Message from Director

Hearty congratulations to the graduating students of 2019 as you embark on your chosen paths. It's a momentous occasion indeed not only for the graduating students and their families, but also for the extended IIITH family!

IIITH reached a significant milestone of completing 20 years last year and celebrations were attended by the founders as well as several well-wishers from industry, government and academia. We are both humbled as well as motivated by the support to take the institute to greater heights in the coming years. The past, present, and future students of the institute strengthen the institute through their own efforts and achievements. The brick and mortar the physical facilities transform into an academic institution only through the efforts of the faculty, students, and alumni.

I implore the newly alumni to go out and conquer the world in your own unique ways. While doing so, keep a little bit of IIIT-H in your hearts. Do connect back with the institute of tomorrow to help push it forward. Great institutions are built and maintained by its alumni. It has been our privilege to be a part of your journey of life. Wish you all the very best in your respective journeys.

Dr. P. J. Narayanan,
Director, IIIT-Hyderabad

"Bro, You were such a fine Co TA. loved taking the lab with you. You know a lot more than I do, but you never let me down, and gave sufficient space which was warming. Thank you. Krishna Chaitanya Pappu "

Mittal bro, tere mere beech mai kaafi common hai, politics, Delhi, wagers wagera. Tu acha Banda hai, aise hi rehna. Best wishes. namit sawhney

"Bhai tere chalte travel ke paintre pata chale. Ab toh savings bhi seekh gaya. Aur market ki latt bhi lag gayi.Uber mein jaa raha hoga. Naya CEO banke lautega pata hai. Animesh Das "

"Yo bro! You were one of the people I got along with most outside my immediate friend group. ICPC 2nd year was one hell of an experience. We didn't talk much towards the end but oh well. Good luck for everything man! I'm sure you'll do well. Rohan "

You were the first friend I made in college. Though things got bitter later but first year was awesome. You helped me come out of my shell and enjoy. We had some really good times together. Our's was a little "Byte Family". This family helped me get through my first time away from home. I hope we stay in touch and don't just remember each other 10 years later as, yeah I had a friend. Nikita Agarwal Best UG1 mentor :) Vivek Kaushal

"The guy who blindly trusts me. I don't know what special I have done to deserve that trust (apart from that night of the first week of May 2016). You are quite a hard worker and always an inspiration to me for your qualities of being straight to any matter, having clear priorities in life, having the dedication to close ones. Careerwise, I know you will go far ahead so a 'Best of Luck' for the sake of formality.

I am really happy to have a friend like you whom I can always tease and laugh with, no matter how less frequent our encounters are. Be happy and [lease please please shaadi me jarur bulana. Aur ab badi naukari mil gayi hai to thoda kha pike mota hona. Aisa skeleton dekhake hame taras aata hai. Chaitanya Patel "

Hey! You are a sincere and sweet person! Thank you for patiently helping me through OJ in first year :P ^_^ ! Keep achieving great heights! I wish all joy and success comes your way! Keep smiling! Kiranmayee

Bhai! You are such caring and supportive person ! Your dedication inspires people around you! Be the same Bhai! Srujana Peddinti

A very friendly person, we didn't have much of interaction but i always looked up to you, always looked like a person with a plan. Probably felt you have leadership skills, maybe because you raised your voice for issues that concerned you. All the very best for your future, hope our paths may

cross one day. kaushik

We didn't get to interact much in college but I am sure that is going to change soon. To all the fun and enjoyment that is in store for us in London :) Harshit Patni

The best wing mate & neighbor anyone could ever ask . Always hyper active, dog loving, naruto lover, bhewda, committed , stoner, artist, etc We have realized in the end how many things we have in common . All the best , I am pretty sure you will reach great heights and be the best . I have got a crazy host now in London. As I always say " Why drunk and drive , when you can take big drags like aakash mittal and fly " Himakar Yanamandra

Hey! You were one of the first people I've known in college and definitely should have talked to you more over the years (this is really a recurring theme with most of the testimonials I'm writing :P). I remember the time we went out to watch The Man from UNCLE, fun times they were. Stay the amazing coder you are and all the best wherever it is you decide to go, whether Uber, Bloomberg or Facebook! Anubhab Sen

You were an amazing friend and one of the smartest and fastest guy I've met in the college. Jayaganesh K

"Enthellaaa!! I used to wish we had spent some more quality time the first 3 sems, but i guess we have seen each other wayyy too much over the past year xD (been barging into your room every 2 hrs). We have had some sick memories over the years, from helping me score more than you in Graphics assignments (both of them hahahaha) to storming into Froogal HQ (and giving harshit an earful; and then trembling before the CEO the very next day xD) to consoling you when you lost DreamVu to siding with you to play the Devil's Advocate (against Amal xD) to helping me demoss Compilers project 1 hr before the deadline (you're such a muthu dai <3 ) to getting tipsy in Goa (and having a wild time everywhere we went xD) to getting a driving license to final passing out as brothers.... we have come a LONG way!! "One thing that I will definitely cherish getting from IIIT will be a brother in you dai. From workspace coding in C to being roommates and going through every shit (good and bad) together, it's been the best dai. I don't think anything will top it off. I am genuinely gonna miss you and I dont know how I am gonna manage waking up in the morning and not knocking at your door. You got the looks as we all know, but at the same time you are a gentle giant as well. Please keep a check on the Dota craze when I see you next :p Will miss you momentarily, but as we discussed I will be seeing you over the pond very soon. Thank you for being there dai, Always <3. Hey Aaron! Just a short recap of the stuff we did over the years since I'm sure we'll stay in touch beyond this as well. We've always been gaming buddies I think, from CS in first year to DOTA bros now, do come play sometimes, it's hard dealing with braindead teammates all the time. You've been an anime guide to me too. Was great staying in the same wing and I couldn't be more happy that you got my old room (105). Lots of memories with you from learning CV last minute from Gajju to multiple rampages. All the best in Boston! Anubhab Sen

To the greatest playboy I have ever known, the time has finally come to write something for you. You used to say that I am not expressive, let me try to change it a little bit through this. You have been the one true friend I got in college, or should I say my life. You have always been there for me not only in the good times but in all the bad ones too, though I used to forget you in my good times . You are the one who can never say no to me whether it's DLF or zoomcar or anything for that matter. You are the one who is knowledgeable in every field out there. Your concluding powers are by far the best I have seen. But jokes apart thoda technical kaam bhi seekh ja, nhi toh sahi me HR Banna padega . I'm glad we've stayed in touch, and I hope to see you in Bangalore soon :) Shubhangi Gautam

"Yoooo! It has been one hell of an amazing journey through these four years. "Athe da pulle. This is tbh the most redundant thing i have ever done in my life. Considering that I have copied the same ABA assignment for you AND Sreya, that is indeed saying something. Vighnesh Chenthil Kumar "

"The night before the Spring 2016 DS End-Sem exam, I fell ill, to the point of fainting. Since Abhijith and Sreya were nearby, Abhijith helped me get to the hospital nearby and I stayed there for 8 hours. Before my exam even started, my sister picked me up from the hospital and got me back to my college in time for breakfast and exam. Thanks to Abhijith helping me on that fateful night, I'm alive and able to write this testimonial.

When I was on the verge of being kicked out of this college and chose to repeat my freshman year in the same, Abhijith helped me out with re-learning everything, which is how I'm proudly able to say I'm now a senior student at IIIT-H.

Abhijith, if you're reading this, I cherish you, brother. And when you go to Zurich, you're gonna be even more amazing among the friends you make there. And go save lives, my man!! Animesh Das "

But I will be more happier if you get that Munich changed to London Harshit Patni

I admire your skill and passion as a musician and composer, as well as your sincere outlook towards things in general also. I will miss our long conversations about music and being a musician in IIIT. I wish you the best of luck for the future. We shall jam another day! Sourabh Rajguru

Hey! I do not know how we got to know each other. Was it DOTA? I do not think so. Anyway glad that we could room in the same wing as I've had loads of fun conversations with you and Eashwar particularly the last semester. Thanks a lot for the rack, what would I have done without it? Sorry for being mean to you, don't think I really meant any of it thought, just like being edgy with this group for fun. Also very commendable music skills. Have fun in Italy and do try to keep in touch! Anubhab Sen

"Faaam, really wish we got this close earlier. I mean, we were in the same wing for two years and ended up becoming great friends after being in separate wings.

I'm going to miss the Pubg nights so much! Still remember you saving me from the other side of the river! All the religious nights of Pubg is going to be one of my best memories from college. And all the deep conversations that came with it. And also the stupid shit we talked about along with it (you know what I mean).

We're definitely staying in touch. Pubg need not necessarily be played when we're both in the same room, right? ;)

Outings (particularly the drinking ones and the Goa trip) were so much fun with you. Until next time friend, which I think shouldn't be too far away! Take care mate. Thank you for everything! Rohan "

Srivastavaaa, my ham buddy. I wish we had got to know eachother earlier. Every time we've been together, we've had a pretty kick ass time. You're fun to be with and I love how you just bring in the most random people together. Hopefully we chill more in 5th year, still waiting on that sushi :P Shubhangi Gautam

You were the best benchmate I could ever ask for xD Very annoying sometimes (like I want to kill you level types xD) but the scribble wars and the pranks we used to crack on each other were what made so many of those classes bearable. You are one of the most talented people I've ever known. From your passion in music to your random but really pretty doodles, how do you do it all ;-; Anyways, You are super fun and I love how we both used to find reasons not to work but also fear the deadline at the same time xD Reduce your exam anxiety, trust me, I'm trying too xD You were an amazing Game Theory partner and also one of my closest friends from first year up until now. Thanks for all those memories and hopefully we'll create many more this year. :D K.Rachna

Adiiiiii!!! It was so much fun with you! All the crazy things that we did. You are really a cool person. Dont worry about anything it will be awesome! I still hope that I will be able to play guitar like you :P Best of luck for everything!! Medha Sharma

Paditya, thank you for not running away. Vanalata

Hey man, our room was pretty awesome tbh and you were a great roommate. Will always remember the late night talks and random bakchodi on the third floor. Best of luck and stay in touch. Shrivastava bros! Parth Shrivastava

I certainly had a great time whenever we went out for drinking! I still remember how we smoked up twice (different stuff), and went to DLF where you fainted for awhile. It still gives me the chills :P That was my only bad trip haha. But we did have a lot of fun throughout the first year. I learned a lot from you in Site & Art classes; you're an amazing artist and musician. Keep doing what you love, and all the best for the future bro. Vijeth T A

Hey Adii! So glad I've got to know you.. true we've not known each other for long, but enough to tell that you're a good person and great friend <3 Music club wouldn't have been the same without all those jam sessions, managing first Unplugged together and after event celebrations and long drives with you :D Hope you achieve in life all you ever wanted and let's stay in touch always :) Prakrati Dangarh Hey man, from gym buddies to all nighter dotes, we have had a lot of good memories. Stay in touch and best of luck with everything :) Aaron Jacob Varghese

To all the music jams and performances! Thanks for always being there and cheers to the dulla life! :D Devansh Manu

Haha, we have our Italy plans pending, maybe, in future we may execute them :P. Visa process wouldn't have been this fun without you. To all the good times. Keep in touch and best of luck :D. Ashwin Pathak

Hey man! We didn't talk much although but thanks for being there that day. It really meant a lot. Also, I look forward to having more conversations. Have fun in Italy and Stay Awesome! Eavanshi Arora

"First day pe room ka door peetne wala cause mere roomate ka naam bhi Aditya tha :P Awesome knowing you brother Siddhartha Jain "

Fauji Brats for life! Had fun on the ES project and the best part about that was your enthusiasm and your yearn for learning new stuff. Always keep that fire lit up! Adarsh Pal Singh

"Hey Aditya pt. 2 for us xD You have been a great source of information for me at least when it comes to stuff related to college- thanks to that extra year you spent here xD You're a great guy for sure, hope to see you playing the lead someday in some band :D Tanmay Joshi "

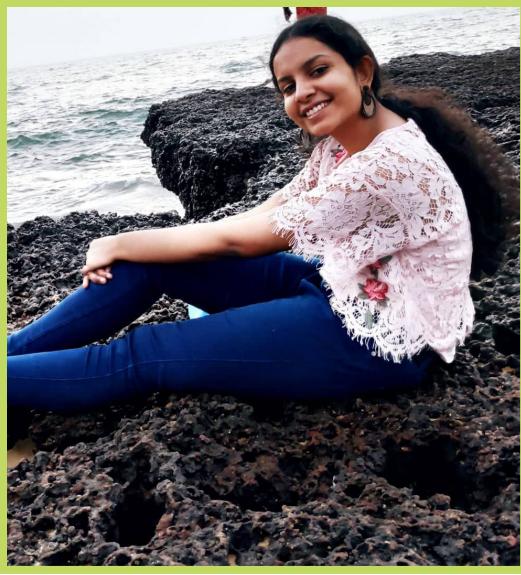

Aditya, from HSS class to random talks, you were always nice to talk. Always cheerful and accepting others, thank you, bro. namit sawhney

Yo! I didn't get to spend a lot of time with you, but I always found you fun whenever you were around. I will always play my part as a loot whore with all my heart, and whenever you need me to steal your loot, I'm just a message away xD. Have a great time in your internship and wherever else you go in the future! Haard Panchal

We share a great vibe don't we XD Conversations and gossip with you has always been a delight ;) I hope we spend more time and stay in touch :* Lets plan a trip super soon XD Lots of love and luck to you :* Navya Khare

"Adiiieeeeeee, am so glad we started hanging out together. You're so easy to be with, you made me feel like we've always known each other first time we've actually talked. Looking forward to more hangout sessions in 5th year! Lessgo Kareoke, humph!! Sarigama Yerra "

Adii! I know we didn't spend as much time together as we'd hoped but we had some memorable ones. I'll never forget how close we were in our first year and the amount of fun we had during all the events of Felicity. We understand so well how difficult it is to fit into a new group. All the parties we've had together were so much fun. Get that degree soon and get wild in the world. All the best! Vineeth Chelur

Isssu! Literally can't imagine college without you. First Roommate! Kaafi ajeeb namuna ban ke aaya tha college. March Past to hamesha yaad rahega xD and Banjara Hills bhi. Kaafi acha time spent kiya hai apan ne Maddy and Samra ki jodi amar rahe. Apan movies ki cryptic langauage me ab baat kab karenge pata nhi :( . But tu dil ka sabse saaf aur acha aadmi hai hamesha aise hi rehna, also delivery ache se karna. Touch me to apan rahenge hi! :D Aayush Tiwari

Bhai tere toh kya kehna. Tujhse agar dosti nahi hui hoti toh shayad college life itni interesting nahi hoti. Your support towards any kind of fun has kept the group alive. Tujhe toh mein Bangalore aakar bhi khoob pareshan karunga aakhir sabha bhi toh jinda rakhni hai na? Bhai jo tune mere liye kiya shayad koi apna bhi nahi karta tune mujhe dosti ka sahi matlab shikaya hai. Shayad mein Tera udhar kabhi nahi utar pau. Par chukana bhi nahi hai Kyuki dosti mein kya udhar. You are a real gem which has the ability to bind people around you. Stay the same bro. Ritwick Gupta

Vyas, bahi, CHATAK50 nahi chalega toh tere ko hi pakdenge. Coupon aate rehane dena aur bhai ek aur baat- ek acchi si scooty le le, kab tak paidal chal chal kar delivery karta rhega. Heyy Alakh ! You are not only fun, helpful and reliable but also an extremely intelligent and hardworking person. It goes without saying that Pulsation 2018 couldn't have been successful without the kind of efforts you put into it and also during Out of Control workshop. I enjoyed working with you and got to learn quite a few things too . You did a commendable job during CANSAT too. Hats off to you for having managed all this with studies so well during that time. Thanks for being a great friend ! Stay in touch :) All the best for a bright and prosperous future :D Pooja Guhan

"To the most talented and smart guy in our batch, people might not know but you are the most versatile skilled guy I have seen in college. Literally the first person I met in college, same cluster same course and same workspace row, this is how our journey started. I never realized how our bonds have become so solid over such a small span of time. Literally everything in college was with you, all those course projects labs everything. From day one to the last day we might have changed a lot but to all the good changes in me you will be responsible. You were the only person whom I fought with the most but also was most close to and slept in peace as I always knew you will be there like a light in the deepest darkness. Although we will be an hour away for at least two more years but lives ahead will be really different and tough without you. All those weekly outings, fixed dinner days of week despite those harsh deadlines, we never stopped going out. All those movie outings and all the time thanks for caring for my leg. The testimonial is just not enough as words and quotes ain't enough to describe my thoughts for you. I know you will succeed wherever you go, the one guy in the lot who works smart and enjoys life hard. To the one among three musketeers: "You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose."

This is an absolute relevant quote for you, remember until you try you won't fail or succeed. And have a lot of trust in yourself man, I only wish and hope you get the best in your life. And yes will not leave you alone in the US too. Vivek Jain "

Even today when I watch some insane mallu movie, I think of using the lines on you. Cheers to varied memories over the past 4 years: Inappropriate dancing in Junaid's room, apologising in the PT ground, learning algos from you in the workspace, watching charlie, doing UNIX shell together and praying to not get a copycase, helping me with exchanging old Bahraini Dinar to INR for the Trichy trip xD, helping me with both OpenGL3 assignments and ensuring I get more marks than both of you (only true friends will do that dai), trying to learn DSAA and failing, trying to learn SMAI together and failing, scamming through East&West term papers without sharing with Aaron (like true snakes) to score the highest, Copying in Science2 quizzes (was fun watching you get caught dai), explosive fights in 7th and 8th semesters xD ("who you calling bitch?"" "you, bitch"") LMAOOO, suffocating in 7th sem together thanks to Compilers, scamming Independent study under Jolly together, chilling and going wild in Goa together (rooming with you guys was super lit <3 ) tensions before driving test, trying to study Sanskrit together.... and failing AGAIN XD, countless fun hangouts with a varied bunch of people but us being constant, AND MOST IMPORTANTLY staying in touch throughout all semester breaks (including skype sessions from Prague discussing Sanjana xD), and many many more.... I am still thinking if I should rant here to warn your future roommates/flatmates for what they are signing up for :P Almost had insomnia because of your all night gaming

I should have made you sign a roommate agreement. But rants aside, in these three years as roommates our bond deepened a lot. From waking each other for PT and 8.30 classes to room cleaning, listening Linkin Park's playlist at full volume in happiness and sadness, late night discussions on life and just every memory associated with D14 . You have been a live motivation for me, always striving to be best (in minimum effort :P) and better than me at everything . Your song playlist and continuous bombsite calls while playing CS GO made it possible for me to remain sane throughout those coding assignments and interview prep. "Chomu broooo You have a sense of life like no one else. I've literally never seen you angry - even when everyone else is frustrated, you're always smiling. Not everyone can be as positive as you, and I really like that about you. 4th year mei mazze toh kaafi kiye, and Goa ki woh raat was definitely a highlight xD Stay in touch my man. Kabhi Dilli aao toh zarur batana, hamare darwaze bhi hamesha khule hain :D Vedant Sareen"

Bangalore wouldn't have been so much fun if it weren't for you. Will miss roaming around in Koramangala searching for Chicken Biryani. From being "mujhe sona hain" to "bhai, aakhri baar DLF", tu kaaphi badal gaya in the last one year (for good xD). I only wish we became friends earlier. Cheers to life and stay in touch! Ayush Deva

Apna chomu bro! You are one of the few people with the golden heart, one of the most helpful guys I know. Mere assignments submit hone me tera kafi contribution raha hai(moss king :P ). Bahut bakchodiya ki hain bhai saath me... Still remember 2-2 me PT kaise jaate the hum subah raat bhar jag ke. You are the one who inspires me too. end end me kya ho gya tha tujhe? ek dum se padhaku ban gya tha tu :P . Looking forward to more memories together. Stay the same. Best Memory in College? : There are so many, and I intend to make more before finally graduating(dulla life :P)!! There's a memory for each day! Some good, some bad; some happy, some sad! But all of them beautiful! I want to mention a few of my most cherished memories: - During the first year, when we used to move the tables and chairs into a single room and play counter strike 1.6 together. - One of the sweetest memories was my late night talks with wingies, and it was terrific. I would never forget those days like when we used to get tired discussing everything we used to go dlf. It was almost a daily ritual to go dlf and later sleep in all of the classes xD. - Also, we(Madhur, Anirudh, and Namit) used to make Maggi together one used to purchase

Maggi(mostly katta) another used to wash dishes(Namit), and I was the cook and as usual mama used to do nothing still gets to eat it :P -Our random zoom car plans, party plans, and the bakchodi done during house practice everything was lit af. -All my birthdays were special even though my friends used to beat the hell out of me and used to pour over me milk, coffee, juice, soda, etc. but all of my birthdays were special <3. -During these four years, I've done many things which I thought I could never be able to do like dancing with someone special, planning an event, singing in front of everyone and being able to talk to everyone comfortably.

Biggest change since first year? : I think I've changed a lot from a guy who was completely introvert to a guy who is somewhat extrovert(I am still working on this xD). From someone who used to sit in the corner and never approach or talk to girls to a guy who is easily able to communicate and approach girls. From a guy who was an ideal person to a guy who is more practical.

Best thing you learnt from here? : Nothing Lasts and Don't expect too much from anyone!

One thing you'll miss the most? : The thing I will miss the most is late night gossips, random plans and all those gaming nights. I will also miss all those late night walks with all the special friends I have made in college :'

One thing you regret not doing? : When I was in college I was always the "good" guy. I wanted to be known for my integrity, decency, and honesty. It got me absolutely nothing other than heartaches. If I could go back and do it over, I would be the "bad" guy.

