi bhi mjhe ki mai tjhe nhi jaanta tha...uske baad fir 4th year toh saath kitni bakchodiya maari bhai...itne kam time me itna apnapan lagne laga tere saath...ab toh bc flat me hai hi saath apan, full on maze chalte hi rahenge. - Laksh Balani

Humne baat kaafi late karna chalu Kari ig, the first we talked properly was around 3-2 the time I convinced you to go on that marathon with me, which was a great decision btw. Daaru kam piya kar test karva, lekin tere saath daaru peene mein maza aata tha. You realise eventually that listening to Punjabi songs isn't that fun unless you have someone next to you singing the whole song word for word. Let's be honest when you "farak nhi padta" tereko bilkul farak padta hai. 4-1 ki South mess vaali chai bahut acha routine hogya tha, Mandi ka acha routine hogya tha. It was crazy how tu Masti bhi karta tha and kaam bhi nipta leta tha and I always admired that quality of yours. - Prerak Srivastava

Heavy driver and absolute party animal. Gonna miss dancing with you and having an absolute blast. Pls grow hair back - A Kishore Kumar

Think u were one of the first new friends i made when i got to campus. Sad i lost our bet. We gotta get a repeat of the 1v1 against kk in valo, i'm betting on u. - Shavak Kansal

Aree yaar I still remember the first day I met you, basketball court pe mile the aur agar tu na btata ki hum same batch ke hai mai to intro dene ke liye ready ho gya tha. Seniors ka bhi senior lagta tha, babbu mann bhi fail ho jaye esa look oh hoye. Honestly tereko dekhkar laga tha tujhse door rehna chahiye but you turned out to be a gem of a person. Tumhe cg ki assignment na karne dena was the best decision. Hostel mai aadhe se zyada logo ko punjabi gaano ke lyrics tune hi sikhae hai. Insta ka sabse harami model train kiya hoga tune, saari reels tere pass phele hi aa jati. Aage se mera bag use nahi hona chahiye saman chupane ke liye especially jab bhi goa jaye :). The real party now has a choice to make and he has 7 options, I genuinely hope you settle for one and leave the rest for other gareeb people. - Aditya Malhotra

Hum to bachpan ke dost hai bhai. kabse jaanta hu tujhe aur teri bakchodiyo ko. Jo random bakchodi humne obh mein maari hai vo memories permanantly store ho chuki hai dimaag mein. Batch ka party addict to tu sach mein hai. Jab se intern pe gaya hai tabse daaru peena hobby ban gayi hai teri. Tere saath party karne ka maza hi kuch aur hai. Aur tere saath har outing ke liye late hone ka bhi. Pata nahi kyu main har baar tere aane ki wait karta tha nahane ke liye. Har baar late hota tha tu. Jab bhi hyderabad aaunga crazy parties karenge bro. Tu bhi Bangalore aate rehna (chinta mat kar dhaba nahi le ke jaunga) coz 10 year anniversary bhi to manani hai. - Kushagra Kharbanda come on manchester united, come on red devils. I will forever be in your everlasting love and affection (and daily dihadi). I will become punjabi in afterlife, then we will live in patiala and pray to guru gobind singh in gurudwara. - Rudransh Pratap Singh

Insane driver. Will remember the heavy i ntros at bakul and the Until Dawn game we played. Bring back long hair boobler. - Pramod Rao Budramane

Yo bhullar boii Hyd ghar ke liye all the bestt. Prestige liya toh waha bhi khelenge mast basketballl. aur thodi kam tod fod krna bsdk peeke, pta chla house party me TV fod dia. Tu toh kaafi hi chill banda he bhai, mjja aa jatae tere saath chill krna me - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

2-2 mei, roommate dhundne nikla tha, bhai milgya, ik hmara roommates bnna was a heavy accident :rofl: kitne, swaps kre the, but it was the best accident ever, pta nahi lga kb college ke 4 saal khtm hogye. You were the person I could share almost anything - mere highs and lows, and jitna bhi tu upar upar se pretend krle to not care but ik deep inside kaafi caring person you are (typical Punjabi dad's trait lmao). Acha hua, you gave up that long hair style, babbu mann fikr ch pai gya si, onhu fail krdena si tu.Tera baki sab toh theek hai, bas gym thoda regular jaya kr, and time to time apna liver kralia kr test .. Baki apan toh milte rhenge, aakhir baigane sheher ch, Punjabi hi Punjabi de kam aunda hai ;). - Karmanjyot Singh

The real party animal, you're such a fun person. The kabo and uno games we played were so intense and memorable. Wish you all the best bhai. - Siddh Jain

Jatt da muqabla only. Realest and the only 0 bt person to exist on campus. Always fun to have you around ""party animal"". stay the same! will miss partying with you and doing bakchodi <3 - Shreeya Singh

The party addict of our group 1g after me. 30 ke bad bouncer to ban hi rage hum, ig ek asli punjabi also jiske sath Nachna aur even punjabi gaano par vibe bhi mene kaafi kiya. Tere vo high hone ke bad bhi sober rehna is a masterclass aur baki bhai connect bhi kaafi kiya mene tere sath bhut cheezon me apne opinion same nikal aate the and jab nahi bhi tab bhi kaafi behes to kari hai humne lol. But all those are good memories brother , Goa kya ab to Bali Jakar maze karne hai bhai next year pakka jaa rhe udhar and haan mile to rahenge hi apan kaam to zindagi bhar ho chahe but Milna is constant bhai. Also ab gym chalu karde varna aur pet nikalne wala hai corporate me to. - Mayank Bhardwaj

Punjabi mundaa! I remember the first time we talked about some assignment viva on text and how pissed you were at the TA XD and how you were the one who carried half batch's quantum course XD, so I thought you would be some pretty serious guy. But it turns out you are one of the chillest people of the batch XD. Had sm fun hanging out with you and doing bhangra at satinder sartaaj concert. Cheers to many more Bhangra nights to come! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Dude won't have a functioning liver by the time someone reads this blog. Best punjabi party prahhh of the batch frfr. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

First day on campus :
College started online and were quaratined on first day in campus. Rather last day was quite emotional.

Favourite campus memory :
Complete last sem!!

One thing you will miss the most :
Friends and ofc Body, Mind and Soul - Gym, TT, Ritual.

Best thing you learned from here :
Assignments done after procrastination at the last moment are much more thrilling.

Favourite place in campus :
The streets, cause of late night walks!

Biggest Change since your first year :
4 years older definitely, wiser maybe?

One of my earliest friends in college. He is very calm. He is very introverted. I wish he was more expressive. He is one of the few people I felt comfortable expressing myself to and complaining about many things in college... You are very understanding, and I appreciate how sometimes you used to console me when I was feeling down. I wish you all the best for the future and hope you are very happy and successful! - Surabhi Jain

You are such a sweet, calm, and gentle-natured person. The simplicity you possess and the gentle smile on your face whenever I met you always lit up my day. Thank you for not getting annoyed every time I bombarded you with all my typical questions about how you survive by just eating Jain food and always eyeing your Yuktahar food. I have to say, I have learned what self-discipline is from you. All the best for your future and all the power to you to keep up the struggle of finding Jain food :p - Khushi Agarwal

Brother I'm so grateful to have found you in that DSA team lol. I know how lost I would have been in this college without you... From being teammates to roommates we have relied on each other. I was always kind of an outlier in IIIT but you provided me a support system in more ways than one... Be it getting me food when I was sick or taking my orders when I was just away from college, or being okay with when I'll have friends over in your confidence. It's so surreal that while being very different people, we had a natural chemistry in work and otherwise where i felt so comfortable around you, probably because you were never judgemental. You are not just very reasonable and kind, but also smart and solution-oriented. I've admired and learnt from your intelligent (sometimes jugadhu xD) ways in work and your can-do spirit about everything. Wishing you great luck for future and hope you attract the best of things both career wise and in personal life through your sweet charm :). - Pratham Gupta

Bhai I will really miss our yuktahaar convos. Genuinely, one of the most simple, kind-hearted and nice human being that I met in the college. Bhai, I admire the way you looking out for your friends and at the same time do not compromise on what you believe in. It was a pleasure knowing u. Stay in touch. All the best!! - Pradhuman Tiwari

Got to meet you far too late man. Fun dude to hang out with, wild that you carry a pendrive with you. Awesome that you gonna be living close in blr. - Shavak Kansal

One of the first friends I made in campus :) . Miss those online days when we used to be so connected through Vikings, teaming up for everything and basically doing everything together. Vikings toh nahi raha :(, but yuktahaar buddies till the end XD. Wishing you all the best for the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon Bhai yaar terese bda makkar ghaplebaaz aur jugadu aadmi maine koi aur nahi dekha, english translate karega to worldly wise aega but humare liye to tu ghaplebaaz hi rahega. Best collection hoti hai hamesha terepe. Best part mujhe hamesha teri yehi lagti ki plans mai kabhi out nahi hota, hamesha harr cheez mai in hota koi BT. Keep these spirits high, bangalore mai jakar apan english bhi theek karlenge. Bas tu ye game harne mai jo bhane deta hai wo theek karle adak gya, nitro khatam ya phir warmup nahi hua tha. Itna inconsistent kese hai tu ya to olympic champion ya phir itna haggu simple simple points hagg deta hai. Koi na we will teach you how to play TT. Waise bhi AI job le lega to yehi sab karna hai aur apan jo food court kholenge uska chief chef hai tu ye yaad rakhiyo. Bhai ye deadline pe tujhe jo thrill milti wo band karde time pe kaam kar liya kar. Aur agli saari trips pe gadi tujhse hi chalwane wale hai hum to darr mat :) - Aditya Malhotra

Sabse late group me aya aur ek itna acha asset bangalore wale logo ko mil rha haina ki sab flatmate Rakna chah rhe hai tujhe na. But kaafi sahi hai bhai tu kabhi baatein dil par nahi lena bhut badi quality hai jo shayad poore group me tere pas hai sabse zyada ye humesha alive rakhiyo bhai and haan chahe mumbai hai tu but pahado ki trip ke liye flight karwake ana padega tujhe lol. Milte rhenge bhai . - Mayank Bhardwaj

Ghapla King and Jugadu No. 1. Siya chanana wala tera ghapla will always be a core college memory. Tab he se samajh aa gaya tha kya bakchod dimag hai tera. Tera paas har cheez ko scam tarike se karne ka solution hota tha, not sure if it gave good results, but it was definitely fun. Although I still feel double deception in metro was a very terrible idea. I'm sure tere crazy ideas se tu ek din toh kaafi succesful banega, bas tab yaad rakhna mene college me thoda carry Kiya tha :p The crazy spp night, goa driving skills and farming you in mini militia are some things that I'll always remember hehe. - Shreyash Jain

My (real) Jain Friend. Sabse dead aadmi hai bhai tu. Tere mu se pehli baar 4th year mein aake kuch suna hoga maine. Jugadu to tu hai hi par bakchod bhi bahut hai. Har jagah randomness spread karta hai chahe vo TT ho ya ritual. But jab bhi kisi aadmi ki zarurat padti hai to sabse pehle tujhe hi yaad karta hu. Blr mein hi honge to milte rahenge (jab badminton ke liye log chahiye honge jk :P) - Kushagra Kharbanda

Dunia mei koi scandalous kaam nahi hoga, jo tjhe na malum ho ... be it tere pro deception techniques (jiska koi logic nahi rhta) to tere demossing and copying techniques, aage jakr thoda kam krna ye. Jitna randomness tu add krta hai game mei, koi aur nahi kr skta, hmesha bas opposite team mei hi perform krta tha. blr mei thoda sona kam kr, aur gym regular krna. All Best ! - Karmanjyot Singh

Hacker hai bhai hacker, chahe plag se bachne ka hack ho, chahe mini militia ka god mode itne hacks kahan se seekh ke aaya hai tu? Talking about mini militia, mujhe tune bahut farm kar rakha hai ab finally usse bach jaunga XD. Kabhi bhi tujhe time pe submission nhi karte dekha, 11:59 tak khich hi jaata hai tera kaam. Yuktahar bhi hamesha end mein hi jata dikha hai, lagta hai mess ke darwaze band karne ka kaam tera hi tha. Jo bhi ho tu least bt wala aadmi hai, hamesha har plan mein in ho jata hai chahe club ho ya turf, tere bina ritual aur tt mein to team puri hi nhi ho paati thi lol. True gym boi, kaafi gains kiye hain tune gym mein aur room mein bhi. Milte rehenge aur touch mein rehiyo. - Gautam Ghai

First day on campus :
Got put in Quarantine. If we're talking after quarantine, the first day was just mostly meeting everyone in person and walking around the campus (A lot of walking tho). Lot of coffee at JC too.

Favourite campus memory :
Watching a Double Feature (Two movies in a go), in a Room Theatre (A laptop and 2 beds put together, for 4 people.), with snacks from JC (A lot of Kurkure, Lays, etc.). Playing guitar for various events and the practice too, of course. Getting placed.

One thing you will miss the most :
DLF. Definitely will miss going to DLF at random times. Will miss being greeted by Oreo, randomly. The campus coffee, VC, BBC, JC. Sleeping and waking up whenever I want to. North Mess breakfast (PBJ sandwich and Coffee).

Best thing you learned from here :
When life decides to f you up, there's nothing that can be done. No matter how hard you try, sometimes, you just fail. Sometimes there might be a lesson, sometimes not. So the best way to go through life, is to give the best effort to the thing you love the most, pray for the best and be happy.

Favourite place in campus :
Felicity Ground Stage Center, best place to be alone. Staircase of H-105, on holidays and evenings. Can sit to work while petting dogs. Library, for obvious reasons. Parijat Bench. The bench in open gym, behind the monkey bars. Backstage, Amphi, best place to carry out discrete actions.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Changed my perspective on right and wrong.

Best Roomate ever. Sweet guy, will miss a lot. - Vivek Mathur

Best brother I could have ever asked for :)) Person who can annoy me the most too - Bonala Poorvaja

Ummm nagarjuna....The most Nagarjuna user(😉two meanings in one shot) ... always had fun with all the dark jokes that we used to crack together.... Remember that night when you were there for me and that day when I died laughing? Can't think of one can you, cause that's absolutely every day and every night with you. You're there in every moment of my college life, best friend. I don't know what I would do without you. - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

You are probably one of the people I feel the most comfortable around, and that means a lot to me. Also thank you for being the one proper Tamil (yes half whatevs) friend I've had among this horde of people😭 We still have so many movies to watch-hhhhhhhhhhh and watch them we will Also Ssos concert when? Please don't stop introducing me to things that I get unhealthily addicted to :) - L Lakshmanan Literally the best friend (and teammate xD) one could ask for. Insanely talented, good taste in series, and is secretly good at bowling and god knows what else. Need to investigate further on our outings in Blr :) - Abhijith A Calm but very mature. She wont say a thing but she usually has the best answers to things XD. I really enjoyed just telling you/showing you the dumbest things and laughing about them while you looked so confused. Thanks for bearing with me, and everyone else, you really take on a lot, endless patience :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

sdoaaaaaaaaa gonna miss pestering you all the time aaaaaaaaa (kinda gonna miss ur pokes too odo). youre always fun to be around but learn to laugh at good jokes pls hehehehehheheh - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

Snehaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa. Hi. How are you? I don't think I can write anything that will do justice to the wonderful person that you are. You're the personification of the warmth that you feel after eating your favourite comfort food. I'm so glad I met you, and hope that you always remember how much you mean to me. - Jatin Agarwala

Where do I startt. You made college a core memory (we have to watch Inside Out 2 together, and a ton of Barbie movies someday). Thank you for always being there. I can't wait to watch the lives we've talked about come true with you. Lots of love :)) - Ananya Sane

First day on campus :
What a day!! We were all released from quarantine and were asked to reach OBH. I remember doing a fun vlog with a few other people I didn't know well then. We were each assigned a single room at OBH, which is very large for one person. Later, we were given a campus tour, and JC treat by our seniors.