What next? : Right now the next thing is completing the MS and getting job experience for some years then probably I will do an MBA in finance.

"I have been postponing this for a long time now, I guess the reason is since we have experienced so much together and at so many levels, I didn't know from where to start and what else to write considering maine kaafik ch letter meili kh diah :P I'll try to write usse alag hi yaha, so yes maine kayi baar tere faltu arguments pe gussa hua hu... matlab acha hi gussa hua hu dkha jaaye to tjhpe :P but haa at the end of the day tu bhai tha mera, haan rhega so haa main chid jaata hu but kch kar ni skte ab tu bhai h jhelna pdega :P I'll always be there for you bro like I always have and like you always have...Thanks for being one of strongest pillars in my worst times in college...I can't thank you enough for that :D Bdwn tje demoss krna ni aata ab b :P And In the end I'll say you deserve better than what you had in the past and it will definitely come...till then pyaar vyaar sab dhokha h pdhle beta yahi mauka h :P Baaki I'll be waiting for you guys...like you said we 4....in Bangalore <3 Best of luck for your future and bc roya kam kar chu**ye logo k lie :P Anirudh Sharma "

The first person I talked to in IIIT. From that to being lab partners, to project partners to wing mates, we became friends and then brothers for life. Thank you for everything you bring with you bhai. Your craziness and your ability to change any conversation awkward will be missed. We have had some really deep convos and that just gave me so many valuable realisations. So I thank you for that sincerely. I love you Patil and want you to know that I am coming for you real soon. If there is someone weirder and crazier than me (that IS saying something btw), its definitely YOU. From your lame awkward jokes (those really make people uncomfortable and silent lmao XD), to being part of most of my hangouts (and hence a cherishable part of my college life), to going wild in Goa (freezing in doodhsagar, spring water and paan in milk base in Baga <3, water sports, running into the hugeee waves in bogmallo, being a mind-blowing bartender), dragging me to a bar for the first time (komatose), to just being a true friend (who always lent money and cup noodles xD)... you have played a big role in my life at IIIT. Thanks for being in this journey with me. Safar assaan ho gaya ter kaaran se. Bhai tu kaafi acha banda hai, aise hi rehna aur banglore ka address bhej dena. Humne kaafi time dekha, acha and boora, but you were there for me and same mai tere liye. Jis din teri intern laggi thi, pta nhi dil mai kuch hua tha. Anirudh bhai <3 I remember, we met through those counter-strike nights and something clicked instantly between us and before we could think about anything else we became the best of best friends. Then we used to help each other demosify the code together. Somewhere during all those late night gossips in your room, Maggi nights and house freshers practice we developed a bond. A bond that was something special between the four(you know who all) of us. You've taught me what it meant to be caring, patient and adventurous during the last four years. You've helped me grow beside my family you were the biggest supporter I had in college. I can trust blindly in you and although I still get angry for insignificant reasons, please bear with me I think I will improve. Thank you for just staying with me, I know I can be stubborn and difficult to understand. Thank you for being with me when I didn't know what to do or how to handle things in my life. Thank you for standing beside me in the greatest of moments and the darkest of hours. Thank you for all the memories and I hope next year I will also come to Bangalore to create more memories with you. All the best for the future and keep rocking. Anam Raihan

Best Memory in College? : Fake mails to student parliament, impromptu McD plans, JC plans converted to DLF midway, reviving **** in coops, convincing people to drink up, so many memories, so little space....

Biggest change since first year? : No one has ever lived in the past. No one will ever live in the future. The present is the form of all life. Fear is the path to the dark side. Fear leads to anger. Anger leads to hate. Hate leads to suffering.

Best thing you learnt from here? : I found out what the secret to life is: friends. Best friends.

One thing you'l miss the most? : Late night philosophical/ trash talks, comparing assignments last minute before hitting submit, trips to JC, random walks around campus, the entire batch

One thing you regret not doing? : I don't do regrets. Regrets are pointless. It's too late for regrets. You've already done it, haven't you? You've lived your life. No point wishing you could change it.

What next? : La La Land

The C3PO in dotes you can always count on for a follow up. Fun, entertaining and full of mischief. See you soon! Aniruddha Patil

"You welcome, welcome to the Anime world, finally! You're really cool, wish we got to spend more time together (offline xD). All the best for whatsoever you're going for! Keep in touch <3 Sarigama Yerra "

Yo Bub! You are pretty chill person. A lot of fun chilling with you in our "outings", and the trips to Coorg and Goa too. For some reason, the beats of a random Sunflower song start playing in the back of my head whenever I see anything related to you :P. Have a blast at USC and best of luck! Haard Panchal

You are one of the coolest dudes I've met. Thank you so much fro the stephen king books. We sure did have some "intellectual" discussions, kek. I'll always value your show recommendations. About that, I need one more. arun g

The undefeated drinking champion! Ready to go any time and no one can challenge our boi here. I'll never forget all your efforts to try and get me to play DoTA, ultimately in vain :P Your love for some masala in life, our efforts to try and work up some drama in college and the occasional requests for gossips, was a fun part of the college experience. Thank you for teaching me 1.5 speed XD Stay the same Bub, party harder and all the best. Vineeth Chelur

Bab, you're a really sweet person. I wish we had talked more (besides work-related stuff:P ). But you were definitely one person I could depend on for certain things. You were like my homie haha. All the best for the future Bab! Shubhangi Gautam

Hey! I wish we'd talked more, earlier in college. I found that you to be one of the most well-read people I've met in college. Still, if I had to pick a year it'd be fourth year, which has felt about three times as long as the other years because of all the memories we've packed into it. You're such a zany guy, like you exemplify zaniness. I genuinely get a lot of enjoyment from the oddball things you randomly do xD. I found our discussions to be both fun and fruitful, so make sure to keep in touch! All the best at USC and beyond. Arjun P

Yoo bubs, am glad to have become friends with you bro. We shared a lot of memories together. The amount of dotes we played, it was crazy and totally worth it. Hopefully we will meet up soon enough, you are not that far away anyway :P. Do keep in touch bro. Good luck with everything :) Aaron Jacob Varghese

"One of my best friends in college. I learned a lot from your realistic outlook on things. Me, you and Megh were the perfect trio. I have more memories with you than this last minute testimonial (in the IIIT spirit) will permit me to mention - pranks (!), co-op gaming, scamming, a lot of movies (horror, movie club, etc), Avinash Sir (!!!), making fun of Meghz, scamming, group assignments, outings, the list goes on. Did I mention scamming? :-P I know you'll do well and have a blast in LA. May our shenanigans continue in the USA! Sourabh Rajguru "

Hey bub, you're a pretty chill guy, I know. And, ya, It surely was a pleasure working with you on that wonderful, game-changing, state-of-the-art, cutting project in that Psychology course. Kartikey Pant

"Hahahahaha loved your testimonial man! I only really got to know you in 3rd sem. Your eye for detail as well as your nature to organise things in a particular way is damn inspiring! I still remember rote learning that R1 speech over and over until you were happy with my voice modulation lol xD I learnt a lot as your SSAD teammate, and will cherish (lol xD) those meetings with jayant in T-hub, as well as the R1 and R2 presentations. Not to forget the hours that went into sound mixing for the Steve Jobs-style presentations xD. Do keep in touch! God Bless you man! <3 Vighnesh Chenthil Kumar "

Hehe yeah It was nice to talk to you during those times. Good luck for future :) Shreya Chandorkar

"Hey Bub . You are one of the most chillest, sweetest & cool people I know. You have great taste in posters. I remember meeting you for the first time in ragging . Thank you for the all random conversations wingie . Himakar Yanamandra "

"Hey!Thanks,mate.Yeah,EvenIregretnotknowingyoumuch. Good luck in US mate. Hopefully, we catch up sometime. Have fun! Gopal Chitalia "

"Heyyy bro! You are always fun to talk to! Smiling even if you wanna tell you are gonna say we are failing xD. Be the same guy you are! All the best for your future :D Keep in touch! Abhijith Nair "

Our gossip sessions were lit, always up for anything except maybe Charminar. Loved hanging out with you! Last sem Bub is the shizz, don't change back. Best of luck in Cali, hot chicks await you! Parth Shrivastava

Didn't get to interact much but it was great knowing you, thanks to POIS and MSE. Good luck and tons of best wishes. ^_~ Roopal Vaid

It was pretty fun hanging out with you in all the shared groups we were part of! From foodie gang to dasa gang to old wing to gamingz to McDShala! Megh Parikh

Really glad to be having a lovely time eating and rushing for biryani in my first 2 years -- oh and of course, really grateful for some of your movie recommendations - - they really are one of the best I have watched until now -- cheers to a great life ahead! Bakhtiyar

Hey man, indeed a lot of memories since the first year with you. Thanks for "support"ing my DOTA adventures and thanks for enabling my anime addiction and no I will not give up on Boku no Hero academia. Yes its Boku no Hero academia not Boku no pico, please stop saying that people will actually think I am into that kind of stuff XD. All the best for you future bub. Hope we meet again. Hemanth Vemuri

Hi Bob. You are like Rahul Gandhi, weet and sober, unlike that mother**** Modi. Being around you was quite fun. You are not just polite but have a very charming sense of humour. Hope you remain like this, cool and witty. Love you bruh. namit sawhney

Hey! You've got a great taste in movies and in comics! All the best, you're gonna rock at USC! :D Vedant Sareen

It has been nice getting to know you! Keep achieving great heights! Keep smiling! ^_^ Kiranmayee

"I still remember a particular guy from our batch told me: ""You know who is really a bond in our batch? It's Bub. That guy is extremely brilliant." And yes, from what I have observed from our little conversations in the first and second year, you are really brilliant. And yes, honours and Dandiya did bring us the opportunity to work and enjoy together. I hope we'll meet soon in USA. Best of Luck for your masters and the blazing career ahead! If you ever plan to come to Gujarat (probably by Megh's request or something else), do inform me, you are welcome to my home. Chaitanya Patel "

"Fun guy to hang out with and interesting guy to talk to xP Glad you were around to make the Dota and anime fun ^_^ and thanks for inspiring me to order more food. We can probably write better testimonials after two years, cause we ain't done seeing each other yet xD, gotta go partying at frat houses, y'know?! Saurabh Ravindranath "

Bub I am glad to have had some amazing time you in the first year! Lets hope to meet sometime again in future and carry on the great vibe we had XD Navya Khare

"Hey Bub ! It had always been fun and amusing to hear about your dota calls. You are one of the chillest and organised people I have seen with great work-play balance. I wish you the best for the future and hope to see you soon. Take care. Amal Santhosh "

Hey Anubhab, one of my first friends at the college. I loved the Site and Art classes we attended together and one of the prime reason was the fun discussions we used to have at our table. Really loved the food outings we had although I agree we should have gone more often. Nevertheless, I hope the best for your future endeavors ... Good Luck :D Mohit Chandra

Getting to know you during the elections project was fab! :D Be the super-mast person you are, always! :D Devansh Manu

Hey Anubhab, the countless boring lectures we have beared together talking about all random things except what was being taught, scrolling quora . But you have signed up for more of those boring lectures, I hope they don't have mandatory attendence in US . I hope our paths cross again, stay connected and good luck for future! Harshit Patni

Yo bub! Those first year discussions were something that I regret not continuing to do with you. Your taste for games and shows, and the amount of fucks you gave to the elements of life were on point! Cheers to all the small times we got to interact in the 4 years and I wish you good luck for all your future endeavors. Keep jamming buddy! And let's agree to disagree here - Sherlock is amazing!! Aman Mehta

You are good-natured person. First teams with you and satyam in ICPC and codefundo. Your room in front of mine always made to go and talk with you, Wish you good luck for future. Paawan Gupta

"I'm writing this from Italy, and I feel like I already know how dreary OBH is going to be without you living next door. I know I asked you not to be mean to me, but rest assured, I was never under the impression that there was any malice behind it. I'm sure it was always meant as well intentioned banter, and the fact that you did take my request seriously only further strengthens my belief in the same. We had some really fun times, and great (read 'spicy') conversations and I'm sure this is not the last chapter in our friendship. You've always been a reliable friend, and I hope that I have been there for you in the same capacity as you have been there for me. Here's to all good times that are yet to come! Cheers. :) Aditya Srivastava "

"Hey! I am glad that you got comfortable around dogs! It was nice knowing you! Best of luck! Medha Sharma "

"Bub! Had fun teaching you telugu and mostly the swear words! All the best man for your future. Hope you'll have great time ahead. Btw remember the telugu words I taught you, may be useful sometime :P Gangula Rama Rohit Reddy "

Yo bub! I too felt that we could've connected more in college. Too bad we didn't. In the first year I thought you were a really good coder because you'd finish OJ pretty fast. And in our interactions I thought you were a very soft spoken and composed individual. That was my first impression of you. That is something I admire about you. You are one of those people who hold genuine opinions of their own and would stand for their opinion and debate it out. I admire that about you. You also have a good taste in anime. And for the record I have watched a lot of good anime if you were wondering. Anyway, lets keep in touch and share good video content? A good professional career definitely awaits you man. Cheers! Aayush Sanghavi

... very well written dialogue , I will try to translate in die time lmao Pranav Kamojjhala

Good luck bro, You are really smart Satyam

Anubhab, it was great meeting you! I always loved seeing your front-end skills. All the best for the future! Tirth Maniar

A very intellectual guy and a really nice company to have. Can't forget all those HSS talks in 1st year. Hope you continue to do well in life wherever you go. Wishing you all the luck. Ayush Rai

To the first year next door neighbour, never gonna forgot your amazing, sarcastic sense of humour. To the few conversations in first year. All the best in everything to come. Have a great time! Rishabh Arora

"Mans was always up to eat outside. Always surprised me with all the different things he was into - 4th year would have been hella boring if it wasn't for this Ye stan. Looking forward to Vegas ;) AND NOTHING HURTS ANYMORE, I FEEL KINDA FREEEEEEE Pranav Nair "

"Maaateee. DLP and BEC labs were hella fun. Whatever semblance of shame we had left in DLP all vanished in BEC as we openly just played FTS and browsed on Quora. Did we do a single experiment in BEC? :P Wish we had talked more in the second and third year but oh well. And 4th year was even better. Glad I got close to you by the end. The deep conversations and the campus walks (along with the masala ;)) were really nice. And yes, I can't believe I became Bub 2.0 after joining the McDShala club. Drinking with you was a lot of fun and also a challenge. :P Until the next time we meet man. Hopefully the bottles will open the same way it did in the past, hopefully you'll be the same Bub who'll try to get everyone drunk and hopefully I'll be on your side trying to get the other drunk as well. Take care! And let's try to meet once before you leave because who knows when we meet next? Rohan "

"Hey, though our talks and meets have been less but we have memories too. One amazing guy I have met. Hope you have a great life ahead and yes will keep meeting you in LA. Vivek Jain "

"Bhab ji, our encounter was quite fun. Trolling Daksh together :p and random Tamil jokes and references. Good luck with masters:) Jayaganesh K "

Hey Man! I wish we would have interacted more before 4th year. Do you remember the MS guy, how serious he was for that shitty LA project as if that is the only thing in life and we were like dude we don't give a damn about the project and we don't want to spend a minute on it? And in the end, as always the jugaad worked. But, really LA project was fun with you. You are really very polite. And, I must say, you had a great contribution in my last round of Bloomreach interview, thanks a lot for the help. I wish you a great future ahead and I hope to meet you soon! Saurav Malani

I guess we talked a lot during grad admissions and last semester, compared to the time before that. I always admired your objective take on most of the things. I had a lot of fun with you in Goa too; really can't wait to sort out that Vegas plan as soon as possible. Party hard in Cali man. I'm sure you'll do well in USC. Stay in touch bro. Vijeth T A

To one of the coolest person that I know of. I really like your sense of humor. Now that you are moving to DASA-land, who will I hang out with. I will always cherish those illogical banter, timepass talks and also deep talks. You are so smart, I know that you are going to nail where-ever you go, just try not to forget me and please stay in touch. I hope you achieve everything that you deserve and more. Ashwin Pathak

Anubhab, my partner for the first team assignment of IIIT (Noteskeeper!!!). I haven't seen a more calm and composed guy than you in 4 years of college, would have even added "cool" in that list if you hadn't downrated Sherlock and POI :p. Also, I am sorry I still couldn't finish the book (Dark Places) you once gave me to read, but I promise to keep it safe and read it before we meet again :D. Hopefully, the trophy will still remain in Manchester by then! I wish you an adventurous and fun life ahead mate! Moin Hussain Moti

Hey Man! Well I am glad that our roll numbers have a difference of 1 otherwise would have never met you I guess It's fun to remember all the classroom moments and specially thr Database Quiz where we both were gonna get a grade drop xD It has been really fun around you. All the best for your MS and Stay amazing! Eavanshi Arora

Best Memory in College? : It has been such a great journey and one of the most enjoyable period of my life till now, from laughing at the most senseless topics together to sitting till the very last minute of the deadline to submit assignments .. all those night walks, DLF visits and the never ending workload...everything will be missed.

Biggest change since first year? : A lot changed in the last 4 years. From entering college with no idea of what to do next to slowly figuring out things, from waking up at 6am to sleeping at 6am, from stressing over little things to taking everything lite :p.

Best thing you learnt from here? : The sense of responsibility and the importance of good friends in life.

One thing you'll miss the most? : The carefree time spent with friends.

One thing you regret not doing? : Not interacting much with a few people.

What next? : Start the new phase of life after college, will be joining Apple Hyderabad .

Hii bakwas fellow :P getting paired up by accident in the DLP Lab was one of the best mistakes that could have happened, you were such a good lab and study partner and friend and fellow snake :p , I will miss our arguments ;p, keep in touch and best of luck for your future!! Aishwarya Thota

My four years of college would have been incomplete without your screaming Ab se jithna bhi chillana hai apna IAS husband pe chillale XD Thanks for helping me pass courses and always telling me that I could do it, even when I didn't believe in myself. Who am I going to shout at everytime I get annoyed by a course project? Who will I get into these crazy shouting matches, making people around me think we are actually having issues? Any course that I had with you, I knew I could chill because ""Kasi sambhal legi"".. Thanks so much dude, you are my hero. You have made IIIT tolerable, for every problem you were A - Nuska. Hehehe Get it? Get it? Ok, sorry. Stay in touch idiot! All the best! Soumya Vadlamannati "

Anushka, I will always remember how helpful and good-natured you are. I am glad that we are in the same city, now we can continue arguing about the facts (where I am always right :p). To all the non-sensical stuff that I throw at you and to all the cringe that you get from them. Be as diligent, be as confident and always be as happy as you are. Stop drooling over chocolates and let me savor the non-chocolate cake for once. Me and Nikita will continue to irritate you and try to get more sparks from you, so be prepared :D. I hope you achieve all the success and happiness, you deserve all of them. Ashwin Pathak

You Always responded positively to my assignment asking texts which led me to give it to others :p. Your teaching right before the exam has given me the confidence to write something. Thanks for the wonderful journey in the college and I hope this journey goes as long as possible. Ritwick Gupta

You are actually one of the regrets of my college. I regret not hanging out with you more in last two years. You are one of my genuinest friends. Throughout these 4 years I liked your dominating side, I even found it "guiding" :p . But please never meet my Mom. I remember the only time you shared something close to you, with me. I wish you had opened up to me more. You are a closed book right now. I hope the next year we will spend together I will get to know you better. Nikita Agarwal

"We've only talked a few times, but they were much needed. For me too. Thanks for being so beautiful, inside out. Wish you all the best for your future endeavours, you're meant to shine, and am sure you will :') Sarigama Yerra "

You don't get a testimonial. We stay in touch bitch. arun g

While we have differing opinions I like the way how you try to understand and analyze opinions with a very open mind. I definitely tried to learn something from that. Sar pass was also awesome! Those Khajaguda trips were extremely fun too. Thanks for organizing them along with rageguru and orun! All the best man! Megh Parikh

Aye fam! Will miss our talks a lot, glad we got to know each other more over the last year. Hope you get McDonald's wherever you end up in Europe! Stay in touch brother. Parth Shrivastava

Fellow Mafia martyr, hello! I respect very few people as much as I respect you. You are loyal and righteous and that's really refreshing to see. You're also one of the most trustworthy people I've met. My interactions with you taught me a lot. We had so many late night deep conversations and that really forged our friendship. Arguing with you led to some really nice discussions as long as it wasn't related to politics haha. You're also one of the smartest people I've met and I'm sure you've a bright future ahead of you. Take care man and stay in touch. I'm sure we'll meet a few times this summer but who knows when we meet again after that. I'm glad we became friends, see you soon! Rohan

Thanks for all the memories in CSTAR, Goa and Sar Pass. More importantly, thanks for listening to my existential rants during grad admissions. I learned a lot about myself during that process. Keep doing what you love, whether its research or engineering stuff. I'll always get reminded of you when I see a bunch of chips packets lying around :P Lets stay in touch properly, and keep making those lame jokes! Vijeth TA

Hey! You're one person I should've talked to much more before fourth year. But that's alright since we've more than made up by sharing a lot of moments together at Madhushala, Goa and Coorg. I've got you to thank for getting back into reading and its been amazing. Its also great how you can talk about such a plethora of issues. Good luck at Switzerland, and keep doing research because the world needs it! Anubhab Sen

I had an amazing time during our Europe trip :) You are probably the smartest in our batch, keep it up! Jayaganesh K

Hey man! It's been really nice knowing you. You've a really easy going personality which makes hanging out with you so much fun. Watching Liverpool games and then bantering the Scum fans was great. Aruuu! you know that a testimonial can never express how much I love you. You are one of the greatest gifts god has given me. Even in dreams I can't imagine the past four years without you by my side. Mein soch bhi nhi sakti mein kya hoti agar tu mera saath nhi hoti. You are my best friend with whom I can share anything and the one and only friend I was searching all these years. I can surely say that you know me better than mummy or yeh kinda obvious bhi hai :P humne ek dusra ke saath itna saal jo beetaye hai. You know very well hum saath mein vo bane hai jo definitely hum kabhi bhi nhi bn sakte tha agar hum akele hota. We can surely say after these four years that we are better humans than we were four years back. To whomever I say that I am gonna miss them but you know very well that if these four years were memorable than they can only be because of you. Let's work hard for another year. But, believe me after your PPO we will party harder. Love, diduu. Simran Singhal

"You are the most confident and the cutest friend I have. I will miss both your sensible and senseless talks. Some facts spoken with full confidence which at times turn out to be wrong or defective. Tere saath argue karna was the best part of every conversation which we had. Your sincerity and dedication when you work is something which i always admire. Hello my longest college friend. Hamari dosti JEE se leke college tak same rhi hai. Tab bhi u were one of my very few close friends, even now you are. Tab bhi hum ek dusre se kuch bhi share kar sakte the, literally things we cant talk about to anyone, aaj bhi I am sure vo sab main kisi ke sath share nhi kar sakti. I cannot thank you enough for being there for me. In first year you were the one who used to take care of me, you used to come to my room multiple times when I was sick. In that place where I was struggling, you felt like home. I can never forget how you took care of me. Thank You Nikita Agarwal Yoo Arushi! I am glad that I came to know you and it was a pleasure to be your branch mate. From the first conversation I got to know you are one of the most innocent people in the branch but with that innocence, there was a craziness beneath its layer and over the year we get to know it all :P . To all the crazy thing we did in the lab from removing a ta to fighting with a professor we did it all. I hope we stay in touch after college and hopefully we will complete our masters by next year :) Keep Rocking Anam Raihan "

"I have always maintained this throughout my college life that you are my ""best friend"" and bro its for all the right reasons. Every time, you ask me why I change the topic, but not anymore. This testimonial is a testimony of why you are the best friend anyone could hope for and not just me. Everyone judges people, but what separates you from others is that you happily accept them for who they are even after all the judgment. Doesn't matter how good, bad, cunning, smart, annoying the person is, Ashwin Pathak will get along with him, this quality stands out in you. Who wouldn't want a friend who can accept you despite all your faults! Even when I myself think of me as a horrible person and wouldn't wanna be myself, I can feel safe in knowing that this dude will still find something good in me to keep me company. Ashwin, you are one of the jolliest persons I have known and your company is the best, I couldn't have had whatever fun I had in college life without you. It's almost impossible to imagine a person as studious as you to be such a funny guy too. One of the best things about you is perhaps this ability to find happiness in even the worst circumstances, you radiate this amazing positive vibe which makes everyone feel better about the situation. You are an inspiration for all those who keep on complaining about their misfortunes and never appreciate whatever good they have in life. For as long as I can remember, I have always seen you come out smiling in every difficult situation. It's amazing how you find a silver lining and good takeaway in every failure. Your happy face makes others around you happy too, so always keep smiling :D. I will always remember you as my best buddy in college who is always ready to spread happiness and joy. My best friend, you have an amazing personality and I wish you meet wonderful people in your life who appreciate and acknowledge the importance of your company. I wish you get rewarded for all the efforts you put in your work and that you get all the pleasures of life you wished for. It is a great privilege to be your friend and to have spent four years in your esteemed company. I am sure you will go on to live a very exciting life and I wish I get to be with you for most of it. Pathak Sahab. Aap nahi hote to pata nahi kya hota mera. Mujhe college me kya ho raha he ye sab kon batata . Mujhe batata kon ki college se "bahar" bhi nikalna hota. Mujhe batata kon ki "Achha khana" kya hota he. Mujhe kon batata ki me "Boring" life jee raha tha ab tak . I've found a brother in you and thanks mujhe chaar saal zhelne ke liye. You have always been there whenever I needed someone . Tujhe to shanti se jeene Nahi dunga Zindagi bhar pareshaan hona he tumhe mujhse. To the one whom I can trust anytime with anything. Ashwin Pathak ab toh maan lo that u were not always right

...thanks for being by my side for these 4 years , from your endless talks to useless gossip sab yaad aayega ...though teri kismat thodi kharab hai but don't stop trying , you will definitely get what you deserve . All the best for your future . Anushka Agarwal

Bro Kahan se start karun. Tu college ke shuru se end tak mere sath rha hai. In the beginning of college, you were the only person to whom I used to share. That made a special place for you in my heart. I always felt so comfortable with you, you are so easy to talk to, you were always the first person who came to my mind when I wanted to talk about something. Only if we used to live in same hostel, we would have been unseparable besties, we still are, but tab jyada hote :p . I am sorry for not spending more time with you, I felt that you have so many friends and you won't care if we don't spend much time together. I love you Bro <3 . Please agle 40-50 saal bhi mere sath baith ke gappe ladana. Nikita Agarwal

Well, as always I was keeping to write yours until the last. That's me for you! :p I am not sure how to go about it. I will start off with thanking you for actually understanding me. Trust me, nobody can understand what's going on inside my head better than you. I did few (or a lot?) of things to hurt you and I am sorry for all of them. That was never intentional. But I Never imagined that there's an actual possibility of losing a friend like you and I never want that to happen. I would do anything to not let that message kinda thing (thoda censor krna pad gaya :P ) from happening again. I know I am thoda messed up and difficult to understand but thanks for being there always. I will try my best to work upon things that you cannot take any more but I really want you to accept the person I have become because it would mean a lot to me. I am gonna remember all our stupid talks, our fights, mess ki biryani and your sarcastic taunts (and I am not even joking ). Truly speaking I believe you deserve way too many things in life but somehow your luck hasn't been with you but I guess there's a good time for everything Bas itna kaafi hai. Stay Happy man! Also, what a messed up email id(s) you have! Eavanshi Arora

Genuine and clever friend - what can be better than that? I don't know if you know this or not - you always speak with utmost honesty and selflessness. So it never made an introvert person like me uncomfortable while striking a conversation with you. I really hope we meet in the future and have a nice dinner talk about college. And yes, don't forget the night of the first week of May 2016. Good Luck !!

And yes, apani shaadi me jarur bulana :P Chaitanya Patel

Bhai, what should I say about you. I think god also wants that I should always give gossips to you that's why he is keeping us together. I guess my positive attitude is because of your "rona". Atleast one should be the cheerful one :p. Seeing your attitude towards grades and studies have kept me motivated to study in this tedious environment of college. Your patience for tolerating my nonsense talks has led to this beautiful journey. I hope this journey stays the same and be more exciting towards the new phase. And remember the flat rules :p . Ritwick Gupta

Now decide amongst MBA, Masters and job and come do it in London so that we can go to expensive restaurants there too :p. Thanks for being one of the best guys to chill out with! Megh Parikh

"Literally the first faces I saw in college, right from same cluster to same house we spent the initial days together. I will never forget the tales you have shared and created, our official khabri in college. One of the few people whose palate never synced to mine but yet you were always ready to join along and we had a great time together. The most amazing thing about you is you want to literally do everything, not satisfied with what you have. Aflatoon is what defines you, but yes you are the one who works hard and parties harder too. All the best for your future and hope that we keep making memories together Vivek Jain "

"I learn a lot from you while being roommate and friends (in case you still consider ). I will just say, you are Most Trusted person (Roommate + Friend ) in the college. there are great memories, good and bad. Lets take memories with us that will always keep smile on our face. Stay in touch ( i doubt my existence in ur space ) but yeah If you feel I can help, i will always be there for you. Satyam "

Hey! You were one of the most friendly people I met back in first year and even now. I'd love to continue being in touch with you, it would also ensure I know all the latest gossip around the batch :P. Here's to all the deep conversations we've had in random rooms, places in IIIT, restaurants and HV! Should also mention the HV project of food scene in Hyderabad as that was dope. Also FIITJEE > Allen. Good luck at Amazon! Anubhab Sen

Pathak Ji !!! from first year till this extended stay after 4th year ... you have always been with me. To be honest my life would have been really boring and uninteresting if I hadn't met you. Our discussions on anything and everything and our food outings is what I cherish the most. You are one of the most sincere and hardworking guy I have met in this college and I feel you deserve way more but koi nahi woh bhi mil jaega :D. Will rememebr all the panchayat we did and all those lab night-out & then going to Udupi :p . Goa & Ananthgiri trip without you would have been very boring. Ab toh saath mein research bhi kar rahe hai let's hope chap jaaaye paper XD .... Best of luck for your future endeavors and hum milte toh rahenge he :D :D !!! Mohit Chandra

Chill attitude, fun loving and very balanced (work and fun wise) in life. You are a really nice character, stay the way you are :D. Will be in touch surely, wherever we are! Raghav Gupta

Deva bro! Caught you again. Lol. Yaar tu bohot hi sweet sa banda hai. Kaafi smart and even more humble and grounded. Tumhari bolne aur ladne ki style, tickle karne par body shock wave wali reaction, "Kyu batayein" aur discussions revolving around kaam hamesha yaad rahenge. Tum kaafi dhing se cheezain balance kar lete the which is pretty good. Aage bhi aise hi maje maarna, kaam karna aur life enjoy karna. Keep in touch bhai. Best Memory in College? : Playing mafia whole nights. Smart move, dumb move, fights during those mafia nights :)

Biggest change since first year? : Healthy interactions with juniors reduced ??

Best thing you learnt from here? : good things come to an end too soon ??

One thing you'l miss the most? : playing, studying, doing any fun activities the whole night and walking to DLF at 4:00 AM

One thing you regret not doing? : Nothing

"I have no clue where to start from because there's so much to write but don't worry I'll keep it short :p . It seems like it happened yesterday when I first met you along with Vivek and you looked like the most studious student ever XD. We have shared so many memories that explaining, what they mean to me will be nearly impossible. You have such a pure heart and you are the first person who comes to help me whenever I need any kind of help. To be frank you are one of the most helpful people I have ever met in my life. You are among the people I trust the most and maybe you know that too. In these 4 years, we have fought a lot but kehte hai ladai se pyar badhta hai and I guess this is the case here too :p . I'll miss the endless talk we had and all the cool things we did together (you have been my go-to guy whenever I had any crazy idea XD) . Lastly, I just want to say that, I never had any elder brother but I got one here <3 Mohit Chandra "

The highest IQ guy among us, in our group, as per me. Great in academics, great help to his friends as well. Not to forget his immense help towards 'some' of the M.Tech people which can't go unnoticed. Ahem. Ahem. True and genuine will be some of the qualities I would want to mention apart from being an excellent TA. Ahem. Ahem. College won't be the last of us seeing each other, I can assure that :D Ayush Rai

"Roommate for life literally, the three years we have spent together in a single room I don't know how we both have survived. I am pretty sure there couldn't be a better one than you, you were the one who compromised but never cribbed. Right from the accidental meet we had to final year parties we have grown up. Though you might be too tough on outside you are the one with a soft heart, always there to help at the eleventh hour. We have shared a tons of memories together that won't fit in this tiny testimonial. Thanks for everything you have done for me. Remember one thing trust yourself, you lose patience quite early man. A quote just for you-Nothing can dim the light that shines from within.All the very best for your future endeavors Vivek Jain "

What can I say about this guy, that one guy who's there for everything - may it be a tech issue, google backup issue, ubuntu issues and any other life issues. The most helpful guy you can ever find. The most genuine. Somewhere towards the end, we did not remain the besties we were during our 2nd and 3rd year, but you'll always be like a brother in my life. Don't hesitate in calling me for any advice at all, because you have always been there whenever I needed you (except the proxy which you gave to your other bestie but declined me :P). The number of internal references we know are far too high. From the bottom of my heart, I wish you get everything that you yearn for and wish you happiness! Stay connected. Lots of love <3. Hi Mallu. You are one of the sweetest person I know. You gave me the best excuse for saying no to someone "ichha nhi hai". You may have grown up, but you are still an innocent kid at heart. That's your best quality. To many DLF sessions and scamming speech project together , we had a good run. Agli baar se flight tickets dekh ke karana . You are the one who has always known what interests you and pursued it with full determination. Tu Wahi banda hai jo 4-2 me Sabse zyada dedicated ban Gaya tha.. ulte hi kaam karta hai . We have many trips, memories together and looking forward for more. Most unselfish person I have ever met despite the competitive environment in IIIT . Unselfish but mature and intense, always striving to be better than himself even if its mini militia . Also the only person who watched, read and liked all my recommendations from Harry Potter to Breaking Bad . I will miss your jokes, sarcasm, banter, tv series discussions, your insights on football and people. Keep us entertained on the Facebook group. Harshit Patni

Hmmm, RAAAAAAIII (in the tone of MEHTAAAAA), haha. What to tell about this guy, the guy with the best sense of humor, best one liners and best sarcasm. We shared some of the scariest subjects together - compilers (mandatory tag - harshit mahajan "BATAYA TO THAAA") and STPC. The calculations in order to pass, and all the fear about failing was next level! I'm glad The homies assigned rooms alphabetically and I got a chance to find a friend for life. I'll miss the chain reactions of infinite laughter with you buddy. Apart from all the laughter, you are the most helpful guy out there. The perfect mix of roast and help! I wish you good luck for all future endeavors my friend. A mix of emotions are crashing in while I'm waving you goodbye. Sorry for all the times, that I did not mean to hurt - but may have hurt anyway. Stay the amazing person you are! Stay connected. Lots of love <3 Aman Mehta

Ayush Rai our one-liner king(one word), This guy has made us(our group) laugh more than anyone else in these 4 years, but Ayush rai it doesn't mean that the jokes you made on me were funny. There are a lot of things about this guy I didn't understand even after these 4 years like I don't understand why he is too shy, he will be always ready to help you but will hesitate to ask for favor, how he can be so calm every time, how he can always do correct things . I hope one day you will solve all these mysteries about you :P. Ayush Jain

You are really humble and also very understanding, so basically gentleman waali saari qualities to hai bas ek gentle lady ki kami hai :p. Our love and passion for football along with our quality discussions (you know what I'm talking about ;) ) is what I cherish the most. Baaki we all know the real Ayush Rai from Bhopal and tbh I had so much fun in talking absolutely anything to you. One thing which I'm sad about is that we couldn't solve our A* level problem (Color detection) but humaare annotators ke galti thi usme XD. I'll really miss you and I hope that we meet soon. I wish you best of luck for your future and always be like this :D Mohit Chandra

Quote: I'll never forget these great years with all of you!

Best Memory in College? : Its difficult to narrow down to one best memory in college. There were many unforgettable moments in the 4 years. Right from freshers to Felicity every event was a good memory. Staying over night for practices, going to dlf at random times, spending time in lab, random plans to go out, going to classes in the last minute, last minute studying, and the list goes on. The trips to Goa and Pondi were really awesome and will never forget them. These moments will always be cherished.

Biggest change since first year? : I changed from being a not so confident, timid girl to a confident and independent person.

Best thing you learnt from here? : I learnt to be independent and strong. I learnt to work under pressure conditions. I learnt to be with different kinds of people.

One thing you'll miss the most? : I will miss the non-monotonous college life. Definitely the people there. I will miss my friends the most.

One thing you regret not doing? : I don't regret doing anything that I have done in college.

What next? : I am placed in Samsung R&D. I will be going to Bangalore for work.

Biggest change since first year? : I got the overall exposure to various aspects of life and career which made me mature.

Best thing you learnt from here? : Life is all about prioritizing among the available choices.

One thing you'll miss the most? : I will miss everyday walk in green campus with friends.

One thing you regret not doing? : I couldn't contribute to the cultural life of the campus.

What next? : It's not decided yet.

Hey Chaitanya !!! If I had to highlight one perfect man from our batch, it would be you. If I had to highlight the most sensible and intelligent person of our batch, without doubt, it would be you. You are an ever inspiring person of great intellect, determination, smartwork and a passion to succeed. Be clear as you always are, and let your intelligence take humanity to new heights !! Sure you will do great. Swapnil Daga

Wow. Just Wow. The best in every sense. People like him give batches an identity. 10 years down the line, I would definitely be telling others that I was fortunate enough to be in the same batch as Chaitanya Patel. And this is no exaggeration. I totally mean it. The guy is so helping and genuine that sometimes he will make you wonder even if it's possible. Totally amazing person. Hope he will continue to do well just like he is doing now and motivate many more like me. Ayush Rai

Bhaijaaaan! To our amazing mutual taste in background scores and your taste in other stuff (xD). Bhaiya, (mehnat + majja + enjoy + hasmukh) ki bohot badi power is Chaitanya Patel. I admire the way you handled everything and despite being best in so many things, you were as down to earth as someone can be. Bhai tu faad hai. Aise hi haste rehna. I hope you achieve everything you wish for and get the best in life. KUDOS mate!! Moin Hussain Moti

Thanks for putting up with me in those purposeless debates about capitalism and politics and what not. I'll always cherish those silliest and the most idiotic late night discussions. I wish I had a more intellectual enemy to counter me :) But don't feel bad, you tried your best. You reaffirm my thoughts on the impossibility of singularity when I think about entropic randomness and human decision making. Those discussions on late night campus walks will definitely chuckle me a long way from now. How I wish you can find your way back to your own home planet!

The 'M' in Manu stands for "Modi's friend" . A big reason to college being memorable and a success will be your company through the years. Surprising that despite you being the soft one, I have been the one heavily influenced by you. People is a skill you ace at and networking is your oxygen. I am so proud of you for being original throughout college despite any and all friction forces. A testimonial in a book can never be enough for the moments created together but thanks for innumerable memories. Also 'n' in Manu is for "Nhi milegi !". Mayank Modi

Hi buddy. You have been one of my best friends here. You have been the one who showed me that it's okay to not convince the other person about your opinion. You are the one with the amazing voice. Loved singing and performing with you. You gave me our first original song, I still cherish the memories of making it together. You have a nice set of ideologies. I apologise if I have hurt you physically . I look forward to many more trips and memories together. Stay the same. Have a great life ahead Yash Goyal

Aaj bhi mere man me ye sawaal aata hai "Dost ya Dushman" xD. Bhai sabse jyada mai miss karunga apna DLF jaana apne intense discussion throughout the walk and never settling on common grounds xD. Kaafi acha aadmi hai tu dil ka waise hi rehna and agli baar doodhsagar ka plan kab karna hai I am always ready! Best Memory in College? : Felicity Election. Freaking one heck of a month. It definitely did help me understand things and make more friends along the way. The best part were the people who were there when I didn't expect them to be. And obviously Apex - One hell of an experience ??

Biggest change since first year? : I have matured a lot along my course of four years. This is something that everyone around me has noticed. Not gonna regret the change tho ??

Best thing you learnt from here? : Express. It's nice to express what you feel specially to the ones who you take granted. Life's short. It feels good to remind people what they mean to you. :)

One thing you'll miss the most? : Randomness. One day you have classes at 10. Other day at 2. And no classes on some days. Random cancellation of classes. Random assignment evaluations. I'll miss the randomness of life @ IIITH.

One thing you regret not doing? : Being a part of sports even though I actually like playing them. ??

What next? : Taking some of the best memories and friends from here. When I look back at what college gave me ? Well, I have experiences, friends and a high paying job ;)

Dude, you were my first friend in college. Right from the first day, you were always there if I needed anything. I wish I was half as cool and humorous as you are. Now you have become smart too :p. You have tolerated me a lot despite of my no care attitude, my endless taunts and sarcasm. You have always made me feel home and comfy. I want you to start believing in yourselves, because you can do wonders in your life, you have that potential. I will always remember those mid-night lab talks, our IIIT-Microsoft-Amazon "short" walk. To all the food ventures, trip plans and gossip sessions and cheers to many more to come. I will always be there for you, and would just be a call away. Best wishes:D Ashwin Pathak

Brooooooooo!!! I owe you my degree!!! So sabse pehle mere dhanyavad swikar kariye. Love You Bro <3. These 4 years wouldn't have been same without you. You were my partner in crime, crime of copying assignments, shopping limitless, loggon ko judge karna and sab kuch toh main yahan likh bhi nhi sakti, hamari beizzati ho jayegi. Mujhe bigadne mein tera pura pura hath hai. Tu vo dost hai jisse Ma Baap duur rehne bolte hain. Bro aadhi chizen jo likhni hai mujhe vo cencored hai XD. Thank You Bro for being there for me. You always took care of me, room mein yoghurt taste karane ke liye aane se leke, chuttiyon mein mera bed jamane tak to surprise me, mere room mein baith ke cleaning karane se leke, holding me when I was crying. I am sorry bro for dissappointing you again and again, trust me I was trying to not hurt you, but I always somehow failed. I loved being there to listen to you. Bro tere bina inn 4 saal main bina kisi se baat kiye bas kamre mein baithi rehti. Pura 3rd year meri sirf 2 logon se baat hui hai, and you are one of the two. In reply, you said 'Dhanyawad' in a very Gujarati way. Sometimes I felt that you were more Gujarati than me. That instant 'apanaapan' kept increasing day by day between us. I will remember your ever lasting irritation face.

On a more serious note, you were hard working even though a little bit careless. You had unique way of 'living' the life and that will always inspire me to be unique in our own way. The feeling - we don't hangout more often - was forever there and I guess I will regret that. But I am sure, whenever we meet, we'll talk with the same warmth as before.