Favourite campus memory :
My first Diwali on campus. I remember us ECE people working late at night to set up the fairy lights, sleeping on the OBH road, climbing the OBH roof and waking up in Srujana for breakfast in Kadamba. This is when I made some of my long-term friends. I can never forget those tireless 3 nights.

One thing you will miss the most :
The random bullshit talks that I do with my friends. These were always random, out of context and usually spanned over a game of cards, a late-night walk or any free time we had. It's hard to believe that I can never really do those again.

Best thing you learned from here :
Recognizing good people and trusting them with my back. IIIT taught me there are people that I can trust and believe in. It made me realize that there will always be people who will have my back. There will always be people who can pull me back if I ever get lost in life.

Favourite place in campus :
My room M-173! It doesn't matter if the temperature is high or it has not been cleaned; I can always fall asleep here. This is where I can relax, speak my mind and freely express my thoughts. Apart from this, the CIE canteen where I could always get a bottle of Sprite and the best samosas.

Biggest Change since your first year :
The campus itself. The campus has been

Brother, you are one of the most hardworking guy I've ever met. I still can't believe how you pull off so much work in such a short time, I guess you are a born kassi. The love and care you have for your family is what I admire about you. It was really fun to talk with you about random shit in our rooms and the facts that you share which might not be true at all. Good luck with all the things and let's hope we keep meeting and be in touch. - Rishabh Agrawal

Hey Souvik It's been a heck of a ride since I have known you. Your work ethic has always been inspirational to me and I am grateful to have gotten to know you so well through college. From laughing about the most random things in our room to bitching about everyone else in our group to celebrating you getting placed, I will always cherish the memories we have made. You are a great guy with a very bright future ahead of you and I can't wait to see the big things you go on to achieve. Till our paths cross again, you can read this message and get emotional as you remember me, the accidental roommate. - Anish Mathur

Dear Skarrfa, my favourite Bengali and "honorary Gujju", and the "Kassi" of our group, it has been great sharing this college journey with you. I remember I first met you in our online times when we formed a team for a felicity event. From those online times, to dancing together carelessly at DJ nights, along the way we have made a bucketload of memories I will probably never forget. The group dance and BC dance during our first offline Felicity, the laser tag and mystery room sessions, countless dinners, the Goa trip, playing phase 10 and poker till late, wonderla, go karting, there are just too many memories. I am glad to have gotten to know you a lot better. There is never a dull moment with you around, you always liven up the atmosphere. You are a very gentle, caring and soft-hearted person. The dedication and efforts you put in to get to your goals is also impressive and inspiring. I am eagerly waiting for you to start the "Karfa cooking and coding" channel. Enjoy the journey ahead! Let's stay in touch. - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Man it's been a wild 4 years and it's been a lot of ups and downs, but mostly ups, which is good. Teasing you about Valorant and not coming to outings because "kAaM bAaKi hAi yAaR" will never not be funny. I am just so grateful to you for bearing with me throughout college. Having you in the mix has always added a layer of comedy that will now go missing :(but such is life. Your dedication towards the goal you wish to achieve is at a level which I have not seen in anyone else, and I respect that a whole lot more than I might show. I do hope we remain in contact :) - Gogate

Hello da, I don't remember when it was online when I got to know you, but you remained a good friend of mine since NeSS itself. I spoke with many people but the vibe of hard work and the passion you give me of, I was unable to find anywhere else. You are the most down-to-earth person I met. I am very happy for you being my friend. I am sad that we parted ways in 2nd year naturally, but I wish I was close with you then also. Every time I speak with you, I don't know how but I end up learning something or the other. I really envy the way you classify your preference which is no less than a superpower to me. You are one of the people who greatly influenced my lifestyle and am very happy about it. You are a constant source of motivation for me, your hard work during placements, and your friendship when helping people, I feel is a very precious thing that you should never lose. I am very happy for your existence in my life. Thanks a lot for all the lessons you gave me! Yours Not so Kassi Friend - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Hey Souvik!! You've been such an awesome person to be around always. It was indeed a fantastic time that we spent together in college. I can't help but have a flashback of all the EC projects, HCI, OSN and Nano lectures. I'm grateful to have met you brother. Your energy is truly infectious and your authenticity and genuine vibe has always lifted up our random conversations. Those late night talks in the room were truly a bliss. Remember I barged in late night one day to just irritate Anish and you to the limit, can't forget that. I can't wait to see you do great things man. All the best and let's stay in touch. - Akshit Gureja

Hi soveet, had a great time first 2 years in campus because of you. I guess we first met through khushi in lohri. You said photo nahi uthana, I didn't understand then that you were asking ki photo nahi leni? xD and skipped that(awkward). Phir to random talk tuzhse aur tanmay se baat hone lagi, tum log include karte dispite of "Simp" Tag. Never understood the concept though. Had lot of fun with you guys, I still remember the first Felicity proper andar ghusaya tune hume ekdum samne se enjoy kar rahe the. Phir random outings, random rants ,good time. Felt like found some genuine friends :). I know you have many other close friends, just a little admiration from me.yaad rakhna I exist, waise hyderabad don't let anyone forget me, har jaga boards hai xD. stay in touch ! All the best for your future. See ya. - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Stay happy 😉 - Ishanya Sethi

Bohot hi sahi zada sahi banda. 2nd year mein toh tere aur prayush ke room hi pada rehta tha, bohto maaze kiye hai udhar. Hello there triangular nachosss, our very own DJJJ!! You are an absolutely amazing all rounder whether it be academics sports girls or friendships, you have conquered it all💪. It had been really fun having courses with you like DASS and DS jaha badia carry kiya tu😂 and going to turfs for football or playing cricket alongside in RKPL or night cricket had been really great. Banglore me milte rehena aur google jake bhul mat jaana aesthics ke chode! - Siddharth Jain

Bangalore me toh jitni outings thi bhai apni, kuch jyada hi maza aajata tha, party kro, bhand yulu rides, fir rooftop pe chill. Bilkul wahi tha jo chizon me mjhe fun aata tha and tum log saath the toh kaafi masti hoti thi...aage bhi jab mauka milega party toh hogi hi. Pondi trip toh kya sahi thi, aise full rejuvenating bhai, woh trip toh one of the least planned trip thi bas relax krna tha aur sahime bohot maze aaye. - Laksh Balani

Vayu captain 🧐, interview mein humesha help Kiya bc, crazy level kassi but bdhiya aadmi bhai.... - Arnav Pandey

An amazing friend, always supportive, always calm. Initiative lena tere se sikhna chahiye. A true all rounder. Har cheez mein participate karta hai, sports, cultutural, academic. You are a person who listens to people. But bt bhi bohot deta hai (maana ki sach hi bol raha hota hai). Your evolution from trying on everyone to what you are today was really good to see. Tere saath har trip yaad rahegi (#UdayPark). Agli baar breakup hokar Mumbai aa raha ho to bata dena ki ho chuka hai. - Shreyas Revankar

One of the first few close friends I had in college! I remember we first talked when we were opponents in the debate thingy by debsoc, and our initial days when we all used to do so much timepass on discord, miss those days. Offline aa ke dheere dheere our hangouts became lesser and lesser, but I still cherish all our memories together, teri interesting interesting baatein, teasing you by calling u simp, our brsm tea project XD. Wish we could hangout more college mein, gonna miss you and wish you all the best for the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Hi wheelchair dummy. No doubt the most impulsive happiness seeker I've ever met. Also someone who's ready to fight and stand up for anything and everything but somehow still sucks at confrontation. I still don't understand how you get so much energy just off of coffee. You're welcome for all handling during angry juice days too. Always so interesting to have a peep into your thoughts with your out of nowhere hypotheticals. I'll miss hearing your rants in 100% detail. Still don't know how you manage to recount every rant in full detail years later. I'll also miss shamelessly checking out people and you losing your train of thought because you saw a woman hehe. Thanks for teaching me telugu and like how to talk to women and all ig. Now go do something you like doing for more than 2 days at least go. Watch some anime play games and all enough show watching - Tejah S S

Total lightweight, dedicated alc- ... oops cant say that now. Maybe take it a lil easy on the drinks in the future :P Here's to more fun times 🍻 (yes, we'll settle the ""drinker"" allegations in blr alright, hopefully without another vomit fest :P) PS: Terrible TA - Amal Sunny

Sreenyaa... you're that one beautiful, charming, savage person I know and really admire! Will always cherish our felicity times together. Stay the same forever and keep in touch <3 - Anjali Singh

Hi, smarty (learned this name of yours from your mom). Skincare is bs. Food isn't real. Will take you around on a Ferris wheel ride, is that ok? Meet soon, leave Bangalore, what will you do there, please come back hyd🥺. and lysm 🥰 - Deepthi Chandak

College was so much fun with you, thanks for introducing me to Hyderabad! Always keep smiling :)) - Ananya Sane

Hi Srennn, my one friend who shares the same Telugu soul as me, I'm so glad we made so many quirky and fun reels over the past two years. Making reels was the best way to spend a lazy weekday when you were our unofficial third roommate :) I know we'll never lose touch because Ik we'll always come back to Hyderabad. Also, I secretly think it's super cute when you end up sleeping in my bed whenever I go out- makes me wonder how much you'll miss me ;) I'll miss you too <3 - Arshini Govindu Hiya sren kaCHeguda, I'm never gonna say it right. Unironically my 2 favourite nights in college would be 1) that day we went club rogue and then kajaguda, and 2) the day we went late night driving in your car, and tried to go kajeguda(I'm still telling it wrong aren't I? XD). The vomit vehicle really holds the best memories. . I've enjoyed all the crazy stuff we've done, stay the same always. Also, you're a blr girl now, so you're one of us. Don't be at your blr aunt's place always and meetup when in blr. SASS gang ftw(I'll say this to all of yall) - Adith John Rajeev

Hopefully snapchat works for staying in touch 😭 cause I will miss sharing all my various social misadventures with you! and yes, apollo fish ftw. - George Paul

And cognition is not just computation come on. - Sankeerthana Venugopal

Hello da, I have known you since my first year but have never spoken with you much. You are one of the friends I wish I had since the beginning of college. I wish I had spoken with you more and thanks a lot for all the support you have given me. It would really become very difficult for me to fight all my bad times if not for the help I have gotten from you. I just cannot explain in words how grateful I am for all the support you have given me. I wish I would have spent more time with you. It was really nice talking to you. Thanks for understanding me during my difficult time. I will remember this help forever da. Thanks a lot for being a part of my college life. If you need any help in the future, you can always reach out to me. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Best roomie! please come to hyd 🥺. Also, never told you, but you are my best friend 😆 - Deepthi Chandak

Sreyaaa you cutieee. Big time anime lover. Sorry I couldn't sit through one episode love. Risking my life with you on scooties is one of my favorite things to do. You made college life so much better. You are so annoyingly good at sports even with like heels on probably. I love your bangs<3 and you own very cool devices ifykyk. - Sankeerthana Venugopal

Hi Sreya, never stop wearing your colourful clothes and being your quirky colourful self. You're my foodie soulmate. So effortless to decide food with you. Should definitely go to more places when you come Hyderabad. Also, bring your sister to see us more, lil cutie that she is. Was great going DLF with you those nights in April. Needed it. When you left is when it hit me that college is ending bc you're going so far away. I'll miss you <3 - Arshini Govindu

Hi cutie, what's up? have you been watching anime for the last 5 hours before coming here? I need you to let me live in your basement when you're a famous chef who makes too much ramen so that you can flex your chopsticks skills. This is my plan for the rest of my life. Ty ly ok byeeeee don't be sickkkk - Sreenya Chitluri

We've had some great times throughout college. (cue memory of the first time we went DLF in the night and got spiked mojitos). You're dad's prolly gonna screen this one, so Im not gonna say much more about such events xD. SASS Gang ftw PS. You've still never invited me to your swanky house in the woods xD. - Adith John Rajeev

Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

First day on campus :
Online, I didn€™t know much about tech and social media. I could not participate in the Lit club event hosted on Discord. But it was nice to get a laptop, phone and exploring them. Offline, after quarantine, had nice Kadamb food, campus tour. It felt nice. Occupied room, met my online friends in real

Favourite campus memory :
Many favourite moments. I like the day I drove to Airport or solo bike trip on ISB road. On campus, I liked the time whenever I get a good grade or someone praises/ acknowledges me especially if that is my friend. I always like whenever a project gets done like ESW, EST, SMAI. I enjoy a lot that time

One thing you will miss the most :
I will miss my room and friends. I also like our campus and the canteens. I will miss my late night walks in the campus. I miss TAship. I will miss the Juices etc. I will miss workspaces too. In total, I will truly miss everything on campus.

Best thing you learned from here :
I have understood that nothing stands before experience. We can learn anything if we work hard. We should not procrastinate in the initial days. It is also important to get good friends. I learned the importance of team work. I don't need to worry about every small thing.

Favourite place in campus :
My favourite place is my room (360, previously E-119, E-2, E-223). Also, I used to literally live in workspace in the first two sems I am on campus. So, first floor workspace. I like the Vindhya maze, T-Hub. But I especially like BBC Canteen and Amphitheatre space. Space beside VC too.