You are the best roommate I could have asked for. We rarely talked still we had that connection. You are such a sweet person. I wish you always stay this happy. Only if you were in Hyderabad, we could be roommates again. You were always considerate, charming and sweet. You have set the bar too high now. I wish you very good luck for the future and hope to get a chance to be your roommate again. Nikita Agarwal

Kitna lamba hai re tu! Bheed mein alag se dikhta hai xD But yaar seriously, kaafi yaad aayegi teri. Bohot saare course aakhir minute par padha kar aapne bohot courses mein bachaya hai humko. Hamari wing ka stud , Shaktimaan, BJP IT cell ka secret member, churan ka dealer. A true Indori whom I can always trust to have stock of sev and parmal. We all had fun contemplating what used to go inside the closed doors of your room in last few semesters . I don't know what we would have done without your tuts and notes, thank you for each and every one of them. Apologies for all the taunts, PJs and banter, sometimes they were too much, I did cross lines and kept pushing but you know they were always light-hearted and never mean. I have always wished best for you. Uber ke IPO ke baad bhul na jana, yaad karte rahana. Harshit Patni

Apna genuine, hard worker and helpful bhai. I know I am not so social person and many times, I prefer to avoid small conversations, but believe me, I never felt the need to avoid talking to you, never felt uncomfortable talking to you. You always helped me in all random matters. A conversation with you always brings out positive vibes. Keep pinging me time to time, I will also try to do the same. And yes, if I come to Uber, I want a cabin besides yours. Meri jagah bachake rakhana aur sev leke aana.:) Chaitanya Patel

Mahajan Bro !! Another one who has been with me right from the first year. Sahi batau toh, you have changed a lot in these 4 years :p of course on the better side. I still remember your idea for a new mobile OS (which we couldn't make ... XD). You are one of the most helpful and honest guys I have met in this college. You were among the few people with whom I had some very meaningful discussions ... I'm really thankful for that. Needless to say our love for Quora, Hindi Shayaris on Insta and not forget Instagram boomerangs :p . Baaki, aap tall and cute toh hai and usme koi doubt nahi hai :p but most of all you have a very kind heart. "The most loving and caring person I have ever met in my life. Being able to meet you is the working example for ""agar kisi cheez ko pure dil se chaho, to puri kaynaat tumhe use milane ki koshish me lag jaati hai"" - even though I did not get IIT KGP because of you and CSE because of you, I'm glad I took CSD to be able to meet you. I CANNOT EVEN IMAGINE MY LIFE IN COLLEGE WITHOUT YOU! A friend like you feels more like family. Btw, in my heart the correct priority is - 1. you and her, 2. games :P. Get that clear! -- I wish you happiness from the bottom of my heart and keep rocking!! Lots of love <3. Aman Mehta "

Knock knock. "Kon? Kya kaam he? baad me aana so Raha hu me abhi". You yes you how can I even forget you Daant toda he bhai tune mera . First year se aapki dosti ka sowbhagya paya he humne and bahot Khush kismat he hum ki ab ye bond humesha rahegi. To all the birthday ragging of yours Jo Khushi Khushi apni deta he **and paani bhi dalwa leta he Apne par**. To the second most gussail of the wing To chaku chodd To the one who lifts every birthday guy and let others help in GPL. To our Lalwa To our friendship To Homies Vudit Jain

I mean, a testimonial or something can't really justify anything close to what we had in the past four years. I can even write a novel and it won't be enough. Room mates, lab partners, BTP team mates and what not. Though, our dear brother did change a bit in the last year or so due to of course, some external influence :P :P but yeah, I think, that's okay considering one can't find time for everyone ;( I mean, can't start writing about the qualities of this person because writing anything will neither be enough( as previously mentioned) nor will do justice to how amazing he has been but I will only hope that he can continue to be my friend and can find sometime for peasants like us ;( :D :D And yes, big congrats for your 23rd May win. #ATMH

Alright, alright, let's drop some bombs here so that this yearbook comes to life. Where do I start, the best fucking thing to happen in college was meeting you. I don't know what we would've done if we hadn't met. CS:GO brought us together but we became best friends so quickly. I'll never forget our power of literally thinking of the exact same thing almost every time, our very few parties we had after you started, all our CS:GO games where you used to shout so much and all the bitching we did about academics and people. Slay the future buddy with your 3 papers and German internship and let's hope that I pass out in 5. Peace brother! Vineeth Chelur

hey you!!! what more can I write about you , there is so much to learn from you . You are a very hard working and amazing person with excellent time management skills. I want to see you all proud of yourself and happy one day but for me I am already very proud of you <3. Thanks for all the things you have done for me and that you will do for me Xd. I have never been this pampered and thats for making me feel all loved.I hope and wish for all the good in the world for you> Never ever give up and you deserve everything for the hard work you put in <3. Love- vaishnavi Vaishnavi

Hey Hemanth, you are one of the most hard-working and sincere people I know. How do you work so much and do you do so many things in a day? It's an inspiration watching you. I wish I'd gotten to know you earlier, but thank you so much for being such a support in my last sem. Thank you for being my SE teammate, it was so much more fun with you. All the best and don't forget me once you become some thope big shot :P Soumya Vadlamannati hello hemanth! love you and I'm so proud of you for all that you have achieved. always take care of yourself and enjoy your life a little more :p don't worry be happy! Enter Hemanth, the all-rounder. His will to do EVERYTHING properly ends up in him making some great work. Anime, bikes, cars, fitness, TV shows and games - when you talk about these to him, time flies. He can go on endlessly about these things. He understands when people talk about appreciating little things and always shares the same levels of excitement in listening to them. :D Aniruddha Patil

You have been with me through a lot of phases, including helping me brainstorm my life goals and then standing with me like a pillar, had our first fight in Goa (wanted to bring in the Baga night too, but your appa might see this post xD), accompanying me for long walks in 7th sem (we walked nearly 100km together macha :O), teaching me LA super patiently (dunno what i wouldve done without you, guruji <3), laughing at my silliest jokes even, and MOST IMPORTANTLY being a true friend to me. I literally just had a long convo with you sitting on the KCIS terrace XD Dude I don't know where I'd be without you. Everyone needs a friend like you. Without you constantly motivating me and pushing me, I honestly wouldn't have made it through college. What you've done for me, what you mean to me, I just can't put it in words. Even if I could, this space wouldn't be enough. Love you loads Surya Soujanya Kodavalla

"hey papa<3<3<3. I love you so much and for all the things you do for me. You are someone I can count on all the time and thanks for being a mom to everyone. Thanks for being such an amazing best friend and such an amazing person. I will always love you<3 Vaishnavi "

It's way tougher for me to write this knowing I have to go through (at least) one more year of IIIT with you. I hope you'll always remain this chirpy and super-talkative person, who's trying to look out for the people around her. It's great how we can behave utterly unconventionally (for lack of a better term) at one moment and be completely serious the next. Here's to all the good times we've shared yet and all those that are yet to come. Lots of love for you, man. Cheers! :) Aditya Srivastava

Hiii rach! Even though we didn't spend much time together but from the moment I spent with you, I know for a fact that you are an awesome person. You are sweet, caring, sensible and patient and always energetic :P. To all the time when you mixed different places together and weird words you said. Cheers to the double date we had once :P and since we are stuck here for one more year so let's make the most out of it. Thank you for being with me through all the ups and downs. Stay Same and keep rocking <3 Anam Raihan

Right from the beginning, you're one of the few people who've stood by through thick and thin. Over time, I have seen you grow too, from an innocent gullible kid to a bolder stronger (still) kid <3 Thank you for being part of countless precious memories, taking me to hospitals, videotaping me when I was rolled around in wheelchair, putting up with all the madness, trying to get us to dance, and much more. You're one of the few people I know I can always rely on. Love you lots. Aiswarya Sunil

Kirruu! You're one of the few people whom I've known since beginning of college and I'm still close to. Glad our bond has grown stronger over these four years. You're one of the sweetest and most caring people I've ever met. I don't think I'll ever find anyone else who will fall for my pranks as easily as you did XD. Will miss those raga sessions, early morning LA sessions, and late night tawa bona sessions. Also, you will forever be my dance guru. Lots of love <3 Shreya Mandavilli

"Alloooooo, you were my day-1 friend and shall always remain one among my close people. You are the one with whom I have shared a lot of FIRST experiences in college. We've had our ups and downs but then that strengthens our bond even more . I'll miss us sitting lazily and doing random shit. I'll miss teasing *Ross* with our PDA :P. I'll miss our random dance sessions , maybe we can compensate for those by dancing on video calls . Omg I'm gonna miss a hell lot of things dear! I love your helpful and caring nature the most, among other things. Always stay the same Kiran! And of course, I don't need to ask you to stay in touch. I know you will Sreya Mittal "

Kiran met you for the first time when you performed during the inter-batch interaction session, since that day your passion of dancing has been an inspiration to me. Sorry for annoying you during LA and playing pranks on you. You are my favorite person to play pranks on, only because you have the best reaction and you forgive easily. I will keep crashing at your place in Hyderabad so no goodbye yet. Love you loads <3 Roopal Vaid

"Sometimes copycases are good coz we met because of one. You enriched my perspective a lot lot, and put up with a lot of random stories. You were the first one to believe in me, I'll definitely remember that. Idk how you chose people but you have a beautiful friend circle. Like all your friends are good human beings, but then life is good only when its balanced so you have me too. The best part of our friendship is how polar opposites our tastes in movies are. I kept bugging you so much when I was low, but you never gave up. And you are 0 negative ego person which should not change. Rarity real rarity, keep this quality. Looking forward to so many memories in Hyderabad. Krishna Chaitanya Pappu "

You are one of the kindest people I have met in this college and not to forget very sweet too. The way you have handled academics, as well as culturals (your love for dancing is well-known :p), is incredible. Rishabh Arora “

Hello Kiran! It was really nice to have met you. In hindsight, had I been a little less shy I think that we would've talked more post the first semester and made friends instead of acquaintances. As a matter of fact, during our freshers dance practices as well I was a bit hesitant because I'd never danced with a girl before. Lol. But I got over it later and it turned out pretty good in the end. So cheers to that! And in the little time we talked, I thought you were a really sweet and soft spoken person. Quite calm and composed. And you're a great dancer. I liked your cult-night performances. Try not to quit dancing like I did :) Keep smiling and best of luck for your years ahead at Microsoft and everywhere else you go! Aayush Sanghavi

"Hey Kira, sleeping is injurious to health, Just kidding :p, sleep all you can. You're the most recent person to get hold of a place in my list of friends :p. "Oh boy, I seriously don't know what to write about you - my philosophical enemy. Even our wingmates were annoyed by the heated arguments between us. You were the one whose interests aligned pretty much perfectly with mine. I found my intellectual friend in you. I will really miss the time we spent together discussing various things ranging from serious topics like education and defence to light-hearted topics - some of them not suitable to mention here :P. Your room was the place where I used to go whenever I had decision problems or whenever I felt low.

Apart from study and talks, the time we spent together playing counter strike - trying hard to beat ZooZoo, eating food, teasing Kishan, laughing at memes, discussing your 'uninteresting' life - I will never forget that. Although the hope is little, but I think you will find your girl some day and invite us to your wedding (a well discussed topic).

Wish you good luck explaining people about the meaning of 'exact humanities'. Good luck finding a girl of your choice. Good luck with your hope in communism. One of the most easy-to-talk to & down to earth person I have ever met . Thanks for always being there. Love our random chats and conversations. Always stay in touch Bandar and ab hath mat tudwana :p. And Haan Haan Haan Haan. Shreya Chandorkar

Hii Mama I think for the first time we met was in Aakash house practice. Then we came in the same wing beside my room and after that all those late nights gossips, all those bakchodi done in the Aakash house practice and the efforts we have given to get the first prize and then to organize the batch party, through all this, we became a close friend. You, me Sharma, and namit were like a mini family in our wing, and even though we had some ups and downs, we still came together as one in crisis. Also, I want to inform you that you fail in showing off almost every time :P I just want to say that I've never seen a person as dedicated as you and in between your lab and research somehow we are lost in the process of you but still whenever you need us we will be there for you. No matter how much you show as if you don't care, but you care for every one of us, and we know it. Also, Thank you for being there always. Anam Raihan

"Heyooo!!!! It's me, the annoying talkative girl from sidewaala bench:P Just wanted to say that I love all those random long talks we had and will definitely cherish the bond we formed from the lack of AC and lab etiquettes. Also, now that the seating has changed, we'll finally get some work done :P But don't lose touch, keep being fun and cute. Take care. From continuing to enjoy each other's puns, to planning over-ambitious multi-modal art projects, I honestly believe I'm going to enjoy your company more than ever (let's not forget the fact that more than half the batch is leaving and my options are limited anyway). Do I really need to write something for you? You know how much you mean to me after these four years. And anyway, I know that we'll definitely be in touch, where ever we are. You'd probably be happier if oreo and brownie wrote something for you XD Woof wooooof!!! Surya Soujanya Kodavalla

Hey hoe, you know I love you and always got your back niggs. That sweet ass back ;) I have this belief that you're terrible at staying in touch with people, but I'm going to keep eating your head. So have fun :) Shubhangi Gautam

"Hey Medaaa, Thanks for being your fun awesome self. You are the most bindass person I know. I can not imagine anybody else driving 40 km in a cute beachy dress in Goa, breaking open any jammed lock in the hostel or killing any insect with one blow without even flinching. I'm so glad I finally met the George from Famous Five in real life :P (You've read it na?). I wish you all the best, I know you will do amazing things <3 Stay in touch! Soumya Vadlamannati"

Heyyyy, you are one of the strongest, most confident and daring woman I have ever known, never change that. I kept saying it throughout the year, and I'll say it again, "We became to close too late ;)". But I'm still glad I got to know you at least <3 Thanks for being my "second-in-charge mom" during the goa trip xD They were just too many kids xD and also for the thoughtful gifts that you have given us. You are strong and caring, and that's one of the most difficult combinations to find. I hope you achieve everything that you are working for and really hope you come for a visit soon again. K.Rachna

Yo roomieee.. more like my homiee <3 Kya kahu ab... I've already poured my heart out in that letter I left you.. You are one of the very few girls in my life whom I admire the most... we've had great time together man!! I'm so glad we got to be roommates for 3 years.. it only brought us closer <3 And yes let's have a pact that we'll never again love our future roommates the way we loved each other :p <3 Needn't say it but stay in touch or else you know you'll be dead _- hehe.. love u <3 Prakrati Dangarh

"HAAIIYAAA! WACHAK WACHAK! YOU GOT A PROBLEM WITH MA BLUE HAIR? And this is what I imagine older Medha to be. When you're rich and famous, let's go on an adventure together, because I think you will remain as much fun and badass as you are now and it will be AWESOME. Vanalata "

I love y'all wing people so much. You are such a happy bubbly person but your quite frequent rants about random college stuff are equally entertaining. You guys were my first proper group of chick friends and I have so many memorable experiences with you guys which I did not think I would have before coming to third year. Hopefully, the next time that I see you, you will be rocking some cool/

wacky hair colour. You are a proper boss lady and you own it like nobody else's business. I am not good at writing emotional stuff about people. So, if this does not convey how much I enjoyed spending my college years with you, I am really sorry. But you were one of the few people I was always down to hang out with anytime. Kriti Agrawal

So glad that our roll numbers were consecutive. I met a great friend because of that. I'll always remember the times when we screened The Haunting of Hill House in Cognitive Science lab xD Anyway, I hope you continue to do what you love. All the best for your future, and stay in touch. Vijeth T A

We did a bunch of crazy stuff, and I'm rather glad for it considering how much it gives me to look back on with fondness. To me, you've always come across as an extremely fun and genuine person, and I love the amount of confidence you show in your convictions (the CCC is prime example). Hope you have a great life ahead of you and that we stay in touch. :) Aditya Srivastava

Hi Meda, you are an absolute badass, and I am going to miss our conversations a lot. You are also very brave to not give into the peer pressure of placements and following what you love. I am going to miss seeing you around, and in the lab. All the best in everything you do, I am sure you're gonna do great things! Saumya Srivastava

Medhaaaa! It's always so much fun talking to you. Every time I see you, I smile with happiness. You're so cheery and nice. All those dog talks we've had when we were in CCC, I'll never forget your love for dogs. Don't worry too much in life, chill out and enjoy the rest of your life! All the best! Vineeth Chelur

heyy medha <3 will miss you and your fierceness a lot. learnt to stand up for myself from you and I'll always remember the beach walk in goa and the walk to wipro lake. i'll miss petting doggies with you and annoying you. love you a lot dude. do well and be happy. <3 Soujanya C

Yo! Continue to follow your heart in whatever you do. One of the few people I have seen who actually do that. It's been great knowing you and hope it's not the end. Cheers! Suhan Prabhu

"Medha!! Here's to all the naruto discussions we have had. I wish I got to know you earlier but meh guess that's how life is. All the best for your future. I am still mad at you that you couldn't recognize tsunade's necklace, Ima haunt you about this all your life XD. Hemanth Vemuri "

"Hiiii medhaaaa! It was a pleasure to know you although I regret the fact that I came to know you very late but better late than never. You are a very sweet, innocent and generous person. People like you make this world a better place to live. Stay Same and don't take tension everything will work out for your betterment :) Anam Raihan "

I have seen faces of people spanning almost 7 batches but couldn't find anyone who constantly has a soothing smile and warm nature like you have. Talking to you was always a medicine of positive vibes for me. Keep that quality intact!! Have a happy future ahead!! Chaitanya Patel

Hey! Cheers to all the on and off-court wali bakchodi and thanks for all the cheer dude (Kaafi zyada energetic hota tha woh) :D. All the best ahead Medha! :) Rishabh Arora

Hey! You really need to stop thanking me for the CogSci work, maine itna kuch nahi kiya xD Didn't get to know you too well, thanks to my sporadic-at-best texting frequency. That Tinder chat with you and Shubhi is definitely a very fond memory of mine. You seem like a very chill girl to hang out with - do stay in touch! All the best! Vedant Sareen

Medha, it has always been so fun talking to you. Thanks for bearing us while we hijacked your lab for our bullshit conversations in the name of e-cell. All the best and stay in touch! Ayush Deva

Medhaaaa!!! You the best!! You are a very sweet and caring (especially to animals) person and the world really needs people like you who care for animals. I will always have the utmost respect for you for all the genuine efforts you put for those dogs. Also, a very special thank you again for that sweet gift of yours, I will always cherish it. I hope you always remain as cheerful as I have known you to be. Best of Luck for all your future endeavors. Moin Hussain Moti

We had some insane deep conversations, what can I say great minds think alike :p. I admire the animal lover in you. Thank you for always being the kind and genuine friend you are. Good luck and tons of best wishes. Lots of love <3 Roopal Vaid

Heyyy! You're lots of fun to be around, and I'll never forget the badminton matches we have played with and against each other :P All the best in everything you do <3 Aiswarya Sunil

Bold and Beautiful ! you are one strong person. I hope you are always happy :* Navya Khare

With you sitting beside, I will miss your numerous small doubts that you used to ask the faculty and which also used to be the only time of me paying attention or rather, acting as if I was paying attention to Prof because of him looking directly at us It was really nice knowing you in person. I hope we can stay in touch and wish you best of luck for your future endeavors. Ayush Rai

I really enjoy our talks in corridors, rooms and everywhere we bumped into. I really hope we can do this even in future too. Love you. All the best!!!! Sripravallika S

Medha, you're a marvellous, inquisitive, and interesting person. I love how confident you are with your thoughts at times. I really liked those random discussions at the tea stall, the labs, and literally wherever. Best Memory in College? : Getting rid of those inhibitions and acting as "chhotaa don" in freshers! Was special coz I was very new to all this and it was overwhelming and fun at the same time!

Biggest change since first year? : I learnt a lot about life values and realized that I was probably not so humble in first sem/year. Apologies to anyone I offended.

Best thing you learnt from here? : I became more open to people's opinions and prolly spend more time to understand where those opinions are coming from before making my judgement.

One thing you'l miss the most? : The atmosphere where everyone just wanted to have a good time irrespective of the work pressure. Like a bunch of people just woke up at 6:30am to attend the GoT screening even though there would have been lots of assignment pressure! Lol even the guard was surprised. The community feeling and the chill atmosphere was awesome!

One thing you regret not doing? : Start playing a sport.

What next? : Work life is going to start! Adulting seems exciting and scary at the same time.

Chota don, megh tu hamare batch ka sabse cute banda hai. Always loved talking to you aur tere adventures sunne mai kaafi mazza aata tha. namit sawhney

"Yeah, we have mostly discussed everything but still, I will mention these few things. London mai kabhi agar koi controversial joke dimaag mai aaye to pehle mujhe send kar ke puch lena :p Not all people let it go like Vedit :p Aur ha, Vadodara mai Chicken Snacks shop zaroor kholna, mai aaouna waha pakka :p Moin Hussain Moti "

Don't let your shine die because of a glum world, my bro. Megh is too lit to handle by normies, but a 24x7 rockstar in terms of his high level jokes. ;) Aniruddha Patil

You were a great friend. All the Baroda relates, and the train journey. Was a pretty good bonding experience. And then there was Sar Pass. Got to learn a lot from you. Best of luck! Aur megh, London mein &*&%^$@ ban ke mat rehena XD Haard Panchal

Megh sir, aapke toh kya kehne, first year se hi macha rahe ho app toh. A really good friend and one of the most awesome person to hang out with. Baaki aapki bondiyat ki toh kya tareef karu :p ... Thanks for helping me out with various assignments ... meri 9 cg mein tera bhi contribution hai :p . Though I must say I hate you for not treting me ... ab kam se kam Bloomberg ka referral de dena :p . Best of luck for your future endeavors :D Mohit Chandra

It was a pleasure to ruffle your hair, watch gajju and you screaming across my room and put things above your reach. You got the right job in dasaland. Become the true bevda you were born to be. Plenty of irish pubs for you there, kek. Keep spamming quasmic as well. This is not goodbye nigger. arun g

Megh Sirrrr! The real OSDG bond - thank you for all your help with web dev. Looking at you motivated me to start with open source, and I'm so glad that I did. Continue exploring new places and new cuisines, and I'll try and do the same - aur kuch nahi toh khaana hi discuss karte rahenge? "Megh Parikh!! You are the personality which always amazes me. You acted as being lazy, but still worked hard for what you liked. You acted like being frugal, but never hesitated to travel around and to try new restaurants. You are the inspiration for me to get out of the social comfort-zone. It was always a treat to the soul to talk to you or to go out for dinner with you. Again, it's hard to describe for me in words but you really were an amazing personality. Be such a cool guy always!! Best of Luck!! Chaitanya Patel "

You are one of the more entertaining guys I know, despite the fact that we have our differences. It was fun playing board games and PC games together, going to "McD", and going on treks. All the best with your chicken stall! Arjun P

Meghz! One of my best friends - I can't think of college without you, we stuck together right from the very first day of college all the way until now. Sorry for "spoiling" you with all my chilling! I cherish all our countless memories together - talking for hours in the room, sleeping in classes, getting woken up by alarms, group assignments (in which we got crappy marks thanks to me :-P), gaming, movies, last-second studying for exams, the list goes on and on. You're an excellent programmer and in general one of smartest guys I have met, and I'm grateful for all that you taught me. Hence I am sure you'll continue to do well in the future. Sourabh Rajguru

"MEGH!!!!!! Batch ke chahite herooooo! Bro the level of happiness and kindness in your nature is too damn high. And thanks to your for helping me develop an amazing taste for the animated movies. "Yaar, it was a pleasure knowing you. It's a shame we only got close towards the very end but better late than never. I'll miss the late night conversations we had in the last few weeks with Eachu and Bub. One of my most cherished memories will always be us singing along to those senti Hindi songs with the alcohol slowly hitting us, in Repete. I've always appreciated you never shying away from an unpopular opinion and speaking your mind. Also, someone has to tell you and it may as well be me: your jokes are god awful man.

You were incredibly fun to hang out with and I really hope to meet you soon but have absolutely no idea when that will be once you're outta here. Enjoy the next phase of life mate. See you sometime soon, hopefully. Rohan "

Megh bhaai! To all the fun lab times! :D Aise hi mast raho, and machate raho! Devansh Manu

Keep in touch and best of luck with Bloomberg and Chicken Shop at Vadodara. Ashwin Pathak

Theory > Software Engg :P Haha, jk. We've had our differences, but still I can say that I'll miss you. It was fun studying with you, right from Graph Theory in 3-1. I think that Modelling & Simulations was the worst of them all, but we somehow got through that cancer. Tbh, big thanks for choosing Sar Pass, though we were dreading it during the trek. Have a great time in London, and all the best for your chicken shop plan in Gujarat. Vijeth T A

But, I must admit you had a very important role in me becoming what I am today from a lazy/stubborn person. I always admired how clear you always were towards your goal. Biggest change since first year? : Less childish than before for sure :p

Best thing you learnt from here? : The college life taught me to be independent if nothing else. I learned how to cope with the situations which are not favorable to you and still come on top.

"Dear Roomie Chandra, From the first night of freshers' practice to the few final days of last summer, this friendship is one for the ages. The milk-allergic friend I never knew I needed. You have become a friend that can understand me even without telling! You have made me a better person. You are the person who exemplifies the words hard-work and passion. You don't know but, you are that smart and intelligent. The walks of campus or football matches in D-27, I will miss your company. Some amazing and some not so great weekly outings will have to end now. (Hope you can give some cooking tips or I might die from Hunger soon). Finally, I may be gone but, I am just a thought away, a call away. You might feel everyone is leaving you away, that is because you are that reason for all us to come back again each year to this college. [Hopefully, just One Year!] Just like planning all other things in our group. Isse ""good-bye"" matt samajana. Itna aasaani se pichha nahi chhutega! baaki toh milte he! Alakh Desai "

"From the first time when I met a little chubby Mohit to now we have come a long way and have really become the closest bros before hoes. You have literally made my each day at hostel special and worth living. We had so much in common apart from your love for non veg and mine for veg, that we cherished through these four years. From my first outing in college to my first trip with college mates to the gym in final year we did it together. Every hour we created a new memory that we can never forget, from all the small little fights we had to the time you spent in my room (rather pseudo your room). I have learned a lot from you, from all the manners to SMAI you left no stone unturned. My strongest bolster through thick and thin, the one who I could share anything with, without a tad bit of fear. I can go on writing but ultimately words would not be sufficient to describe our life that we lived together. Finally to one of the three musketeers: "Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined." Hope you will complete your research soon and we will keep meeting often. I pray that you land up wherever I would be. Would only wish that you achieve higher than whatever you aim. Vivek Jain "

Mohit Chandra from first year to now, may be I have seen you growing more than your mother. Because in first you were like a boy who is always crying for little things, ragged by his batchmates only to doing all those big things on your own (although still crying every time). But from the first year to now this journey, I can't imagine it without you. All those studies together, all those projects, all those endless talks, all those "zindagi ka gyan", all those tips to be cool , all those weird things we have done together were the most amazing things in this entire journey. How could I not mention our fights they were dangerous but do you know what's the best part of it? It's the fact that they were really strengthening our friendship. Please bro, try not to get placed at a better place (kidding, All the best for your future endeavours). Ayush Jain

Aise hi maze krte krte 5 saal Mai Nikal jayio (Abhi se nahi bhai, agle saal saath Mai rhna hai ). I hope ek din tujhe milk pine Ko mil jaaye Aur haan NG puch Rahi thi tere baare mai, reply kr diyo . Be as fun loving and awesome as you are. #Kassi #CanteenBoy #PartyBoy #DashingMan #Snake #SudoMatka Love you Bhai, Stay Connected Harshit Mahajan "

Great guy. Apart from him saying, "main 2006 se football dekh rha hoon", a genuine and truthful person as well. Few people can take the jokes in ways like he does, a quality heavily undermined. Aur bhai, ek baat bata, bola tha tune tu kisi party mein nahi aayega but phir bhi baad ki saari parties mein aaya hai tu. Not so "true to his words" guy, I see. Among many interests that we share, our love for SUSHI is legendary. Just hope we find a good one really soon :P XD Ayush Rai

I really learnt a lot from you when it comes to aesthetics, food and courses. I had no idea how to survive courses in IIIT, but I gained a lot of insights from you during 2nd year. You are such a "posh", sophisticated and fun-loving person, that is what makes you unique and special. To all the neighborly talks, discussions about whole IIIT and many more, I have a lot of memories of fun etched already. I hope we get something fruitful from our research soon. Best of luck and keep in touch :D. Ashwin Pathak

One hell of a dedicated, hardworking guy and a true friend I will always cherish our talks on life, philosophies, politics, football and tech. Thank you for always being there for me in the wing when everyone else wasn't Jaldi jaldi research complete kar aur London aa, we will buy the season tickets for spurs. Harshit Patni

Mohit!!! I think we got to know each other better as co-interns at Microsoft than in college! It was a delight getting to know you! You come across as a very straight-forward, understanding and fun person! We should definitely play badminton sometime :P Hoping to spending more fun moments with you once u join Microsoft!! Keep in touch! Kiranmayee

"Mohit, The best thing about you is you have a childlike innocence, a pure one. You've been through a lot over the years but still you counter it with your hope and positivity. I relish the conversations I have with you. We bonded a lot during SMAI Taship. you and kulin were the only good thing about that Taship. I am happy you moved to our lab and are going good. Finish your thesis and let's chill in Hyd. be in touch always looking forward to catch up with you. Krishna Chaitanya Pappu "

Mohit, as you said, we first met on the first day itself. In a way we are polar opposites, you being lactophobic and I being lactophilic :P But you are one of the nicest persons whom I have met on campus. Our site and art classes were damn good, you being loved by Naini and I think you were the only guy who got As in both the sems. We may also not have spent a lot of time together, but I share a special bond with you. Whenever I see you, only good comes up my mind. Thank you for being in my college life and hope that our bond remains the sem. Also, fifth-year bacha hai :P namit sawhney

Nalin, the cool guy. Bhai tu perfect banda, jaise aaj ke youth ko hone chaiye. Hard working and having their own opinion and no shame to express it. Terse kaafi late baat hui, but I found a dear friend in you. namit sawhney

Hey Nemesis. I am very jealous of your and Manas's friendship, not because you are his friend, because you are not my friend. I haven't seen friendship as selfless as yours. You are very nice as a person. I really wish that we become friends and stay friends for years. Nikita Agarwal

Bhai ab tere bare Mai kya he likhu jaga kaam hai kafi. You were the first person I messaged when joining the institute and from then onwards we have made a lot of memories together. Dost, what do I even say? I've shared a lot of stuff with you over the years, and even though we've had our ups and downs, I continue to count you among one of my dearest and most valued friends. While there is considerable distance between us now, I hope it won't stop you from reaching out to me if you ever need. Here's to a catching up soon! Cheers. :) Aditya Srivastava

Bro! You are one of the coolest person I know. You are the one who has his own unique ideologies and I respect you for it. You are one of the most helpful guys out there. Tune hi mujhe aadhi raat ko khana khilaya hai. Tune hi mujhe actual RAP se introduce karaya hai. Tu nhi hota toh Tiwari mujhe pura influence kar deta. You are the one who taught me that following your own heart is important(no matter how much the other person requests something else). We have some great memories together, looking forward to more. Stay the same. Have a great life ahead. Yash Goyal

Namit brooo! We may not be related by blood, but if there was a thing as rakhi for brothers then I would have surely tied you. You are literally amazing bhai, you listen to me when I need advice, if I am sad then you try to cheer my mood. Even when you have some urgent work you always left it for us. When I joined IIIT then I thought that I won't find a single person who is like me and then I found you the one who was more selfless, more innocent than I ever was. Sometimes when I doubt that I couldn't survive this society your name pops out in my brain. You inspire me to be a better person in this cruel world. If someone asks what was the best bits of IIIT then I would surely say the time I spend in D-210 with you and Sharma. I thank God every day for bringing you into my life you have been a huge influence on my life. Also, we have one more year so let's create more memories together and I hope that we get placed in the same city. Stay Same and Keep Rocking <3 Anam Raihan

Some of the most valuable achievements at this time were not possible without you. I know that trying to make me a sophisticated person is one of the very few failures of your life sorry for that . Ayush Jain "

Aye novs baby .. tu faad hai randi. Probably the best roommate jo terekko mil sakta tha .. mila. Saala 1st year mein sone hi nahi dia. Aisa kon karta hai bhai ki gadde se hi gira dia aur gadde ko chaaro direction se cover kar dia. Neend k baare mein kabhi sununga pep talks, yeh nahi socha tha kabhi, aur terese toh bilkul nahi socha tha. Sahi tha 1st year. Aur uske baad toh bhai 2nd year toh kaise hi nikal gya mereko toh kuch yaad bhi nahi kya hua uss time. Aur uske baad aaya 2nd year ICPC, jisme tune bina puche team bana li aur fir mereko hi bolta k tu nahi aaya -_. But 3rd year mein saath mein gaye na. Aur ab beer buddies ban gye hai apan do. Tu zyada mat pia kar jaldi out ho jata hai bsdka. But koi nahi, mai bhi kabhi out hua karta tha. Aur ab toh mast schedule ban rakha hai tera next 6-7 months ka. Heyman! You were one of the most exceptional personalities around. Got to learn a lot about your perspectives in our McD visits. Playing football with you was also an experience :P. Jk, it was all fun! Will always remember the night when you pulled out the whiteboard and marker and started making that gossip graph. Stay in touch! All the best for your job and your future endeavors! Haard Panchal

Parth, bhai tu faad banda. You know how to keep people together and work them. Not once I have seen you misbehave with anyone. Tera nature teri USP hai. Hamesha aise rehna and best of luck bhai. namit sawhney

I really enjoyed talking to you more this year, and analyzing things. I'm glad you were in my wing. I remember those days you kept asking everyone you saw about what you should do in life. I hope you find something that you feel content doing! Keep in touch! :) Arjun P

My man! So many memories: so many fights, so many outings and of course football. We didn't get along too well in 1st year but 2nd and 3rd year were fun times being in the same wing. SO MANY late night conversations, *talking* sessions and so much time spent on the ground together: be it turf or be it inter batch/college games. You were the only one as crazy as me (if not more) on the ground haha. FC election campaign with you was another major memory from college life. We spent so much time campaigning, damn! I regret us not talking much in 4th year but well, nothing we can do about that now. You were really fun to be around and very helpful. I'll always cherish our friendship. Let's stay in touch and try to meet each other whenever we're in the same cities. Good luck with everything man, I'm sure you'll do well! See you soon. Rohan Parth sir! Goa ka beer pong yaad rahega permanently mujhe. Ham dono ka desi cheezo pe connect mast hota tha aur usse bahut maza aaya! Pune mai bahut greenery hai aisa suna! All the best! ;) Megh Parikh

Ah fam, thanks for being the greatest roommate ever. I'll

BAAAAAATT, ek number ka saap dhokebaaz haha. An amazing friend. ECE buddies. Voh exam ke pehle lakshya ka room ;), those last moment classes we took together XD. Ayush Surana

Cheers to all those football and drinking times bro! I guess we talked a lot more in the last semester, than we did before that. You're a fun guy, and we should have hung out more often during college. All the best for your MBA plans, and stay in touch, brother. Vijeth T A

Hey man! Didn't know you enough except as the angry united fan in 1:3 years. But knew you better in 4th and I'm sure we've had lots of memorable events. Cheers to all those times at McDs and the random talks in general. Good luck at Nvidia! Anubhab Sen

“Pooja... Atlas of my ES team fellow APJ adrent fan Such a balanced, mature girl You always carry a smile and I can't recollect your face without it, do carry it in future too. Also, you scared me with your Sanskrit proficiency next level and also I passed that Course only coz of you. But there's one promise you didn't fulfil :p You told me you'll but you didn't walk out of any class. And Tamil, kept bugging you about Tamil and the crazzy conversation that day, outside your lab, I guess none of us will forget you, me and Anjan. Pooja, apdiye badrama pathukonga ungalkulla irukkura Nalla manushana romba rare ungamari irkurathu. All the best It is unfair if I end your testimonial without a Tamil quote :p Kadavugal Tirakkum Vazhi Un Kanavugal Parakattume Krishna Chaitanya Pappu ”

“And finally, here I am writing the requested testimonial. ;P. I have known you since the first day of college, many things changed since then, but the only thing that remained constant was your dedication towards your work. You were always an inspiration to me. I had learned a lot from you. Remember one thing, Malani always pays his debt, so bas ping kar diyo kabhi bhi koi kam ho, I know one thing and that is how to get things done. ;P I was always amazed by the amount of hard work you put in everything. You were literally all-rounder of our batch, excelled in everything, may it be study, sports, cultural events... and the list goes on...but the best of all, your speeches, seriously yaar humesa best hote the. So, maybe politics could be one of the potential options for you, when you will be back from the US and when it is the time to contribute back. I hope you prove Zulu wrong. ;P. Just remember one thing, we are here to put a dent in the universe. Saurav Malani ”

"A perfect package! Typical famous extra-ordinary guy of the batch with great academics, great social circle, great extracurriculars. I can't find anything which you haven't done and a normal passing out student usually regrets not doing. Although I might have fewer interactions with you than others, for me, it was always smooth and comfortable talking to you. I wish our paths keep crossing time by time.

And yes, apani shaadi me jarur bulana. Chaitanya Patel "

Hello! For me, you have always been the poster boy for the bond 3rd year batch. I used to be terrified of you in 1st year. But seeing you perform in the skit and interacting with us was so amazing. That was my first felicity and just the whole experience of being part of that amazing thing was great. I would love to see you act again. Wishing you all the very best. Take care:) Shweta Sahoo

"The guy with the best beard. This guy has done it all, ICPC, Deanslist, Financecouncilandwhatnot and lastly FB London placed <3. The allrounder in true sense. The Ahmedabad trip couldn't have been so amazing without you *dad*. xD Thanks for planning it for us kids and showing me around Ahmedabad. And thanks to aunty for that cheat Chicken which my mom would hate me for eating if she ever knows. xD Thanks for all the parties that I was invited (and not invited to -_-). Be the amazing person you are. I don't feel I should wave you good luck, since the BOND is already doing so good in life. Stay connected bud, will miss you and have fun in London. Thanks for being there. Lots of love <3 Aman Mehta "

Hi! Got to know you because of your proximity to my room. Very annoying at night when I'm trying to sleep, but really nice otherwise :P. Also all rounder, so enough said I guess xD. Good luck! Anubhab Sen

Hey Bhasin! Well, we went through quite a lot of stupidity the last year :p But it was fun and memorable for sure XD It was really fun working with you in all the committees and see you manage things. All the best for your future and Have Fun in London! Eavanshi Arora Bhasiiiiiiiiin!! Idk when and how the transition happened from judging you (for the Stand-up Comedy Act, of course :P) to considering you as my brother, as one of my closest, as my confidant. I'm glad it did :) I discovered gradually that you seem very tough and all, but actually you're very soft-at-heart You've been a great friend and I cannot wait to spend more more time with you in London

Wishing you all the very best, and sending loads of love!

I surprise a lot of avid DoTA fans by my DoTA knowledge that I picked up from your constant ramblings haha. It's been great knowing you. I remember how annoyed you'd get when we all would call you DASA in first sem. Football also gave us a lot of memories, be it turf or inter batch/ college games. You were a proper diva on the ground haha. The frequency of your injuries is still scary, take care man! Those Mafia nights were absolutely boss. <3

Take care man and hopefully we'll meet a couple of times before you're outta here. And lord knows when we will meet again. Good luck with everything fam! Rohan "

Sup, DPS buddy? I can never forget all the fun we had in Umesh's place. Nice songs, beer, J's and board games; was very relaxing and fun at the same time. Apart from that, we've had a lot of fun playing football during turf, and in college (whenever I showed up :P). You're a very chill guy, and I wish you all the best in ASU. Stay in touch, brother.

"I'll keep it short. A testimonial here isn't going to do justice to our friendship anyway. My first room mate ever and one of my first college friends. It was wonderful knowing you and you'll always be one of my most cherished friends. You're one of those weird people who can be incredibly immature and unbelievably sensible More often than not, it was immature and that's probably why we bonded haha. I don't think I've ever laughed as much as I have in the company of you and Haard. The edginess, the Pubg and the random YouTube sessions were hella entertaining. I've so many memories with you, it's unbelievable. Right from the first week of college where I was ready to call an ambulance after hearing you cough like a maniac, to accidentally locking you out of the room for half a day to randomly shouting at people passing by OBH in 4th year, we've come a long way. Stay in touch man, I know we will. Hopefully we'll meet each other often. I'm sure you've a bright future ahead of you, I've met few people as ambitious as you. Until we meet again, brother! I'll miss you. Rohan "

Terekh dekh kar maine bhi google keep pe cheeze likhni chaalu kardi trips/party k baare mein. aur bhai teri bday ki party, still the best party hai bhai. Kitni bakchodiyan kari thi xD. Ishq mohabbat, tension jaaye, uncle ko bro bola, deva and piddu. BC dj se bolkar saaare wing waale gaane chalwa die. Aur bhai tu driving school waale k baare mein sahi tha. Merese agle din hi puchta "paisa laaya kya ?". Aur haan .. thoda control mein karna thik hai xD. Teams monologue bhai <3, abhi mantle paas kar dia hai toh tu hi bolna, mai doosra monologue dhoond lunga koi nahi. Probably "that up there .. that is the endgame" waala xD. Chalo ab end karta hu bohot bada hogaya hai .. itna toh environment ka assignment mein nahi likhta tha. Amandeep Shahi

"Yo roomie! One of the best friends I made at college although you must agree that the start wasn't a little creepy. It was wonderful to have met you and known you so well over the years. Kaafi badhiya badhiya memories bani tumhare saath. Counseling, philosophy aur bakchodi ke kaafi sessions aapke saath kiye. Bohot mast the college ke 4 saal kyunki tum bhi saath the humare. Kuch ups and downs bhi the but badhiya ride thi apni friendship ki. Aur kabhi paani bharne chalna hotoh batana. Lol. Tujhse ek bohot achi cheez seekhi maine - doing what you like or feel like doing at that moment and prioritising it above other things. Uske alawa thoda sa additional music taste bhi develop hua. I might be forgetting a lot of other things but unke liye bhi thanks! Mujhe bohot khushi hui thi jab tera GSoC hua tha aur Facebook mein job lagi thi. Achi mehnat kari thi tumne toh kaafi well deserved. Aise hi aage badhte rehna. Cheers to everything! Keep in touch. London jaake bhool mat jana. Many wishes and best of luck! Aayush Sanghavi "

"Oye Mittha, kaaaaaaafi mithaap karna padega isme toh

. But seriously, I got reminded of so many memorable moments that we've shared. I still remember your gaping eyes and wide-open mouth when you got to know my JEE Mains mark . I cannot possibly forget 'kya_baat' . The Mittal-Delhi logic .The Maths-2 Quiz. Idk if we'll ever be able to recollect what we were laughing about that day! Getting mithaap from you, after my anger, used to be my guilty pleasure .College memories with you will also remind me of us running in the dreaded PT Ground the very last night we met! Thanks for the music/movie/shows recommendations, mate. Don't take my ""Chup ho jaa na yaar"" seriously ever, ever :) . Wishing you all the best! Lots of love Here's to loads of #lamejokes #hasna #thakna and a lot more in London! P. S. If you write something similar, it'll be just another milestone for our telepathy level Sreyा Mittal "

"Hey Rohan! You are probably one of the nicest person I know on campus. I still remember you trying to make me feel welcomed & comfortable and offering help in my initial days here at IIIT. Thanks a lot. On a completely different note, I have learned a lot about football from reading your posts & comments on fb, than actually following it lol XD Please continue writing in future too :p Good luck with everything that comes your way, mate! Man, you're one of the most closest friends I've ever had. Don't regret any part of our friendship, except towards the end, when I couldn't spend enough time with you. Be it playing PUBG, lazing around, watching a match or playing football or cracking those edgy jokes, I enjoyed each and every bit of the time we spent together. 4-1 sem was the most amount of fun I had in college, just because of the wing. By now, you probably know everything about my family, school friends, relatives, lol actually my whole backstory. I wish I had memory like yours. Anyways, college was a great experience and I'm glad I shared a significant part of it with you. Best of luck for the future, mate! Haard Panchal

Rohan bro, Apne chote mote facebook pe discussions toh chalte hi rehte hai, but out of the football sphere, you are a very nice and helpful guy :P. sorry, tujhe kabhi zyada bol diya ho. And one more thing, you are a better keeper than

Namaste bhai, your are one of the most Friendliest person I have met. Yes football was fun till the time I played . Hope we meet again. All the best, stay in touch Lakshya Agrawal

100% agreed dude. Watching those games is one of my high points in college. You were awesome to talk to dude. I will always appreciate your honesty. You were capable of debating retarded mancs. How you did it, I'll never know. Here's to the quadruple next season. EZ pz. quomo gg. arun g

Such a sweet, reasonable, and genuine fellow. Turf outings and match screenings were always fun with you man Let's stay in touch (over match discussions if nothing else xD), and go out for another turf outing (or play mafia for once?) whenever we meet up again. All the best! Vedant Sareen

I like how social and outgoing you were, and tried to learn a bit from you. I probably failed though :-P. Will remember those lit mafia sessions and football games. All the best! Sourabh Rajguru

Bhai! It was amazing to discuss things related to football but I am sorry to say that you are biased :P Anyway, you are an amazing person to know. "Tuta tuta ek parinda...." :p That night was super lit! Your perspective about a lot of things was great and I had a nice time having those masala and deep night talks with you! I hope I develop such a nice perspective and try to do things the right way instead of just not caring enough sometimes. Thanks for being a good friend and all the best! Megh Parikh

I really appreciate all the discussions we've had over the years, both about personal things and about abstract things. I appreciate that your arguments were always sound, just from a different perspective. When I was having a hard time, your advice was pretty valuable to me to keep going. I won't forget those late night talks, or those long Mafia nights. Let's make sure to keep in touch -- keep initiating those video calls! All the best! Arjun P

We've had our ups and downs, but I'm glad that I got a chance to be your friend. We did a lot of stuff together, football, elections, BTP but I'll look back at the third floor talks with everyone most fondly. I love your fierce loyalty and unapologetically being yourself. Stay in touch mate!