Biggest Change since your first year :
I think I have started to think broad. I have started accepting many things as nor-

Vinay, you are that one person I got the wrong first impression. Never judge a book by its cover ki naa example nuvvu. You may look up-tight, disciplined, bhayam ekkuva and I think people base their opinion on those. But from my journey with you, I eventually realized you are also free-spirited, trying to break rules. You may not always be that 'cool' kid but I admire the fact that you stick to what you love(your Vijayawada and Telugu obsession). I loved how you tucked your shirt and didn't fold your shirt on your birthday (mmb exam roju). For me, in my perspective, it's the visual example of 'I don't give a fuck, I love my dress this way'. You are my go-to person to have a conversation in boys. Eevarku gurtunda double-rooms appudu, nuvvu room ki vachevadivi and we used to talk a whole array of topics,I really enjoyed those convos. I love the fact that you explore.Aa idhi vachindi ani agipovu,you keep learning new stuff. You think people assume worst about you but its not the case.Keep breaking,keep exploring - Yashwanth Kottu

Vinayyyy!!! You are the person i have observed the biggest change in campus. From being afraid to venture into the professors quarters to kicking stones down that road and trying to break into the restricted area. From being scared of copying in an exam to scamming projects in courses. From being scared to coming to friends home, to coming and staying the night over at mine. We have vastly diffferent view points in most everything and that is something I like about our friendship. we think in very different manners and that gives me a whole different perspective about an issue. I love how we always have some discussion or debate going about random topics which doesnt really matter but we argue over it as if it were a very important point. Let us always remain in touch, but even if we do not, I know that I'll always have a friend in you. Thank you for everything!!! - Aditya Kondai

Hey Vinay ! You literally have interest in every discipline. We can endlessly talk about any topic. Though mostly we do not agree on anything, I respect your patience to listen to my perspective. Hope we do not need a third person to negotiate an agreement. I believe you are grossly underestimating your capabilities in pursuing a new field. I wish to study with as much dedication as you in the future. The concept clarity you have is marvelous. Thank you for being a helping hand in my coursework. Can't count the number of movies we watched together. A great companion. Cycling trip was amazing. Hope we will travel more together in the future. Apologies for being irritating and procrastinating the work. Hope you will play more sports. Thank you for all the countless memories. All the best for your future endeavors. Until we meet again. - Nagireddy Dhanush Reddy

Vinay is an extrovert but he keeps telling people that he is the exact opposite. He keeps each conversation interesting and going. I will just sneak into his room whenever I feel bored. He has a great sense of humor.😉He is a geek when it comes to Southern cinemas. I still remember a lot of conversations we had together on cinemas and music. I wish they could have lasted more.🧐Have to mention, he has high ethical standards. Fear is something he has to tackle without which he a very cool person to spend time with. Finally, thanks❤️for being my friend and thanks for teaching me Telugu ra. I want to go for a walk again with you through the ISB road, ping me when you are free.😂Best wishes for your life and I hope we will be friends forever. - Karthik Prasanna N

Hi Vinay! First of all Thank you for everything. The first time I properly met you was during our lotus pond trip. I barely knew you back then and fast forward to today, for me you became someone I can trust and confide in. In the past few months I learnt a lot from you: your time management, your dedication, your passion towards gaining knowledge (which I admire the most) and your commitment to your moral values. I love how much you go out of your way for your friends(not just the placements). I know it's weird but I could connect with you about having very concerned parents. You are a very independent and strong person and you always strive to be the best version of you in a race and I respect that a lot about you. Hope you travel and explore the world, learn a lot on the way but never stop learning new things. I wish you all the best for your future! With love Keerthi - Keerthi Pothalaraju

Hello to the most dedicated guy, probably in the batch. Random courses kooda chala dedication tho chestav :) I have always enjoyed the conversations we had online chala manchiga anipinchedi,either acads gurinchi, loki gurinchi, mana inter colleges gurinchi. Hello Vinayyyyy, Ni name lone vinayam ani undhi, nvu alane vinyam ga untav asalu. You are such an amazing person, and I never thought we could talk for so long and share so many common things. I will never forget the day you drove the car at 120+ speed and how much we enjoyed it because of you. You are such a good and kind person, and I know you want people to see the real you instead of just knowing you as the topper. Your genuine nature and positive energy make you a great friend and an incredible person. I hope in the future you become a pro in badminton because you always wanted to be good at at least one game. Keep being you, and let's make sure to stay in touch no matter where life takes us. - Hema Leela Durga Koppisetti

Great person. Thank you so much for everything. I still remember SE, ESW courses where we worked all night. Even in RL. Take care of your family. It was fun hanging out with you and talking about politics 😂 - Tallapragada Sai Venu Gopal

Consistent guy, Very good at taking decisions and judgements loved every project with him (DASS and SE). Perfect man and great friend. Best thing about him is how fast he can adapt to things. Glad that i got him as my partner in Dass and se, so good at completing things. In the end he is that perfect friend who scores grades, yet finds time to come to movies with us, completes projects on time yet somehow is always free. Maybe he had figured out the secret of balancing. Any ways he is a genius of smart work with innate sense of humour. Glad that i got to meet him and wishing him luck on his future endevaours - Katha Rohan Reddy

Hi vinay , Known you for a long time. You are the most hard working individual I have encountered (would like to take some of that). made a lot of memories, a lot all nighters before exams. Hello Srija, I barely knew you though we went to the same school in 10th class. I got to know you after you came offline. Initially, I felt difficulty understanding you, maybe those were your circumstances or whatever. You were very specific about even smaller details which I still don't understand why but maybe that is what makes you. Irrespective of whatever I knew you were a good person by heart. You always stayed my friend and were always there to talk to. Thanks a lot for being a part of my IIIT life. I wish I could have spent more time together with you. You can message me whenever you want a friend to talk to. - Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

First day on campus :
I was pretty excited to meet new people on my first day but sadly we were put in jail for first 7 days due to corona :(. Still it was pretty exciting to meet with people I talked with online by exchanging our cell numbers and meeting at meals time :)

Favourite campus memory :
I will always remember that day where our PET sir made us play while it was raining crazy and the whole ground was extremely muddy. We enjoyed a lot playing in the rain and all our clothes and shoes were completely filled with mud.

One thing you will miss the most :
I will miss playing wolfs and other games with my friends until 5 AM and then eat at DLF. Don't know if such things will happen again :(.

Best thing you learned from here :
Life isn't as hard as we think it is.

Favourite place in campus :
Parijat bench where we have a lot of memories :)

Biggest Change since your first year :
The way I interact with my seniors or professors. Don't need to be afraid to talk to everyone elder than you, they're pretty chill.

Amazing dancer and an even better friend. Coming to your dance programs was always a blast. Black sofas will always remind of that game now. The correct way to eat is vertical only not horizontal. - Shreyas Revankar

Hey Dancing Queen!, you are super fun and chaotic, in the best way possible. Unofficial brownie provider and maker(Pune was fun hehe). Should keep on meeting for catch ups and washroom selfies (with glowing cowboy hats lol) <3 - Ameya Sharma

The most introverted and sweetest among us LEs, and one of my partners in enduring the most demanding labs in campus. I regret that we haven't spent as much time as I would have liked during our BTech and also I hope that she opens up a bit more to others and becomes a bit more social :) Here's to a good time together in the upcoming year(s lol). - Adhiraj Anil Deshmukh

Now that I think about it, I don't think we interacted much until pretty recently except at some college events. I know you're not a big people person but still you choose to put yourself out there even if it's out of your comfort zone. I've always admired that. I'm not able to squeeze out much content cause of how calm and collected you usually are, to that end, please do more unhinged stuff :) Here's to another year together here, I'm looking forward to it - Tanmay Bhatt

Very silent yet such a understanding person. Yuktahaar buddy, bohot saari conversations hoti thi apni. assignments aur courses ki bt's was never ending. Hope teri research jaldi khatam ho jaaye. All the best for future! - Siddh Jain

Hello Surabhi I have known you for a little time but am happy for the times we spent together. You are one of the people difficult to understand with some funny cruel mind(in a funny way). I like your feminist philosophy but hope you include me also in the discussion rather than ignore me sometimes ;(. But I love the time we spent together and the few walks we had. All I can advise you is to be strong and keep trying, some day or the other you will achieve whatever you are aiming for. Thanks a lot for staying in my Btech life. Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

While I've known Surabhi for quite some time through friends, I haven't had the chance to interact with her until the last semester. But after getting to know her, she's a wonderful person, with a complex personality. She's hardworking and motivated, and I wish I had the chance to get to know her better over the few years I had in college. - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

Hi Surabhi! My thirdfloor mateee who saw all the shit I did.Thanks for always supporting me.She loves listening to music.She can sing very very well though she doesn't sing a lot.I want to listen to her sing again her voice is so melodious.She is a very healthy eater, and she drinks too much coffee.Shes too stressed by this college I hope she can take a break someday and enjoy sometime with herself.She is quite an overthinker. She is a really strong woman and a very good friend.I am really happy to have found you.My dear Surabhi lost her ID card sooo many times in Yuktahar, one time her door key fell under the room door where no one could reach it, once her phone fell into water(secrett) and she is just as messy as me.I hope you don't hold back and enjoy a lot,because you smiling is always the best.Smile a lot.Be happy.All the best Surabhi.I love you da. - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

Hey research buddie, I still remember the night when we stayed up late night to do research and ended up talking about the workspace ceiling 😂, It's funny how those random, off-topic conversations became some of the best memories, The daily prabs bitching was the only thing that kept me motivated to do research. You will always be my terrorist 💣 (jkjk). Thanks for being there through all the chaos and laughter. - Naval Surange

BHATT Sir, Kya likhe aapke bare mai, kafi helpful rhe ho app hamre liye to, but that's not it. Very difficult to express when i will see you again for a year at least. From the online semester to meeting you in person...you were not who i thought you to be at least😅. Kafi udhar hai aapke, bahut bahut dhanyawad appka. Chad mat jana. Kafi chote bhai ki trh treat kiya hai.. as in very helpful. Lekin bhabhi ke topic par, aapne double standards dikhaye. 😝 Dil se shukriya! ❤️ - ROHAN GUPTA

Tanmay!! You are one of the humblest guys ever I've met, you have that inherent tendency to go beyond limits to help others, especially the people you care about. Very few people have that practical real-life knowledge at this age and you are one of them, the way you handle things is just phenomenal. Although we became friends after we joined SPCRC our vibe matched quickly and the bond grew stronger and stronger. All those movie nights, bike rides to Hussain Sagar, go-karting, and random backhodi in the lab were very fun and are part of my core memories. Good luck with all the things and let's hope we keep in touch and hang out again soon! - Rishabh Agrawal

hello tanmay!!,you have this incredible power of remaining calm and compose in every situation, Or you are just mature with all those situations, i haven't seen you panicking or rring about stuff !! I can say your are one of the most mature person in our group! i admire and try to learn that from you! with my point of view its the most difficult task xD! Thanks for being there for me and helping me throughout whenever i needed one!! Anjali connected us, aur dekhte dekhte roz he jc, campus walks pe milne lage, outings- garba ke liye kitna maana pada tha tumhe uff, kitna naache the mast, us waqkt club me bhi bohot maza aayi thii, go-carting ,anantagiri hills, wonderla , lager tag, zakir khan show, Avatar, Diwali outing etc etc uff went so many places last year, had so much fun! And dekhte dekhte itne close friends ban gaye! Love your company! pranav ko dating tips dete raha karo, he needs it XD! here is to much more fun and adventures next year!! Aur jaldi se girlfriend dhundo, double date pe jana hai :) - Agrawal Aparna Nitin

Dear Tanmay, aka “”Rizzler””, or also “”Amul Connoisseur””, it has been an honour to share so many memories of my college life with you. From being the one whom I talk in Gujarati with, to recalling fond memories of Gujarati food, you have been my home away from home. I can not write this testimonial without appreciating your glow up. Everyday workout sessions, only eating food from 1pm to 9pm, you are the only one I know who has successfully pulled everything off, and now you are deservedly reaping the rewards😉. You are amazing for successfully juggling everything - being a bond, being a fantastic friend, getting fit, and always being ready to go on unplanned trips. But most of all, it's that big heart of yours that truly stands out - you brighten up the lives of everyone around you with your warmth and kindness. Writing these testimonials seem to be a sort of goodbye. But in our case, I am hoping that our journeys will intersect for a little bit longer, and we will make more memories together.#dulleprivileges - Maulesh Tejas Gandhi

Bicchass, kaafi similar personality nikli hum log ki, humme laga tha kassi nikloge. Saari cheeze tumhare saath hi sabse pehle hum share karte (jaise humari STDs) kyunki shayad tum par hi sabse jyada bharosa hai. Ab hum soch rahe idhar aisa kya hi likhein jo tumhe already na pata ho... Saare plan mein ek koi jo hamesha saath deta tha, wo tum hi the, kahin bhi jana ho, everready. Tumhara lekin akal khaate udhaar wala motto humara kaafi nuksaan karwa chuka hai, usse ammend karo.. baaki ek saal to aur saath hi ho... Here is to many more nights togethaaaaaa - Pranav Manu

Tanmayy.. never thought that will have to think this much to write something about you! Don't understand where to start from.. all these couple of months on campus with you around whether it being the JC meets, our walks or attending classes together or movie nights, all in all, had so much fun just because of you and how can someone forget your crazy dance moves, haha! But more-so-ever, I've seen you taking care of people and making sure if they're doing alright in every possible way. Everything seems so much better and feels like things come around easily even though I know you put in immense amount of work and efforts to accomplish anything. And among all, you're the only one who can compliment people and appreciate people, art and other stuff well enough(100points for chivalry)! And you're the sabse sweetest, reasonable, smartest, jugaadu person on campus! I believe you are the comfort talker for me and everybody else, on whom anyone can confide in. Stay same forever :). Tightest teddy bear hugs only <3 - Anjali Singh

Hello Tanmay, I don't exactly remember when I met you online, but I got to know you during the 3rd term when we were a team in Iot and PnRp. Though I did not get to spend a lot of time with you in my 2nd year and 3rd year as I wished I had. I am really grateful that you still remain my friend. If I think of you, it just reminds me of a person who dares to do everything and ends up being good at it irrespective of whatever the circumstances. I am really happy for the moments we got together whether it was sharing knowledge, some random weird pictures, or even some nonsensical discussions :P. You and Pranav are one of the reasons for me to be sportive and outgoing the way I turned out to be now and I am really thankful for that. I really hope we meet again though I might go to the USA, one part of me is still with you guys always and will always be hoping for the days we were together always. Thanks for all the support you have given me during the last few days. It means a lot to me. Yours Not so Kassi friend. - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

You are incredibly thoughtful, always remembering to do the seemingly small actions that many friends tend to overlook, maybe unintentionally, so yeah when you are not around, I can really feel your absence at places. I really appreciate those gestures. Please never stop doing that out of misplaced pride or whatever We've had some great moments together, from those late-night walks and chats to the craziest birthdays, parties and events and everything in between. You are so much fun! But to be honest it's not just about the fun stuff. When I need help, you are there. I genuinely feel less anxious when you are around. You are super smart and hardworking. I have no doubt you are going to crush it in whatever you do. I wish you all the best! -Surabhi - Surabhi Jain

Tanmay is the most positive person ive seen in my life. Always amazes me how chilled out he is before exam. While most ppl worry about the syllabus, Tanmay worries about getting the same room for every exam ! Had loads of fun sharing the room and learnt a lot from you. I'll never forget the stories we cooked and the in-room gym sessions. I hope we cross paths again in the future. - Harish Umasankar

I first met Tanmay online, and like all things virtual, I didn't get the full picture of who he was. But once we got to campus, we quickly became fast friends. Tanmay, the legendary founder of our mess group, brought us all together for countless fun discussions over meals. Tanmay is incredibly organized, sincere, and always willing to help. During our electronics workshop, he truly carried our team with his expertise and dedication. I've had a blast with you, Tanmay, and I've learned so much from you. Stay in touch, my friend! - Avyukta Manjunatha Vummintala

Talking about aapdo Vadodara was fun, fellow ECEer :) All the best for your last year! - Ananya Sane

I'm sorry, I failed you. I have no words to encapsulate your kindness, friendship and kassiness. You have been a wonderful friend from the moment I joined campus, and oddly all I can summarize about you is that you are the ideal friend(expect the kassi part). The best part about the man is that he's so huggable. I can't begin to express how much of my loneliness has gone away from periodic hugs with Tanmay on the bed. I know you told me to leave you alone, but I can't help falling in love with you. Shall I stay? Would it be a sin If I can't help falling in love with you? Take my hand Take my whole life, too For I can't help falling in love with you Take my hand Take my whole life, too For I can't help falling in love with you For I can't help falling in love with you - Mugundan Kottur Suresh

First day on campus :
Post quarantine week, very few people on campus, dogs and cats, and bestie for the week. Even played football. Kinda epic

Favourite campus memory :
Meltdown with the backwater boys goes crazy. Hitting rooftops, staccin and lifin, Skateboarding, warehouse DJ nights, late night/overnight conversations and project grinds, Megathon, lovely dogs and ofc farewell. W times

One thing you will miss the most :
Definitely gonna miss the guarantee that you can find someone to go jc at any time of the day. Will miss not having strangers as neighbours. Will miss bumping into people and taking 2 hour detours 2.5 hours before a deadline.