Guess this year was finally yours. Parth Shrivastava

"I believe if you would've placed the bet, I wouldn't have lost xD. Nevermind though. One thing I think we both share is the Grammar Nazi thing ( though I write wrong sometimes, I try :P ). Also, playing/discussing football was fun with you mate. Hope Pool win the league in the coming years with this great team. Also, you never felt like a Dasa rather a Desi guy who knows angrezi ;)
Will definitely be in touch bhai. Good luck! Have fun! Gopal Chitalia "

"Rohan broooo. Patla hoja moteee. Please. fatt jaega varna xD. Buddy, I can't tell you how much I've respected your opinion in everything. You're really one of the most balanced and nicest persons I met in college and please aise hi rehna. Aur bhai vo codecraft team. Bhai kaafi next-level experience tha wohh yaaaar. Hamesha yaad rahega. Has all the good qualities of a good friend, and is the one guy I will miss forever in my life. I genuinely regret not having kept aside enough time to spend with you and the fam - work always got in the way, and I think for me always will - but don't forget man, you're hella important to me. We go way beyond our music taste, edginess, PUBG and late night sesshs. Keep in touch, I'll miss you. Channelize all that energy you have into one direction - you have a bright future ahead, my mans :) Pranav Nair

Hey Rohan! Sure we had some differences between us but I guess that is what makes the journey memorable. All the very best for your future Eavanshi Arora

The REAL TURF BOII. Thanks a lot for all the turf memories, and pulling me into turf whenever I said no. You're an amazing, caring person, and I wish that we had talked more. I hope that you get to watch a Liverpool FC match someday! All the best for your future, and stay in touch macha. Vijeth TA

Hi! Talked a lot in first and fourth year! Best lab partners. Also the deep conversations post Goa were amazing. Also welcome to the Bewda club, we could've gone so much more to Madhushala. You had so much potential, but you're an LFC fan. Sad Anubhab Sen

One of my first friends in the college, a very helpful guy and a really nice human being. Can't forget us having those small football talks. Loved to share the field on few occasions as well. I wish you all the best for your future endeavors and hope we can stay in touch. Ayush Rai

"If I could change one thing about being friends with you it would be to have become friends with you sooner. Hindsight 20/20. I'm going to try my best to stay in touch with you, and if you know anything about me, the fact that I'm willing to put in the work required should tell you how much this friendship means to me. Right from painting each other's portraits in Site & Art, to having deep meaningful conversations for hours, we've come a long way. You're the healthiest and least lazy among all of us, do stay the same. We've ever so many fond crazy memories together, from attempting to wake early and jog, to badminton, glass painting, and many more which involve us almost dying laughing. Love you lots <3 Aiswarya Sunil

Roopal! Still remember when I saw you in amphi during our orientation session, feeling relieved to find someone who looks as young as me. You have this insanely mature side of yours as well the crazy kid side of yours. Will miss those random late night talks, ofc your late night hunger cravings, and those LA classes how we've managed to stay awake almost all classes. Also, I hope we soon become the stars of starmaker. Thanks for always being there. Lots of love <3 Shreya Mandavilli

Hello my fashion icon! You are one of the sweetest, genuine, understanding, fun-loving souls I have met! Thank you for being an awesome friend! I am going to cherish all the splendid memories we have made - random late night talks, JC walks, ur LA annoyance :P <3, and many more ! Im going to miss you so much :( Love you loads!! PS:- Looking forward to learning some dance with you, and making many more awesome memories during our time in Hyd! Kiranmayee

"Lots of memories were made with this one, the little one. :P From deep late night talks about our existence, over the wrong choices of milkshakes, to talking about different kinds of art, music and ridiculous amounts of memes - that's how we roll. Dora is awesome company because she's thoughtful and her face is the size of a hazelnut. :D Aniruddha Patil "

"Rooopppaall!!!! It has not been long but it has been awesome and is going to be splendid where we will make a lot of memories! Very few friendships are blessed, where you don't think before sharing your heart out, understand and trust each other and have no expectations from each other! Vese tum jese item se expectation rakh bhi kya sakte hai :P I regret not meeting you before but koi nahi ab pakad me aayi hai :P! Hope you achieve all your dreams! Always be happy and lots of love! <3 Tirth Maniar "

Hey Roopal !! You are a really sweet and fun person to hang out with. I will always remember the time we spent together, pondi being the highlight of them all and our discussions on randoms topics ( can never forget the ones we had on lizards and grasshoppers XD xD) Stay cheerful as you are always! Be in touch and all the best for a bright future :D Pooja Guhan

Here's to all our random ass bitching sessions XD You are one of those people who has tons of crazy hidden under that calm demeanor which is why I like you so much :P Hope you end up having one of those huge walk in closets just for all your shoes XD All the best dude Surya Soujanya Kodavalla

Roooopal! I totally love your Instagram feed is the first thing I wanted to say Also your sense of fashion is actually great. It has been fun knowing you ever since kota and I still remember how much your parents helped me during Advanced exam. I am really thankful to them for everything they did without knowing me and you have been same like them too All the best for your future Eavanshi Arora

"As much as your adventurous self, I've been fond of witnessing the mundaneness in you. So, instead of just your tantrums, your rebellions and the wanderings, I did cherish our semesterly encounters too. But, now that you're almost gone know that I'll miss you, and I wish you well with everything that comes ahead. Utkarsh "

"Yesterday, All my troubles seemed so faaar awayyyyy! :D Cheers to our mutual good (:P) taste in Music. Plis keep sending new songs every now and then xD All the best ahead! Rishabh Arora "

hey roopal!! You are such a fun and crazy person. Stay the same and lets stay in touch plis. Vaishnavi

Hi Rubal, hope things are going well in the mountain of research load you're stuck in! Shit happens, but damn your guts to change the advisor at such a late stage! You seem to be a really fun person even though we did not get a chance to interact much in person.. I'm gonna miss the escape route of just asking you about Kamal's availability and save myself from walking back and forth, haha. Well, I wish you good luck for your research and all future endeavors of your life. And yes, happy birthday! Aman Mehta

"Words can't express how much you mean to me. Room mates for nearly three years. Somewhere between the silly fights and those deep conversations late at night, I found a friend for life. I can't even begin to imagine what my college life would've been without you. There's just so much to write for you man. I'll cherish all our memories. You're genuinely one of the most helpful people I've had the privilege of knowing. Also quite possibly the laziest. How in the world do you sleep so much? Beating you in chess was the easiest thing I did in my life. You're also one of the best teachers, if not the best.

I really hope you achieve whatever you dream of. You're probably the smartest person I've met and you can do so much in life. Good luck man and I'm sure we're staying in touch. See you sometime soon! Rohan "

I have great respect and admiration for those who are inherently direct/honest/blunt in life. I have met very few people like that, and you're one of them. Firstly, thanks for taking me into your wing, when I asked you during my internship in Singapore. It certainly made a huge difference for me in college. And of course, thanks for all the memories in CSTAR and Goa. I learned a lot from you, both academically and in life. I'm not very good at making deep conversations; usually deflect those things by saying something sarcastic. Anyway, I hope that you continue to do quantum research. Keep watching Formula One, and lets stay in touch (at least by discussing about it). Vijeth TA

Pedu, I'm so glad that we became friends. From arguing in first year to the drinking times in fourth, I'd remember each moment fondly. Even though you are ruthless, I can't think of a better friend a person can have. See you soon mate! Parth Shrivastava

Pedu sir! Cracking all those lame jokes was fun! To all the chai time memoriez we had and all the daaru memoriez created in Goa! I will permanently remember how we missed that bird sanctuary in Goa after driving 30kms :p Have fun and all the best! Megh Parikh

Hi Pedu! You're a completely different person now from what you were 8 years ago, and that's a good thing :P. Great times at Goa and McDs, keep coding, get to that 2700, believe. Good luck! Anubhab Sen

Hey man! I'm honestly not sure why it turned out this way, but I wish I'd made more of an effort to get you know better earlier on in college. Regardless, I'm glad to be friends with you now; hope we hang out (and maybe get drunk) more often in the upcoming year. Wish you all the best for all your future endeavors. Cheers! :) Aditya Srivastava

I will always remember that long conversation, in the last semester. I was amazed by your background, and how you effortlessly managed to blend in with the IIIT crowd. You are an amazing human, but more of a "player", I should say. xD :P Also, we should catch up very soon. It has been too long to hear from you. Hardly had any meaning disucssion, infact i remember the only time talking to you was you asking for wifi password,lol. Always felt that you were proactive and brave person, never afradi to' take the road less taken' :p . I wish you all the very best for your future. I'll tell you one short story :p.I don't know if you remember this but the first time i saw you was before joining college.I saw you at the interview for cld and chd. Our fathers talked for some time as well, maybe just my father boasting my marks and your humbly listening to the crap.At that point of time, i didn't think i would ever join this college. But when i saw you at the interview, i had a feeling for a fraction of a second that i would definitely

see this girl again.And when i actually saw you on the first day of college, i was surprised.Not really impossible thing to happen, but when such things you feel weirdly.That kind of gave me crushly feelings at that time lol.Unfortunately we never had a meaningful talk.Anyways,that's the end of the stupid story, thanks for reading :p.Again all the very best :D. kaushik

Saumyaaa! The fun gal who loves to take care of people. You were the first of us to reach legal age but that didn't matter :P We had so much fun in our first year. All the best! Vineeth Chelur

Hey dude, it's been really nice knowing you. Shame we didn't talk much, I'm sure we would have had some really interesting, deep conversations. The dog cafe was absolutely amazing. You're also super helpful (you know what I'm talking about). Take care dude! Rohan

I am amazed at your patience of putting up with me (& sometimes Adi too). I owe most of my emotional quotient to you. Also, I don't think I would have loved lasagnes so much had it not been for that meal at hazels at 2am. Btw you failed at keeping a written record of my jokes- now I'll never get the popularity at the level of Kabir, I hope you have something to make up for that. Thanks for adopting me, you really kickstarted my college life and revolutionized your playlists. You're welcome. Mayank Modi

Saumya, you are too cool for this place. Tere gyaan ke sessions, were always too good. Lucky to have u in CHD. Panda <3 namit sawhney

hey, coffee buddy whom I haven't had coffee with yet :P We really should go for coffee at least this year xD Don't know what to write for my dulla friends, but I will say this, you are a great person to share a cup of coffee with and I'm glad to be your friend <3 I love how you are passionate in everything that you do, from watching friends without moving for 10 days :P to saving the environment. You are an amazing person and I hope you find what you are looking for from life. See ya around Wingie <3 K.Rachna

Maaan do I even need to write something for you? :P You know how much I love you. But I'm still surprised that we got along so well as roommates XD You are one of the smartest people I know and I love having long conversations with you. You always give me so many new things to think about. And of course, thanks for standing up for me and making me see sense through my questionable choices XD Love you so much roomie Surya Soujanya Kodavalla will help you clean your room when you come back! I hope you keep all that passion and warmth close to you and don't let it die. I am sure you'll do amazing things! Lots of love from the diagonal room Vanalata "

"We've had quite a run, haven't we? Our friendship has been rather like the moon; waxing and waning in turns; out of sight perhaps, yet never out of mind. I absolutely love how being there for each other is something I can take for granted between us. I'm an awkward person and you will never hear this from me face to face, but I love you and cherish you as a friend. I wish you all the happiness in the world and hope you live the best life ever. :) Aditya Srivastava "

Hope to see you soon again! Aniruddha Patil "

Man, it's been great being neighbors with you through college. You're funny in a retarded kind of way (not to mention all that 'wtf' inducing dark humor), and I'm convinced that everybody needs a friend like you in their life. I'mma miss you a bunch now that you're leaving, and hope we get to catch up soon! All the best for the future. :)

"MATE. One of my oldest friends in life. We've know each other since when, 2007? You're still the same guy I met in 5th grade. You're one of the most sensible and reliable people I've known. Also incredibly helpful and considerate. You can be so silly but you can be so damn mature when the need arises. I've known very few people who're as easy and as fun to hang out with as you're. I genuinely cherish our friendship and it's sad we'll be so far away after being in the same place for 12 years. I have so many memories of you, all the way back in school up until the end of college. It almost feels like I grew up with you man.

Take care dude and do well. Please stay in touch. Until we meet again, fam! Rohan "

"Saurooooooo! Dude you're one of the most positive people I met in college and I admire your enthusiasm for everything in life from CF to dota, from South Mess ka khana to Yuktahar (lol). I'm gonna miss those CP trash talks a lott dude. Teaching you all those hindi gaaliyan was so goooood dude. Hope you're well versed with them noww! To you being one of the most awesome and fun-loving person in college and also to me kicking your ass in the next contest we give together, I'm gonna miss you a lot buddy. Keep raising the temperature wherever you goooo [Never letting you forget this ;)] Good luck for all your future endeavours! Keep in touch darky :P (Don't kill me for this). Lots of love! My OG two-wheeler buddy. I can't forget the time in Goa, when we were chasing some other group which had one hot chic (I couldn't see her face but you did). Anyway, I think we talked properly in the Sar Pass trek. You're a smart guy, and I know you'll do well in USC and later. All the best for your future, and stay in touch. I remember you telling me that you were interested in teaching. Hope you become a great teacher and inspire many students. Vijeth TA

One of the first person/friend I met in college. You are always helpful and kind. Your Google and senior pricks were good. Yukhataar mein bhi kaafi bakchodi ki hein. Wish you good luck for the future. Paawan Gupta

"Mr Samjhdaar, Well, I really had a great time, doing bakchodi with you. We are sort of same when it comes to bakchodi, but our outlooks are poles apart. And I guess that's the reason we have had those hefty conversations, which always used to change us in one way or the other. I really learnt a lot from you, and taught you too obviously. I don't know why but I feel we won't talk much after the college, but I would love if we could. Till then, be prepared for the road trips that we have to do in India. See you soon. Vaibhav Gupta "

"As the third year of college dawned on my extremely monotonous college life, I realized one day that my roommate has changed from a bhaloo to an ostrich. I was quite concerned with this change because, contrary to his name, bhaloo exhibited quietness on a level only known to ants thereby giving me all the time I needed to stay submerged in my books and my TV Shows. Little did I interact with the outside world and little did I care. The problem with this bubble, as I later realized, was that I knew nothing about dealing with people and the outside world. Heck I didn't even interact with seniors of the most prestigious CS college! So this ostrich guy, although he didn't give me the peace and quiet I yearned for (actually imparted the opposite of that), did burst this bubble and saved me from becoming an introvert. And I shall remain in his debt for this (No treat promised). Living with you for a year was an interesting challenge, as it should be otherwise life is pretty boring. Some days were spent doing DIY stuff, some contemplating about life and some treating the other as their arch nemesis. Overall, it was fun apart from the constant struggle of keeping the fan on its highest speed (Biwi bhaag jaayegi teri :P). The wedding crash and the Pondicherry trip, both shall remain alive in my memory. Btw ek sach batata hun..... mere se zyada tu randi rona karta hai :P Hardwork is the key to success. End mein mil gayi na internship, do do vo bhi! Chal ab research khatam karte hain issi saal and saath mein jaate hain Google.....and the best thing, Europe mein fans nhi hote :P Adarsh Pal Singh "

Best thing you learnt from here? : Jugaad xD. On a serious note, learnt time-management

One thing you'l miss the most? : Chocolate milkshake at Juice canteen :')

One thing you regret not doing? : Probably not spending enough weekends at college during first year.

What next? : Looking forward to what future has in store and hoping to meet friends soon <3

I never thought I'd find another person I could truly call 'sibling'. From sitting beside in class as strangers, to keeping from giggling in every class, we've come a long way. The memories are abundant, right from watching TV shows together, running around in hostel, teaching you badminton, trying to stop you from dying laughing (and failing miserably), and being my partner in playing pranks. Love you lots <3 Aiswarya Sunil

"Mandi dumby!! lk u r Ms smarty pants but I absolutely love the cute little annoyed face you make when I call u that :p . Frm 1-1 to 4-2, our frndship just grew stronger! The random untimely hostel talks, occasional walks, rock climbing, the fun at goa, singing, dancing etc! I thoroughly enjoyed every bit! Thank u for being the gorgeous, cute, caring, loving, frnd u are, and always being there with me during my tough tyms! Im gonna miss u so much! U'll always be my music guru! Will miss ur random outbursts of laughter that reach my room! ;) Love u lots! PS:- Your a really good dancer, you should dance more often!

Mandi ! You crazy little person.Never grow up.You be one of the calmest, coolest & craziest person I have ever met. Those hostel memories with you will always make me smile whenever relived. Stay the same fun cute person you are and keep up the love for our common lovable things ;). Miss you loads <3 Shreya Chandorkar

I will never forget our pranks, star maker sessions, hsm course (LA, ABA, Sanskrit) adventures. Since day one I knew we would get along (credits to the chicken dance) and look here we are. Thank you for always helping me satiate those late night food cravings and making me laugh hysterically. Let's binge watch the old Disney channel shows soon and please don't forget my face. Lots of love <3 Roopal Vaid

"Mandi Pandu !!! I honestly don't think I have met anyone so chilled out and fun loving as you. I thank you for all the help and support during placements and what fun Goa was. Our interactions were kinda limited starting with boring DM classes (including presenting a scam project lol xD), insane and wild memories during the Goa trip (Baga beach was the best night of my life <3 ), struggling to finish the driving classes and passing the test together (yayyyy!), the pavbhaji and mango shake afterwards xD, and many more hangouts throughout the last year. "Hey there :) We met, we talked, we shared, we laughed, had lots of fun, got irritated a lot, had a few arguments?, went on a trip, it was all a well-knit relationship, but I always felt that I wasn't what you were for me and then we fell apart.I will never regret for what it was, it was full of fun and happiness and I enjoyed that part of our college life

:)Mostly by my choice and none of yours, but I did what I thought was best for me because I felt you always did too. I expected way too much when I shouldn't have because of which I probably lost one more good friend. I just never learn I think. Apologies if you still are mad, what I did was probably selfish, but I thought you were too and I couldn't invest more of my time talking to someone who probably didn't care for me even half as much as I did.Hope you have an amazing life ahead and meet an amazing set of people and maybe we start off fresh in the (hopefully) final year?

"You are the best and the most genuine person I have met in college. I am a great fan of your straight forward nature. college ke 1st year se end tak teri advices hamesha mere liye best rahi hein. Your caring nature always made me feel the presence of an elder sister. 15 min ki baatein teen ghante se bhi zyaada khinch jaana, mess mai jaate toh bas khaana khaane the lekin baatein karte karte wahan baithe reh jaana sab kuch baht yaad aayega and I missed those times even during college days. Because you 2 were and will always be my closest friends in college since the very 1st week of college . Having you on my side gave me courage to face many hard times in college. I hope ki jaldi se tu college se nikle aur apan log waapas se pehle jaise baht saari baatein share kar paayein. Thanks for keeping me alive in the lectures with your questions. You are very hard working and I admire you for that. And also thanks for helping in assignments. Hope you will still solve my problems. Best of luck for the future and the MS. Paawan Gupta

Soumya!!! You know for a kasi girl you are actually really fun to hang around with. I wish I could have known you longer but then again we got real close real fast so I guess its all good. I am really proud of you and maybe sometimes in life take a step back and appreciate yourself for what you have achieved. All the best girl, CMU ain't ready for you. I hope we always stay in touch and maybe meet sometime again and go to the mystery room as we planned. Hemanth Vemuri

“Heyvaddu You are one of the sweetest, humble & ultra smart people I know . Help me crack 330 too :P sorry 339 . Thank you for being such a beautiful dance partner even though I didn’t know shit. Thank you for everything . I don’t have time to write more. Ayina ekkada ki pothav le, touch lone untav le. Himakar Yanamandra “

Heyyy SameCode :P OMG, I don't even know where to start with you. Dude, I'm so glad we..umm..."danced together" :P in that HSS class. I'm so glad that I found someone who thinks exactly like me, relates to everything like crazy (sometimes a little too creepily so :P). From having the same freaking first crush in 8th to similar "lack of passion" issues, we have a very weird synchronization in life. Vadu, you are the smartest, hard-working and sweetest person I'm glad I got to know and I really really hope our paths cross again soon. I already miss the random 3 am talks when we had an 8:30 class the next day, to the 2 hour walks we take once in a while. You have been a great pillar of support, though we ended up just comforting each other's chaos most of the time without getting a solution out of it :P but I'm pretty sure, without those moments of "too much relate" that we had, college life wouldn't have been as hilarious as its been so far xD . You are an amazing companion and I can never get enough of your detail-filled stories, so please let's meet up soon before you leave and stay in touch babe <3. Love you loads. K.Rachna vadduuuu!!love you so much im going to miss you. have so much fun at cmu. dont miss us because we are always there for you. i always want you to be happy and content. i believe in you, you're going to do so well. I'm going to update my reading lists on the group so you can also join inn ..... also love your smartie butt. ps i love listening to your stories. you should do it professionally Soujanya C

"I don't think I can ever put down the impact you've had in my life in words. Brevity is not my best suit but I'll try my best to not be too verbose. You've taught me so much, not least some English, for starters. You're genuinely one of the nicest people I've met. Very few people have taught me as much as you did and I'm glad I met you because without you, I'd have been a far more silly, parochial and judgemental person. It's amazing how considerate and open-minded you are. Dealing with a hungry you was painful, triggering you fun and outwitting you an absolute honor. Thank you for some of the best memories I've made in all my life. I'd list them down but I'd run out of space and time. I'll always cherish all of them.

I'm so happy for and proud of what you achieved. As someone who saw the effort and hard work you put in, you deserve all of it and more. Take care dude and good luck with everything. Not that you really need it because I'm sure you'll be amazing at whatever you do, despite your best efforts of trying to convince others of how screwed you are. Oh and yes, do watch Breaking Bad. It's the best. Rohan "

Hii Vaddu! I don't actually remember when we started talking but I am happy that we did. You are sweet, innocent, cute, sensible and awesome in all ways. All the plans we made for going out all those were special and you were full of excitement and fun. To all the tantrum you did for not scoring 10/10 and for MS :P I wish you all the best for the future and stay in touch. Anam Raihan

Dude I'm going to miss you so much. And I love you loads. I suck at putting my feelings in words but I hope you know how much you mean to me you crazy lady. I don't think I'll ever find a gymming partner like you. And bowl company. And our insanity, our inner psychos (shhhh). I never found someone who relates with me the way you do. *Cue Monica screaming I KNOW* Also, babe I know you and you'll always be fine, no matter what. You are one of the strongest people I know. And don't worry about missing my face. I'll keep sending you pictures Surya Soujanya Kodavalla

"Arey Rajguru, iss mai bhi slow?" in Prasad sir's booming voice is the first thing that comes to my mind whenever you come up. We spoke a lot in first year but didn't keep up after that, sadly. It was really nice knowing you and playing football with you. Amazing drummer! Take care man and good luck with everything! Rohan

Music club, all the jam sessions at Srujana, and the band performances are all some of my most treasured moments at IIIT. Clearly, you've played a monumental role in all of them. I've greatly enjoyed having you as a fellow band member, a reliable critic of my own music and most of all, as a friend. I'm saddened at the prospect of having to perform without you in the near future, but here's to playing many more gigs together, and soon enough at that! Hope you have a lot of success in all your future endeavors, and I wish you all the best. :) Aditya Srivastava

Hey! One of my closest friends throughout college along with Megh. Lots of memories with you right from Doge mails to all the coop games with Megh or otherwise and outings. Never gonna forget all the scam we did for a certain course(s) here too. Also amazing musician, and I finally started to appreciate your taste a little :P. Good luck at SD! Anubhab Sen

Best thing you learnt from here? : How to finish stuff right in time for deadlines! Very important skill indeed!

One thing you'l miss the most? : Calling friends to go on a random walk around the campus, or randomly hanging out in the canteens.

"Oh bhai, yeh kon h! :p All memories I have in these four years have you in it . I am very sure even without a written testimonial, each of us will remember all the nonsense we did in the past four years for eternity I remember you being my neighbour in the workspace and how we got talking! OJ problems, you eager to edit your bashrc to make your terminal look cool , subtle showoff of your past achievements (well I had a 2400/2400 in SAT, so I made you believe that's legendary ), walling Vivek Sir, trying to be BEC partners and what not. Well after these times we have had many other memories in college, guess I will just mention a few of them and you know therest(however cryptic it might sound to the outside world). SSAD git push origin master, int dp, late night walks, providing food when necessary to prevent the pressure cooker from bursting , throwing sticks on random people, synchronising footsteps, usual regime of explaining proxy server before every interview (major reason for acing all your interviews btw ), fights and Splitwise talks, pushing you down , openlabs, bitching about people, making random ass nicknames (E e b ...), come shitty come shitty come.... , benches, being the superman to help save your flight, calling Indigo to see if they can remedy opposite locations :), saving each other from panic attacks during deadline , competitiveness , Sanskrit anthyam pashyamaha, making me dance, making me follow teamnaach , snake and grasshopper eggs , birthdays , well once without birthday also xD, anti....., you getting PPO , from today I am going to *insert random nonsense* ok , pinching in workspace (oh no), trying Monte Carlo simulations but ending up worse than random search , oyeA4lekeana,you laughing uncontrollably whenever I get trolled, Bangalore, amritapuri , nowadays , niceeee,... there are so many but these small set I wrote here did bring a smile to my face :'). We have been with each other through thick and thin(well literally too xD), and I will miss you the most. Well not so much, since Munich <=> London isn't that far right? (provided, the same company too ). Even if I don't say it out daily, you are my biggest source of inspiration. You have helped and guided me throughout my college life, be it acads or not, and you will be doing the same after college life also so don't be too happy I don't feel like myself without annoying you atleast twice per day, sorry. Be the bubbly person you are! Honestly I have got this kid voice from you and I am using that at the wrong places (mummy eh eh eh). Make people smile as usual! Be the person you are and never grow up xD Hope you achieve great things in life and I am sure you will. I know your caliber, and I know you will reach great heights. Well, it's good for me too xD Ok E, a + b the whole square aisa hee haina b? Bm b. Abhijith Nair "

"Bhabhii, Thank you for being one of the most understanding people in my life. College wouldn't have been the same without a handful of people, with you ranking at the very top <3. I am gonna miss annoying you (till we reached non-speaking terms xD), as well as your chirpy and jolly nature. There has never been a solemn moment when you, me and abhi come together; I especially loved our house parties (remember walking for that syringe-icecream straight from playboy gardens in 5th sem?), going wild (in baga beach, hyperlocal, tikki shack), hunting for that wedding ring lol (while flashing laser at random holes and running around the place like crazy), our ""oooh kinky"" moments (blissfully unaware that a lot of people have judged us by now xD), ganging up as a team against libtards like Binil Mathew, all those tales/rumours about You-Know-Who we shared over the past month, and the list goes on.....Life is short, and we will meet again in some continent or the other inshallah. (Maybe even in India if I make it for the convocation :P) Do stay in touch bruh, and drag that shitty boyfriend of yours for some occasional video calls plis. Hoping to have a blast when we next meet! Hf Tc Kthnxbye. P.S. I just paid back your owe, deer... :D Vighnesh Chenthil Kumar "

One of the best things that happened during Kalakshetra was finding the sweetest friend, probably the most innocent person in the entire world :p. From discussing artistic stuff to discussing things about one's life, we have come a long way. We should keep donating to orphanages more often. Don't take every little thing to heart :p. Stay happy always no matter what :D. Battu Varshit

"Hello madam! Though we know each other before college the real bonding happened only during college. You are one of the honest persons I ever met during college days! Though I call you NASA Pitta :p truth is it kind of shows how much you care about others! Be the same way you are! P.S : you still don't understand half of the conversations that happen around you mabbu! Sukumar "

Srujana! You're one of the sweetest people I've met. I appreciate your enthusiasm for cooking and trying out new stuff. Won't forget those sugarcane eating sessions that we used to have. It doesn't matter whether we are talking or not. You will always have a place in my heart. You are irreplaceable and I will always love you as a friend. You are incredibly smart, fun, caring, huggable, handsome, and one of the most interesting people i have ever met. You have taught me to look at things in a different perspective as well as opened up a desire in me to try new things such as food, movies. I just wanted to write something small for you so that even if our text messages get deleted or something, you will still have something small to remember about how much I admire you. Thinking about you makes me annoyed and very proud at the same time.I might not always appreciate you but I have always admired you for your resilience, persistence, capability to give love and your overall coolness. Love you <3 Chutiya. Kriti Agrawal

Epic roommate! There is no doubt about that. Honestly, I would not have chilled out as much, if you were not my roommate (especially, in the first year). You were always reliable; helped me a lot whenever I got sick too :P (all those phone calls from my parents as well XD). You're a chill guy at heart, keep partying like you do. There might have been some misunderstanding in between, but let us leave all that behind and look forward to keeping in touch. All the best in all your future endeavors, brother! Vijeth T A

Man, we've known each other since practically the first week of college. It's another thing that our paths seldom cross nowadays, but I still consider you as one of my closest mates, and I want you to know if something happens, I always got your back fam. Let's go drown ourselves in vodka sometime soon! Cheers, and all the best. xD Aditya Srivastava

Bhai tu peeta nahi hai but meri jitni bhi chuck videos hain .. usme tu hai jo cheer kar rha hai .. That really helps. Just kidding. Bhai, aur football mein cheating toh mat kia kar bhai, Kitna hyperaggressive ho jata hai bhai tu xD. Koi nahi apne ko kya hai, apne ko toh sirf paani nikalna hai xD. Bhai blore mein decide ho rakha hai kon konsi movies dekhenge mast akshay kumar ki. Tum jaldi se aa jao bas. Aur bhai ek cheez bohot achi hui iss sem, independent xD. Bhai agar mai nahi rehta toh tereko nahi leti radhika so you know whom to thank. Amandeep Shahi

Duniya ke nazro mein shareef insaan, pata nahi kaise dost ban gaya. From being scared of you on Day 1 to being one of my most amazing friend, college life wouldn't have been the same without you! You have been one person who has been constant in all my adventures, be it Bangalore or KFC! Wish you all the success in life that you deserve and you better not forget the 10 year pact! Keep being the awesome person you are! Ayush Deva

Yo Swapnii! Yaar tere jitne nicknames hai na kaafi badhiya hai. Tu banda bhi bohot unique hai. Bohot passionate coding ke liye, utna hi dimaag aur usse jyada mehnat. 4 saal kaafi majedaar rahe mere kyunki tu nayi nayi harkatein karte rehta tha. Lol. Bangalore ka intern period bhi kaafi badhiya tha apna. Kaafi masti and yaadein. On a serious note, bohot hi genuine hai yaar tu. Almost hamesha khush rehta hai aur sab kuch enjoy karta hai. Admire karta hoon main yeh sab tere baare mein. Aise hi rehna bhai. Bohot kam log milte hain tere jaise. Keep in touch and best wishes for years ahead! #SolarSystem #Jaahil Aayush Sanghavi

Best Memory in College? : Late night walks. Long walks (3+ hours). Studying with friends. Long chats (full night). Non-educational talks with professors. Meeting a lot of new people in the last semester. Working with 3 professors + course work and still not copying any assignments. Continuous 15 days with less than 3 hours of sleep! Entering with zero knowledge in computer science and leaving with the learning of zero-knowledge proof.

Biggest change since first year? : The journey from an introvert to an extrovert. A better understanding of people. Learning the importance of friends in our lives.

Best thing you learnt from here? : No person is perfect until you have expectations. The moment you don't keep expectations everyone seems to be nice. It is not easy to deal with a lot of friends, to manage that happen is great learning. Way to handle difficult situations in personal and other's life. One thing you regret not doing? : Not learning music and art.

"Aha, the playboy of the batch. The one who was with me from the first day till the last day - literally and figuratively. It was really a pleasant surprise when I found my randomly allocated roomie is a Guju. But it was not a pleasant surprise when I lost the chess match with you on that day, only to find later that you are the state chess champion. You kept giving such surprises throughout the college life - many of them were not so pleasant though - It was really a hard learnt lesson not to take relationship advices from you :P. You really are a hard worker and a determined person - I still remember that 'tom and jerry' assignment code you wrote in the first year throughout the entire night. I know you will keep working hard and will achieve great heights - especially in computational cinematography :P. I would be really curious to know which girl you choose as your girlfriend among all your 'girl friends'. We will work towards making a compilation of all your 'connections'. Wish you good luck and happy future!! Chaitanya Patel "

You are one of the last minute helper in assignments and exams. You have clear thought process for all things starting from any study concept to life planning. I really admire that. The 'chotu' of the group. Thanks for all the late night tutorials the day before the exams. You were always the go-to guy for all the gossip. Hii Vaishu! Little did I know that with the person who was sitting beside me in the first year I will have such an amazing story. I still remember the first day of college when you came late(obviously :P) and sat beside me even though I was the introvert one I still managed to say hi to you and that's how our journey starts. I remember you were always trying to take care of me and take side for me in front of everyone be it a professor or anyone else. You were always the rowdy one and I was the chill out guy. You were the person who changed me, you were the one who used to drag me out of the room, you were the one with whom I danced for the first time in life. Honestly, I don't know how and when we started loving each other but being with you was amazing. From being friends to close friends to lovers to blocked each other to again friends we had one hell of a journey in college and through all this we evolved together. Though it still aches me the thing that we are not like before, I think that's what the price we paid for going against something so huge. With this, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I will never forget what we had, and will always honor the lessons you taught me. Thank you for being a part of my path. Thank you for loving me during the darkest of times. I will never forget how much our relationship helped me grow. Anam Raihan

You know that I love you a lot. But honestly I don't feel like writing testimonials for something which is hopefully quite apparent or maybe it doesn't reflect clearly when I get routinely mad when I don't get enough attention from you. I keep on chastising you for random shit but I hope you know that I find you as a really cool, smart ,creative, bakchodi and mostly all the other good adjectives. I don't feel like writing much because it honestly seems redundant to me to write stuff about you, And if you feel like I do not appreciate you enough anytime, slap me and let me know. Because I do not know who else would be saving my ass everytime in college. Kriti Agrawal

Lata pata!! You were the reason I felt comfortable in this college in the first place :P Looking at your familiar face made me feel so good. Never thought we'd become such good friends AFTER school XD Imma miss you so much. Stay in touch always. Love ya Surya Soujanya Kodavalla

"Iaaaaattaaaaaaaaaa You are such a mushy mushy person!! such a wild person, I always become happy when i talktoyou.Iamsohappythatwearefriends,youarethebest!! Be the free spirit that you are, because that is just awesome!! stay in touch and best of luck!!! call me whenever!! Medha Sharma "

"I don't know what I'd have done without you in college. Thanks for all the love, and for keeping me sane whenever I lost my shit. I learned how to appreciate the small things in my life by observing you. I'll remember you whenever I see Naruto stuff or watch Rush again! All the best for your future. I really hope that you get to see Europe very soon. Vijeth TA "

Lataaa! I wish we'd spent as much time as we did when we were in our first year, mainly my fault for not doing so :/ The best thing to happen in my first year was our group. The most cheerful and carefree person I've ever met in my life. I'm so grateful that you were part of my college journey. Whenever I felt sad, I would think of how you were always smiling and kind, and cheer myself up. Stay the same and you'll definitely do great in the future. Cheers! Vineeth Chelur

"Dumb kid. I just wanna say that, I am sorry for being immature earlier and wrecking our relationship. It's weird, but I understand you much better now after we have stopped talking. Probably, I grew up with respect to understanding people better. But in any case, I still remember all the GG times we have had together and I miss hanging out sometimes. Be the dumb, cheerful person you are! Suhan Prabhu "

Hey Vanalata! I guess this is just the right time to write this. I have always admired you as a human being. You are a nice and sweet person. And I love your attitude towards life. Please never stop being so cheerful about life and never stop spreading it around you. It has always been so good and positive whenever you're around and that's very rare. I still remember our Felicity dance practices where you choosed to opt out to avoid clashes between other people. It was very stupid on their part and it was really amazing on yours to do something like that. You've literally been an inspiration. Thankyou for doing what you do and continue doing that Eavanshi Arora

Lataaa, I really cherish the amazing on and off court memories we had. Keep in touch! All the best for all your future endeavours! :D Rishabh Arora

Your cheerfulness and positive energy is contagious! Its always been so much fun talking to you; I really wish we spent more time together. Keep being the beautiful person you are, and all the best for whatever you do! Ayush Deva

"Cheers to the 4 years of college life :). Thanks for helping me out for conducting the badminton tournaments be it inter-batch / inter-house tournaments. I guess it would not have been possible without you to conduct these tournaments effectively especially ensuring that the girls participation is there :P. You were the best player among girls in Badminton, and yes we finally won the Inter-Batch Badminton tournament :). Hope you achieve whatever you aimed for soon, and all the best for your bright future. Akhilesh Soni "

You are one of the closest people I have had, how genuinely nice you are is amazing. Hey fam! I am so glad to have known you, and that we have time together. I am going to keep you close always <3 Saumya Srivastava "

"I remember the first time I met your sister, it was during some Harry Potter quiz that was a part of the induction program for UG-1- both of you scared the shit out of me that day! And trust me, it's a strong memory xD From the idiotic kiddish fights in the first year to being chilled out with most of things going-on in the EHD family, you guys have definitely supported our 'bakchodi' a lot. Thanks for doing that! Always a true EHD batchmate! PS: TBH, you're a very nice human being! :) #LetBakchodiMakeltsWay #TwinsKiJaiHo xD Tanmay Joshi "

Darling, so many memories with you. Your early old age(walking :p), watching jabardasth and movies at X2 speed with you, watching you with your gf while going to dlf, group reading before exam( only 3 of us though :p), memories during intern, gym memories, quick thinking( icpc :p )....and so many others. Fortunately both us got intern and placement in the same city. Don't dedicate all the time to your gf, spend some time with us as well ;p. You know i am always always ready to meet, i am just a message away ;p. Cheers to many more memories <3. kaushik

Harsha you have been one of the smartest and at the same time the most nicest people I have come across. Very fortunate to have met you and had the opportunity to interact so much via exam preps. At the same time I apologise for the times it took a toll on you :p Wish you all the health and happiness going ahead and hoping to meet soon. Take care Harsha ! :) Amal Santhosh remember anymore. It was awesome knowing you though!