Best thing you learned from here :
Caffiene + deadline can make you finish a 4 month project in one night (hot jc guy coffee at midnight hits different)

Favourite place in campus :
(for legal reasons i cant mention rooftops) Amphi, fg and a specific platform in main gate are my go-to places to chill. Srujana jam and practice sessions too

Biggest Change since your first year :
Campus at full strength after a long time, broken buildings, more juniors than seniors for some odd reason and most roads are closed L. As for me I've realised the freedom and all the things I can explore

Cracked valorant and osu player, fastest fingers in the west. Will not forget you coming in clutch during ESW either xD Certified good electrician. Will miss playing CS with you, most vibing chill gamer you'll find. Almost impossible to see him mald. - A Kishore Kumar

Man I don't even remember how we started talking but I remember how every conversation with you was as raw and genuine as it could be. You bring this positive and happy energy with you which just spreads to the ones talking to you and really lifts up the whole conversation. I think we've bonded really well over the years and let's continue that my friend. It has been lovely to know you, let's stay in touch. All the best. - Akshit Gureja

Tejah S S. Tejah. Taz. Tz. __. - Gogate Atharva Sunil

You are crazy good in Osu and Valorant. Thanks for carrying us in game and in Compilers no way i would have figured out which pass needs which interpreter otherwise. Also how to improve in Osu i m struggling. - Shavak Kansal

Hii broo!! Thanks a lot for all the banana chips and anime recommendations XD. - Garapati Sreya

Hi tazzy, all I can say is I wish we became friends sooner. Although you did take care of us when we went out yk ;) Thanks for listening to me rant always and do stay in touch <3 - Arshini Govindu

One of my first friends on campus! ECE was fun with you, mecha also but only a little less XD All the best for your last year! - Ananya Sane

You managed to carry your teammate, and another team in compilers all on your own. Keep up the hardwork and continue to find work that'll help you stay away from OSU. I remember you being one of the designated few who could handle taking cats out of rooms, especially MMNC. Now that college has ended, you can't terrorize my room with lemons, but I won't count out the possibility of you finding a way to still continue doing it. - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

The most brainrot genZ kid ever (along with Nair), but an actually based dude. Very caring, knows everything there is to wirewire. Bro has reflexes faster than a cat, need to check his pc. Amazing guitarist too. Does not know how to pose for a camera though, so dating apps are still viable for the rest of us. Stay close tega :) - Abhijith A

hello westcoaster, i will miss meghana banana chips with full heart and then some. thanks for introducing me to ors (still don't buy it). i wish for you and your caffeine addiction to do great things and adopt a lot of cats <3 almost A+ taste in women must say PS - pls don't make your house a bug house - Sreenya Chitluri

I am the shadows, they will hide me GGWP, and take care fam <3 - Aditya Nair

Such a kind, sweet & caring person! Thanks for always hyping me up for all insta stories XD and taking the best and sometimes most embarrasing pics/videos 👀. And we wouldn't have survived game theory without your latex skills XD! Gonna miss you a lot, stay in touch and all the best for the future! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Hello Tejah, I didn't know much about you until we had the IPA project and you are one of the very few people in my college life I can say who carried my project. I always admired your intelligence and your perfection and I wish I was as sportive in terms of learning as you are. Of all the people I have met, you are one of the most brilliant minds and I wish I had spent more time with you. Thanks for being a part of my college life. My first batch trip also would not have been possible without you and thanks for that as well :P Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

Hello Mannu, hi there. Look at you working hard day and night. There is only one thing that will keep her going. Her light in the darkest of the times is cricket and RCB. I may not know anything about cricket, but I know that you love it. This girls the chattiest girl you can find. And if you want to find her please go to Rupa's room. She looks at people. She holds her head high unlike any of us. Due to which she saw many things lot of us might have missed. She stays near my grandma's home and is the first person whose home I visited in college. She has lots of achievements to her name, with chess standing out among all of them. Don't let her small size fool you she does so many things you'd be surprised. She won sooo many tournaments. But side-effects of IIIT on her are she works too much. Man, I sometimes don't know from where she gets her motivation. I hope you graduate early and go on to become a civil servant as in your dream.All the besttt Mannu.I know you can do it. By the way she did start prep too 🤩 - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija

I spent so many days in her room in the first ,when I went to college in 2-2, as she is very welcoming. She is my projectmate in DASS and we spent a lot of time together on fulfiling the client requests. She is always preoccupied with her research work as she is dual degree student in CND. I feel that I maynot be able to do that much work. She and I are the only persons who watch hindi serials and suggest each other. She is a hude RCB fan or should I say Virat Kohli fan. She watches the matches whenever she gets time and if its RCB match, she finishes the work early, just to see RCB batting. I started developing interest and watched my first ipl match this year due to her. She plays many sports and she knows driving too.. She is the most versatile person in our group. She has the aspiration to become a civil servant in the future. I wish all the very best for her future. Will be waiting for a huge party from her after her research paper gets published! - Mandyam Brunda man!!!, A Beaver. You are the best non-veg partner I have. I always enjoyed watching IPL and discussing with you. You are my next door roommate, this has increased our bonding over the past year. I always felt like in home whenever being with you, because of the comfort zone I share with you, roasting , watching comedies and tweets, etc etc... And you are a beaver because, you work more than anyone from what I have noticed. I am grateful to have a friend like you. Have a great future ahead and take care man! - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

First Guy to meet on Campus since COVID days. Vaibhav was so mysterious that seniors used to think he was a senior and be scared of him until they found out ki faccha hai. DSA ka assignment ek shaam me kar leta tha aur pta nhi kitne ghante Rohan, Tu aur Main bakchodi aur Rohan ke room me nashe karte nikale the. It Was a good time, and Friends like you make the stay memorable. Shaadi pe bula lena. Ho sake toh jaldi mil lenge. - Nemani Harsha Vardhan

Tomar, we are humshakals but he is happier version of me, xD. I don't know what is his obsession with my mirror though. Guy who can talk on any topic at any moment now its up to you to predict what is he talking about (aaj maine khatti toffee khayi hai, ... xD). We can also call him ""Mr. Unpredictable"". Toh bro, startup krna hai ya tomar empire khada krna hai, jaldi decide kr. First guy of college to meet in person at airport and then from FRIENDS to ORIGINS. We have loads of fun from trip to wonderla, trampoline park to Goa. Guy who always say, chal Faluda peene, oreo shake peene to Burger-verger (fond of sweets). Still have the memory of three of us at Amphitheatre. Gonna miss those hangouts with you and others at our rooms. Looking forward to many more trips and memories in future. - Mayank Shukla

Most athletic and lovable guy in our group. Mr. FOMO God. Bhai tere jaisa acha aur sache dil ka banda maine aaj tk nhi dekha.

You are the most fun guy in this college for sure. Itna fun ki hr baar dr laga rehta ki ab maar khilayega ki tb. Tera bina college bhut boring ho jata bhai. Ek baat manna padega tera jaisa dedicated banda khi aur nhi milega. Bande ne Genshin Impact ko apna life bana liya tha. Kbhi nhi bhool paunga wo game nights. Jo tune commitment kia tune wo achieve kr ke dikhaya, I really admire you bhai. Bhai tera sacrifice for the captaincy mai hamesha apne dil me rakhoonga aur tere saare chutiyaap dimaag me 😂. Apan ki friendship hamesha achi nhi rhi pr wo ladai me bhi apna maza tha, tere pointless argument ko counter krne me bhi bohot maza aya tha. Jo bhi ho FRIENDS always remains. Love you brother, have a great life ahead. - Rishabh Srivastava

The khatti toffee of our group, bakchodi me sabse aagey. We introduced bro to stock market and till date bro is trying to make some profit. We had great fun in trampoline park and Goa, will miss how bro always was up to eat something sweet. Will also miss his stories. - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

Tomu Tomu no foosen😂 Humesha bakchodi mein aage..I still remember he got his cousin grounded by showing her insta to her parrents😂😂. Bro was the heavyweight lifter of the group. He was a vegetarian but turned just because he could not eat paneer (Lactose Intolerant). Had lots of fun together. Always scalps in the market and books loss. Comes up with a bizarre startup plan in the morning..thinks about it all day and ends up rejecting it in night. Goa was fun!! Reels bhejna kam karde bhai😂 Have a great career ahead.. Milte rahenge.. -Yug - Yug Dedhia

Hey neighbour, the memories with you are wonderful and unique, I'll never forget them, and I mean this from the bottom of my heart man. But when you say one thing when you actually mean the other and then say you were kidding from the beginning, I'm left wondering. Our journey has been great from being on different floors, classmates, neighbours, project partners to becoming a life long friend. The void you will leave after moving to Bangalore will be as big as the akash only. Loved watching reels with you, and I felt very bad for not sharing my wifi those last few days. Will miss you a lot. All the best! #Singer #Musician #Influencer #ContentCreator #Depression #SelfieRaja #Kassi #Friend. Keep in touch man :) - Tanniru Abhinav Siddharth

First day on campus :
Spent the whole day catching up with all the friends I made throughout my online college, and spent the night talking about the most random stuff in an OBH room filled with more than 20 people, and clearly do not remember where I slept for the first 3 days of campus.

Favourite campus memory :
Holi 2023 ;)

One thing you will miss the most :
Late night walks and bakchodi.

Best thing you learned from here :
People are very very different, but you can always find similar/dissimilar things and the best part is embracing them

Favourite place in campus :
This room called E9 in OBH, we made countless memories in that room together :)

Biggest Change since your first year :
My personality :)

hello sir :pray: not a lot of people have seen his pictures before IIIT, but potential for craziest transformation. dude is the calisthenics fr fr. gymbro :fist_bup: AND OH MY GOD IS HIS PASSPORT AN I SPIRATION OR WHAT?!? dude is travelling travelling. undergrad researchers should admire, and aspire to be like mr vamshi. fun company, very smart individual. knows how to party. will suggest him for high profile rishtas on shaadi.com :thumbs_up: you have my number buddy. just text or call whenever you feel like. Also, we have to learn more moves for the clubs XD - Manav Chaudhary

Most of our time together has been to get some kind of shit done (assignments, projects and special OS installs) which somehow turn out to be more fun than expected. Also my favourite chocolate supplier :yum: - Vegi Abhijnan

The first person I talked to in college, and a very fun person to be around. Get back to gaming at some point and don't be kassi :) Hope you achieve everything you want to, all the best! P.S. I'll finish bakuman soon 😭 - L Lakshmanan

Insane gym grinder. Man completely transformed from the first time I met him. Will miss the late night conversations / walks on research street. Research grinder fr. Hope you figure out what you want to do and follow your passion wherever you decide to take it! - A Kishore Kumar

Vomc aaaaa! The very first time i talked to you I thought you were rude lmao, but boy oh boy! You are such a kind soul, and a generous person. You get things done somehow, and you get them done very well. You have the potential for anything you set your mind to, macha do yaar! - Yash Mehan
One of the few people I've known from the online mode. E-Cell was indeed so much fun. Your authenticity is so refreshing and I that just brightens up every conversation we've had. You're just such a wonderful person to be around. Would have loved to interact more with you man. Let's keep in touch, all the best. - Akshit Gureja

How do I study for JEE? to What is IIITH? to How do I look? to How do I fix this?, I have heard a lot of questions from this human in the past 6 yrs and the innocence never ends. He has a pretty happening life and trust me it will keep everyone around pretty entertained xD. He has got some pretty amazing sisters who are very bad at wing-womaning - please if interested DM, what better wingwomaning than asking on yearbook. Keep that energy on and life going! - Gokul Praneetha

You've been there, through so much with me. Thanks for the endless care and countless memories to hold on to. You're going places beyond what you've dreamed of and I'll always be there, watching you shine:) - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

One of my first IIIT friends through Discord! I am so glad you approached me first, cause I never would've done that, being so shy lol. I found a brother in you, and I cherish that. Thanks for being a constant throughout my college life. It's always fun catching up with you and hanging out. You are a caring, smart, and amazing friend. I hope you continue being the same and always stay happy. Hope we meet up frequently since you still have a year left! All the best for everything to come :D - Swetha Vipparla

One of the first few friends that I made in college, where we started studying together and talking almost every day. Even though I betrayed you and left CLD, we still remained really good friends. You were the guy who knew basically anyone and everyone in our batch, seniors, juniors you name it. You're an incredibly hard-working guy, and I'm sure you'll get to vacation in many more countries by presenting at conferences :). You're also an incredibly confused person, changing your goals every other day, but I'm sure that no matter what path you choose, you'll ace it. I'll always be there to listen to whatever shit you're going through, and you'll be the first person I'll bug for the same, no matter how far apart our time zones are (speaking of which, move to USA soon please.). - Vidit Mukeshkumar Jain

lil' bitch *affectionately - Shashwat Singh

We've had veryyy random crazy wild days that literally would definitely become dad lore one day hehe. Amazing shit you've pulled off no matter what's going on around or what others are upto, while not compromising on any sort of potential bakchodi. Keep up all the cool shit man, you're gonna make us all proud :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

My baby brother! From meeting you during the online semester (you used to look so different, haha), to playing in a Valorant tournament together, working on course projects, receiving valuable lab and academic advice from you, having intense workouts and workout discussions, confiding in each other, and growing together, we have come a long way. I consider you a responsible and fun driver, even though we almost went off-road into a ditch once. I cherish the memories we've made together and am sure we will create many more. Be sure to invite me home in the future for that excellent mango sweet drink! - Harshit Gupta

"All the deep convos about life and people and the future, thanks for always showing me a different perspective. Gonna miss watching you die of laughter over the dumbest things xD Can't wait to see where life takes you, you're going to do great :) - Sneha Raghava Raju

"It was awesome knowing you as Victor Knox and Pengo back in the Discord days, and even nicer knowing you in person. I've always found you to be great company, and I've always admired your effortless social skills and your passion towards things you care about - everything from gym to acads and research. Knew you were a cool guy to be around when you suggested having Pandas somewhere in our team name back in UG1 (remember? Pandas in Pandemic :P). Have always had cool conversations with you, and I swear one day I'll be less of a fatass and get you to teach me some of your insane calisthenics. Until that day, stay cool and sweet, and do stay in touch :D PS - the best project teammate I could've asked for :3 (thanks for carrying my dumb ass when none of my portion of the project worked lol) - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

So much fun to be around and the best stories to tell. Keep travelling and making memories! College was a wild ride, and I had a great time with you :)) - Ananya Sane

I've seen Vamshi's confidence grow by leaps and bounds, almost catching up to his incredible abilities. I've seen him achieve the amazing, but he's given me plenty of memories of silly goofy fun as well. He's a friend who's been there for fun road trips, late night DLF walks, and NLP grind sessions. Thank you for all the memories :) - Pratyaksh Gautam your smile has literally kept going some days, my friend. stay sexy ;) - George Paul

Dumbass, I really admire you for your constant ethusiasm in everything and explore new stuff. I really am jealous of you for your travel diaries but I wish you travel more and have even more experiences in life. We had fun moments together! I wish that you are always happy and bubbling with enegry! All the best <3 - Annam Venika Sruthi

Heyy Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri Well now after 4 years ik your name. I love how you always had something to talk about. Online sem was fun, all the random things all of used to do on discord xD. And ofc 'ek senior fek ke maarunga' 😂 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale first friend in IIIT, will not graduate in 5 years and we will stay together forever and ever. - Rudransh Pratap Singh

I still remember hanging out with you in Bakul. You're a very smart and caring person, and I know you'll be super successful in whatever you do. I look forward to seeing you reach new heights, and wish you all the very best in life! - Jatin Agarwala

Essential masculinity in the group, certified monke, ex LoL player so who knows what goes on in his mind. Very rare to find people who just get every one of my retarded/dark af jokes instantly but my man had it. Sad I missed out on Victor's den but glad about all the good times we had :) Do stay close nigs - Abhijith A 2003 gang 💪! I love talking to you about space stuff, random ass topics. It was always amazing to find another person who could relate and had a similar story to oneself. Also your transformation in 2 years has been very inspiring for me :)))). Thanks for all the conversations, and time spent hanging out! - Gaurav Singh

best roomie ever <3 - Abhinav S Menon

My second favorite racism target 🖤🖤 It was fun hijacking your room, looking forward to hijacking your wife - Priyanshul Govil

One thing you will miss the most :

I wouldn't have come to this city hadn't been for this guy. And if Vansh is making you read this, you should know he's the most Middle Aged guy there is on our campus, doesn't like to go out, loves eating out but wants to order in instead, doesn't dress up even if you constantly bug him to. Anyone who does manage to get him out of his stupid T-shirts, Kudos to you! You did something I couldn't in our 2 years on campus together. To everyone out there, Vansh is a sweet boy always giving compliments but one should hear the conversation we have, he keeps all of his snark reserved for me I guess. We've been told by a totally random stranger that our conversations are intellectual but we mostly just chat randomly over the most useless of topics for so so long. I don't know what cameras have against this guy, I have so many pictures with him and he manages to look bad in every single one of them. To everyone, Vansh is this handsome guy,to me whenever someone says Vansh, I still imagine the fat sardar from Edusquare. - Anurag Gupta

Vanshhhhhhh, whose window will I knock on now when I need to show the world my new wallpapers -- whose instragram will I spam with cute cats, cute emma watson, cute kavya maran, rcb memes, cricket memes, random favourite internet reaction images i come across -- whose whatsapp will i spam with the latest wallpaper dumps and tech recommendations -- whose tt racket will I break next -- with whom will i partner up in tt to humiliate the overpowered opponents -- who will i serve my legendary lallu serve in tt -- who will i discuss my celebrity crushes withhhh!!! You played so many diverse roles in my life, that's it's really hard to put into words. But, keep checking your WhatsApp for weekly ""my new favourite internet image"" and ""yo checkout this wallpaper""! And, for the love of god, no more acrylic and crayon theme packs ewwwwwwww! Also, Smriti Mandhana jaisi biwi mile hum dono ko, let's pray to god for that 🤝💛 Love you a lot, stay the same.