Bhai, you are one of the most disciplined and organised person I know. You are the best roomie I could ask for. You have listened to all my rubbish with patience everytime. Tolerated whatever I did in the room . You are the one who I have most respect for. You have been a true friend to me. You are the one who inspired me everytime. You are the reason I played basketball (though I ended up injuring both my legs ). You are the one who fought with everyone because you wanted me to eat with all of you together. You are the one who always suggested the best movies but I didn't have the patience to sit through them . You are the one who introduced me to Steven Wilson and made me attend him live. Collapse the light into earth is still there in my playlist . Thank you for everything. You are the greatest stud I know who doesn't even need to make any moves to charm girls. You deserve every bit of it. We have some great trips, memories together and I look forward to more. Stay the same. Have a great life ahead. Yash Goyal

The classic. From movies to games to songs, this guy is all about the classics. You are one misjudged person for the whole college life xD Your love for art is commendable that you were ready to work for a lost cause like Kalakshetra :P But yes, I can never thank you enough for it. Pranav Bhasin

Incomplete conversations are good because I would love to meet you some day revive our connection. Lots of love and luck to you :* Navya Khare

I really enjoyed our study sessions in the TDC wing (helped me and Megh a lot, especially whenever we didn't feel like studying). But more than that, I enjoyed talking to you about everything. At the end, I felt that we could have easily become very close. But anyway, lets work on staying in touch. All the best for your job at Tower; I'm sure that you're gonna do great! Vijeth T A

Vedant, the cool guy. If I had to rate someones coolness, I would rate them from 0 to vedant sareen level. Cool and calm guy. Was always lovely to talk to you. Thanks, bro, finding people like you are very difficult and we are lucky to have you. namit sawhney

Yo Vedu! If I were to use one word to describe you, I'd say tu "FAAD" hai. Seriously bhai, lambi list of adjectives likh sakta hoon abhi tere liye. Although we didn't connect much in the first year it was amazing to have been wingmates and close friends for the next three. I always admired how you balanced so many things at the same time - kaam, bahaar jana, khelna, research, etc. Tujhse kaafi music taste bhi acquire kiya maine. Bohot saari discussions bhi kari humne over the years aur paani bhi bohot bhara saath mein. Lol. I really cherish all those memories. Dimaag + mehnat ka badhiya combination hai tu. I look up to you in a way. You'll do great wherever you go. Best wishes for all your endeavours ahead! Aayush Sanghavi

The best neighbour anyone could ask for. We had so many late night discussions. Thank you for introducing me to OPM and it's a good thing you stopped watching Supernatural. Sorry for making you watch till season 9 :P You're a really nice and funny guy but can destroy another man's career with your arguments XD. You gave me the best nickname ever and we laughed so much during that movie. I'll always remember you as the guy who studied in Bangalore for 2 years and never bothered learning all the slurs in Kannada :P Stay the same, thanks a lot for the advice and all the best for your future Vineeth Chelur

"Really nice knowing you man! Hopefully we'll meet whenever we're in the same city. Turf outings were always amazing with you all. Bantering about our football clubs was fun too, even if it started too late. Good luck with everything! Rohan "

Bhai vedant .. tu badhiya insaan hai bhai. Pehle toh apni uthi zyada baat nahi hoti thi .. sirf raise of eyebrows ya fir ek smile xD. but 4th year mein hopefully woh change hua. Goa trip mein jo hase hain bhai mai kabhi nahi bhoolunga. Tu mai aur modu, bhai maze hi aa gye the. Mereko yaad hai jab sab serious ho gye the dakhs k baare mein, tab bhi mai teri taraf dekh kar hasta toh tu bhi chaalu kar deta hasna. You are such a simple, innocent and carefree person. The best thing that I have always liked about you is how forgetful and forgiving a person you are. I would always cherish the fun we had together, all the times that I used to tell everything about what is going on in college and life

. Remember the times that you used to feel pity about my bad luck and then got so used to it that we started having a laugh about all this. From UG1 Fresher's rock your body to the college farewell, we have become stronger and stronger. You will always be the first person that I will plan a trip with and I know you will ditch me most of the time . From D-220 to D-26 and finally, to 292 bro you had me through thick and thin. I will always keep pulling your leg and make fun of you no matter what. I wish we would have stayed in the same city but let's make a pact to stay in touch for the lifetime and never change a thing about our friendship. To all the broness, vlness and bakchodiyan . Namaste sir! Hum bade hi dhanay hue aapke humari zindagi me pdharne par. And I literally mean that! You have been an amazing friend throughout the journey of 4 years in college and I am really thankful to Welcome 2 ( a hell of a shitty movie! ) for making that happen. Aapki kartootein and nakhre hume yaad rahengi and 'Isme egg toh nahi hai na' and 'Ek alag sauce chye' jesi chizein are gonna stay forever. I really like how selfless person you have been with me. You have always been there for me even if that's 15 mins before the exam and that's something I really admire. The goofy talks we had were so much fun! xD Love your passion for stuff, whether it's math, chess, f1 or even anime, the intensity is real! Goa was super fun and racing around on that scooty definitely made that trip, also yes, she was hot! xD Sar Pass was fun too, and definitely wouldn't have been as much fun without you :P Always knew you were smart, and with your ability to get serious about stuff, you're gonna do great wherever you go, especially NUS B! Well, have fun and all the best for everything! Hope you get to work on stuff you're excited about! Saurabh Ravindranath "

"Brooooo. Fourth year wouldn't have been complete without you. Regret not being friends with you in the first three years of college life. Anyway, I'm glad we got to know each other fairly well by the end of it all. Turf outings were great man, I'm going to miss them so much. Never going to forget the time you thought it was a good idea to hog some Domino's Pizza and come to turf right after. How I wish I could go to turf with you all right now.

Watching you get on Anurudh's nerves was so much fun haha. All the best for the future, I'm sure you'll do really well. I'm sure we'll see other a few times before you leave. Until then, mate! Rohan "

Kasssiiii. One of the most dedicated people in the batch, and really fun to be with. I'll miss all the discussions we had about everything ranging from philosophy and math to the absolutely absurd stuff like whether KiKo resembles Chris Rock or not (I'm quite convinced now that he does xD). We only chilled out occasionally, due to different groups and stuff like that, but I still count you among my closest friends. Will stay in touch fosho, don't forget me when you get done with your PhD and start making big money xD All the best! Vedant Sareen

"Hi! I guess I agree that to be friends with someone you need to have something in common, like we sat next to each other (and we both agree we wouldn't have spoken to each other if we didn't :P ). I had so much fun with you, no matter what we did. You be awesome like the cool and rational person you are. I know that you are meant for great things. Best of luck, and we will definitely meet again! Medha Sharma "

"Regret not getting to spend enough time with you because of you saying no to most of our outing plans >:( Still, you were always so damn easy going and fun to hang out with, and have that intrinsically intellectual spark that I find real rare - you'll be more than just any doctor, I guarantee ;) Keep in touch fam! Pranav Nair "

"I am going to miss you so much! You are one of the most honest and easy to talk to people I know. Your drive to do things is admirable. I am bad at keeping in touch, so let's make a schedule for it, because I so want to stay in touch with you! All the best in anything you do Aradhya. You will so be missed around here Saumya Srivastava "

"Aradhya, Love your surname. I can't tell you how much I loved hanging out with you. If I can go back in time and make friends with someone, right from the semester one, it would be you. You're so beautiful, inside out. I'd definitely meet you next time I am in Bangalore. KEEP IN TOUCH! Love, Sarigama. Sarigama Yerra "

Bro, I have a lot of good memories with you, all the way from first year to fourth year. I love how you've always had your priorities straight, whether its partying, friends or acads, and I'm going to miss you quite a bit now that you're leaving. Here's to catching up soon! :) Aditya Srivastava

One of my first friends in IIIT ;). I always felt that you were one of the few people who actually got me :). I hope we stay in touch and get to revive our connection XD . Lots of love and luck to you ;* Navya Khare

Bisky! Playing football with you was a lot of fun. Got to know more about you in 4th year, when we were mostly messing around in Peduri's room. The Sar Pass trek was a great bonding experience, and that's where we actually grew close. Best of luck in the theory research! Singapore's gonna get a new swagster in town. Haard Panchal

Aye Bisky, from football to drinking to Goa, had loads of fun with you. You are pretty laser focused for a super chill dude. All the best for your PhD, stay in touch brother! Parth Shrivastava

Hi! Became close to you in third year thanks to all the time you spent in Megh's room. Goa and drinking events are always fun with you. Finish your PhD fast so we can call you Dr. Bisky properly :P. Good luck at NUS! Anubhab Sen

Machaaa, Bangalore for life. I'll never forget how we met, you rhetorically asking in Kannada what was I doing when I was playing pinball during some event and the shock on your face when I replied back in Kannada! I don't know how I put up with your lame-ass jokes :P I never understood how you play football so well when you do everything sooooo slowly in real life. One of the most chill dude I've met in college. Our final Kannada send-off party was a memorable one. Slay that PHD. All the best for your future. Vineeth Chelur

"Will never forget those jokes on your surname and the discussion of ""Don't look back in anger""". Cheers to all the bad jokes while studying Distributed Systems. Have a great time in Singapore buddy! And remain the same fun loving person as you are. All the best! P.S.: Wenger's ke waffle next time in Dilli. Rishabh Arora "

Cheers to all the exam preparations that we had. I learnt a lot from you, thanks for helping me get an A in all those courses that you have taught :D. I wish you get to settle in Europe. For now, best of luck for NUS and your research in quantum computations. Ashwin Pathak

"Haha I got so confused by this app lmao XD. Mah boi ,wish you all the best at nus ! We should keep in touch as much as possible and you should start playing dota so I can play with you :P. Super Chill fellow and a great friend. Has some great times during the last 4 years and we should make more! Cheers ! Pranav Kamojjhala "

Kasi theory boii, it was fun studying with you and in chai time. Goa and sar pass was awesome with the two of us being in full daaru mode everywhere :p All the best in NUS! Megh Parikh

The chilling will continue dude. And you'll join us sometime or the other. Here's to more of the same :) . Go ace the phd dude. arun g

You are one of the nicest people I know and hopefully you will continue on the journey of self care and love that you have undertaken. Love you <3 Kriti Agrawal

Hi macha! Thanks for all the memories in Goa and drinking outings in Hyderabad. You're a very cheerful person, and I regret not spending more time with you in college. I hope that you finish your dreadful MS research as soon as possible. All the best for your future, and keep in touch, brother. Vijeth T A

Hi! A really good friend of mine right from first year (very few of those :P). Spent time doing various things from discussing CPro and DS to watching Maze Runner and GoT fan theories (back when it was cool). Goa was better because you were there, and so were all the drinking events! That DOTA match we won that you played knowing barely anything was memorable too. Good luck with your research! Anubhab Sen

Ayy teddy!!! You are one amazing guy and I am glad I got to know you :). We had some good times together, especially in the last sem, remember the movie night in your room? It was legendary. Good luck with everything and lets hope we meet up really soon. Love you bro. Aaron Jacob Varghese

Afair, we first met at the washroom which is quite an odd place to meet someone for the first time XD. I'm so glad that I met you in the first year itself and it will not be wrong to say that you have loved me unconditionally ever since. You are the most sincere person I have met in this college and our love for food and expensive things (:p) is what I cherish the most. I'm so lucky to have someone like you to whom I can share every secret of mine, who understands me and always wishes the best for me. It's so funny that I spent most of the time at your room rather than mine whenever you were in college, maybe that because I am so comfortable when you are around. I wish that we could have stayed together more but yeh mat sochna ki mai peeche chhodhunga tera kabhi. To my pseudo- mom who loved and cared for me like no one else did. Thanks for always being there and best of luck for your future. Mohit Chandra

"From the first friend I made in college to the best one and the most reliable one, you have been one of the most important part in my life for the past 4 years. You are the guy who made me confident and made me believe in myself more. In the short span you have become very important part in my life. The friend whom you can call anytime. (Except 12:00 AM to 6:00 PM) The friend who will always be there to rescue you from the problem that you even couldn't see coming. From classroom to labs and projects you were my partner in crime. You are the first person who is worst at communicating than me and your welcome for all those classes for making sense of your brilliance to the pros. As usual your brilliance was lost in our college system. You won't get the gold medal because you don't need one. You are one of those few brilliant guys I have met who are genius as well as hard-working. Your talent is unstoppable and your brilliance will grow to even greater heights. The movies, lunches and few scarce dinners (You know whose fault is that) over the years midst of all the deadlines, work and projects was the best time I had in this time. The long walks with Mohit and you filled with "Gyaan" were fun. The last one who filled his room but most important one, your room was the adda for the last semester even if you weren't there. The end of the college is just an end of a show's season which will start with a bang next the next one in California. It feels nothing will change and that you will be an hour away just like in Hyderabad. Things may change but it doesn't mean that this friendship needs to change. Plus, you are in LA and it is my heaven. So, don't think you can get away. Hopefully, We will see each other mo Alakh Desai "

Vivek Jain meeting you on the first day is the best coincidence in my entire life because we both know no one else can't share a room with me and with you too .

Thanks for always helping me out, you were like my last weapon for any problem. You will not be here but I will be enjoying all the delicious meals you introduced us to in the city. I'll be exploring new good places for food so that next time when you will come to the home, I'll introduce them to you (if found any :P). Ayush Jain

"Vivek Jain, the bond. The one guy whose persistence level is unmatchable! All the daat that you have given me to get ready sooner, and be more serious are starting to help me here at London. Surprisingly I'm being right on time to my internship here, a few of this goes to your daant. Apart from the daats, there was a lot that I got to learn from you, the strength you showed by overcoming the difficulties in your life, your hostility for everything, and always helpful nature is what I truely admire about you. Cheers to the time we had together lala, and take care of the baby xD From the bottom of my heart, I wish you all the best (not that you need it, you are always excellent) for your US MS and hope to stay connected. Lots of love <3 Aman Mehta "

The Hyderabadi lala we needed to survive Hyderabad. Humble and always ready for help. Aisa Topper jo neend me bhi "mai first aauga" chillata hai. Great guy. Never seen someone with such passion for academic excellence. Even a 9.9 is not enough for him. Always driving towards perfection. Really hardworking. Not to mention, always helping others. Already a GOD among his batch mates for his assignments and projects. A big THUMBS UP and a bag of fortune for his journey ahead. Ayush Rai

Lala. I still remember me singing Sheela ki jawani and you dancing to it and that's how we met and became friends. The one who is a true foodie and have contacts everywhere. A real bond. The one who rejected one of the best college in the world . US jakaar bhul mat jana. Stay in touch. To our friendship . To Homies . Vedit Jain

I like how childish and competitive you are in everything and how much you work hard to be at the top (but finish 2nd in the end )! Thank you so much for your sweets on every festival! All the best in US I wish you come 1st there

The one month we spent in Norway will remain as one of the most cherished moments in my life (even though I had little work to do there!). You've helped me since the day I came to this college via LE and I thank you for that. Batch ke aadhe assignments ka credit to tujhe hi jaata hai :P Research ka bhi time kisi tarah nikal hi gaya Anish sir ko gaali dete dete. All the best for UCLA now! Maine pehle se hi kaha tha ki tujhe phaad colleges mil jaayenge tension nhi lene ka. I hope our paths cross in the future!! Adarsh Pal Singh

Vivek, you are such a diligent and hard-working person. I will always have a laugh about how inquisitive a person can be about others, but that is really special about you. The line "Kitna Padha" will always be etched in my memory. Be the same. Also, please for once, suggest me a good place to eat in Hyderabad, as of now, your taste in food according to me sucks. I hope we will be in touch. Best of luck for your MS and bright future ahead :D. Ashwin Pathak

"Hello big guy, first year me sri-lankan dasa se lekar LALA yaha se sab start hua :-) U are really very good friend and person. 4 saal same wing with lots of good memories. Aaj bhi yaad hai ki 1st year me kaise hamare dlp ke doubts tu zabardasti solve karata tha :P But sachme ur hardwork and dedication is really inspiring to all of us. Iske alawa jab bhi kabhi kuch khana ho ya shopping karna ho, u were the first person I would come to. Thanks a lot for all the help. Keep rocking aur touch me rehna !! Omkar Miniyar "

"Whenever we wanted to go out for dinner somewhere and couldn't think of any good vegetarian options, all would scream only one name: Lala. Your influence on the food history of our batch's vegetarians is unusual. I really enjoyed conversations with you regarding the study, food, and MS. You are brilliant and down to earth, I am sure you will go far ahead in your career. In the midst of confusions and insecurities regarding MS, your company provided the mental help which is hard to describe. Go enjoy in the USA. Please keep a note of all good veg restaurants, many people will need that. I will soon join you. Best of Luck !! Chaitanya Patel "

"If I had to combine excellence, passion, commitment, and hardwork and fill it in a person, and at the same time add an ever-caring attitude towards friends, I would end up creating Vivek Jain. I was lucky to have a teammate like you in every difficult subject and big projects. Your smart work along with hard work and sense of leadership made seemingly complicated projects quite easy. You are a true leader who leads by example and knows how to make a person with right skillset do the right work at the right time, and I wish you use these skills in some leadership roles like entrepreneurship, or policy-making or an entire research lab under you, etc. instead of regular software/hardware jobs. All the best for an amazing future ahead and I am sure we will keep in touch :-) . Swapnil Daga "

Hamara rajput bhai. Thanks bhai SMAI mai mere marks dekhne ke liye. Tere se baat karke kabhi bore nhi hua. Thank you, for being part of this journey. But bal vivah karna galat baat hai :P namit sawhney

Hi bhai! Your moustache was the most amusing thing for me in first year. Along with your fun Facebook photos. Don't think anybody will forget your favourite colour being asked in site and art, to which your answer was blood red. Have fun! Good luck with your research! Anubhab Sen

"Helllo khatarnak Singh khangarot, 1st year ke bhatiyaal ke room ke healthy interaction se le kar late night dlf pe Maggie ke liye jana hamesha yaad rahega. 1st sem me kaise pass hua hu tuze hi pata hai :-) Saare OJ se lekar ES me Jo tune help ki hai, kabhi nahi bhool paunga. Best Memory in College? : There have been a lot of good memories. I really enjoyed a lot whenever I performed in any music event. Have a lot of awesome memories with my friends which are not appropriate to be mentioned here.

Biggest change since first year? : I am more confident. I am no more awkward with new people. I was a shy person when I came here who didn't talk much with others easily. But here I got the best set of friends who have helped me grow to be a better person. I have my own ideologies now which I share with pride. Overall I am a better person socially.

Best thing you learnt from here? : The best thing that I learnt is that no matter what problems you might have in your life, no matter how big they are there is always a solution to it. We should not waste our time thinking what others might think about something. If you feel it is right then do it because ultimately it's our personal satisfaction that matters. Everything else is secondary.

One thing you'll miss the most? : I'll miss the time spent with my friends.

One thing you regret not doing? : I regret not interacting with more people in the college.

What next? : No idea ??

"Bhai! ye shabd sabse pele dimaag me aaya ye testimonial likhte waqt. Dekh bhai honestly tu chutiya to hai :) but tedha hai par mera hai xD. Kaafi lamba aur acha waqt kaat liya apan ne saath me and jise kehte hai na partners in crime that actually holds for us xD. It was a good good ride and future me retirement ke baad kuch plan karte hai xD. Touch me to tu rahega hi laude bas bulane pe aajaana :) PS: Ajgar se door reh acha nhi hai teri sehat ke liye wo :P Aayush Tiwari "

The true friend with the great advice. Your advice has helped me to grow in the college. Your friendship has been always from the heart and has been always welcoming to me. Your positive attitude and carefree nature has taught me to remain cool in any situation. The first DLF stroll with you was the best one and I hope this stroll be more often not only to DLF but wherever we go. The true friend I can ask for. Ritwick Gupta

"Jaadu tere jitna calm aadmi nhi hai bhai. If guard would not have stopped us we definitely would gone at the last chattan . Bahut maja aaya yaar. Itna multi talented kaise hai tu - music mein ML Rockstar + TT bond+ bodybuilder --- tham ja bhai. Also milte rehna aur parties dete rehna (cooler ki still pending hai ) . Jitni ajeeb baatein apanne mess mein kari memorable thi . Mere jhansi ke raja -- Tu shi mein JHANSA hai. Goa ka last din bhi memorable rha. The most chilled out roommate anyone could ask for. I'm sure I must have irritated you a looot in the three years that we were roommates xD I had so much fun listening to all of your stories of your adventures in Jhansi and in Kota! I still remember how we initially started bonding over music - I listen to a fair bit of Arijit Singh now, all thanks to you :D No wonder; you do have a voice like him after all, and the same hairstyle too xD It's shame I didn't push myself to learn how to play the guitar with someone as talented as you being in the same room as me. Last, but definitely not the least, discussing the *ahem* wildlife *ahem* with you always used to be the highlight of the day - no one can appreciate it the way you do xD It was great to get to know you, I'd love to stay in touch! Aur kuch ho na ho, Jhansi mei hi milne ke plan banate rahenge. All the best! Vedant Sareen

"You are among those few people in the college with whom i could talk comfortably . I always appreciated the way you corrected me whenever we sang together be it a sudden scale change or an expressionless/ emotionless singing :p :p . It was a great experience to have you as a singing partner. I learnt a lot from you during those sessions and will never forget them. I appreciate your music sense and the way in which you add your originality to songs. Keeping music apart you are a nice and friendly person. 2nd year in the college was one of the most depressing year for me and singing with you made me feel good. Those small musical sessions used to be like a small doze of energy for me. All the best for your future and most importantly always stay healthy and take care of yourself. Hope you complete your research soon and excel in whatever you wish to do in future. Avani Agrawal "

Naiduu! Our one and only CR, even though I have the initials :P You're a very open guy and not afraid to talk about anything. The deep talks we had about our future and other people, in our second year, had a big impact on me. You're made for the political world and you enjoy helping people. Party hard my friend. Vineeth Chelur

"Respect you for everything you've done for the batch and college! :D These are things that I'm sure no one would forget over the years! Also, salute for always staying calm and not losing your cool, in all the dramas that've happened in college :D Devansh Manu "

Will never forget the deep philosophical and ethical shit we talked about. Tere bina life thodi normal ho jaati. Thanks bhai. namit sawhney

The man behind the scenes of almost everything that went on in the college. I don't know how you did it, but in the end it seemed like it worked out fine. It was fun working alongside you for the past 2 years. I'll always remember the DisCos we attended ;). Mad respect for you brother. Do stay in touch! Pranav Goel

"To our Neta CR every position of responsibility name it you have held it. The most talented leader of the batch, engineering was just a mere degree for you. I am sure you'll go a great way ahead of all of us, become a bureaucrat man you deserve it. We need people like you making our policies. Although you might have a lot of grudges against me but I loved your company throughout the four years right from our first year courses to now. I wish nothing but the best for you. Vivek Jain "

Heyy! Thanks a ton for being such a great friend! I will always remember those endless discussions (rather arguments xD) that we had on random topics xD. I hope it continues :P. We as a batch owe you a big time for all that you did for us throughout these 4 years. Thanks a lot for everything ! It goes without saying that you were an awesome EW2 project partner. Completing that project would have been difficult without your support, cooperation and the time to time sessions of boosting my morale. And sorry for having burnt your hand then ;P xD ! Stay strong and be in touch :D I hope all your wishes come true. All the best for all your future endeavors !! Pooja Guhan

Hi! Thanks for all the MP things you've done! Also the first DASA friend I've had I think. Very cool. Good luck! Anubhab Sen