P.S. #8080f8 >>>> - Freyam Mehta

You're the whole package honestly. Sports. Music. Easily one of the most interesting people ever. How did we only start hanging out in the third year. Wish I knew you from way way before and we NEED to make up for it. Thinking of staying in campus only for you 😉 - Srijan Chakraborty

Hiee! You are such a sweet and warm person <3. Our trip, random hangouts, gushing about the most random topics are cherished memories <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy ahhh man, kinda hard to put down my thoughts, I don't really know where to start. I still remember the first time I saw you, it was the felicity buzz, the second time I saw you I didn't recognize you (for obvious reasons). But man after that its been fun knowing you all this time and seeing you go from a lazy bum who plays CoC all day to a lazy bum who plays CoC all day and occasionally go to the gym was nice, kinda shocking honestly. I wish all the very best to your future. Also if you ever want a place to live in Hyd hmu. - Shreyansh Agarwal

Jesus would pray to have your hair (and muscles). Massive cutie and one of the best people around. It's been a lot of fun knowing and working with you, although I would rather forget the latter for one huge reason. Big thanks to you and Harikrish for introducing me to new people who along with you both, have become among the best friends I've made in college. Keep working at it and the results will surely fall your way. All the best for the future, stay in touch and let's meet in Bangalore once you graduate (hopefully in < 2 years xD, I've got an MS to do). - Aaron Anthony Monis

Paaji, I don't know how to put our friendship into words. You're such a cool friend with whom I can talk anytime and anytime. Thanks for being there everytime. And yes, I envy your hair. - Aaryan Sharma prolly the most wholesome person on campus (and in general as well :)). tech//design lord. shall forever miss our post-3am rendezvous at david's. get a ppo pls in blr only so that we can graduate from david's to something a lot fancier lmaooo, and stay in touch pls :) - Pranjal Thapliyal

I don't even remember how we started talking but every conversation was such an amazing one. From all the way back in E-Block to Microsoft, you've been a constant friend I could rely upon. You really brighten up the mood with your energy man and it has been truly great to have known you. To more Punjabi dinners and lovely memories. All the best man and let's stay in touch - Akshit Gureja

My CLD project buddy, its always gone strong with you. You literally make the best designs/presentations and carry by writing huge reports no one asked for XD. The number of times I've seen you type/chat even though I asked you to is incredible. I will cherish the project memories we have, and the random meetup chats we have as well. You're a very sweet person, please remain the same no matter what. - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

Mannn, from the starting of the day we met to the last days of college, we've talked about so many things, but the peak has always been about homelessness xD. Thank you for recommending the once in a lifetime experience waale haircut ka place, they managed to fix my hair. Love how we got through college and acads more or less the same way(BSing), while relying on humour for cope. - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Vansh bro, you were one of the best neighbours I could ask for, and still an amazing amazing friend. I still remember the late night assignment work, singing in your room, and complaining endlessly about OSN and Science 2. You've always been really fun to be around you have always been very genuine. that and you have such a way with words. I wish you nothing but success, but we both know you got that on lock. Stay wonderful and stay in touch! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande

Thanks for being an awesome CLD batchmate and friend! Seriously, your hair is amazing – I'm a little jealous, haha. Sometimes I feel like I'm looking at some kind of godly figure when I see you! Thanks so much for the awesome phone advice, too; you really saved me. All the best for the future! - Harshit Gupta

My go to tech guru, and one of my first online friends, it's unfortunate that we weren't as close in college. I remember talking about you to my friends, and how they still sometimes ask about that sweet Punjabi friend of mine who defied social norms and got his hair cut. But you should know that you're a friend that I have always cherished, and absolutely loved talking to. Always stay the same!! - Jatin Agarwala

The techie guy, great soul and one of my few friends in online sem. Any time we could talk cricket and i could take some advise from him regarding gadgets. Stay same mate, all the best!! - Ayan Agrawal

Bro, u are one of the kindest and sweetest guy I know in the college. I am a fan of your artwork. Will always cherish the bond that we formed through our cricket convos. All the best Kohli (I truly hope it works this time, u know what I mean). - Pradhuman Tiwari

Fellow Punjabi, a great friend, fellow cricketer. I was rooting for RCB against CSK. Sadly Kohli's curse was far too strong in the end :). It's been great hanging out with you. I am a bit sad that we never really went on a trip together. Maybe someday? Cheers to the memory we made and to many more to come. - Sukhjinder. - Sukhjinder Kumar gujju snacks vending machine, hamesha loaded rehta tha. I only believe in the concept of God gifted because of people like you, very smart and very kind, and you know how to put that gift to use. Goa me car me tere sath baith ke , bhand hokar bitching is one of my favourite goa memories, and uske baad to bhand vedant ke peeche bhi baith liya. you know how to enjoy even when situations aren't favourable and you keep group ka moral high, a very rare and useful quality. baki animes yaad nhi he but chainsaw man abhi bhi yaad he. thanks for making rk house party possible and so memorable, atleast hamare liye 😉. thoda cocky, but hona bhi chahiye, it suits you. iske alawa kya, bhandi he, bond he, bohot funny he, but these are things jo already sabne bata hi Diya hoga, cuz tu he to. bas thoda dead hona Kam kar de, warna CPR de dunga. - Atharva Joshi

Smartest, wittiest and the most helpful guy in CND. Bandhe ne faltu se faltu anime dekh rakhe hai woh bhi 3x mein. Har game ko apni presence se apne aap toxic bana deta tha. - Dhruv Rajeev Mittal

Gymmer boiii!! Cutie ban rha hai tu. Sahime love having all the intellectual and faaltu discussions with you . Lets keep doing it! - Dhruv Hirpara

bhandi parekh bc.... jab shuru mei terese mila tha to kya seedha saadha bachcha tha bc aur ab dekh bc gurgaon mei tere hi room ko hotbox kardiya.... itna change aaya hai tere na tere mei but still teri bondness and teri vibe humesha se kamal rhi hai bhai... ab hyd mei karte hai bache kuche saare karyakram..... - Ishanya Sethi

Hello vedant, You are such a friendly person .It is always a different vibe you carry that make me wonder about the intellectual meaning behind it. yeah and therefore i easily get fooled but its fun. All the memories we made together and those birthday celebrations , summer vacations and ccnsb seminars, cnd dinners , your chess talks, everything... i cherish all the memories they will always be with me. Looking forward to do many more crazy things and make many many many more memories in next year!! ... thank you for always being there . - Syed Imami

vedantu (the bhandi pareekh) rk me sabse zayada growth agar kisine kari hai toh vo tu hai (nashedi banne me obv) ab toh bas is bhandi se sober raha hi nhi jata lol but mai bahut miss karunga haar vakt bas room se nikalte hi ""vedant vedant chillana"", mai bahut kuch sikha hu tujhse, u r the smartest person i know. haar cheez me itna positive attitude hota hai tera hamesha but bsdk thoda over chill nhi reheta hu time management sudhar le, haar kaam last moment hi karna hota hai and bhai i will always be grateful for all your coding round and interview helps along with shreyas and joshi, u r very helpful and another thing which is very impressive abt u is your dark sense of humour. #jaldi hi milte hai firse #rk - Prasoon Garg

Bhandi Parekh, kuch dinn pehle hi story sunaya tujhe joshi bkl ki vajah se Mai terko issi naam se jaanta hun, cute banda, bc utna baat nhi kiye clg mein lekin coding round ke liye anytime aa jaata tha help krne, crazy bond, ek dinn tum do chutiye(joshi aur tu) mere Jaise literal chutiye ko 2000 rated dp question smjhane lage the yaad Hai mujhe, Gurgaon mein tere room pr aake ded ho jaata hun, maybe after clg hi apan ko mauka mila hai ek doosre ko ache se jaanane ka, amazing trips aur plans to abhi rukne nhi chahiye 2 mahine ke liye, bohot kam time Hai phodte Hai.... - Arnav Pandey

Bhandi Parekh, saale bohot bakchod aadmi hai tu. Bohot maaze aye hai tere saath (especially Goa mein). Mast Gujarati snacks lekar aata hai tu aur mangoes toh mast taste karte, especially after the ritual. Mast rahe aur haste rahe. All hearts!! - Saurav Chhatani

Bhandi parekh jii, kaafi bond aadmi h tu. Protein drink peete rehna broo. Thanks a lot for all the help. All the best brdr - Knv Karthikeya

Mr bhandi parekhhh! Bhai kya seedha sadha sweet sa aadmi tha tu first year me aur ab dekho💀. But banda toh tu bada sweet smart aur funny hai abhi bhi. Kya sahi start hua tha apna jab tu code ki photo kheechke bheja tha merko aur sbko bitching krra tha meri moss ke tension me😂. But we have become so good friends from then and you are literally one of my favourite people on campuss! Ek baar toh tujhe haraunga rapid chess me dekhna💪. Really admire your cool personality and zeal for learning and helping others with new stuff! Research kradena meri bsdk Sth year me vrna gaand mardunga😂. The sutta session at kasol with such sweet and emotional talks will always be my core memory! Cheers to being roommates in Sth year and having lots of funnn - Siddharth Jain

Aur bhai bhandi parekh, heavy competition diya hai tune toh, sabse slowly khana khatam karne mai. You are a brilliant fellow, chess, academics, debating sab mai top. Will miss listening to you humming songs, awkward third wheeling xD, your love for arguments, effortless intelligence, kese tujhe waiter se spoon mangne mai bhi shy ata hai aur catan mai priority queue stategy. All the very best for next year. Stay in touch <3 - Harshita Gupta

Bhandi Parekh. Smartest guy in the entire batch. Thanks for increasing RK ka average IQ level. Last me tereko nachte dekh ke saal ban gaya. Next level trip planner and friend. Jaldi se koi Quant phod de! - Soveet Kumar Nayak

Fellow Gujju bhai... You are one of the most technically gifted people I've come across on campus and you have so much clarity on so many concepts that every time you explain something to me, I understand it. We have made some amazing memories together in college and hopefully, we make more in Sth year. Your sense of humour is also something I like and you always manage to make me smile whenever we talk. Wish you all the best with your future plans. - Aum Alok Khatlawala

Laziest person I have met in my life. Dimaag ke saath saath effort bhi daalne lag gaya toh Einstein ko bhi peeche chor dega. Banda apne logical arguments se kisiko bhi pel sakta hai 🙏. Thoda extroverted hoja please. JC waale bhaiya se bhi khud baat nahi karta. Thanks for making these 4 years' worth it! Also, you seriously need to sober up (Gaadi side mein rukwake kaun fukta hai) :p - Tanmay Goyal

Given your social media presence and activity, I doubt ye album kabhi padhne waala hai tu. Over the years of college, you've been one of the most reliable and smartest people I've come across, kab seedhe saadhe jain dev manus se bhandi parekh ban gaya patha hee ni chala, but glad I got to spend so much amazing time with you travelling or doing random fucking bakchodi or playing the most random video games. Every last minute plan to any random place made core college memories man. P.S. funny hone waala competition toh mat de pls, lemme have that one in RK ;-; - Hariharan Kalimuthu

123 for life. Bhai kitna kuch kiya hai saath mein. Crazy amount of ability aur talent hai tereme and you know it too. Teri 123 mein anime parties with mittal aur mihir ne bohot disturb kiya hai mujhe but those are fond memories now. Ek baar ke liye to mein bhi AOT se thoda hook ho gaya tha. Pehle to bas chess aur sting pe bhand raha karta tha but ab to alag uchaiyaan chu li hai tune. Biggest bhandi of the group Bhandi Parekh. Joint jalte hi pohoch jaata hai ab to. Bohot succesful hoga life mein ye to pata hi hai mujhe bas koi kuch bol raha ho to chess ko side mein kar diya kar😉 - Shreyas Revankar

Bhaiii, loved the very many conversations I had with you about various stuff. Some of it was silly, a lot were intellectual, and all of them enjoyable <3 . Also enjoyed watching anime with you and the others. Really loved the discussions about plot points etc. It was a blast. Also you helped me a lot with my academics also, lub again <3 . I was kinda completely in the dark about programming and its enjoyable intricacies, and your enthusiasm rubbed off on me big time. Let's stay in touch even after our Sth year (assuming we both graduate lmao) <3 - Mulukutla Krishna Praneet

Hello Vedant, Bhai tu toh mughe sabse zyada passionate banda lagta hai college me, course top karta hai bas maze me. Hamesha sabki help bhi karta rehta and still what at fucking party animal youre. Itni parties ki hai tere saath and samesha itna enthusiastic rehta hai and poore party me vibe add karta hai. Tere saath dono goa trips toh peak college memory hai meri. Love you brdr, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

I am Happy to have met you and shared my hostel and college life with you. Enjoyed learning chess from you. Wish you lot of luck and success. Let us keep in touch. - Miryala Narayana Reddy

Rate everyone on a 1. how nerdy they are 2. how fun they are 3. how smart they are now sort this list from top to bottom and there sitting at numberm 1, you will find vedant. Vedant is the coolest nerd, a master procrastinator, man with top notch dad jokes and the man who makes the best plans for your trip. The dude got the highest scores in Advanced Algo and POIS in the same semester and, at the same time, screwed up his Research grades like never before. Boss has all priorities set, and boss is always #1 at what he does. - Naimeesh Narayan Tiwari smart but lazy. works great under pressure but doesnt work without XD. pata ni kuch toh sochte rehta hai harr samay. teri kuch skills toh bohot hi impressive hai- like you understand concepts p quickly and can remember them sm better than me. AA toh kass hi diya bhai tune. i wish we can stay in touch w you; kaafi fun + insightful hote hai some of our convos abt shit that dont matter. but boy are you a bad texter. chal dekhte hai jaise bhi hota hai. start up kholte hai aaj se 5 saal mei. hope future mei tere itne carbon emissions ho ki koi tera bhi private jet tracker banaye. - Mihir Rawat"

First day on campus :
Lockdown tha but finally I could meet the friends that I met online and I was very relieving and happy.

Favourite campus memory :
Winning medals on Sports Day. I discovered that day that I could run fast.

One thing you will miss the most :
Sports

Best thing you learned from here :
No matter what, time heals everything. Humans make mistakes and learn from them. A human cannot do everything, we have to prioritize things. Many people come and go but the real ones stay when you are the your weakest. You should manage your time well.

Favourite place in campus :
Basketball Court

Biggest Change since your first year :
I have become strong and matured.

Venix really do be the stupidest person on campus to the point where I wonder how the hell you made it here. Despite ur crippling retardedness, or maybe because of it, you're one of the most outgoing people on campus. You always make an effort to go up to people and engage with them which I think is a good quality. By always bringing ur iconic laughter to every conversation, you're able cheer up those you talk to instantly just by your presence. The epitome of extrovertedness, Venix ma'am is the standard by which all sociality is measured. I am proud to say that I tolerated you in my college career. - Joel Thyparampil Alex I've known you since the online sem and it's been amazing talking to you about the randomest of topics xD. I will remember all those moments. I wish you the best for your future! Let's stay in touch! - Gaurav Singh

Sports woman. I'll miss teasing you randomly when we used to meet. You are a VERY interesting person and a very sweet one and I am very glad we became friends. You make it very easy to be funny around you and thats awesome. Stay vibey didi and stay in touch! - Srijan Chakraborty

Basketball..Marathons..Workouts... , name them and you can nail them ! I hope you will continue to keep that up along with a lot more, and just like you always do, Aim high ! All the best!! - Rahul Mallavarapu

The most stupid person that I've had the displeasure of knowing on campus xD. Also the most retarded lol. Jokes aside, you're a very hard working and dedicated person. All the countless hours and nights you've spent on organising E-cell stuff is truly amazing and something you should be proud of. Enjoyed spending time with you as well. Obviously, I Particularly remember the scootie ride around Hyderabad and how you're so shit at navigation. You also shoulder a huge sense of responsibility towards your mother, and you're an amazing daughter for it. I'm sure your mom is happy to have such a caring and thoughtful daughter like you. To my bad luck, we're also gonna be working for the same company now lmao. Looking forward to seeing your annoying face over there. Wishing you the best of luck with everything ! - Siddharth Ashwinkumar Mavani

Helllooo dumbo!!! Hate to admit it aloud but you are one of the best people I have met in my life. I don't know from where you get all of your energy and curiosity but please keep that attitude throughout. I still miss our spotify session late night and from gossiping about classmates to judging people based on their profile pictures 😂. Online session wouldnt have been that much fun if that were you. For whatever reason we were not able to catch up as much, I wish we make up for that now. Always keep in touch. - Hardik Gupta

How are you always so louuddd. I will always cherish the moments we spent on campus and hope there's many more to come. Just try not to scream so much xD. I wish you nothing but the best whatever you're doing in life. Good luck and thank you for everything. - Rohan Chowdary V Modepalle

I still remember our first prom it was fun actually good and you will forever be the first prom date I went on. Kaafi maza kiya tha mene I still remember and the way you made me comfortable in Telugu gang was legit so good that FG ground night bhut maza aya tha sachme. Be in touch. - Mayank Bhardwaj

The most talkative person I have ever met in my life! You are one of those social butterflies who loves to socialize, hang out randomly anywhere, party, go for clubbing and what not. You are never afraid to express yourself in any situation which I greatly admire and hope to get the confidence to do it myself one day. I got to know many things from you like how to handle social situations, how not to overthink, how to talk xD and many more. Hanging out with you was always fun and enjoyable. Sometimes you used to make fun of yourself by saying some out of the world stupid shit lmao. I wish you achieve great heights in your career and live a successful life. Hope to see you again soon. - Ayush Agrawal

The superwoman of E-Cell. Today that I look back, it was an awesome one. Truly grateful to have met such a genuine and caring soul honestly. I still remember you putting me to sleep and asking me to eat in Megathon'22 and Megathon'23. And it's completely E-Cell which got us super close. I would have never done what I did in that organization without your support. Stay happy and let's stay in touch. All the best. - Akshit Gureja DUMBASS!! I don't think we started talking until very late, but when we did we sure did become close very quickly. You have the same extroverted energy a lot of us share, so it was pretty easy to bond with you. Keep your ambitious self alive, and I'm sure you're going to do great things coming forward, looking forward to meeting you and bullying the hell out of you every time we do :) - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri I'll cherish the long late-night walks with you ranting about college stuff. Very sweet person and a great listener. Thanks for the cookies :)) Will need many more tho :D - Pramod Rao Budramane

Hey Venika!! Playing football together was an absolute blast! I really wish we could have met earlier, but I'm hopeful we'll make up for lost time someday <3 - Garapati Sreya

Met this woman earlier but E-Cell brought us closer. From there we have worked so much together and we cared for each other so much that everything had a perfect ending. I believe its rare to find that caring partners and I feel lucky to have had that balance with you. We have shared a lot of memories, and those will be some of the core ones that I will take away from this college life. Thanks for everything cutie, keep being you and keep rocking girl! - Gokul Praneetha

Fr, even if nothing good came out of IRE, we atleast bonded over our mutual hate of Rahul xD. It was some good times. That one class where he took the viva tops my list of absurd classes in college💀💀💀 - Adith John Rajeev

My MONKEYYY, I have never seen a more focused yet lost person in this world. You are one of the most charming humans out there with your sunball energy, and it's been my pleasure to share the last 4 years with you. Right from those discord days when we used to tease you to traveling hyderabad (we dont talk about north east here :D) on your smartass scooty, the things I will remember the most would be just existing with you for no reason, just being there for each other through the good and sad times, talking about all the bad decisions we made over the years. I love you a lot! Stay in touch and all the best for your startup <3 I am pretty sure I am going to see you in some Forbes Top30 list or something. You deserve it all <3 Take care, byeeee (check whatsapp for a cat sticker). - Freyam Mehta mean girls for the win hehe. should've played football more when we had the chance :(- Srujana Vanka

Dear Venia, I still remember the first time we met. It was in BBC when Joel introduced you and soon later you tagged along with us to DLF to that pizza place, who knew I'd be stuck with those annoying degenerate jokes and monstrous laughter for the rest of my college life. But I am so glad it happened and we have made so many memories since then. From the sleep-highs and dinners to scamming CV project and sleeping through Megathon xD, I've always enjoyed ur company (in spite of the brain damage I incurred phew). Special shoutout to my football coaching and the mixed rally we won (it was all me haha), never did I expect you'd run fast with that 5"" 2.5' midget height. You're easily one of the nicest and most caring people I've met. I really admire your work ethic and dedication towards anything you set ur mind towards. And gotta admit you are crazy smart (by crazy I mean the retardation). Don't ever lose out on ur ever cheerful self. Not even gonna start on how much you've helped me. Thank you for everything! - Ankithvarun J

Shruthiiiii!!!! I'll never forget that day we went to ikea in search of a gift for my friend. From roaming all aroung gachibowli looking for a photo frame to discovering we were classmates in UKG to finding out class-photos and discovering that even our moms were friends to going on the 5k run. Too many memories with you to forget. Thank you for them all. Always remain in touch!! - Aditya Kondai

Hie Venika! <3 You such a sweet, warm and cute person. Your hugs are so warm <3. It was always a delight talking to you <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

Though we became friends quite late in college, you quickly became one of my closest friends. Your constant smile and energy are endearing. It's amazing to see how you strike up conversations with strangers so easily lol, wish I could do that. I admire your enthusiasm and focus on fitness, especially the way you used to go and play basketball and go running on the same day like crazy. I have no idea where you got that strength, but damn! Now that we are apartment mates, I am glad that we are close to each other and we can meet each other frequently, at least until you go to Bangalore. Hope you always keep smiling and pushing through all the ordeals that life throws at you with the same perseverance that you do now. All the best for your future endeavours! - Swetha Vipparla

"I still remember how, when we first met, you mistook me for someone else. It has been an enjoyable and wild time being a brother to you and handling the dumb but engaging scenarios you get yourself into xP. You have been fun to hang out with, talk to and troll. I am proud of how seriously you committed to getting healthier. I wish you the very best for trying to get back at me for all the insults I have given you, even tho you never would be able to :) (If it hadn't been for Cotton-Eye Joe. I'd been married long time ago, Where did you come from, where did you go?. Where did you come from, Cotton-Eye Joe?) - Harshit Gupta

Vikram, your insightful thoughts and the rare smile that pops out from under the serious exterior made you an easygoing but thoughtful and considerate friend. Wishing you all the best - Aditya Harikrish

Hiee Vikram! It was always a delight talking to such a cute and warm person <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

A very serious and studious person. I was always envious of your determination and dedication in regards to academics, I could have definitely learnt that from you. The one person who was always open to any plans we made, even though I am sure you had plenty of other work that you had to do, I am really thankful for that open mindset you had, it really shows that you were very good at planning and time management for personal things. Also you were generally very quiet and mainly only spoke when needed to instead of spouting random stuff like I usually do, I definitely should learn to be more calm like you. All in all, I hope we can stay in touch even after college and maybe we can meet up in the US an year down the line once we both get there. Good luck in your future endeavors. - Aakash Terala

Viks you are such a calm and relaxed person. I have never seen you get angry about anything in the last 3 years which is honestly very impressive. I genuinely don't understand how you are good at everything sports, studies, games, etc. I love how you are always ready to join us on any plans we make it was good to see someone who was ready to do anything even when you were busy. I will genuinely miss those game nights those were really fun. I like how over the last few semesters you started to express yourself. Thanks for helping me whenever I needed it you were always the first one I would approach if I had a doubt in anything and I always learnt something new from you when you cleared those doubts. I really admire your patience and your brilliance. Thanks for being such a good friend and all the best for your future. - Likhith Asapu

Vikram is perennia ly winning in every aspect of life. The da vinci of roommates, thanks for helping negotiate the period around our arrival to campus, and almost fixing my sleep schedule. The most level headed and coolest man on the deccan plateau, vikram has attained nirvana. Appreciate how you're always ready to selflessly help out anyone, with anything. Any science course I pass is testament to your teaching skills. Great taste in posh restaurants and high iq movies. Wishing you all the best for your upcoming international adventures - hope you remember us once you succeed biden. - Nitin Rajasekar

You are the template of a model student at IIITH. Your passion for knowledge and your affinity towards learning are very evident when speaking with you about anything. You have an extremely calm personality (I am choosing to ignore that breakdown you had with your BTP presentation slot scheduling) and that's something I really admire in you. You also quickly pick up new challenges and are pretty decent with a game controller. Thank you for being great company and a beacon of sanity (and levelheadedness, if that word exists) in the gang. - Sudha Tanay Doddi

Takes Math courses for fun. Bond Pro Max !!! (Dean's list awardee in a sem with only math courses). Not a Smoooooth Operator in FI tho. He's got a heart of gold... and a spine made of jelly. They should bottle his niceness and sell it as a superpower potion. We could all use some. Toughen up, buddy !!! - Rahothvarman P

Hey Anan, You know how I didn't want to be roommates, but I ended up being your roommate. I have always felt like you are that far away friend to whom I can always go and ask for help, I remeber you came running to help me when I died in the drying area, thankyou sooo much. THanks for always putting oil to my hair, tieing it, carrying me in ESW. Thankyou so muchh. You are a very sweet and kind person. Bhul matt jaana mujhe - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

I first met Anantha at Kadamb. She gave me bond vibes during those days. Thanks for the help you did in the music course. I pasted everything that you taught me and got average marks in the exam.😋 It was very nice spending time with you, having fun at DreamValley, chatting with you in the mess, doing assignments and playing badminton. A very Goood Bye and Best Wishes for your life. - Karthik Prasanna N what should I say about you ra. Before I met you , I got to know you as a person who always does her best when someone approaches for help. Later, after travelling with you, I found out it was true. Enjoy your life ra, epudu ila ne comedy chesthu undu. Take care. - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

Hii ra. Firstly thanks ra naaku testimonial raasinanduku. And yup. I am usually very away from people but I have felt really close to you during the time we spent together. Ala genuine ga okaritho free ga matlade feeling chaala rare anipistadi naaku. Even if you are among so many people, none of them really matters to us sometimes. But you will always be speacial and memorable part of my college life ra. Visa kosam someone who can testify for you annapudu first nuvve gurtochav. Even when there were people who I have spent years more than the time I have spent with you. I am usually very bad at expressing myself, and might be one of the reasons why I don't have many friends. But the ones I have are very important to me. And you are one of them. So let's keep in touch ra. Future lo if you need me for something, then don't hesitate in contacting me ra. Even if it's just for talking. Love you and Thank you so much for being a beautiful memory of IIITH. All the best :))) - Kurukunda Bhargavi

Anan, finally naaku ippudu teerekadorikindi ra neeku testimonial rayadaniki LOL. Okay jokes apart, Undoubtedly you made me feel how true friendship is meant to be. What to say anan, you are side of me when i am sad, dull, happy and what not. Time unte chalu "pada bayatiki podham?" bore kodithe chalu "em movie chudham?". Last ki "vaddu vellipoku edola undi" ane varaku techavu. Nothing left to say rather than requesting not to leave me ra. Support me whenever i need you LOL (ela evaru adagaru emo kada, ayina parledhu nuvve kada). Assalu neeku gurthundo ledho we used to be not together in the first year and half of the second year. Em ayyindo telidhu kani third and fourth is filled with you only. Especially foruth year. Lets now welcome overselves to the new world where we should start with pondi mowa marchipoku (shorts ready chesukunta). Take care MISS YOU and LOVE YOU - Merugu Nanditha

Hey waffle, you may think it is exaggerating but no. Once upon a time I had a wish of having a bestie with some characteristics, you have exactly the same, except height. To be honest I am very glad to have you as my best friend. I don't remember exactly our early days. But our last after 3-2 i remember everything and will be cherished with those. You are the one who can support me at any time without hesitation. I feel very emotional for leaving you. Don't be sad in any case, I will be there for you in any situation, don't forget me while you make your new friends. Be happy and enjoy your life. - Challa Tharun

Anantha, I can talk to you about anything and never get bored. You have a characteristic way of calling others and speaking that I like. You are so determined for placements compared to anyone else. I've seen how you have control over yourself to achieve your goals; that's a great quality. You are a social media enthusiast, but please don't post my photos online. One situation I'll remember forever is when you called me after getting placed and before going to Rayalaseema Buffet to ask if I was coming, and you would have stopped if you knew earlier that I wasn't coming. That really touched my heart. You are a true friend. I appreciate how you stand up for yourself and raise your voice when necessary; this is again a great quality. I wish you a great future and hope you achieve all your goals. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Hey Yahswanth!!! From staying an entire semester in your room, to going to basketball practices to slowly shifting to gym and then the entire of december in which we stayed in Akash's room for the placements all day and worrying about whether we'll even get a job to the random discussions we have late into the night to going to uncle's shop after a meal just because, to going to telugu movies you recommended just to regret watching them to watching random telugu movies at night on laptop in room to the SK races we had to going cycling to lotus pond, to completing assignments on the last day possible, to me copying entire computer graphics assignments from you and only changing the background sound to you telling me you got your job in the gym to you disappearing late nights to talk to girls and me waiting for you to come back to room so that I can talk to going to biryani on sunday, wednesday to going to DLF late nights and walking all around campus. I wish we could repeat these 3 years all over again man!!! - Aditya Kondai

You can differentiate good and bad with that. I think I made you feel uncomfortable many times. Thanks for bearing me all this time. It is because of you, I got to be part of this wonderful group which was the first time for me in my life. If I could experience anything on this campus other than studies, it is because of you. She is that person who cant say no, when you ask her something. She has very good analysing skills and memory power. She remembers what professors taught long before also. She is literally multitalented and notably she recognizes almost every face in the campus, while I cant even recognize some of my batchmates. When I first came to campus after lockdown, I stayed in her room than mine. I think I got good grade in Science because of her. And before every HS course exam, she is the one who explains and saves me. We used to eat at canteen after every deadline in the midnight and she always eats maggie and we had several movie nights. She is very good at heart and always has a smile on her face. I wish her to always keep smiling and I wish all the best for her future. - Mandyam Brunda

Hi Rupa, an introvert in the whole college. But you have a good heart too. You are one of the closest friends I have. Your talent for guessing any song within seconds is awesome, that's why you are the dumb Charades queen. I forgot to mention you are also talented at studying (tomperr). Even though we burn out with the assignments, exams, and stuff, the time we spend having fun makes me forget everything and helps me remain happy. I will always cherish all the moments and memories we shared. I am very grateful to have a friend like you. I hope you achieve whatever you want in your life. Take care. - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

I love you a lot. You were my backbone. I wouldn't be here without you. My shy little girl is so good I could never find a better person. She sings a lot but never to strangers. Her voice like her soul is very pure. I was and am lucky to meet her. This little girl just hides her feelings a lot. She would be the definition of a good person. She has a lot to achieve in her lifetime I vouch for that. Her dedication is crazy. She works hard, very hard. Her dreams are life. Her smile a magic. She never says it but she is a very strong feminist. Did I tell you about her love for movies. Name something she would have already watched it! She was my storyteller, singer and best friend. I will miss you rupss. She is my source of knowledge, information and life. So many events, she'd always volunteer to come with me. She loves her school. She doesn't like to eat non-vegetarian and so became the only partner who would share my food. I will always hope the best for you. PS she doesnt like pda like these especially :heart: - Dhulipati Lakshmi Girija bhediya bro- bhai thora kuch khel liya kar kab tak saare game harega... or bhai thora pet saaf rakha kar jaha bhi jao tere ko hagna hota hai 😂😂. Our time together has been a blend of fun, friendship, and unforgettable experiences. Thank you for being such a great friend and standing by me through thick and thin. Your friendship means the world to me, and I am grateful for every moment we've shared. - [abhinav] - Abhinav Anand

Bumble par match aayega to call krega, data par jaana hoga to lines puch ke jaayega. Kapde kya dalne, message kya krna, impress kaise krna hai or kya nai. Sale placements aagye hai pdhna chalu krde. But he is such a nice guy, always smiling which makes anyone so comfortable with him. Iss ke sath baith ke koi bhi open ho jaayega boht jldi, he is so friendly. Or iska ki bhai aaj se gym chalu or fir uss time par soya hona. I hope tujhe teri bndi mil jaaye jldi.Take care buddy, milte hai abhi bss. - Priyansh Khunger

"Sells Valorant harder than Riot themselves. Sorry bro, I suck at that game, no matter how much I try XD. Genuinely though, you have been one of the most down to earth people I have met in this college. Was very fun interacting with you man and enjoyed every moment together. Chahe woh classes ya exam ke discussions, ya tere rage filled gaming sessions. Good luck in your life man and stay connected! - Rahul Garg

Bhed ki khal mein bhedia hai tu bhai. Per sach bolun to insan ki khal mein cutie hai tu. Bhai bhot kam log dheke hain jo dil ke itte saaf hai. Bhai kaffi acha aadmi hai tu aur ache logon ke sath hamesha acha hi hota hai. Dhek tujhe nimmi mil gayi. Aise hi acha bana reh cutie. Bhai tu to ho jayega S saal mein pass mera pata nahi. Bhagwan kare tere kayeen IPO lagen, tu player ban jaye aur thodi bohot (but mere se kam) body bhi ban jaye. All the best beti. - Pradhuman Tiwari

Main sochta tha ki poore college mai hi ek momma's boy rahoonga pr ye banda alag level tha. Bhale har game bottom frag krega still he was the first one to call everyone together to play, as a reward iske gameplay sbne kaafi gaaliyon se appreciate kia hai. Manna padega is bande ne poore grp ko trading ki lat lagayi hai, sbke paise dubaye hai isne, ek ka toh career hi khatm kr dia (tomar). Maha kanjoos, pr zaroorat padne par help krne me sbse aage. Love you brother, wish you a great life ahead. Tu hi ek jisne apne grp me sb kuch try kr lia college life, pr kuch bhi ho jaye mai sanam concert nhi bhoolonga. - Rishabh Srivastava

kar paaya hu !!! But don't worry bro ek din andhi power, andha paisa wali line sach karke dikhayege. We had so much fun together, aaj bhi yaad hai goa trip, trampoline garden, wonderlaa aur pata kaha kaha ghum chuka hai hum log ek. Goa toh epic memory hai, phir se chalenge bhai. all the very best for future, haa haa bro don't worry business ke waqt invite kar duga tujhe bhi. : Vaibhav Singh Tomar - Vaibhav Singh Tomar

Hi bro, kitna loss kiya aaj? Guy who is so fascinated with trading but always end up in loss (kuch bhi krle bro, even pro membership tujhe profit nhi kra paayi). Guy who apply to all IPOs aur khud ke account se kabhi nhi lgta. Sabse bada profit mere account se kiya aur uska bhi share nhi diya tu ne. Din-raat valo khelta hai aur gaaliya deta rhta (so please don't ever be his roomate xD). Always ready for party and going outside. One of the most extrovert banda of our group. Abhi bhi bumble me bandi dhundh rha (dw bro, u will find one day). Ye insaan proove krne me lga hai ki bombay local is better means of transport, ab toh ye rhne de bro. Har jagah paise bachane me expert banda. Baniya by his actions. Always say that he will come to gym from tomorrow but never wakeup for that. Yug is only his pet name, full name is Yugandhar. We always hangout in each others room, gonna miss this. - Mayank Shukla

You were the first to respond when I announced in discord that I needed a team for the Valorant tournament. I remember holding back my disappointment reminding myself that you were playing on 20 fps. Crazy how we still won the tournamnet btw, still Valo Champs on discord xd 😎. I was happy when you got yourself a new laptop, only to find out your gameplay remained the same 💀. Thankfully, you are a better friend than you are a teammate. I could count on you for bringing me food from jc when I was sick, and of course, correcting my hindi, which is almost as bad as your Raze satchels. Let's meet up when I come back to Hyderabad. All the best! - Abhay A Patil

A great friend, a Valo player, up for any event (except the one time when you were hungover and sleeping over at some Vallo friends). True businessmen and always making (or losing) $ in stocks. Great fun hanging out. Our group did many activities together from trampoline (x2), movies, Punjabi affairs, etc. Cheers to the memories we made and to the many more to come. - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar best roommate fr + valo buddy. Sometimes annoying behavior but I'll miss u. also double standards for not eating chicken but drinking ;_; didnt realise how fun it was in double shared room until I had to live in a single room :/ hopefully we can meet in bangalore or something - Polakampalli Sai Namrath

Great friend. Don't drink too much 😉. Look after your parents and family. It was really fun playing valo and hanging out with you. - Tallapragada Sai Venu Gopal

Yug or yugandu as we call him we had the best moments of our college lives playing valo together. Raze main jo satchel nhi kar sakta but one of the best aims I have seen(aim-god).We have been together in all the losses and profits in our trading career, but agar yug koi stock le toh uska girna paaka hai. Thanks mujhe stock market me entry dilane ke liye. We had fun playing various sports, especially pool and tennis, kya tukke jaate tere bhai. Don't go telling everyone about the chat I had in Goa with the Girl and her friend. Also don't graduate before me. - Rishabh Ravindra Jain

First day on campus :
My first day on campus was fun before it started, as I met a friend and we made an impromptu bowling plan with some others. I did have to quarantine as soon as I entered, but we were quick to make online groups and make the most of whatever we had.

Favourite campus memory :
My favourite campus memory would be of having meals with my friends on campus, or walking at night on the beautiful roads. I especially remember how the campus was decorated for Diwali, which made my first Diwali away from home a little more homely.

One thing you will miss the most :
I will definitely miss having my friends around me the most. Being able to walk to anybody's room at any time, or having late night conversations during long, unplanned walks. College has truly been worthy of being recalled as my "good ol' days"

Best thing you learned from here :
The best thing I've learnt from here is that we're all truly capable of facing any challenge and any situation. It doesn't matter if you're familiar with it, or have been unsuccessful with it before. With the right mindset, enough effort, good friends and a bit of luck, you can achieve anything.

Favourite place in campus :
My favourite place on campus are definitely the roads. I've spent so many beautiful nights walking on them, and so many mornings running on them to lectures. A special mention goes out to the rooms of my friends, that have always been like a second home to me

Biggest Change since your first year :
College has been a truly humbling experience. With so many talented people around me, I have realised that you cannot judge a book by its cover, and every person has

You know, I think you were one of the first people in campus who I managed to have a long conversation with. It doesn't sound like much, but I'm glad that it was you. You are probably one of the most easygoing and relaxed people I have met, maybe due to the fact that you always have everything sorted. And that easygoing nature, its infectious, and relaxing. Please stay the same and stay in touch. Wishing you the best! - Chinmay Ram Deshpande Jatin, it's a privilege to have been right next to you for so many of the steps of this college journey, big and small. From running behind stages to keep events from falling apart, to (almost) having our ISMIR submission together under the coolest advisor ever, we've always been growing and learning together, and we'll keep doing it so much more! I adore the little random commonalities with school life, mutual friends just as much as the big moments realizing we're good at doing cool things together, be it making music or memories. And kya pata, maybe we'll somehow make it as roommates in this life, but either way there's always the next one for that! ;) - Pratyaksh Gautam

JATINN i cant tell you how grateful I am for teaching me cooking, making me travel, haggling for groceries, and everything else. thanks for being there for me always, and looking forward to many more good times <3 - Abhinav S Menon

You've been one of my biggest supporters, through good and bad times. Thanks for caring so much and making all the little moments count. I'll always be there to listen to all your stories no matter how many random tangents you take XD. You can count on me. And thanks for always walking that one more round:) - Poorva Ravindra Pisal

Agarwala with an a. My beautiful Fireflies-loving pianist and labmate. I think our best memories must be practising for Ants/Seizure. It's almost ridiculous to think how good the chemistry is within that band, and it's genuinely fun performing with you. Wishing you the best for whatever comes in your way, never lose that dry humour of yours! - Gogate Atharva Sunil Jatinnnnnn. Hi. Thanks for being there for me and always checking in on me. Know that I will always be there for you too. You're such a caring and fun person. You've always loved adventure, so I hope you're life is always full of it :) - Sneha Raghava Raju" You're the guy who always knows what needs to be done and exactly how to do it. Maybe it wouldn't have rained on our felicity ;) - Shashwat Singh

Ada pada kaun pada kisme taakat sabse zyada?

God we should have a watch party for all the pogo movies :) Hoping you'll achieve everything you've wanted to, and good luck! - L Lakshmanan Jatinn, making plans with you has always always been so fun! Love your enthusiasm for everything we do :)) Have a wonderful last year and I'll see you soonn - Ananya Sane hiiiiiii jedinnnnnnn :D was damn fun suffering through acads with you, late night collab sesh goes hard. ur like smart and talented and nice and shi so dont change ig or whatever hehe and thanks for laughing at my jokes sometimes :D - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

Was great knowing you in the Discord era, was awesome having you proof-read a 2000-word ""F-you"" XD, and all the interactions I've had with you have been genuinely great. Have always admired how organized, collected, level-headed, humble and nice you are. Will always cherish you for this, and for iChad :) Stay awesome, and keep that smile on! - Vanshpreet Singh Kohli

You are the true definition of a bond. What amazing memories we made : struggling to build a kids robot kit in ESW, to the time we pulled off organising the biggest meltdown ever. We have been team-mates, band-mates, but most importantly, friends. Hope to keep in touch for many years ! - Anirudh Govil
I can't believe I put up with you for an entire year in a room. I really enjoyed it when we cleaned the room and put up the lights together during Diwali. I hope we had hit you harder when you pulled the stolen phone prank. Thank you for being an incredibly practical and rational APEX member. - Harshit Gupta

Jatin sir! I think we were the best music club coordinators as a team :)). You're one of the smartest and nicest people I've ever met. Lets keep jamming and performing at more gigs!! All the best for your future! - Gaurav Singh

Some of the best, most interesting conversation I've had on campus is with you. maybe you should teach me keyboard next :p And D&D next sem bro, we're here for another year xD - George Paul jitna kassi utna hi friendly! Born musician and a friend who's taught me a lot. Famous hone ke baad mujhe bhool mat jana xD - Yash Mehan

Haha literally college started with the three of us video calling and sending the most unhinged reels to each other, good old days to look back to man, its been a wild run since then eh xD. Glad we're always one AoE2 phone call away from each other for life :) - Hariharan Kalimuthu

Damn, we really got to grab dinner together! Prolly gonna have to send a calendar invite xD It's been amazing knowing your dps rp head boy ass. Jo bhi kaho you have been a true kassi but always saved my dumbass. Dumb offensive jokes maarna online was really fun. You go be Ameer with quant moniii – Shivangi Agarwal

A wise man in apex never hurts, kaafi positives mile the tere aane se, really glad that i got to know you through apex, you always brought it serious pov and to the point thoughts to the table jis se it was really easy to talk to you, and you are a very good person, bond to hai hi, but you know what you are doing which is very good, stay same, all the best for future aur stay in touch. - Nikhil Agrawal

Had a lot of fun with you in the online sem, best guy to cross check assignments with. We definitely should've hung out more offline as well but luckily we have another year (yay?), we'll go to NIFT again XD. Best of luck for research and the future, I'm 200% sure you'll do really awesome. - Anirudh Kaushik

i will miss having breakfast with you whilst we're both getting late for TUAS lmaooo. every convo that i've had with you, has always left me thinking that you're such a sweet and nice person. wish you all the very best for the future brother, and stay in touch :) – Pranjal Thapliyal

all the memories from house events to apex work are very close to my heart! No one could do what you did in Octave for Aakash, heavyyy carry. I've always felt so so lucky to have you as a member in Aakash house and Apex. You're a very hard working and smart person and an inspiration to me. All the best for all your future endeavours and you the stay the same too! - Shreeya Singh

Jatin mowaaaa....I really wanted to talk to you many times but maybe because of us being in completely different groups made it difficult. But in the end, at least we spoke in the apex dinner and I'll definitely cherish all those moments. I was very happy that I got a really good company in our Apex dinner. We should keep in touch and I hope we will.❤️ - Vuddagiri Neeladri Murali Sumanth

Ayyyy Jatin, I too remember that day we went bowling the day right before we joined campus. I knew none of yall there very well but like you were like the newest person for me there (on discord for some reason you seemed intimidating to talk too XD, totally not like irl). Totally flipped the vibe after that and well we haven't talked that much but the convos we had were fun and nice (you're the more talkative one tho :P). Here's to many more in the upcoming years! – Amal Sunny

Hiiii Lmao I remember in online sem, how u told me the logo looked way too much like the band's xD. Also our cluster was the best cluster. Good times we had back in that induction week xD - Adith John Rajeev

Issi semester yeh dosti bani hai, par aasha hai lambi chalein. Accha sweet aadmi hai, isko aur jaanna chahiye. - Manav Chaudhary
Hey! I have always known you as a very hardworking and determined person. Was great knowing you and my parents had a nice time hosting you. All the best for your future! - Shubh Agarwal

Hiee Jatin! It was always a delight talking with such a sweet, talented, smart and warm person <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! - Anusha Nath Roy

HEyy Jatin Thanks for carrying me through DASS. Also you are damn good with the keys <3 - Pranali Sanjay Jagdale

First day on campus :
I remember riding on the back of the tempo from Main Gate to Bakul for Quarantine , First Day out of quarantine was amazing, I got to meet everyone I've been gossiping with since online sem in person, fir campus bhar ghoomke bakchodi kari unke saath.

Favourite campus memory :
Stealing Parijat Nivas sign from the signboard.

One thing you will miss the most :
All my friends, seniors ho, batchmates ho ya junior. I just couldn't imagine how my college life would be without you guys :)

Best thing you learned from here :
Jugaad! Observing people around you making the best out of whatever they have, and learning from them, not giving up even when they are hungover, sleep deprived or almost dead! BT hoti rahegi, par bakchodi nahi rukni chahea :)

Favourite place in campus :
4th Floor KCIS terrace next to cog sci lab. It is locked now, but that spot was the most peaceful place I went in campus.

Biggest Change since your first year :
Building confidence in myself, trusting the process, and a lot of patience.

Banimelon!! Need that haircare routine fr. Bro really speaks any language in existence. Definitely a very interesting guy and feels like having random convos with you will be fun. Do not lose your identity (mundu). Good luck brother and take care! :) - Tejah S S

I want to be his mundu - Amal Sunny Hii da, talking ghazals and Hindustani music with you was soo much fun. Let's meet in Blr soon!! P.S. HSR >>>>>>>>>> KRM okbye - Ananya Sane

BANJJJJJJJJ :D thanks for being my dictator at ping, my muse for memes and generally cooldood to chill with :D thanks for introducing me to qawwali! love the ultra specific obscure bits of knowledge you have, never change! - Pratyay Kedar Suvarnapathaki

If my malayalam were like yours then I would be yethartha apoopan xD talking to you is always a distilled delight, my dainty dost - George Paul

haskell is mid - Shashwat Singh

Come Bangalore sometime bro why you somewhere and all RT nagar it seems spaz vufflo; Wish I met you earlier but with our cringe choice of being KRM, only so much can be done <sigh> - L Lakshmanan

"How you manage to be the smartest of the CLD lot and still make the shittiest and stupidest jokes is beyond me. It's a paradox. But then again... Jeevitham thanne oru paradox alle. PS. I still want to be your mundu. 👍 - Adith John Rajeev

One of the most innocent-looking individuals on the campus. Always calm and composed, wearing his lungi (I was always trying to pull that ...). I wish I could have some spend quality time with you and others. Cheers to the memories we made and for many more to come (I will scoop in place of Pranjal :laugh). - Sukhjinder - Sukhjinder Kumar

Sire Bani, knower of many languages, beer of all friend groups, wearer of the mundu. Can't imagine how college life wouldve been without your initial days of campus tours, meeting a lot more non-mallu people, drinking chai at Bakul 124, and a lot more stuff. Thanks for the memories, and here's to the ones in the making :) P.S everybody wishes they were Bani's mundu🥵 - Abhijith A

The most humble and straightforward person, you're the guy the brings life into the room. We've been through so much together, and I want you to know that I'll be there for you, cause you're there for me too, always. - Jatin Agarwala

*tumhe dillagi kyu bhool jani padegi? mohabbat ki raah me dub chuke hain :p - Yash Mehan

*Hello bani, Very fortunate to know a wonderful person like you. Bhai you have the most genuine personality of anyone I have seen. Would miss seeing you in that mundu of yours. Also thanks for the infinite notes that you have uploaded on github. Keep writing, and mai bhi pakka padhunga. Love You, keep shining and smiling, Prayush - Prayush Rathore

*Best roomie <3 (2). Kindest sweetest roommate ever, also chai maker 😌. Teahub was fun, sure theres much more fun stuff ahead. - Vamshi Krishna Bonagiri

*unironically the most cultured individual i know (quite literally lmao, still remember all the religion lore drops xD). and you said it yourself, have ended up going on as much trips with you as i had with everyone else combined in my life until that point of time :). the way you've barreled straight into my life (quite literally and figuratively- banimissile :orz:) is low-key unbelievable, and i genuinely consider you to be one of my closest friends in college. shall forever remember the late night chai pe charcha sessions, and hopefully, we shall get to recreate them soon in the future as well :). and romcom bois shall live on for posterity, we have to make sure of that. take care brother, and stay in touch (especially during the fifth year (this is not a request but a threat btw :))). - Pranjal Thapliyal

*Bani! While your hair might have grown whereas your height didn't, you are a smol package of fun and adorableness. Doing the INCM course project was super-duper, even the video making. I still remember the number of memes and stickers we made exploiting you for content during the online days. Cheers to both of us for surviving a tough roommate situation at least once in these college years xP. - Harshit Gupta

*mi querido :)) i love that you have a set of tastes and stick to them (i think theyre all great btw). the best pun game in iiith and one of the best friends i have :) - Aneesh Chavan Samrat

*An incredibly sharp mind that is amused by very terrible puns (often his own), and a deep love for his friends rivalled by none. A connoisseur of fantastic music, literature, and art gathered from across space-time, and a man of many tongues, he's actually funnier than most of us would like to admit. I've seen him grow in so many ways (except his height), and I cherish his friendship. He will always play a part in some of my dearest memories of college life. - Pratyaksh Gautam

*Maybe the real testimonials, were the friends we made along the way. - Manav Chaudhary

Hello Shirisha, I have known you since the 10th class but don't know why I never felt like talking with you initially. It was unintentional, but though you were my IC teammate, all I ever did was assign work to you and the discussion never crossed that boundary. It was not until AIC when because of Deeksha I got closer to you. Even then I did not know you much. It was last summer in Swiss I feel when I was able to talk to you properly. Thanks a lot for listening to me and trying to change my perspective on whatever I perceive things as. For the first time, I was able to see how it feels to be when seen from the other side. I can say you and another friend of mine from Madras played an important role in this part of my life. Even today I am grateful to have a friend like you. I wish I could have spent more time with you guys and gotten closer with all of you people but I cannot do anything about it now other than just be happy that you were a part of my IIIT journey. Thanks a lot !!! - Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav

We danced together in akash for our freshers, and it gave me confidence that I could do it. Thought to meet you in the last but couldn't meet properly. You're such a genuine person. Online sems mai multiple teams to roomie in college. Kitni saari assignments and projects apan ne saath mai kiye the. I dont think I would've passed in may courses without you. Koi bhi cheez meticulously and dedication ke saath karta hai. Real party animal hai tu. Keep the spirits high and all the best for your future! - Siddh Jain

To the best and most protective brother <3, I absolutely love how you live life to the fullest, don't let anyone's opinions hold you back, and how incredibly smart and creative you are in everything you do! I had an amazing time hanging out with you—our campus walks talking about our lives, doing project and assignments together (I was always amazed by the ideas you come up with), and that unforgettable night when we decided to go clubbing at Novotel (was so funn XD). Gonna miss these moments so much! I really wish we could hang out more often. Will miss you a lot, please take care and stay in touch! - Anmoldeep Kaur Dhillon

Got bonded over the most random thing ever in Kadamb. From looking out for places where we could hang out together (always had trouble finding that), to studying smai in Srujana to getting drunk in boys washroom, we've had it all. You are the only one whom I can talk to about anything and everything, be it the most serious decisions or the most absurd things of all. Yaar kaha tha tu meri life mei isse pehele! Heer mere! Jigad daa tukda mere! (cringing over this, lol) PS: Our 'kaccha' would be our forever love. xD - Anjali Singh

Everyone will write about him being Kassi or NLP but the most fun part would be his football rages or disagreeing with him on any topic remotely related to Messi and then seeing him go batshit crazy over them :D. Also the biggest fugazi sports fan ever. - Devesh Marwah

I don't know if you remember or not but I joined such a hectic college solely because you were joining. That support all the way from school life and these 4 years in college has been incredible and I'm extremely grateful for that. Can't wait to see where life takes us next together. Keep smiling and all the best man. - Akshit Gureja

I owe you my graduation (jab bhi hoga). You're like the work friend everyone needs lmao and I'm so glad we became closer through the years. Most helpful person when it has to academics in a lot of ways, you're the real bond aadmi I needed in my life 💖 - Srijan Chakraborty

"Wassup bro. The coolest and calmest person. We first talked properly when we teamed up for DNA xd. Never worries too much about anything but yet kassies and achieves his goals. Atb for your research intern bro, hope you reach greater heights.. you have what it takes... Was always very supportive.. may it be in courses or in general.. It was during covid.I was kept in isolation in old paarijat and it was December 31st 2021. I could hear the loud DJ noises and see the colourful lights from football ground and wished I could have come to campus earlier so that I would be out by then and celebrate the new year with my friends.

My Inter friend!! you are very close to me even before the college started. You continued to be my online friend, sharing everything. Later, on my first day of college, you are the only face familiar to me. Time flied fast from there onwards. You always there for me whenever I need help or any advice. You supported me during my internship and placement drive. Placement drive is a very energy-draining process where I got to learn and enjoyed a lot of things with you. Always stay happy. I will miss you :) - Mudhireddy Nandini Reddy

*Smart, very lazy, active to go out, interesting. Where should I start ... First met in a Kadam (remember? with Rishabh Jain alongside ... when you used to live in E-smt on the ground floor and the rest of us were on 2nd floor), used to play chess (I still have just won once, will have to correct that! A game?), so many birthday parties between our group, went out to so many places (chowmalla palace, zoo, trampoline park, many restaurants, where else?), worked with Pawan (didn't end well but hey it was fun while we were there, well only we were there kinda), so many courses in common. Talking about Pawan :) how is it going? Still, friendzoned? It was always interesting (not fun, no really not fun) to hear about your "adventures". Though on a serious note, you were the only one on campus I could talk to about academics, the only person who thought like me. char limit up, tl;dr coin, chess puzzle, topology, Optimization. Cheers to all the memories we made and for all those to come. - Sukhjinder -* Sukhjinder Kumar

I first met bro when Yug invited me to join their Valo party. I remember Namrath thinking I'm gonna be super toxic, but was surprised to find out how chill I am. I miss the old valo days (not just because I used to be better xd). I'm not surprised you got such a good placement. Bro is super smart and can solve problems instantly. I remember because his leetcode skills were on par with my Omen outplays. We'll keep in touch bro. Keep tapping heads! - Abhay A Patil

First day on campus :
Oh I completely remember that moment, I was entering the campus and was so excited. I asked Vaibhav to come to main gate but the guard started scolding us. I liked the campus so much but at the same time felt, that the campus is so small. I was like ab yaha mazze krunga.

Favourite campus memory :
The best memory of the campus is the OCTAVE event of year 2023. The performance and how I was cheering up the crowd and the response of the crowd, that was the best feeling I have ever had.

One thing you will miss the most :
The one thing that I will miss the most will be bakchodi I used to do with my friends. People I used to sneak in the campus and so much more.

Life will keep on going. 4 saal kaise nikal gye pata he nai chla. Aage ki zindagi bhi bss nikalti jaayegi so start doing the stuff you actually want to do and don't wait for the right time.

Idk why but the first thing I remember when I think about you are the crazy Punjabi dinners and Maafia.That was one incredible night indeed. Bhai but truly you've been an incredible support all these years and one of the most genuine people to talk to on campus. Let's stay in touch man and all the best for your future. - Akshit Gureja

Bhai kabhi tujhe muh pe nahi bolunga per I have genuine respect for u and all u have achieved. U are one of my biggest motivation in life, tujhe dhek ke mein apne aap ko push karta hoon. Tera potential limitless hai aur tu aage chal ke boht ukhadega. All the best bhai. Tujhe wo har cheez mile jo tujhe chaiyhe and I know tu sab mehnat se hasil kar lega. All the best bhai!!! - Pradhuman Tiwari

Rich Rohan who always went to AMB and drank coke everyday has become like us by the end eating in Yuktahar mess. You were my first teammate after I got into this college. I am lucky to have you in that team. I always get amazed by how you come up with interesting solutions and hacks very quickly, though they are not perfect and needs some rework. I feel that, the initial part of anything is the hardest which you tackle very easily. I don't understand why you fear of failing a course in which you get at least A-. I feel that you create an illusion of grandeur for any project or work. If you can do some work perfectly, I think there is nothing in this world that can stop you. I have never seen you sleep till now. I always see you doing something. You always look for a plan-B which is very good and ideally what everyone should do. May you succeed in your life goals and achieve all your dreams. I would like to see the film you direct one day. - Venneti Sri Satya Vinay

Sambbbb. I know these testimonials are a pain, And pretty sure we both just left it till deadline (daily college) cuz thats how lazy we are :cry:. My best mate I have made in college. Literally been together our entire college and I love how we vibe to the exact same stuff. Theres like wayyyy tooo manyyy moments for me to even get started on so Ill just skip to the good parts (AJR ref :)). Started with our 24/7 discord chats and vcs to our IRL song guessing games and peak timepass sessions. Love how we made a complete fam (S_stack_ig, IKassi and 263.5). Thanks for making college such an amazing experience :)). PS You dont have to write, one of us had/have to, so I did it XDD. - Srikar Bhavesh Desu

Hello busy people, Hi Vidhi. It's been a long since I spoke with you. You were one of the very first people I met online and I still remember how bad of a feeling you had on South Indians. Despite that, we were able to form a good team for the Start-up Aid. More than for the Startup Aid, I loved spending time with you people. So lovely those days were. Now if I think of it those were some of the best days I had in my IIIT life. I really miss them a lot. We used to listen to music, work, and mostly talk about random stuff. I seriously feel bad that we parted ways in 2nd year after offline but I wish we still had the same closeness offline. Thankfulness is the only expression that I can show at this point where I am filled with the feeling that I could have spent more time together but the fact that IIIT life is completed. I don't know how happy I am for your presence in my IIIT journey. Thanks a lot, da! You can message me anytime you want to talk. - Jaishnav - Yarramaneni Jaishnav"

Hiee! You are so cute, bubbly and smart <3. Our random room discussions, our trip, the 20 question games we played are cherished memories <3. Keep smiling and wishing you all the best! <3 - Anusha Nath Roy

Vibe wala didi. Literally one of the most fun people I've met here. Stay the same before 💖 Ek aur trip chale? - Srijan Chakraborty

I always expected to make good friends in college, never knew I could get a sister as well. It was nice knowing you all these years. One of the hardest-working people I have ever known and one of the few who have positively impacted my life (I gotta start making better friends). I wish our lives cross paths again and we can keep in touch. P.S - Don't forget 25th anniversary me ""Mujhe problem nhi hai agar mere bache daru peeye"" - Hardik 2024 - Shreyansh Agarwal

Hello busy people, Hi Vidhi. It's been a long since I spoke with you. You were one of the very first people I met online and I still remember how bad of a feeling you had on South Indians. Despite that, we were able to form a good team for the Start-up Aid. More than for the Startup Aid, I loved spending time with you people. So lovely those days were. Now if I think of it those were some of the best days I had in my IIIT life. I really miss them a lot. We used to listen to music, work, and mostly talk about random stuff. I seriously feel bad that we parted ways in 2nd year after offline but I wish we still had the same closeness offline. Thankfulness is the only expression that I can show at this point where I am filled with the feeling that I could have spent more time together but the fact that IIIT life is completed.
